U. S. MARINES LAND ON GUAM

CISCOAN WAS ON THE JOB AT SAIPAN

Sgt. Gilbert P. Bailey of Delphi, Ind., Marine corps combat correspondent, writes interestingly from Saipan, Marianas Islands, concerning a Cisco boy. The article was forwarded to the Daily Press by the U. S. Marine Corps public relations section, Atlanta, Ga., and is as follows:

"Quick trigger work by Marine Platoon Sergeant Thomas Morrison of Cisco, Tex., saved the life of a comrade during a patrol skirmish here while American forces were still battling for this former Jap stronghold.

"It was during one of many first encounters with small Japanese groups who had hidden away in caves to ambush Marine units.

"Twenty-three year old Morrison led a party of men assigned to hunt down snipers. On their way several Japs with hand grenades and rifles staged a surprise attack from concealed positions. When a Marine was wounded trading shots with the enemy, a Jap saw him go down and drew a lead on him, but Morrison shot the enemy before he could pull the trigger.

"Platoon Sergeant Morrison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morrison, of Cisco."

RHONE FUNERAL TODAY.

A J. Rhone, 99, who died at the home of a daughter in Denton Wednesday night, was laid to rest in the cemetery at Rising Star this afternoon, following services at the Church of Christ in that city. Officiating ministers were Rev. Mr. Burke of Rising Star and Rev. J. R. Wright of Cisco. Pallbearers were W. E. Tyler, Carl Martin, Hugh Childress, E. H. Ramsey, E. F. Agnew and Cecil Shultz. Deceased settled in Rising Star some 46 years ago and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances there and throughout the country.

An Answer to 11th Hour Propaganda.

"Nig" Taylor of Cisco, Texas, active supporter of Mr. Burkett, has had 2,000 circulars printed under the name of J. C. Weber, 508 Strawn Road, a truck driver discharged by me three years ago for inefficiency. Purpose of the circular is to prejudice the voters against me because during the past 25 years I have acquired and am producing a few stripper wells.

This circular is a sample of a certain type of politics considered by most people as unfair, because of its "eleventh hour" appearance and because it purports to give less than one-half of the truth. It shows only a gross oil production and does not reflect the amount of royalties, wages, salaries, Social Security, Old Age Benefit and other Taxes paid from the same. It is most probable that if it had not been for the result of my earnings as an attorney, and from the income of these properties, that a number of the wells would have been plugged, the landowners would have lost their royalties and the State and School System the money derived from them.

I do not believe that the laborers, landowners and business men in this district will condemn a man who has a wife and six children for accumulating sufficient property to provide for them, but that they will condemn Mr. Burkett's going to a discharged employee for a signature and then going to "Nig" Taylor to get circulars of this type issued.

I have lived in this district for 25 years, have raised a family, and I believe that I can render a valuable service at this particular time. Yours very truly,
L. R. PEARSON,
Candidate for Representative 107th District.

$725,000 BOND QUOTA IN BAG

Judge Cyrus Frost, Eastland county Fifth War Loan Bond chairman, told the Daily Press this morning that the county's bond quota of $725,000 is in the bag—Series E bonds and all—and that while he was unable to give the exact figures, he was certain that by Saturday night we would be nicely over the top, as has been the case in each and every bond drive since the first call.

In this connection the county chairman suggests that since there will almost certainly be another call from the government for August, it will be good judgment for Eastland countians to suspend the buying of Fifth War Loan Bonds as of Saturday, July 22, in order that they may be ready to put the August call over with a bang.

According to Judge Frost's estimate, each and every town and community in the county has oversubscribed its assigned quota.

TEXANS TO VOTE TOMORROW

Tomorrow is the date of the first Democratic primary in Texas, and in Eastland county voters will express their political preference at 27 voting boxes.

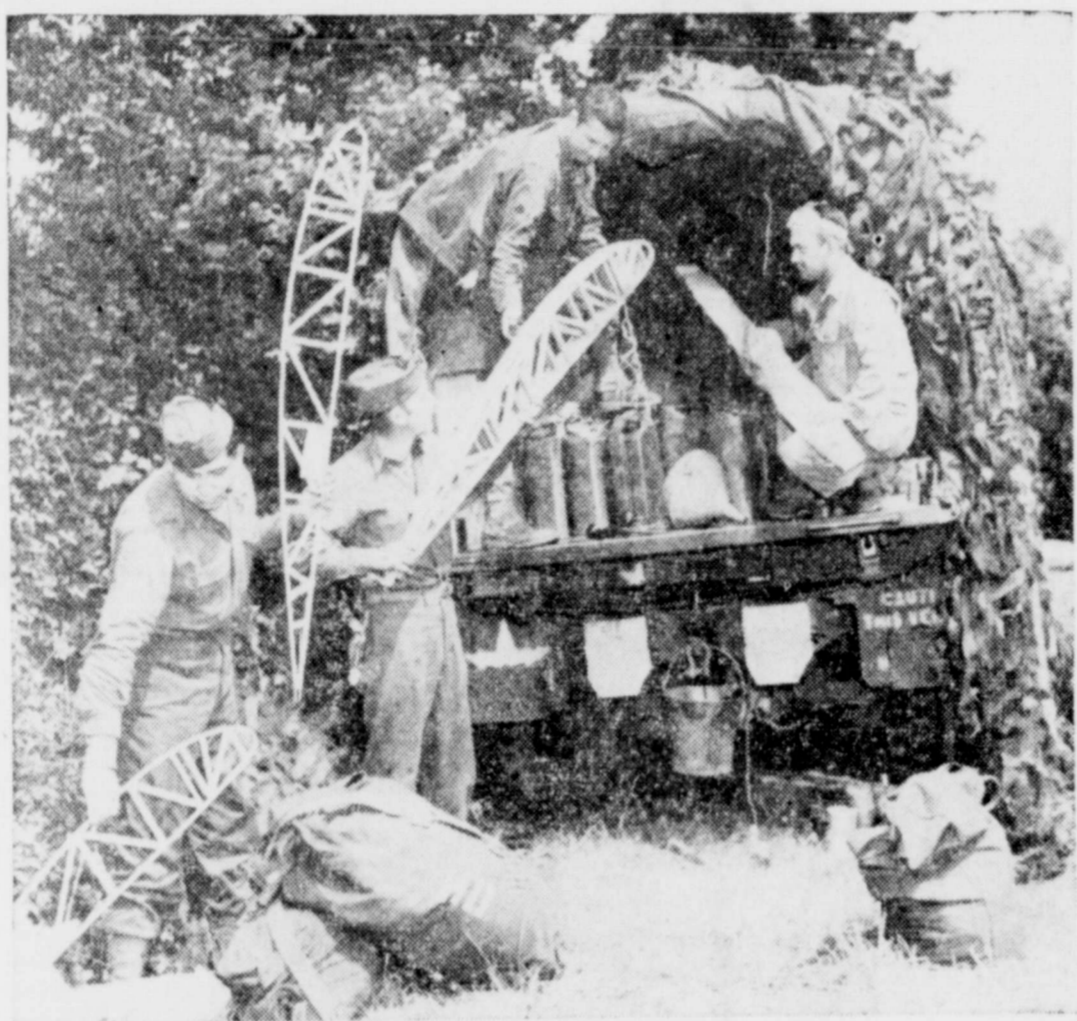

There is a host of candidates in this county and over the state, hence those under 60 years of age, who must hold a poll tax receipt in order to cast a ballot, will undoubtedly be able to get their money's worth.

There are two voting boxes in Cisco—city hall and W. R. Huestis filling station—and polls open at 8 o'clock and close at 7 p. m. Fred Grist will serve as judge at city hall and will be assisted by Virgil Heyser, James Flournoy, Mrs. Ted Bacon, Mrs. L. A. Harrison, Mrs. B. S. Huey, Earl Mayhew, Mrs. Lavada Simpson, Tom Stark and probably others.

W. R. Huestis will head the election officers at the Huestis filling station and aiding him will be W. W. Wallace, Mr. Gilmore, Kent Word, Mrs. W. R. Huestis, Mrs. Coyle, Mrs. Lancaster, I. A. Brunkenhofer.

FD ON FIRST BALLOT.

CHICAGO, July 21.—As was expected, President Franklin D. Roosevelt was nominated for a fourth term last night by Democrats at the national convention held here. The president received his fourth-term honor on the first ballot, with a total of 1,086 votes. Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, outspoken anti-New Dealer, received 89 votes and James A. Farley, who successfully engineered two elections for Mr. Roosevelt, but reneged at a third term, was given one vote by the New York delegation. Mr. Roosevelt's radio speech of acceptance came about an hour later, the president speaking from some undisclosed point on the Pacific coast.

KEEPING 'EM FLYING—Carrying its own maintenance truck with it, this air command post in Normandy has spare parts available for repairs on Grasshopper planes. GIs load parts on to truck.

DOUBLECROSS—The Red Cross on this truck is not a symbol of mercy but of Nazi cunning. Illegally, it was painted on truck equipped not to handle wounded, but lathes and tools for machinery and small arms repair. Truck was found in German hospital yard in Cherbourg.

HELPING HAND—With three Allied flags, the Union Jack, Stars and Stripes and French Tricolor, flying in the background, RAF traffic control policeman Cpl. Syd Hichins directs vehicles at road junction in Creully, France, with help of French villager.

WALLACE, TRUMAN ARE JOCKEYING

CHICAGO CONVENTION HALL, July 21.—At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon nominations were still being made for vice president, one of the latest nominees being Governor Kerr of Oklahoma, who made the keynote speech preceding the nomination of President Roosevelt, last night.

With introduction of Kerr's name, the number already nominated for second place had reached 12.

Since the sole idea now seems to be to delay action, that Wallace and Truman may have further time for political jockeying and fence-fixing, it will probably be late tonight before balloting begins.

As it now stands, the fight is undoubtedly between Wallace and Truman and both are confident of success. However, should balloting be prolonged, a dark horse may wind up as the president's running mate in his fourth-term classic.

The delegation of regular Democrats from Texas, who walked out when the "rump" or pro-Roosevelt Democrats were seated, are still here and are thoroughly enjoying the fun.

DEMOCRATS OF SOUTH PLAN SECOND TICKET

CHICAGO, July 21.—This one-man Democratic National Convention has given enthusiastic new life to the Southern revolt, which now can conceivably result in defeat of President Roosevelt in November.

It has refused the demands of Texas' regular Democrats. As a result the Democratic presidential electors of Texas are instructed to vote against the president in the electoral college.

If the election is close enough, Texas' 23 electoral votes—to say nothing of the possibility of nearly as many more from other Southern states—may hold the balance of power and throw the election into the House of Representatives.

Looking toward that end, Southern Democrats who detest the fourth term were to begin laying their plans here today.

Their nucleus is the Texas group which was so incensed at the convention's decision to seat their pro-Roosevelt opponents that they walked out of the stadium in disgust.

Around this group, now prepared to go home and fight throughout the state against the re-election of the New Deal, an all-Southern convention will be called within a few weeks, perhaps at Shreveport, La.

That convention will nominate its own presidential ticket, headed perhaps by Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia.

The large majority of the Texas "free" electors, if elected in November, will cast their votes for the Byrd ticket.

This, at least, is the plan, which anti-fourth-term Democrats—among them E. B. Germany of Dallas and former Governor Mike Connor of Mississippi—were scheduled to discuss today.

LARGE FORCE, INCLUDING INFANTRY, SEIZED BEACHHEADS AFTER 17 DAYS' BOMBARDMENT

PEARL HARBOR, July 21.—U. S. assault troops, expanding their foothold in the enemy's inner defense zone preparatory to striking at Japan itself, landed on Guam early today and seized beachheads on the first American island to fall to the Japanese in the Pacific war.

Army and Marine forces still were pouring ashore today under cover of a mighty sea and air bombardment and against only "moderate ground opposition," Admiral Chester W. Nimitz's early-morning announcement revealed.

The invasion of Guam, a pre-war U. S. naval station 1579 miles southeast of Tokyo, followed by only 12 days the final conquest of Saipan, 130 miles to the north, at the heaviest cost in any single operation in the Pacific war—15,053 killed wounded and missing.

The invasion came while Japan was in the midst of its gravest political crisis of the war. Only yesterday, Tokyo announced the fall of the war-lord cabinet of Premier Gen. Hideki Tojo as an aftermath of the conquest of Saipan with naval base and airfields 1439 miles below Tokyo.

Hundreds of carrier-based planes and the big guns of battleships, cruisers and destroyers from the powerful 5th Fleet paved the way for the landing with an almost non-stop bombardment lasting 17 days—the most intensive ever mounted for any amphibious operation in the Pacific war.

The terrific barrage of bombs and shells reached its peak as tiny assault boats, amphibious tanks and tractors and other landing craft put out from transports and moved toward the flame-bathed shore in the early-morning darkness.

All the landings were effected as planned, a spokesman announced, indicating that nowhere were the Americans kept off the beaches where they wished to move ashore. The size and scope of forces involved was described as comparable to those who landed on Saipan—presumably three divisions or about 45,000 men.

No official estimate of the size of the Japanese garrison was available, but it was assumed that the enemy had made an attempt to improve his defenses in the past few days.

Amphibious operations against Guam are being directed by Rear Admiral Richard L. Connolly, USN. Expeditionary troops are commanded by Maj. Gen. Ray S. Geiger, Marines, commanding general of the 3rd Amphibious Corps.

Guam, southernmost and largest of the Mariana Islands, fell to the Japanese after only minor resistance Dec. 11, 1941, four days after Pearl Harbor. The Japanese claimed to have captured 300 prisoners.

The island is 30 miles long, four miles wide at its northern end and 8½ miles wide in the south. The southern two-thirds of the island are rugged with hills rising to 1000 feet, while the northern third comprises a dry plateau 300 to 600 feet high.

MOSCOW.—Soviet front dispatches said today that Russian mobile forces were closing against Lwow from three directions for the final assault on the Polish fortress city and, far to the north, were approaching the frontier of East Prussia.

Marshal Ivan S. Konev's armored columns swept in over the north, east and south approaches of Lwow, already battered by a Soviet cannonade and by-passed on the north, and military quarters were confident of the early liberation of the biggest German base in lower Poland.

At the same time Russian Cossacks massed in the forests along the west bank of the Bug River north of Lowry for a speedy sweep across the Polish plans toward the Vistula and Germany beyond.

On the Baltic front, Gen. Ivan D. Cherniakhovsky's Third Army of White Russia was fighting for the junctions controlling the roads to East Prussia and extending its gains west of the Niemen River in lower Lithuania.

Soviet confidence in quick victory at Lwow was reflected in the disclosure that Russian civilian service personnel—party secretaries, teachers, doctors, druggists, architects and bank clerks—were moving in with the Red army to install a new administration immediately.

One mobile printshop already was publishing the first editions of a Lwow newspaper, "Free Ukraine."

CISCO'S 11TH RED CROSS WORK QUOTA

Thirty-four patriotic women completed 1,429 surgical dressings at the local Red Cross work rooms Thursday, a very nice accomplishment for one afternoon.

Mrs. W. W. Wallace stated this morning that the work rooms would be open Monday and Tuesday afternoons of next week and also Wednesday afternoon if necessary. However, it is probable that the present quota can be finished Tuesday, if a sufficient number of trained workers respond.

It is interesting to know that the present quota will be the eleventh assignment to be completed by the Cisco chapter in something less than two years. Those present yesterday were Mesdames Bob Latimer, L. A. Harrison, W. J. Poe, J. E. Burnam, Jack Anderson, J. A. Jensen, Harold McGowan, Don McEachern, W. W. Moore, G. R. Nance, W. W. Wallace, C. B. Shaw, O. G. Lawson, L. S. Jenkins, W. P. Guinn, J. E. Caffrey, T. O. Thomas, J. T. Anderson, O. J. Russell, A. E. Jamison, W. L. Lancaster, A. D. Anderson, Homer Slicker, F. J. Borman, C. A. Williams, Willie B. Dunn, E. J. Poe, Algie Skiles, J. W. Slaughter, Roy Camfield, Harriet Evans, Cisco; Mesdames F. S. Boland, J. H. Shrader and L. L. Gattis, Scranton.

SALUTATIONS ALWAYS CORRECT.

Almost the first thing the army rookie learns, is saluting. A good many resent it, using the good old American argument that they are as good as the next man. Saluting to them is a confession of inferiority. In this, of course, they are wrong. It is necessary recognition, and required of higher-ups exactly as of lower-downs.

But evidently saluting bores some higher-ups, too. Word recently leaked out that Gen. Carl Spaatz, who has charge of the bombing of Germany, ordered saluting discontinued in the hallways of his headquarters. This was a typical airman's order; airmen, it seems, want to be less formal than men in other branches of the service. But when Gen. Eisenhower heard of the Spaatz order, he overruled it abruptly.

Gen. Eisenhower evidently believes that there can be no let-down in military efficiency even in as minor a matter as saluting. And, as usual, Gen. Eisenhower was eminently correct.

VANISHED MAGIC.

The genius of Berchtesgaden, in a recent pen talk to his people, admitted that Germany had "temporarily" lost the initiative in the war, but would soon catch up again. He may have thought so, for satani Adolf in the past has often accomplished a miracle in the way of pulling himself and his people out of a bad hole at the expense of other people. But the world in general, apparently including many millions of Germans, is pretty well convinced by this time that he has lost not only the initiative but the referendum.

And what a referendum it may prove to be, when the civilized world, and even the German people themselves, perhaps, pull this super maniac from his pedestal and proceed to inflict the punishment that he and his evil crew deserve! And if they know what's good for them they will not wait much longer.

Adolf still pretends to have "unswerving faith," and asks his followers: "Is it conceivable that a leadership like ours, which for four years has had the good fortune to count only successes, could suddenly lose heart?"

Indeed it is! Every statement the great killer has made lately shows that his murderous magic is gone and he is quaking in his boots.

SLIGHTLY EXTRAVAGANT.
 (From Ranger Daily Times of July 18)
 Mr. Omar Burkett, candidate for a 4th term to the legislature, is distributing a circular throughout the District, which, among other things, contains this remarkable statement:
 "I have sponsored and was co-author of the following * * * Reduction of our State Tax rate 30 cents on the $100 valuation."
 This claim, to put it mildly, is slightly extravagant. As a matter of fact the legislature has no authority whatever to raise or lower the state tax rate. The state tax rate is set, not by the legislature, but by the State Tax Board, composed of the governor, comptroller and state treasurer. The State Tax Board has had exclusive jurisdiction over the matter of setting the State Tax Rate since the creation of the board over thirty years ago.
 In the same written statement, Mr. Burkett claims he was "co-author" of a number of other bills passed by the Legislature. The "House Journal" is the official report of the proceedings of the House of Representatives and shows authors of all bills introduced in the House. We have checked a copy of the House Journal, a copy of which is available in the county judge's office, and we fail to find Mr. Burkett's name listed as "co-author" of any of the bills mentioned in the circular.
 The circular also proclaims in large type, "I AM NOT A LAWYER." This editor, too, is not a lawyer, but we, and a host of other laymen, know that the State Tax Board and not the legislature, has exclusive jurisdiction when it comes to setting the State Tax Rate. Also, this editor and a host of other laymen know that the "co-author" racket has been overworked by members of the legislature who want to perpetuate themselves on the payroll.

OMAR BURKETT

Asks for Re-election Based on His Record.

Dear Friends of Cisco and District 107:

I ask that you consider what I have done for Cisco and surrounding communities when you go to cast your vote next Saturday, July 22.

I have given you something as your Representative and that "something" is concrete evidence at hand, a few of which I list below and which are well known to all the citizenship:

Co-author and sponsor of the law establishing the Cisco Junior College with funds provided for the past two bienniums, making it possible for us to have a first class college in Cisco; legislation favorable to the needy aged, blind and dependent children, aid for our rural and high schools, teacher retirement fund, reduction of the state tax rate thirty cents on the $100 valuation—a great benefit to every taxpayer in the county and especially to the business man; increase in the 7,000-pound-load limit which has meant so much to those in the transportation business by truck; ample care of all our county's insane, making it possible for all to be taken care of promptly and without placing anyone of them in jail. Also much other important legislation. My opposition has NEVER attacked my record. Do you know why? Do they approve or disapprove the above?

This election is very important to Cisco and the district, so if you know I have worked for you as you know your representative should, I ask that you give me a vote of confidence approving my service, and for your confidence in returning me as your representative another term, I guarantee to safeguard the interests of all the people as you know I have done in the past.

I have done my part by my home town and the district and I ask your vote of confidence as an indication of your approval.

Sincerely yours,

OMAR BURKETT.

Final Statement
From Sam Russell,
Candidate for Re-
Election to Congress.

On this, the eve of the first primary election to be held Saturday, I desire to express my appreciation for the fine spirit of friendship and co-operation that has been extended to me since I have been your representative in congress. I am also grateful for your understanding of the conditions existing during these trying times.

Most of you know that congress recessed just a few days ago, and that by reason of the many important measures that were coming up daily, I felt it my important duty to stay on the job and help protect the best interests of our country and that you would rather I did that than come home and campaign. As a result of this situation, it has become physically impossible for me to see you and personally campaign with you, although it would have been one of the happiest privileges of my life to visit in the homes of all the people in the district.

It is for this reason that I now come to you in my final word, addressing you as my friends, and asking that you help me in the election next Saturday. Your support in the past has meant much to me. It has been an inspiration, and has encouraged me through the dark days we have had to go through in the nation's capital. Now it will be doubly encouraging for me to go back to Washington and carry on in the interest of the great people of my district, state and nation. It is my desire to do this for you, and it will be doubly encouraging to receive a large vote at your hands next Saturday. I take this method of asking each of you to consider this a personal appeal, and ask you to give me your kind consideration and vote of confidence on Saturday, July 22, for which I shall always be grateful, and shall try to repay you with the best services possible. I am,

Sincerely your friend,
SAM M. RUSSELL
Candidate for re-election to Congress.

LET'S KEEP COOL AND VOTE RIGHT.

Our stores are filled with candidate cards these days. Each wants to be elected. To make our decisions we must do a lot of reading, listening and thinking. We want to elect men and women who can fill the office in the best manner possible, instead of electing some one who needs the office. The person who does not have a job is not always the best choice to manage public affairs.
