WANT STEVENSON TO HEAD TEXAS GROUP

At the westside precinct convention in Eastland Saturday afternoon the following resolutions were adopted:

1. Recommend to state convention that way be found to pass on eligibility of party membership.
2. That state convention send unstructured delegation to national convention.
3. That Gov. Coke Stevenson be drafted to head delegation to national convention.

MEXICAN CONSUL MAKES SENSIBLE TALK

FT. WORTH, May 6.—Mexico and the U. S. are entering upon a new era of good feeling, believes the jovial, friendly consul general of Mexico, Carlos A. Calderon, who has recently been transferred by his government from Canada to San Antonio.

In Fort Worth to attend Cinco de Mayo festivities and to speak at the luncheon of the Mexican Activities Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, he was most enthusiastic about his new position which covers eight Southern and Southwestern states.

"What misunderstandings there are, if there are any, can be overcome by better understanding that can be achieved by increased knowledge of each other's culture," the consul added.

SIMPLE TAX PLAN SEEMS ACERTAINTY

WASHINGTON, May 6.—A House-approved "streamlined" tax bill Saturday headed for the senate and a welcome as the cure for the March 15 headache that still hangs on.

Given unanimous approval by the House, the measure is designed to make tax computation as painless as possible. It will go to the Senate Finance Committee Monday.

Chairman George said he and other Democrats on the committee were disposed to go along with the house version of the bill, which is expected to relieve 30,000,000 tax-payers of making out a complicated federal return.

"I don't think the exemptions that have been placed in the measure are equitable in all cases, but they represent the best that can be done in order to get simplification," George said.

The measure would scrap the 2-year-old "victory" tax, setting new normal and surtax rates that would keep payments at about their present level.

It would make the payroll withholding levy the total tax collection for salary earners up to $3,000 yearly, effective next January. On the 20,000,000 still required to file returns, about half could use a simplified table which would compute their tax quickly.

EASTLAND MAN HURT

Alvie Afton, well known Eastland resident and about 74 years of age, was hit by a truck Thursday evening and sustained numerous fractures and bruises. He is in the county hospital at Ranger and because of his age it is feared he will not recover.

CONVENTION IS OPPOSED TO FOURTH TERMS

Democratic conventions were held at both Cisco precincts Saturday afternoon. At city hall the Westside convention was called to order by Fred Grist, who asked for nominations for chairman and secretary. L. A. Warren and W. W. Fewell were elected without opposition.

On motion that Chairman Warren appoint two committees, one on resolutions and the other to choose delegates to the county convention of next Tuesday, F. D. Wright, R. L. Ponsler and W. J. Armstrong were named on resolutions and Oscar Cliett, J. Harry Reynolds and A. B. O'Flaherty on delegates.

After a short recess, the first named committee submitted resolutions containing five points, which were read by Chairman Warren and voted upon separately.

The first four points were adopted unanimously, but there was disagreement on the fifth, which read "That this convention is bitterly opposed to the fourth term."

Upon a second yeas and nays vote, 16 of those present voted in the affirmative and five said "no."

The Resolutions.
BE IT RESOLVED—(1) That the delegation from this precinct be instructed to vote as a unit at the County Convention.

(2) That delegates from this convention to the county convention be instructed to vote for a resolution favoring the sending of an unstructured delegation from the state of Texas to the national convention.

(3) That it is the sense of this convention that every effort should be made to secure the rights of any political party to pass on the eligibility of all voters participating in any primary election or convention of such party.

(4) That we are bitterly opposed to the unnecessary encroachment on the rights of the States and Private Enterprise by the Federal Government and unnecessary Bureaus, in disregard of our Constitutional rights.

(5) That this Convention is bitterly opposed to the Fourth Term. Respectfully submitted,

F. D. WRIGHT,
W. J. ARMSTRONG,
R. L. PONSLER.

Following adoption of the resolutions, Judge Eugene Lankford moved that the chair submit the Democratic pledge to those participating in the convention to support all Democratic nominees, but a motion by W. J. Armstrong to table was put by the chair and carried.

The following delegates to the county convention were named: Miss Mary Jane Butts, Mrs. Charles C. Jones, J. J. Callaway, F. D. Wright, R. L. Ponsler, E. P. Crawford, A. B. O'Flaherty, J. T. Anderson, W. J. Armstrong, L. A. Warren. Judge Callaway was designated as chairman of the delegation.

The Eastsiders met promptly at 2 o'clock, but there were only five present. W. R. Huestis called the convention to order and George P. Fee was made chairman. There were no resolutions or instructions to the five delegates named—George P. Fee, Z. M. Taylor, Sam Greer, W. M. Isenhower, W. R. Huestis.

Those present at the Westside convention included Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Heysler, O. Stutenroth, James Flournoy, J. J. Callaway, Yancey McCrea, G. P. Mitcham, Lewis Starr, W. W. Fewell, Fred Grist, Tom Stark, E. P. Crawford, Oscar Cliett, L. A. Warren, Forrest Wright, Eugene Lankford, George Boyd, Karl Armstrong, R. L. Ponsler, W. J. Parsons, Bob Winston, J. E. Norris, J. Harry Reynolds, W. J. Armstrong, Charles J. Kleiner, N. S. Kinard, C. R. West, A. B. O'Flaherty.

WOULD CHANGE U. S. IMMIGRATION LAWS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 6.—Methodists plunged into the racial discrimination question by doing a little home work—they requested its ultimate elimination in their own church.

They asked that a special commission be appointed to study the problem. Most of the church's 330,000 Negroes, while granted full privileges in general conferences, are segregated into one jurisdiction for administrative purposes.

The 762 delegates to the general conference, who hope to complete their work and adjourn by Saturday night, also asked that Negroes be given equality in housing, transportation and in educational facilities, and urged the repeal of discriminatory legislation against the immigration and naturalization of orientals of friendly nations, and as soon as possible of all nations.

KEEP EYES ON PACIFIC THEATER

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Don't forget to look over your shoulder once in a while toward the Pacific. Dope here is that things are going to happen there soon. Big things. Preparations have been made quietly while attention has been focused on Europe and the coming invasion. Public hasn't realized the amount of equipment now ready in Central Pacific, the force we can bring into play. The timetable out there is months ahead of schedule. Forthcoming news may mean the showdown, the big blow designed to bring the Jap navy out now or never.

White House tacticians directing the Montgomery Ward maneuvers tried to outflank Sewell Avery by appealing directly to company's directors. But at board meeting, Monty-Ward's tough boss pounded the table, started down directors voicing White House views, won clear endorsement of his stubborn position. New Deal's opposition would have had even bigger Roman holiday had one proposed tactic been followed—namely that WPB Chief Donald Nelson be sent to take over the mail-order house. Nelson, whose business connections before joining the Government was with Sears Roebuck, chief competitor of Ward, wisely declined.

House debate on "G. I. bill of rights," with accompaniment of campaign oratory, will center on provision for unemployment compensation for ex-servicemen. Chairman Rankin of Veterans Committee will re-offer amendment rejected by his group to pay jobless vets at rate of base Army pay, not exceeding $100 a month, for six months. Committee-approved provision would give them $20 a week for six months. Committee discarded Senate-approved provision distinguishing between married and single vets, awarding $25 maximum to former, $15 to latter. Senate bills also have provided payments extending for 32 weeks instead of 26. House group also discarded Senate scheme for Veterans Administration loans up to $1000, substituting plan under which government would guarantee 50 percent of loan by private firms, with $1500 limit on guarantees. American Legion executive committee meeting here this week for the first time, takes credit for speeding up House action. Legion says 130,000 of its 1,500,000 membership are veterans of the present war.

DAMRON WILL OPEN FIRESTONE STORE

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Damron, formerly of Paducah, have moved to Cisco and have bought the home at 1267 west Ninth street.

Mr. Damron, designated local Firestone dealer, will open a place of business at 602 D avenue and will carry all Firestone products—tires, tubes, auto supplies and accessories and also supplies for the home. The opening date of this new business establishment will be announced soon.

The Daily Press joins the citizenship in welcoming the Damrons to Cisco.

REFERRED TO HIS DEFEAT IN AFRICA AND SAID BRITISH KILLED WOUNDED PRISONERS

LONDON, May 6.—Field Marshal Rommel added his voice Saturday to the invasion guessing in declaring the attack "must be reckoned as imminent" and asserting that the German soldier, "armed with new weapons, is ready for the utmost."

The Allies, he declared in a broadcast, "will come up against many great surprises."

"This is particularly true of those enemy formations which may try to land by parachute or from gliders behind the coastal front," Rommel declared.

The broadcast said he addressed his commanders after completing a tour of Mediterranean coast defenses and quoted him as saying:

"My inspection of the interior of the country has shown the existence of an interesting system of tactical measures which can be described as a complete novelty."

Rommel, whose forces were driven from Africa by 8th Army troops of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, made a reference to that experience.

"Before the attack on El Alamein," Rommel said, "Montgomery asked his men to kill Germans wherever they met them. On account of this order wounded and captured German soldiers were murdered at El Alamein."

"We German officers do not give orders to our men which are in contrast to military honor."

Capt. H. H. Balfour, British undersecretary for air, declared that for all practical purposes some 135,000 Allied airmen already have opened the main battle of the invasion.

He asserted that the destruction executed during April "throughout the length and breadth of occupied Europe" by these airmen would make the invasion path from the coast to Berlin more direct.

Looking to the peace beyond the invasion, the London Daily Herald said Saturday that the European advisory commission now had "practically completed" a detailed document setting out armistice terms to be presented to Germany.

The commission, authorized by the Moscow conference, has been meeting behind closed doors since last Dec. 15. Although it is understood to be chiefly concerned with plans for dealing with Germany after the war it is empowered to make recommendations on any matters concerning the conflict.

Reports received here through Stockholm, possibly German-inspired, said the Nazis had sent 20,000 reinforcements into restive Denmark and 30,000 into Norway as anti-invasion moves.

NAPLES.—Allied air fleets have reduced the flow of supplies to German armies on the Italian front to a mere trickle by cutting every railway line and knocking out every freight yard as far north as Florence.

The complete paralysis of the enemy's railway communications up to 210 miles behind the fighting fronts was revealed by Lt. Gen. Ira C. Eaker, Allied air commander in the Mediterranean, and Maj. Gen. John K. Cannon, commander of the 12th U. S. Air Force, amid persistent reports that the Allies were preparing for a new all-out offensive in Italy, perhaps coincidental with the invasion of western Europe.

Bearing out the speculation, fair weather was reported on all fronts after a wet, cold winter and the enemy was understood to have cleared civilians from a belt 20 miles deep behind the main Fifth Army front, presumably to facilitate defense operations.

MOSCOW.—The Russian high command Saturday broadcast "eve of battle" orders to land, sea and air forces, indicating that the 14-day lull on the eastern front may soon be broken.

New and fierce battles impend, the semi-official army newspaper Red Star commented, implying that the present state of quiet is temporary and filled with preparation for new and great undertakings.

Amid mounting speculation that the Soviet forces are girding for a full-scale offensive to coincide with the opening of the second front in Europe, the high command reiterated that the battle will not be won even when the last German has been driven from Russian soil.

"We will have to cross the Soviet state frontiers," the dramatic order declared.

"Go forward and destroy the wounded beast in his lair."

JAP-TRAPPER—Commander of Army Seventh Air Force, Maj. Gen. Willis H. Hale decorates Capt. Allan R. Traflinger of Paris, Ill., with Air Medal for his action over Marshall Islands. When he couldn't find Jap target, he turned on his landing lights, headed in. Japs, thinking him one of them, turned on airfield lights enabling him to make direct hit.

But at board meeting, Monty-Ward's tough boss pounded the table, stared down directors voicing White House views, won clear endorsement of his stubborn position. New Deal's opposition would have had even bigger Roman holiday had one proposed tactic been followed—namely that WPB Chief Donald Nelson be sent to take over the mail-order house. Nelson, whose business connections with Sears Roebuck, chief competitor of Ward, wisely declined.

House debate on "G. I. bill of rights," with accompaniment of campaign oratory, will center on provision for unemployment compensation for ex-servicemen. Chairman Rankin of Veterans Committee will re-offer amendment rejected by his group to pay jobless vets at rate of base Army pay, not exceeding $100 a month, for six months. Committee-approved provision would give them $20 a week for six months. Committee discarded Senate-approved provision distinguishing between married and single vets, awarding $25 maximum to former, $15 to latter. Senate bills also have provided payments extending for 32 weeks instead of 26. House group also discarded Senate scheme for Veterans Administration loans up to $1000, substituting plan under which government would guarantee 50 percent of loan by private firms, with $1500 limit on guarantees. American Legion executive committee, meeting here this week for the first time, takes credit for speeding up House action. Legion says 150,000 of its 1,300,000 membership are veterans of the present war.

The Daily Press joins the citizenship in welcoming the Damrons to Cisco.

REFERRED TO HIS DEFEAT IN AFRICA AND SAID BRITISH KILLED WOUNDED PRISONERS

LONDON, May 6.—Field Marshal Rommel added his voice Saturday to the invasion guessing in declaring the attack "must be reckoned as imminent" and asserting that the German soldier, "armed with new weapons, is ready for the utmost."

The Allies, he declared in a broadcast, "will come up against many great surprises."

"This is particularly true of those enemy formations which may try to land by parachute or from gliders behind the coastal front," Rommel declared.

The broadcast said he addressed his commanders after completing a tour of Mediterranean coast defenses and quoted him as saying:

"My inspection of the interior of the country has shown the existence of an interesting system of tactical measures which can be described as a complete novelty."

Rommel, whose forces were driven from Africa by 8th Army troops of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, made a reference to that experience.

"Before the attack on El Alamein," Rommel said, "Montgomery asked his men to kill Germans wherever they met them. On account of this order wounded and captured German soldiers were murdered at El Alamein."

"We German officers do not give orders to our men which are in contrast to military honor."

Capt. H. H. Balfour, British undersecretary for air, declared that for all practical purposes some 138,000 Allied airmen already have opened the main battle of the invasion.

He asserted that the destruction executed during April "throughout the length and breadth of occupied Europe" by these airmen would make the invasion path from the coast to Berlin more direct.

Looking to the peace beyond the invasion, the London Daily Herald said Saturday that the European advisory commission now had "practically completed" a detailed document setting out armistice terms to be presented to Germany.

The commission, authorized by the Moscow conference, has been meeting behind closed doors since last Dec. 15. Although it is understood to be chiefly concerned with plans for dealing with Germany after the war it is empowered to make recommendations on any matters concerning the conflict.

Reports received here through Stockholm, possibly German-inspired, said the Nazis had sent 20,000 reinforcements into restive Denmark and 30,000 into Norway as anti-invasion moves.

NAPLES.—Allied air fleets have reduced the flow of supplies to German armies on the Italian front to a mere trickle by cutting every railway line and knocking out every freight yard as far north as Florence.

The complete paralysis of the enemy's railway communications up to 210 miles behind the fighting fronts was revealed by Lt. Gen. Ira C. Eaker, Allied air commander in the Mediterranean, and Maj. Gen. John K. Cannon, commander of the 12th U. S. Air Force, amid persistent reports that the Allies were preparing for a new all-out offensive in Italy, perhaps coincidental with the invasion of western Europe.

Bearing out the speculation, fair weather was reported on all fronts after a wet, cold winter and the enemy was understood to have cleared civilians from a belt 20 miles deep behind the main Fifth Army front, presumably to facilitate defense operations.

MOSCOW.—The Russian high command Saturday broadcast "eve of battle" orders to land, sea and air forces, indicating that the 14-day lull on the eastern front may soon be broken.

New and fierce battles impend, the semiofficial army newspaper Red Star commented, implying that the present state of quiet is temporary and filled with preparation for new and great undertakings.

Amid mounting speculation that the Soviet forces are girding for a full-scale offensive to coincide with the opening of the second front in Europe, the high command reiterated that the battle will not be won even when the last German has been driven from Russian soil.

"We will have to cross the Soviet state frontiers," the dramatic order declared.

"Go forward and destroy the wounded beast in his lair."

COL. FRANK KNOX.

The passing of Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox has left a gap in the national scene not easy to fill. Knox was a Republican in a Democratic administration, a strong and forthright American, serving not party, but America. He was one of the top figures in the newspaper world, and justly so. He built the U. S. navy from a small affair to a great two-ocean winning force.

Leland Stowe says of him that much of his spirit will remain with us. The nation needs that spirit of unity, fairness, friendliness, humor, strength.

DEWEY'S SPEECH.

In the generally excellent speech made the other day by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, in which he dealt for the first time with international affairs, there was one rather curious passage. It concerned the handling of foreign affairs and the responsibility for decisions made.

The governor said that Secretary Hull's recent utterances on foreign policy were excellent, and "deserved respect," but "had done little to relieve the concern and uncertainty our people feel." And he continued:

"This is not primarily because of dissatisfaction with words Mr. Hull has used. It is because we see reported in the papers developments from abroad, and other statements from high government officials, which do not seem to fit in with the words Mr. Hull has used. It is because we cannot be sure to what extent our foreign policy is actually being handled by the secretary of state, and to what extent it is being handled privately by the president."

YANKS IN PERSIA.

Is there any place where American soldiers are not? One of the latest to be revealed is the Persian Gulf, where on a tiny island a way station has been established for planes westward bound from India.

The Persian Gulf has long had a bad name for heat, but the Englishmen who know it best say that this reputation is undeserved. The Gulf is no worse than Egypt or India, they maintain. Given electric fans and plenty of ice, it can be reasonably comfortable.

But what American's wildest boyhood dreams ever carried him to that lonely tropic sea?

SOLDIERS' WIDOWS.

Philadelphia's last Civil War veteran has just died. In the whole country only 625 were alive on June 30, 1943, according to the United States Veterans Administration. As 350 had died in the previous year, probably in two more years there will be no survivors of what was long the country's greatest war.

Civil War pensions will continue to be paid, however. The same report that listed only 625 surviving soldiers recorded 32,557 widows of Civil War soldiers, most of them far younger than the men who put them on the public payroll. There were even 95 widows of soldiers of the Mexican War, which was fought nearly a century ago. And there is still one surviving pensioner of the War of 1812, the daughter of a soldier, put on the pension list in 1927 by a special act of Congress. As she is only 87, she may stay there for some years.

While all consideration is due the life-partners of veterans, many of those on the pension list may have married for revenue, when much younger than their husbands.

WHERE TO FIND IT.

Frederic J. Haskin, who has died at 71, built up a great information service, syndicated to newspapers, as well as supplied to individuals by mail. He undertook to answer any answerable question, and hired hundreds of investigators to search the Library of Congress and elsewhere for the answers.

Many who consulted Haskin did not know that they could have had the same service without stirring out of their own town, by asking their public library. Libraries nowadays are not merely storehouses of books, offering light fiction to those in search of recreation. An even more important function is information.

If you want to know whether the 20th wedding anniversary is cotton, tin or cream cheese, or who said "Give me liberty or give me death," ask your librarian. He (or more probably she) can get you the answer, often at once. That is one of the things she is there for. It is foolish not to make use of library services.

In short, every town that has a public library has its own Haskin.

E. H. Reed, architect, who recently moved to Cisco from Abilene, has donated his services to the Cisco baseball club in designing and supervising the erection of the park grandstand and club house, providing the association management cares to accept it as a contribution to the good of the community and as a benefit to the sport. The ball club project is progressing nicely, the finance committee having been active during the past two days, with fair success towards completing the necessary capital subscription. Not sufficient capital has been subscribed by several thousands of dollars, and the work of today may not complete the job. Subscribers feel that not less than $20,000 is necessary to put the project over.

In an interview Sunday afternoon Earl Conner, member of the law firm of Conner & McCrae of Eastland, employed, he said, by moving picture interests, stated the Judia theater in this city will continue to operate on Sundays and follow the policy outlined by G. H. Judia. "Of course the Judia will continue to show on Sunday," said Conner. "I am not here to fight the matter out, but merely to protect Manager Davis from more than one arrest. A man can not be prosecuted more than once for one offense in each 24 hours. 'As a resident and citizen of Eastland,'" continued Conner, "I would much prefer to see the shows here closed up for good for Eastland would forge ahead of Cisco and benefit thereby. But as a lawyer it is a different proposition with me." H. K. Davis, manager of the Judia, pleaded guilty to the violation of the Sunday law in the justice court here Monday morning and was fined $71.46 by Justice of the Peace Z. M. Taylor.

Claude C. Wild, attorney, was elected president of the Young Men's Business league at the meeting Monday night. This and electing other officers for the ensuing year was the chief item taken up by the new commercial organization. Other officers were elected as follows: E. T. Gunther, vice president; Stewart L. Williams, secretary; J. L. Kelly, treasurer; finance committee, M. T. Turner, Walter Sikes, C. V. Rominger. A board of trustees was appointed as follows: F. E. Harrell, Walter Sikes, Walter Ray, W. D. Herring, Jess Sessions, S. L. Williams and John Kelly. It was announced that more than $10,000 has been subscribed in stock, and promoters of the proposition expect to run the figure above the $15,000-mark by Friday.

Our passions are so blind in their driving power and our judgment is so tickle that unless we retire occasionally to some upper room where we may think quietly our lives are likely to be warped and our conduct will be less notable than we mean for it to be. Worship in the sanctuary affords for all of us a haven in a storm, a place of refuge in the battle of life, where we may catch our breath, take stock of our strength and equipment, find our bearings and renew our high purposes before we rally forth to new engagements. Sunday school meets at 9:45, morning worship is at 10:50 and the evening worship at 8. Let all who will come with us into the sanctuary of God and have fellowship with the God and Father of all mankind. LESLIE SEYMOUR, Minister.

THIS IS BETTER BABY WEEK

We extend our congratulations to the mothers and fathers of American babies, who are to be honored all over the nation this week, in the effort to encourage better care and protection for those who will be the generation to rule this country when many of us will have passed on to our final destiny.

Baby Week is being emphasized and publicised in many ways in order that better living conditions and a higher mortality rate may obtain.

Of course better parents make better babies, and hence, better citizens for the generations to follow.

If America continues strong and able to point the world to ways of better living, it will be because babies fulfill their complete destinies.
