MACARTHUR BACK IN PHILIPPINES

C. J. Kleiner Is Home From Mayo Hospital

Charles J. Kleiner, who left Cisco August 15 for Mayo Bros. Hospital Rochester, Minn., for a major operation, arrived home yesterday afternoon, greatly improved in health and with the assurance of his physicians that further rest would restore him completely.

The Stinson Reliant plane bearing Mr. and Mrs. Kleiner landed at Cisco airport at 6:15 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Hart, proceeded on her way to Mitternagel Field, Dallas. The party of three had left Rochester at 8:30 yesterday morning, but were delayed an hour and a half account of having to detour through Nebraska to avoid dangerous storms. The local field was arranged to the capable woman pilot but, flying by instrument, the plane roared in for a perfect landing. By direct air route, the distance between Rochester and Cisco is a bit less than 1,000 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Kleiner were greeted at the airport by a number of Cisco friends, including Mayor Edward Lee, City Commissioner A. D. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heltzel, R. L. Ponsler, F. N. Clark, George Fee, Mrs. Lillian Caudle, Miss Marilyn Shertzer, Charles Roberts, Mrs. Lavada Simpson, Earl Mayhew, Mrs. H. T. Rogan, A. B. Butler, Fleming Waters, Pete Nance, G. F. Mitcham, Jr., and Carl and Richard Kleiner.

CISCO WILL AID PEANUT HARVEST

Cisco business men have made plans to assist farmers of the Cisco area in the harvesting of their crops—particularly peanuts. With the city schools having adopted a temporary schedule by which the students will be free from 12:30 where needed, Cisco merchants made plans at a meeting Thursday afternoon to go into the fields themselves, if necessary, to help hard-pressed farmers complete their harvests.

Fourteen of the business men met at the chamber of commerce at 4 p. m. Thursday, agreed to each devote some afternoons to helping in the harvest—even to the extent of taking cars and transporting student workers to the fields—and named a committee to canvass merchants not represented to secure volunteers in this emergency work.

Today A. D. Anderson, Homer Ferguson and D. W. Desevens were contacting these other merchants for their reaction.

Under the plan adopted farms where work is needed, the time when needed and the number of workers required will be listed at the chamber of commerce. No stores will close.

The merchants agree to go into the fields under a system of rotation covering the emergency harvest period of about ten days.

Popular Cisco Young Man Is on Furlough

Joe Carrothers, popular Cisco young man and chief petty officer with the Seabees, is here from the South Pacific to spend a thirty-day furlough with his brother, Rex Carrothers, and his many Cisco friends.

His last visit home was in 1942 and he has covered lots of territory since that time. For a while he was in Australia and has visited many points in the South Pacific. As a general thing, the Seabees engage in construction work for the navy.

Before entering the service, Mr. Carrothers was an employee of J. Harry Reynolds. He is a graduate of Cisco high school and will be particularly remembered as a member of the Big Dam Fighting Lobos during the period when those football heroes cut such a wide swath through the teams of this high school area. He is the picture of good health, but will be glad when it's all over and he can come home to stay.

QUALLS IN CALIFORNIA

James Qualls, 22, son of L. H. Qualls, recently completed a course at the marine officer's training school at Camp Lejeune, N. C., and is now stationed in California. Upon completion of the course he was fourth from top in his company of over a hundred men and top man in his platoon. Qualls, a native Ciscoan, was an honor graduate of Cisco high school in 1940 and received his master's degree in business administration from Abilene Christian college. He entered the service about two years ago.

BECAUSE THEY KNOW what USO, War Prisoners Aid and other agencies of the National War Fund are doing for their buddies abroad, these wounded veterans of fighting overseas were among the first to contribute to the Texas war fund campaign. The war fund never solicits gifts from service men, but these Texas veterans asked war fund officials to call on them at McCloskey General Hospital, Temple, where they are recovering from wounds, and insisted upon contributing on behalf of their comrades in Italy and France. From left to right above are: Raleigh Leatherman, Bell Telephone Company executive who is helping with the war fund drive; T. S. LeLand Grohman of San Antonio; T. J. Donald Brown of Mart; S. Sgt. Wilbert Beckman of Bellville; Pvt. Volvie Gafford of Turkey, Texas, and Leslie Huff, chairman of the Bell County War Chest. (Photo by U. S. Signal Corps Photographer.)

LETTING 'EM HAVE IT—With picturesque Apennines in background, Americans man tanks and smoke and flame rise as Allies pound German positions. Offensive troops meet stiff enemy resistance along mountainous Gothic line during bloody battle.

THIS IS THE WAY THEY WASH THEIR CLOTHES—Peasant women of small village outside of Viterbo carry clothes in baskets to community watering spot provided for that purpose. Italian housewives are happy without washing machines as they scrub and chat during Monday chores.

$1,124.75 For War Chest In Hand This A.M.

With only two teams checked in completely, nine others partially in and the remaining 14 unreported, a total of $1,124.75 in United War Chest contributions had been received at local headquarters early today. Announcement of results to that time was made by Cisco Chairman Austin Flint.

He asked that all teams report at once, giving their results so far. It was estimated that about 49 per cent of the field had been covered in the campaign to raise $2,700.

Flint explained that figures of the progress of the drive to the moment would enable the committee to assess the prospects for its success and make whatever additional plans may be necessary to insure Cisco's going over the top.

So far as could be determined from these partial returns, the community's response to the appeal has been definitely encouraging, he said. He again urged all workers to complete their solicitations as quickly as they can, and he also suggested that any prospective contributors who are not contacted either take their contributions to N. C. Huston at West Texas Utilities company, or hand them to a worker. In covering so large a territory, he explained, it is inevitable that there will be "misses". "We certainly do not want to overlook anyone," said Flint, "but it should be remembered that the men and women who are working on these teams are giving their time and are also giving their money. Not only these designated team members, but every person should consider himself a worker as well as a giver."

Changes in Rotary Constitution Proposed

Proposed changes in the constitution of the local club was the subject of the Rotary program yesterday when J. E. Hays, chairman for the day, chaired the present constitution in hands of the secretary with that of a copy received from Rotary International on the request of Mr. Hays.

The speaker read a number of articles in the local constitution and then read from the constitution sent by the international. Some differences were considered minor, while others were thought of more importance. The talk was just a discussion and no action was taken at the business session.

Al Strasser, at home on leave, and Dr. David Tyndall, visiting relatives in Cisco, were guests of club members.

Supt. R. N. Cluck made announcement regarding changes in the school schedule to allow children to help with farm work for the next few weeks.

STUDENTS RECOVERING

AUSTIN — Twenty-seven University of Texas girl students were reported recovered today from illness attributed to Dr. Katherine McCormick to meat balls that had been included in a meal at a university boarding house, occupied by girls training for army radio work.

COURIER PLANE CRASHED

SOCKHOLM.—Dispatches from Goteberg on the Swedish west coast Friday said that a U. S. courier plane had crashed near there during the night. Ten persons aboard the plane were reported killed, but full details were not available.

Regular Democrats to Push Their Fight

DALLAS, Oct. 20.—Texas Regulars will continue their fight in spite of the refusal of Republicans to join them in a united front against the new deal, two leaders of the insurgent Democratic group declared Thursday.

Control of the Democratic party in Texas is more important an issue than the presidency, Mrs. E. R. Carlton, a Regulars elector candidate, declared.

The Regulars will draw support from Republican ranks in spite of what GOP National Committeeman R. B. Creager of Brownsville may decide, J. Hart Willis, Regulars Dallas county chairman, commented.

In spite of these statements, the Regulars express confidence that the Regulars in the end will join with them as Dewey-Bricker backers. Texas now has a total of 239 Dewey-Bricker clubs, Walter Rogers, state campaign director, said. Many of these are made up of Texas Regulars, he added.

The statement by Creager, announcing that the only way to beat Roosevelt in Texas is by voting for the Dewey-Bricker Republican electors, in no way alters the position of the Texas Regulars, Mrs. Carlton insisted.

"We are not a third party, in the usual sense, nor have we been Republicans," she said. "We are Democrats who controlled the state convention in May."

"We started out with the purpose of fighting to a finish the present new-deal leadership of the Democratic party in Texas. Our program is a long-range one, looking forward to 1946 and 1948."

ADVANCED ALLIED HEAD-QUARTERS, Philippines, Oct. 20. Gen. Douglas MacArthur and an army of at least 250,000 men stormed the Central Philippines from the greatest ocean-going invasion armada in history today, quickly seized control of the 75-mile east coast of strategic Leyte Island and were marching on Tacloban, its capital, 370 miles southward from Manila.

Returning with MacArthur to the Philippines was every living member of the ill-fated garrison who escaped with him from Corregidor two years and 10 months ago. The number was not revealed.

"I have returned," MacArthur proclaimed to the people of the Philippines in a radio broadcast. "By the grace of almighty God, our force stands again on Philippine soil, soil consecrated in the blood of our two peoples."

Ty nightfall, MacArthur will have more men ashore than the Allies landed in Normandy on D-Day. Fully a quarter million soldiers landed in France in the first 24 hours of the Western Front campaign. Prime Minister Churchill told the British House of Commons last month.

Storming ashore from hundreds of assault craft under cover of the greatest naval and air bombardment of the Pacific war, single veterans of the American 8th Army under German-born Lt. Gen. Walter Krueger quickly seized four brigades against almost non-existent opposition and fanned out inland with tanks and mobile guns.

There was no immediate word as to whether Tacloban's big airfield, as well as other airfields, just inland from the east coast, also had been captured.

Japanese opposition was reported developing in the Tacloban area and around Panan, southernmost bridgehead, at mid-afternoon as the defenders, stunned and scattered by the devastating pre-invasion bombardment, began to rally their forces.

Enemy forces entrenched in the hills behind the coast were harassing the invasion troops with mortar fire. Bloody fighting was believed in prospect when the doughboys reach the main defenses inland.

2,000 Aviation Workers Strike At Kansas City

KANSAS CITY.—The entire modification center at the North American Aviation plant was closed Thursday night because of a work stoppage involving about 2,000 workers, F. E. Branch, director of industrial relations, said. The main plant, which manufactures B-25 Mitchell bombers, was not affected, he added.

Pickets said they were dissatisfied with a situation in which lessening activity at the center was causing transfers of employees to the main plant, a mile away, where they said job classifications and pay were being lowered.

DEATH SENTENCE

LONDON.—Pierre Laval has been sentenced to death in absentia by a Marcelle tribunal, the Paris radio said Friday. A warrant for the arrest of the Vichy chief of government, now either sheltering with or held by the Germans, was issued by the tribunal two weeks ago and it was stated then that he would be tried whether he was present or not.

TEXAS OPEN GOLF

SAN ANTONIO.—Although definite dates remain to be set, the Texas Open golf championship, which annually attracts most of the nation's touring professionals on their winter tour from the West Coast to Florida, will be played here the last week in January.

NAZIS FALL BACK

MOSCOW.—Front reports today said retreating Nazi columns are falling back into East Prussia under hammer blows by Russian tanks and fast moving pursuit groups and in Hungary the Red Army had won the battle of the Hungarian plains and slashed forward on Debrecen.

(The German DNB News Agency reported Debrecen had been evacuated after several hours of street fighting. German reports admitted the Soviets had penetrated at least seven miles into East Prussia and indicated new penetrations were being made south of the first breakthrough at Eydtkuhnen.)

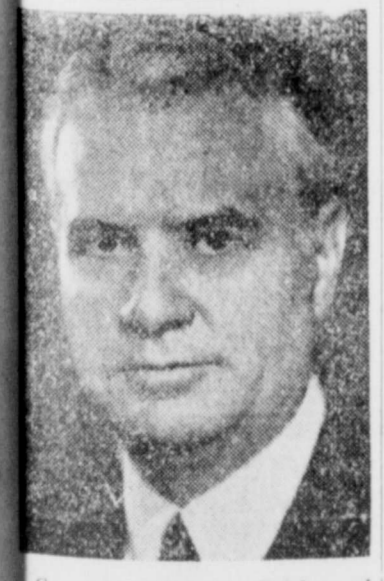

Soviet armor including M-34 tanks and mobile units were slashing at the German flanks. Highways to East Prussia, it was reported, were jammed with long lines of retreating German units.

The government newspaper, Izvestia, reported that Soviet and Yugoslav forces have driven the Germans into the northwestern part of Belgrade where they are being chopped to bits.

SOLDIERS DROWN

TAMPA.—Third Air Force headquarters here said today that 31 soldiers from the New Orleans port of embarkation apparently drowned Thursday near Bradenton at the height of the tropical hurricane which passed there.

Church and State

Scottish Rite (Masonic) News Bureau: When and if any religious denomination or any minister in priest of any denomination favors the teaching of religion in the public schools of the United States or during the public school day, that denomination or preacher is making an open confession of failure in a primary function of duty.

In early fall, perhaps this fall as never before, there is much in the press regarding religious education and much of the discussion dwells upon religious education in the public schools. There can be no argument that religious education has been needed by every human being since there were any human beings. There is an argument as to whether this education should take place in the home and church or in the public school. Where can such instruction best be given? What agencies have claimed in the past to be the proper ones for this work? What agencies today claim to be the authorities in this? Then why do not these agencies, parents and clergymen, roll up their sleeves and get to work? Have they been taken up some other line of videology and turned the children over body and soul to the state and the public school?

As astounding as it may seem, one of the most widely read Protestant news sheets, which avers in its platform that it champions "absolute separation of Church and State," came out in mid-September with a banner line promoting the released-time plan for religious education and pointing to it as a Protestant movement.

Every Protestant minister should feel his knees shaking around his neck? Before two weeks he will be without a job, will he not?

However, lest too many turn pale, let it be mentioned that even in this promotional article on released time it is averred that only about 1,500,000 children in the public schools will enroll; and there are to be perhaps 42,000,000 pupils in public schools this fall. Well, maybe the separation of Church and State will be a reality a while longer. And maybe the clergy of the clergymen has not established all these millions of pupils ought to be contacted by someone in the interest of religion.

The article goes on to say that most of the released-time classes in religion for public school pupils will be held in churches. Then, taken up some other line of viworld is. Why do the sponsors of week-day religious instruction anywhere drag the matter into the public schools at all? What connection is there? The pupils are the chief connection — but there are a great many things children do and learn and a great many contacts they make with apart from the schoolroom. Why cannot denominational religious education be such? The word denominational is used advisedly, for in a sense all ethical and moral and decent education is religious.

education. Looking at a sunset is a part of religious education—if we may say so without seeming to go too far afield.

Now, why bring the matter into the public schools at all? All summer, every summer, the churches make a great thing of their vacation church schools. Why do they stop for the winter?

If released time from public school for religious instruction is insisted upon by clergymen and parents merely in order to secure for the pupils certain "school credits" for the amount of time spent, the whole matter has nothing whatever to do with religion, has it?

Give to 2 Fronts this Year! WAR and COMMUNITY CHEST. Illustration of a man dropping coins into a chest.

'FUSTEST' WITH THE 'MOSTEST'

Dollars that you give this year to the War Chest Drive will do double duty on two fronts—the War Front and the Home Front. On the War Front they will send to our boys in the service a bit of the home comforts and cheer. To the men of the "barbed wire legion" held prisoner by the enemy they will send a ray of sunshine and give hope. To our Allies in the war-torn countries they will bring relief in the form of food, clothing and medicines—and the renewed will to keep on fighting with us for the Victory.

Sure, you are up to your neck in the war effort. Maybe you are up to your neck in bills and taxes! But don't forget there are millions of men 'up to their necks' in battle today, and still they are having to keep on giving to secure cherished freedom.

Wars are decided on the 'fustest with the mostest.' Let's give early to make sure 'mostest' will not be late again for those who need it NOW.
