Church to Proclaim Debt-Free Victory Day This Morning

A happy announcement will be made at First Baptist church today by the Board of Deacons when they tell the congregation that the Cisco church has voted to set Sunday, September 3, as Victory Day for the church so far as its bonded indebtedness is concerned, at which time there will be a drive to eliminate the entire debt—more than five years before its final maturity, April 1, 1950.

This is a glorious thought to many of its members who recall the struggle to meet the seemingly insurmountable indebtedness of more than $56,000, due and defaulted upon, because of the early thirties' depression, when church bodies all over America failed to meet their obligations.

The church building is a magnificent one for a city the size of Cisco, with its more than fifty rooms which include Sunday school class rooms and large double-decked auditorium, furnished completely throughout in modern manner. This property, including a 7-room parsonage, has an estimated value of $121,500, with $7,500 allowed as the value of the partially furnished minister's home.

Unlike some of the church bodies of the city, First Baptists did not start building until after the boom days, although Dr. A. E. Baten, pastor at that time, did have plans in the making when he resigned in 1920 on account of failing health.

More planning and talk continued, being more emphatic in 1922-23, when WMU ladies began purchasing brick and having it stacked on the grounds, after the old church burned in the early twenties.

In 1926 the church called Rev. Acker C. Miller as pastor and one of the first things done by the board of deacons in conference with Miller was to organize a financial plan to meet current expenses of the church which had lost enthusiasm on account of having to hold services at city hall or wherever space could be had.

Planning for actual construction then began in earnest. Contracts with varied divisions of the labor and supervision required were made and bonds were sold to cover the cost.

Committees were appointed from among the board of deacons and church workers to handle the various activities. J. E. Spencer, though not a deacon, was chosen finance chairman because of his business experience. The work was completed and the church occupied early in November, 1927.

The church moved along with its obligations until the depression piled financial ruin all over the land. The Baptists found themselves in default in 1933 and shortly thereafter suits were threatened and church officers found themselves piling on their shoulders. Again Spencer was pressed into service as finance chairman and he, with the aid of the law firm of F. D. Wright, assisted the deacons in their work to untangle the web into which they found themselves woven. It appeared a hopeless problem.

Finally, after various payments and concessions on both sides, the church was able to refinance its debt down to $13,666.66, with 10 years to pay. This was accomplished in April 1, 1940, while Asa Skiles, J. E. Spencer and Jewel Poe were trustees of the church property and F. E. Shepard was chairman of the board.

Herewith are the names of the deacons who piloted the work of building the church through to completion in 1927: W. F. Walker, chairman; B. W. Patterson, secretary; C. S. Karkalis, Asa Skiles, Algie Skiles, R. B. Kinsey, R. R. Asbury, D. D. Lewis, R. Q. Lee, A. M. Williams, W. H. LaRoque, S. E. Hittson, E. L. Wisdom, W. I. Ghormley, J. M. Hickey, George McClung, L. A. White, Dr. J. H. Brice.

Deacons retired and not active were J. C. Harris, J. F. Patterson, C. H. Daniel, W. E. McWhorter and J. T. Walker.

CISCO VIOLINISTS AT LAWN SERVICE

Misses Gloria Graham and Ross Ann Woods will give selected violin numbers for the union church service on the lawn of First Methodist church this evening at 8 o'clock. They will be accompanied by Miss Marilyn Shertzer.

Both of these talented violinists are to be in Julliard's School of Music in New York City this fall and winter, Miss Graham having been there last year.

The service this evening and the one next Sunday will be the last of the union meetings for the summer under the sponsorship of the Presbyterian, Christian and Methodist churches.

NOT RIOTERS—Not useless destruction but breaking ground for instruction, co-eds Jean Oakley and Juanita Lofton smash windows on site of new headquarters of National University in New York.

CISCO YOUTH TO GLENROSE FOR VACATION

Another delegation of Cisco youth will go by bus tomorrow morning early to Glenrose to join more than 100 other young people for a week at Glen Lake Methodist camp ground. Rev. Leslie Seymour, local pastor, will be in charge of the camp, assisted by a staff of some 15 adult workers.

The young people will be mostly from the Waco and Cisco districts, this being the fourth year these two districts have sponsored a youth camp at Glenrose. The daily program will consist of worship, study, play, swimming, informal forum discussions, group singing, hiking and fellowship. Miss Ella Andres will teach a course in church music and direct the choir for the worship service. Mrs. A. D. Anderson will be one of the counselors for the girls.

Cisco youth who are going are Betty Sue Armstrong, A. D. Anderson, Jr., Patsy Osborn, Nelda Smith, Lillian Ross Seymour, Wanda Joyner, Mary Jean Flaherty, Betty Fincher, Yvonne Hazlewood, Dick Anderson, Patsy Allen, Juanita Youngblood, Bobbye Tullios, Mary Ellen Winn, Lenora Rendall, Margaret Hailey and Betty Jones.

They will board the bus at 7:25 a. m. in front of the Methodist church and will return next Saturday about noon. Another group of Cisco boys and girls returned yesterday from an intermediate camp at Glenrose.

JR. COLLEGE GRADUATES IN SUCCESS LIST

The 1944-45 session of Cisco Junior College will begin September 11, says R. N. Cluck, president of the institution. The school will open this year with bright prospects, said Mr. Cluck, despite the heavy drainage of young men into the armed services.

The courses offered by the local college cover a wide scope of preparatory training, enabling its graduates to make good in varied pursuits. This fact is shown by an examination of the records of former pupils who are now successfully operating in their chosen professions.

More than 200 young men and women who received their training at Cisco Junior College are now holding good positions here and elsewhere.

Approximately 27 persons receiving their teacher training here are now instructors in the public schools of Texas.

Of the more than 100 young men who took the aviation course at Junior College, more than 70 are now holding commissions in the U. S. military service. They rank from second lieutenant to lieutenant-colonel. In this group of fliers some seven or eight have already won the distinguished flying cross, oak leaf clusters or other special citations for meritorious conduct in battle.

It should also be remembered that credits earned at Cisco Junior College are accepted at full value by all senior colleges and universities in Texas.

Total cost of a year's tuition at Cisco Junior College is but $90, whereas if a student attends college away from home the cost will range from $500 to $700 per year.

GARRETT SAYS PAPER DRIVE READY TO GO

Lions are getting organized for the waste paper drive which makes its first round of gathering on the afternoon of August 25, said Chairman Jay Garrett, Saturday. "All Lions have entered into the activity with their usual earnestness and energy," he said.

"The club needs funds just now for a very special purpose, to say nothing of the patriotic service they will be rendering their country which faces a vital paper shortage," he added.

Continuing, Mr. Garrett said, "We know that the good housewives of Cisco and elsewhere are really getting the hard job, but in every sacrifice since the world began, women have done the greater part and will continue to make the greatest sacrifices for their men as long as time endures. Now, since we are compelled to ask them to tie up their bundles before placing them at their curbs to be gathered by the trucks, we are being just mere men when we do so.

"So we thank the ladies in advance for the cooperation we know they will give freely and ungrudgingly, and hope for many truck loads of paper during the first round."

PROGRAM AT LAKE

First Baptist Brotherhood will have a double-header program Tuesday night when Program Chairman R. N. Cluck will bring a watermelon cutting and special numbers from the Ranger Baptist church. Members will meet at the church at 7:30 and go from there to city park at Lake Cisco, where the exercises will be held. At a round table discussion to follow the program, plans will be discussed, and a schedule of activities made for the Brotherhood. Pastor Cooper Waters collaborated with Mr. Cluck in securing these entertaining features and men of the church are promised an interesting evening.

TRAINING CENTER FOR FFA BOYS; MILK PRODUCTS INDUSTRIES ARE VISIONED

Few of the general public realize the great value of the H. L. Ratliff Dairy Farm to Cisco and Eastland county as a training ground for 4-H club and F. F. A. boys who are being taught the value of high-bred cattle to take the place of common ranching operations in this section of the United States.

Mr. Ratliff, whose home is in Breckenridge, and who has oil and other interests, has a vision of what the highest quality dairy cattle can mean to this section. As his practical plans unfold, he will become a bigger and bigger asset to this area. He began his operations by purchasing the B. Q. Lee diversified farm a few miles east of Cisco. His next most important act was to secure as his manager F. E. Walker, who lives and dreams fine dairy herds. Walker lives with his cattle and uses his universal knowledge of the fine points of judging and caring for his stock, watching them from birth to maturity, so no inferior animal can find permanent lodgment in his herd.

There are 864 acres in this farm, on which Ratliff keeps 165 registered cows and proper number of bulls, whose pedigrees lead to the best foundation stock that can be found. Some of his best cattle come from that great breeder in Canada, Bull & Company, who shows dairy cattle all over the American continent.

Ratliff will exhibit 21 head of his herd at the Abilene fair, Sept. 1-9, where the competition will be quite stiff, and he expects to make a good showing there, because men of A. & M. college and other dairy experts say there is no better herd in the country than that of the Cisco man.

The milk output from 56 of these cows is sold to the army at Camp Berkeley, through Banner Creamery. This amounts to about 175 gallons per day.

Ratliff has two young cows that produce nearly 60 pounds of milk daily, each, and two young heifers who gave 600 pounds of butter fat in a merit test of 305 days. These are "silver medal" heifers and they lacked only three pounds of becoming "gold medal" heifers by producing 562 pounds at an age of one year and seven months.

By producing the highest quality dairy cattle, Mr. Ratliff becomes a great benefactor, but when he uses his plant and cattle for a real training laboratory for 125 boys in 17 counties, he is really an asset of immeasurable value. And that is just what he does.

County Agent Floyd Lynch, who heads the 4-H boys club, and M. D. Fox, heading the F. F. A. organization, take their students to this farm regularly to let them see in person the fine points which they are studying in their class room hours. And then another advantage is that boys do not have to go to great distances to secure prize specimens for their projects. Ratliff breeds from the highest type obtainable and hence can furnish, right at home, plenty of calves which may be seen and observed before the purchase.

Mr. Ratliff and Mr. Walker both think the possibilities of this section of the country as a dairying field are great and it will be up to Cisco and other towns of the county to see that manufactories of milk products are established. A little foresight and initiative will see to it that markets are kept adequate for the increase of milk products that will inevitably result.

From the Ratliff breeding ground and the training being given boys and girls of Eastland and adjoining counties, will come a great milk industry.

We must keep pace with progress by planning these market outlets.

RED CROSS BLOOD BANK SEPT. 4 TO 9

The people of Cisco and of Eastland county will have another opportunity to contribute a pint of blood each to the Red Cross blood plasma bank the week of September 4 to 9, says Rev. Leslie Seymour, local chairman on arrangements.

It followed as on the previous visit of the Red Cross unit to this county. The receiving center will be the First Methodist church of Eastland and various towns and communities will be assigned certain days for sending their donors.

A committee on registration will be announced soon and further details will be given as to who is eligible for blood donations. Mrs. Arthur Johnson of Eastland, county chairman, met with Cisco committee members Saturday night to perfect plans for the coming of the blood unit.

In general the same plan will

WATCH THE PACIFISTS.

As the net slowly closes around Germany, and the time for retribution grows near, a familiar situation develops. It appears clearly in a poll of the National Opinion Research Center and other inquiring groups. They urge lenient treatment of the German people, aside from the Nazi leaders, and talk of a "re-education program" instead of punishment. They seem to assume that the people responsible for the launching of this dreadful war are not "the real Germans," but have themselves been betrayed by unwise or evil leaders.

This is the sort of make-believe that would create a false peace and lead again, in due time, to another and still more dreadful war. Should it not be assumed by all sane men that the individuals and groups responsible for this horror deliberately chose the way of crime, and must be suitably punished for it? And that, while the active leaders of the German onslaught against civilization deserve special punishment, there should be penance also for the millions of Germans and Japanese who have been willing to accept the expected benefits of their leaders' crime? Otherwise criminal groups could wreck the world.

RESPONSIBLE CANADA.

People who still think of Canada as mostly white space on the map, with a little dab of French at the East and a little dab of industry in Ontario, and the rest all wheat ranch or lake-and-forest fishing and hunting grounds, have a surprise in store for them in this quotation from a recent speech of Louis Bléke Duff at a recent Ontario-Quebec convention. Canada is row adult, he says:

"We have grown up. We are the fifth air power in the world, the third sea power in the United Nations, the third world trading nation, the fourth of all the United Nations in the making of war supplies. As a grown-up we have been doing the war job, as a grown-up we will have to assume the responsibilities of the peace job. That day of peace will come, maybe soon, maybe not so soon, but it will come."

Americans of analytic turn of mind who used to go to Canada some twenty years ago found it reminding them strongly of the America they remembered thirty years before that, and of the America their grandparents had told about. Their feeling, up to fifteen years ago, was that Canada was, on the average, fifty years behind the United States in its general development. Since that time it has been growing up fast. The automobile, radio, newspapers and magazines have kept it going hand-in-hand with us. It is good to know that along with its superficial modern development it retains and increases its innate British sense of responsibility to itself, its neighbors and the world.

CURE FOR TYRANNY.

Russia under the czars was the worst governed country in Europe. Whatever the theory, in practice no one had any rights if the czar or the secret police chose to override them. When tyranny got too bad, the offender, be he czar or deputy, was murdered, and then there was usually relief for some time. This led a German diplomat at St. Petersburg to describe the Russian system of government as "absolutism tempered by assassination."

Could there be any better description of Nazism? Except that it will take many assassinations, and not just one, to bring relief. It took a great and bloody revolution, followed by a quarter century of difficult adjustments, to get any satisfactory governmental arrangements in Russia. What will it take to straighten out Germany?

OVERSEA XMAS MAIL MUST START EARLY

Postmaster L. H. McCrea reminds that this year the Christmas mailing period for both army and navy overseas forces is the same—September 15 to October 15. After the latter date, no gift parcel may be mailed to a soldier without the presentation of a written request from him. The above information was sent out some weeks ago by Postmaster General Frank Walker, who also said: "I know that our people will observe the overseas mailing schedule once more this year but I do wish to stress this fact: More care must be taken in wrapping and packing parcels securely and addressing them clearly and correctly."

A New Invasion Of Europe

The new invasion reminds us that though the time until peace may be shortened, yet there is still more fighting --- much fierce fighting --- to be done.

More fighting means, unhappily, more bloodshed and more sacrificing of lives. It means more backing up the war effort on the homefront. It means more of the hundreds of things that we, in Cisco and in other small towns of the United States of America, must keep plugging away at our jobs, whatever they are, until the final peace has been signed and sealed.

There will probably be more invasions before the end --- Greece and that sector of Europe must be released from the iron hand of the despoilers. It is too much to hope that Hitler and his criminal aides will give up without a deathly struggle that will claim thousands more lives of both Germans and Allies as well.

Don't quit until the peace is signed.

If My Opponent Persists In Running on My Record Let's Keep The Record Straight! - - Clyde Garrett

In an advertisement in the papers of the district last week my opponent in the race for Congress from the Seventeenth District attempts to discredit my friends and deceive the public into believing that because two railroad brotherhoods have mentioned my candidacy favorably the CIO Political Action Committee is spending money in the district to elect me. He publishes what purports to be letters written by officers of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors to their members and prints next to them in the ad unrelated stories about the CIO as if to show that the CIO Political Action Committee controls these independent unions and inspired the endorsements. Whichever wrote the ad was particularly clever at what we call propaganda. But by taking each article separately, the ruse is clear! Nowhere in the ad is there the slightest proof that the CIO Political Action Committee has endorsed me! None of the organizations mentioned as endorsing me are members of the CIO or in any way affiliated with it. The CIO has no control over them. Moreover NOT A SINGLE ONE of these unions ever approached me with an offer of or was solicited for money, support or endorsement. Whatever endorsement was given me was without my prior knowledge.

I have never asked, or caused to be asked, the CIO Political Action Committee for endorsement, support or money. I have never been offered support, endorsement or money by it or any other union organization. I would not accept it if it were offered.

The advertisement complains that I did not make any statement in the ad by which my friends, incensed at the false charges against me because of their activities in my behalf, exploded and exposed the tactics of the opposition. The ad was written and prepared by them and inserted in the newspapers by them and I was not asked to contribute any statement to it. They felt that if the people of the district knew the facts they would condemn a type of campaigning inconsistent with the high office of Congress.

My opponent knows personally the men who sponsored the billboards. He knows that they are upright, patriotic business men who, if they thought for a moment that I was a candidate of the CIO Political Action Committee, would spew me out of their mouths. He knows they would never allow their names to be used to "cover up" for that committee or support an untruth. I challenge him to deny this.

My opponent was district judge for twelve years. He should know the law which clearly says that every candidate or his registered campaign manager is required to file a sworn statement of "all monies previously received by or disbursed by him" at stated times and that it "shall include the names of all contributors to any campaign fund handled by the party making the same." His ad criticizes me for not filing information on something I did not handle and about which I had no information at the time and have since filed. It remarks that Dr. P. M. Kuykendall of Ranger was the only one of those paying for the billboards whose contribution was reported in my expense account. The fact is that Dr. Kuykendall made one contribution direct to me, which was not used for billboards, and which I reported. Mr. Opponent, if you can win this contest in the courts on the technicality that some of my friends provided some advertising in my behalf, I challenge you to do so. I covet the support of the Honest Laboring Men and Women of the District.

If there is any labor issue in this race, it isn't the issue of their right to organize and to bargain collectively. No one denies this right. It is the issue of whether or not communistic principles and un-American practices will be permitted to invade us, and I am as strongly opposed to such alien doctrines and methods as my opponent so vociferously proclaims himself to be.

But I am persuaded that the real issue in this race is the type of representation we have had in Congress for the last four years! I am convinced that this is the issue my opponent is trying to cover up with this CIO smokescreen!

I submit that his own advertising proclaims me a fairer and a better qualified man to represent the people of the District! In his advertising there is reprinted part of a news story from the Abilene Reporter-News of July 10, 1944, which quotes a report on Texas candidates for public office signed by representatives of the four railroad brotherhoods and the Texas State Federation of Labor none of which is affiliated with the CIO! I want my opponent to note carefully what the report said. I quote only what he was willing to use in his own ad:

"Sam Russell, incumbent congressman in the 17th district, for a listing of 'for labor 0, against 15' * * * and former Congressman Clyde Garrett was listed four and four, with this mention 'Bulletin for 1940 shows record fair'."

Mr. Opponent, do you think that the laboring man is all wrong? Do you believe that the man who earns his living in the sweat of his brow has no standing in the district? Do you hold that he has no right to representation in Congress, and that every time he lifts his head and asks you to vote for a measure you should snap him off?

According to this report, you voted against labor FIFTEEN times and for it NOT ONCE. You admit it by publishing the report, do you not? What is the matter with you? Did you study those bills and find no good in ANY of them? Nothing worthy of your support? Or did you simply wave them aside because you were too prejudiced in your views to see more than one side of a question? Did you read them at all? Nobody, not even the employers of labor, wants to see it treated unfairly. They want for labor what they want for themselves—justice and right; People are afraid of a representative who isn't fair.

I submit that such a record, admitted in your ads, condenses your qualifications as a representative of the people! Incidentally, it is a strange thing that a congressman could vote so consistently against the worker when there is not anywhere a record of his voice having been raised in opposition to a bill to pension congressmen when that measure passed the house unamendably. I wonder who that congressman was representing at that time?

NOW LOOK AT MY RECORD AS YOUR AD QUOTES IT: "Clyde Garrett was listed four and four, with this notation, 'Bulletin for 1940 shows record fair'." It doesn't say that I was labor's representative, that I would go down the line voting labor legislation harum-scarum. It simply says I had a fair record. Four times I said "NO," four times I said, "YBS." Could there be better proof that I gave careful study to the proposals and voted my convictions? Could there be better proof that in the height of the New Deal I wasn't a rubber stamp congressman voting the way the wind blew? Can you say the same for your record? Can you look the people of this district in the eye—the worker, the employer, the professional man, the farmer and all others—and say you are not trying to ride a popular reaction regardless of justice and right? I have published my platform. Where is yours? What do you stand for?

If I go to Congress I will not go as the representative of any special interest, whether of Labor, Capital or otherwise. I shall go as the representative of all the people, and I propose to be guided in my actions and voting by what I believe the best interests of my country and my district. I shall be fair to every constituent who comes to me for personal service or in the interest of legislation. I propose to study the bills! I shall certainly keep myself on the job! I shall deeply appreciate the votes and influence of the good people of this district, and I shall try to merit them.

CLYDE GARRETT For Congress. (Political Advertisement).

THANKS, CAR OWNERS
For Helping Us With a Big Job

Our Service Shop has been a busy place this past year. Many car owners depended on us to help keep their cars rolling, and with their help we've done the job.

Ford Protective Service has been adopted by most of our customers. They bring their cars to our shop regularly for expert inspection and maintenance work, preventing small repair jobs from becoming major overhauls.
