CISCO FFA, 4-H BOYS DID WELL.

Cisco FFA boys took their registered livestock to the Eastland County Fat Livestock Show Saturday and brought back many prizes. Of the $125 prize money offered to club boys, Cisco FFAs captured $53.25. In fact, with the help of local adult breeders and Cisco 4-H club boys, more than half the prize money offered was paid to Ciscoans.

Bobby Walker took high honors with his Jerseys and Duroc Jersey hogs; he took first place and Junior championship on his Jersey cow; he also had four registered Jersey heifers and four registered Duroc hogs. Of the livestock entered, Walker had seven first-place winners, one third-place, two junior champions and two grand champions.

Registered Jersey heifers owned by M. D. Fox, but trained and exhibited by S. E. Carter, Robert Jones, Don Johnson, Billy Kendrick, Jack Myrick and Udell Morris, received two first-place prizes and four second-place prizes.

Other boys entering livestock and receiving prizes were Luther Edwards, heifer under one year, second place; Waddell Rains, Chester White gilt, second place; registered Hereford bull, third place; Mac Harrelson, registered Jersey cow under three years, first place; Jack Myrick, first place and reserve champion on registered Jersey heifer; James Walker, two first-place winners yearling and senior yearling heifers.

Bobby Crofts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sutton Crofts, carried off the honors in the county 4-H club class, his Aberdeen-Angus calf taking grand championship honors.

A. V. Clark's Hereford bull took grand championship honors, with Sutton Crofts' Aberdeen-Angus bull winning the reserve championship title. Mr. Crofts' Aberdeen-Angus heifer was judged the grand champion in that class.

Young Crofts will enter his champion calf in the Fort Worth stock show, March 18-19, and G. P. Mitcham and Sutton Crofts will also have entries at the big show.

COMMERCE SESSION A GOOD ONE

At the meeting of chamber of commerce directors Tuesday night there was considerable discussion of the highway situation of this area and President J. D. Lauderdale appointed W. J. Armstrong and J. B. Pratt as a committee to see J. E. Spencer and arrange for a meeting with the state highway engineer relative to the proposed Cross Plains highway.

M. D. Fox reported progress of the movement to secure permanent housing for approximately $2,500 vocational training equipment. Fox said the quarters adjoining the former Wende building on D avenue is now housing the equipment, pending completion of repairs to the Wende building. L. A. Warren said he had conferred with Arch Birt, county commissioner, and that Birt was sure the papers necessary to take the title out of state and county would be drawn soon.

M. D. Fox, vocational director, reported on the county livestock show of last Saturday and said FFA and 4-H club boys from the Cisco area had acquired their full share of prizes offered. The directors commended Fox and his students for their good work.

The secretary was instructed to secure a pot plant and present it to Dr. Charles Hale, who is ill. Dr. Hale, who served many years as a director of the chamber, was recently made an honorary member of the body.

R. L. Ponsler made an interesting report on Cisco's new glove factory, now being installed by The Boss Mfg. Co., and exhibited a pair of work gloves made in Cisco—one of the first dozen gloves to be manufactured in Texas by the nationally known Boss company.

Ponsler also talked on the approaching meeting of the National Stripper Well association in St. Louis, which he will attend. The directors then entered into a lengthy discussion of the oil situation and other matters of like nature.

Those present were J. D. Lauderdale, W. J. Armstrong, J. B. Pratt, J. J. Callaway, N. D. Gallagher, N. C. Huston, R. N. Cluck, A. E. McNeely, R. L. Ponsler, L. A. Warren, E. P. Crawford, M. D. Fox and P. R. Warwick.

PLAN GOOD IF ON VOLUNTARY BASIS

NEW YORK, March 9.—More than 63 per cent of the people of the United States believe it feasible to adopt some plan or method to provide for easier payment of medical and hospital bills. A majority of 54 per cent of the people hold the opinion that some method of easy payment must be provided for the payment of costs for unusual or prolonged illness.

But only 16 per cent of all the people favor federal government operation of such a program.

These figures, based upon a nationwide survey by Opinion Research Corporation, were released here at a meeting of the 1944 Conference on the Extension of Medical Care, which was attended by leaders in the medical profession, medical industries representatives and executives of insurance groups.

The conference was called to consider means for implementing plans developed by the National Physicians Committee for the Extension of Medical Service to institute throughout the nation a coordinated program designed to make health insurance on a voluntary basis available to every worker and his family.

PLASMA FOR A MARINE—Casualty of first day's fighting on Eniwetok atoll, this marine had part of his jaw shot away. First aid men on beach are shown administering plasma to him.

JUDIA RECITED EARLY DAY CISCO FACTS

A program that included a story in song contest, topped with a brief history of Cisco, was brought to the Lions club Wednesday by Ray Judia, assisted by George Downie and E. T. Thomas. This was followed by a report on the teen-age canteen by Austin Flint and an announcement by H. H. Tompkins that erection of the frozen foods locker plant would begin Monday. President R. W. McCauley appointed O. L. Stamey, Charles S. Sandler and Jack Anderson as a committee to meet with a Rotary club group and arrange for the Lobo banquet.

In the musical story contest, Ray Judia played the tunes to supply the missing words in the story read by Lion Downie. Lions proved themselves short on musical interpretation.

The brief history of Cisco by Lion Judia brought out that Cisco was begun as Red Gap, near Lake Bernie in 1879. The M. K. & T. railroad ran a race with the T. & P. road to reach Cisco. The Katy won and hence the town was laid out to match the directions of the Katy track, northwest by southeast. This was in 1880. It was named for John J. Cisco, a director and banker of New York City, who also owned extensive ranch lands in West Texas.

Cisco has boomed as a coal mining section, a cotton center with an oil mill and compress, which saw as many as 40,000 bales of cotton at one time stacked on its wharves. At that time it was a center for cattle feeding pens for a large group of ranchers. It was the freight center for small towns in all adjoining counties, with eight wagon yards always filled to capacity. Freight wagons made regular trips.

In 1919 the oil boom came and Cisco grew to a town of 15,000 people.

The big dam, fathered and pushed by J. M. Williamson and his co-workers, and now known as Williamson dam, was built in the early twenties and created Lake Cisco, which covers 40,000 surface acres and provides an unlimited supply of the finest drinking water to be found anywhere.

In Lion Flint's canteen report he revealed that the local project had paid all expenses of establishment and had a small balance in the treasury, which is gratifying to both Lions and Rotary clubs which sponsored the project. It is well patronized and seems to be greatly enjoyed by the youngsters, for whom it was established.

Ocie Leveridge, of Springfield, Mo., was a guest of Jack Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Leveridge formerly lived in Cisco and have come back preparatory to his entering some branch of the navy service.

CISCO NAVAL OFFICER BACK FROM PACIFIC

Lieut. R. A. Obenhaus, 22, son of Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Obenhaus of Cisco, arrived at Long Beach, Calif., Saturday from a year's service with the navy in the South Pacific.

In a letter to his parents the Cisco naval officer said he was met by his wife, a former Marshall, Tex., girl, and that he was so glad to be back in the homeland that one of the first things he did was to kneel and kiss American soil.

Lieutenant Obenhaus entered the service in 1943. He is a graduate of Texas University.

REGISTERING MOTOR CARS TAKES TIME

Clyde S. Karkalits, county tax assessor-collector, reminds vehicle owners that the law requires them to present their certificates of title when registering cars or trucks for the payment of license fees.

In order to aid registrants in furnishing special information requested by the army and other federal agencies, the following explanations are made by Mr. Karkalits:

Primary Use—Means principal use made of truck, such as for livestock use, merchandise, sand, farm produce.

Pickup or Panel—Type body. Platform or Stake—Type body. Dump—Cubic feet capacity. Speedometer Reading—Give as accurately as possible.

Number of Axles—Not the number of wheels, but actual number of axles on vehicles.

Number of Driving Wheels—Most vehicles have two driving wheels; show four if driven from both front and rear axles.

Seating Capacity Buses—Number of persons exclusive of driver. Realizing that furnishing this information will take time, Mr. Karkalits urges that licenses be taken out as early as possible.

TOO MANY JOBS.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—Russell B. Brown of Washington, D. C., general counsel of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, today called upon Harold L. Ickes to quit as petroleum administrator for war or resign as president of the Petroleum Reserve Corporation. The PRC is the government corporation which seeks to put the government into the foreign oil business by building a $165,000,000 pipe line in Arabia.

TOTAL OF NIP SHIPS SUNK OR DAMAGED BY SUBS ALONE NOW 627; GRAND TOTAL IS 1,989

WASHINGTON, March 9.—American submarines have sunk 16 more Japanese ships in enemy controlled waters.

The bag, announced today by the Navy, included one large tanker.

The toll brought to 627 the number of Japanese ships sunk, probably sunk or damaged by submarine action alone.

Sinkings by other causes — airplanes and warships — boosts the total damage to Japanese shipping to 1,989 enemy vessels of all types.

Pursuant to policy, the Navy communicate announcing the latest sinkings did not report the areas in which the submarines operated. However, our submarines are known to have been operating along the coastal waters of Japan itself.

In addition to the large tanker, other ships sunk by the undersea craft included five transports and 10 cargo vessels.

Such heavy damage to the enemy's shipping lines has been accomplished with steady regularity and only Tuesday Admiral Nimitz, commander in chief of the Pacific Fleet, commenting on the submarine campaign in the Pacific, said "I think it has taken such a heavy toll of their shipping that lack of shipping may soon be a controlling factor in what they are able to do."

Nimitz also expressed opinion that our submarine activities have forced the Japanese to withdraw their heavy naval units from their South Pacific base at Truk by cutting off supplies of fuel.

A recapitulation of the damage done Japanese shipping by our submarines shows: Definitely sunk, 477 craft of all types; probably sunk, 36, and damaged, 114.

The totals for all types of action, including submarines, planes and surface ships are 1,065 sunk, 107 probably sunk and 817 damaged.

LONDON.—Great formations of fighter-escorted American heavy bombers blasted bomb-wrecked Berlin by daylight today for the second time in 24 hours and the fourth time in six days.

The powerful squadrons of Liberators and Fortresses reached the Nazi capital while fires still burned from Wednesday's record daylight blow in which an estimated 2,000 planes, including 1,100 or more heavy bombers, participated.

Again the four-motored B-24s and B-17s rained death and destruction on the stricken metropolis from behind a protective screen of British and American fighters.

It was the fourth time the heavy craft struck at Berlin since last Saturday and marked the fifth appearance of American craft in the skies over the city since last Friday, when a Lightning squadron streaked through the area.

A communique revealed that the Fortresses and Liberators bagged at least 42 Nazi craft Wednesday, in addition to the 83 credited previously to their fighter escorts.

When combined with the 176 shot down during Monday's daylight assault, this boosted to 301 Nazi craft the total bagged in the last two attacks.

Fifty-three Allied planes were lost in Wednesday's attack, one fighter previously listed as missing returning safely to base. Included were 38 bombers and 15 fighters.

MOSCOW.—Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First Ukrainian Army neared a complete rupture of the German front in the Southern Ukraine today as Soviet troops battled their way through the outskirts of Starokonstantinov and drove to within artillery range of Proskurov.

The fall of Starokonstantinov, a town of 16,300 persons, would knock out the anchor of a German salient extending into the Soviet flank, while the loss of Proskurov would force the enemy to fall back across the Dniester into Rumania for communication with 500,000 Nazi troops isolated in the lower Dnieper Bend.

Front reports said Zhukov was approaching the second and final objective of his offensive, the complete rupture of the German southern front and the splitting of the German armies in the western and southern Ukraine.

AMERICAN CASUALTIES.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—American casualties in this war so far total 162,282, of whom 37,853 are dead. Secretary of War Stimson today said Army casualties (as of Feb. 23) totaled 131,458. Of this number, 20,592 were killed, 57,318 wounded, 26,326 are missing and 27,222 are prisoners of war. Latest navy total is 40,824, made up of 17,261 killed, 9,910 wounded, 9,239 missing and 4,414 prisoners of war. These figures cover Marine Corps and Coast Guard as well as Navy proper. Of the total casualties the Navy has suffered 27,383, Marines 12,986 and the Coast Guard 453.

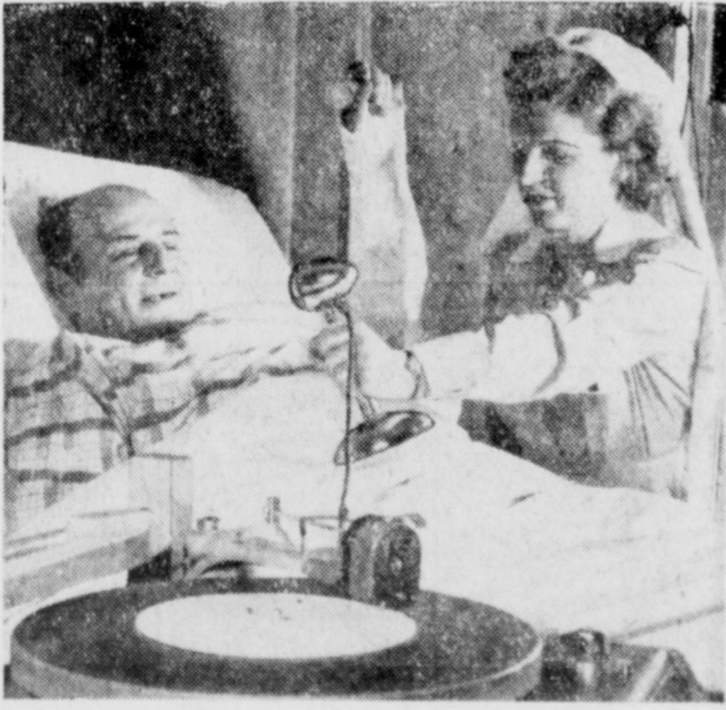

BRITISH STRIKERS.

LONDON, March 9.—Nearly 80,000 Welsh miners were on strike in the Monmouthshire fields today in what officials described as the most serious coal dispute in 18 years.

THREE FRONTS.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, March 9.—Americans fighting on three invasion fronts around the Bismarck Sea crushed Japanese opposition in New Guinea and the Admiralty Islands, and are holding against strong enemy counterattacks in New Britain, General MacArthur said today.

HE'S ON THE LOOKOUT—Officially charged with spotting Jap bombers over a Guadalcanal air base, T. Wallace McSweeney Duffin, III, pedigreed cocker spaniel, assumes his post on a pile of sandbags. His master, Navy Lt. Leo Doody of Albany, N. Y., has shortened T. Wallace Etcetera's name to Throckmorton.

SLEEPING SICKNESS VICTIM—Six-year-old Marlene Rauscy of Brainerd, Minn., enters her eleventh week of sleep after being stricken with sleeping sickness following three-day-siege of measles. She seems to wake for short spells and can move her hands but gives no sign of recognizing those who care for her.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Acting Chairman McKellar of the Senate Appropriations Committee leveled a broad attack against the administration of the Tennessee Valley Authority today, charging the giant government-owned agency with an "outrageous" discrimination in electric rates and with various expenditures unauthorized by congress.

THE AGE OF FLIGHT.

For centuries, commerce has followed the seaways and the waterways of the world. Hitler's grandiose scheme for world conquest had, as one of its objectives, the capture of Suez, water gateway to the fabulous ports of the East. The banks of the Don and the Dnieper have been bloody battlefields because these rivers carry supplies to the army that controls them, even as they once brought food and ores and manufactured articles to a people at peace. Stalingrad and Kiev are important Russian cities because they are ports for river traffic, as St. Louis and New Orleans are important cities in this country. Boston and New York, and Seattle and San Francisco also became important because of their fine harbors. But now the picture is changing as a new means of transportation surges boldly to the fore. In the dawning Age of Flight, business centers will bloom about airports just as surely as they once sprang up around the quay sides.

Nature provided harbors for ships, but inland "harbors" for airplanes can be built by man. Conservative authorities have estimated that the airports this nation will have to handle three or four times the present amount of air traffic immediately after the war.

Not only will airports become essential to a community's business life, but they will help provide jobs for many men now in the Air Forces who will return after the war with a desire to continue in the calling they know best.

Airport planning is not something that can be done overnight. It requires months, sometimes years of study, not only in determining the best possible location for a flying field, but in acquiring the land, arranging financing, improving roads, expanding public utility services, and myriad other details.

Progressive communities are preparing now to receive the miracle of air commerce which will begin to spread over the world when the war ends. It will keep them humming to be ready for that day.

USEFUL SWAMPS.

Canadians are coming to realize that lakes and swamps, no less than forests and minerals, are natural resources. So there are increasing efforts made to stop draining them for agricultural use and preserve them for their own value. This movement is likely to attract more attention from Americans, who have shown even more hostility toward swamps than the Canadians have.

Many Americans are familiar with the Georgian Bay region of Ontario, from hunting and fishing trips and a quest for midsummer coolness. It is the gateway to one of the most famous sportsmen's paradises on the continent, with thousands of small lakes and marshes. Lately there has been a growing tendency to drain the marshes and use their rich soil for farming purposes. Such procedure, carried to extremes, would naturally drive away the wild life, and also the tourist and sportsmen. The latter, supported by governmental conservationists, have started fighting the agricultural encroachment, and insist on preserving the land and water as nature made them.

"Nature has been lavish with us," says a naturalist. "We should heed the warning to conserve before it is too late. Man-made lakes will cost huge sums of money, and lack the beauty and useful resources of the natural kind. Let us waken to our heritage and insist that the drainage of the lakes and banishment of wild life be halted." Thousands of Americans, learning of this effort, will wish they had shown such foresight.

MEN, NOT BOYS.

Jay Franklin, columnist, feels strongly about the current habit of calling the soldiers "boys." The term is heard everywhere, over the radio, in print and in conversation.

As Franklin rightly says, they are not boys, however fondly their parents may cling to that term of childhood. Many are married, and thinking not so much about mom's apple-pie as about their wives' ailments, and the children's teeth or work at school. Nor are they doing boys' work. "There is nothing boyish about a Mark IV tank or a German pillbox."

To call our men "boys" is to belittle them with sentimentality.

A Little Lesson in Abstracting—

The abstract is a written history of the title chain. If carefully prepared it will (1) definitely locate the tract under search. (2) Reveal, if possible, the true ownership. (3) Show liens, if any, and (4) the defects in the deed or other written documents. It may or may not prove the title to be good. This is the reason for the abstract and why it is necessary in every real estate transaction.

HAMPER PRODUCTION.

ST. LOUIS. — Ralph T. Zook, president of the Independent Association of America, today criticized governmental attempts to obtain oil in foreign countries while ignoring efforts to increase production at home. "Thousands of miles of potential oil-producing territory in the United States has never been touched by an oil bit," Zook declared. "And for the past two and one-half years, federal agencies have done nothing but hamper industry's attempts to increase home production."
