US. PLANE AND CREWS HAVE CHARMED LIVES

U. S. BOMBER BASE, ENGLAND, May 9.—The Marauder "Mild and Bitter" took part in the bombing of a German airfield in France Monday evening and became the first Allied bomber in this "big league" theater to score its hundredth mission.

Its closest competitors are several RAF "heavies" which have done over 90.

The pilot on its hundredth was the pilot of its first—Capt. Paul Shannon, Attica, Kan., who was in on the first Marauder operation in this theater, a low-level attack in May of 1942.

"Mild and Bitter" has carried 166 different men — 31 crews — with never a man injured. The only damage it experienced was a dozen flakholes on one mission and a shrapnel vertical fin on another occasion.

KATY PAYROLLS.

AUSTIN, May 9. — Katy payrolls for the year 1943 amounted to the huge sum of $33,706,579, or more than the total operating revenues of the company in 1940, and the average number of employees on the monthly payrolls was 14,434, or approximately twice the number on 1940 payrolls, as shown by figures recently released by Matthew S. Sloan, chairman of the board and president. Other huge sums were spent for materials and supplies connected with the system-wide improvement program, the total expenditures for maintenance of way and structures and the maintenance of equipment totaling $28,684,747.

LIEUT. ODOM IS MISSING IN ENGLAND

Official notice was received this morning by his wife that Lt. Olin O. Odom, navigator of a B-17 Flying Fortress based in England, is missing in action over Germany since April 24. The last letter Mrs. Odom received from her husband was written on that date and arrived here about May 1.

Lieutenant Odom, son of Rev. and Mrs. O. O. Odom of Dublin and formerly of Cisco, took civilian pilot training here at Cisco in the spring of 1942 and was sworn into the air corps in June of that year. He was called to active duty August 31. He had been in England less than two months, having gone across about March 15. He visited his wife and baby, Olin Odom III, for several days during the last Christmas season and again for a few days in February.

Mrs. Odom, formerly Miss Betty Eida Clark, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Clark, was married to the airman February 28, 1942. They had been school mates in the Cisco high school at the time his father was pastor of First Methodist church of this city. She is now teacher of home economics in the high school. June 1 will be Odom's 26th birthday.

FORMER COTTONWOOD BOY IS MISSING

Staff Sgt. Wm. E. Barnhill, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Barnhill, formerly of Cottonwood but now living at Stanton, is reported missing in action as of April 20.

The young man was a member of the air corps and is thought to have been lost somewhere in North Africa.

He attended Cisco grammar school and was a graduate of Stanton high school.

TEXANS IN ARMY.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Texas had 372,000 men and 4,306 women in the Army as of last Dec. 31, the War Department has advised Senator Tom Connally. Between Nov. 1, 1940, and Dec. 31, 1943, the Army got 402,700 Texas men and 6,439 women. Texans "lost from service," for all causes, during the above period, included 75,694 men and 2,171 women.

NICE TREATMENT—Jap prisoners captured on Aitape, Dutch New Guinea, during Hollandia operation are not averse to sampling Yank rations. In fact U. S. food looks pretty good to Nips, who seem to be enjoying their captivity thus far. After eating meal, they sit back and try to look photographic for cam reman.

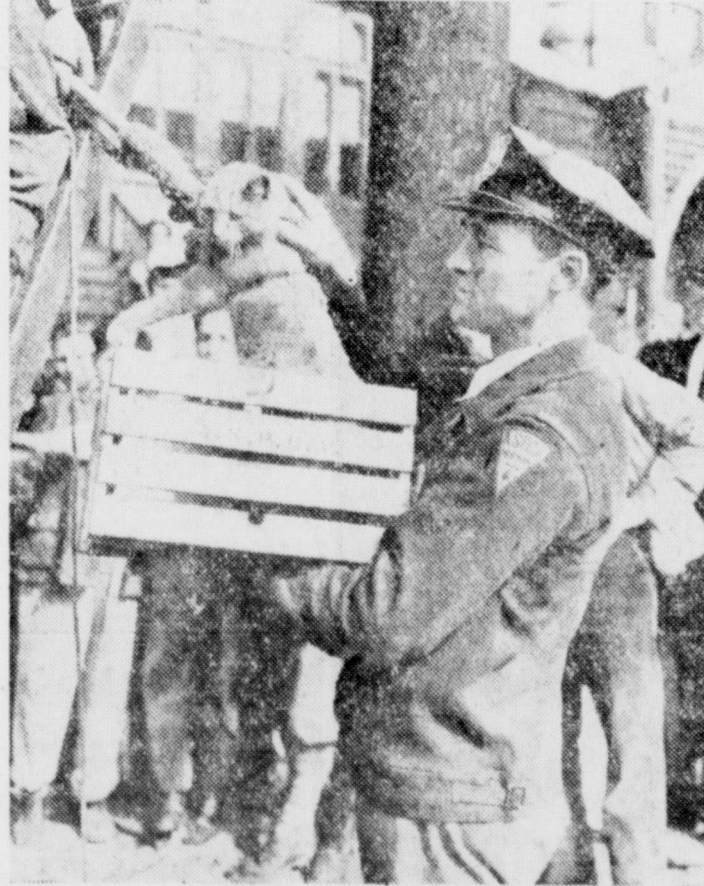

SIMPLE SOLUTION—Army's Air Service Command which has done some plain and fancy toting scored a "first" at Fullerton, Cal., when it transported small plane to repair base. Damaged plane, grounded by cracked cylinder head, is shown being loaded into cavernous fuselage of cargo plane.

CISCO BOY IS READY FOR BOMBER WORK

The public relations office of the army air field, Laredo, Tex., informs the Daily Press that Pic. Dick McPherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon McPherson of Cisco, has graduated there from the army air forces flexible gunnery school and is now qualified to take his place as a member of a bomber combat crew.

Along with his diploma, McPherson received a pair of aerial gunner's silver wings and a promotion in grade. The statement said the Ciscoan was prepared for his place in America's stepped-up air offensive by a comprehensive six weeks course in every phase of aerial gunnery warfare. Besides learning to fire every type weapon from camera guns to the deadly calibre .50 Brownings, McPherson studied turret manipulation, aircraft identification, stripping and reassembling of machine guns while blindfolded. He climaxed the course by air firing on towed targets.

A late photo of the Cisco boy has been added to the Daily Press picture gallery.

TOUGHY COMES DOWN—It's no fun being up a tree, or so Toughy a stray cat found out. She chased a bird on an oak and had to stay there for two days until ASPCA came to Brooklyn, N. Y., and rescued her. Here, attendant John Stitzel holds unhappy feline in basket after she came down.

SCRANTON HI HOLDS TIGHT TO AI RECORD

O. L. Savage, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Cisco, was the commencement speaker at Scranton Monday night when the members of the graduating class of the high school were awarded their diplomas.

The baccalaureate service was held Sunday afternoon in Scranton Baptist church, the speaker for that occasion being Rev. Leslie Seymour, pastor of the Cisco Methodist church.

Special music was furnished by a boys and girls chorus from the school student body under the direction of Mrs. Armstrong, one of the high school faculty.

The graduates, wearing their caps and gowns, were challenged by the speakers to make a contribution to their generation proportionate to the extraordinary demands of the day.

Supt. John Shrader, who has been connected with the Scranton schools for nearly a quarter of a century, says this class is composed of some of the finest young men and women ever produced by the community, known for years for its superior type of family and citizenship.

K. N. GREER THE PICTURE OF HEALTH

A report that K. N. Greer of the Palace theater has diphtheria seems to have been widely circulated about Cisco yesterday and today and when Mr. Greer appeared at the Daily Press office this morning he was "hot and bothered and a bit irate."

Said the usually good humored picture show manager: "Tell 'em I am all right and to quit diving for the other side of the street when they see me coming. I have never had diphtheria and, so far as I know, have never been exposed to it. If the rumor started as a joke, I don't think much of the joker."

HANNEGAN ASSETS DEWEY IS COPY CAT

NEW YORK, May 9. — Robert E. Hannegan, national Democratic committee chairman, said last night he was firmly convinced that President Roosevelt will run again and be elected. He said the president "is fit and ready for the fight."

Hannegan devoted much of his address to Governor Dewey, probable Republican nominee for president. He said Dewey's utterances showed lack of foresight. He described the New York governor as one "who copies down the answers on his little slate after the examination is all over."

FINED $250 EACH.

FT. WORTH, May 9. — Five persons who went into the black market to buy new tires, only to find they were stolen in three Dallas burglaries, were fined $250 each by Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson, who issued the warning that jail sentences probably would be forthcoming in the future.

CARELESS AMERICANS.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 9.—Industrial accidents took a higher toll of American lives from Pearl Harbor to last Jan. 1 than military action, a War Production Board official today told the National Conference of Industrial Hygienists. During the period 37,000 workers were killed against 30,000 military dead.

ALLIED TROOPS MOVED FORWARD IN STRENGTH TO CONSOLIDATE NEW POSITIONS

NAPLES, May 9.—The German army has abandoned a deep salient on the central Italian front, it was disclosed today, falling back 10 miles under heavy Allied pressure to new positions north of the Aventino river on the towering Maiello Plateau.

Blowing up bridges, mountain tunnels and houses in the path of their retreat, the Nazis fell back across the Aventino, surrendering without a fight the villages of Palena and Lettopalena, 30 miles inland from the Adriatic coast.

Allied headquarters spokesmen said the Germans covered their withdrawal with heavy shells and mortar fire which was countered by a raking barrage from hastily-advancing Allied guns.

The withdrawal indicated the Nazis were preparing to abandon the entire salient hooking three to 10 miles into the Allied lines along a 24-mile front from Casoli to Castel Di Sangro.

Occupation of the Palena and Lettopalena areas moved the front northward about 10 miles. The German salient in that sector formerly had extended to the Sangro river at Villa Santa Maria.

Allied troops were reported moving forward in strength to consolidate their new positions on the southern edge of the Maiello mountains—the 4000-foot "roof of Italy."

German skirmishes stabbed repeatedly at the Allied lines around Toilo, near the Adriatic coast, in an apparent attempt to cover the withdrawal on the central front. Indian troops counter-attacked heavily, however, and drove the Nazi patrols back after a number of furious hand-to-hand clashes.

Allied and German artillery exchanged heavy fire on the main 5th Army front further west, in the Cassino area and along the lower Garigliano valley.

The Anzio beachhead front generally was quiet. Bad weather curtailed all aerial operations across the Italian front yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Allied bombers carried out new widespread blows against Japan's defenses from the north to south Pacific, it was disclosed today as the announcement of light American casualties at Hollandia brought a warning from a high commander that no further such easy victories should be expected.

An Allied spokesman revealed that the biggest invasion of the Southwest Pacific war at Hollandia cost the Americans 23 dead and 85 wounded in the first 17 days and that none were missing.

Rear Admiral Daniel E. Barbey, commander of the 7th Amphibious Force, said however that he believed the Hollandia conquest was the last of the easy victories in that theater, adding that "We are liable to run into much better Jap troops when we get to the Philippines."

A spokesman disclosed that an American patrol had landed at Bougainville Friday, 20 miles east of Hollandia whose three airfields were being used for the new attacks on outlying Dutch New Guinea points.

MOSCOW.—Russian storm troops fought the remnants of two Axis armies within full view of flaming and smoking Sevastopol today as their artillery rolled up wheel to wheel, poured salvo after salvo into enemy suicide squads clinging to the last German hold in the Crimea. Fortified heights overlooking the port city were stormed Monday.

(The German communiqué said heavy fighting continued and that 56 Russian planes were destroyed over Sevastopol Monday).

The battle reached its climatic stage, with fighting under way in the immediate approaches to the city, and an Izvestia dispatch declared the German force in the Crimea definitely was defeated and pressed back to the Black Sea.

The Germans were fighting desperately, clinging to every inch of shore under an incessant artillery barrage, but with the Red Army looking down on Sevastopol's famous panorama, the end of the battle appeared in sight.

AFTER FISHBEIN.

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—The California Medical association's house of delegates has adopted a resolution asking its members to work for the dismissal of Dr. Morris Fishbein of Chicago as editor of the American Medical association's Journal and Hygiene. In part the resolution said Fishbein has assumed the position of spokesman for American medicine.

LARGE GROUPS HEARD

MISS MARY SUE HERNDON

All space was used Friday afternoon by Cisco women and home economic classes on the roof garden of Laguna hotel, where Miss Mary Sue Herndon illustrated and discussed the latest methods used in canning fruits and vegetables. Mrs. D. Ball was in charge of the meeting.

Miss Herndon first told her audience to be careful what kind of jars they use in canning. Use only those with reliable brands on them if canned goods are to keep fit and in good condition. She next explained the proper kind of lids for canning. Jars were sterilized inside the oven at a heat of 250 degrees. Green beans, carrots and beets were canned in a pressure cooker by Miss Herndon to illustrate the lesser. Grape fruit was canned by the "water-bath" process. She also carefully explained the correct methods of putting up meats, jams, relishes and juices.

Miss Herndon, home economist and employed by the Lone Star Gas company, presented a booklet on canning to each one in attendance. The home economics class of grammar school and girls of the high school class attended the meeting in a body, together with a large number of women from the homes of Cisco.
