NAZI 7TH ARMY DYING IN TRAP

Eastland Co. Is Among Fifth War Loan Topnotchers

The Citizens of Eastland County are sure you are anxious to know the final results of the Fifth War Loan Drive of June and July. The total amount allotted to the Nation was Sixteen Billion Dollars. More than Twenty Billion Dollars were subscribed, which made the Nation as a whole over-subscribe to a quota more than 25 percent.

The overall quota for Texas was Four Hundred Sixty-four Million, which included a Series E quota of One Hundred Twenty-five Million. The overall quota was over-subscribed by 32 percent and the Series E quota by 10 and seven-tenths percent.

Eastland county had an overall quota of $725,000.00 and the overall subscription in Eastland county was $1,219,200 which made an over-subscription of 68 percent. Our Series E quota was $300,000 and we sold $404,537.50, making an over-subscription of 34 percent in Series E. Thus, Eastland county exceeded both the percentage of overall of the Nation as a whole and the state of Texas as a whole.

Coming down to the 254 counties in Texas, only 17 counties exceeded Eastland county on its percentage of Series E sales and only eight exceeded Eastland county on its overall sales.

I know our people are over-joyed to know that Eastland county has again almost assumed first place among the counties of the state and the counties of the nation in discharging war duty. We now have more boys and girls in the armed service in proportion to our population than any other county in the state. They are to be found at every active war front throughout all the lands of the earth, at all necessary points upon the Seven Seas and in the air and above the air in the stratosphere wherever they are asked to go. As these service men and women go forward to their tasks, many times 24 hours of the day, you can be assured they are heartened and strengthened as we fully back them in their attack by doing our full duties upon the home front.

Series E purchases in the county, paid for over the counter at your bank and postoffices, were as follows:

Eastland	$87,381.25
Cisco	72,674.00
Ranger	55,987.50
Rising Star	43,200.00
German	39,075.00
Olden	4,668.75
Carlton	4,556.25
Destinoma	975.00
Total	$308,517.75

This, deducted from the overall sale of $404,537.50, leaves $96,019.75. Of this $96,019.75, $47,300 was allocated to Eastland county, representing purchases made by our boys and girls in the armed service and the balance of $48,719.75 was credited to Eastland county from employer-employee deductions.

By allocating to each town in the county on a percentage basis the $96,019.75, which was allocated to Eastland county on purchases made out of the county, as heretofore stated, then each town and community in Eastland county far exceeds its Series E quota for the Fifth War Loan Drive, quotas with which you are familiar.

Each town and community in the county far exceeded its part of the overall quota, a total of all of such community sales giving us the figure in the beginning of $1,219,200 as against our overall quota of $725,000.

Our quota for the month of August is $49,500 and this is to be subscribed by the purchase of Series E, F & G War Savings Bonds only.

The undersigned, as your regular county chairman and Mrs. Paul M. Woods, as chairman of the women's division, wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the newspapers of Eastland county, the banks, postoffices, service clubs, churches and community chairmen and every individual citizen who aided or co-operated in any way in making possible the successful Fifth War Loan Drive. Of course, you expected your county chairman, the chairman of the women's division, the chairmen of the several city and community committees, officers and helpers of all of your banks and the postmasters and all of their helpers to take the lead in this drive, but the undersigned, speaking in behalf of all of such official leaders, want to assure all the rest of the helping organizations and every individual citizen that you so named are entitled to all the commendation and praise for making the Fifth War Loan such a great success. We who worked officially want all the rest of you to know that we know that our efforts would have been in vain but for the untiring efforts and patriotism on your part.

Again we thank you and say "well done" and we do hope and trust that what you have done will in some way become known to the boys and girls in the armed services everywhere.

Very kindly yours,
CYRUS B. FROST,
County Chairman,
MRS. PAUL WOODS,
Chairman Women's Division.

WOMEN JUST AS GENEROUS AS THEIR MEN

The ladies of First Methodist church, under the sponsorship of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, will have cold watermelons on the church lawn at 8 o'clock this evening, states Mrs. John Shertzer, president of the society.

Besides the melon cutting there will be games and other forms of recreation under the direction of Mrs. R. W. Merket, Mrs. James Moore and Mrs. L. W. Seymour. Miss Ella Andres will lead the group in a period of informal singing of old favorites.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the melons is Mrs. A. R. Westfall, Mrs. S. H. McCannell, Mrs. C. E. Paul and Mrs. Smith Huestis.

In keeping with the hospitality of the men, who last week on a similar occasion generously tendered the women the rinds to make preserves, the women tonight are offering the men the seeds from the melons to plant a crop for next year, according to announcement made to the church congregation by the pastor, Sunday.

The funeral service was conducted at First Methodist church at 6 p. m. Monday, the officiating ministers being Rev. Leslie W. Seymour and Rev. W. H. Cole. Cisco Masonic lodge was in charge of the burial services at Oakwood cemetery, with the remains in charge of Thomas funeral home.

CAMP BARKELEY SOLDIERS PRAISE CISCO

The second anniversary of the activation of the 134th ordnance maintenance battalion, Camp Barkeley, celebrated at Lake Cisco Saturday, was a perfect success according to Lieut. Paul H. Wood, who was in command of the large body of men spending the day at the local resort.

He thanked the Service Men's club, of which Mrs. Philip Pettit is president, for the excellent food served from 6 to 7:30 Saturday afternoon, and added many words of praise for all others who made the occasion such a delightful one to the visiting soldiers and their wives and friends. J. Monroe Sweeney, manager of Lake Cisco swimming pool, was also commended by Lieutenant Wood for his courtesy and help.

Between 800 and 900 were served at dinner and the American Legion, assisted by Cisco Boy Scouts, served approximately 2,500 cold drinks to the visitors during the day and night.

The guests were welcomed to Lake Cisco by Mayor Edward Lee and the response was by Lieutenant Wood.

The concert by the 12th armored division band was enthusiastically received by the large number of Cisco folk present and was voted one of the best ever heard locally.

There was a large turnout and unusually good music by a battalion orchestra at the dance Saturday night in the amusement pavilion. The local committee chaperoning local young women was composed of Mrs. Edgar Mueller, Mrs. Edward Lee, Mrs. R. W. Mancill and Mrs. Bob Carswell. These ladies were impressed with the orderliness of the soldier personnel and expressed the opinion that no finer body of men had ever been entertained in Cisco than the welcome visitors from Camp Barkeley.

4TH FRONT OPENED IN SOUTHERN FRANCE BETWEEN NICE AND MARSEILLE; GERMANS PANICKY

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF, Aug. 15.—Torrents of bombs and shells sealed the narrow corridor open to remnants of the German 7th Army trapped in the Normandy pocket to day and American and Allied armored forces closed in from all sides for a battle of annihilation against perhaps 100,000 doomed Nazis.

A gap of less than 12 miles, extending north from Argentan to north of Falaise, had been open to the cornered enemy late last night, but official reports indicated it was being made all but impassible by murderous Allied land and air bombardment.

Inside the trap, Nazi Field Marshal Gunter von Kluge's Seventh Army, plus elements of the 15th Army, struggled desperately to maintain a battle line against our Allied armies pressing in from the west, north and east with overwhelming power.

Hundreds of dazed German prisoners stumbled through the Allied lines late last night and on through the morning hours today as the Americans, British, Canadians and French drove in for the kill, and the plight of the remaining Nazis appeared hopeless.

United Press reporters, witnessing the death struggle of Von Kluge's army from observation posts on all sides of the pocket, reported that Nazi positions were blanketed by a smoke from burning vehicles and exploding ammunition dumps.

In one sector, they wrote, "there is nothing left but a blackened forest of dead trees and charred bodies and rusted hulks, where elements of one Panzer division came to an inglorious end."

One Allied general said the closing of the trap marked "the greatest infantry victory in centuries," and an accompanying staff officer declared flatly it would be a "miracle" if Von Kluge succeeded in extracting any of his forces.

"This is the end of the Seventh Army," he said.

The Germans were concentrating the bulk of their 12 shattered divisions near the eastern end of the trap, attempting to slip as much of their force as possible through the Falaise-Argentan gap.

ROME.—The Allies opened a "fourth front" against Germany today by storming a 100-mile stretch of the French Mediterranean coast with an invasion armada of 800 ships, thousands of planes and clouds of paratroops.

In the first hours of fighting American, British and French troops seized beachheads "over a considerable part of the coast" between Nice and the great Mediterranean port of Marseille from which they planned to plunge northward up the Rhone Valley toward a juncture with Allied armies advancing against Paris.

First reports from the beachheads said the invasion forces met only a "minimum of resistance." The largest number of airborne troops ever used in an invasion assured the success of the sea-borne landings by seizing high ground overlooking the beaches after dropping from hundreds of planes behind the coastal defenses before dawn.

Hundreds of gliders ferried in additional air-borne troops after waves of paratroops had secured landing areas.

Headquarters said the Allies achieved "tactical surprise" as the Germans had anticipated landings farther south around the mouth of the Rhone.

A Blue Network correspondent broadcast from Rome said most of the assault forces were American.

Ever as the huge armies were swarming ashore, Gen. Charles De Gaulle's French Committee of National Liberation issued a ringing call for a nation-wide uprising of the French people against the German occupation forces.

GET YOUR SUGAR NOW.

The Cisco chamber of commerce asks that all those entitled to canning sugar will please call and secure their permits before September 1, if possible. Sugar may be obtained after that date, but obtaining the permits now will be a favor to those who perform the clerical work required by the government.

LIEUT. SMITH WOUNDED.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith, formerly of Cisco but now of Dallas, where Mr. Smith is connected with the T. and P. railroad, have been notified that their son, Lt. E. L. Smith, with the U. S. infantry in France, has been seriously wounded. The young man is 21 years of age and attended school in Cisco some six or seven years before his parents moved to Dallas.

CISCO BOY DIES.

George W. Fox, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Owens, 909 Harris avenue, Cisco, died Monday morning in a Ranger hospital. Death was occasioned by a throat trouble and complications. The funeral was held at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Mission church, conducted by Rev. Leman Anderson. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery, with Thomas funeral home in charge of the remains. Survivors include the parents and three small brothers. The father is serving with the army in Italy.

KLEINER TO ROCHESTER.

Charles J. Kleiner departed from Cisco airfield this morning for Rochester, Minn., where he will enter Mayo hospital for treatment. Oscar Stutenroth accompanied Mr. Kleiner and the trip of some 1,000 miles was expected to be made in about eight hours. The plane, a late model Stinson Reliance, was furnished by the Aircraft Sales Co. and came here from Mitcham Field, Dallas.

PASCHALL IN FRANCE.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lauderdale have received a letter from First Lieut. J. C. Paschall, 23, who is with the air forces on the Normandy front. The Cisco-born boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Crigler Paschall, now of Beaumont, is with the Ninth air force, which is said to have led the invasion into France on D day. He said he was living in pup tents and fox holes and experiencing real warfare.

THE CITY OF PARIS.

Paris, often called the most beautiful city in the world, the city with flowers in her hair, is fast nearing the end of her four years of captivity. Beauty is about to be rescued from the clutches of the beast, not by a gallant prince on a noble charger, but by plain-talking Joes with tanks. They will liberate the princess all right, but whether the beast will permit them to do so without his harming her first is another story. He has a long record for brutish acts.

If by a miracle Paris should go free, the details that comprise her charm will not be lost on Joe, practical though he is. Like her previous admirers, he will delight in the camaraderie of her sidewalk cafes on the Boulevard St. Michel. He will enjoy her gaiety on the Champs Elysees, and he will be awed by her mysterious beauty at night as he looks down at her from the height of Montmartre. On Sunday he will see her in the garden of the Tuileries and imagine how there used to be concerts there that poured a rippling pleasure on the summer afternoon.

Not until he reaches the Place de la Concorde, however, will he discover the source of the city's charm. Perhaps the most impressive spot of all, the Place de la Concorde is the center of the city—the Place of Peace. The gay princess with flowers in her hair is beautiful because she has a heart of peace.

Joe can understand this, but it is beyond the comprehension of the beast. No matter what the beast does to the city, however, he cannot destroy it utterly. It has a vitality too great. Paris has suffered the wounds and shocks of the wars of nearly two thousand years, yet always arises gayer than ever, smiles and sticks another bright flower in her hair.

FISH ARE PLENTIFUL.

To the American who likes creamed or escalloped salmon on a cold night, or salmon salad with cucumbers and tomato slices and just a smidgeon of onion on a hot one, it is good news that there will be more salmon this year—not so much as before the war, says the War Food Administration, but about 12 percent more than civilians have been getting. More sardines, too.

Fresh and frozen fish are expected to turn up in great supply. It's a good idea to feast on oysters, lobsters and shrimp whenever they are available in the local markets, for there is already a storage problem for them, and some anxiety as to how to store the heavy catches of all fish expected from now until winter.

Some of these foods have long been considered in the party or luxury class in the interior of the country. When someone tells midwesterners to forego beefsteak and have lobster for supper, they feel a little like the French who lacked bread when Marie Antoinette asked why they didn't eat cake. But lobsters are good food and add variety. As for their cost—well, good beefsteak isn't exactly inexpensive, either.

But Cisco folk who relish truly fresh fish occasionally may gratify that desire with comparatively little work or expense by placing a trotline in Lake Cisco or Lake Bernie, both within easy walking distance of the city—if one has not forgotten how to walk a few miles without developing charley horse or a bad case of the grumps. Both bodies of water are alive with channel cat, bass, bream and crappie, and the wonder is that more people do not take advantage of this unusual and fortunate local situation.

TO THEIR RESCUE—Like thousands of French citizens who have lived under Nazi tyranny for four years, this aged couple can scarcely believe that help has come at last. Here they wait in jeep with Pfc. Walter Kominske of Philadelphia for signal to leave snow-banded town.

LEFT BEHIND by Heines in rapid retreat from on-rushing American forces in France, this tractor-jeep is source of interest to Yanks. They give Nazi vehicle the once-over with eye to converting it quickly into apple-pie working order for the benefit of our troops.
