CHINA IN SMASHING COMEBACK

H. J. McARDLE DIED SUDDENLY THIS MORNING

Harry J. McArdle, 63, field clerk here with the Humble Pipe Line company since 1928, died suddenly from a heart attack at Harris Memorial clinic, Fort Worth, this morning.

Mr. McArdle had been complaining for more than a week and went to Fort Worth Tuesday for a physical checkup at the clinic.

Deceased was born in New York July 6, 1881, and first entered the employ of the Humble company at Breckenridge, March 26, 1923, being transferred to Cisco a few years later. He was a member of the Catholic church, friendly and companionable and very popular with fellow workers of the Humble organization.

In early life he was an outstanding ball player for a number of years, at one time being a member of a Pacific coast league.

Immediate survivors are the bereaved wife and a daughter, Mrs. Roy Clark, who resides in Oklahoma. Mrs. McArdle's mother lives in Breckenridge and her father, who died a few years ago, is buried there.

E. T. Thomas of Thomas funeral home went to Fort Worth this morning to convey the remains to Cisco, but time of funeral and place of burial had not been announced at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

ARMY NEEDS MORE SURGICAL DRESSINGS

Twenty-six Cisco women completed 341 4x8 and 652 4x4 surgical dressings at the Red Cross work rooms in the Reynolds building yesterday.

Notwithstanding the fairly good output recently by Cisco workers, word comes from the county chairman that national headquarters are sorely in need of more of the dressings for our sick and wounded fighting men and that the various Red Cross work centers are expected to meet the call.

To this end, the local Red Cross organization appeals to trained surgical dressing workers to report regularly and aid in meeting the growing demand.

Those present at the work rooms yesterday were Mesdames F. J. Borman, O. G. Lawson, Alex Spears, R. C. McCarter, J. A. Jenkins, Jack Anderson, C. A. Williams, Don McEachern, Homer Shicker, Cecil Shaw, Harold McGowan, J. W. Slaughter, W. W. Wallace, James Moore, Sulton Crofts, Bob Latimer, Willie B. Dunn, E. J. Poe, Les Jenkins, T. O. Thomas, W. L. Lancaster, R. E. Grantham G. B. Langston.

DIED IN ITALY.

Mrs. Violet Ruth Koenig, wife of Staff Sgt. Oscar Koenig and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Yeager, of Sabanno, has been notified of the death of her husband, in Italy. Sergeant Koenig, an infantryman with the 36th division, was wounded on June 5, and died on the 13th. The couple were married about two years ago while Sgt. Koenig was stationed at Camp Bowie.

CARROLL RECOVERING.

O. S. Carroll, who was painfully burned two weeks ago at his repair shop on D avenue, is now at his home in Laguna hotel and will soon be in old-time form. He was at Graham Sanitarium for more than ten days. The accident occurred while Mr. Carroll was soldering a gas tank and gasoline fumes spread to a nearby lighted torch.

PATRIOTS COULD END JOB TODAY

Fifth War Loan Bond sales in Cisco had inched upward to a total of $145,594.75 at the close of business Thursday, which still leaves the city shy $19,005.25 of its quota of $164,600.

A very large part of the deficit MUST be made up through the sale of Series E bonds, which continue to drag.

Patriotic Ciscoans who can—and they are numerous—are respectfully urged to visit bank, postoffice or picture show early Saturday morning and wipe out this embarrassing Series E Bond delinquency, that the municipality may be able to visualize a job well done when Sunday morning comes.

It is a good, safe investment and, after all, NOTHING ELSE is as important as the early conclusion of this devastating war, which might engulf everything we hold dear as a people and a nation if permitted to last too long through lack of interest on the home front.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING.

The workers' conference of Baptist young people, which was in session all day yesterday at East Cisco Baptist church, was participated in by approximately 200 people and was declared a thoroughly successful affair. The general theme was "The Whole World for Jesus" and an inspirational message from Rev. Cooper Waters, pastor First Baptist church, "Which Will You Choose?" concluded the services.

STUDENTS' REUNION.

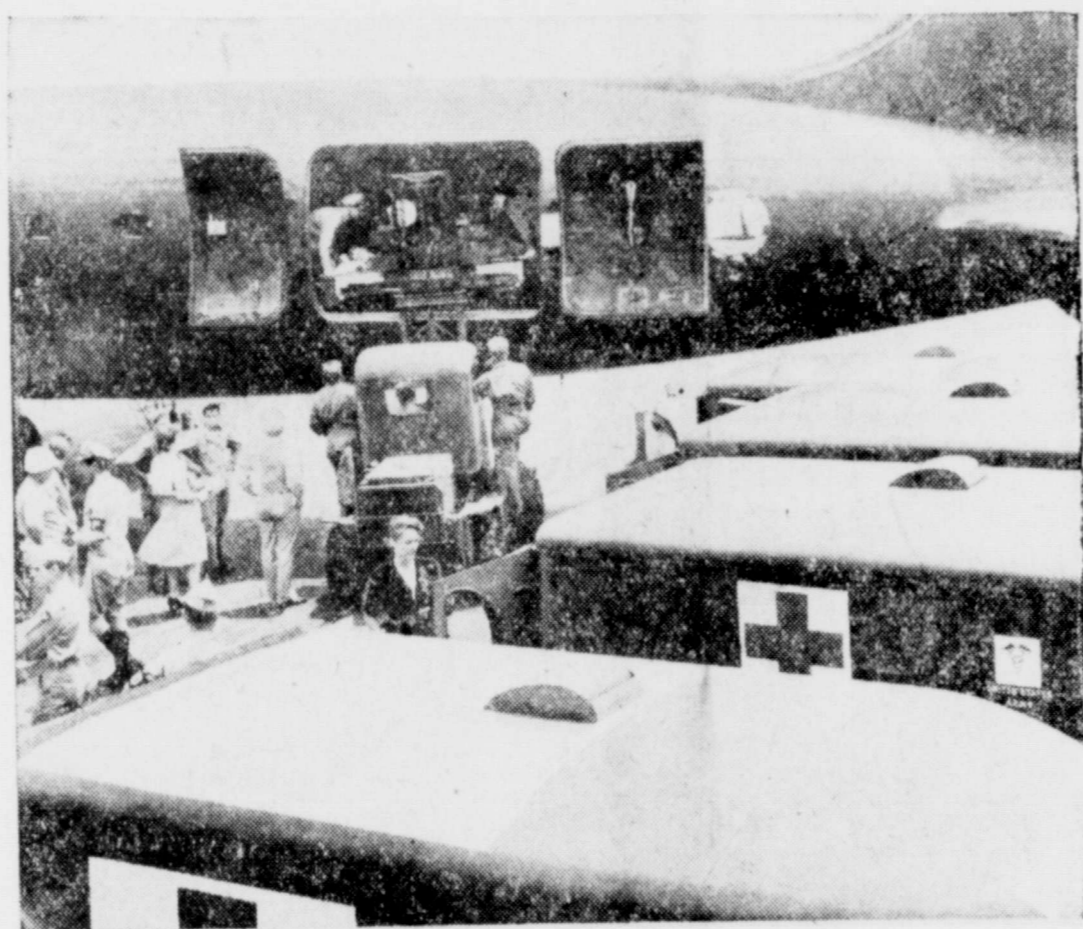

RISEING STAR, July 7.—Preparations are complete for the annual homecoming festivities of the ex-students of the now extinct Macedonia and Brooks schools. As planned the meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harris Saturday night, July 15, and on Sunday at noon an old-fashioned basket picnic dinner is to be spread under the oaks at the site of the old Macedonia school building.

KILLED IN FRANCE.

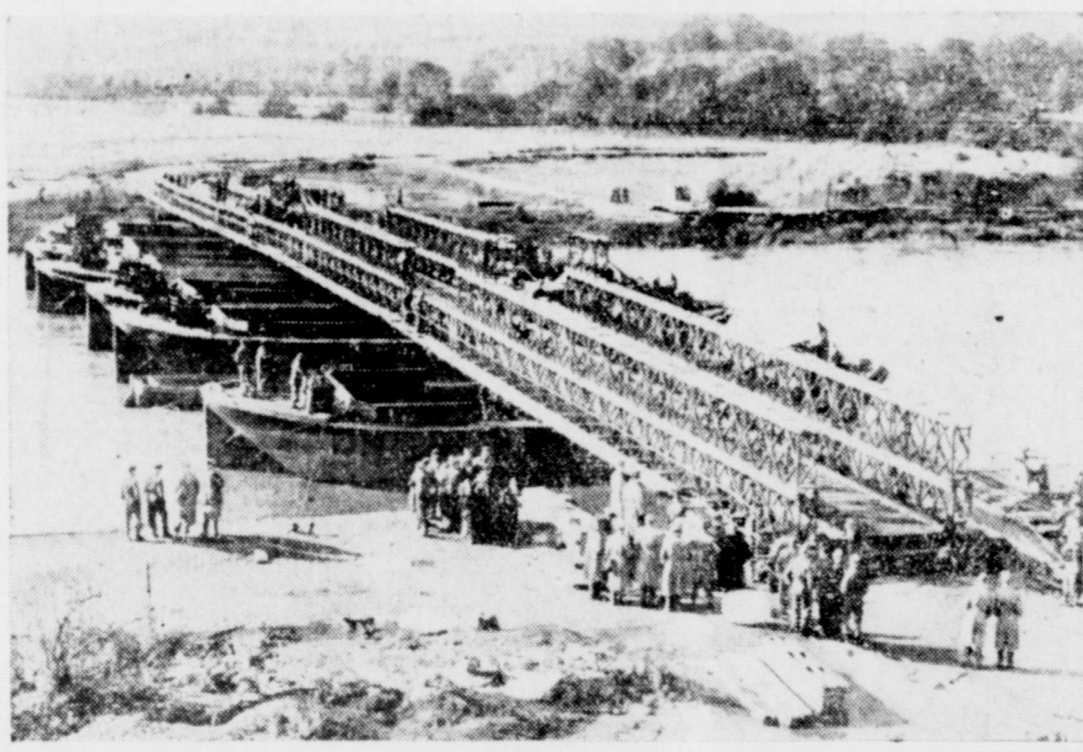

Word was received in Breckenridge today of the death of Corp. Abner Cole, son of Mrs. Dora Cole, who lives near Wayland. He is presumed to have been killed in France. A brother, Sgt. Edward Cole, was recently killed in Italy. Both young men attended the Breckenridge schools and enlisted from that city.

BLUEBONNET SEED.

RISEING STAR, July 7.—G. H. Lockhart, who has been receiving Bluebonnet seed at the Higginbotham store for the Red Cross has made the first shipment of 10 pounds. The Red Cross made a call for the seed several weeks ago for the purpose of planting in the cemeteries where American servicemen are buried overseas. It was thought it was the Texas State Flower, that they be planted on the graves of Texas soldiers. Lockhart says he will continue to accept seeds from anyone who will bring them in.

HOME FROM THE WARS—In New York after being flown from Normandy by hospital plane, rmandy, are disembarked into waiting ambulances 14 American heroes, casualties in the Battle for Na at Mitchel Field. All were sent to the base hospital for check-ups.

NEW ADDITION—Our answer to enemy demolition is this Bailey Bridge, new U. S. British war creation shown here being constructed across a river in England. Looking like huge erector set, parts of bridge are interchangeable and can be speedily put together.

REGULAR DEMOCRAT SAYS WATER FINE

DALLAS, July 7.—A ticket of presidential electors in opposition to the unpledged regular Democratic electors will be welcomed in the November election, E. B. Germany, a leader of the unstructured, anti-administration group and an elector-at-large on the unpledged ticket, says. His statement followed Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones' editorial statement in the Houston Chronicle criticizing to action of recent state Democratic convention.

"Democratic electors are state representatives and are therefore bound to act as their state organization directs as against the instructions of any organization outside the state," Germany said.

"I respect the instructions of the state Democratic convention and believe that the Democracy of Texas has spoken. But another ticket for the benefit of the new deal-Communist group should be put in the field."

DALLAS PRO ELECTION.

DALLAS, July 7.—Dallas county "drys," who have been blocked several times in efforts to have an option election called, appeared today practically to have won their point by securing the required number of signatures.

159 ARE DEAD 80 OF THESE ARE CHILDREN

HARTFORD, Conn., July 7.—The death toll in the fire which destroyed the main part of the Ringling Brothers Circus reached 159—80 of them children—today as investigators pressed inquiries into the origin of the blaze and simultaneously held in heavy bail five officials of the company.

The injured, scattered in three Hartford hospitals, were counted at 250, at least 25 of whom were in serious condition.

Not a circus performer was lost in the holocaust.

As a steady stream of relatives continued to wend through the grim aisles of the dead in the sprawling state armory these officials of the circus were arraigned in police court charged with manslaughter.

J. A. Haley, vice president; George W. Smith, general manager; Leonard Aylesworth, boss canvas man; Edward Versteig, chief electrician, and David Blanchfield, chief wagon man.

After having been detained throughout the night at police headquarters, Haley and Smith were held in $15,000 bail and the others in $10,000 for a hearing July 19.

Many witnesses to the appalling scene commented upon the thick, oily nature of the billowing flames and smoke.

FIRST ISSUE O'DANIEL PAPER IS OUT

A copy of the first issue of Senator W. Lee O'Daniel's nationally circulated newspaper, "The W. Lee O'Daniel News," has been received in Cisco by R. H. Boop, staunch supporter of the Texas senator. It was printed July 4.

Referring to the Texas Democratic convention of May 23, the News says:

"Texas Democrats are once again free men and women. In convention assembled in the Texas Senate Chamber, Austin, Tuesday, May 23, they threw off the yoke of Communism, C. I. Oism and foreignisms and charted their ship upon the open sea of Americanism."

"Texas Jefferson-Jackson Democrats will go to the National Convention, Chicago, July 16, prepared to battle for the rights of a free people. They have the instructions of the convention to demand the two-thirds rule for president and vice president be restored at the Chicago convention. If the rule is not restored these Jefferson-Jackson Democratic delegates and electors will not be bound to support the candidates of the Chicago convention."

"The Texas delegation will go to the Chicago convention as Democrats. They will go with open minds. They are unstructured and they do not wear the brass collar of the Washington Dynasty. There are a few of the selected delegates who have aligned themselves with the New Deal, but they will count for little, so close observers say."

"Monday and Tuesday of convention week in Austin were hectic days. Charges and counter charges were hurled. Senator O'Daniel came in for the customary denunciation by the C. I. O. and Communist wing of the New Deal party. A fat New Dealer and a sturdy Jefferson-Jacksonian engaged in a fist fight. The fat New Dealer lost his pants."

"Collin county of the Sam Rayburn district sent a delegation instructed not to vote for any delegate to the National Convention who was on the federal payroll. Hunt, an other Rayburn county, paraded an old broken-down "Chevie" carrying a long plank sign nailed to its side reading: "No Seventh Term."

BREAK SIEGE OF HENGYANG AND DRIVE YELLOW DEVILS BACK A DISTANCE OF TWENTY-FIVE MI.

CHUNGKING, July 7.—Chinese troops have made a smashing comeback in Hunan province, breaking the siege of Hengyang and driving back a distance of 25 miles the main body of Japanese troops which had by-passed that vital junction in their drive south along the Hankow-Canton railway, a Chinese army spokesman declared Friday.

The victory, scored with the aid of reinforcements moving up from the southwest, has "removed for some time to come" the Japanese threat to occupy the whole of that vital rail line and cut China in two, the spokesman said.

Announcement of the sudden success came as China entered the eighth year of her war with the Japanese invaders, confident that with the help of the United Nations she eventually would drive the enemy from her soil.

LONDON.—German reports said the Russians were advancing today within 10 miles of Wilno, where Moscow reported the Nazis had declared martial law.

Smashing beyond the Polish bastion of Kowel, the Russians were approaching the Bug river at a point about 135 miles southeast of Warsaw along the main trunk line. Virtually all the prewar Polish frontier was crossed save for a section before Luniniec in the Pripiet Marshes.

Wilno, city of 207,750 which has changed nationality six times since the last war, lies but 97 miles from the border of East Prussia and is a rail and highway center. A Moscow dispatch quoted Yustas Paletskis, chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of Lithuania, as saying the German martial law edict barred persons from the streets between 8 p. m. and 5 a. m. and forbade walking in groups greater than two. Paletskis said there had been uprisings in Kaunas, Mariampole and Vilnius.

NORMANDY.—The American southward push in Normandy took a new turn this morning with a successful attack across the Vire river. This widens the previous front considerably and gives the Germans new worries in the St. Jean De Daye area which is six or seven miles from St. Lo.

The troops went in on this sector at 4:30 a. m. under a terrific barrage. It was apparent that the early phases of the maneuver had been entirely successful.

Southbound infantry on the west side of the drive had reached points two miles southwest and one mile southeast of La Have du Puits and two counter-attacks, supported by light tanks in that sector, had been repulsed. The slow progress of hedgehopping and piecemeal blasting was not faster than on previous days, but the movement was still steadily forward. In only one spot—along the road south of Carentan—was German resistance still enough to hold up the drive, and there our troops still held the northern part of the forest they had taken late Thursday.

There have been few artillery barrages in anybody's war thicker, more continuous, or noisier than that which has blasted this ever widening front for the past 18 hours. It started Thursday in the gloaming and is still going on with a din such as the world probably has not heard since the last war's battle for Verdun.

All night long, shells of heavies rumbled low overhead, with echoes, like freight trains passing through tunnels. All night 88's and 150's tossed high-velocity slugs across the tree-tops with weird little screeches like those of the old-time whizz-bang. You lay on your back and listened—not because of any professional interest, but because you couldn't very well do anything else—and tried to pick out the characteristic sounds of German shells on their way in—to distinguish between the slap of the light guns and the growl of the Howitzers, the grunt of the long-distance heavy rifles and the echoing crash of inbound crumps.

There were a few echoes in this weird symphony of superdrums to indicate that the Heinie was contributing anything toward it. Last night interpreters of communiques told us that the Germans were massing new forces of guns ahead of us but that they could not hope to equal the weight of artillery we had been able to mobilize here in the past few weeks.

A FARM HERO.

One of the bravest men in America is Frank Piper, a farmer in Ashland, Ohio. He wouldn't think so, because he is too modest and too busy to think about himself. But he should be better known, because he is a big inspiration for disabled soldiers.

Frank has no legs—he lost them under a train when a boy. He has no crutches even, because he doesn't want to bother with anything of that kind. He runs a 156-acre farm, and can do almost anything with his hands that other people can do with their whole bodies. He has worked with farm horses for 40 years and operates a tractor, handling the pedals with his hands. He drives a car skillfully. He climbs around over and under his horses like an acrobat.

This year he has planted 30 acres of corn and oats and a lot of soy beans. He keeps 21 head of cattle and does his share of the milking. He never asks favors and never complains. And naturally he is treated by the whole farming community with great respect. But it's nothing at all, he says—he's merely doing things the way he wants to do.

And if a lot of these injured men who are coming from the army with things missing from their physical equipment could just see and talk to Frank Piper, it would do them a lot of good.

COURAGEOUS DANES.

Look at the map and observe the tiny point of land which represents Denmark. If you stick a few pins in it, the boundary cannot be seen for the pins. But if you rate Denmark today in terms of courage, steadfastness and self-respect, there is hardly enough space on the map to show her size.

Denmark has been standing up resolutely and defying Hitler and his armies with a force of 15,000 patriots, poorly armed. She refuses to make weapons for Hitler to use in enslaving Europe. There have been general strikes and, in the good old American term, "bonfires and illuminations," to arouse her people against the oppressor. The Danes are made to suffer sorely for their courage, but when hard-pressed they yield only to return again and resume the task of worrying the Huns. And if they can only hold out a little longer, they will have ample help.

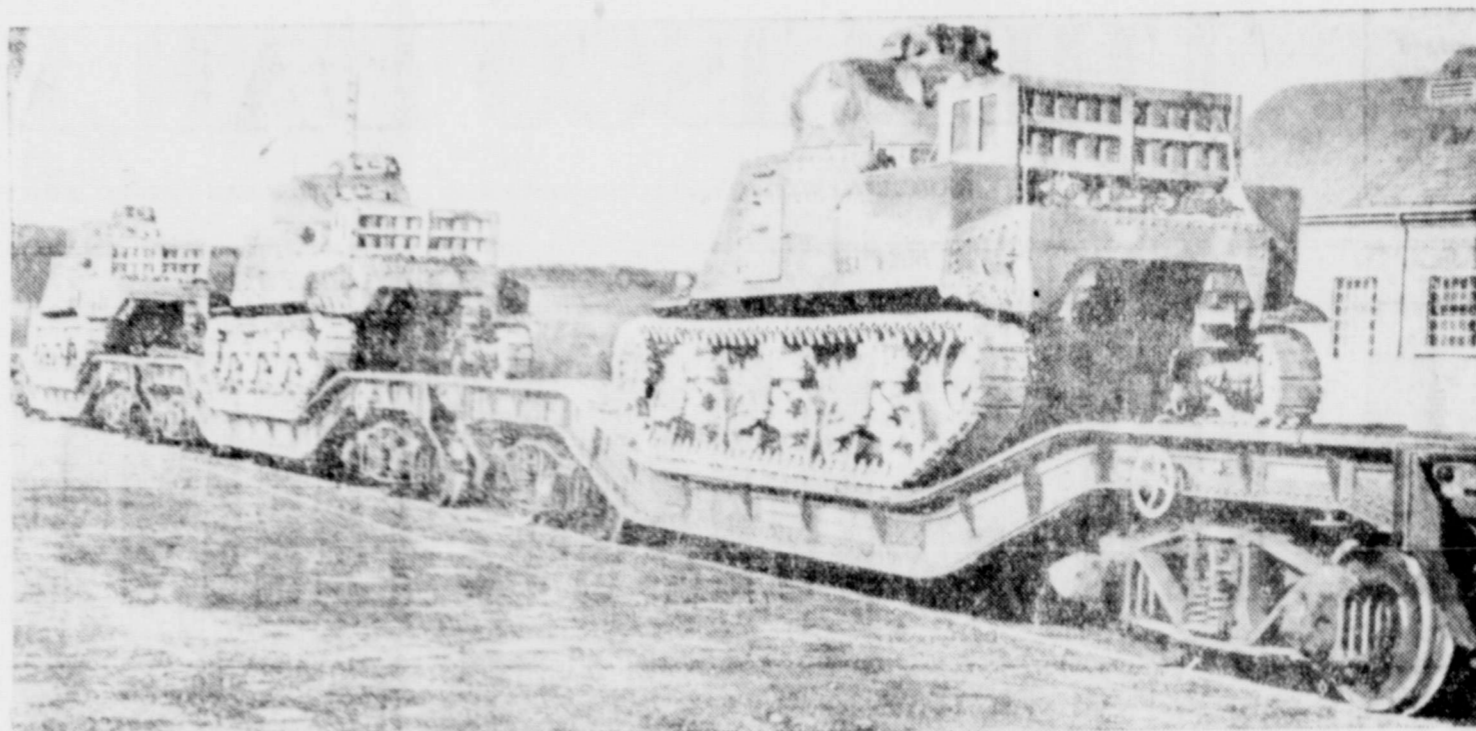

FANATICS.

Hitler has called upon the German people for a period of "national fanaticism" in order to win the war. That might win for him if anything could. But it is rather late in the game. And the German war has really been fought all along on a wave of such fanaticism as Europe had not seen since the Crusades.

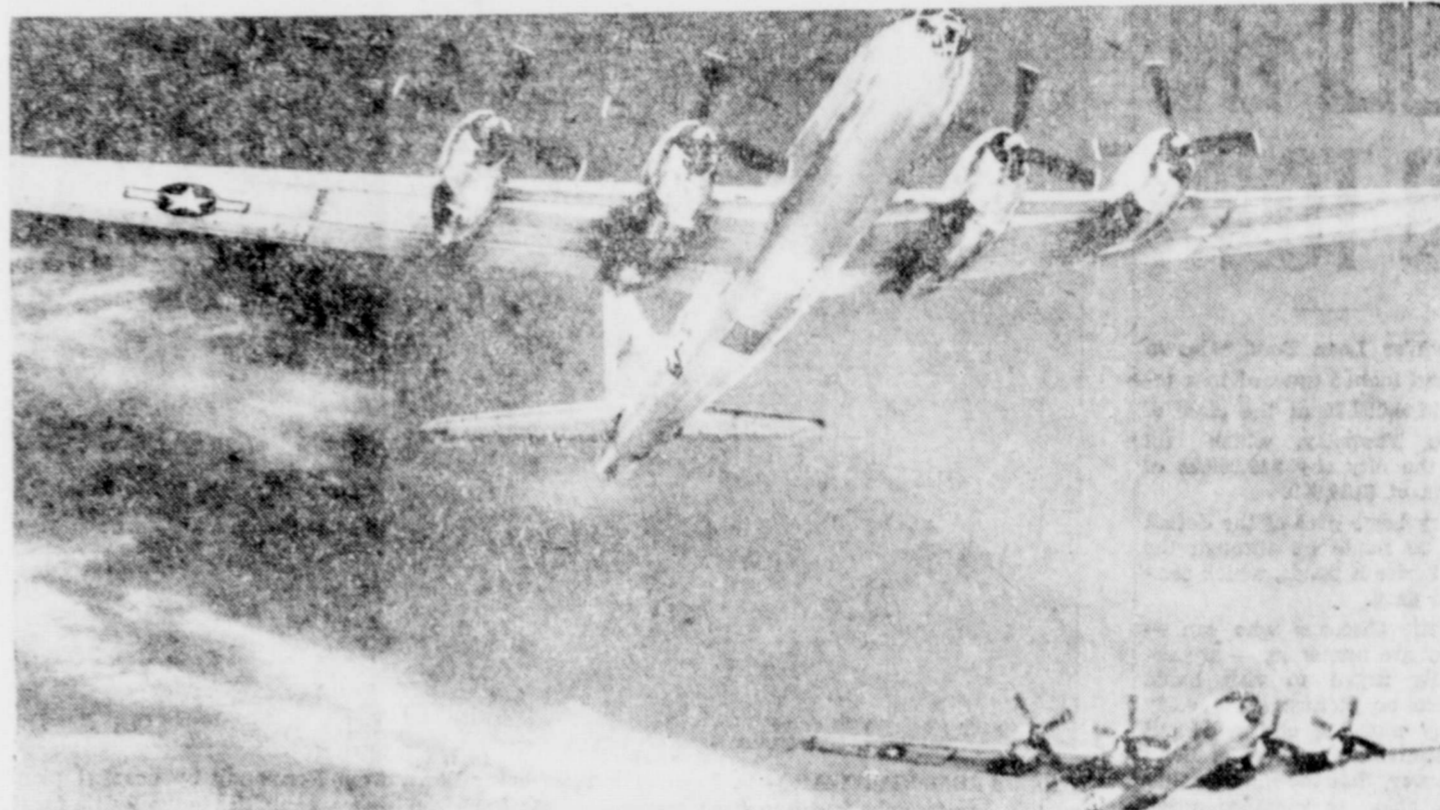

The difference is that the ancient Crusades were based on religion and self-sacrifice, whereas the Nazi fanatics have built on rapine and theft. Never in European history has there been a more glaring attempt, on a vast scale, to rob and kill for profit. But there is a cure for everything. As the war drags on, and the killers are killed, the fanaticism wanes.

WIND BLOWN—Making a striking picture, Esther Williams, movieland's Swim for Health Week Girl, poses on high cliff by the sea. A former swimming champ, she will open drive with series of aquatic exhibitions on the west coast.

DE LUXE TRAVEL FOR TANKS—General Grant tanks, slated to see action soon, are shown traveling in England on special railroad known as Warwell Cars. To conserve space, tanks are loaded with unit equipment before being shipped. (U. S. Signal Corps Photo).

B-29'S BOMB JAPAN—Hitting Japan proper for first time since epic Doolittle raid in 1942, B-29 super-fortresses of Army Air Forces 20th bomber command, striking from bases somewhere in China-Burma-India theater bombed the Nip homeland. Photo shows two of new sky dreadnaughts. The B-29's are powered by four engines of 2200 horsepower each, have speed of more than 300 miles an hour and ceiling of more than 30,000 feet. (U. S. Army Air Forces Photo).

WILLING WORKERS AT MRS. D. G. ALFORD'S.

Willing Workers of First Christian church met Thursday evening with Mrs. D. G. Alford as hostess at the family residence on west Eighteenth street. Mrs. A. J. Sanders, class president, was in charge and opened the meeting with prayer by Mrs. J. S. Mobley. A splendid devotional was brought by Miss Marie Winston, in which she discussed "Christian Love." During the business period plans were made to raise $100 by October for church needs. It was decided that the Mobley group of the class won in the June contest for Bible reading and the Benedict group will entertain them in the near future. Mrs. Troy Powell was accorded a prize for recounting the greatest number of blessings, which she named by reading a clever poem, "Blessings." The period was closed with prayer by Mrs. J. F. Benedict.

During the social hour secret pals were revealed and refreshments were passed to Mrs. J. F. Benedict, Mrs. Harry W. Schmidt, Mrs. R. C. Deal, Mrs. Jack Daly, Mrs. Cliff Helton, Mrs. G. J. Ward, Mrs. Troy Powell, Mrs. A. W. Tripiett, Mrs. L. A. Brunkenhoefer, Mrs. Billy Bacon, Mrs. W. W. Milner, Mrs. Bill Hickey, Mrs. Bernice Steinman, Miss Ethel Mae Wilson, Mrs. C. B. Johnson, Mrs. J. S. Mobley, Mrs. Alford and three visitors, Mrs. W. R. Winston, Miss Marie Winston and Baby Miller.

DINNER IN HITT HOME ENJOYED BY FAMILY.

A family reunion was held Tuesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hitt, 808 west Twelfth street. A lovely six o'clock dinner was served after which conversation entertained the group until a late hour. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Basil Hitt and son, Norman Hitt; Mr. Jack Hitt and Miss Bobby Dean Pettit all of Moran; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hitt, Misses Claudine, Jo Ann and Shirley Hitt and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hitt.

DID JULY 4th MEAN ANYTHING

What did July 4th mean to you? Did it bring traditions of independence, liberty and justice to the common people of America to your mind and thrill you that it was a part of your heritage that you keep those principles intact for your children after you have passed away from Earth?

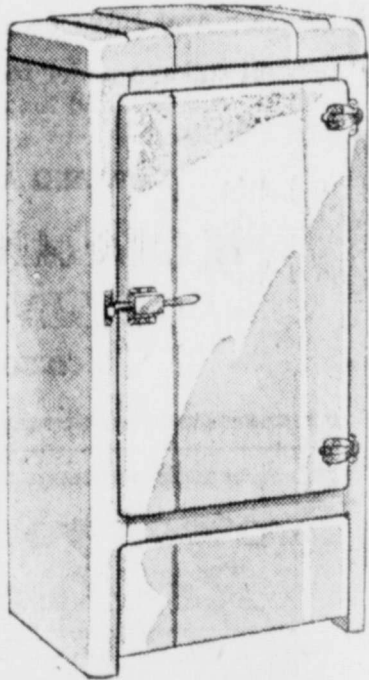

Or did it mean just loitering about and having a good time on the money this war is pouring out to individuals at home, while the flower of American manhood is pouring out its life blood to defend these principles?

OIL LAND NOT UNDER LEASE

Jesse Penn and Sallie Bell Penn have lots of land not under oil lease--joining the Nellie B. League land, where the big oil well has just come in.

There never has been a drill put down to the pay on our land yet.

These shallow holes don't count or spell ANYTHING!

Good oil well just north of us. The Brooks well has been holding up for many years and this new well on the other side of us looks OK.

Common sense tells us we have valuable oil land.

Times Are Changing Fast--

... and so are governments, religions, economic principles and even human nature, whether we like it or not. Likewise, revolutionary changes have taken place in the field of land titles. In the old days most titles were simple and good, but today the records are voluminous and the changing times have clouded many titles. So don't buy real estate without knowing something about the title and always insist on a dependable abstract.
