25 KILLED, 700 HURT IN DETROIT RACE RIOT

TEN-DAY REVIVAL WAS SUCCESSFUL

Sunday night saw the closing of the 10-day series of services at the First Baptist church which broke many records for that church, among which were the full choir and orchestra which rendered the music.

Perhaps during no series of services in the past few years has there been better singing than was heard each evening, augmented by two pianos and several violins. Both minister and song director made mention of the fact that they had never had such renderings in former services anywhere.

As a result of the revival the spiritual uplift of the church membership has been marked, said Rev. Cooper Waters, pastor of the church. About 37 decisions were made, 34 of whom were added to the church. Sixteen of these were by baptism and 18 by letter. Three persons rededicated their lives and services.

The offerings during the service amounted to about $400, $107 of which was divided equally between the minister, Rev. Sid Martin, and singer, Joe Trussell. About $40 went to defray incidental expenses.

At the close of the services Rev. Sid Martin presented Pastor Waters and Mrs. Waters with a lovely electric toaster set, a gift from the church membership.

In speaking of the results of the meetings, Pastor Waters said he was delighted with the spiritual and physical results and expressed the thanks of the church to all who had in any way contributed to the success of the revival.

A baptismal service will be held at the church Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

Brotherhood Tonight.

The Brotherhood of the First Baptist church will meet at the church tonight, 8 o'clock, in a program that will include a talk by Pastor Cooper Waters and refreshments of ice cream and cooking during the intermission. President W. W. Fewell will preside during the program and at the business session. The subject of the pastor's talk will be, "After the Revival, What," based on the second chapter of Acts of the apostles. Pastor Waters suggested that a visiting speaker might be present along with some visiting laymen from other churches.

100 IN CAMP OF PRESBYTERIANS, HERE

The Pioneers of the Presbyterian encampment at Lake Cisco, consisting of young people from the Fort Worth and Brownwood presbyteries began classes and optional programs for the week yesterday with about 100 present.

Classes of instruction will be held during the mornings of each day this week, with the afternoon given over to rest and recreation. Each evening devotional services will be held, according to Dr. Gary L. Smith, business manager.

Rev. Clifford Williams is director in charge, being assisted by Mrs. Ruby McDurmon, religious educational director for these two presbyteries. Other members of the teaching staff are Rev. Gary Bluffus, Itasca; Rev. Marion Reynolds, Anson; Rev. J. M. Ramsey, Goppy; Rev. Kelley Neal, Eldorado; Miss Evelyn Greer, Fort Worth; and Mrs. J. W. Duran, Fort Worth.

MCCREA LAD RECOVERING.

Mr. and Mrs. Yancey McCrea, accompanied by their 7-year-old son, Lewellen McCrea, returned from Fort Worth yesterday, where the lad had been taken for treatment following an accident in which bones of the right wrist were broken. The boy is getting along nicely now, said L. H. McCrea, his uncle, today.

MISS STEVENS BURIED AT MORAN, SUNDAY

Funeral services for Miss Attie Stevens, who died at her home at 701 west Tenth street Saturday afternoon, were held at the home Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, followed by interment in Moran cemetery, with A. C. Green funeral home in charge of body and burial.

The funeral was preached by Rev. G. W. Parks, Roscoe, assisted by Rev. Cooper Waters of the First Baptist church, Cisco, of which deceased was a member. Many former students attended the service and banks of floral offerings attested to the respect in which Miss Stevens was held as a woman and as a teacher. Pall bearers were T. C. Williams, Clinton Barron, J. M. Witten, Algie Skiles, Arlin Birt and George Boyd.

Among those making the trip to Moran for the burial services were Rev. G. W. Parks, Roscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Poe and daughter, Mary Jeanette; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Barron, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Witten, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thornton and daughter, Dana; Arlin Birt, Mrs. A. C. Poe, Miss Pearl Donovan, Misses Anna Kate and Madelyn Blackburn, Mrs. R. E. Grantham, Mr. and Mrs. George Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hazelwood.

C. R. WEST BUYS FORMER PLATT HOME

The house at 500 F avenue, occupied by Mrs. B. S. Huey for the past fifteen years, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. West, who expect to make it their home. The sale was made by Connie Davis for the heirs of the late T. P. Cochrane.

The 7-room structure was built by L. B. Platt, former mayor of Cisco, who left here about 1912 and now resides in Plainview. The purchase price is understood to have been $1,200.

NEGRO WORKERS IN WAR PLANTS GROW

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The WMC says a "slow but steady increase in the use of Negro workers in war plants throughout the country," is noted, but added that there still is not adequate utilization of Negroes in some areas and some plants.

The WMC said Negroes comprised 5.8 per cent of 12,000,000 workers employed in some 18,000 plants reporting to its employment service in July, 1942, but their number, after a month-to-month increase, had risen to 6.7 per cent of 14,873,000 workers in the same plants by the end of last April.

MASSEY DISCHARGED.

R. W. (Chick) Massey, who was inducted into the army about two months ago, has received his final discharge under the 38-year-age rule for more essential war industry and has arrived in Cisco. He will be employed by one of the major oil companies.

SECOND FRONT NEEDED.

LONDON, June 22.—Germany, shocked by recent reverses, is facing a military and political crisis, but the Allies must open a second front in Europe this year if they hope for a quick victory, the Russians declared today on the occasion of the anniversary of Hitler's invasion of Russia.

BATTERED BERLIN.

STOCKHOLM, June 22.—Travelers returning from Germany report that so much of Berlin has been "blowed up" by intensive RAF bombings that "many quarters can not be recognized." Information on the damage inflicted by the intensive March bombardments has been slow in seeping out of Germany as the Nazis rigidly control travel in the affected areas.

THAT POWERFUL JEEP

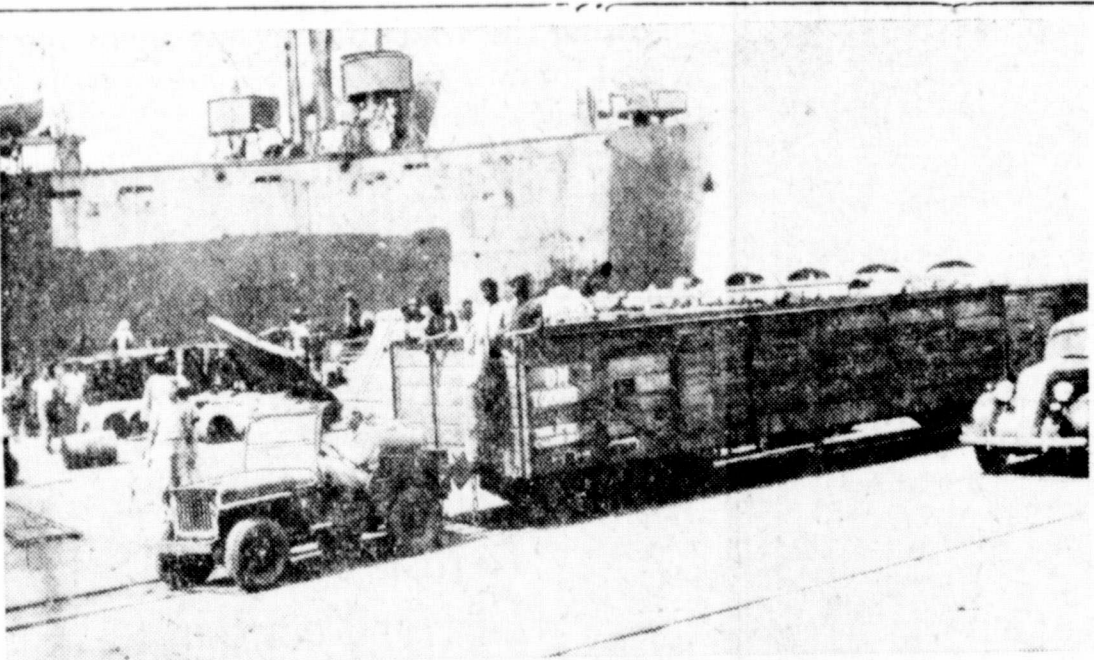

They laughed when somebody said a jeep could move this freight car, along Dakar's busy waterfront. But Sergt. Joseph S. Stein of Hollywood, Cal., hooked on and now they say a jeep does everything but climb trees.

Jeffers; Carbon & Carbide President James A. Rafferty; U. S. Rubber Chairman F. B. Davis, and Defense Plant chief Jesse H. Jones.

SPORTING FELLOW—When this group of Italian prisoners, captured in North Africa, arrived in London en route to a prison camp, one of them (left) sported a tennis racket. Despite any ideas he had, he'll be put to work at farming.

STARR CAME HERE FORTY YEARS AGO

On June 19, 1903—40 years ago—W. B. Starr, now a successful Eastland county farmer, but at that time a calendar salesman—stopped off in Cisco to dispose of his wares.

In recalling his first visit to Cisco, Mr. Starr said yesterday that Cisco had a population of about 1,200 at that time and was a very busy town. He spent several days here and was much impressed with the people and the climate. A few months later he was united in marriage to Mrs. Starr at Denver, Colo., and in December of the same year they came to Cisco and Eastland county to make their home.

Early A. and M. training, plus the ambition and energy to keep in step with constantly improving farming methods, have placed the one time calendar salesman in the forefront of Eastland county farmers.

PLANE WRECK KILLED FIVE NEAR ALBANY

ALBANY, June 22.—After several hours' night search by volunteers, wreckage of a two-engine army bombing plane, which crashed in the heavily wooded country on the Caldwell ranch, 16 miles north of here, was located Monday. Five bodies were seen in the wreckage of the big plane, which had burned after crashing.

Men fishing on a river near the scene of the crash heard the low-flying plane with motor sputtering about 10:30 Sunday night, then heard the crash and saw flames.

Rancher Guy Caldwell sent a crew of fifteen cowboys to search the scene and Monday ranch workers were cutting a path through the dense brush to the wreckage. Texas state guardsmen from Albany stood guard over the plane.

SAM RAYBURN WILL FOLLOW THE LEADER

NEW YORK, June 22.—Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas, pledging his "unfailing and unwavering" support to President Roosevelt, said last night that he would have no part in any anti-Administration moves within the Democratic party.

"We must follow the leader," he said, at a $50-a-plate fundraising dinner of the Democratic national and state committees.

Most of his speech was an attack on complaints about conditions on the home front.

U.S. ATTACKS RUHR.

LONDON, June 22.—U. S. bombers attacked the German Ruhr in daylight Tuesday in swift succession to a pulverizing RAF night raid on Krefeld. It was the first attack by U. S. bombers on this vital area so often smashed by heavy British night raiders.

More than 700 heavy bombers raided Krefeld, making the attack one of the RAF's heaviest of the year. The British lost 44 bombers. The United States bombers also attacked Belgian targets. It was stated that the U. S. attack on the Ruhr was made by a large force.

SAVING PLAN.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—"It will be one of the great tragedies of this war if, by the first of the year, some sort of compulsory saving plan, or adequate post-war credits system, is not in effect," Senator Walter E. George, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, said today.

FEDERAL TROOPS IN BATTLE REGALIA RESTORE ORDER AFTER POLICE HAD ASKED AID

DETROIT, June 22.—Federal troops in full battle regalia — armored equipment and powerful guns — restored order in Detroit today after the nation's worst civil disturbance since the First World War.

They moved into the city shortly before midnight under direct orders from President Roosevelt to quell rioting bands of Negro and white mobsters whose 24-hour reign of terror resulted in the death of 25 persons, injury to nearly 700 others and wanton destruction of property.

The presidential orders, issued at the request of Gov. Harry F. Kelly, whose declaration of a state of emergency was ignored by the rioters, commanded all persons engaged in "unlawful and insurrectionary proceedings" to disperse and return to their homes at once.

Almost simultaneously Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson announced at Washington that he had directed Maj.-Gen. Henry S. Aurnand, commanding the Sixth Service Command at Chicago, to use troops to suppress the disturbances.

But even before the orders of Mr. Roosevelt and Stimson were made public 1100 federal troops swung up Woodward Avenue — Detroit's main thoroughfare—and into debris-littered "Paradise Valley"—the city's shabby Negro quarters.

With fixed bayonets the soldiers marched slowly behind armored cars whose machine guns were trained upon second story windows from which there had been sniping earlier in the evening. Within a few minutes streets were cleared and peace was restored. However, the streets still bore evidence of the rioting—overtaken and demolished cars and trucks, looted shops, broken glass and bloody remnants of clothing scattered almost everywhere.

Brig.-Gen. William E. Guthrie, in charge of federal troops here, said 1200 additional soldiers were being held in reserve at Fort Wayne and Selfridge Field, Mich. Detroit's 3500 weary city police also were to be joined today by 1500 state troopers from as far north as the upper peninsula of Michigan and by Michigan guardsmen mobilized by the governor.

The death toll reached 25—22 Negroes and three white—shortly before midnight with 14 of the victims reportedly slain by police. Dr. Austin Z. Howard, chief surgeon at receiving hospital, which alone treated more than 500 of the injured, described the rioting as the "worst calamity" in Detroit's history.

Biggest fight of the riot saw 200 state and local police dislodge Negroes who had been sniping at them with shotguns and revolvers from upper windows of a downtown apartment building. Police returned the gunfire and tossed dozens of tear gas bombs through the windows. The battle raged for two and a half hours before the Negroes surrendered. When the smoke and tear gas fumes had cleared two Negroes were found dead and one policeman was injured seriously.

The fighting began Sunday night on the bridge to Belle Isle Park—an island off the east side of the city—with a fist fight between a Negro and a white man. The rioting continued until it reached full battle proportions.

PUBLIC HOPES COAL STRIKE IS NEAR END

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Solid Fuels Administrator Ickes and United Mine Workers President Lewis confer again today, presumably to lay the groundwork for discussion of government operation of struck coal mines for the duration of the war. There are several reasons for believing the two men are near an understanding.

Virtually all bituminous and anthracite miners stayed home from work for the second day. Their strike already has affected war production, officials of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation said in announcing that some of their blast furnaces would be shut down today because of lack of coal.

Police still were attempting to learn the reason for the abnormally large number of Negroes at Belle Isle when the fighting started Sunday.

It was estimated that there were nearly 90,000 Negroes and only 10,000 whites in the park that day. While many Negroes normally use the park, police said the ratio appeared to be "somewhat out of proportion."

RUSSIA.

It is hard for many Americans, even yet, to believe that this nation's new friendship with Russia is real. There is a tendency to regard it as merely an opportunist policy, likely to end when the present emergency is over and neither country needs the other's help any longer.

But it is probably unwise to hold this view. From all indications there is not much left in Russia of the fierce bolshevism and the animus against all foreigners that prevailed in Russia for many years.

There is still a dictatorship of one man, in the name of the Russian "proletariat," and the national system of life and work is communistic rather than democratic.

But the tightness of centralized control has relaxed considerably and as the war proceeds Russia cooperates more and more freely with the Allied nations. Not since the Russian revolution have Soviet relations with this country been so close as they are now.

Possibly it was no accident or idle gesture that the Russian governmental system has been called the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. Self-government of the Russian people under this formula might come sooner than has seemed possible. And if they continue avoiding offensive propaganda, Americans can get along with them well enough.

RETRIBUTION.

As it was said of old, "the wages of sin is death." It is exemplified today on many a battle front, in many a ruined home, and many a ruined nation.

A pregnant example is described in a recent news report from Switzerland, telling of the execution of German spies. As the Allied forces press inland with their ever-growing power, and the peril of invasion draws nearer, the German people who were described as in a half state of "war nerves."

Nazi newspapers tell of the heavy damage caused by the Allied bombing of the fugitive Germans leaving the cities for the open country of the desert, "raiding" invented by the Germans themselves, and now turned against them, of doubt and fear steadily growing of farmers having to open their homes to the city fugitives and presenting it, of city people in their new rural surroundings suffering from lack of street cars, and movies and bath rooms, and so on.

All these troubles, and many more which they have still to face, rise up and overwhelm them because they made themselves a voluntary part of the vast conspiracy to rob and enslave Europe, with the rest of the world to follow in due time. And it is reassuring to see them discovering at last, through bitter experience, that it cannot be done. With that lesson learned, first by the Germans and then by the Japanese, there is hope of a peaceful and civilized world.

An old proverb says, "Put a chain around the neck of a slave and the other end fastens itself around your own." In this old saw is summed up the rise and fall of Nazism.

MARTYR.

One more martyr to freedom is Georges Mandel, the most vigorous of France's pre-war leaders, who has died at 58 in a German prison camp.

Mandel learned from his old master, Clemenceau, who led France to victory in the first world war, that two things are necessary to win a war: to prepare and to fight. As Minister of Colonies under the blow-hot, blow-cold Daladier, he opposed surrendering to Hitler at Munich, and later worked night and day to invigorate the French war effort.

Add to this record his Jewish blood, and it is not surprising that he was one man whom the Germans wanted in their hands.

CLEAN UP.

It is to be hoped that even in a Nazi prison camp the news of the African triumph trickled in, and that he saw the light of the coming better day for France.

REHABILITATION.

It seems absurd for the Mexican government to intercede for those lowdown "foot soldiers" in Los Angeles, and ask the U. S. government to pay them damages when they have been assaulted by indignant American sailors. Many recent American citizens have suffered from such trash.

But there is no use getting hot about it. Uncle Sam has often done the same sort of thing when his own citizens have been abused by Mexicans, and has collected damages therefor. Border troubles are always liable to happen, even between nations that are on the whole good neighbors. Where unlawful attacks have been made on either side, it is reasonable to ask for reparation to satisfy the legal requirements if for no other reason.

But in doing this, it would be a blessing if the government at Washington would take measures to sweep that rotten gang of aliens back across the border, with a polite request for the Mexican government to keep them there. And then for our government to prod local American authorities at Los Angeles to hang down hard on our criminals, dope fiends and crackpots in that area.

THE DOCTOR.

A few years ago the dreams of men who proposed four-hundred-mile-an-hour combat airplanes which functioned efficiently at 40,000 feet, would have been scoffed at as impossible. Even if the planes devised were capable of such performance, what of the human element? It was thought no person could stand the strain. No person could, then. But medical science managed to keep abreast of aircraft development. Planes and men fight today in the stratosphere at ear-splitting speeds. They fight at altitudes where the air is so rare exposure means death in a matter of seconds.

It was recently pointed out in the magazine Hygeia that "An airman—this applies to men on the ground staff as much as to flying crew—who is obviously suffering from strain finds in the medical officer a personal friend anxious to assist him in every respect. The doctor usually knows most of the flying men of his squadron by name. By studying their records, documents and flying logs, he can always keep himself informed of their progress."

It is no idle assertion that modern airpower is dependent upon modern medicine.

(From Files of the Cisco Roundup)

(From Files of Cisco Roundup) For the purpose of obtaining endorsement of the state engineer of waterways upon the proposed new water system of Cisco, requiring a dam on Little Sandy creek for impounding purposes, W. B. Statham, city clerk, went to Austin this week to confer with the state's high authority on water works. Upon approval of the state engineer Cisco can proceed with plans for the big dam and pipe line. The testing bit with which rock foundation at the proposed damsite will be sounded is expected to arrive here in the near future and when the final selection of a damsite is made by local representatives of the Dallas engineering firm, plans for the system will be submitted to the city commission. City officials hope, said Mayor J. M. Williamson, that the proposition will be under way to such an extent that the contract can be let the early part of February.

Albert H. Gary, the steel master who refused to recognize the union organization of the steel workers; John Ringling, famous through his circuses, prominent bankers of New York and capitalists of Oklahoma and Texas, are in a party that is so excited to arrive in Cisco the latter part of this week for the purpose of investigating properties in which they are interested, according to W. E. Morris, president of chamber of commerce. Although it is not definitely known what the purpose of the proposed visit is, it is rumored the party is interested in an industrial movement here that has developed during the past year. The party is expected to arrive Thursday or Friday, and will remain several days.

One of the most interesting events of the season was the banquet given Friday evening by the Young Men's class of the Methodist Sunday school, with Mrs. P. Pettit as teacher. Each member had the privilege of escorting a young lady. The table decorations of mistletoe were especially pleasing. Miss Geo. Winston, George Daniels, Neal Turner, F. E. Aycock and Pettit served the following menu: Turkey, dressing, cranberries, candied yams, English peas, creamed potatoes, olives, pickles, pumpkin pie and coffee. The Rev. Lewis Stuckey acted as toastmaster; C. H. Dutch,

It is reported that an amicable agreement is improbable since the cafe proprietors claim they cannot meet the increased demands. The cafes, it is said, have been operating successfully with unorganized help.

Z. Edworthy, A. G. Walker and Mrs. Pettit responded to the toasts. Miss Hayes gave two very entertaining readings. A beautiful hand painted register contained the names of those present. MISS JOYCE RAINBOLT HONOREE AT SUPPER.
A buffet supper was given by the American Legion auxiliary Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Laila Smart, honoring Miss Joyce Rainbolt of the women's army auxiliary corps, Mitchell Field, New York, who is spending a furlough in Cisco with her mother, Mrs. Edith Rainbolt.

The house was festive with decorations of cut flowers which were placed in artistic arrangement.

The business session, at which Mrs. H. N. Lyle presided, preceded the supper. The meeting was called to order and the pledge of allegiance to the flag was made. Prayer by Mrs. A. D. Estes, chairman, followed. Reports were given by various chairmen in which was mentioned work that is being done by members of the auxiliary for the local Red Cross unit, for veterans hospitals and families of veterans.

After the business meeting, guests were invited into the dining room for the supper which was served buffet style, from the dining table. Guests were seated at quartet tables while eating. Miss Rainbolt was presented in a peppy talk concerning the daily routine of the WAACS. She made her hearers understand she was not passing out military secrets. The talk was well received.

Those present were Miss Rainbolt, Mrs. Edith Rainbolt, Mrs. A. D. Estes, Mrs. H. N. Lyle, Mrs. Frank Bond, Mrs. Charles Roberts, Mrs. Don McEachern, Mrs. James Haynie and daughter, Pattie Neil, Mrs. Paul Poe and daughter, Mary Jeanette, Mrs. W. R. Hueslin, Mrs. E. T. SELF-EMPLOYED WORKERS NOT ELIGIBLE
Owners and part owners of unincorporated businesses — the self-employed workers — cannot build up credits for old-age and survivors benefits, under the present social security act by reporting their "wages" and paying social security taxes on them, says W. O. King, manager of the social security board's Abilene field office.

Information received by the social security board indicates that many business men are reporting wages for themselves along with the wages of their employees, under the mistaken impression that they can thus establish benefit rights in the event of their death or retirement in old age, continued Mr. King.

The benefits under the social security act are paid only to individuals, or their survivors, who are working in employment for others. As employment is defined under the act, the self-employed worker is excluded.

Any taxes that have been paid by such individuals can, under certain conditions, be refunded by the bureau of internal revenue. Information regarding these refunds should be requested of the collector of internal revenue to whom the tax reports are made. Further information regarding the benefits program can be had by consulting the nearest social security board field office.

How to Glass Strawberries

WHILE strawberries are in season you'll want to put up several jars for use next winter. Clip this tested recipe—it tells you how to substitute syrup for half the amount of sugar ordinarily required. Strawberries put up this way are as good in color, appearance and flavor as those done entirely with sugar. Empty coffee jars are ideal containers for glassing strawberries, as shown above. Use them with the "thrifty lid" closure, a war-time device which may be obtained through your grocer or coffee supplier.

Select ripe, firm strawberries in good condition. Wash, stem and measure. For each quart of berries allow 1-2 cup of granulated sugar and 1-2 cup glassed light syrup. Place the berries in layers in a saucepan with the syrup and sugar. Let stand 2 hours, then bring to a boil and boil gently for 3 minutes. Cover and let stand overnight. In the morning bring berries slowly to boiling and pack hot in clean, hot coffee jars, filling to within one-half inch of top. Seal jars with thrifty lid and screw cap. Process in hot water bath for 10 minutes, making sure that the water is boiling throughout the processing period. Remove and cool right side up. Screw caps may be removed and used again after 24 hours since the thrifty lids remain tightly in place by automatic vacuum seal.

Is Your REFRIGERATOR RELAXING?

Your Electric Refrigerator must last for the duration. Help it to do the best job possible by giving it a little care. You'll save serious trouble later and you'll get much better all-around performance.

Here's How to Keep It Running!

- Defrost according to manufacturer's instructions. Empty the drip water immediately.
- Wash the inside of your refrigerator with baking soda and water each time the refrigerator is defrosted. Don't forget the freezer—that's where food odors collect.
- Avoid overloading the refrigerator with food—it stops necessary air circulation.
- Be sure the cold control is set as it should be to give you the proper food compartment temperature.
- If you have an open type mechanism in your refrigerator, it will need periodic oiling and adjusting. Have a reliable serviceman do this and ask him about how often it should be repeated. Hermetically-sealed units do not require oiling or adjusting. MOST mechanisms should have occasional cleaning. Consult your serviceman.

25 KILLED, 700 HURT IN DETROIT RACE RIOT

TEN-DAY REVIVAL WAS SUCCESSFUL

Sunday night saw the closing of the ten-day series of services at the First Baptist church which spoke many records for that church, among which were the full choir and orchestra which accompanied the music.

Perhaps during no series of services in the past few years has there been better singing than has been heard each evening, augmented by two pianos and several violins. Both minister and song director made mention of the fact that they had never had such response in former services anywhere.

As a result of the revival the church membership has been marked, said Rev. Cooper Waters, pastor of the church. About 37 decisions were made, 34 of whom were added to the church. Sixteen of these were by baptism and 18 by other means. Three persons rededicated themselves to God.

The offerings during the service amounted to about $400, 271 of which was divided equally between the minister, Rev. Sid Latta, and singer, Joe Trussell. About $49 went to defray incidental expenses.

At the close of the services Rev. Sid Martin presented Pastor Waters and Mrs. Waters with a new electric toaster set, a gift from the church membership.

In speaking of the results of the meetings, Pastor Waters said he was delighted with the spiritual and physical results and expressed the thanks of the church to all who had in any way contributed to the success of the revival.

A formal service will be held at the church Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

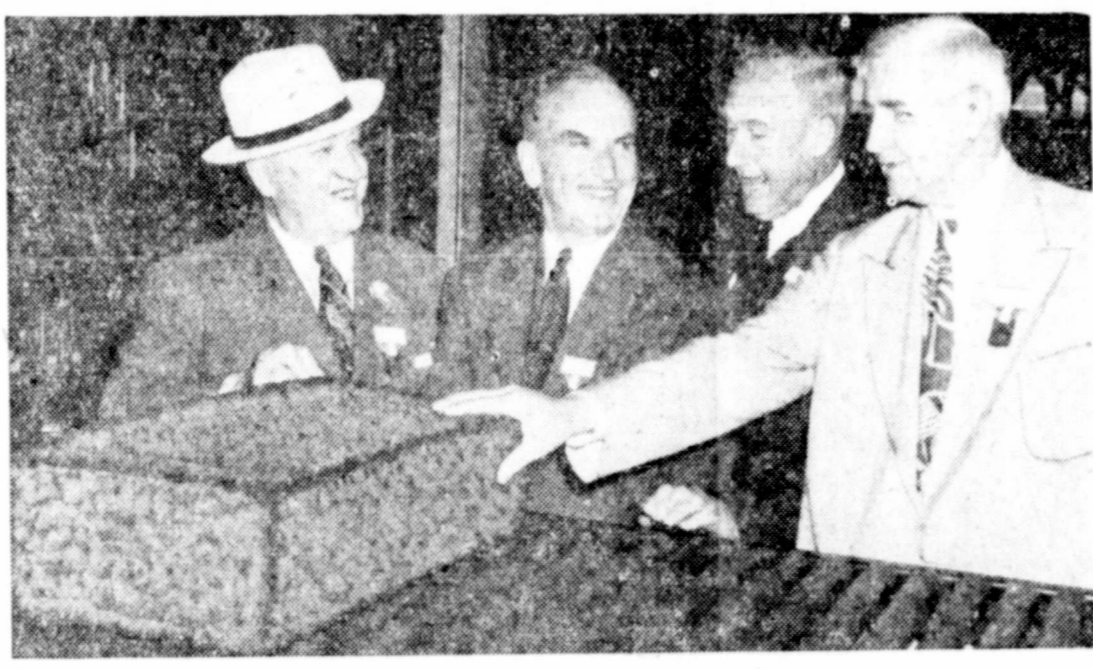

MISS STEVENS BURIED AT MORAN, SUNDAY

Funeral services for Miss Attie Stevens, who died at her home at 761 west Tenth street Saturday afternoon, were held at the home Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, followed by interment in Moran cemetery, with A. C. Green, funeral home in charge of body and burial.

The funeral was preached by Rev. G. W. Parks of Roseow, assisted by Rev. Cooper Waters of the First Baptist church, Cisco, of which deceased was a member.

Many former students attended the service, and banks of floral offerings attested to the respect in which Miss Stevens was held as a woman and as a teacher. Pall bearers were T. C. Williams, Clinton Barron, J. M. Witten, Algie Skiles, Arlin Bunt and George Boyd.

Among those making the trip to Moran for the funeral services were Rev. G. W. Parks, Roseow, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Poe and daughter, Mary Jeanette, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Barron, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Witten, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thornton and daughter, Dana; Arlin Bunt, Mrs. A. C. Poe, Miss Pearl Donoway, Misses Anna Kate and Madelyn Blackburn, Mrs. R. E. STARR CAME HERE FORTY YEARS AGO

On June 19, 1903—40 years ago—W. B. Starr, now a successful Eastland county farmer, but at that time a calendar salesman—stopped off in Cisco to dispose of his wares.

In recalling his first visit to Cisco, Mr. Starr said yesterday that Cisco had a population of about 1,200 at that time and was a very busy town. He spent several days here and was much impressed with the people and the climate.

A few months later he was united in marriage to Mrs. Starr at Denver, Colo., and in December of the same year they came to Cisco and Eastland county to make their home.

Early A. and M. training, plus the ambition and energy to keep in step with constantly improving farming methods, have placed the one time calendar salesman in the forefront of Eastland county farmers.

FEDERAL TROOPS IN BATTLE REGALIA RESTORE ORDER AFTER POLICE HAD ASKED AID

DETROIT, June 22.—Federal troops in full battle regalia—armored equipment and powerful guns—restored order in Detroit today after the nation's worst civil disturbance since the First World War.

They moved into the city shortly before midnight under direct orders from President Roosevelt to quell rioting bands of Negro and white mobsters whose 24-hour reign of terror resulted in the death of 25 persons, injury to nearly 700 others and wanton destruction of property.

The presidential orders, issued at the request of Gov. Harry F. Kelly, whose declaration of a state of emergency was ignored by the rioters, commanded all persons engaged in "unlawful and insurrectionary proceedings" to disperse and return to their homes at once.

Almost simultaneously Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, announced at Washington that he had directed Maj.-Gen. Henry S. Aurnand, commanding the Sixth Service Command at Chicago, to use troops to suppress the disturbances.

SPORTING FELLOW—When this group of Italian prisoners, captured in North Africa, arrived in London en route to a prison camp, one of them (left) sported a tennis racket. Despite any ideas he had, he'll be put to work at farming.

PLANE WRECK KILLED FIVE NEAR ALBANY

ALBANY, June 22.—After several hours' night search by volunteers, wreckage of a two-engine army bombing plane, which crashed in the heavily wooded country on the Caldwell ranch, 16 miles north of here, was located Monday. Five bodies were seen in the wreckage of the big plane, which had burned after crashing.

Men fishing on a river near the scene of the crash heard the low-flying plane with motor sputtering about 10:30 Sunday night, then heard the crash and saw flames.

Rancher Guy Caldwell sent a crew of fifteen cowboys to search the scene and Monday ranch workers were cutting a path through the dense brush to the wreckage. Texas state guardsmen from Albany stood guard over the plane.

PUBLIC HOPES COAL STRIKE IS NEAR END

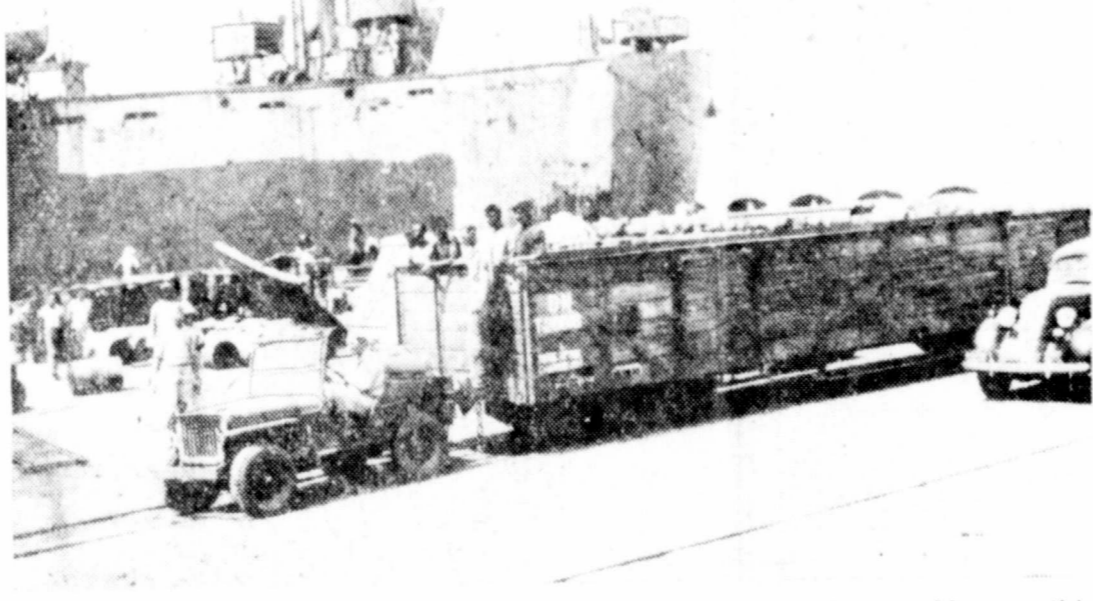

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Solid Fuels Administrator Ickes and United Mine Workers President Lewis conier again today, presumably to lay the groundwork for discussion of government operation of struck coal mines for the duration of the war. There are several reasons for believing the two men are near an understanding.

Virtually all bituminous and anthracite miners stayed home from work for the second day. Their strike already has affected war production, officials of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation said in announcing that some of their blast furnaces would be shut down today because of lack of coal.

C. R. WEST BUYS FORMER PLATT HOME

The house at 500 F avenue, occupied by Mrs. B. S. Huey for the past fifteen years, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. West, who expect to make it their home. The sale was made by Connie Davis for the heirs of the late T. P. Cochrane.

The 7-room structure was built by L. B. Platt, former mayor of Cisco, who left here about 1912 and now resides in Plainview. The purchase price is understood to have been $1,200.

SAM RAYBURN WILL FOLLOW THE LEADER

NEW YORK, June 22.—Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas, pledging his "unfailing and unwavering" support to President Roosevelt, said last night that he would have no part in any anti-administration moves within the Democratic party.

"We must follow the leader," he said, at a $50-a-plate fundraising dinner of the Democratic national and state committees.

Most of his speech was an attack on complaints about conditions on the home front.

JOHN B. LEDBETTER GETS A COMMISSION

From Ft. Benning, Ga., comes information that John B. Ledbetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ledbetter of Scranton, Eastland county, has been commissioned a second lieutenant upon completion of the officer candidate course at the Ft. Benning infantry school.

Lieut. Ledbetter enlisted in the army March 19, 1941, and served with the army air corps before entering the officer candidate school three months ago. He held the rank of sergeant before being commissioned.

The men who attended the officer candidate schools are the best privates, corporals and sergeants from the entire army, selected by their superiors for outstanding intelligence and qualities of leadership. During the course even the mildly incapable are weeded out, so that the men who graduate with commissions are America's finest soldiers, fully qualified to be leaders in our new army.

GROUP OF 12 FROM ABILENE ENJOY SWIM

A group of twelve persons from the First Presbyterian church at Abilene, here to attend the Presbyterian encampment at Lake Cisco, visited the swimming pool at the lake Monday and were well pleased with the amusement company's facilities for entertainment.

BATTERED BERLIN.

STOCKHOLM, June 22.—Travelers returning from Germany report that so much of Berlin has been "blowed up" by intensive RAF bombings that "many quarters can not be recognized." Information on the damage inflicted by the intensive March bombardments has been slow in seeping out of Germany as the Nazis rigidly control travel in the affected areas.

US. ATTACKS RUHR.

LONDON, June 22.—U. S. bombers attacked the German Ruhr in daylight Tuesday in swift succession to a pulverizing RAF night raid on Krefeld. It was the first attack by U. S. bombers on this vital area so often smashed by heavy British night raiders. More than 700 heavy bombers raided Krefeld, making the attack one of the RAF's heaviest of the year. The British lost 44 bombers. The United States bombers also attacked Belgian targets. It was stated that the U. S. attack on the Ruhr was made by a large force.

MASSEY DISCHARGED.

THIS IS DAIRY MONTH

No inspiring bands and no glamour of uniforms and decorations cheer these unsung heroes of World War II. With patriotic determination dairymen toil long hours under serious handicaps of labor and material shortages to produce food so vital to the winning of the war.

Dairy foods are of front-rank importance in keeping fighters and workers fit, says the National Dairy Council. Food production is the nation's most critical problem. Fighters on the farm are as essential to the war effort as those in munition plants or on the firing line.
