Perseverance Will Win!

A study of the life of Abraham Lincoln teaches us this great truth as does, perhaps, no other character in American history. Failure and doubt, as a part of human achievements fade, and a certainty looms whenever this trait is dominant in any man's or nation's life.

Lincoln as a youth, had a yearning for knowledge, and with him it was not idle wishing. He worked for it by the side of a pine knot fire after the end of a hard day of labor.

This is a part of the character of Americans today, woven into the fibers of our beings by the hard pioneer school through which we have passed.

If we are to emerge a great nation, this same determination to achieve must be in our determination to win this world struggle in a way that will guarantee to us that freedom of living for which this great emancipator gave his best efforts and his life.

Lincoln never quit; we must not falter.
