MARINES SLAUGHTER JAPS AT BORGES BAY

LOCAL FIRM IS BUYING WASTE PAPER

The national drive for the salvage of waste paper of all descriptions is meeting with fine success in many sections of the country, yet lagging in others. There is plenty of waste paper, but the trouble seems to be the lack of means to bundle it properly and deliver it to the dealer.

An investigation by the Daily Press today revealed that the Cisco Lumber & Supply company is apparently the only institution in the county that will buy or accept waste paper for shipment, probably due to the fact that after bundling, handling and shipping costs are subtracted, there is little if anything left for the shipper.

However, Cisco Lumber & Supply company will continue to accept waste paper as a patriotic act if it is delivered in proper shape, and will pay 30 cents per 100 pounds for newspapers, 40 cents for magazines and 50 cents for cardboard. Each of the three classifications must be in separate bundles and tied both ways.

No one can profit materially from the sale of waste paper, but the government needs it and Cisco people, who have never failed in any war appeal, should also strive to excel in this request.

SLAUGHTER IS VICE PRESIDENT ROTARY CLUB

Rotarians Thursday voted to dispense with their meeting set for February 3, in order to cooperate with the Lions in a program on February 2, which the latter club is sponsoring.

Rotarian J. J. Collins, talking for the motion, said the Lions had met with the Rotarians on a number of occasions and he felt his club should return the good neighbor gesture.

A number of detail matters were disposed of and a contest in history and public events was brought by J. E. Hays before he introduced M. D. Fox in a talk explaining the proposed building of a structure to house agricultural and other equipment owned by the agricultural department of Cisco high school.

Fox explained that the committee, of which W. J. Armstrong is chairman, proposed using the old dismantled dormitory base at Cisco Junior College as a nucleus for the building, saying it would require about $500 to buy material and about that much more for labor. He suggested that each Rotarian consider himself a special committee of one to talk the matter up, so quick action could be had when forces were ready to act.

A letter was read from Miss Doris Jamison thanking Rotarians for their Christmas gift and Bill Hogue thanked the club for the telegram of sympathy on the illness of his son.

President Lennie Shockley called attention to the fact that the departure from Cisco of Dr. Gary L. Smith, Rotary vice president, would necessitate the election of another to that position. J. W. Slaughter was elected by acclamation.

Darvin Krisel was introduced by Mifford Johnson as his successor as high school boy Rotarian for the month of January. Other visitors were T. J. McCarty of Abilene and M. D. Fox, guest speaker.

WEST TEXAS' DEEPEST.

HOUSTON, Jan. 7. — Phillips Petroleum company's No. 1 Price, a wildcat test southeast of Fort Stockton in Pecos county and the deepest well yet drilled in West Texas, was drilling near 12,925 feet in shale yesterday.

OPINIONS POST-WAR WORLD

Cooperating in a nationwide program of the Methodist church for a just and abiding peace following the war, the local First Methodist congregation will have a series of Sunday night services during January, with various lay members in charge of the discussions, says Rev. Leslie Seymour, the pastor.

This movement to provoke study and discussion of the major problems involved will be given emphasis and momentum in some eighty mass meetings in strategic population centers of the United States, the bishops of the church promoting and sponsoring these meetings under the name, Bishops' Crusade. One such program will be held in Ft. Worth, January 21, and another in Dallas, January 20.

The church leaders have said that the time for the people of America to exercise their convictions as to the place of our country in the post-war world and as to the kind of peace arrangements they deem most durable is now, before the peace is made, rather than afterwards when it will be too late to express themselves.

Local people who will participate in the Sunday night discussions are O. L. Stamey, George Boyd, C. J. Turner, Dr. C. E. Paul, S. H. Nance, Mrs. O. L. Stamey, Mrs. Leslie Seymour, Mrs. C. E. Paul, Mrs. W. H. Cole and others who will be designated later.

Mr. Seymour will preside at the meetings, which will also be at the usual hour of 7:30. He says there will be opportunity for all in the congregation to ask questions or to participate in the discussion. No effort will be made to present a finished pattern or plan for a world peace, but the talks seek to stimulate religious convictions with reference to great world problems.

BAPTISTS TO BUILD MEXICAN MISSION

At a meeting last night of the Brotherhood of First Baptist church it was announced that a small building has been purchased for use as a church by Cisco Mexicans. A lot will be purchased and money raised to remodel and furnish the mission.

East Cisco Baptist church had representatives present and Rev. Russell Dennis, pastor, said they had their part of the money ready to become one-third participants in the Brotherhood activity. Money sufficient to more than pay for the mission building was subscribed and paid in cash at the meeting. No money will be taken out of the church treasury for this project.

Algie Skiles, vice-president, was in charge of the meeting, W. H. LaRoque being elected president at the business session. Austin Flint made the committee report for the project.

About 35 persons attended the meeting and a chili supper was served.

PENSION ROLLS DECLINE.

AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—January old age assistance payments to 179,645 persons will be $2.30 below authorized grants. Total payment of $3,777,437.50 will result in an average of $21.03, an increase of eight cents over the December average. The rolls declined by 866 persons during December.

SERVICE MEN ONLY—One contingent of the 150 movie stars being sent to camps and hospitals by Hollywood Victory Committee and USO Camp Shows leaves to entertain servicemen.

DIVORCE SETS A FAST PACE FOR DAN CUPID

FT. WORTH, Jan. 7.—The war, apparently, has caused two "booms" in the category of conjugal bliss, a perusal of statistics on love (pro and con) revealed at the courthouse Thursday.

The figures, which are preliminary but more or less official, show that the county clerk's office issued 850 more marriage licenses in 1943 than in 1942. The total for 1943 was 4,845, and in 1942 it was 3,995. This speaks well for the activities of Dan Cupid.

However, at the district clerk's office figures show there has been an almost equal "boom" in divorce suits filed. Approximately 800 more divorce suits were filed in 1943 than in 1942, when a total of 2,914 such cases were filed.

Thus it appears that while ecstatic grooms are carrying their brides in the front door in greater numbers than ever before, an almost equal number of spouses are being kicked out of the kitchen door, lock, stock and alimony!

Cupid, to put it bluntly, will be doing well to break even when the official tabulation of marriages and divorces is issued next week.

GOING AFTER BUSINESS.

BIG SPRING, Jan. 7.—Members of the Big Spring chamber of commerce voluntarily raised their dues to that organization for another year, J. H. Green, manager said. The amount is around $1,000. "One firm started it and others fell in line," Green said.

NAZIS GET INVASION JITTERS

LONDON, Jan. 7. — Reported German intention to "quit all Russia" was featured by the London Evening News in a sensation-headlined story today based upon neutral correspondents' reports emanating from Berlin.

All sections of the British press quoted Nazi radio broadcasts and various dispatches to stress a new wave of "invasion jitters" sweeping over Germany. Numerous German spokesmen were quoted as admitting the Reich faces a "serious strain" on the Russian front.

The controlled radios in Hitler's worried Reich went all out to describe gigantic anti-invasion precautions on the French and Balkan coasts, always including the usual statements claiming that any attempted landing will meet with annihilating defeat.

Precautions were described as including thousands of guns and hundreds of thousands of mines, barbed wire defenses in depth, pillboxes bristling with guns and various other war material.

The Stockholm Tidningen's Berlin correspondent quoted a "high official" in the unnamed ministry as saying:

"The invasion threat from the west obviously is an extremely grave reality."

The spokesman added that Germany "may have to give up territory to fight a holding war."

Precautions have been made, he said to meet the opening of both a second and third front, but these preparations had tied down 100 divisions in the west.

"This threat," he declared, "has changed the German position, particularly on the eastern (Russian) front."

FEELING IS BITTER BETWEEN UNIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The rift among the five operating railway brotherhoods became more embittered today as three of the unions denounced the other two for accepting President Roosevelt's arbitration of their wage dispute.

Meeting to plan the next move in the wage controversy, 214 representatives of the three unions—the Firemen and Engineemen, Conductors and Switchmen—adopted a resolution condemning the "dishonorable action" of the trainmen and engineers unions "as being inimical to the interests of all employes engaged in engine, train and yard service."

JUDGE KENNON IS MAKING A GREAT FIGHT

Word from the bedside of Judge R. W. H. Kennon today was that the Cisco man is still on the mend. He is now able to feed himself and is beginning to thoroughly enjoy an occasional cigar.

He was removed to a Ranger hospital the night before Christmas—14 days ago—in a very critical condition, with apparently little hope of recovery.

Although in his 79th year, many of his Cisco friends have felt from the beginning of his illness that his unusual vitality would see him through this illness and back on the streets of Cisco.

PUTTING ON THE DOG—Broken hind leg doesn't seem to cramp style of this toy collie. Answering to name of Topsy, she's been strutting around Chicago showing off aluminum splint. She can even stand up for food.

NASTY WEATHER.

With a light, drizzling rain that started before daylight this morning and continued throughout the day, much colder weather and possibly sleet is probable tonight. Fort Worth expects 16-20 degree weather by morning and the Abilene bureau predicts the thermometer will fall to 18 degrees tonight.

LEADERSHIP.

Washington observers are saying that the president's grip on congress has been slipping lately, and indeed outlanders themselves have noticed it. But a correspondent adds that he will have a good chance to recover his leadership when he makes what is expected to be a memorable address to congress on Jan. 10.

Mr. Roosevelt himself said on Christmas Eve that he would have "a great deal to say about certain conditions here at home." And it must be admitted that there is much to be said about them, both critically and by way of inspiration, if this nation is to quit running around in circles and settle down soberly to do the job that has to be done.

Nagging and backbiting and recrimination, however, will do no good. People mean well, but need leadership. When that is provided in ample measure, there is nothing they cannot do. No particular "deal" or "doctor" is needed, as the president seemed to suggest in a recent statement. Just get Americans stirred up to a realization of the immense issues at stake, and the immense power our people have to deal with them, and they'll do the rest.

Always, of course, with continuous and understanding leadership from the national power house in Washington.

GOING UP!

After a long and almost winning fight against inflation, wages and prices have definitely started up. Many expert observers insist that this was unnecessary, that the economic line could have been held if the government had stood fast and large economic groups—especially the industrial war workers—had cooperated. But people in politics are afraid of the cars, and other groups want to jump on and go for a ride, and the final result is that everybody is taken for a ride.

The situation is not yet so bad as this may sound. The government still has a good deal of economic control in its hands, and there are millions of sensible people in this country. But there is not enough wholesome fear of the inflation devil, or enough understanding of what that form of diabolism can do to a nation that is usually rather canny.

It might be helpful just now if the American public were reminded, in clear, simple and unemotional terms, of the way Germany and her neighbors went to pieces financially at the end of the last war. This nation, governmentally and personally, has to learn the magical art of handling of billions of dollars without losing its collective head in an orgy of wage and price inflation.

Willkie and Reds.

Dallas News: The outbreak of the Communist official paper, Pravda, against Wendell L. Willkie will hurt the cause of Russia with intelligent people in this country. The Red journal does Willkie an injustice. But the damage to Soviet prestige in this country will come, not so much from the feeling that the attack is unfair to the American statesman, as from the conviction that the Soviet observers are not nearly as astute, clearheaded and realistic as most Americans have been led to believe that they are. It will also come from the realization that the Russian press has for so long been permitted to present only the government viewpoint that their official party paper does not understand the manner in which every one in America speaks and writes on his own responsibility.

The Soviet attack leaves Willkie in the position of the feeding hand that has been bitten. No one, excepting possibly Joseph E. Davis, has done more than Willkie to convince the American people that we can get along with Russia in both war and postwar periods. Very few Americans will ascribe to Willkie's discussion of the future status of the states which surround Russia anything more than outspoken interest in better future relations between the Soviet Union and other countries of the world. While the article puts Willkie in an embarrassing position, it is doubtful if the Pravda attack will diminish his present political strength.

Incidentally, the American and British governments and the world at large should take note of this new evidence of the inflexible intention of Russia to fix its own borders. Because Russia has fought most of the battle against Germany and because of her geographic position, she will probably be able to enforce her demands. Indeed, Russia is solving this problem to her own satisfaction by allegedly fair plebiscites without regard to the will of other nations with whom she may join in a postwar world pact. The realistic thing for us to do, officially at any rate, is to let the Russian boundary problem alone and fight the war until the enemy is defeated. The Soviet official press should co-operate by refusing to make international incidents of opinions expressed by our private citizens.

(From Files of Cisco Daily News)

Cisco's postoffice will be first class hereafter — the first Eastland county postoffice to obtain that classification. Receipts for the year at the Cisco office totaled $40,340.40, or $340.40 more than the required business of $40,000. This represents an increase of about $11,000 or a gain of a little over 35 per cent over the receipts of the preceding year, and reflects the rapid growth of Cisco. Postmaster J. W. Triplitt asserted.

"There is about twice as much interest in the Rev. Frank Norris trial as there is in the meeting of the legislature," declared Mayor J. M. Williamson, who returned Wednesday night from a trip to Austin. The mayor said he found the town crowded with many persons who came on account of one or the other of the two events, and that much discussion of the Norris trial could be heard on all sides. Mr. Norris is alleged to have killed D. E. Chipps, in Ft. Worth.

C. P. Varnell will be Cisco's agricultural expert and instructor in agriculture at Cisco high school. This was announced Saturday night following a meeting of the school board in the afternoon at which Mr. Varnell was present. The new instructor comes from Talco, Texas. Mr. Varnell was employed by the school board and his salary fixed at $3,200 per year. His present salary at Talco is $3,000 a year.

Preparations for the Texas A. A. U. boys' basketball tournament to be played in Cisco February 25 and 26 are now under way, it was announced Wednesday at the high school, where the tournament will be held. Last year Cisco was host to the A. A. U. girls' tournament. According to word received from state headquarters of the A. A. U. in Dallas, at least twenty teams are expected to compete in the state championship games here.

Work will start immediately on construction of the Cisco fish hatchery. This was the assurance given city officials Friday by a party from the state game, fish, and oyster commission who accompanied the contractors here for an inspection trip. The site of the state hatchery at Lake Cisco was inspected by the engineers, headed by Engineer Garrett, and plans were made for immediate construction of the $50,000 plant.

Marion Olson of Cisco, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Olson won third place in the final debate try-outs at the University of Texas, and received a prize of $50. It was announced from Austin Saturday. He won this place from a field of 12, including Frank Killough of Eastland. The subject for debate was "Resolved that congress should enact legislation embodying the principles of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bills."

Never Trust a Jap

Here is a combat picture taken during the battle for Tarawa of Marines surrounding a Jap pill-box. The Japs made were ordered to come out and surrender when the strong point was surrounded. They refused. The Marines took no chances and deployed a second line to prevent any surprise attack from the rear. Then they went in. Result: A pill-box full of Japs went to their ancestors. SMALL NUMBER OF WORKERS IS DISAPPOINTING

Twenty-five women completed 1,594 surgical dressings at

Cisco Red Cross rooms yesterday. This was a nice output for the number of workers present, but those directing the war work are disappointed that more volunteers do not respond. Attention is again called to the fact that women need not be experienced in surgical dressings work and should not remain away because they are without previous experience. If they will come and tender their help, they will gladly be taught.

Mr. Wagner from St. Louis, field representative of the American Red Cross, together with Mrs. Joseph Perkins of Eastland county chairman, visited the work rooms yesterday. These officials said that from now on all work quotes would be much heavier than in the past, and that therefore we MUST HAVE MORE WORKERS.

Here is the littered beach at Tarawa covered with ammunition boxes, and other Marine gear, with camouflaged whetters-half in case the Japs tried an air attack. Only a few hours earlier Marines had died here by the score as they came ashore from their transports. But win they did in the toughest fight in the long and tough history of the Marine Corps. U. S. NAVAL POWER.
NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Navy Undersecretary Forrestal says 65 aircraft carriers and 13,617 combatant naval planes were built in 1943, and the navy "now has the greatest sea and air striking power in the world."

Make 1944 Victory Year

Resolve to do your job better this year than ever before. Let each day be a base upon which to build a better structure than you built yesterday. Doing it better is the secret of our victories which we have already won and which we expect to keep winning each time we contact the enemy. The will to fight and to win marks the difference between American fighters and those who are forced to do it, and that half heartedly. Be a better citizen, a better parent, a better neighbor, a better churchman, and a better friend to your friends.

An EMPTY TIN CAN and a SPOONFUL OF GREASE
Are Mighty Weapons in This War!

Superiority in the air . . . the prerequisite to victory on the battlefield . . . can only be obtained by use of hundreds of planes, bombers and fighters. These planes must be armed. The fighter must have thousands of rounds of machine gun bullets; the bomber must have bombs, fifty pounders or block-busters.

YOU, an American housewife, can help arm these planes. The spoonful of waste grease you pour into the empty tin can is a mighty weapon of war. The grease you save and sell to your local grocer goes into the making of nitroglycerine . . . the basic explosive used in bombs and bullets.

Our job here at your electric service company is to furnish the power that turns the wheels that makes the planes that carry the bombs and the bullets which your kitchen helped to furnish. The job of producing planes to secure and maintain superiority in the air is a job that only American industry backed by power produced in business managed, privately owned electric companies could accomplish. Seven eights of all power used in war production is produced by companies operating under the American system of private enterprise.

GRIND?

PERK KUT—Intended only for percolators, this is the coarsest of our grinds. Admission's special process grinds the coffee to uniform-size particles, free from coffee dust. Perk Kut produces a perfect brew—in percolators.

DRIPKUT—This grind is ideal for all the various types of drip pots. It has the consistency of a fine meal, and like all Admission grinds is free from coffee dust. Hot water has but to saturate it to extract all the flavor.

GLASSDRIP—Vacuum coffee makes brew on an entirely different principle from percolators or drip pots. A vacuum literally "pulls" the flavor from the coffee. Such coffee-makers require a very fine, almost flour-like grind—and that's exactly what Glassdrip is.

Grind is very important in coffee-making. It has a direct bearing on the strength of your brew and the quality of its flavor. Too fine a grind for your pot produces a sediment in the brew. This often makes coffee bitter. Too coarse a grind brews improperly and results in weak, flavorless coffee. The exact grind recommended for your coffee-maker is what you should use. It will be one of three standard grinds: for the percolator . . . for the drip pot . . . or for the vacuum bottle. Admission Coffee is scientifically ground for all three. When you buy and brew the right grind, the final strength and flavor of Admission will be exactly as its roasters intended it. And you, like countless thousands, will love it. Try a pound today.
