HITLER HATCHET-MEN MUST PAY THE PIPER

BYRON LOVELADY GUEST CISCO LIONS

Chaplain Byron Lovelady, of Tampa, Fla., a native of Cisco and a captain in the service, spoke at the Lions luncheon Wednesday, being introduced by Lion Leslie W. Seymour. Other guests were Rev. G. A. Obenhaus, now a citizen of Cisco, but a Lion at Clifton when he lived there; and Jay Garrett of Cisco.

Chaplain Lovelady began his talk by saying that despite he was a captain in rank in the service and wore his double bars as such, he also wore the gold cross which made him first a minister of the Christian religion and is to be addressed as chaplain rather than as captain. He said that a chaplain was always approachable by any private or other person in the service. He can be told any secret and the chaplain will not divulge it, even on the witness stand; that such confidence is held sacred and there is no law that can force him to divulge it. A chaplain always goes unarmed, even on the battle front, where he goes wherever his men may go.

The theme of his talk was along the line of "The kind of world that you and I are going to live in after the war."

"We live in luxury here," the speaker said, "regardless of the rationing and we live in the best governed and the greatest country on earth." And he added that we are to see to it that those liberties and rules of government do not perish from the earth.

"We may have to feed the starving world and to make many sacrifices in order to win the peace which is going to be harder to win than the victory of battles, but we must win that peace if we and our form of liberal government is to remain upon the earth to be enjoyed by ourselves and our posterity."

"We won the other war, but lost the peace settlement because we dropped the fight as soon as the enemy had capitulated, and went home to our jobs, washing our hands of the responsibility of our brothers in the foreign countries," he stated.

"We cannot live to ourselves because the world is too small, the speaker said.

"We must get along with our neighbors and remember that the future of our children is worth more than a few special privileges now. We do not want to send our young sons to war again as soon as they have reached soldier age. That is what will happen if we do not remain in the fight until the peace—a stable and lasting peace—the war."

The trouble is, he concluded, we confuse liberties with thoughts of being allowed to do as we please, regardless of whether it hurts some one else or not. We must respect the rights of others if we are to have our rights guaranteed to us; the real Christian spirit is the thing that counts and must be the basis of any peace or adjustment that will hold during the years to come.

Chaplain Lovelady is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lovelady and a nephew of Mrs. J. M. Williamson, of Cisco, and was born here. He was called here by the serious illness of his father, a patient at Graham Sanitarium.

GREAT OIL OUTPUT. AUSTIN, Oct. 21.—During the 12-month period ended Aug. 31, Texas produced 525,102,523 barrels of oil, according to a report today by Comptroller Sheppard, taken from tax reports by producers.

DEMAND NAMES. NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—President Roosevelt was challenged today to name the persons he accuses of leading an under-cover attempt to undermine the Securities and Exchange Commission. Elmer C. Walzer, president of the New York Financial Writers' association, said the group wired its demand to the White House immediately after the president made his charge Wednesday.

FOOTBALL TOMORROW 3 O'CLOCK

Everything is in readiness for the football game to be played here tomorrow afternoon by the Weatherford Kangaroos and the Cisco Lobos and the contest should be full of interest from start to finish. The game will be called promptly at 3 o'clock, at Chesley Field.

J. E. Hays and J. W. Slaughter from the Rotary club and Austin Flint and Harry Schmidt from the Lions, contacted about 98 percent of the local business houses and all but three agreed to close for the game. Not only will the business places close shop, but many of the business heads took the street to sell tickets for the football event. Carter Belew, Hotel Laguna manager, who took 70 tickets, had sold all but two at noon today. This fine spirit will of course assure a nice crowd.

The game, said Coach Sweeney this morning will be dedicated to Herbie Litchfield and Paul Mosley, former Lobos but now members of the U. S. Marines, who are home from San Diego, Calif., on leave. They will depart for their post immediately following the game. Litchfield and Mosley played in the game against Weatherford last year.

With the exception of Tipton and Tompkins, the Cisco team is in good shape for tomorrow's tussle, and the two boys mentioned will be in the starting lineup at least. The lineup:

Hays, c; R. Ramsower, rg; Cleveland, rt; Posey, re; Reese, lg; M. Baum, lt; Harrelson, le; Tipton, qb; Tompkins, rh; M. Johnston, lb; Rupe, fb.

FOOD BOOK SIGN-UPS ARE RAPID

Registrations for Ration Book 4, which opened at high school this morning, totaled about 1,060 at noon, said Supt. R. N. Cluck. The work is moving smoothly. Mr. Cluck said, and with greater dispatch than heretofore. He added that the total would probably exceed that of last year, when No. 2 book was issued. At that time approximately 6,370 books were issued.

Because of the football game, and the fact that many who have not registered will want to see it, registration booths will close at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon until after the game.

Booths will reopen at 5 o'clock and will remain open until 8 o'clock Friday night.

DEMPEY'S GLOVES. WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Twenty pairs of nylon hose brought $31,000 in a war bond sale here, but one pair of Lt. Comm. Jack Dempsey's boxing gloves brought $7,000—and a woman bought them. Dempsey auctioned off the gloves, described as "one of the ones used to knock out the ones he used to knock out the giant Luis Angel Firpo in September, 1923. The purchaser was Mrs. Rosslyn Sussman.

QUICK RELIEF FOR WOUNDED—Quick relief is brought to wounded or ill Allied fighters in New Guinea when they are carried to Austral in hospital in air ambulances. They are being transferred to plane from ground ambulances.

GRANDMA FOUR-EYES—Queer spectacles from collection of Dr. Ira W. Mensher, Brooklyn, on view in Chicago. Girl in center wears early French opera glasses. Girl at right of her has leather-framed specs dating back to about 1500.

MRS. HUEY'S WELFARE REPORT GOOD

Cisco Welfare association—15 members present—met Tuesday at the chamber of commerce. Led by Rev. Leslie Seymour, the session opened by the members repeating the Lord's prayer in unison. Mrs. H. N. Lyle, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were adopted.

Following the adoption of November 17 as Bundle Day, Mrs. B. S. Huey, executive secretary, made her usual interesting report. The report, among other things, gave the following data: One hundred and eighty-three people have called at office. Have received 65 pairs of shoes, 348 garments, 52 household articles and 111 magazines. Have distributed 29 pairs of shoes, 171 garments, 67 household articles and 60 magazines. Gave six orders for groceries.

Mrs. Huey announced removal of the welfare office from D avenue to the Kimmel building on W. Sixth street, in the rear of the Reynolds building. The move was necessitated because of sale of the D avenue property. The report thanked a number of citizens for aid in making the new quarters comfortable and concluded with an invitation to all board members to call and inspect the new home.

We make it a rule to return anything we borrow from a neighbor. We return it the day we want to borrow something else.

CHURCH IN PIECES—Furious wind and rain storm hit U. S. Army evacuation hospital in Italy, downing tents and soaking patients. Chaplain Harold D. Hayward of Kattskill Bay, N. Y., ruefully checks over what is left of his "church."

FOOTBALL CONCESSIONS. Mrs. W. C. Hogue announces that the West Ward PTA will have charge of all concessions at the football game tomorrow afternoon. It is explained that since so many of the cold drink bottles are lost or broken, all cold drinks will be 10 cents. Receipts will go to the West Ward Library.

MIGHTY EFFORT TO END WAR

MOSCOW, Oct. 21.—The Germans were reported throwing reinforcements rushed by plane from as far away as France into battle today in a frantic effort to stem a Soviet armored column pushing across the Dnieper Bend and threatening to trap upwards of 1,000,000 Axis troops.

The Red Army column advanced another six miles yesterday and captured 13 additional towns and villages, widening and deepening its bridgehead on the west bank of the Dnieper to within 27 miles north of the railway junction and mining center of Krivov and 35 miles west of the industrial city of Dnepropetrovsk.

1,757 SURGICAL DRESSINGS IN AFTERNOON

Twenty-five women completed 1,757 2x2 surgical dressings Wednesday afternoon at Red Cross work rooms in the Reynolds building.

The rooms are open for workers Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, from 1 to 5 o'clock and a much larger force of women can be used than are now participating in this necessary war labor.

Those present Wednesday afternoon were Mrs. F. J. Borman, Mrs. Sam Kimmell, Mrs. W. J. Poe, Mrs. Roy Fonville, Mrs. M. E. Goldberg, Mrs. W. B. Dunn, Mrs. A. D. Anderson, Mrs. R. C. McCarter, Mrs. J. A. Jensen, Mrs. Paul Poe, Mrs. G. R. Nance, Mrs. Bob Latimer, Mrs. W. J. Poe, Mrs. J. J. Tableman, Mrs. R. L. Ponsler, Mrs. Cora Plumlee, Mrs. Homer Slicker, Mrs. Jim Latimer, Mrs. W. L. Lancaster, Mrs. W. C. McDaniel, Mrs. F. O. Thomas, Mrs. J. W. Slaughter, Mrs. Karl Armstrong, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, Mrs. W. W. Moore.

VALUABLE CITIZEN PASSES; LONG SERVICE

ALBANY, Oct. 21.—Dr. John Hartwell Vick, 92, of Graham, prominent rancher there for 35 years and a Shackelford county rancher for five, died here Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Frank Easter, a daughter whom he was visiting.

He was born April 22, 1851, at Starkville, Miss. He attended Saunders and Summers Boys school there and graduated from Missouri Medical College in St. Louis in 1873.

His family moved to Lexington, Texas, in 1889, and a year later he was married to Sallie Dial Sikes.

He practiced medicine in Rockdale and retired to care for his invalid wife and came to the Shackelford county ranch in 1892. He resided east of Albany until 1907, moving to the Young county ranch near Graham after a year's residence in Abilene.

REPRESENTATIVES OF 17 NATIONS MEET TO FORM LEGAL FRAMEWORK TO HANDLE BRUTES

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A quarter-million German war criminals, the hatchet-men of Hitler's new order, stand open to indictment by the world today with the formation of the Allied War Criminals Commission which one day will prosecute the case of humanity against them.

Retribution for the crimes of these men, and thousands of equally-guilty Italians and Japanese, was foreshadowed yesterday when representatives of 17 of the United Nations met under the chairmanship of Sir John Simon, British lord chancellor, to draw up the legal framework for dealing with Axis atrocities.

In any civil court they would face the death penalty, and the organization of the Allied commission promises that, in one way or another, they will not be permitted to escape.

Whether they ever will be brought to the bar of justice is an open question. Certainly more than 250,000 men will never be executed by due process of law in a post-war world weary of killing.

But observers are convinced that many thousands of Germans never will survive the eventual collapse of the Nazi regime. The Quislings will be left to their countrymen and, except for those who seek sanctuary in Germany, few of them are likely to come to trial.

Men who have had access to the long and growing records of Nazi torturers and spies compiled by a dozen European undergrounds believe the estimate of 250,000 Nazi war criminals is a conservative one as the Gestapo and its spies alone probably exceed 500,000.

The quarter-million figure does not include petty stool pigeons, nor does it include the Fritzes and Johanns and Heinrichs who pulled the triggers in the German firing squads, because they were obeying orders.

But it does take in most of the Nazi leadership, almost the entire Elite Guard Officer Corps, and the hundreds of German army officers who suppressed the countries Hitler conquered.

RACE QUESTION SAVED TAXPAYERS EIGHTH ARMY TAKES STRATEGIC TOWNS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Sponsors of legislation which would authorize federal subsidies to supplement state and local funds for public schools abandoned hope today of early passage after Wednesday's crushing defeat in the senate.

Adoption of a Republican-supported amendment to prohibit racial or other discrimination in the use of both federal and state school funds cost the measure the southern support needed for its passage.

These British forces sent new salients into the Germans positions while the American and British 8th Army on the western side of the Peninsula pushed forward cautiously in preparation for an assault against the new Nazi defense line based on rugged Mount Massico athwart the road to Rome.

GERMANS REINFORCE. WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Secretary of War Stimson reported today there are "indications" that German troops opposing Allied armies in central and northern Italy have been reinforced. Stimson also said that American casualties of the 5th Army have totaled 6,774 killed, wounded and missing in action up to the beginning of the Volturno river battle.

SON OF CISCO WOMAN PROMOTED TO MAJOR. SEYMOUR JOHNSON FIELD, N. C.—Capt. Randolph L. Clark, son of Mrs. Leoti Clark, Cisco, Texas, has been promoted to the grade of major, according to announcement by Col. Donald B. Smith, commanding officer of this technical school of the army air forces eastern technical training command.

Prior to entering the service in August, 1942, Major Clark made his home at Jackson, Miss., with his wife and children, Jo Lynn, 6 years old, and Randolph L. III, 4. He graduated from the University of South Carolina in 1927, and from the Medical College of Virginia in 1932. He completed a graduate course in medicine at the University of Paris, France, in 1934, and received an M. S. C. in surgery from the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., in 1938.

At this field, Major Clark is chief surgeon at the station hospital.

OKLAHOMA READY. STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 21.—The Oklahoma Aggies are reported to be in their best shape of the season as they prepared to meet the Horned Frogs of Texas Christian University Saturday night in Taft Stadium at Oklahoma City. It will be the eighth meeting for the two clubs and games are evenly split.

STOP THE TINKERERS!

The commerce of the United States is one of the marvels of the world. Its immensity and variety are due to the combination of many things—soil, climate and resources, people, political institutions and opportunity for business enterprise. Not one of these things alone, but all of them together, made possible the development of continent-wide commerce upon which the American way of living is found. Indispensable in this structure was:

A system of railroads adequate to the needs of the nation in war and in peace.

And on those railroads a flexible system of freight rates designed to meet the varying needs of a community rather than to fit some theory—to help the producer reach the widest market—to give the consumer the widest choice of source of supply—rates made to make commerce move. That's what the shippers want, that's what the railroads want, that's what the consumers want. And that, by and large, is what all three get in America.

But now the tinkerers with our economic pattern of life propose to change all this by act of congress, fixing freight rates in a rigid pattern determined by mileage, and mileage alone.

If freight rates had been based on that theory, the groves, orchards and gardens of the Pacific Coast, Rio Grande Valley and Florida, would be small affairs and the people of the 48 states would not enjoy the fruits and vegetables gathered from the four corners of our country. The raising of livestock would concentrate around processing plants and the dinner tables of all America would be poorer for the change.

If rates were made on distance alone, the average American never would be able to live in a house built with brick or lumber of millwork from north, east, south and west.

American freight rates have been made to meet the actual needs of producers and consumers. Under the pattern proposed, based on mileage alone, commerce would be compelled to reshape itself to fit an inflexible system of rates made on an unworkable theory.

BONDS.

Many people are mixing up their plans for the future. They are buying bonds now, because they cannot buy things. House improvements, for instance, cars, trips, fur coats. They expect to use their bonds for these purposes the minute the war is over and objects of desire become available again.

It's better to buy bonds with this in mind than not to buy them at all. But it's a mistake to count on rashing them before their time is up. Bonds are far better, for the nation and for the individual buyer, if they are bought with a plan to let them alone until they become due.

Other savings can be made, after the bond is bought for the month, with postwar luxuries in view. Or some form of thrift repayment can be worked out for the new kitchen sink or automobile.

It is true the bonds can be cashed any time after sixty days. This gives them value as backing for emergency. But they will not return full interest until due. And if, after the war, great numbers of people suddenly begin to turn in their bonds, the government will be obliged to refinance them in ways contributing to inflation.

Buy the bond—and forget it. Build up a bank fund for the luxury besides. It's wonderful for the peace of mind.
