T. J. Brooks, 75, who had resided on his farm near Moran for 43 years, died Wednesday in Wichita Falls, after an illness of several weeks.

SHOP WORK SESSIONS 2 NIGHTS WEEK

A program demonstrating work being done by the boys' physical education class at the high school was brought to the Lions club Wednesday by Monroe Sweeney. The club voted to continue issuing the club magazine, The Lion Tale, and President Seymour announced a zone meeting at Comanche next Tuesday. He also announced the Pastors' association Easter services which the various churches will hold.

Lion M. D. Fox announced that occasional shop work sessions are being held Tuesday and Thursday nights, while Austin Flint reported on the teen-age dance, which he said had voted to allow grammar students to use the building Friday afternoons. He also reported the finances were in good condition and surplus funds would be used to buy new games for entertainment.

Boys taking part in the physical demonstrations, which included various forms of setting-up exercises, with each boy taking his turn as leader, were as follows: Harry Grantz, Ted Fields, Walton Bunn, Karl Armstrong, Jerry Farough, James Callerman, Elbert Tipton and Yancey McCrea.

Earl Pross, new manager of Goodyear Tire Store, was welcomed as a Lion cub and W. L. Bowden was a guest of Jay Garrett. Harry W. Schmidt was program chairman.

WOMEN MADE NEW RECORD WEDNESDAY

Wednesday was all-time record attendance day for Red Cross surgical dressings workers in Cisco, 47 women being present at the rooms in the Reynolds building and completing 1,886 4 x 4s and 258 4 x 8s during the afternoon hours.

"The presence of so many women at one time was truly inspiring," said one of the workers, "and the number of articles finished is good evidence that their hearts and hands were in perfect tune for soldier service."

Those present, it will be noted, included five patriots from the Scranton community. The full list comprised Mesdames J. H. Shrader, E. F. Morton, O. L. Boland, Paul Brashear, Raymond Sprawls, Scranton; Austin Flint, George Atkins, L. A. Harrison, W. J. Poe, C. A. Williams, H. J. McArdle, E. H. Hester, Bob Latimer, Sam Kimmell, A. D. Anderson, F. J. Borman, J. J. Tableman, Ed Aycock, J. A. Jensen, E. J. Poe, R. C. McCarter, J. T. Anderson, O. G. Lawson, Roy Fonville, O. J. Russell, Alex Spears, W. W. Moore, Lora Ford, Jack Anderson, Don McEachern, W. H. LaRoque, W. C. McDaniel, J. E. Caffrey, T. O. Thomas, Les Jenkins, W. B. Dunn, W. L. Lancaster, J. E. Hart, Clarence Moon, H. T. Rogan, Karl Armstrong, F. E. Shepard, H. Evans, George D. Fee, J. S. Mobley.

JUDGE RICHARDSON DEAD.

Mrs. James Moore has been notified of the death of her stepfather, L. E. Richardson, who died at Longview Tuesday and was buried yesterday. Deceased had been sick and in hospital most of the time for the past two years. He was formerly a law partner of Judge Funderburk at Eastland and was well known and highly respected here and elsewhere. His wife, the former Mrs. Ben McClinton, has been making her home with another daughter, Mrs. J. W. Shepard, in Michigan.

DELINQUENTS CURED ONLY EARLY AGE

DALLAS, March 30.—Juvenile delinquency can be adequately combated only in the very young, August Vollmer, criminologist, who is making the survey of the Dallas police department, Wednesday told members of the child welfare division of the Council of Social Agencies, a War Chest agency.

Tendencies toward delinquency can be discovered in the first grades of school, Vollmer said, and the correction should start right there. Quoting surveys made by experts over the nation, he said 2 1/2 per cent of the children in an elementary grade have delinquency traits and that 92 per cent of that number will become active delinquents unless their cases are given special attention.

Teachers in the schools should not be made responsible for determining the 2 1/2 per cent of delinquent possibilities, Vollmer said in answer to a question from the group. Trained workers, or visiting teachers, should be given that responsibility, he said.

"And it would be a lot cheaper than taking care of it in the juvenile courts later," he added.

Pointing out other cities that have met the problem, Vollmer mentioned Chicago, where a community project was conducted in a notorious area, with the result of reducing delinquency 50 per cent in five years.

The speaker said he is recommending a professionally trained crime division he added to the Dallas police department to give special attention to such problems as juvenile delinquency.

USE RUBBER BOATS.

MEXICO CITY, March 30.—Widespread illegal traffic of Mexican workers into Texas is reported by a labor ministry inspector. The inspector, Jorge Medellin, said workers are smuggled across the Rio Grande at night in portable rubber boats.

GERMAN ACE LOST.

LONDON, March 30.—The German high command acknowledged today the loss of one of its greatest aces, Colonel Wilke, in an air battle presumably with British or American fliers over Western Europe. Colonel Wilke claimed to have shot down 151 planes.

CISCO LAD IS MEMBER OF FAMOUS GROUP

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Flying Fortress "Knockout Dropper," of which Warren G. Rogers of route three, Cisco, is a crewman, is being retired from combat and will return to the United States after becoming the first U. S. heavy bomber in the European theater to complete 75 missions, it is announced.

DIES' REPORT ANGRERS POLITICAL SCHEMERS

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Leaders of the CIO maintained official silence today on the Dies Committee report charging that the CIO political action committee was a "Communist front" organization.

They indicated there would be no CIO response to the Dies Committee report beyond the statement of Sidney Hillman, chairman of the political action group that Rep. Martin Dies was a "liar."

CIO President Philip Murray declined to comment and referred questions to Hillman.

THREE OF 12 WAR PRISONERS ARE CAPTURED

SAN ANGELO, March 30.—Three of 12 German war prisoners who escaped from Camp Barkeley, near Abilene, last night, were captured today by the sheriff and deputies of Runnels county, near Ballinger. They were in an auto which had been stolen at Abilene.

A state-wide broadcast earlier had told of the escape. Army and civilian officers are conducting a wide search in Taylor and adjoining counties for the nine prisoners still at large.

The men are believed to be wearing their German Army uniforms in which they were captured in North Africa. The men fled from quarters after 9 p. m. yesterday.

WESTINGHOUSE IS YEAR BEHIND ORDERS

NEW YORK, March 29.—A. W. Robertson, chairman of Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company, said yesterday the company appeared to have reached its production plateau, "maintaining about the same high level of output month after month."

He told a meeting of directors that new orders in February amounted to $86,043,048, "bringing our backlog of unfilled orders to $923,183,017 — the equivalent of more than a year's work at the peak wartime production pace."

Robertson said net sales billed in February amounted to $60,588,697. He added Westinghouse was using facilities of more than 2,000 subcontractors and last month let subcontracts amounting to $21,198,379 — a record high.

THREE INCENDIARIES LANDED ON A CLUSTER OF HOSPITAL TENTS JAMMED WITH WOUNDED

NAPLES, March 30.—German fire bombs turned an American hospital area on the Anzio beachhead into a bloody shambles last night, climaxing a night and day of savage patrol fighting and artillery exchanges on the three major Italian fronts.

Screaming in over the waterfront under cover of darkness, a formation of Nazi bombers dropped high explosives and incendiaries across the port area in an apparent attempt to blast Allied military installations and shipping.

Three big incendiaries landed on a cluster of hospital tents jammed with wounded troops and Medical Corps personnel. Two men were killed instantly and 56 others badly hurt, including a number of captured Germans.

United Press Correspondent Robert Vermillion, who witnessed the attack, said there was no immediate indication that the Nazi planes had struck deliberately at the hospital area.

On the fighting fronts, there was no major change in the opposing battle lines, although feverish patrol and artillery activity indicated that both sides were preparing for another test of strength on the beachhead and in the Cassino sector.

(A German radio commentator heard by the United Press in New York reported that the 5th Army was shifting troops and equipment to the Anzio beachhead in great numbers and predicted that a major Allied attack would be launched on that front within the next few days.)

"The massing of troops and war material in the Anzio beachhead point to the fact that the Anglo-Americans intend to transform the hitherto isolated beachhead into Front No. 1," the commentator said.

German infantrymen attempted two small-scale attacks against American and British positions southwest of Cisterna yesterday, but both were repulsed by artillery and rifle fire. A Nazi tank also was knocked out by anti-tank fire in the area south of Aprilia.

On the main 5th Army front, Allied artillery laid down a heavy barrage on German tanks hidden in the rubble near the Continental Hotel in Cassino, while Nazi gunners raked Allied positions inside the town with shellfire and mortars.

LONDON.—The German High Command acknowledged today the loss of Cernauti, capital of Bucovina Province and key gateway to the Balkans, to Russian assault troops who stormed across the Prut and charged into the city in a two-way pincer.

ABerlin message admitted "evacuation" of Cernauti, third city of pre-war Rumania in the northeastern province yielded to Russia along with Bessarabia in 1940.

The collapse of German resistance at Cernauti shattered the Nazi communications vital to the defenses of southeastern Europe and laid open the way for a whirlwind advance by the rampaging Russians into Rumania proper.

Although Nazi propagandists termed the loss of Cernauti as "evacuation," Moscow reports of violent street fighting in the city of 110,000 made it evident that the German garrison was overwhelmed by the great Red Army offensive pulverizing the enemy defenses of the entire southern front.

A Stockholm dispatch to the London Daily Telegraph said other Russian forces southeast of Cernauti had plunged across the Prut into Rumania proper and were battling in the streets of Iasi, vital Rumanian rail junction.

The Western wing of Zhukov's army plunged to within 30 miles northeast of the Carpatho-Ukraine, which Hungary seized in the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia in 1939, with the capture of the railway town of Kolmyja in the Carpathian foothills, after an 11-mile advance.

The success put the Russians only 17 miles east of the northern entrance to the Tatar or Jablonica Pass, which winds over the Carpathians at 3000 feet altitude, and spills into the Hungarian plain.

PROMISE PUNISHMENT.

LONDON, March 30.—Foreign Minister Eden told Commons today the United States and Britain are discussing further action toward saving Jews in the Balkans from German terror and promised punishment for Hitler's satellites guilty of an extermination policy.

TEXAS POLITICS.

AUSTIN, March 30.—Undercurrents indicate that Democratic leaders in Texas have decided to stay in line with the party in the national election on grounds of war-time expediency. Leaders voicing that sentiment were Governor Stevenson, Mrs. Clara Driscoll and Myron Blalock. They were moderately applauded. But applause was not moderate when Senator Joe Hill accused the U. S. supreme court of trampling the state and national constitution during the past four years at yesterday's state Democratic executive committee meeting.

TIME OUT—Before fighting on the Anzio sector of the Fifth Army front reached its peak, crew of this Yank armored car stopped to exchange a few wisecracks with Americans stationed in the town.

BOUGAINVILLE BUZZ SAW—Army engineers on Bougainville have set up a lumber mill to supply wood for buildings, bridges and any installations required. Here, Cpl. Frank Daly of N. Y. sharpens up the teeth of a four-foot circular saw.

HAPPY DAYS—Awarded Silver Star medal for gallantry in action, Lt. Tommy Harmon, on 10-day furlough in filmland, poses for picture with girl friend Elyse Knox who has been signed to movie lead in "A WAC, A WAVE and a MARINE" and producer Eddie Sherman.

CONTROL ALL FOOD.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, proposed today that Congress in extending the Price Control Act make a major change by transferring to the War Food Administration authority to control all food prices.

WHEN IS A MOTHER?

Activities of "The United Mothers of America" are turning many Americans rather sick. One of the recent leaflets left by them in busses, streetcars, trains and subways for other people to pick up and look at is by Agnes Waters, Washington Fascist. This demands that "Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey shoot all Jews and Communists in government service and civilian jobs." Fortunately, Maj. Gen. Hershey has neither the power nor the inclination to do anything of the sort. Trial by jury is still an inalienable American right.

Motherhood, by any civilized person, is regarded as sacred. It means undergoing pain to bring children into the world and giving up many comforts and pleasures in order to raise the children to be good people. The word should stand for love, gentleness, sacrifice, constructive action.

When an organization plays upon the universal reverence for an ideal by trying to camouflage subversive, destructive action by such a name as "United Mothers of America," it is not far from sacrilege. The name should deceive no intelligent American. The organization is not in any true sense American and has nothing to do with Mothers as such. It appears to be a front for fifth-column activities. Fortunately, the FBI has it under close surveillance.

Care should be taken in joining any new organization. Fine and fancy names are apt to be Nazi devices to get idle busybodies into situations they may later regret.

OUR CHINESE ALLIES.

Americans are just beginning to understand the Chinese. It is probably our fault rather than theirs. Until recently we have accepted Kipling's rash dogma that "East is East and West is West, and never the twain shall meet." This may be true of some oriental breeds, but certainly it does not apply to the Chinese. We have been surprisingly wrong about them.

The idea that the Chinese lacked courage has been proved false lately on every battlefield where they have fought. This is so obviously true that it is with a shock of surprise that Americans recall the term "Chinafied" used a generation ago by Theodore Roosevelt to signify a weak and futile race.

If the Chinese seem weak today, it is evidently from lack of opportunity, tools, weapons and training to prove their worth. As our allies in the Far East, with a little military training, and fighting under American leaders, or under their own, they have proved themselves extremely brave and resourceful. Detachments in Burma, peasant lads some of whom are mere boys, and until a few months ago had never handled a gun or seen a tank, are now fighting like veterans. And against the Japanese, on anything like equal terms, they have usually bested the Japs. Col. Rothwell Brown calls them "the bravest soldiers in the world."

VESUVIAN MUD.

The fiery lava still flows from the boiling crater of Mount Vesuvius, overwhelming one little town after another, on those rich slopes where the grapes have grown which produced the world's finest wine — "Lachryma Christi," which means Tears of Christ. Millions of people in many lands, who know that region and its strange mingling of beauty and horror, are thinking of it now. And the Neapolitans near by must know that there are other things to dread besides hot lava.

It was not lava that destroyed the famous summer resort cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum in the year 79 A. D. It was the dust rising densely from the crater and spreading over the surrounding country until the air was thick with it. Then came a rain which caused this fine volcanic ash to fall in vast quantities. The whole region and its doomed cities were covered by mud. It rose higher and higher and eventually blotted out the neighboring cities.

Most of the people escaped, but many died from accident or carelessness. The mud hardened into cement which sealed up everything living and dead. And so thorough was that strange job done by nature that eventually even the buried cities were forgotten, except for a tradition that there had been cities there. Only in this century have they been exhumed and revealed to the world.

God preserve that region from another such mud shower!

BOWLING An enjoyable and inexpensive way to spend an evening, in clean, pleasant surroundings. You can really have a fine time at the Eastland County Bowling Center. Make Bowling a recreation-habit --- it will pay dividends in health and fun. EASTLAND COUNTY BOWLING CENTER Cisco, Texas.

A Little Lesson in Abstracting— The abstract is a written history of the title chain. If carefully prepared it will (1) definitely locate the tract under search. (2) Reveal, if possible, the true ownership. (3) Show liens, if any, and (4) the defects in the deed or other written documents. It may or may not prove the title to be good. This is the reason for the abstract and why it is necessary in every real estate transaction. Earl Bender & Company, Inc. ABSTRACTERS Eastland 1923-1944 Texas
