MANCILL RECALLS COLD DAY YEAR AGO

Commenting on weather variations, R. W. Mancill recalls that on January 25—one year ago yesterday—Cisco thermometers stood at 15 degrees above zero, with cold winds whipping around the corners and a coat of ice everywhere.

In the afternoon of that day the Mancill building, which was occupied by Nance Motor company, caught fire and was completely destroyed, together with its contents. Firemen fought the blaze valiantly, but could do little in the extreme cold that froze hose lines and otherwise handicapped their efforts. However, the fire was prevented from spreading to adjacent property.

Yesterday, at the same time the fire was raging a year ago, Cisco thermometers registered 60—a difference of 45 degrees.

SWEETHEART WINNER—Trudy Zagel of Chicago will probably win Sweetheart contest, Yanks in Australia are holding. Photo she sent to an officer was published and votes poured in.

JAS. ROMINGER IS RECOVERING FROM BURNS

Mrs. G. R. Whitney of Breckenridge has been notified that her son, Capt. James Rominger, who was severely wounded in Italy, is now recovering but will probably be in hospital for several months. The information came from his nurse.

The Cisco officer and soldier was standing over a buried mine while a battle was raging. The mine exploded and he received severe burns about his head and on other parts of his body.

COUNTY LOSES AI DEMONSTRATION AGENT

A. & M. College announces appointment of Miss Gladys Martin as home dairy specialist for the extension service, effective February 16.

Miss Martin will have her headquarters at College Station and work with farm women and girls throughout the state. For more than two years she has served as home demonstration agent of Eastland county directing a program that reached 2,000 farm homes in 1943.

Previous to coming to Eastland county, Miss Martin had been home demonstration agent in Jones, Coryell, Culberson, Presidio and Tom Green counties. Her wide experience in counties having varying types of agriculture particularly fits her for the new assignment. Her successor will be named in the near future, says Miss Maurine Hearn, district home demonstration agent, who met with the county commissioners court Monday.

65 OUT OF 3,500 UNIONS FILE REPORTS

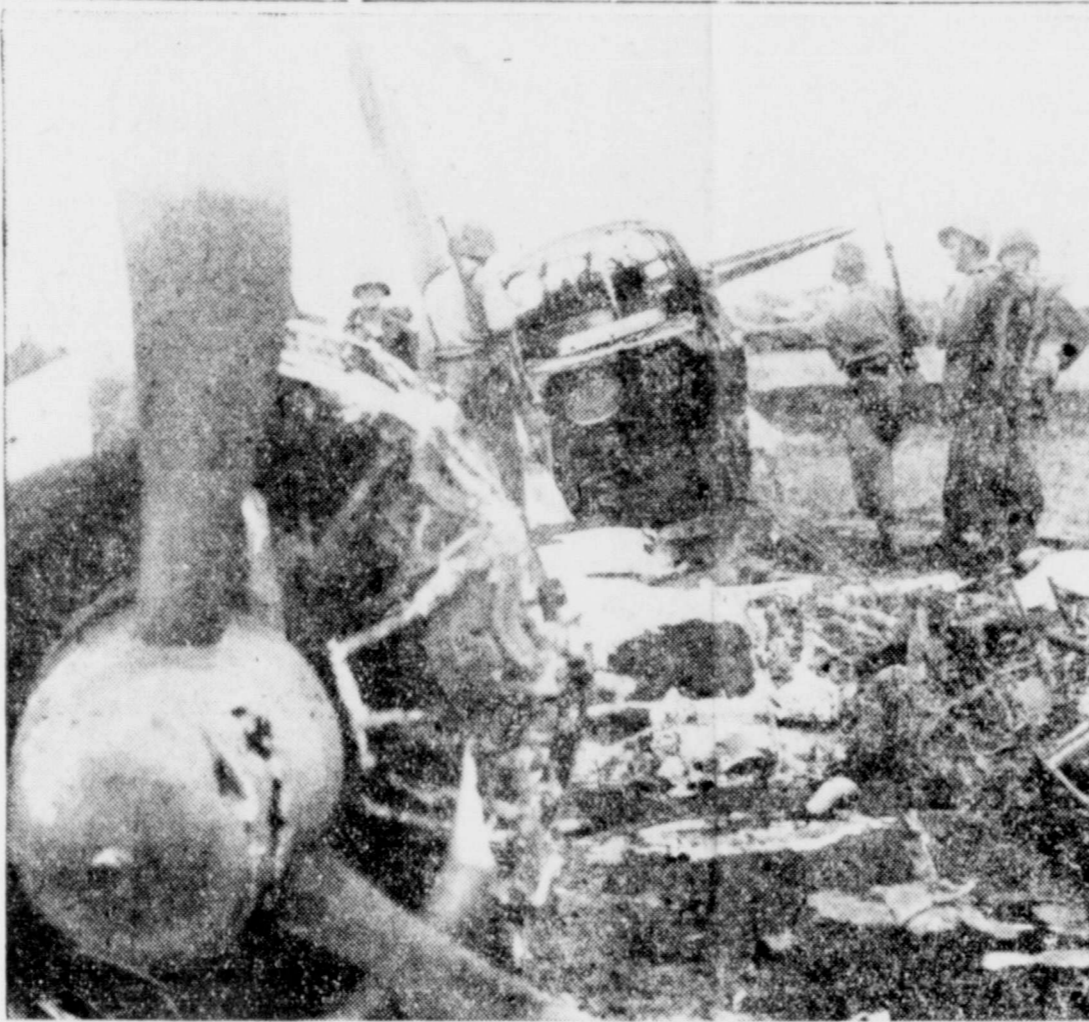

AUSTIN, Jan. 26.—Financial reports from labor unions required under the Manford act are being received regularly as the first filing date, Feb. 1, approaches, Secretary of State Sidney Latham said.

The law requires such reports to be filed on Feb. 1 each year or at some date during the year more convenient to the union, upon approval of the secretary of state, Latham said. He considers this authority allows him to grant an extension of one month after the date upon which a union regularly closes its books. A union with a fiscal year ending Aug. 31, for instance, may obtain permission to file its annual report by Oct. 1.

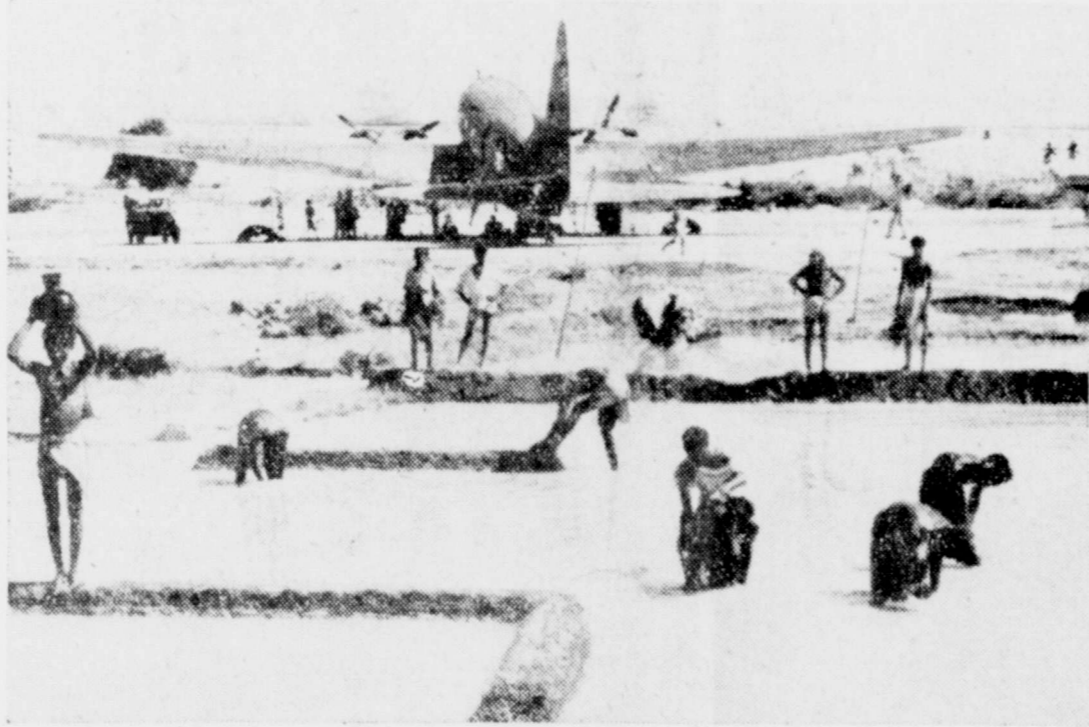

Latham said that he has refused all requests from unions seeking longer extension and for postponement of the financial report requirement until validity of the act is tested finally in the courts. One case now is before the United States supreme court, with decisions favoring the law in state courts, and an Austin district court has held the whole act constitutional except three sections which the attorney general did not attempt to defend.

Approximately sixty-five unions have made financial reports, of an estimated 3,500 or more in the state. The initial reports are required to cover only the period from Aug. 10, 1943, date the law became effective.

Latham reported that 738 organizers cards have been issued through his office, with one denied to a man who refused to say whether he was a citizen of the United States and whether he had been convicted of a felony.

WRECKED WARBIRDS—Twisted remains of Jap planes smashed by our bombers lie on the airfield at Cape Gloucester, New Britain. Part of first contingent of Marines to arrive at the airfield now in our hands examine the wreckage and pay tribute to the deadly effectiveness of American airmen and superiority of planes they fly.

WASHING DAY—Bathing in pool at base of India-China wing of Air Transport Command in the Far East, natives who work on construction of airport facilities get chance to remove some grime. In background, mechanics go over motor of huge cargo plane, which flies supplies into China over some of the world's most dangerous terrain.

CISCOAN HEADS CHIROPRACTIC ASSOCIATION

The Chiropractic Association of the Twenty-fourth district, which is composed of Eastland and eleven other West Texas counties, met at Brownwood last Sunday, elected officers, dined together and discussed many matters of importance to the profession.

Dr. C. E. Paul of Cisco was made president, Dr. Elliott of Sweetwater was chosen for vice president and Dr. Hobbs of Abilene was elected secretary-treasurer.

It was a joint meeting of three senatorial districts and was attended by chiropractors from as far away as El Paso. About 75 were present.

SHE WAS RESOURCEFUL

The home demonstration clubs of Eastland county are reupholstering furniture during January, Mrs. W. E. Tankersley of the Morton Valley club bought some new furniture, but since it had no springs, she used springs from an old chair and reupholstered it. She used some old bed springs in the cushion for her chair and this made a very comfortable piece of furniture, says Gladys Martin, county home demonstration agent.

HERO'S END—Cowling of American fighting plane lying in a San Francisco junk yard tells its own story. Proprietor T. I. Cooper indicates the markings showing that plane had been on 15 bombing missions and had shot down three Jap Zeros.

GLOVE FACTORY EQUIPMENT ARRIVING HERE

Considerable business of routine nature was transacted at last night's session of the city commission. Present were Mayor Edward Lee, Commissioners Charles J. Kleiner, A. D. Anderson, Henry Drumwright, George Boyd, J. J. Collins and City Secretary George W. Downie.

The matter of general interest up for discussion pertained to the Boss Manufacturing company of Kewanee, Ill., which next month will begin the operation of a glove factory here.

The building to be occupied by the nationally-known concern is owned by the city and the need for slight alterations has developed, but the expense for same will be small. For instance, all open-flame heating equipment will have to be discarded and other heating types installed, as demanded by insurance companies of glove manufacturing plants. This is being done, plant equipment is arriving and Dean K. Haralson of Dallas, the company's representative, is thoroughly pleased with local cooperation. Mr. Haralson is in Dallas today, but will call Laguna Hotel, Cisco, home until the plant and its working personnel is organized and moving along smoothly.

RISING STAR-CISCO BASKETBALL MATCH

Cisco and Rising Star basketball teams will lock horns at the gym here Thursday night at 8 o'clock in a double header to include both A and B teams, according to Coach C. B. Midkiff, who says the visitors have been showing up well and might give his boys a real battle.

The Lobos have snapped into their training in a manner to show signs of being a formidable aggregation, and Coach Midkiff is optimistic for a good schedule during the basketball season. A small admission will be charged.

10,083,771 BU. GRAIN TO U.S. EACH MONTH

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 26.—The Canadian wheat board said today about 200 United States railway cars have been coming into western Canada daily for grain to meet livestock needs in the United States.

A board spokesman said that cars had been arriving in increasing numbers this month and that if the 200-a-day continued, an estimated 10,083,771 bushels of grain could be exported by rail to the U. S. each month.

UNITED TEXAS DRIES

DALLAS, Jan. 26.—Resumption of whiskey manufacture and the use of food commodities for making beer and wine were opposed in resolutions adopted here yesterday at the convention of the United Texas Dries. Resolutions also frowned on liquor ads in newspapers and on the radio. Encouraging the use of alcohol among troops was deplored.

POLL TAX PAYMENTS

FT. WORTH, Jan. 26.—Chances that poll tax payments this year may reach the 50,000 goal set by tax officials improved today with a report that receipts issued through Tuesday had reached 17,350 to forge 4,045 ahead of the same date in 1940, previous record year. Total for 1940 was 42,227.

JAPS LOSE 80 PLANES AND 5 CARGO VESSELS; ALLIES NOW 19 MILES SOUTHEAST OF ROME

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 26.—Argentina broke diplomatic relations with the Axis Nations today in a dramatic move to end German espionage in the Western Hemisphere.

Foreign Minister Col. Alberto Gilbert announced the news in a broadcast to the nation at 9:50 a. m., after a series of hurried conferences with diplomatic representatives of the United States, Great Britain and Germany.

Gilbert said relations with both Germany and Japan had been terminated because those nations were using their diplomatic privileges to further espionage activities against the United Nations.

The move, foreshadowed for the last 24 hours by reports of increasing pressure upon Argentina from London and Washington, closed off the last Axis listeningpost in the Americas.

All other South American nations already had broken relations with, or declared war upon, the Axis.

The United Nations had charged repeatedly that Axis agents used the German Embassy and consular offices in Argentina to gather information on Allied military plans and shipping movements.

Gilbert brought the situation to a head last night with the announcement that his government was ready to take the "final step" to end these espionage activities which he said, had harmed the national prestige and compromised Argentina's honor.

NEW GUINEA, Jan. 26.—American fighters and bombers shot down or damaged 80 Japanese planes and hit five enemy cargo vessels in new blows at shipping and air strength supplying Japan's Southwest Pacific defense lines, it was announced today.

The attacks, leveled at Rabaul, enemy base on the northern tip of New Britain, and Lorengau, on Admiralty Island 370 miles northwest of Rabaul, cost only five planes as the Americans achieved an 11-to-1 margin of superiority.

Medium bombers and fighters attacked Lorengau Monday, setting three 1000-ton cargo ships afire in the harbor, an important link in the Japanese supply and outpost system.

Two other cargo ships were damaged severely and several barges and harbor craft were destroyed at the harbor, which is on the northeastern tip of the largest island in the Admiralty Islands group. Seven enemy fighter planes were destroyed on the ground at Lorengau airdrome and at Motote airstrip, on the eastern coast of nearby Los Negros Island.

Heaviest toll of Japanese fighter strength was taken at Rabaul Sunday, when 150 planes, including torpedo-planes and dive-bombers and fighters, surprised the enemy with an early morning attack, shooting down 32 planes and probably 14 others rising to intercept.

ALGIERS, Jan. 26.—Allied invasion troops were reported today pressing forward against stiffening but still light resistance in their drive outflanking Rome to the south and front dispatches indicated the Germans had abandoned Cassino amidst signs of a withdrawal from the Gustav Line.

(The Cairo Radio said that the Allies had captured Velletri, strong point on the Apennine Way 19 miles southeast of Rome. Swiss dispatches said the Nazis had declared a state of siege in Rome. Reports from the new beachhead said American tank units were driving northward above the Mussolini Canal.)

Mounting German opposition to the drive against transport lines between Rome and the old Fifth Army front was attributed to the removal of Nazi "battle groups" pulled northward to counter the invasion threat.

(Lt. Gen. Jacob L. Devers, deputy commander in chief in the Mediterranean, said at advanced headquarters that "We and the enemy are about equal on land, but we have the strength in the air and on the sea.")

HOUSE GROUP "SOCKS" WLB UNION POLICY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The WLB was accused by a special house committee today of violating the Constitution by requiring maintenance-of-union membership clauses in contracts between workers and employers.

The committee, set up to investigate "acts of executive agencies beyond the scope of their authority," declared in a blistering report to the house that the Constitution can not be suspended by the president or his agents "merely because a state of war exists."

If the Labor Board's "authority remains unanswered and unremedied," the report said, "it will imperil our present economic system and will mark the transition of our government from one of laws to one of men."

THE LONG WAIT.

To the Russians, weary fighting and winning one great battle after another on the Mid-European front, it must seem as if their western allies are taking a terribly long time to get their big push started. The Western Front is still far away, and the common enemy in between still seems so tough and powerful.

The Russians have wrought miracles of re-conquest in their drive to Central Europe, and are still pressing westward with seemingly undiminished force. But such super-human effort has its limits. So have the hope and patience of the Russians themselves.

There is logic in the slow, patient completeness with which the western Allies are preparing their great fighting machine to crush the enemy between themselves and the approaching Russians. But the physical and mental endurance of the Russians are not endless. In wartime particularly, "hope deferred maketh the heart sick." Every day that can be gained in launching the western front offensive may be worth a week of ordinary warfare.

UNTAPPED RICHES.

The most unpromising parts of the world are gradually being sought after. The Mackenzie river of northwest Canada lies in a bleak region, whose harsh climate has kept population down to a minimum. Yet it has vast oil resources, known as far back as 1887, recently advertised by Lieut. Gen. Brehon B. Somervell's project of development, which the Truman senatorial committee has perhaps rightly condemned as extravagant. Whatever the present decision, oil is so vital to industry today that the Mackenzie deposits are sure to be tapped before long.

Large beds of coal are known to lie under the ice of the Antarctic continent. Their remoteness and forbidding climate stand in the way of their development. Yet some day commercial use may be made of Antarctic coal.

CHINESE ISOLATION.

Isolation after the war is a course some people would like to see the United States adopt. Soldiers who have had enough of the Solomons or the hills of Italy understandably feel this way. Other countries have in the past had the same idea. Yet it has never worked, not even for the country that tried it longest.

China discouraged foreigners, but was never able to get along without them. Not even in her earliest period, when her needs were small, and travel difficulties made other nations seem a great distance off. Prof. L. Carrington Goodrich of John Hopkins University has made this clear in his newly published "Short History of China."

Even in her earliest days the Chinese used shells for money, and these came from the Indian Ocean. The cloth they borrowed from Western Asia. Rice, the one article of food that is universally associated with China, did not originate there, but near the Bay of Bengal.

The effects of isolation in China was to leave her behind the times and at the mercy of more progressive nations.

DEBT PAYMENTS.

There are some good points, anyway, in war-time expenditures. The volume of money in circulation enables hundreds of thousands of private debtors to pay off their debts. The United States Savings and Loan League predicts that there will be a reduction of about $4,000,000,000 on the principal of home mortgage loans this year. Probably another billion or two of debt in various forms could be rubbed out if debtors really set their minds to it.

Wise people will go the limit in this thrifty spree. It is well to pay private debts of all kinds while the payment is comparatively easy. All too soon this mild inflation bubble may burst and its rainbow colors vanish. The big debts of the future will be the public debts owed by Uncle Sam for financing the fight for freedom. He will have to collect the wherewithal as he can, in the form of federal taxes, even in election years.

LONE STAR IS FIRST TO COMPLY WITH ACT

Lone Star Gas company and the Securities and Exchange commission have parted in an amicable agreement, according to a report from the New York Times, which stated that the company was the first holding company to comply with the commission's de-registration order. The order was issued in connection with the company's reorganization and its sale to El Paso and Galveston projects.

OPPORTUNITY.

You may not possess great wealth or fame; Dame fortune may never have beamed on you; But you may always bestow a smile And kindly words from a heart that's true. For kindness, though free, is a leading balm When sadness has darkened some lonely life; It serves as oil on a turbulent stream And calms a heart that is filled with strife. As a pebble that's cast upon a pond Starts ripples that spread and larger grow— So kindly words may a joy enhance, That will cause a heart to overflow. It is yours to enrich, with words of cheer, The lives of many—not a favored few; You may not possess great wealth or fame— But better than that . . . a heart that's true. —MRS. DONIZA STOWE.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about a pint a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or steady passages with astringent and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will take the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
