Cisco Tops Its Bond Quota With Nice Total of $174,092.50

Exceeding its assigned quota by $38,092.50, the city of Cisco has gone over the top in the purchase of Fourth War Loan Bonds in a thoroughly satisfactory manner.

The grand total for Cisco was $174,092.50 at the close of business yesterday and of this amount $67,432.50 is Series E Bonds, or bonds of small denominations.

The quota set for Cisco was $136,000, with about $60,000 of that amount to be E Bonds. So, it is seen, both goals were passed.

Detailed statement:

First National Bank	$ 90,517.00
Allocations	61,330.50
Palace Theater	14,370.00
Cisco Postoffice	7,875.00
Total	$174,092.50

As a matter of justifiable pride, it may be said here that Cisco and Eastland county have exceeded all bond quotas so far assigned them by the federal government.

U. S. AWAY OVER TOP IN BOND DRIVE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The $14,000,000,000 Fourth War Loan drive is over the top by at least $191,000,000.

Although the drive ended at midnight Tuesday, all purchases by individuals reported to Federal Reserve Banks during the remainder of the month will be counted toward the final total to be announced on March 2.

Individual purchases Tuesday still were more than $1,800,000,000 short of their $5,500,000,000 quota.

Texas Over, Too.

DALLAS, Feb. 16.—Nathan Adams, state chairman of the Fourth War Loan drive, said last night that Texas exceeded her $395,000,000 quota by $1,388,215, and sent a message to Texas' 36th Division, fighting in Italy, advising the men of that fact.

MAC ARTHUR REPORTS ADDITIONAL SUCCESSSES, BUT SAYS JAP ARMY UNWHIPPED

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Allied commander in the Southwest Pacific, warned today against over-confidence as Allied forces completed a new conquest of Japanese territory by seizing the Green Islands, at the northern tip of the Solomon, only 120 miles from the big enemy base at Rabaul.

In a formal statement issued by his headquarters, MacArthur said conquest of Japan's outlying Pacific Islands no longer could be considered "decisive" and warned that the Allies must defeat her army before victory can be assured.

He said it was useless and misleading to talk of short-cuts, for "they do not exist."

The statement came shortly after a communique disclosed the occupation of Green Islands by American and New Zealand troops who landed under cover of naval and air forces, and met little resistance from the defenders.

The seizure followed by three days the surprise occupation of Rooke Island, between New Guinea and New Britain, and left 22,000 Japanese soldiers stranded in the area, facing death or surrender.

Allied fliers continued assaults on enemy bases, striking principally at Rabaul, where they unleashed 171 tons of bombs in the 11th consecutive raid this month. At least seven planes were shot down, and probably five others, and eight were destroyed on the ground. The Allies lost three planes.

Tokyo Radio said American naval units bombed Taroa Island in the Marshalls Monday, but the report was not confirmed from other sources.

Japanese airmen broke a silence of several weeks by bombing Roi and Namur Islands in a pre-dawn attack last Saturday. They started several fires and caused a few casualties, although the extent of these was not disclosed.

Allied Headquarters spokesmen said the American bombing and shelling yesterday had "completely destroyed" the 1415-year-old shrine, tumbling its ancient buildings into a twisted, smoldering mass of rubble.

Allied Headquarters spokesmen said the American bombing and shelling yesterday had "completely destroyed" the 1415-year-old shrine, tumbling its ancient buildings into a twisted, smoldering mass of rubble.

German troops swarmed back into the ruins during the night, however, and prepared for a death battle against the American riflemen moving slowly up the mountain slopes.

(The German High Command commented in its communique that "the ruins of Cassino Monastery are now incorporated in the German defensive front.")

Official Allied sources indicated, however, that the aerial and artillery bombardment hurled against the monastery had deprived the Nazis of their strongest defensive position in the Cassino sector.

A "serious breach" has been torn in the German lines barring the way to the Via Cassina, little more than a mile west of Mount Cassino, one commentator said.

Latest official reports placed the American forward lines within a few hundred yards of the monastery, facing a savage crossfire from the ruins and from a network of steel and concrete pillboxes surrounding it.

Front dispatches indicated that the Red Army was stepping up the intensity of its widespread blows against the Nazis, and an imposing array of triumphs might be in the making.

MOSCOW.—The Red Army closed in for the kill today on the survivors of 10 German divisions packed into a 35-square-mile Ukrainian pocket and far to the north encircled a number of Nazi rear guard units on the approaches to Pskov.

As the bitter battle to the death raged toward a Russian victory along the middle Dnieper, Soviet forces of the northern front raced in converging columns for Pskov, the gateway to Latvia, and deployed before Narva for an assault on the Estonia stronghold.

Others present were J. D. Lauderdale, president; P. R. Warwick, secretary; M. D. Fox, agricultural representative; J. J. Callaway, J. R. Deen, Nick Miller, J. L. Thornton, E. P. Crawford, L. A. Warren, R. N. Cluck and George Boyd, city commissioner.

GORMAN GROUP TO GROW BETTER COTTON

Cotton producers met at Gorman Saturday and elected the following officers for the 1944 Cotton Improvement association: W. R. Usery, president; Len Trimble, vice president; Charlie Garrett, secretary-treasurer.

The purpose of this cotton improvement group is to cooperate with the government in producing a long staple cotton. At present there is a surplus of short staple cotton, but since the demand by the armed forces is for a longer product, the association wishes to comply with that requirement. The government will reimburse the producer 72 cents a bushel on Class A planting seed and 37 cents a bushel on Class B planting seed.

To qualify for this subsidy a cotton improvement association such as formed at Gorman is necessary. Any group of producers signing at one gin and having the cooperation of their ginners may qualify for this service by applying for a charter.

The Gorman group has called a meeting for Saturday, Feb. 19, 3 o'clock, at the Key gin, and urges all producers that gin at Key gin to be present in order that planting seed may be obtained. Acala is the variety recommended by the state cotton improvement committee of Eastland county.

HELP FOR CHINA.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, with a vision that takes in the whole Far Eastern problem, declares that Japan cannot be defeated by sea power alone, but must be fought from bases in China.

So "ancient and honorable China," after difficulties, delays and privations that would have worn out any other nation long ago, "gets a break." The brave little Chinese-American air force will be strengthened. Adequate supplies will be got into China somehow.

China has been patient indeed, shut in as she has been by land and sea, her people fighting and dying in almost countless numbers for her own freedom and the common cause. Even yet she must wait. But now there is real hope.

BULKY GRUB.

It is an old story, made familiar by Rudyard Kipling in a generation now almost forgotten, that "What Tommy Atkins wants is bulk in his insides." There seems to have been undue faith in pills for fighting men.

Dr. David L. Thomson of Montreal says, in a recent address: "To insure the intake of all the needed vitamins, we must think in terms of nutrition. The right way to get them is in our food. Energy needs bulk, something we get only through food."

BATTLES AND FAME.

Over Cassino, scene of bloody fighting between Americans and Germans, hangs the lofty peak of Monte Cassino. How many fighters know that this is one of the most famous spots in Europe?

Here in 529, St. Benedict founded a monastery, based on the principles of labor and strict obedience, out of which grew the whole Benedictine movement and scores of monasteries all over the world. The parent institution remained famous not only for its offspring, but because in the early Middle Ages it came as near as possible, before the invention of printing, to being the greatest university and publishing house of Europe.

The abbey is now a wreck, which was made necessary by Allied efforts to oust the Nazis, who had taken over and fortified it and were killing Allied soldiers from that vantage point.

SUBSIDIZED EDUCATION.

When Johnny comes marching home from this war, what is the situation going to be? That is the practical, human situation as regards men and work? It is not too early for some serious thinking about it.

President James B. Conant of Harvard University recently warned the academic world it is destined to suffer a shock more severe than any yet experienced in our history. The schools below college level are expected to get along somewhat as usual, but institutions of higher learning will probably need federal subsidies, and this will be especially true of the graduate schools.

Americans have never favored close association of education and government. It will be something new to have students, for any reason, getting their academic funds from Washington. It may be next to impossible in such a situation to keep politics out of education, although the tradition of academic freedom is still strong in this country.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED BY BETA Upsilon.
 Beta Upsilon chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, celebrated its eighth birthday Saturday night on the roof garden of Laguna hotel with a splendid program.

Members of the chapter met at 6:30 in the blue room for initiation of three new members—Miss Olga Fay Ford and Mrs. J. E. Baker, active members, and Mrs. Homer Slicker, honorary member. FILM BASED ON JACK LONDON'S RUSSO-JAP WAR REPORTS REVEAL ATROCITIES OLD NIP TRICKS

Pictures from left to right show Jap soldier drinking cup of water while Russian military prisoners beg for drink. (lower) Water is pumped into large receptacle and dumped out later, while military prisoners (shown in the Samuel Bronston-United Artists production, "Jack London") are dying of thirst. Captured Russian soldiers are tied together in an early version of the "death march" forced upon American and Philipino prisoners of war forty years later.

When Russian prisoners became restless in their Jap prison, a machine gun crew smilingly turned its weapon upon them, with the result that many met death (see below) for the "hideous crime" of asking for water.

Jack London, played by Michael O'Shea, is put in a Jap military prison, for reporting these atrocities. He also told the world, in 1905, that Japan would some day attack United States Pacific outposts as they had Port Arthur. (A sneak attack upon Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941 was almost identical with their attack on Port Arthur forty years before.)

Captain Tanaka (Leonard Strong), of the Jap Army, entertains Jack London (Michael O'Shea) and explains Japan's Greater Asia theory. It was after this that London made his way to the front and reported on the Jap manner of treating war prisoners.

TO HELP YOU...

Take Good Care of Your Gas Range
Here are 7 Suggestions

Just because your gas range is built to last many years is no reason why its care should be neglected. You want to make it last and keep its performance at a high standard of efficiency for new ones will not be plentiful until the war is over and the peace is won.

- Do not put wet dishes directly on the enamel. (This enamel is glass.) Protect top with asbestos mats.
- Wipe off spilled foods at once, with dry cloth. Later when range is cool, clean with damp cloth.
- To clean top burners of aluminum or enamel, use mild soapuds; rinse and dry. (Do not boil in soda solution.)
- To clean broiler grill, let cool before washing with soapuds; use fine steel wool. (Remove grill and pan from the range, as soon as food is taken
- Whenever possible, use only a moderate heat for broiling, and you will find the broiler easier to clean. (Many foods broil well with a moderate heat.)
- The oven-lining will last longer, if you roast meats at low temperatures (250° to 325°). It makes better-tasting meat besides, and also cuts down grease-spatter on oven-walls.
- To clean up spill-overs on oven-floor, let cool, and then use a fine steel wool.
- Don't load the oven-door with heavy roasts, as you put them in or take them out. It might warp the door.
