U. S. DEALS JAPS ANOTHER SOLAR PLEXUS

GRAMMAR 4-H MAKES GAINS IN MEMBERS

Joe Ed Bacon, reporter for the 4-H demonstration club for the Cisco Grammar school, makes a report of a meeting held last Tuesday, at which Floyd Lynch, Eastland county agricultural agent, talked to them about their demonstrations of livestock and other projects they are working on, which includes the care of poultry. Mr. Lynch announced that a live stock show would be held at Eastland, February 19, where many of them would be showing their demonstrations.

The meeting was in charge of President Billy Bacon, and Secretary Gene LaQuey announced ten new members which brings the membership to a total of thirty-one boys.

JACK ELKINS RE-OPENS IN NEW QUARTERS

The formal announcement of Jack Elkins appears in today's issue, in which he calls attention to the reopening of his Automotive Service for all make of cars, saying that no job will be too big nor too small to receive his closest attention.

Mr. Elkins is no stranger to Cisco having worked for himself here for some thirteen years. After a year or two of absence, he returned to Cisco about four months ago and is now permanently located in his new quarters on Sixth street.

He invites his friends to visit him even though they should not need his professional services.

WILL CHECK CIO OFFICIAL ARMY STATUS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Members of a house naval affairs subcommittee asked selective service to re-examine the draft deferments of union officials—particularly those at the Brewster Aeronautical Corp.

The request, directed to Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey, followed a heated exchange at yesterday's subcommittee hearing between Rep. Melvin Maas (Republican, Minnesota), and Gabriel Joseph de Angelis, financial secretary of the Brewster local of the United Auto Workers (CIO).

Maas got de Angelis to admit authorship of an article in "Aero News," a union paper, attacking Brewster management and the subcommittee and asking, "Does Rep. Maas think he is in Germany? We wish to hell he was."

Maas retorted, "I'm rather flattered to be insulted by you." He added, "I think you will be worth more to the nation carrying a gun. I'm going to do everything I can to get you in the Army."

SLOW, BUT SURE.

ALGIERS, Nov. 13.—The 5th Army in Italy smashed out further gains Saturday in the drive on the German winter line in the wake of a fresh assault by Allied destroyers on Nazi positions around the Gulf of Gaeta. American units on the right wing of the 5th pressed forward and seized Filignano.

MAY BE A TRICK.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The Senate Judiciary committee today planned to investigate the liquor shortage. Chairman, Frederick Van Nuys (Democrat, Indiana) said he would ask a subcommittee to make a preliminary inquiry to determine whether the shortage is real, or artificially created by monopolistic interests.

BUCKAROOS TO MEET WACO IN BI-DISTRICT

Following their one-sided victory of 52 to 6 over Brownwood Lions on Armistice day, the Breckenridge Buckaroos are looking forward to meeting Waco for a bi-district tilt soon. The lively Buckaroos have to play Mineral Wells and Cisco, but since these teams are in the district cellar, they are brushed aside as of little consequence. Waco has to meet Temple but is expecting an easy victory. Breckenridge will play the Lobos, here, on Thanksgiving Day.

Breckenridge announces a $1-918.73 gate at Brownwood, receiving as their part $957.37, with an expense of about $80. This reminds Ciscomans of the days when a $3,000 gate was not too much to expect. It does make a difference when the cities have outstanding teams.

CITIZENS CAN HELP FIGHTERS IF THEY WILL

Members of Cisco Lions club will cover every street in Cisco late Tuesday afternoon gathering up tin cans that are to be placed on the front curb of the yards as a special effort in the salvage program.

Every home is urged to place the tins in some convenient container at the front of the yard, so trucks will not have to go down the alleys. It is not necessary to mash the cans, according to Harry Schmidt, chairman of the salvage committee of the club, but it is important that all tin available in Cisco be salvaged as a part of the national campaign. This is one way in which all citizens can help win the war, Mr. Schmidt says.

Trucks will start the round of picking up the valuable metal at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and will complete the job that day. It is possible such special effort may be repeated each month if the response in this instance is sufficient to justify it.

SUPPORT OPA.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Federal Judge Murray Hubert, saying "The OPA is entitled to support and the public expects it," sentenced two brothers to 60 days in jail, a third to a similar suspended sentence and fined each $10,000 for selling oranges at above OPA ceiling prices.

ROLL YOUR OWN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A growing scarcity of popular brand cigarettes and low-priced cigars—attributed to labor shortages, early Christmas buying and heavy overseas shipments—was reported Saturday in many cities throughout the nation.

SURGICAL DRESSINGS.

Thirty-two women completed 1,138 2x2 and 780 4x4 surgical dressings at the local Red Cross work room Wednesday. Friday, twenty women turned out 1,170 4x4s.

REFUSE GAS INCREASE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—OPA cannot permit traveling salesmen to consume more gasoline than they are now getting. Administration Chester Bowles has advised Senator Tom Connally of Texas, Connally sent to Bowles a number of letters he had received complaining about gas rationing to traveling salesmen.

K. C. INITIATION.

FT. WORTH, Nov. 13.—Thirty-five candidates will be initiated tomorrow by Msgr. Robert M. Nolan Council, K. of C. Holy communion will be attended at 8 a. m. at St. Patrick's church by candidates, members and visitors.

HONORING THE ADMIRAL—Allied honor guards in North Africa mass colors in surprise ceremony for Admiral Sir Andrew Cunningham, leaving to become First Lord of the Admiralty. He's at left, with General Eisenhower and Vice Admiral Hewitt.

THEY TOO WERE BRAVE—Civilians and soldiers pay respects in Naples, Italy, as coffin containing body of one of 20 boys who fought Germans in guerrilla warfare passes by. Many of the lads battled Nazis for more than three days.

CISCO WOMAN HOME FROM STATE MEET

Mrs. A. J. Olson arrived home late Friday from Austin, where she attended the 46th annual convention of Texas Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. Olson, who represented two Cisco clubs—First Industrial Arts and City Federation—was the only local delegate present and made the round trip via bus. She enjoyed the sessions and is of the opinion that a great deal of constructive work was done. Delegates registering totaled about 150, with some fifty visitors.

GOOD SIGN.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 13.—Representatives from Nuevo Laredo and Guadalajara arrived today to seek Mexican baseball league franchises for clubs in their cities. Their entry would increase the number of teams in the league from four to six.

SLAVS WORRY NAZIS.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Yugo-Slav Partisans continued to beat off German advances and worry the enemy flanks throughout most of the Hinterland as the Nazis apparently concentrated their most determined efforts to stamp out their elusive foe in northern Slovenia.

EVICION GROUNDS.

FT. WORTH, Nov. 13.—Refusal of a tenant to stop wasteful use of gas, lights or water may be regarded as a substantial violation of tenancy agreement—one of the grounds for eviction under the federal rent regulation. District Rent Director Lucien Wright said Saturday.

HOW A NAZI DIED—Pfc. Samuel W. Rubin, of Brooklyn, N. Y., points to hole in German helmet made by shrapnel. It's mute testimony of how the Nazi soldier died. Scene is somewhere in Italy, in territory taken over by Allies.

MOVE TO FT. WORTH.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Personett, who recently sold their home here, have purchased property on Timberline Drive, Fort Worth, and will move there as soon as they can get possession. Mr. Personett will be employed by the Nash Hardware company. They plan to move their rabbits and hutsches to the new home and continue operation of their rabbit farm. Mr. Personett is commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and his wife is secretary of Cisco American Legion auxiliary.

RETURNED MISSIONARY.

Rev. A. K. Reiton, who spent 33 years in China as a missionary, will speak at the Church of the Nazarene Tuesday night. Mr. Reiton, a son-in-law of Mrs. Molly Greer of Cisco, was at Hong Kong during the 45-day bombardment of that city by the Japanese. After the Japs captured the city Mr. Reiton spent five months behind barbed wire as a prisoner. He returned to the United States last year. The general public is invited to hear the visitor's address.

DESPERATE AND DANGEROUS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Last week we spoke of war surprises, probably pleasant. But there may be unpleasant surprises, too. Look out for a sudden Nazi blow at England. It's no secret that Britain is a colossal Allied base—military, naval, air. And it's the jumping-off place for any cross-channel offensive.

So, before Hitler surrenders, he may launch a do-or-die aerial attack against the British capital, British ports, British war industries, communications centers, troop concentrations, embarkation points, shipping pools, railways, to forestall or cripple invasion of the Continent. The Nazis are known to possess more bombers, for example, than they are using—perhaps 2000 more. These are being kept in reserve for some purpose.

Turkey's a likely trouble spot, too. The recent meeting between British and Turkish foreign ministers at Cairo was highly important. Berlin fears it will bring Turkey into war on side of Allies. Axis, therefore, may counter by trying to occupy Turkey up to the Dardanelles. If they don't it will almost certainly be because they can't.

And look out for a Jap blow in the Pacific, in spite of our talk about going on the offensive. The Japs are good at surprises, and better equipped for springing them than any other people on earth. Even in peacetime Japan was a closed book to Occidentals. Nobody knew they had a Zero; experts all said their planes were crates. For months now Japan has been on the defensive, and it's had time—and secrecy—to build up new reserves, perhaps new planes, new ships, new weapons for use against us when we come closer to her home shores.

BUT 30 PER CENT JEWISH POLES SURVIVE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 13.—The council which will direct United Nations relief and rehabilitation started work on its main plans Saturday after having listened to speeches on the needs of nations overrun by Hitler's war machine.

"The Germans," Jan Kwapinski, Poland's representative, told the delegates, "have set out to destroy our educated classes. My people have only 800 calories a day, and the Polish Jews 400. Only 30 per cent of our Jewish population survives. Epidemics are spreading which may menace the entire continent. Some 8,600,000 Poles are displaced from their homes." Kwapinski said "only the fullest measure of relief" could meet his country's needs, but predicted that if Poland gets seeds and farm equipment she "will shortly not only meet her own needs but supply the needs of others."

CHARLES RAY ILL.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 13.—Charles Ray, the bashful country boy of the silent movies, lies seriously ill in a hospital with an infection of the mouth and throat, his physician has announced. Ray, who had continued to play extra parts in pictures, has been hospitalized for about a month, the physician said.

NIP NAVAL THREAT TO PACIFIC OPERATIONS REMOVED FOR THE PRESENT SAYS M'ARTHUR

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Nov. 13.—Joining forces for another devastating attack on Rabaul, more than 200 American carrier-borne aircraft and land-based bombers sank or damaged 15 Japanese warships and shot down 88 enemy planes, most of them in a bitter air battle around a U. S. naval force.

"This for the time being, removes the Japanese naval threat to our operations in the Solomons," MacArthur's spokesman reported.

(A Japanese broadcast by Tokyo radio acknowledged the loss of a destroyer and damage to a cruiser in the latest Allied raid on Rabaul and said 71 of the 200 attacking planes were shot down. Loss of 10 Japanese aircraft was admitted. Other Tokyo broadcasts added nine more American ships to 96 allegedly sunk recently in the South Pacific—claims which American officials labeled false).

Francis McCarthy, war correspondent who rode in a torpedo plane on the raid witnessed the fight over the American vessels, said the enemy defeat was the "most shattering" of the five battles he had seen in the South Pacific.

Allied losses were 17 aircraft—the biggest plane loss in a single engagement ever suffered in this theater—and some damage or casualties to the fleet. But not a single American warship, including the carriers, received a direct hit from four heavy enemy air attacks.

The score against the Japanese in the Wednesday and Thursday attack against their strong New Britain Island "hub" base, object of an Allied offensive, was a cruiser and two destroyers sunk and a cruiser and 11 destroyers damaged.

Planes shot down—24 over Rabaul; 64 over the task force between Rabaul and Bougainville, invaded Solomons stronghold 250 miles to the southeast.

Before the dive-bombers, torpedo planes and fighters took off from the U. S. carriers to join Army Liberators over Rabaul, reconnaissance pictures revealed 23 enemy warships in Simpson harbor outside Rabaul and 300 planes parked on nearby air fields.

Pictures taken following the two-day assault showed only eight left—some of them evidently having fled to Kavlieng, New Ireland—and less than half the planes.

But the victory may turn out to be greater. McCarthy said the total was based on "preliminary" reports.

He watched a carrier-based Hellcat fighter squadron set a one-day record by shooting down 54 of the enemy planes that attacked the naval task force. The battle raged in a five-mile radius around the vessels and he said he could see planes falling while his torpedo plane was only 1000 feet over the ships. Even the torpedo plane he was aboard got two of the enemy attackers.

The Japanese had sent the ships to Rabaul from Truk, big naval base to the northward, trying to challenge the attack on Bougainville, their last Solomons fortress.

NAZIS MADE SPORT—Nazis in Naples called these lads, Guido Brandi, 13, right, and his brother Tomaso, 16, and motioned from a window that they would give them something. Boys thought it might be food. What they got was a grenade. Tomaso lost one leg; Guido lost both.

THE ROUNDUP.

Almost anything can happen now, in the short time remaining until Hitler and his motley gang of looters and killers are rounded up and given what is coming to them. They will make the most of it. Already there are indications of their scurrying around frantically to provide defenses and cushion themselves for the coming blows.

But the criminals are not realistic. They still hope to get away with the unprecedented crimes they have committed against civilized Europe, and with $40,000,000,000 or $50,000,000,000 worth of loot they have stolen. With their "Fortress Europe" closing now around them instead of their victims, they will soon be desperate enough to commit even greater crimes.

The ring leaders and their savage followers may still do vast damage before their collapse. The diabolical tricks they played in Italy, such as blowing up a great postoffice building filled with innocent civilians, may be repeated a hundred fold. Even so, there should be no trucking with them and no weakening. They should pay for their crimes so completely that such a punitive task will never be needed again.

YOUR CAR.

Don't be surprised and irritated if the family car starts harder now. It isn't necessarily the fault of the car, or even the weather. The government has been monkeying with the gas. And that, in turn, is nothing to write to your congressman about — it had to be done by the petroleum administration, to keep the good gas for war use.

High test gas is now cut to 76 octane, from its previous rating of 78 to 80 octane in most parts of the country. For so-called "regular" gas, used by most motorists, which has had an average rating of 72 octane, this will now be the "regular."

It is unfortunate that such a ruling had to come in cold weather, when starting is always harder and more fuel is needed for operation. The motorist can only charge his extra cost and trouble to the war, do his best to keep his motor in good condition, and operate it as efficiently as possible. Cars should be made ship-shape before winter settles down.

AN EXPERT.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, the Grand Old Lady of a generation that enfranchised women and gave them political power, has emerged again at the age of 84 to tell voters—male and female—some things they're inclined to ignore. That is, to avoid extreme partisanship, one-track minds and one-track voting. She has no enthusiasm for "born politicians." She believes in political thought rather than hurrah. She urges intelligent and conscientious analysis of public men and public problems, rather than voting like flocks of sheep.

Political machines need cleaning up almost everywhere, she says. New issues require new viewpoints, new understanding of what is going on in the world, and new action accordingly.

All this is wholesome and inspiring. Let Mrs. Catt keep it up, and continue coming out from her retirement now and then to stimulate a rather doddering world. As for age, that's nothing. Such spirits never grow old.

UNUSUAL MAN.

The poet Byron told the world that truth is stronger than fiction. He wrote about some strange people himself, but none stranger than Ignatius Timothy Trebitsch-Lincoln, who, at the age of 64, has just died in China.

Born in Hungary of orthodox Jewish parents as plain Ignatius Trebitsch, he moved to England, became a member of parliament, a writer for American newspapers, a jailbird for forgery, a press agent for the German monarchists, a friend of Hitler, and finally a Buddhist monk, under the name of Chao Kung, in Tibet and China. What he was doing at the time of his death is not known, but it was bound to be unusual.

The man had talent, plainly enough, but apparently no moral sense. The best thing about him was his admiration for Lincoln, whose name he joined to his own.

What a subject he would have made for the writer of romantic fiction. Except that no novelist would have dared to put within the pages of a book such a glaring improbable career as that of Ignatius Timothy Trebitsch-Lincoln.

FOOLISH.

A woman-power committee that has been investigating the status of women in industry finds that, to a surprising extent, women workers are judged more by their looks than their industrial efficiency. The fact shows clearly, they say, in the hiring and promotion of such employees.

The youthful "sweater girl" seems to have the advantage over the more elderly and efficient woman. The emphasis on personal appearance, style and youthfulness is pleasant to the eye, but harmful to the war effort. It is also discouraging to thousands of able and courageous women workers who may lack youthful charm, or are too self-respecting to flirt with their bosses.

A Jap Prisoner Has Escaped!

A True Story from the South Pacific.

The word spread through the Advanced American Camp on a small island. A Jap prisoner who had been held for weeks in the temporary stockade, who knew exactly how many men, planes and guns were on the island, had escaped.

The Post Commander called upon the K 9 corps. A Corporal and a dog, a large black Labrador Retriever were singled out.

"Corporal," the C. O. asked, "can you and Blackie get him? It is very important that he not be permitted to communicate his information to the enemy."

"Blackie, Sir," replied the Corporal, "has a very fine nose. Back in the states he brought crippled ducks out of the heaviest marshes. I believe, sir, we can get the Jap."

"Draw what rations you need, and hit the trail," was the order.

Then into a thousand square miles of swamp and jungle went an American Boy and his traditional pal, a hunting dog. For three days and nights, taking time out for only a few hours sleep, eating as they followed the trail, they chased the Jap.

Just at dawn of the fourth morning, right at the beach they found him. More exhausted than his pursuers, he surrendered readily, and the information which could have cost American lives did not reach the enemy.

The daring of a boy and the unerring nose of a dog had succeeded.

Take care of your dog. He deserves it. He probably has never smelled a Jap, or even a crippled duck, but his heart is just as strong, and his loyalty just as great as Blackie's.

If he is ailing remember there is a complete line of Dog Remedies, and the advice of a dog lover available at

THERE IS NO MIDDLE ROAD for the Marine Corps

They know their jobs . . . every single one of them . . . and they know what they're fighting for, too. No, there's no middle road for our United States Marines, they're heading right at the objective, with no punches pulled. That's why they've always been the first at the scene of battle. They're GOOD because they know it's either their necks or the enemy's, and they've been trained to fight with the best weapons ever made and PLENTY of them. A Marine's best friend is his gun . . . so stand behind him . . . see that he gets all the guns he needs to fight YOUR fight. BUY WAR BONDS!

Hand Grenades are his basic weapon. He's been trained in their use for any emergency.

Anti-Aircraft guns, the first line of defense in this war. Marines have thorough instruction in their use.

We call it a Gun. To your Marine it's his life saver. He's a crack shot from any position.

JUST IN CASE YOU DON'T KNOW, you're equipping your son, Joe, with his helmet, socks, leggings, and all the other articles listed at the left, that he has to have to fight this war! You're buying them all when you pay your electric bill!

If you buy electricity from a self-supporting, business-managed electric company, 24c out of every dollar you pay is promptly passed along as taxes. On an annual household electric bill of $37.50, the total tax is about $9.04.

Three dollars and twenty-four cents of this goes to local governments for schools, roads, police, etc.—and $5.79 goes to the federal government. At Army prices, the $5.79 paid by one family will equip one soldier with all the things shown here!

And that brings up a point: YOU CAN'T FIGHT A WAR WITHOUT TAXES! It takes money to equip an army, build planes and ships. That's why the total federal tax of the electric industry is more than $402,000,000—enough to buy millions of guns, planes and tanks.

We're proud of our stake in the fight for Freedom—proud to be able to pay our share of the cost to maintain the American way of living and working, proud to convert your electric bill into the supplies that your son needs on whatever front he's serving today.

Greater efficiency and economical methods make it possible for your electric company, managed by business men, to pay a big share of our national tax bill, provide abundant power for wartime usage, and, at the same time, serve you well—and cheaply!
