WORLD'S BIGGEST "MAKE-UP" JOB UNGLDS THE LILY

When a job is made up, it is usually set out to "make-up" the picture. In this case, the job was to subdue the beauty of the world's greatest flowers and shrubs. Instead of the usual method of painting, these photographic experts sprayed the plants with Texalite, a paint that is mixed with water that dries quickly and which can be tinted to any hue desired. They went hiking about, peering through a little spectrum window, hunting for whatever flower yellow. Then they would spray it with the proper shade of Texalite.

THURSDAY "AT HOME" WELL ATTENDED

An unusually pleasant evening in the home of Mrs. J. A. Lash and Mrs. Abbie C. Daniel, 309 W. Fifth street, was given Thursday by Mrs. J. A. Lash and Mrs. Abbie C. Daniel in their home at 309 W. Fifth street. As guests arrived they passed on the front veranda to register their names in the guest book which was in charge of Mrs. Doris Jamison. As they entered the house their attention was called to a placard tacked to the door facing and which carried the following: "One room available to an amiable lady over 75 years of age, price, $75 per month."

Mrs. Alex Spear greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. John Shetter directed them to the refreshments composed of Mrs. J. A. Lash, Mrs. Abbie Daniel, Mrs. W. P. Lee and Mrs. Gary L. Smith. The house was beautiful with decorations of fall flowers. The long-covered dining table held a large cut glass punch bowl from which Mrs. J. E. Walter and Mrs. W. J. Foxworth ladled punch. Mrs. A. E. Jamison and Mrs. Lee Owen conducted guests through the house and they might inspect the available rooms.

While some were making the tour, Mrs. Lash's attention was attracted by another who appeared upon the scene, the hostesses and all present who demanded to see the room they had to "rent." The newcomer was Mrs. Charles C. Jones, representing an elderly woman. She was dressed in a neat light dress, over which she wore an old-fashioned "tie apron." She carried a sash-bonnet, appropriate spectacles and carried a heavy suitcase. When shown the room, she frankly stated that the price was too high and said she had to head for the special conveniences. She further stated that she could not get a good room anywhere for $1 per week, but, finally, seeming wearied with her language, agreed to take the one offered. She solemnly declared, though, that it wasn't worth the price asked. The episode caused much merriment and highlighted the occasion.

While on the tour of inspection, she was impressed with the splendid arrangement of the rooms and the various conveniences, especially in the kitchen.

Mrs. S. E. Hittson was in charge of the music and accompanied Mrs. Martin Chambliss, who sang special numbers. Piano selections were played by Misses Doris Jamison, Betty Slicher and Mrs. Hittson during the afternoon.
Seventy-two guests registered in the guest book and thoroughly enjoyed the splendid affair.

MISS GLORIA GRAHAM WAS COMPLEMENTED

Complimenting her niece, Miss Gloria Graham, who will leave next week for New York to attend school, Mrs. R. W. Mancill entertained a group of girl friends with a chicken dinner Friday evening in her home at 309 Fifth street. Decorations of fall cut flowers and potted plants gave a festive appearance to the rooms. Dinner was served buffet style from a table on the veranda with guests seated at quarter tables while enjoying the meal.

Following dinner the group went in a body to the picture show and saw the evening feature.

The guest list included Misses Gloria Graham, Rose Ann Woods, Cathryn Shepard, Dorothy Jean Anderson, Jacqueline Ruppert, Peggy Jean Gallagher, Mary Martha Mitcham, Wanda June Bond and Betty Slicher.

J. O. Y. CLASS HAD MEETING FRIDAY

The J. O. Y. class of First Baptist Sunday school was entertained in the home of Mrs. A. L. Thomas on Lake Cisco road Friday evening for a social and business meeting. Mrs. Ben Krausopf and Mrs. Sim Ledford were the hostesses. The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. W. W. Powell, following which Mrs. J. L. Thornton presided during the business session. Mrs. H. T. Huffman, man, teacher, offered her resignation and it was accepted with regret. A committee of Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. R. H. Williams and Mrs. Sim Ledford was appointed to name a new teacher.

New officers were elected for the coming three months as follows: President, Mrs. J. E. Baker; first vice president, Mrs. G. T. Haddleton; second vice president, Mrs. A. L. Thomas; third vice president, Mrs. Ben Krausopf; fourth vice president, Miss Doris Jo Pyle; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Powell; Mrs. Jay Warren, assistant teacher.

Mr. H. T. Huffman, Mrs. R. H. Williams and Mrs. Jay Warren were appointed organ captain. A social hour was then held in which Mrs. G. T. Haddleton and Mrs. M. E. Underwood directed a number of interesting games. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Roy Campbell and other food cake was passed at the close of the games. A singing was the final number of the evening and was closed by all standing and singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

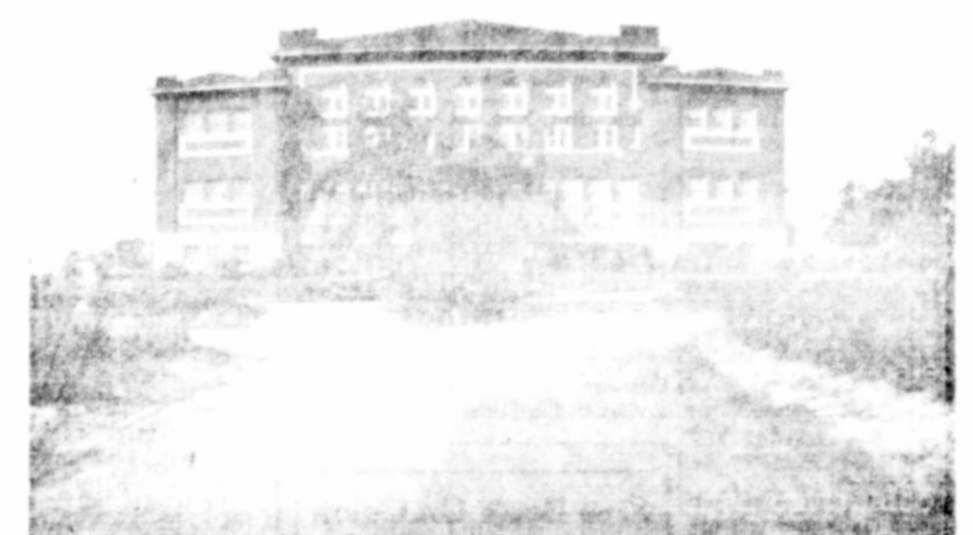

Those present were Mrs. M. E. Underwood, Mrs. J. L. Thornton, Mrs. G. T. Haddleton, Mrs. J. E. Baker, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. A. L. Thomas, Mrs. H. T. Huffman, Mrs. R. H. Williams, Mrs. Doris Jo Pyle, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Powell, Mrs. Jay Warren, assistant teacher, Wanda June Thomas.

NOTICE TO MOTORISTS
We Have PLENTY MECHANICS. We have been fortunate in securing the services of three new mechanics to add to our staff, which enables us to offer a more prompt and efficient mechanical service to our patrons.
The recent additions are Mr. Pete Clements, formerly with the Cisco War Training School; Mr. Walter Wright, formerly employed by Shobal Houston, and Mr. H. C. Ables, of Carbon. Old shop employes are Fred Hays, E. S. Townsend, Reed McKeen and Milton Cook. Mr. Alvin Wende, formerly with the U. S. Armed Forces is parts room supervisor.
The fact that we still have the most needed parts, also aids in this service to you.
If your car is going to require some mechanical repair, or tuning for the winter, it would be well for you to have it done now while workmen and parts may be had. Every day you use the car that needs attention, serves to make the need for repair greater and the expense more.
