PATTON TAKES SAARLAUTERN

CISCO—One of the healthiest areas in U.S.A., with a countryside devoted to blooded cattle, hogs, sheep, peanuts, cotton, fruits, feeds, poultry, gas, oil; two railroads; Bankhead highway; huge concrete swimming pool; bass and crappie fishing.

Committees Out Today For Community Chest

The annual Community Chest drive in Cisco began this morning with most of the teams reporting and securing their lists of prospective contributors despite the cool, wet weather that arrived during the night. This will be the final campaign for funds for public welfare obligations this year and the committee in charge was anxious that the solicitation be completed quickly in order that it will not drag on to interfere with holiday business activities which are beginning to demand the undivided attention of the business men and most of the team members. Most of the money to be raised will be used for the support of the Boy Scouts and the Welfare association. Eight hundred and fifty dollars will be allocated to the Scouts, $750 to the welfare association. Smaller amounts will be used to finance the teaching of the non-denominational Bible class in the public schools and the USO.

Congress Anxious To Get Home For Christmas Visit

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Congress worked hard today to get its delayed program back into shape to permit going home by Christmas. Payroll taxes and rivers and harbors legislation held prospects still of delays and argument, but there appeared bi-partisan Capitol Hill agreement in approval of important changes in the higher-ups at the State department. Eager to pare its heavy docket, the house starts work early today on the knotty social security tax legislation. The bill holding this tax at one per cent each on employer and employee was approved by a divided ways and means committee. The administration wants the tax to move to two per cent on Jan. 1. The senate plans to continue debate on the $500,000,000 postwar rivers and harbors bill. Germany and Japan may get some rocket surprises from the U. S. Already seven types of American aircraft are tossing rockets at the enemy, says the OWI, in revealing that American ordnance experts have concentrated on developing artillery type rockets. And soon the navy will be spending $100,000,000 monthly on rocket ammunition alone. Throughout 1945 the army will get about $12,000,000 monthly for rocket ammunition. The final phase of the legal battle over the government's anti-trust suit against the Associated Press gets under way in the supreme court. Three hours of oral argument are scheduled. Counsel for the AP contend that the action as it now stands would require the non-profit news cooperative to admit to membership all comers. This, they maintain, would violate the constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press and make the AP a public utility subject to government regulations. The government claims that the AP would not be converted into a public utility and freedom of the press would be freed. Some congressmen don't like the suggestion that war workers who stay on their jobs get postwar bonuses. Advocated by Chairman Grug of WPB, the proposal drew criticism from Senators Burton and Kilgore. Kilgore suggested that postwar unemployment compensation would be a better answer.

THIRD ARMY NOW HOLDS ENTIRE WEST BANK OF SAAR FROM MERZIG TO CAPTURED SAARLAUTERN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Hurling more tanks and infantry into an expanding bridgehead, Patton's Third army troops hammered deeper into Siegfried line defenses at virtually captured Saarlautern today and in a great wheeling movement along a 21-mile front pressed to within a 6 1/2 miles of Saarbrücken, pounding that industrial capital of the rich Saar with eight-inch guns. The Third army now hold the entire west bank of the Saar from the Merzig area to Saarlautern, inside of which opposition still was being encountered. On the northern end of the western front the British Second army cleared all Germans from the entire area west of the Maas river in Holland. The enemy fled to strong positions across the river, their backs to the homeland. In the mighty battle of attrition on the Cologne plain, American Ninth army troops drove the Germans across the Roer river at Julich, collapsing opposition west of the stream. First army troops scored limited gains on the Aachen-Cologne superhighway, advancing to within 300 yards of Düren, bastion on the Roer, and 22 air miles of Cologne. It was believed the Germans had massed a greater part of their tanks and a third of their infantry along the northern front to protect the menaced Ruhr valley, which, with the invaded Saar, provides the heartbeat of German war industry. In the south U. S. Seventh army troops east of Saare Union adged to within seven miles of the German Palatinate, agricultural and industrial region east of the Saar. Enemy snipers in Strassbourg were eliminated. The Red army, surging through western Hungary in an offensive outflanking besieged Budapest, massed on a 42-mile front along the south shore of Lake Balaton, a scant 60 miles from the Austrian border. On the northeastern end of the lake, the Russians based at Szeged also took up positions from which they can swing toward Austria. Another Red army column speared north along the west bank of the Danube within 37 miles south of Budapest in a drive toward the Hungarian capital's back door East of the Danube, which divides Budapest in two, Russians continued to hammer at the southeast and eastern suburbs. Near the Drava river, Yugoslav-Hungarian border, the Russians hurled back the enemy 80 miles northeast of Szeged, and inside northern Yugoslavia Russians and Partisans captured Mitrovica, 41 miles northwest of Belgrade. British Eighth army forces in Italy cut the Ravenna-Bologna highway and captured two towns midway between the Adriatic port of Ravenna and Faenza. The British straddled the main road between Ravenna and Faenza. Allied heavy bombers in force were out over Germany again today in a sequel to the 12,000-ton attack by 4,000 bombers yesterday on eight rail centers servicing the German armies of the west.

been their main target in four raids on Tokyo. A Japanese and an American destroyer were sunk in a night time engagement fought in Nipponese waters off Ormoc on western Leyte between a small U. S. squadron and three enemy ships. The U. S. ship was torn apart by an aerial torpedo or a mine. She sank in less than a minute, her guns still firing. Most of her crew was saved, largely by the daring rescue of Catalina flying boats which dragged the sailors from the water in full view of the heavily-garrisoned coast. A second enemy destroyer was believed to have been hit in the engagement. Elsewhere in the Philippines and Borneo water, five small Japanese transports, freighters and tankers were sunk and three damaged. More than 14 Nipponese planes were wiped out, nearly half of them during the battle in Ormoc harbor. The B-29s, the big guns of American aviation, have been handicapped by persistently bad weather in their Tokyo raids, said Brig. Gen. Haywood Hansell, commander of the 21st bomber command. "Substantial damage has been inflicted upon the Musashima aircraft plant but it has not been destroyed by a direct sight," he declared in a press conference.

15TH AAF IN ITALY.—A P-51 Mustang fighter group has initiated a reward system in which the squadron engineering section having the best maintenance record during any one month is presented an "E Flag." This flag, an efficiency emblem, is given on the competitive basis of having the highest percentage of operational aircraft during a 30-day period. Master Sgt. Benedict J. Bluntzer, Bobstown, Tex., and Master Sgt. Victor R. Lawson, 511 west Ninth street, Cisco, Tex., airplane engine machinists who are in charge of a squadron engineering section, are shown in the accompanying picture with the E Flag which was presented to their squadron for their October maintenance record.

Grade No. 3 tires have been removed from the rationed list, it was announced this week by Eastland county war price and rationing board. A certificate no longer will be required for the purchase of these tires. However, the tires known as factory seconds, formerly classed as grade 3, have been transferred to grade 1 and a certificate will be required for their purchase.

J. R. POPLIN BURIED

J. R. Poplin, 83, died early Sunday morning in a Ranger hospital. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Green funeral home, with burial in the Seranton cemetery. Rev. W. A. Flynn, Cisco Methodist minister, officiated. Mr. Poplin was born in Arkansas, February 9, 1861. He came to Texas about 45 years ago, settling in Eastland county. Some 25 years ago he moved to the Seranton area and lived there until his removal to Cisco four years ago. Survivors include the wife and a son, J. R. Poplin, Jr., who reside at 205 west Thirteenth street, Cisco.

FOUR AMARILLO PAPERS TIED UP BY A STRIKE

AMARILLO, Dec. 5.—Amarillo, a city of 65,000, was without newspapers because of a walkout of 60 linotypers and compositors. The newspapers affected were the Globe, afternoon, and the Amarillo News, morning, both published by Globe News Publishing company; the Amarillo Times, afternoon, and the Amarillo Press, a weekly. The News Monday night attempted to get out a bulldog edition by getting the news up in typewritten form and having it engraved, but when it came to preparing this for the press the stereotypers, in sympathy, refused to cast the plates. The situation was described by union men as technically not a strike. They said the men failed to show up for work simply because they were attending a union meeting to discuss the terms of a contract to replace the old, which expired some weeks ago. The union favored a 35-hour week at the same base rate of pay. The publishers offered a 37 1/2-hour week with a 10 per cent pay increase. The money difference in the two propositions would be only a little more than 31 cents a week, in favor of the publishers, but would require 2 1/2 hours more work.

Friday Humble Broadcast The Last For 1944

Humble Oil and Refining company broadcasts its last football game of 1944 Friday, December 8, at 7 p. m. from Miami, Fla. The Texas Aggies travel to Florida where they will meet Miami University on the latter's home field. A special Humble broadcasting crew will go along to bring this interesting post-season game to Texas fans. Ves Box and Charlie Jordan, two ace Hamle announcers, will be on hand to bring play-by-play and color highlights to listeners. Fifteen stations will carry the broadcast, hence fans should have no trouble finding it on their dials.

Cisco Lumber Co. Took All, Paul's Chiros 2 of 3

Cisco Lumber Co. took all three games from White's Tire Shop at the local bowling alleys last night and C. E. Paul's Chiros chalked up two games to one for Collins Hardware. Fair scores all around but nothing of a sensational nature during the evening. Next Tuesday's schedule is The Man's Store vs. White's Tire Shop and West Texas Utilities vs. Cisco Gas Corporation.

After Three-Hour Fight, Canadian Draftees Quieted

OTTAWA, Dec. 5.—Drafted home army troops who fought with regular army soldiers and civilians at Fort Frances, Ontario, over the weekend in the most violent outbreak in the conscription crisis were safely moved to their training center at Camp Shilo, Manitoba, today. Advice direct from Fort Frances, on the United States border 140 miles northwest of Duluth, Minn., said fighting lasted three hours Saturday night and that six persons were injured before the draftees, reportedly a French-speaking unit were put aboard a waiting train. Defense headquarters at Ottawa declined to comment.

FAIR BALANCE IS ESSENTIAL

It has probably occurred to newspaper readers generally that organized labor in this country is growing very powerful. The labor unions themselves have expanded rapidly during the war, with many consolidations, after the manner in which business "trusts" were combined in past years. This process continues, with the earnest approval of labor leaders generally. A current example is the recent statement made by President William Green of the Federation of Labor, that in his eagerness to join with the CIO and United Mine Workers he would quit the Federation if it were necessary to gain that end.

It rather looks as if labor in this country may soon be governed by one man. Whoever that might be, the situation would probably make the average American uneasy. For labor union government might possess almost as much power as the nation's constitutional and political government.

It used to be feared by many Americans that Big Business would gain control of this country. The normal citizen in between would probably say that he doesn't want either of these groups to rule. What he wants is a balance, to keep any political or economic group from gaining and keeping control.

WILLKIE MEMORIAL

Wendell Willkie is not to be forgotten. A Willkie Memorial Building Fund has been started, to erect a building in New York City that will house organizations striving for the purposes for which Willkie strove. Among these are the fostering of international cooperation, the improvement of relations between labor and employers, slum clearance and low cost housing.

Sumner Welles, former undersecretary of state, is honorary chairman of the fund. He did not vote for Willkie, nor did many of the board members who are now glad to perpetuate his memory. But believing that a man might not make the best executive for the highest and most difficult office in the world does not prevent admirers from approving his character and wishing to perpetuate his ideals.

Men like Willkie are among the nation's greatest assets. They are best commemorated by forms of special service such as the one aimed at by this building plan.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Christian church met Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 7, at the home of Mrs. Oscar Cliett, John 20; 1-18 was used as a devotional reading by Mrs. Armstrong, program leader for the day. Mrs. Armstrong made interesting comment on the character of Mary Magdalene. The lesson study was on Missionary work in Africa. The topics "Human Life and Physical Ministry" and "Social Conditions and Religious Beliefs" were ably presented by Mrs. J. J. Winston and Mrs. Wooten. Mrs. J. E. Elkins read a letter from her niece, Miss Lucile Reagan, who represents the Southern Baptist church in Oya, West Africa. After the program, a social hour was enjoyed by eighteen members and five visitors. The hostesses, Mesdames Oscar Cliett, J. H. Stockard and J. E. Elkins served delicious tea and cookies.

The Junior XX Century club had their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon, with Miss Helen Williamson as hostess. Roll call was responded to with "Labor Saving Devices." The following was the program for the afternoon: "Individual room and function" by Mrs. E. L. Graham; Refreshing, Mrs. Lloyd Winston. The club wishes to extend their thanks to Mrs. Leonard Simon and Misses Katherine Pettit and Mary Elizabeth O'Flaherty, who by their untiring efforts have raised the sum of $50 in securing advertisements for the clock which is now being installed on Main street. Plans were discussed for their float which will represent the "Revolutionary Period" in the Armistice Day Parade. The members are rehearsing for the play, "Betty's Last Bet," which will be given next Thursday evening. Miss Sarah Maud Benham was elected to membership in the club.

POSTHUMOUS AIR MEDAL

STAR BOY KILLED

The war department Monday made public names of 1,304 U. S. soldiers killed in action, including 63 Texans and 1,405 who have been wounded in action, including 46 Texans. Pfc. Ernest E. Dotts, son of Jefferson Bott, of Rising Star was killed. The wounded included Sgt. Marvin R. Spencer, son of Mrs. Marvin R. Spencer of Ranger.

Santa Says... "Buy a War Bond First"

There's no better gift to give, whether you wrap in it gay paper and bright ribbons, or just slip it into an envelope. The War Bond you give today will at a future date buy anything the recipient's heart may desire. Yet right now, it's the most important purchase you can make because it's a tangible way of helping to shorten the war and bring our heroes home to enjoy future Christmases at peace.

Millions of Japanese fighters, and tons of Japanese fighting equipment must still be destroyed before Victory is final and complete. It costs billions of dollars to equip our men for the task, and meeting that cost with War Bonds is the soundest investment any one of us can make!

The 6th WAR LOAN

Buy Another Bond Today!

YOUR COUNTRY IS STILL AT WAR—ARE YOU?

There are still millions of tough, brutal Japs to lick. Every Jap we kill makes an American's chance of getting home better, and it costs plenty to kill a Jap.

If you think Japan is a pushover—you're fooling yourself, Mister. Every American soldier, marine and sailor in the Pacific knows that he has a tough fight on his hands. The European theatre is a "gentleman's war" in comparison. Don't tell them that their war is over! Even as you read these words, American men are dying in the battle against Japan.

Look into your heart and ask yourself honestly: "Have I stopped fighting? Have I stopped buying War Bonds because I think some of our funds are being wasted or the war is over?"

Buy more bonds than you have more right to ask Congress to renew their fight against strikes and bureau social-"ISMS" ventures here on our home front.

DO YOUR FULL SHARE NOW!

Once again you are asked to buy at least one extra $100 war Bond. Buy more if you possibly can. Not only is it for the final Victory—it's for your future. Welcome the Victory Volunteer when he or she calls at your home.

Remember—the job in the Pacific is still terrific.
