DICK BENGE FILLS HIS NICHE IN ARMY

From the army public relations department in the southwest Pacific comes word that First Sgt. Lanton E. (Dick) Bengie is now on duty in that area. Sergeant Bengie has been overseas since May, 1943. Prior to enlistment, Bengie lived at 705 west Twelfth street with his wife, the former Miss Katherine Wagley, also of Cisco.

Continuing the communication unit. The company to which the sergeant is attached is engaged in music activities. These activities include musical entertainment, motion picture shows, stage productions, radio repairing and use and operation of public address systems. The entire brunt of the administrative duties is handled by Bengie. The sergeant's presence in the company is greatly appreciated by the men as his use of the clippers and shears keep the men's hair looking neat and trim. He was a barber in civilian life.

RED CROSS WOMEN MAKE WORK RECORD

By working overtime awhile Friday afternoon, 32 Cisco women completed 1,567 4x8 surgical dressings, a record achievement. In turning in the report of the afternoon's labor, Mrs. A. D. Anderson said the rooms would be open Monday and that it was hoped to complete the present work quota that day, although it might be necessary to work a little later than usual.

Women participating in Friday's labor included Mesdames A. D. Anderson, O. G. Lawson, J. A. Jensen, Roy Camfield, W. D. Hazel, W. J. Poe, J. E. Burnam, Bob Latimer, Jack Anderson, A. E. Jamison, E. J. Poe, W. W. Moore, O. J. Russell, J. J. Tableman, Don McEachern, W. P. Gunn, Ed Caffrey, W. Bogan, Dunn, C. A. Williams, G. R. Nance, Algie Skiles, W. W. Wallace, W. F. Walker, F. E. Shockey, H. A. Bible, H. E. McGowan, F. J. Boraman, W. H. LaRoque, G. B. Langston and Misses Mayme Estes, Willie Frank Walker, and Ella Andrus.

LOCALS OK 'REGULAR' DEMOCRATS

Two precinct conventions were held in Cisco Saturday afternoon, both of which elected delegates to the county Democratic convention to be held at Eastland, Saturday, July 29.

W. R. Huestis presided at the outside meeting, with George P. Fee acting as secretary. Only six people were present and no resolutions were adopted. Delegates to the county convention are Doc Eisenhower, A. V. Clark, Z. M. Taylor, George P. Fee and W. R. Huestis. They will vote as a unit.

At city hall the westside turnout was better, but not as large as expected, approximately 144 men and women attending.

Fred Grist, precinct chairman, called the meeting to order and asked for the election of a permanent chairman and secretary. Mrs. Charles C. Jones was elected chairman and W. W. Fewell, secretary, these two being the only names placed in nomination.

The chair appointed a resolutions committee consisting of W. J. Armstrong, J. J. Callaway and Forrest D. Wright. The committee to choose delegates to the county convention was composed of Oscar Cliett, E. P. Crawford and R. L. Ponsler. The convention then recessed to await the report of the two committees.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.
The following resolutions were later submitted to the convention and were adopted without a dissenting vote:

1. That our delegates to the county convention be instructed to vote as a unit.
  2. That this convention commend and approve the action taken by the Texas Regular Delegation, at the Chicago convention.
  3. That we condemn and disapprove the action of the Chicago convention in seating the "rump" delegation from Texas.
  4. That we disapprove the creation of Race Hatred and Strife for political purposes.
  5. That we disapprove and are alarmed at the undue influence being exerted upon our government at Washington by the C. I. O. leaders and other racketeers.
  6. That we oppose any other electors being selected other than those selected at the Regular Democratic Convention at Austin.
- Westside delegates to the county convention, twenty in number, are as follows: W. J. Armstrong, Karl Armstrong, A. B. O'Flaherty, J. J. Callaway, Chas. C. Jones, Mrs. Fay Jones, George Boyd, Chas. J. Kleiner, John Kleiner, R. L. Ponsler, J. H. Reynolds, Yancey McCrea, James Flournoy, Virgil Heysler, F. D. Wright, W. W. Fewell, L. A. Warren, Fred Grist, W. J. Foxworth, C. R. West.

GETTING SET—People with spare room in their backyards might take a page out of Chicago school teacher Eugene Kane's book. He's building 49-foot bridge deck cruiser in the yard. He is expecting to take a world cruise about 1947.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO METHODIST CAMP AUG. 21

Methodist young people of the Cisco district will cooperate again with those of the Waco district in sponsoring a week's program of study, worship, play and fellowship at Glen Lake Methodist camp grounds near Glenrose, the week of August 21 to 26.

CISCO TOT. VOTE.

When the two Cisco voting boxes closed at 7 o'clock last night, 706 votes had been cast at city hall and 285 on the eastside. Total, 991. Complete tabulation of the Cisco vote was not expected before 11 o'clock, or possibly midnight, because of the long ballot. While it was thought results would be known in some of the county races before midnight, it was certain that reports from numbers of the smaller boxes of the county would not be turned in until Sunday morning.

ALLIES NOT READY FOR NAZI FALL

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Remember: It was two months after the mutiny of German naval officers in 1918 that the armistice was signed. But the following factors might speed up the 1944 time-table: This time the revolt starts with the army; this time Germany is menaced on east front as well as west and south; this time home front is being bombed continuously. On the other hand: the Kaiser had no Gestapo.

Collapse of Hitler government, if it comes suddenly and soon, may find Allies tumbling as badly as they did when Mussolini fell. Detailed plans for surrender and occupation are not ready, Washington bears; would have to be hastily improvised. Collapse of Japanese resistance would be even more disconcerting—but officials don't expect it soon. German collapse entails more serious problems than we met in Italy; some observers think future peace may be won or lost by decisions we make when it comes—and steps we take to prevent preservation of German army nucleus for future war.

Wives of soldiers abroad begin to wonder how long their men will have to serve in army of occupation. They're besieging War Department with queries about whether they can go over to join them. Department isn't ready to talk, says queries are premature. But in 1919 wives were allowed to join their husbands, had expenses paid as they would for change of station in the United States.

Defeat of Henry A. Wallace is a blow at prestige of CIO Political Action Committee, though it will continue in business and support the Roosevelt-Truman ticket. Truman's nomination was partly the result of determination among Democratic leaders to counteract the charge that Sidney Hillman, head of CIO-PAC, was actual dictator in the convention. It was notable that no CIO man made a seconding speech for President Roosevelt's renomination. On the other hand, Daniel J. Tobin, old-line AFL leader, did. He's probable choice — again — to head national committee's labor division. Another AFL man, John J. Kane of Pittsburgh, made a seconding speech for Truman, though the Pennsylvania delegation was heavily pro-Wallace at start.

Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, who's reportedly having a hard time today being renominated to the house, saw all the Washington talk about him for vice-president dwindle to two lone voices — and those didn't come from Texas, but Ohio.

Impartial convention-goers voted Indiana's Sen. Sam Jackson laurels as a presiding officer. He worked closely with the big-city bosses but kept delegates and audience in good humor, even when he choked off a promising Wallace demonstration. Inside story of that choke-off: Early Thursday night national Chairman Hannegan, who managed the Truman campaign, wanted to stay in session all night. When the Wallace demonstration started to sweep everything its way he changed his mind. On the contrary, Sen. Guffey (Democrat, Pennsylvania), had wanted to adjourn so Wallace could pick up some overnight strength. He too changed his mind, decided it was better to go ahead. The two men started for the platform to change their signals. Jackson managed to see Hannegan first, gavelled through a motion to adjourn.

MEANTIME, REDS LAUNCH BATTLE FOR POLAND AND MOVE ON IN THEIR MARCH TO BERLIN

LONDON, July 22. — Swiss dispatches said Saturday that a revolt in Germany has spread to naval units at the Baltic bases of Kiel and Stettin despite the execution of Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt, Marshal Walther von Brauchitsch and hundreds of other officers in a growing Nazi blood purge.

The report that naval units had revolted came from Basel on the Swiss-German frontier and recalled the World War I mutiny at Kiel on Oct. 28, 1918—the spark that set off a revolution and led to Germany's capitulation later. No details of the purported revolt were available, Basel said.

Swiss dispatches also reported clashes between regular army detachments and Nazi storm troopers and Gestapo units as Heinrich Himmler's raiding squads arrested suspects by the thousands in a ruthless effort to wipe out all semblance of opposition to Adolf Hitler.

A London Daily Mail dispatch from Stockholm estimated that 5500 German officers of various ranks, including many from trusted SS divisions, had been arrested, and travelers arriving in Malmo from Berlin said they heard that "many hundreds" of officers had been executed in the greatest purge in German history.

Bern said frontier reports said Von Rundstedt, removed earlier this month as supreme German commander in the west, and Von Brauchitsch, former commander in chief of the German army, were among those put to death.

Despite the run of sensational reports of uprising reaching London, Hitler appeared to be maintaining firm control of German radio stations, news agencies, newspapers and other key points whose occupation would be necessary for any successful revolt.

A self-styled "free German" radio station in Moscow broadcast a statement from German Maj. Gen Hans von Wartenberg asserting that leaders of the "liberation movement" still were alive and in hiding.

Other unconfirmed reports reaching London from European sources said that army units in East Prussia had rebelled and been shot, that heavy fighting was going on in Bavaria and even that Adolf Hitler had been arrested or put under protective custody.

There appeared no doubt, however, that Heinrich Himmler, empowered by Hitler to restore order at all cost, was pressing ahead with his purge of anti-Nazi elements with a fury unparalleled even in the 1934 massacre.

MOSCOW. — A decisive battle for Poland began today as two powerful Soviet armies breached the Germans' "east wall" along a 250-mile stretch of the Bug River to strike menacingly within 84 miles of Warsaw.

Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky's cavalry, tanks and infantry of the 1st White Russian Army spearheaded the drive with wide sweeps around the fortress city of Brest Litovsk.

The northern thrust of Rokossovsky's troops carried to Alexandrowka on the northern banks of the Bug, 35 miles northeast of the Siedlice rail junction, one of the major enemy strongpoints before the Polish capital.

Units of the 1st Army also captured Strawki, 15 miles southeast of Alexandrowka and a similar distance northwest of Brest Litovsk, which was being shelled by Soviet artillery set up nine miles north of the city.

On the southern thrust of the two-pronged drive, Russian infantrymen stormed into Miedna, 15 miles south of Brest Litovsk, leaving only a 30-mile gap open behind the city, and only one railroad escape route westward to Warsaw.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF. — Gen. Bernard Montgomery's offensive down the highway from Caen to Paris bogged down completely in mud and heavy rains today and supreme headquarters announced in its shortest communique of the invasion that "there is nothing to report."

Ground fog and low-lying clouds further immobilized operations and front reports told only of occasional artillery and mortar fire and routine limited patrols. Virtually all planes were grounded.

Desultory clashes were reported at Troarn, seven miles east of Caen, with British vanguards in the outskirts and above 1000 yards north of the town. South of Caen, the British were established firmly in St. Andre-Sur-Orne, four miles down the Orne river.

FILIPINOS STILL FIGHT.

The Filipinos are not taking the Japanese conquest lying down. Word comes of mass sabotage on the part of unemployed sugar workers, impoverished by the loss of trade with the United States. Pedro Abad-Santos, son of an old popular leader, is their head.

Active in the movement are the Aglipayans, or members of the Independent Church of the Philippines, followers of the late Archbishop Gregorio Aglipay, who set up a church of his own on Unitarian lines. Aglipayans are said to number over 2,000,000. They were always at odds with the Falangists, Filipinos who were influenced by Spanish reactionary movements, and who now have mostly made terms with the Japanese.

In 1931 President Hoover called the Aglipayans "the best bulwark of the liberal institutions planted by Americans." They, and the other Filipinos working with them, are now absorbing Japanese attention at just the time when the Japanese would prefer to concentrate their efforts against the United States.

SOAP AND SUDS.

The average American is going to be rather Missouriian about that so-called "soapless soap" announced in Wilmington, Del. Judging from the descriptions, it will do the work that soap is supposed to do, but it doesn't look like soap and doesn't feel like soap, and a factory worker or a school boy will doubtless challenge it, demanding that it be capable of producing suds.

To anybody but a scientist, or an inventor, what is soap without visible and feelable suds? Obviously nothing but a "synthetic detergent," as the producers confess. And who wants to wash with anything like that? The kids, at least, will demand slipperiness and bubbles. And probably Mother will demand a poetical name for it.

AXIS CAKE.

A recipe for a cake to serve the Axis has just been composed by Raymond Fosdick, Jr., a lad of Blanco, Colo.

"Take two cups of Hitler," the recipe runs, "one half cup of Mussolini, and six of Japs. Add a teaspoon of Rising Sun and a tablespoon of Manila. Sift three times through barbed wire. Chop Mussolini into fine pieces, then crack and shell the Japs, add pinch of Rising Sun, and beat till the mixture is thoroughly settled."

The only fault with this recipe is that Mussolini is no longer available. If fat meat is allowable, the cake-maker might substitute Goering.

September, 1932

(Files of Cisco Citizen, R. W. H. Kennon, Editor.)

Spit and Argue club was in session on the shady side of the street the other morning as ye ed passed along. "What do they mean by the power of the press?" asked an old chap whose breeches are rather shaggy on a certain broad part. "They mean that if I were to write and print all I know about you, your wife would leave you and either you or I would leave town," was our reply—and we hope that holds him for a respectable interval.

Will St. John has been commissioned by Roy Miller, of Corpus Christi, state campaign director of the national Democratic forces, as one of the five members of the Democratic workers in the national campaign of the 17th congressional district. Mr. St. John has accepted the commission, and will actively take up his duties to prevent the Hoovercrats from repeating their successful bolt of 1928.

K. N. Greer, manager of the Palace theater, is recovering from a broken leg at the Graham Sanitarium at Humboldt. Penney store, Mr. Greer fell while attempting to pass some boys at play, and either stepped off the curbing, or the incline in vegetables, fruits, etc., will be canned.

O. J. Hamilton, who was appointed cashier in the offices of the West Texas Utilities Co. here after the tragic death of the late Garland Thomas, who was fatally injured when his car crashed against the center support of the underpass at Baird last month, has arrived in Cisco and taken up his duties with the utility company. Mr. Hamilton comes from the Abilene office.

Sutton Crofts and daughter Carolyn Crofts were expected to return Saturday from Blanco where they visited his brother, Franklin Crofts, who is ill in a hospital there. They reported by telephone that his condition is somewhat improved, but a specialist from San Antonio gave the opinion that recovery will be slow, due to the peculiar type of pneumonia, a fungus growth on the lungs. Miss Mabel Hallbert and nephew little Franklin Crofts II, will accompany Sutton Crofts and daughter to Cisco.

AMERICANS ARE PATRIOTIC

Yes, we Americans are a strange people when measured by the standards of peoples of other nations, who do most of their thinking from the standpoint of selfish interests, or to obey the commands of a dictator.

We argue among ourselves and other nations would think that we are at the point of civil war, when as a matter of fact we are only asserting our freedom of speech and thought, in this manner.

The National convention at Chicago will appear to those across the ocean as a sign that we have forgotten our soldiers on foreign battle fields, while as a matter of fact we were only carrying on so that we can keep those soldiers well supplied with all they need, including our moral support.

To make sure that those soldiers have all the food and supplies they need, every member of every family has found a job and all the members of the family are doing some kind of useful work to keep up the production. The victory garden shown in this picture is a sample of our patriotic efforts to do our bit.

Yes, we are a peculiar people by some standards but we get the job done and retain our liberties of speech and action. But we do not fight among ourselves --- not in a physical way.
