YANKS GAIN MILE AT ANZIO BY HARD FIGHTING

CISCO BOY MAKES GOOD IN SERVICE

A publication issued from the Corsicana flying field carried an interesting article recently concerning a Cisco boy, Staff Sgt. O. L. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clark of this city. Sergeant Clark, 22, was born here and entered the service in 1940. The article bore the caption, "Cisco Kid Now Logs Our Time at Field," and was as follows:

"We all want to know how much flying time we have to our credit, and the army does too. You have, no doubt, wondered who keeps track of your precious minutes and hours, so here he is, Staff Sergeant Oran L. Clark, who is originally from Cisco, Texas.

"Sgt. Clark arrived here from Kelly Field in June, 1941, just three months after this field opened. By any figures this would make him one of the oldest members of the 301st personnel. In his two years and nine months here, he has seen our Field grow from a nubbin to its present place in the sun. When he first arrived, he worked in the supply room, which at that time consisted of packing cases. The present spacious supply room is one of the many innovations which he has seen develop.

"Some time later he moved to the Army Operations and Engineering office where he has been since. His present job entails the receiving of Form 1 reports from the civilian operations office, and then from these reports, the compilation of the student time logs which are kept on file in that office. He received his present rating of Staff Sergeant on March 3, 1942.

"In his spare time in and around town, Clark seems to have profited by being stationed at this post, because while here he met and married Lavern Shelton of Kerens. The couple have made their home in Corsicana and have a handsome eleven months old son."

MRS. FANNIE WHITE, 86, BURIED TODAY

Mrs. Fannie White, 86, widow of the late W. A. White, and a resident of Eastland county for more than fifty years, died at her home in Romney Wednesday morning. She had been ill for some time.

Survivors include four sons, Frank White, California; Mack White, Okra; Sidney White, Cisco; Willis White, Pampa. Two daughters, Mrs. Eugenia Ford and Miss Pearl White, Romney.

The funeral will be held at the Romney church this afternoon, with burial in the Romney cemetery.

Deceased was a good woman and was noted for her constructive activity in community affairs.

SUES UNCLE SAM—Mrs. Zella De Haven Pope, of Denver, Col., great-great-granddaughter of Jacob De Haven who lent $500,000 to U. S. during the Revolutionary War is seeking repayment with interest.

SNODDY 1 OF FAMOUS GROUP

From United States army theater of foreign operations comes news that a group of infantry soldiers, all of whom have seen action in the most important battles of North Africa, have arrived in England to help train troops.

In the group are 24 Texans and among these is Sgt. Marvin R. Snoddy, 26 years old, of route two, Cisco.

These soldiers were among those who forced the enemy to bring up many truck loads of reserves from the Afrika Korps, accomplishing its mission of drawing strength from the Nazis when they could least afford it.

Last April and May, these same American infantrymen ripped through the tortuous matted vegetation of the Sedjenane Valley (djebels in Tunisia, killing, capturing and unceasingly pushing the enemy out of the hills guarding Bizerte.

Other of the men were in action at Faid Pass, El Guettar, Ferryville and elsewhere.

At the conclusion of the Tunisian campaign, many of these soldiers paraded before King George VI and Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark.

MORTON VALLY STOCK SHOW A REAL SUCCESS

The annual Morton Valley F. F. A. and 4-H club Livestock show of Saturday went over with a great success. The competition in hog classes was high, with Billy Henderson, Bobby Harrison, Dale Harvin and Dolores Williamson showing leading animals. Dorothy Wheat, Callie Miller, Clayton Lee Henderson and Conard Miller, also had entries. Junior boar owned by Billy Henderson was declared grand champion.

Jersey cattle classes also had high competition, with Bobby Moore's senior heifer winning grand champion. The following exhibited stock in Jersey classes: Bobby Moore, Billy Henderson, Clayton Lee Henderson, Maripie Pound, Buddy Loper, Gray and Ben Drake.

Outstanding animals were shown from Olden, Cisco and Ranger. The showmanship contest in hogs was won by Billy Henderson and in Jersey cattle by Bobby Moore. This year over 78 dollars in prize money was given to the boys, girls and stockmen.

Pens of Rhode Island Reds and white leghorns were exhibited, with an outstanding pen of Rhode Island Red hens being shown by Lon Tankersley. Virginia Duckworth showed an outstanding pen of white leghorns. Paul Hodges and Bobby Lee Boyd showed Hereford stock.

M. D. Fox, vocational agriculture teacher, Cisco; R. B. Thomas, V. A. Teacher, Ranger; Bobby Moore, outstanding club and F. F. A. boy, judged the show.

LIQUOR BILL SOARED.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The nation's drink bill was 17 per cent higher in 1943 than in 1942 but last year elbows bent less often. The commerce department reported that Americans spent more than $6,000,000,000 in 1943 on liquor, or nearly seven cents out of every dollar they spent for goods and services of all kinds.

CRISIS CURBED—Pin-up operations were suspended in the home of Mrs. Joseph Williams of Minneapolis when she couldn't keep her 14-month-old twin daughters Judy and Joanne and her now born twin sons, David and Douglas, in safety pins. An appeal to fellow citizens through a Minneapolis newspaper yielded 3000 pins, which should forestall another crisis.

GARRETT GUEST SPEAKER OF CISCO LIONS

Hon. Clyde Garrett of Eastland, candidate for congress, was guest speaker at the Lions weekly luncheon, Harvey Thurman was in charge of the program and introduced Mr. Garrett.

Lewis Starr was the honor guest of the club, with other guests of various members being present. They were G. F. Dean, guest of his nephew, Dizzy Dean; E. Watson, guest of Charles S. Sandler; M. F. Underwood, guest of Jay Garrett, and Mayor Edward Lee, also guest of Mr. Dean.

Mr. Garrett made a very pleasing talk on the human touch and the importance of the sacrifices each American citizen is being called upon to make as his contribution toward winning the war.

The willingness of Gen. Douglas MacArthur to serve wherever he could do the most good was emphasized as a symbol of American manhood's contribution.

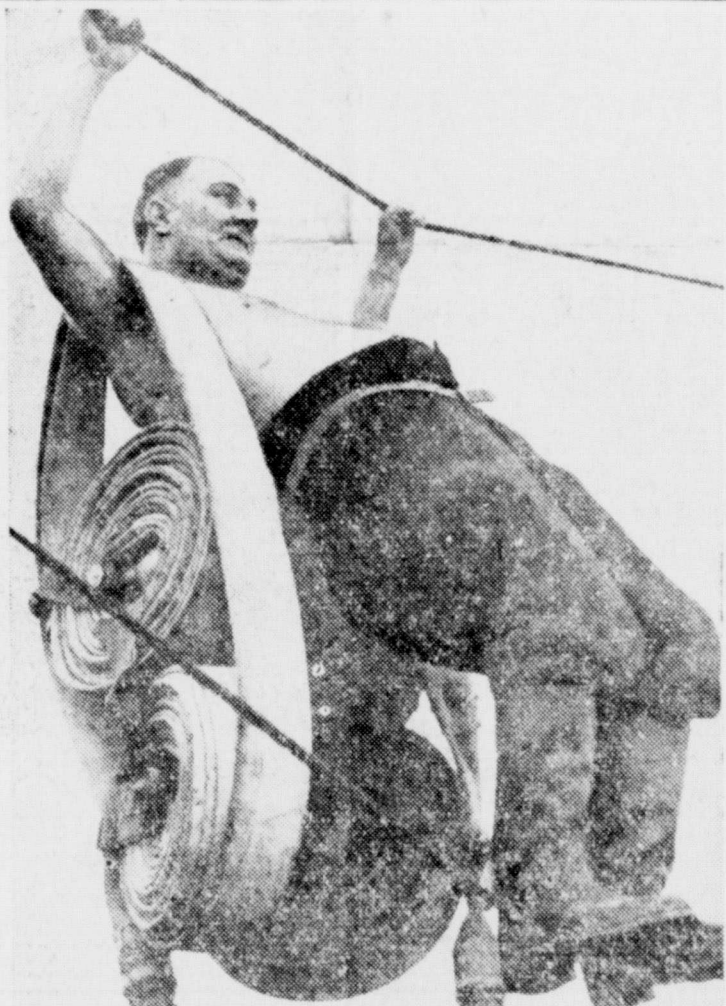

In this connection Mr. Garrett spoke of the work service clubs might perform for their communities, going on to cite examples that all are not called upon to make the same kind of sacrifices, showing that the war might ruin the business of one man while another would lose a son, but perhaps find greater financial reward. It is the law of compensation that a man pays in some way for his blessings of life; he has his mountain tops of joy and also his valleys of sorrow.

"This is a total war," the speaker said—"a fight to the finish," where all are pledged to the task. The speaker then recounted the accomplishments of the United States in preparing and organizing for war, saying it was the wonder of the ages how thoroughly and quickly we emerged from a nation of peace to one having the best-clothed, best-armed and best-fed army in the world, and displaying a fighting ability that would do credit to a people whose sole efforts might have been that of waging wars.

UNIVERSITY LANDS.

AUSTIN, March 2.—A public auction of oil and gas leases on 143 tracts of University of Texas lands in six West Texas counties has been set for March 31 by the board for lease of university lands. The last such auction resulted in record prices for many tracts. The sale will be held in ballroom of Stephen F. Austin Hotel here at 10 a. m.

LOST—Black coin purse with $5 and $1 bills. Mrs. Dee Cobb, 706 west Eighth. 128

FIREMAN COMMANDO—To qualify as a London fireman, it's necessary to pass a commando course which includes making a 40-foot light-rope crossing carrying ladders and diving through narrow openings into burning dugouts. Instructor demonstrates how to cross a tight rope with 200 pounds of fire hose.

CHECKER GAME—Showing the stuff that Yank ingenuity is made of, two Signal Corpsmen get up a checker game at Saidor, New Guinea. The checkers are bullets and the board is a squared-off sheet of paper.

RED CROSS SEND-OF LUNCHEON

With a send-off luncheon at Laguna Hotel at 12:30 Friday, the Cisco drive for Red Cross war funds—$4,500—will be under way.

Mrs. George P. Fee, chairman, calls attention to the fact that during the last drive the women of the ordinance training school contributed $1,000 to the fund; that the present quota is the same as then, though the school is gone. Which means the average individual will have to be a bit more generous when solicitors call if the quota is to be secured and Red Cross's unbroken quota-making record kept intact.

In many cities the Red Cross slogan is "Give a Day's Salary." In this connection it is reminded that Red Cross contributions can be deducted from income tax payments.

Campaign Officials.

Mrs. George P. Fee, general chairman.

Mrs. Charles S. Sandler, secretary.

Norman Huston, treasurer.

Edward Lee, publicity.

Miss Helen Crawford, communications.

Mrs. Jack Anderson, window decorations.

Mrs. K. N. Greer, bank booth.

K. N. Greer, picture show donations.

Anderson, Charles J. Kleimer, Lonnie Shoemaker, George Boyd, E. P. Crawford, L. W. Seymour and Harry Schmidt.

MAN SLATED FOR DEATH AIRS SCANDAL

NEW YORK, March 2.—The New York Daily News said today that Louis (LePke) Buchalter has signed a statement telling "a tale of political intrigue so astounding that its repercussions threaten to tear open one of the most sensational scandals in New York history."

In a copyrighted story, the News said that the condemned chief of Brooklyn's Murder, Inc., scheduled to die in Sing Sing prison's electric chair tonight, has involved at least three persons known throughout America.

FLIER DIES IN WRECK.

O. G. Lawson, Cisco oil man, this afternoon reported a plane wreck near the farm of Grover Cleveland, about seven miles northwest of Cisco. The accident occurred about 3:40 o'clock and the lone flier was badly mangled. Mr. Lawson said. Thomas funeral home rushed an ambulance to the scene. Luther McCrea notified the Abilene naval office and an official there asked that Cisco police guard the wreck until government officials arrived.

THIRD BATTLE OF BEACHHEAD IS STILL IN PROGRESS, WITH ALLIES DETERMINED TO WIN

NAPLES, March 2.—Battle-hardened American troops went over to the attack on the Anzio front and fought the German 14th Army's veterans back across the beachhead today after weathering the first shock of a major Nazi offensive that had punched a mile-deep salient in their lines.

The third battle of the beachhead continued in full fury early today as the counter-attacking Americans swarmed up from their trenches and drove the weary Germans back step by step across a 1300-yard battlefield midway between Cisterna and Aprilia.

Front reports said about two-thirds of the enemy salient had been regained by noon yesterday and that the Americans still were punching forward in savage hand-to-hand fighting today.

(A German report said "fluctuating" fighting was under way south and southwest of Cisterna and admitted that the Americans had broken into the advanced Nazi positions at several points).

Hundreds of Allied big guns joined in the battle, including the deadly American 155-millimeter "Long Toms" and laid a blazing pattern of death across the German front and rear lines.

More than 500 battle-shocked German troops fell into the Allied hands as the Americans advanced and reports from the front said prisoners were flowing back from the fighting line in a steady stream.

Heavy rains turned the battlefield into a slippery morass, robbing the Allied troops of their maximum aerial support and hampering tank operations on both sides, but the big guns of the 5th Army raked and tore incessantly at the German lines.

The main German onslaught burst against the center of the beachhead Tuesday morning, accompanied by strong diversionary thrusts at a number of other points to the east and west.

Two battalions of Nazi infantrymen—about 2000 men—spearheaded the first assault, many of them riding into battle astride giant Tiger tanks, waving their rifles and screaming "Heil Hitler" as they came on.

Hour by hour the German strength built up until at the height of the battle three full divisions, possibly 45,000 men, were battering at the American lines.

Heedless of their own heavy losses, the Germans crushed through the American forward positions by sheer weight of numbers, gaining almost a mile before the Americans rallied for their counter-attack.

The attack went directly through an American minefield, and the Nazi troopers leaped from their tanks repeatedly to lift the mines and clear a path for their armor.

At nightfall Tuesday the fury of the German onslaught began to spend itself and the Americans struck back.

The Nazi tanks, slowed by the mud and unable to disperse into the swampy fields, were knocked off like clay pigeons as they turned to flee, and the Americans closed in at bayonet point to force the enemy infantry back.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC—American invasion forces, supported by heavy and medium bombers, beat back a counter-attack on newly-won Momote airfield with heavy enemy losses, and repairs to the Los Negros airstrip were being rushed today to provide a new base for further aerial attacks on Japan's Pacific bases.

While U. S. planes bombed the enemy positions, units of the dismounted first cavalry division repulsed the Japanese assault at dawn yesterday, killing 66 and wounding 84 of the enemy force which attempted to retake the airfield less than 24 hours after it was captured in the initial landing on the Admiralty islands.

A spokesman estimated that the enemy force consisted of several hundred troops, which Gen. Douglas MacArthur's communique said were "bloodily repulsed," with only negligible American losses.

MOSCOW—Russian armies hammering at the three main bastions of a cracking 300-mile German front today closed in on the almost encircled and burning Estonian city of Narva, stormed street by street through Pskov, and ripped into the near defenses of Vitebsk.

Field dispatches indicated that the German defenses from the Gulf of Finland down through northern Estonia, the region bordering Latvia and into White Russia were giving away under synchronized Soviet offensives.

Estonia reports said the Nazis had put the torch to Narva, stronghold commanding the corridor between Lake Peipus and the Gulf of Finland, as well as scores of villages to the west, in a desperate withdrawal toward Tallinn.

PRESIDENT ENTERED. MADISON, Wis., March 2.—President Roosevelt's name has been entered in Wisconsin's presidential primary by Thomas R. King, Democratic national committee member and state party chairman.

SUBSTITUTE DADS.

A soldier at the front recently wrote his nine-year-old son that he was not too late to be the man of the house until Dad returned. He expected the lad to do household chores as he would do when the boy proudly does. He operates the vacuum cleaner, mows the lawn, runs errands and takes care of his mother and small sister very well.

Many boys are doing their Dad's work like this one and enjoy it because they have been trained for usefulness. Many girls are helping, too. It's the finest thing in the world to develop a sense of responsibility along with the skills which never do anyone harm to learn.

Scouts and Campfire Girls have an advantage in taking to small needed jobs easily and handily. They are already in the way of learning how to do them, and they have the right attitude toward them as parts of the nation's work.

But plenty of other growing young people are also doing all they can at home as well as at school to aid the war effort. They do homework or read or play or do other things that help.

They do not sleep in for hours, because they have learned early bedtime through the work, because they have learned that it takes lots of sleep to keep fit for learning and working.

The weekend movie they see is an early one, Church and Sunday school are good, too, and leave lots of pleasant time.

The Substitute Dads are growing up to be splendid people. Their real Dads will be very proud of them when they come home.

ARGENTINE UPSET.

Revolution is easy in Argentina. The party which wants to get in sets some troops around the edges of Buenos Aires.

In case of trouble, the man who wants the presidency goes to the house or office of the president with armed guards. "You're out!" he says, or words to that effect. The president can but resign under this device, and is either imprisoned or deported.

The new man and his group are in the military and big business group are growing impatient with that method of government. They are impatient, too, with that method of in Argentina law which allows the governing party to "intervene" in the provinces to "keep order." Intervention is used to take over the province's shift ballot boxes and get what it wants. The present group in power does not want democracy but a government more like Hitler's. It actually believes that type of government is more stable and would be better for the country.

As the people become more irritated, and slowly but surely grow in numbers, intelligence and power, the "Group of United Officers," called "The Columns," or the "G.O.U." find they have to take ever stronger measures to hold their power. Pedro Ramirez announced he would form a liberal cabinet, break with the Axis. "No!" said the G.O.U.

The present contest between the pro-Axis, fascist group and the liberal, intelligent, democratic people who want free elections and the enforcing of the Constitution, is more important to outsiders than it looks on the surface.

BIGGER PLANES.

Aviation, in scientific phraseology, goes "from strength to strength." A giant plane now in naval service weighs 20 tons, and reports say that it will soon be dwarfed by 25-toncessors under construction. As transports they are expected to carry 50 passengers, and as troop carriers can accommodate 100. As cargo carriers they can carry seven tons and date 1942. As cargo carriers they can carry seven tons and date 1942.

many field guns and aircraft engines packed into them. They seem to be, as yet, no limit to the enlarging possibilities. Really, such expansion of aerial craft seems to be slowly approaching the dimension and greater possibilities of the flying island of Laputa, described by Dean Swift of Dublin.

Two centuries ago, only the aerial automobile island was self-sustaining and capable of locomotion for any distance. Our aviation engineers do not seem to have discovered yet the principle on which it operated. We shall probably manage that in time. There is an old saying that

"what man can imagine, man can do."

The Oil Cook

American shortage of gasoline especially in the East, where it is especially scarce, has been a factor in the national election. The oil cook is a new phenomenon in the East, and now it is $1.20 a barrel, and now it is $1.20 a barrel, and now it is $1.20 a barrel.

Books show Red. The national average was $1.20 a barrel, and now it is $1.20 a barrel, and now it is $1.20 a barrel.

The argument offered against tanks in January. Oil producers have been shut down. The argument offered against tanks in January. Oil producers have been shut down.

No relief is in sight. 250,000 barrels daily come out of storage. The argument offered against tanks in January. Oil producers have been shut down.

J. C. FLETCHER HONORED AT SOCIAL.

A patriotic motif was observed in appointments and refreshments and potted plants were adorned with ribbons of red, white and blue at a farewell social sponsored by Willing Workers Sunday school class, at First Christian church, Tuesday evening. The event honored J. C. Fletcher who will leave soon for assignment with the navy.

A sing-song led by Mrs. E. T. Thomas opened activities of the evening following which games of forty-two entertained the group. At the close of the games the honoree was presented with a jigsaw puzzle which, when put together showed this message: "Good Wishes — From Willing Workers class to J. C. Fletcher." Refreshments of punch and cookies were served from the dining table, overlaid with lace cloth, which held a unique nautical centerpiece.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Powell, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Triplett, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Brunkenhofer, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ward, Rev. J. R. Wright, Mrs. Audrey Ezzell, Mrs. Bill Hickey, Mrs. J. F. Benedict, Mrs. J. S. Mobley, Mrs. Brunkenhofer, and the following children, Mary Ellen and Dorothy Ann Sanders, Flora Jean and Robert Lynn Fletcher, Teddy Triplett, June Hope Ezzell and Irving Allen Brunkenhofer.

ALPHA DELPHIAN REGULAR MEETING.

Alpha Delphian chapter met Wednesday morning in the club house with Mrs. W. V. Gardenhire, president, in charge. Mrs. B. S. Huey was morning hostess.

Minutes were read by Mrs. W. D. Hazel, secretary.

The ancient history program as the nineteenth and twentieth dynasties was brought by Mrs. Willie Bogan Dunn, following which Mrs. Eugene Lankford gave a splendid critic's report.

Those responding to roll call were Mrs. W. V. Gardenhire, Mrs. W. D. Hazel, Mrs. Willie Bogan Dunn, Mrs. W. W. Fewell, Mrs. B. S. Huey, Mrs. J. C. Irwin, Mrs. Eugene Lankford, Mrs. G. B. Langston, Mrs. H. N. Lyle, Mrs. A. J. Olson, Mrs. W. Frank Walker and Mrs. A. A. Hansen.

FAREWELL SOCIAL FOR DEPARTING PASTOR.

Members of Grace Lutheran church held a farewell meeting and social hour Sunday night honoring their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Symank, who left Monday for their new field at Mobile, Ala.

A sing-song in which all took part was held and Mr. Symank sang a vocal number, "The Old Rugged Cross," which was much appreciated by the assembly. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Dorothy Prange. Talks were made by several members. Among those speaking were R. H. Dunning, church treasurer; O. J. Weiser, Mrs. Paul Weiser, president of the ladies aid and others.

Refreshment plates of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served to approximately 100 people.

It's pretty hard to keep a U. S. Marine from getting what he wants, which goes double when there are two Leathernecks involved. Screen actress Susanna Foster, right, above, discovered that when she met Lieuts. Robert N. Harris, left, and Chester Tomich. She showed them her pet pup Susie Q; they wanted Susie for squadron mascot, talked fast—and got her.

Give to the Red Cross

The Red Cross is the mother of the soldier boys who have gone across into an enemy foreign country ... Most mothers here in America would fain follow their boys to those lands so that they could do for them --- nurse them in sickness and when wounded and mother them when troubled and in sorrow.

But these American mothers cannot follow. They must depend upon the ministrations of this great organization --- the Red Cross.

Most of you have already heard from your sons about how the Red Cross is helping them in many ways. You do not need to be sold on that question, since you are already familiar with their great work.

We can do no better than to support this great organization in its drive for more funds. The campaign is now on. Do your part.
