GERMANS FLEEING INTO LATVIA

WORK ROOMS TO OPEN 3 DAYS WEEKLY

Due to the fact that the current surgical dressings quota is far from complete, and the government call urgent, Cisco Red Cross workers have decided to open the work rooms in the Reynolds building three afternoons per week—Wednesday, Thursday and Friday—until the quota is finished. Hours are from 1 until 5 o'clock and trained workers are especially urged to give as much time as possible.

Fifty women participated in the work Wednesday afternoon, as follows: Mesdames A. D. Anderson, L. A. Harrison, J. A. Jensen, Jack Anderson, W. J. Poe, T. O. Thomas, Roy Camfield, Bob Latimer, O. G. Lawson, W. W. Moore, F. E. Shockley, F. O. Borman, James Haynie, L. S. Jenkins, H. E. McGowan, W. P. Gunn, Don McEachern, E. J. Poe, J. M. Latimer, Homer Sticker, A. E. Jamison, G. R. Nance, C. A. DONALD NEL- SON WIRES CISCOANS

A lengthy telegram was received by the Daily Press this morning from Donald M. Nelson, Washington, D. C., chairman of the war production board, which emphasized the importance of a real effort on the part of Ciscoans in the salvage of waste paper.

Cisco, for some reason, has not been very active in the salvage of waste paper for many months.

The Cisco Lumber & Supply company will buy all the paper that is delivered at its place of business if securely tied in bundles of 100 pounds, ready for shipment. The price paid for paper is 30 cents per 100 pounds; magazines, 40 cents per hundred; cardboard, 50 cents.

However, the profit angle should not enter into the collection of waste paper. The war department needs it to carry on the fight against the Axis and that should be sufficient reason for an all-out, continuous effort on the part of Cisco and Eastland county to keep this salvage moving.

Nelson's Telegram.

"Six months ago when the shortage of waste paper imperiled vital war production I appealed to the American press to launch the U. S. Victory Waste Paper Campaign. The newspapers have given generously of their leadership and valuable space, with the result that waste paper receipts have been increased by nearly 100,000 tons a month. This is fresh evidence of the power of a free and patriotic press.

"Since the inception of the U. S. Victory Waste Paper Campaign, under the chairmanship of Edwin S. Friendly, I have been in constant touch with this gratifying program. Good as the record has been, however, I call today on the newspapers and their readers for still greater efforts in the salvaging of waste paper.

"Right now many mills with important war contracts have almost exhausted their supply of this vital raw material and some have been forced to shut down temporarily.

"The situation is critical, but fortunately can be remedied quickly by greater public cooperation.

"A survey recently made public by the department of commerce indicates 62 percent of all salvable waste paper in the United States is available from industry and 38 percent from homes and farms.

"In your city approximately 5.7 pounds of household waste paper per person are available each month, in addition to 5.2 pounds per person on surrounding farms.

"These figures provide for the first time monthly quotas for your area and should prove helpful in stimulating household collection.

"Despite the excellent cooperation of the public and the 17,000 salvage committees, collections have averaged about 588,000 tons a month in 1944, or 709,000 tons short of our monthly goal.

"Receipts in May were 622,000 tons, or 45,000 tons below our quota and for June we are receiving only 84 percent. Obviously, continuation of this dangerous situation will not only jeopardize war production, but cause further curtailment of the diminished allotment of civilian paper.

"A new study made through the courtesy of the Gallup newspaper sponsorship reveals only 63 percent of our families are saving

ESKRIDGE VISITS SON AT WARM SPRINGS HOSPITAL

Charles S. Eskridge, left, chairman of a Foundation concert series which aims at raising one million dollars in behalf of the care of Texas' crippled children, has a personal interest in the welfare and treatment of the patients at the Gonzales Warm Springs Hospital. One of them is his own son. The youngster is shown here with his parents, Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent, looks on. In the background, Governor Coke Stevenson talks with another patient.

NICE RAINFALL SOUTH OF CITY WEDNESDAY PM.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brawley, who operate the W. D. Brecheen farm 15 miles south of Cisco, in the Curtis community, this morning reported a fine rainfall at their place, as well as in the Nimrod, Sabanno and Cook community areas.

The downpour started at about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, continued until after 6 o'clock and caused all the branches to run freely, Mrs. Brawley said.

WATERS, OVER- SEAS AIRMAN, VISITS ROTARY

Two men were introduced by Rotarian J. E. Proctor today as speakers at Rotary luncheon, one telling of his training, even though he was not to go across, and the other telling of his experiences as a pilot in England. They were J. M. Hazlewood, naval cadet home from Iowa, who had a hard time getting into naval training, only to be sent home because they have more than they need and the other, Lt. James Waters, who said he hoped to recross the ocean and finish the job. Waters is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Waters and Hazlewood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hazlewood.

Other guests were Jack Frost of Eastland, A. J. Polhill, Jr., of Dallas, and Mrs. Edward Lee of Cisco.

At the business session R. N. Cluck was elected a director to fill the place made vacant by Burt Williams.

Hazlewood said since he had not gone across to active service, he could only speak of his training, which he did in an interesting manner.

Lieutenant Waters said he was glad to be back in Cisco and recalled that Mrs. Edward Lee had taught him to read in the ward schools. While he could not tell details that might be regarded as military secrets, he did in a general way give some idea of how bombing fleets began and ended their missions. He praised the efficiency of the intelligence department which kept all necessary information at their finger tips to aid bombing expeditions.

He told of many fights and results and how wounded were speeded to first aid in the shortest possible time.

KING'S PLANE LOST ON HIS 47TH MISSION

Lt. Walter S. King, 22, son of Mrs. J. G. Stuteville of the Dan Horn community, who has been overseas more than a year and is now serving as a bomber pilot in the New Guinea area, lost his plane recently, but he and the crew of four escaped injury, he stated in a letter to his mother.

The lieutenant was on his 47th combat mission when the plane was lost, but details of the trip were not given, except that the crew landed safely. The flier did say, however, that his two-year-old son's first shoes—which he always carries with him—is still in his possession. The wife and child reside in San Antonio.

45,000 TRAPPED AND DOOMED JAPS ARE FIGHTING DESPER- ATELY IN NEW GUINEA JUNGLE

MOSCOW, July 13.—The Germans were reported fleeing in disorder into Latvia along a 93-mile front today under a mighty new Soviet offensive designed to complete the liberation of the Baltic States.

The new assault put five Red Armies on the march westward along a 450-mile front toward the Baltic Sea and Germany in the greatest co-ordinated offensive of the war, confronting the Nazi command with the necessity of sacrificing huge chunks of territory in order to concentrate their dwindling strength for the defense of East Prussia and the Polish plains.

One Soviet column south of the new Latvian front drove to within 36 miles of the disputed 1939 border of East Prussia and 73 miles of its pre-war border, while others stormed the Pripet Marshes stronghold of Pinsk and advanced to within approximately 26 miles of the fortresses Grodno and Daugavpils (Dvinsk), the latter in southeastern Latvia.

(Reliable diplomatic reports reaching Madrid by way of Vichy said Adolf Hitler had convened a supreme war council, at which it was decided to withdraw forces from certain occupied countries, believedly the Balkans and Norway, to bolster Germany's shrinking strategic reserves for anticipated decisive battles in the west, south and east.)

Front dispatches said that Gen. Andrei I. Yeremenko, a hero of Stalingrad and former commander of the independent maritime army which aided in the liberation of the Crimea, had "completely routed" the enemy in his new offensive on the Latvian front two days ago.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC.—A doomed force of 45,000 starving Japanese, trapped in the jungles of British New Guinea, attacked the outlying American positions east of Aitape today in a desperate attempt to break through the strong Allied encirclement.

Facing slow starvation or capture in a 110-mile stretch of the northern New Guinea coast, the isolated units of the 18th Japanese Army were attempting to push westward in an apparently hopeless bid for freedom.

Although details of the early fighting were lacking, it was understood the Japanese were carrying out continuous attacks and they were expected to grow in intensity.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF.—American shock troops closed in on St. Lo today under cover of a thunderous artillery barrage and unofficial reports said vanguard patrols had slashed through to the outskirts of the bitterly-defended hilltop citadel.

A front dispatch from Correspondent James McGlinchey said the Americans resumed their advance on St. Lo, a seven-way highway junction athwart the invasion route to central Normandy, from newly-captured positions only a mile and a half away.

3 EASTLAND GIRLS HURT IN CAR WRECK

Three Eastland girls were seriously injured in an auto accident and three Eastland young men were slightly injured in the same accident, said the Ranger Times of yesterday, which carried the following account of the affair:

"According to reports the group composed of Misses Jeanne Crossley, Rosa Anne Richter and Beth Rhineman and Charles Besko, Nick Brogdon and Eugene Stiffler, were enroute to Breckenridge Saturday night to some kind of entertainment when the collision occurred. All were taken to a Breckenridge hospital for treatment, the boys being later released and the girls being removed to other hospitals, Miss Richter to the Baylor Hospital in Dallas and Misses Crossley and Rhineman to the Payne Hospital in Eastland.

"Miss Richter received an injured back, a broken pelvis, fractured ribs and both bones of the leg broken below the knee. It was stated Wednesday that she had been given several blood transfusions since entering the Dallas hospital.

"Miss Crossley sustained a broken pelvis, two fractured ribs and numerous cuts and bruises and Miss Rhineman also received a broken pelvis and numerous cuts and bruises. Eugene Stiffler received some fractured ribs but was able to be released from the hospital.

"The three young ladies and Nick Brogdon were all May graduates of Eastland high school."

THIS IS CHERBOURG—Streets deserted except for litter of battle and dead Germans was what the American armies entering Cherbourg found. Here, group of Yanks looks at wounded Nazi lying in street awaiting medical attention. Equipment looks as if it were spilled from shelled truck.

waste paper regularly and only 67 percent are convinced of the need of waste paper.

"This is astonishing. Waste paper is the nation's number one critical war material and so essential that the army is now preparing to salvage what little they can in the North African and South Pacific combat zones.

"Therefore I appeal to every man, woman and child in Cisco and Eastland county to redouble their efforts in the U. S. Victory Waste Paper Campaign, in cooperation with your newspaper."

DONALD M. NELSON,
Chairman War Production Board.

ASKS RECORD VOTE.

AUSTIN, July 13.—Gov. Coke Stevenson has issued an appeal to all qualified Texans to vote in the primary election of July 22, which is only a week from Saturday, to insure the selection of good public officials and to be in a position to criticize if the results are unsatisfactory. "If a voter fails to vote he or she certainly can't kick if things go wrong," commented the governor, who expressed the hope that Texas would turn out a record vote in the coming primary.

Fighting men know that without support from these men invasion landing operations would be almost impossible to fulfill.

BARNES, a graduate of A. and M. school of Veterinary medicine and recently discharged from the army, together with Mrs. Barnes, are new residents of Cisco and are living at 707 west Second street. Dr. Barnes is 22 years of age and was reared on a dairy farm near Rising Star. They are members of First Baptist church and chose Cisco for their permanent home after careful survey of a number of other west Texas cities.

THESE RISING TAXES.

It is annoying to have to pay so many taxes, big and little, all the time. The five-dollar automobile tax has been recently one of the outstanding plagues. People have a tendency either to forget it, or to begrudge it because it seems an unnecessary nuisance.

But it doesn't do any good. Or, at least, not much. People might as well understand, and reconcile themselves to the fact, that this nation has entered a period of rising and spreading taxation, visible and invisible, which makes trivial, in comparison, the famous taxes that once started a revolutionary war in this country.

The only legitimate kicking from the contributors is based on these two principles: First, that the abnormal taxes shall be imposed as fairly as possible; and second, that the procedure of collecting them shall make as little trouble as possible for the victims.

WAR PROGRESS.

Experts are pointing out that the Germans have now lost the initiative on three war fronts—in Russia, France and Italy—as a result of the superior power and military skill of the Allied Nations.

Then the initiative, as you might say, will give way to the referendum, with all the power of the forces of righteousness behind it.

MILITARY SURPLUS.

A business advisory committee has recommended that surplus American war supplies left overseas when the war ends be sold within two years through a government merchandising corporation.

There has been some fear that the surplus supplies might interfere with normal export trade after the war. But the committee thinks the devastation is so great that there should be little difficulty disposing of our left-over industrial equipment without serious effect.

Good prices ought to be obtained, adds the committee. Where prices offered appear poor, it might be a good idea to make the sale of surplus property conditional upon purchase from this country of other new equipment.

It is necessary to build up surpluses in order to be sure there will be no lack on fighting fronts, but their disposal always offers ticklish problems.

THANKS, CAR OWNERS
For Helping Us With a Big Job

Our Service Shop has been a busy place this past year. Many car owners depended on us to help keep their cars rolling, and with their help we've done the job.

Ford Protective Service has been adopted by most of our customers. They bring their cars to our shop regularly for expert inspection and maintenance work, preventing small repair jobs from becoming major overhauls.

COUNTY TREASURER

TO THE VOTERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY:

When my husband, Garland Branton, was killed by the horrible gasoline fire near scenic Point in November, 1942, I was left with no means for the support of myself and our three children, neither had I ever had any experience at earning a living. I was helpless to do anything towards feeding and clothing my family and the future seemed hopeless when the Commissioners' Court of our County, out of the kindness of their hearts and faith in my ability to perform my duties as such, appointed me to fill out the unexpired term of my husband, who had been elected by you as County Treasurer of this County. I shall never forget and shall always be thankful for what these good men did for me and my children. Two years ago, the term for which my husband had been elected having expired, for my first time I became a candidate for this office, and by your vote I was elected for two years as your County Treasurer. I am now holding my first term of office to which I have been elected and I am grateful for the favor you have thus shown me. I feel my training so far in this office renders me fit to perform its duties well. It is the Democratic custom to elect a candidate running for a second term, especially when the term is but for two years.

I do not own or use a car. The salary I have been receiving has been my only means of support and for lack of funds I shall not be able to see each of you in person as I would like to do, so am using this method of telling you that I shall appreciate it very much if you will vote for me to serve for another two years as your County Treasurer.

Respectfully, RUTH BRANTON
