ITALY JOCKEYS FOR BEST WAY OUT OF WAR

Cisco Board of Health Takes Lead in Plans To Remove Disease Threats

At last night's session of the city commission, it was unanimously agreed that the cleanup campaign already in progress be placed under the direction of the Cisco Board of Health and Dr. W. P. Lee, city health officer—city officials cooperate with the Board in any manner desired.

Dr. Lee was present at the meeting, as were Dr. F. E. Clark and Dr. D. Ball, representatives of the board of health. City officials present were Mayor Edward Lee, Commissioners J. P. Collins, A. D. Anderson, H. L. Drumwright, George Boyd and City Secretary George W. Downie.

Open discussion of local sanitary conditions revealed that while Cisco has so far been entirely free of infantile paralysis and other filth diseases, nevertheless the business and residential districts are not as clean as they should be if the city hopes to remain in the good health division.

In short, it was the consensus of opinion that portions of the business area and many of the alleys in the residential part of the city are potential breeding places for flies and other disease agencies, and should be cleaned and purified before we find ourselves in the thick of some disastrous epidemic.

Dr. Clark, chairman of the Board of Health, and Dr. Lee, city health officer, were expected to begin a close survey of the business district today.

For the benefit of those who do not know, it may be well to state that the Board of Health is all-powerful when it comes to enforcing its decisions in matters having to do with the public health.

Cisco has always been known as a city of the cleaner, brighter class and as healthy as any spot on earth. As Mayor Edward Lee said this morning: "Let's keep it that way."

C. M. NEVILL BROUGHT FINE LION PROGRAM

An entertaining and very interesting program was brought to the Lions club luncheon today by C. M. Nevill, local manager of the Lane Star Gas company, consisting of piano selections by Melvin Sandler and remarks by Mr. Nevill on the importance of beginning discussions on postwar needs for Cisco. A talk by A. L. Osburn, visiting here from defense work in Ohio, commended the suggestion of Mr. Nevill and also related some incidents regarding his work in Ohio.

T. J. McCarty, Rotarian from Abilene, and the guest of Lion N. C. Huston, was recognized but declined to speak on account of lack of time.

Lion Nevill called attention to the program by Melvin Sandler, saying that one of the numbers played was young Sandler's own composition, mentioning the further fact that Sandler would leave in September for a military school at Gainesville, Ga.

In supplying a part of his own program, Nevill spoke of the need for post-war planning for Cisco, saying that Dallas as a village, 50 years ago, began planning how it might bring industries to that area, with the result that since that time it has become the leading industrial and commercial center of the southwest.

Mr. Nevill spoke of the importance of the training school to the commercial life of Cisco, emphasizing that with the loss of this school at the end of the war, Cisco might find hard sledding. His point was that Lions should begin planning to find a substitute for the loss of this important payroll.

Mr. Osburn, a former photographer of Cisco, who is now in the procurement department of the air service command at Dayton, O., commended the suggestion of Nevill, saying the eyes of the world were now on Texas, and that his observation was that when men of the north and east lived in Texas one year, they became sold on Texas. So he thought it should be only natural to expect capital to come to Texas following the war period. We should plan to cash in on this flow of capital, he added.

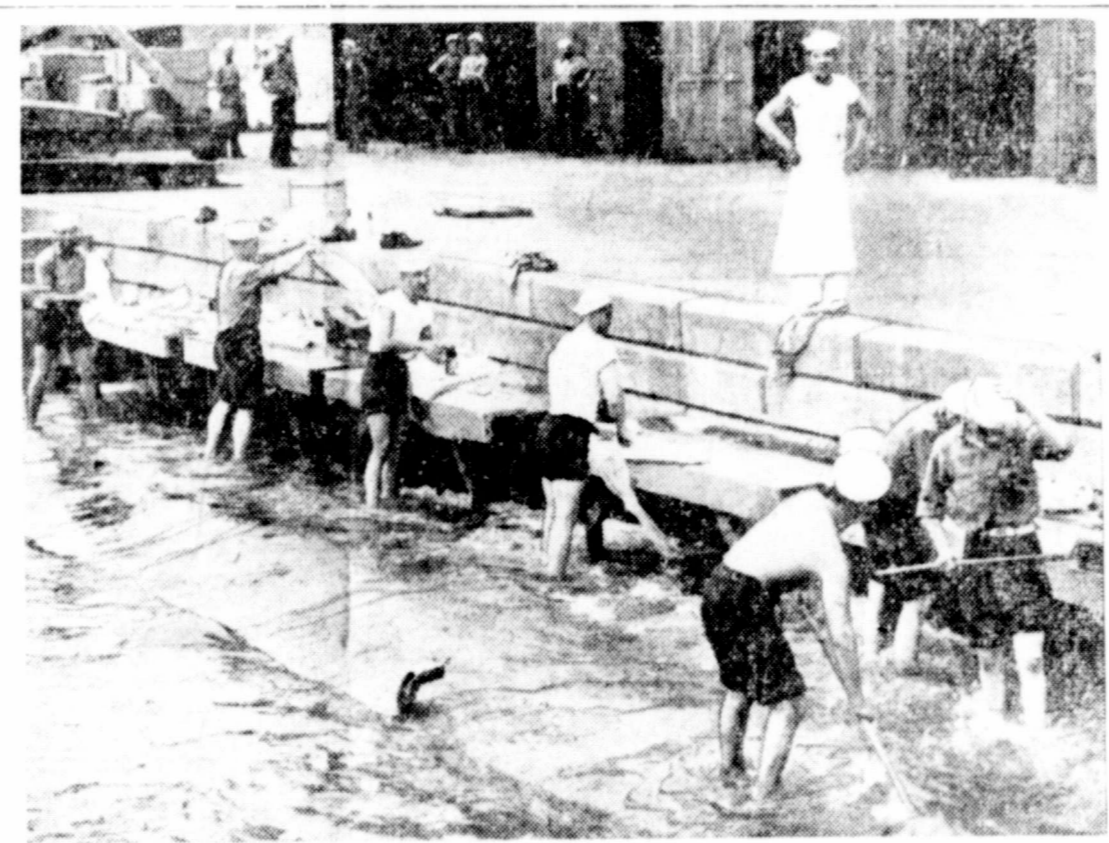

Lion L. W. Seymour, reporting on the results of his program last week when questionnaires from Lion members predicted that Italy would only last a few months, said he had gotten action quicker than he thought; that Mussolini, hearing of this prediction, felt that there was little need of prolonging the inevitable, so he resigned.

FORT WORTH AND ABILENE MEN AT LAKE

Four Frigidaire Corporation employees are spending a brief vacation at Lake Cisco and are enjoying the fishing and swimming provided at the local resort.

Yesterday's fishing was excellent, said J. E. Hays, local West Texas Utilities Frigidaire representative, two fine channel catfish being secured along with many smaller ones. One of the catfish weighed nine pounds and the other seven pounds.

The visitors include Herb McGurk and Sam Hagy from Ft. Worth and T. E. Kuykendall and T. A. Shahan from the West Texas Utilities offices at Abilene. Mr. McGurk is Ft. Worth district manager for Frigidaire.

LAKESIDE LAUNDRY, UNINC. — When laundry difficulties developed at Naval Armory Chicago, washboards were set up on platform built at edge of Lake Michigan. Here, bob stand ankle deep in lake while they do their own washing.

SKY FOR ROOF—Men of U. S. armed forces gather amid ruins of St. Mary-le-Bow, Cheapside, London, for lunch-hour services. Axis raiders smashed roof, so clear sky is only ceiling church can boast. St. Paul's Cathedral is framed through window. Only real cockneys are those born within sound of church's bells.

FIRST BAPTIST BARKERLEY MRS. HOFFMAN BROTHERHOOD SOLDIERS AT DIED EARLY MET AT LAKE LAKE FRIDAY THIS MORNING

Members of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist church had their wives as guests at their out-door meeting at Lake Cisco last night when water-melons were served as the refreshments, following games of croquet and washer and horseshoe pitching. After the refreshments, games were played and mental contests given.

O. L. Mason and M. F. Underwood were members of the committee which planned the program, in conjunction with A. E. McNeely, refreshment chairman for the brotherhood.

Rev. Cooper Waters led the prayer at the opening of the program, over which W. W. Fowell presided as president of the organization.

Those present at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fowell, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Walker and Willie Frank Walker, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wisdom, Mr. and Mrs. Algie Skiles, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. LaRoque, Marjorie Warren, Rev. and Mrs. Cooper Waters, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Poe, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hurst and Tommy Hurst, C. N. Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shepard, O. L. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McNeely and Bobby Jo McNeely.

The Lake Cisco Amusement company swimming pool is now open for swimming again after being subjected to a thorough cleaning and refilling with clear, clean running water, according to Monroe Sweeney, manager.

The fact that the pool never becomes stagnant, since water runs through it 24 hours each day, is another reason for the advance in price from 25 cents to 50 cents per adult swim ticket, said Mr. Sweeney. But this advance only applies to Saturday nights, Sundays and holidays, he said. All other days retain the original price of 25 and 15 cents, he said.

A letter from Wm. C. Gassman, executive officer of light cavalry at Camp Barkerley, to Mr. Sweeney, in which reservations were made for his soldiers for Friday night, July 30, shows how this recreational center is valued by army camps in this sector of the state. Soldiers will not have any beer, it was stated.

HIGHEST IN YEARS.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The United States Public Health Service reported today that the incidence of infantile paralysis had reached epidemic proportions in several southwestern states and that cumulative figures for the entire nation during the first six and a half months of the year were the highest in 12 years.

Mrs. Annabelle Hoffman, 58, died at 1 o'clock this morning at a local hospital, where she had been taken late yesterday for treatment. Her home was at 711 W. Seventh street.

Deceased was born in Mannington, W. Va., October 5, 1884, the daughter of a Methodist minister, Rev. Mr. Charlton. She is survived by a brother, J. D. Charlton, Mannington, W. Va., and two sisters—Miss Mayne Charlton, Mannington, and Mrs. W. C. Byrd, Fairview, W. Va.; also a nephew, Rev. William Byrd, who is attending school in Chicago. He is now enroute to Cisco and the body, which will be shipped to Fairmount, W. Va., for burial beside the late husband, is at the Green funeral home awaiting the arrival of the nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman first lived in Cisco in 1919, but after several years here his business, that of oil well driller, called him to other sections of the country. He died at Vandalia, Ill., in 1941, and soon thereafter the widow returned to Cisco for permanent residence.

Deceased was considered a good business woman and was closely associated in business with her husband during his life. Mr. Hoffman was probably one of the most widely known oil well drillers in the United States and was well known to the oil fraternity in Texas.

PEOPLE OF MILAN IN REVOLT AND DEMAND PEACE AS MANY WORKERS QUIT THEIR JOBS

Unofficial indications that Italy may be on the way out of the war persisted today.

Reports circulated that tentative feints looking toward Italian peace already had been made in Vatican City.

Archbishop Francis J. Spellman of New York, often mentioned as a possible middle man between Italy and the Allies, was hurrying north from South Africa.

Berlin dispatches to Stockholm said the overthrow of Benito Mussolini had shaken the German people more than any other single development of the war, and the Nazis now appeared to be figuring on the loss of their Axis partner.

An NBC broadcast from Switzerland quoted Radio Rome as denying foreign reports that the new Italian government had approached the Allies with a view to obtaining an armistice. Rome Radio also denied any negotiations to that end.

Reports from Marseilles said today that Virginio Gayda, ousted editor of Rome's Giornale d'Italia and long known as former Premier Mussolini's "mouthpiece," had committed suicide. Only yesterday, it was reported that Giulio Morgagni, president of the official Italian Stefani Agency, also had committed suicide.

Reports received at the Italian frontier today said an insurrection among the people, verging on revolution, had broken out at Milan. Mobs swept through the streets, despite a state of siege proclaimed by the military authorities, shouting "Liberty" and "We want peace," the report said. Shots were fired. The situation was described as extremely grave. All workers were reported to have left their jobs.

In Washington authoritative sources said that the Allies will reject any Italian proposal for peace which would enable Italy to retire quietly into neutrality.

There were reasons to believe that Allied powers have designated Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as the individual with whom Italy must deal and that his terms will be a flat demand for unconditional surrender.

Germany, too, was having her troubles. Hamburg, the Reich's second city and greatest port, last night underwent its sixth air raid in 72 hours. The Royal Air Force doused Hamburg with another 2000 or so tons of bombs in a campaign manifestly aimed at wiping it off the map.

Target on which the most concentrated air offensive in history was focused Hamburg was hit again in "very great strength" in a raid described officially as "most concentrated and effective." The RAF lost 18 bombers in attacking the port and subsidiary objectives in the Ruhr.

Flames leaped higher than after Saturday's record assault, the British, American, Canadian and Australian pilots who participated in the Hamburg attack reported. Some said they needed respirators to fly through the 20,000-foot columns of smoke rising from the city's 25 miles of quays, hundreds of miles of docks and great industrial plants.

LOAN SHARK LAW IN EFFECT AUG. 11

FT. WORTH, July 28.—A new and effective weapon to fight exorbitant interest rates of Texas loan sharks will be loaded with legal ammunition Aug. 11, when the new state law goes into effect giving prosecuting attorneys the right to start injunction proceedings against the profiteers.

The new law, which will be strictly enforced in Tarrant county, according to Dist. Atty. Marvin Brown, Jr., puts teeth into old legislation which still exists.

"Formerly it had to be proved that usurious interest was actually collected before bringing action against illegal lenders of money," he said. "Now, all that has to be proved is that the illegal interest has been contracted for."

U. S. BUYS BEER.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Brewers today were under orders to set aside all 3.2 per cent beer in stock for government purchases for the armed forces. The order was issued by the war food administration which also directed brewers to use 15 per cent of their grain for the mild brew. Both moves, WFA said, are necessary to insure continuous supplies of 3.2 beer for the military.

HIGHEST GROSS INCOME.

BARTLESVILLE, July 28.—Phillips Petroleum company and subsidiaries reported today net profit of $7,345,315 for the six months ended June 30, or $1.62 a common share, compared with $6,731,420, or $1.51 a common share, for the like 1942 period. Gross income was at the highest level in company history due principally to larger sales of products.

GEO. B. HULLYANKS TAKE 6 LEAD COMPANY MORE CITIES IN RIFLE FIRE IN N. SICILY

Mr. George B. Hull, route four, Cisco, just received a letter from Pfc. George B. Hull, 2nd Marine Division, California, of which he is very proud and which will be of interest to all friends and acquaintances of the Eastland sportsman. A portion of the letter reads:

"I was in camp after four days of rifle range. Saturday we had practice shooting, but Sunday we shot for records. Each man had 45 shots—five while standing, five kneeling and five sitting down, then 10 shots rapid fire.

"There were 174—the highest high company—just lacked four shots in being classed expert. I made the sharpshooters' mark so guess that isn't too far off."

"I also made seven bull's eye marks out of 10 at 200 yards."

Soldier's man: One who married a smart woman and wasn't smart to accept her advice.

HE'S IN—Terming himself a Jeffersonian Republican, D. Tallmadge Bowers of Abilene, Ga., announced his candidacy for the 1944 Republican nomination for President. He is the first definitely to enter lists.

NORTH AFRICA, July 28.—American troops of the 7th Army, sweeping eastward toward the top of Sicily, have captured Catania, 90 miles west of Messina, and are advancing against strongly prepared German defenses at San Stefano, which is northwest of Allied headquarters today.

The Americans are pushing forward on a deep front along the north coast, and have now captured the town of Catania, 23 miles southwest of Catania, and four other towns behind a line from Catania to Abilene.

MUST CAPTURE JAP DUGOUTS ONE BY ONE

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, July 28.—American jungle troops advanced yard-by-yard today through the strong Japanese defenses around Munda, major enemy base on New Georgia Island.

Passing Tere, coastal village 2100 yards east of the Munda airstrip, the soldiers and Marines attacked the enemy positions which had been pounded with 33 tons of bombs by Allied planes Tuesday.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur said the enemy defenses, being held to the death by units of the Jap garrison, consisted of widely dispersed clusters of dugouts, gunpits and pillboxes that must be overcome one by one.

DR. RAINEY IN MEXICO.

MEXICO CITY, July 28.—Dr. J. H. Rainey, president of the University of Texas, visited the National University of Mexico Tuesday and was received by Dr. Raulo Brito Foucher, rector. Dr. Rainey said he sought to intensify cultural interchange between the two universities.

CARDS ON THE TABLE.

Evidence piles up to indicate that there not only is a determined effort being made in this country to make the government supreme in the lives and affairs of every individual, but that there has long been a definitely worked out program to accomplish that end.

We have seen the electric power industry dominated by a deliberate program to socialize it. We have seen the credit and banking machinery of the nation slowly but surely dominated by centralized authority. We have seen the owners of coal mines jockeyed out of control and operation of their properties. We see definite evidence of an attempt to have the government step into the field of oil production, in spite of the record service rendered by the American oil industry. And now there are warnings that American railroads may be used as a springboard for a vast post-war program of socialized public works.

The foregoing "softening up" of private enterprise all ties in with the cleverly prepared program of the National Resources Planning Board. It has been repeatedly pointed out in the press and in Congress that many officials on our public payrolls are working for, or directing the boards and bureaus that have been planning a program of state socialism as another "emergency" project when this war is over.

It is no exaggeration to say that the day is rapidly approaching when we must decide whether we want to remain free citizens or travel the road of government-dominated servitude.

That the danger to free enterprise is recognized, is indicated by recent news reports from Cincinnati, where Wilfred Sykes, president of the Inland Steel company of Chicago, in a public address said that industry must ask the two major political parties to proclaim whether they are for free enterprise or against it. Mr. Sykes might have said, whether they are for free citizens or against them, because there can be no free citizens without free enterprise. You are no longer a free man when you are dependent on government for your daily job, your shelter or your bread and butter.

THE COLISEUM.

There has been a lot of talk about the Coliseum lately. It is the old Roman Coliseum, but it is not the one in Rome. It is the one in London, and it is the one that is being used as a training ground for the modern Hun. The modern Hun, it is said, has been seen in the Coliseum. He is a big, burly fellow, with a broad chest and a fierce expression. He is the one that the Americans are afraid of. He is the one that the British are afraid of. He is the one that the French are afraid of. He is the one that the Russians are afraid of. He is the one that the Japanese are afraid of. He is the one that the Germans are afraid of. He is the one that the Italians are afraid of. He is the one that the Chinese are afraid of. He is the one that the Koreans are afraid of. He is the one that the Vietnamese are afraid of. He is the one that the Indonesians are afraid of. He is the one that the Filipinos are afraid of. He is the one that the Puerto Ricans are afraid of. He is the one that the Cubans are afraid of. He is the one that the Mexicans are afraid of. He is the one that the Americans are afraid of. He is the one that the world is afraid of.

CHILDREN:

One of the things no traveler can help noticing this summer is the great number of young women going places with small babies. Here's one, hardly more than a child herself, with a baby not quite two months old. There's another with a seven months old infant. There's one with a small person just learning to walk, and soon to have another. It is a marvel to older people to see how these youngsters get about with their progeny, feeding them, changing them, bathing them on crowded trains and in the LONDON, July 28.—Archbishop Francis Spellman of New York, frequently mentioned as a possible go-between for peace negotiations between Italy and the Allies, cancelled all remaining engagements in South Africa today and took off from Pretoria by plane for an unannounced northern destination. It's making things plenty hot for the Axis.

Know where that gun came from?

From the pay checks and pay envelopes of people like you.

It was bought with the money you lent your Government in regular installments from your pay.

But hold on now—

Maybe this isn't your gun at all. Maybe you haven't been lending the Government a regular amount from your pay.

Maybe you haven't been setting aside at least 10 percent of your salary and more if you can for War Bonds!

There are still some people around who aren't... not many—but it's just possible that you're one of them.

If you are, we're sure it's not for want of patriotism, but because you just haven't quite got around to it.

Tell your boss or shop representative today that you want to help win the war by joining the Pay-roll Savings Plan. Tell him you want to save at least 10 percent of every pay check by putting it into War Bonds.

You can't make a better investment—

You'll be buying the weapons that insure a future of freedom, peace and plenty.

You'll be getting back $4 for every $3 you save when the bonds mature.

Makes sense, doesn't it?
