BORDEAUX FALLS TO ALLIES

HOUSE COMMITTEE TAKES WISE STAND

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The house ways and means committee, taking a wise and militant stand against planning for large government expenditures on the postwar reconversion, struck from the annual demobilization legislation Wednesday a section providing general unemployment compensation coverage for 3,500,000 government employees.

Earlier, the committee turned thumbs down on the whole plan for retraining and re-employment of war workers.

If the ways and means committee's position finally prevails in house and senate votes, the unemployment compensation program would continue on its old basis—in the hands of the states.

The committee's decision left only the major provision of the measure remaining for action, that to create an office of war mobilization and reconversion to have overall supervision of contract terminations and surplus property disposal.

There were these other major developments on the postwar front:

The senate began debate on how to dispose of approximately $100,000,000,000 of war created surpluses.

Merrimer S. Eccles, chairman of the Federal Reserve System, threw his support behind legislation for government guaranteed business loans, to expand private enterprise after the war.

TWO MEN BEATEN.
DALLAS, Aug. 24.—Two white men were beaten into unconsciousness by a group of Negroes, some using iron pipes, near the Sportatorium, Cadiz and Industrial, Injured were Tom Bell, 41, of 2930 Cleveland, who suffered a broken right shoulder, lacerations and bruises on the face, and Jerry Westmoreland, 2019 Bernard Place, lacerations and bruises on the face and head. Both were taken to Parkland Hospital where Bell was admitted. Westmoreland was released after treatment.

LIEUT. BIBBS IS AWARDED FLYING CROSS

Public relations office of the Seventh AAF headquarters, Central Pacific, informs the Daily Press that First Lt. James M. Bibbs, Jr., crew member of a 7th AAF Liberator, has been awarded the distinguished flying cross for aerial bombardment operations against the Japs in the Central Pacific area. Presentation was made by Col. R. L. Waldron.

The communication stated that Lieutenant Bibbs' wife, Mrs. Estel L. Bibbs, resides at 1115 West Seventh street, Cisco. An excellent photograph of the lieutenant was included in the letter and has been added to the Press picture gallery.

CONG. RUSSELL AND OTHERS TO SPEAK TONIGHT

Everything is in readiness for the political speaking to be held at 8 o'clock tonight on the lawn of First Methodist church, and those who arranged the affair trust that a large number of Cisco people will be present to greet the visitors.

There have been very few political gatherings this year because of the gasoline and tire shortage and tonight's meeting will probably be the last one during the campaign, since the runoff primary election is to be held Saturday.

Cong. Sam Russell will be here, but Clyde Garrett, his congressional opponent, will be unable to come. However, Mr. Garrett will have a representative present, it is said.

Others to be present include L. R. Pearson and Omar Burkett, candidates for electoral representative; Earl O'Brien and Lewis Crossley, candidates for county judge; Edgar Alton and Roy Lane, candidates for district clerk.

Attorney General Grover Sellers of Austin will be unable to be present, but will have a representative here for a few brief remarks, probably Judge Cyrus Frost of Eastland.

MOTORISTS ARE URGED TO ACT ON A BOOKS

Motorists are urged to get their applications into the office of the Eastland county war price and rationing board by September 10 for their new A books. Every effort will be made to get the new books into the hands of operators by September 22; however, applications received after September 10 will not be acted upon until all applications received prior to that date have been completed.

This issuance of the new books will be handled by mail and motorists are again urged to be sure the applications are correct and that all information called for is given.

Be sure your correct and full mailing address is on this application. The board can not be responsible for ration books which are sent to an incorrect address. The books will be mailed in window envelopes to the address placed on the application by the motorist.

5 CISCOANS AGREE FURNISH BLOOD

The registration booth for those who are willing to give a pint of blood to the Red Cross blood plasma bank was opened at West Texas Utilities Co. office this morning, but at noon only five persons had signed the register, according to Mrs. Homer Slicker, one of the DAR ladies in charge.

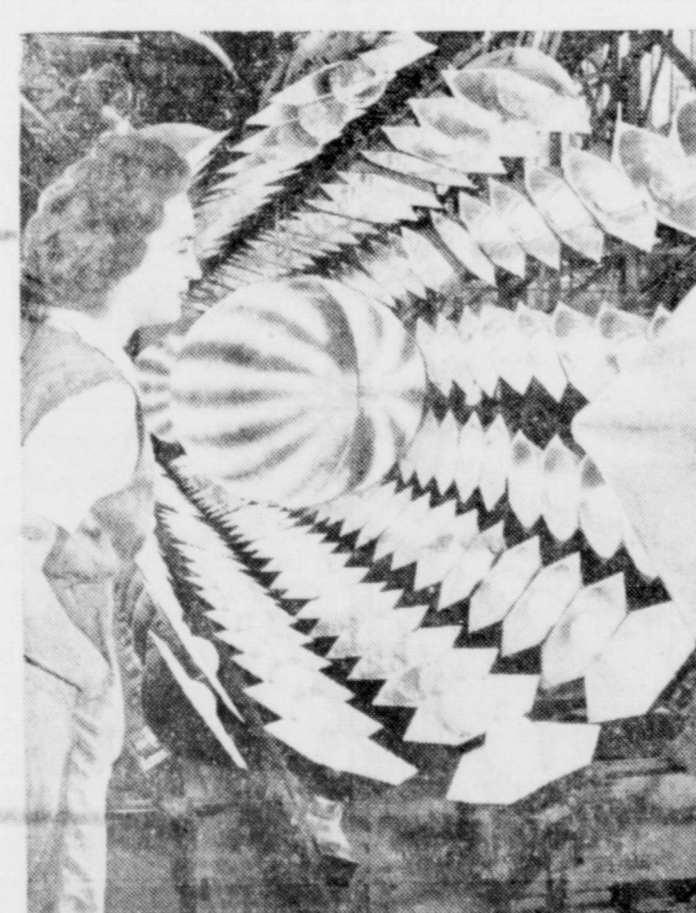

The booth will be open tomorrow and Saturday, from 9 until 6 p. m., the only two remaining days for donors to sign, Mrs. Slicker stated.

Wednesday, Sept. 6, has been designated as Cisco Day at the Red Cross receiving center, at First Methodist church, Eastland. Those from Cisco who will go to Eastland on Cisco Day will be notified this week of the exact hour for their appointment.

FEPC RESPECTS TEXAS SEGREGATION LAWS

AUSTIN, Aug. 24.—The Fair Employment Practice Committee intends to respect all segregation laws in Texas. W. Don Ellinger, its regional director at Dallas, has informed Gov. Coke Stevenson.

Ellinger conferred with Stevenson and the two discussed a number of complaints which the governor had received. Most of these,

LOOK LIKE LITTLE BLIMPS—Sailing through tunnel of infra-red drying lights, freshly painted fighter plane drops gasoline tanks that look like little blimps. Here attractive inspector keeps watch on new tanks which aid in increasing fighting range of aircraft.

Stevenson said, concerned the inclusion of antidiscrimination clauses in wartime contracts to be paid with federal funds.

Stevenson said Ellinger explained the antidiscrimination clause in some building contracts, which would allow a Negro to compete with a white bidder for the federal business.

MRS. CONERLY SANG FOR ROTARIANS TODAY

Today's Rotary program was a varied one, including a talk by football representatives asking for help to install lights for night games at the football field, vocal music by a visiting Rotary Ann and a short talk by R. N. Cluck on the things Rotarians and other citizens might do to aid Cisco Junior College. Visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Conerly and S. J. Treadway, Abilene; Mrs. A. R. Jamison, Miss Jean Jamison, Delbert Tipton and Homer Tompkins, Cisco.

Delbert Tipton and Homer Tompkins spoke about the needs for a lighted field and said that if the Rotarians would supply one-third of the funds necessary the Lions would supply the other two-thirds. At a directors' meeting following the program President J. W. Slaughter appointed Edward Lee, J. E. Hays and Lonnie Shockey as a committee for the Rotarians.

In presenting Mrs. Conerly to sing two numbers, Mr. Cluck proved his youthful age by saying that he and the singer were natives of Osage, McClelland county and were children together. After Mrs. Conerly had sung two numbers of old songs selected from the Rotary song book and had been honored for a third on account of her beautiful voice, Cluck said he wanted to tell the club that he had never seen the singer before, but knowing that all Rotarians were good sports, he had introduced her as he did. Then Mrs. Conerly said she had a surprise for Mr. Cluck—that she was indeed a native of McClelland county.

Rotarian Cluck then took a few minutes to speak to the club along the same line as his talk to the Lions Wednesday, reiterating his saying that "No Town Rises Above the Vision and Confidence of its People." He added that Ciscoans had certainly showed their confidence when they responded so splendidly to the call for funds to establish the school in 1940. He then told of the various ways in which all citizens could help the college. He emphasized that the establishment of a Rotary Loan Fund might help some boy or girl who might not otherwise be able to secure a college education. One fact was emphasized—that the first two years of the state university course was only a preparatory course for any special course that might be chosen by the student, and that the Cisco Junior college course closely paralleled that of the first two years at the university.

O'DANIEL SAYS TEX PIPELINES NEVER NEEDED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Senator O'Daniel of Texas says that major oil companies will buy the $140,000,000 worth of government-built Texas-East Coast pipelines at 10 cents on the dollar, adding that such a sale is a foregone conclusion.

He said yesterday in an interview—referring to the $77,000,000 "Big Inch" and the $66,000,000 "Little Inch" conduits—that "they were never even needed in the war effort."

"They were shoved through under the guise of an emergency with the deliberate intention of their being turned over to the big oil companies after the war to be used for transporting natural gas to the East."

LARGE ARMY BEST?
NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—A move for one-year compulsory military training of American youths in peace time has the backing of Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson. Stimson said an alternative to the compulsory training program was a large standing army.

4TH LARGEST CITY IN FRANCE CAPTURED BY AMERICANS AND GROUPS OF FRENCH PARTISANS

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—The British Broadcasting Corporation said today that the French Atlantic port of Bordeaux has been liberated. The broadcast, recorded by the United Press in New York, said Bordeaux, the fourth largest city in France, was taken by a combined force of Allied troops and French Partisans.

There were no immediate details on the reported occupation, but it was presumed the Allied units were from an American column that struck across the Loire River near Nantes more than a week ago.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF.—French tanks and armored cars raced through the streets of Paris today, wiping out isolated bands of Germans sniping from cellar and attic barricades, while American troops knifed more than 23 miles through the German pocket northwest of the liberated capital and captured the Seine River port of Elbeuf.

At the same time, Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's American 3rd Army tank columns were reported pounding into the outskirts of Troyes, a vital railway hub only 130 miles from the German border. A second Yank flying column was revealed to have swept up from Orleans, crossed the Loing River and drove beyond Montargis, 65 miles southwest of Troyes.

Headquarters spokesmen refused to comment on the situation inside Paris, but a correspondent who entered the city yesterday reported that hard-bitten Poilus of the French 2nd Armored Division were pouring into the capital to hunt down and exterminate survivors of the beaten Nazi garrison.

The French regulars were disclosed to have been rushed into Paris at mid-day yesterday after an urgent appeal from embattled Parisian Patriots.

CBS Correspondent Charles Collingwood reported that the remnants of the German garrison obtained an armistice from the Patriot army that expired at noon yesterday, and, under cover of the truce, were trying to escape the city.

Accounts indicated the French had liberated their capital and were firmly in control, but one correspondent at the front said as many as 20,000 Germans still were there just before the truce expired at noon. It was not clear how many had escaped before the arrival of the 2nd Armored Division, commanded by the spectacular French desert warrior, Brig. Gen. "Jacques Leclerc"—a pseudonym used to cover the real identity of one of France's military figures.

The battle of Paris was ended, except for the mopping up of enemy survivors, and official sources indicated the slashing American breakthrough to Elbeuf had brought the battle of the Seine pocket into its final phase.

Lt. Gen. Courtney Hodges' American 1st Army troops fanned out in two columns southwest of the Seine and swept down almost unopposed toward the channel coast and the great port of Le Havre, less than 40 miles beyond their advanced spearheads.

One column captured Conches and lunged on 23½ miles to the northeast to capture Elbeuf, where thousands of Germans and huge masses of enemy equipment had been reported jammed along the Seine River bank, trying to cross in small boats and improvised rafts. Le Neubourg, 15 miles north of Conches, also was taken in the American drive.

LONDON.—Bucharest was under siege today as Romania prepared its defenses against a possible German counter-blow after announcing its abandonment of the Axis cause and alignment with the Allies. King Michael, in a royal proclamation last night, denounced the tri-partite pact, which Romania signed in the first flush of German victories in 1940, announced acceptance of Russian armistice terms, and ordered his armies to expel Hungarian and any German forces from Northern Transylvania. Roumania's surrender cracked Germany's hold on the jittery Balkans and brought rapid repercussions in Bulgaria, Hungary and Slovakia.

Reliable sources in Cairo said Bulgaria had begun withdrawing its troops from occupied territory in Yugoslavia, and speculated that she may be the next of the satellites to abandon Germany.

Radio Sofia was broadcasting only at intervals, and reliable sources in Cairo believed "something strange" was under way in the Bulgarian capital. The Germans may have seized the station to prevent any peace move announcement, Cairo said.

Both the Slovakian and Hungarian cabinets were reported to have held urgent meetings to discuss the new situation.

WILL IT RUN?

Every automobile owner in the country has had impressed upon him the importance of caring for his car as a valued asset. The cars keep the country going.

There are all kinds of cars in the nation's automobile population. One of the most important is the fire engine. Fire department officials should be mindful of the added responsibility placed upon them to do everything possible toward maintaining equipment in A-1 shape. This is especially true of pumps. There are few things more important than the maintenance of pumping equipment. The first consideration of every fire department should be a periodic checking up of every part of a pump. In normal times this might be a once or twice a year job, depending upon the amount of service, but today, with the delays in obtaining even small repair parts, it should be carried out more frequently. At least every three months connection should be made to a hydrant, and city water pressure applied to the pump and connections. Leaks should be repaired immediately.

Fire fighting equipment is like a life boat on a ship. If it is not ready for instant service, it is worse than useless. A burning building or a drowning man need help but once. If it is not at hand they'll never need it again.

The fire engine is the lifeboat of the community. It must be ready.

INDUSTRY CAN'T DO IT ALL.

The Brookings Institution warns that: "Permanent prosperity can be expected only if corporation executives and union officials follow price policies that make for high production. Unless productive capacity is aggressively used to produce more adequate consumers' goods than the masses have hitherto enjoyed, a popular demand for extensive government economic control is likely to arise."

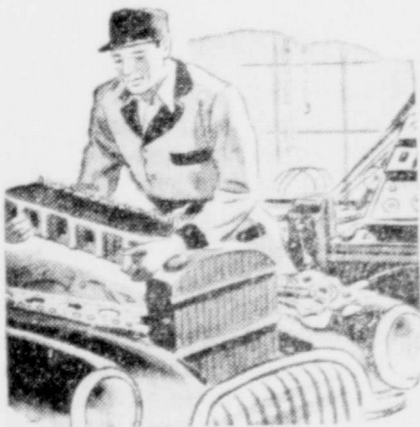

Industry discovered long ago that charging all the traffic will bear does not pay. For proof of the soundness of the principle of high production combined with mass distribution at minimum prices, one has only to turn to the experience of the chain stores. This type of retail outlet has prospered by sticking to the simple policy of small unit profit on volume sales. In serving consumers, the chains served themselves.

Before the war mass production and mass distribution were instrumental in raising living standards to new levels. After the war, by helping to keep prices down, they can be instrumental in preserving the American form of democratic government. The alternative to the abundance of mass production and mass distribution is rigid government control of chronic shortages which would automatically spell fins to freedom. But industry cannot guarantee maximum production unless it is backed up by intelligent governmental action.

It is to the direct interest of everyone in the contry to advocate tax and regulatory policies which will encourage manufacturers and retailers to produce and distribute as never before in the history of this nation. Wartime controls should be minimized as rapidly as possible. They are a makeshift substitute for the free competitive system.

Two matters of importance were discussed at Wednesday's meeting of the Cisco chamber of commerce: Progress of the work on the Christian college building and the proposed fall fair. E. R. McDaniell reported that the work on the college building is going forward nicely, but that more funds will be required by the middle of next week, it being the judgment of the building committee that all bills be paid as they fall due. The committee, with the help of President Webster, will at once set about the collection of money already subscribed for this purpose.

Master Womack, chairman of the fair committee, made his report showing the probable cost of the fair, stating the committee would like to hear from the directors of the club as to their individual opinions of the advisability of the fall meet. He made it very plain that the committee stood ready to carry out the wishes of the directors. After discussion of details a motion was made and adopted that the fair be held the first week in October. The committee headed by Womack will continue in general charge of plans, but will employ a full-time man to aid in the work. There will be amusement features, of course, but special attention will be devoted to securing as many pig, poultry, fine cattle and agricultural exhibits as possible. Present at the meeting were Messrs. Lee Pog, E. R. McDaniell, Forrest D. Wright, L. V. Carroll, Leroy M. Brown, J. W. Gregory, L. H. McCree, Oscar Cliett, W. H. Johnston, E. P. Crawford, B. S. Huey, Minter Womack, G. C. Richardson, G. W. Griswold, N. F. Payne, A. B. O'Flaherty and President A. A. Webster.

The Fourth passed off very quietly in Cisco, most of the business houses remaining closed all day. There was no celebration of any kind here, so many of our people spent the day in neighboring towns, some went fishing and picnicking while still others spent the day quietly at home. Cisco had quite a representative crowd to witness the auto races at Abilene and to attend the rodeo at Eastland. Those going to Eastland also had an opportunity to see the Ku Klux Klan parade.

which was staged there at 9:30 o'clock at night. It is understood that about 250 klansmen participated.

Cisco Boy Scouts, led by Scoutmaster E. T. Gunther and Assistant Scoutmaster Ernest Lennon, hiked to the big canyon near Lake Cisco on the afternoon of July 4. This was the first hike staged by the troop, was thoroughly enjoyed by all and the participants numbered twenty-six, four troopers being unable to go. This afternoon at 5 o'clock the scouts will be guests of Manager Bill Maybrow at the Broadway theater, where they will see the "Speed Girl." The personnel of Tuesday's hiking party was as follows: E. T. Gunther, Ernest Lennon, Mel Rumph, Price Rumph, Curtis Cochran, Tom Foley, Gerald Murphy, Yancy McCree, Glenn Elkins, Leo Moore, Clifford Hall, Ernest Hughes, Allen Boone, Elgin Reid, Wilbur Westerfelt, Malcolm St. John, Dick St. John, Archie Carter, George Swartz, Carl Mount, Robert Hess and Garnett Yoder.

Miss Nava Shelton entertained the Tri-K club Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. W. Mancill. After several pleasant games the hostess served cherry sherbet and cakes to the following members and invited guests: Misses Addie and Mary Fee, Maurine Mancill, Gussie Newcomb, Tommie and Esther Hale, Frances Grace, Lucile Brown, Mesdames Grace Callaway, Dave Calloway of Houston, F. F. Jones and Paul Butler.

WE WANT REDDY
 American women always have been proud of the appearance of their home-canned fruits and vegetables. Now they have the extra satisfaction of knowing that the things they can at home are helping the Nation's war effort, because food fights for freedom. More home canning this year is vital, says the War Food Administration, which offers these helpful suggestions for conserving food by preserving it:
 1—Can a year's supply. Watch for the most plentiful crops.
 2—Use only fresh, selected produce, from market or garden.
 3—Follow recommended methods and use proper equipment.
ELECTRIC KITCHENS ARE COOLER!
 Canning is easier with the electric range because electric kitchens stay cooler. This is a point to remember in planning your new kitchen. Remember, too, that the War Bonds you buy today will buy your All-Electric kitchen of tomorrow!

Ranger Daily Times Disavows Authorship of Article and Disclaims Responsibility
 Statement By The Publisher
 In the August 6th issue of this paper appeared an article labeled "Editorial" entitled "Why Good Men Refrain From Offering For Public Office."
 This article was not submitted to the publisher and its contents were not known to him until after it appeared in print.
 It was not written by the editor, any member of the staff or other employee of this paper, and the publisher regrets the inadvertence through which the article was permitted to appear.
 It is the established policy of the Ranger Times not to take sides in local political campaigns and any import of the article or any other article which did so, as the one in question, to that effect is expressly denied. The article expresses the opinion of ardent supporters of Mr. Burkett, and was composed by them, and its publication should not have been handled as written.
 The Times denies any intention what-so-ever to injure Mr. Burkett, reannounces its policy not to take sides in local political races, and opens its columns to Mr. Burkett for a reply to such article if he so desires.
WALTER MURRAY, Publisher.
 (This Adv. was paid for by friends of Omar Burkett).

REPLY TO BURKETT'S DISCLAIMER.
 On August 6th the Ranger Daily Times published an editorial relating to the clandestine mailing of a certificate which had been previously circulated disparaging the previous political affiliation of Mr. W. B. Starr, a candidate for Representative in the 107th District, and certain official acts and claims of Mr. Burkett, and suggesting that such political tactics are reasons why good men refrain from offering for public office.
 There appears elsewhere in this paper a statement signed by Walter Murray, and republished by Mr. Burkett, denying that he wrote such editorial, but he does not deny the truth of any statement made therein. Mr. Murray in his statement, tenders to Mr. Burkett the columns of the Ranger Daily Times to deny the truth of, or to answer any statement contained in such editorial. Mr. Burkett has not and will not so deny the statements and criticisms made in the editorial. Mr. Burkett has not denied the authorship or responsibility for the anonymous circulars mentioned, nor has he denied or answered any other of the charges made in the editorial. Why has not Mr. Burkett availed himself of the opportunity to deny the criticisms of his official record as made in the editorial?
 It is significant that Mr. Pearson received approximately two-thirds of all votes cast in his home town in the first primary, and in the same primary Mr. Burkett received approximately one-third of the votes cast in his home town of Cisco.

Your Pint Of Blood May Save A Soldier's LIFE

Wednesday, September 6 has been designated "Cisco Day" at Eastland when some 200 Ciscoans are asked to donate a pint of blood for the U. S. Government blood bank, which is being strained to its maximum to furnish blood for wounded soldiers on the field of battle, when a transfusion may mean the difference between life and death.

If you are healthy and strong and within the age limit, be sure to do your part on Cisco Day.
