Last of Rotary's 4-Lecture Course Very Satisfactory

Perhaps the most informative and interesting lecture of the series closed the four-lecture course of the Institute of International Understanding, sponsored by Cisco Rotary club, when Major H. G. Scott, Canadian soldier, journalist and lecturer, spoke at the high school auditorium Thursday evening on the "Role of the North American Continent."

Envisioning the North American continent and the Russian sphere as the two centers of world power in the future, Major Scott developed a thesis for the maintenance of future peace on the possibility that by the cooperation of the Russian world and the two great English-speaking races a formula of international policing, as often tried with failure, might be made to work.

There is encouragement for the hope that such a system may be made effective now, he said. He pointed out that the three great nations upon which responsibility for it would rest have each made a success of welding conglomerate peoples into strong, secure and peaceful communities. America has demonstrated its ability to do so by accepting nationalities of all character and fusing them into one great nation of Americans. The British Empire has developed an empire of many different peoples into a globe-girdling association of commonwealths and colonies, while Russia seems fairly on the way to assimilating scores of differing nationalities into one vast Slav state. Thus, he pointed out, we can reasonably hope for an effective world organization, based on law and order preserved through international policing and administration of justice, by the fact that the dominant nations arising out of conflict are nations which have within their own spheres demonstrated an ability to produce and maintain sound, peace-bearing government.

Russia, however, is an enigma, he said. Stalin, with more power than the old Tsars and even more closely shrouded from public view, typifies the mysterious soul of Russia, a soul rarely and faintly revealed in suggestions of its character. About Russia, he said, we can only hope.

But before North America and the world, if a stable and enduring peace comes, there stretch limitless possibilities for science and industry which, by the conquest of natural obstacles and the use of latent resources, may contribute to the effective foundation of world order and international peace.

He mentioned as examples the conquest of the vast desert areas of the globe and its equally great areas of bitter climate into which the crowding populations of certain sections might spill for peaceful and prosperous living.

"Think what science could have accomplished in this direction if there had been made available for it only a fraction of the enormous cost poured into this war," he said.

"All of what we may say here must be considered from the basis of pure conjecture, but within the limits of this qualification we are privileged to suggest a future that is entirely possible," he said.

Responding to a question about Russia's probable entry into the war with Japan, he again pointed to the Russian enigmas, but hazarded the opinion that at the proper time Russia would send a note to Japan, politely referring to the cordial relations between these powers and suggesting it would be to the harmony of these relations if Japan could immediately evacuate all of Manchuria, "and that Russia would like an answer within 48 hours."

The speaker was introduced by Rev. J. R. Wright, who expressed regret that the lecture was the last of this year's institute, and

Graham Drew Fine Picture Scotland; Omitted Bagpipe

The Rotary program Thursday, in charge of Dr. E. L. Graham, was pronounced up to, if not better than his usual high standard, since he not only talked interestingly of Scotland himself, but very ingeniously contrived to lead Maj. H. G. Scott, Rotary Institute lecturer, into what was pronounced a very enlightening discussion of Edinburgh, one of the extremely beautiful and very historical cities of Scotland.

Several Rotarians were absent but it was announced that some of them had or would make up their attendance. Mrs. Ernest Hillson served as pianist in place of Miss Doris Jamison, who was reported at home with measles. Glen Duggan of Abilene was a guest. At the business session the club voted to send Miss Jamison flowers.

Dr. Graham said he had not discovered he was to have the program until reading the Rotator during lunch but, despite the time handicap, he took his cue from the visitor present who was born in Scotland and educated in Edinburgh, and began telling about his own experiences in 1927 when he visited that city. His most interesting stories were his experiences in a barber shop and in finding lodging commensurate with his ability to pay.

This started Major Scott to talking, although he had refused to be on the doctor's program, and the remainder of the time was filled with answers to questions that brought out the beauties, traditions, customs and historical facts regarding this city and its people. Stories concerning the naturally strong winds blowing across from the North Sea and safety measures adopted by the police for protection, and a description of the famous Scotch memorial built on top of a famous castle, held the interest of the audience.

HART FUNERAL SATURDAY.

Funeral of Dave Hart, who died suddenly Tuesday afternoon at his home on the Eastland highway, will be held at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Twelfth-st. Methodist church, with burial following in Oakwood cemetery. Officiating ministers will be Rev. C. A. Warden and Rev. C. S. Moad and Thomas funeral home will be in charge of the remains. Pallbearers will be R. B. Kinsey, J. L. Thornton, Joe Brown, Omar Fenley, Paul Booth.

HUGE HEN EGGS.

The Daily Press wishes to thank Mrs. Norman Zahn for a dozen of the largest white leghorn eggs we have ever seen. They were unbelievably large and seven of the twelve contained two yolks.

Mr. and Mrs. Zahn, formerly in the grocery and meat market business in Cisco, are lessees of the J. F. Aisup farm, three miles west of Cisco on the Abilene highway. They have about 200 laying hens at present.

SEABOURN IN TEMPLE.

Pfc. Arnold L. Seabourn, 38 years of age and Cisco-born, has returned to McCloskey general hospital, Temple, after a 30-day furlough, spent here with his wife and infant son, 512 west Ninth street; also his mother, Mrs. S. W. Seabourn, 1500 A avenue. The Ciscoan spent more than a year overseas with the 812-bomber squadron, based in England. He has two brothers in the service—Sgt. Woodrow Seabourn, in Germany, and Gordon Seabourn, seaman in the Pacific area.

Cisco Negroes Joined in Red Cross Campaign

The Daily News is pleased to print the following communication from Rev. W. H. Burks, pastor of St. Mark's Baptist church, which has to do with the formation of a Civic league and contributions to the Red Cross by members of that organization and, others:

"We, the Negroes of Cisco, wish to recommend our civic league to our white authorities and the public in general. We also desire to report our contributions to the Red Cross, which was done through the civic league.

"We feel our responsibility is to do all we can to help maintain the ideals and principles of America by coming to the rescue of the needy prisoners of war, wounded and destitute, and other sufferings of humanity. We count it a great privilege to help hasten the day of everlasting peace in all the world.

"In this effort I (Rev. W. H. Burks) and the better-thinking Negroes of Cisco formed a civic league, in order that our part of the program might be carried out, and not fail in any matter.

"We are asking our white officials to accept this, and we will assure you that in the next Red Cross drive we will do our share."

The body appointed Rev. W. H. Burks as chairman of the league and spokesmen for Negroes in general throughout Cisco in all important matters.

Clubwomen of 6th District Meet in April, Brownwood

Mrs. C. D. Bruce of Santa Anna, Sixth district president of Texas Federation of Women's clubs, says final plans for the thirtieth annual conference of the organization have been completed. Brownwood city federation will be host to the club this year, April 9 and 10, the session beginning at 2:30 p. m. on the 9th, at Hotel Brownwood. Brownwood clubs will entertain the visiting women at tea in the home of Mrs. Mark Callaway, district secretary-treasurer.

The international relations department will be featured at the night meeting, and songs and prayers will be in English and Spanish. Technicolor films loaned by the National Railways of Mexico will be shown and Miss Ethel Foster, state president of women's clubs, and Mrs. Bruce will speak on the part of club women in the good neighbor policy.

Metcalf Bill to Cure Waste in Texas Public Schools

AUSTIN, March 23.—The house education committee has scheduled the senate's Metcalf bill for a hearing next week. The purpose of this bill is to concentrate the authority and responsibility for the distribution and accounting for textbooks in the state board of education.

The state department of education has a share in them now; and this division, somewhat aggravated by a lack of due co-operation, is held by those who have studied the matter to be one of the reasons why the state has been buying a great many more adopted textbooks than are needed. There are greatly varying opinions as to the measure of the waste, but the highest estimate heavily discounted leaves an amount which is amply worth saving.

Textbooks are distributed on requisition of local school authorities, who are made custodians of them and are required to make strict accounting at stated times for their disposition.

Among other things he reported finding unbroken shipping cases of textbooks in storerooms of schools that had never been opened, though they had been on hand long after the time they should have been put into the hands of the pupils for whose use they had been requisitioned.

In some instances the books had become mildewed and rotted beyond utility.

All of which, as well as other forms of waste, are profitable to book publishers, at the expense of the school fund.

House Pension Increase Gets Okeh of Senate

AUSTIN, March 23.—The sum of $52,800,000 a year in state and federal funds was made available to old-age assistance recipients for the next biennium by provisions of a house bill passed by the senate which increased the state aid $300,000 a month.

The measure, which also carries the same provisions for the remainder of the present fiscal year, goes back to the house for concurrence in an amendment which limits the operating expenses of the state department of public welfare to 3 per cent of the total receipts from state and federal sources. It is expected the house will approve the measure in time for it to become effective next month.

The senate voted the $300,000 monthly increase from state funds despite the fact it was shown that an increase of $165,000 a month by the state, matched by federal funds, would pay all grantees the full amount to which they are entitled under provisions of the law.

The hike in old-age pensions amounts to more than $3 a month for each of the 170,000 persons now on the rolls. Senator A. M. Aikin, Jr., informed the Senate that the sum of $165,000 would restore a recent cut of $1.25 per person plus 20 per cent additional for increased expenses of operation. That, Aikin pointed out, totals $1.45. The senate amendment calling for a hike of $165,000 would have amounted, when matched with federal moneys, to more than a $2 increase.

Senator Pat M. Bullock, however, spoke in favor of the $300,000 increase set in the bill by the house, asserting that the senate would be certain to provide all the funds necessary in this way. The hike will cost the state $3,600,000 each year of the biennium and $1,500,000 for the remainder of the fiscal year.

WITH SWIFT TANK-LED RUSHES FIRST UKRAINIAN ARMY GROUP NOW THREATENS 5 BIG CITIES

LONDON, March 23.—Marshal Konev's new Silesian offensive rolled forward along an 80-mile front today toward the inner mountain fortress of Germany where Adolf Hitler's SS men have been reported making preparations for a final stand.

With swift tank-led rushes, Konev's First Ukrainian army group threatened five large Silesian cities — Frankenstein, Neisse, Ziegenhaals, Leobschuetz and Ratibor — in the Moravian mountains and already was reported fighting in one of them and in the suburbs of another.

On the Berlin front the German high command announced that Marshal Zhukov attacked from the flanks of his Oder bridgehead at Kuestrin, 38 miles east of Berlin, with strong tank and infantry forces.

The Germans declared that the attack was smothered in a storm of German fire and 55 Soviet tanks were destroyed, but Stockholm reports and an American broadcast from Moscow declared a full-scale assault on Hitler's capital was immediately at hand.

Moscow reports suggested that Konev's reports suggested that Konev's victory in upper Silesia was paving the way for the Berlin attack.

A breakthrough of 25 miles, celebrated in Moscow last night by a victory salute, was hailed by Ivestia as "most important and in a direction dangerous for Germany."

Quick fall of the five threatened cities, Moscow dispatches said, would be the tip-off that Germany lacked sufficiently heavy forces in Bohemian passes, and there would be an immediate advance upon Prague, capital of Czechoslovakia.

The threatened smash into Prague would penetrate to the heart of the southern fortress area where Hitler has contemplated making his last stand, cut the northern communications of Vienna and outflank that Austrian capital.

Frankenstein, at the northwest end of the front, is 106 miles northeast of Prague and 160 miles north of Vienna.

Vienna already was threatened from the east by a new offensive between Lake Balaton and the Danube.

The German high command today announced a new retreat on that front, where Berlin said the Russian thrust neared Komaron on the Danube, 89 miles east of Vienna. Komaron, on the north side of the Danube and east of the Vag river, is one of the most important strongholds guarding Vienna.

Already, Moscow announced Konev had captured industrial Neustadt in the center of the front, killed or captured 45,000 Germans and reached to within a mile of the Czech border.

EXTEND DRAFT LAW.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The house passed unanimously and sent to the senate today legislation extending the draft law for one year beyond May 15, 1945. The measure was discussed less than five minutes and passed without a record vote under procedure requiring unanimous consent. One objection could have blocked it, but there was none.

UNDERGROUND FACTORY.

U. S. FIRST ARMY ACROSS THE RHINE, March 23.—A huge $1,000,000 underground Nazi factory carved out of solid mountain rock has been captured by American doughboys who found it crowded with 1,500 German civilians and 500 slave laborers.

Yanks Will Pour Across Rhine In Great Waves Soon

LONDON, March 23.— There was every sign today that the time of the "one last heave together" in the European war is here. Prime Minister Churchill said recently that such a heave plainly would end the war.

PARIS—Berlin said shortly after noon today that Field Marshal Montgomery "seems to be ready" for a grand scale crossing of the Rhine on a smoke-shrouded 65-mile front from Dueseldorf to Arnhem, where German targets were blasted by massed artillery and bombers.

An earlier enemy report said assault crossings already had been started. Supreme headquarters maintained a cagey silence; front reporters were cramped by security regulations.

Far to the south, Lt. Gen. Patton's Third army captured Mainz (150,000) and Landau, a fortified Palatinate road center, and was mopping up the chemical capital of Ludwigshafen (143,417).

First army's east-Rhine front was widened to 31 miles when Lt. Gen. Hodges' shock troops captured the Rhine factory town of Neumied (20,320) after crossing the narrow Wied river at a dozen places, seven or eight miles from Coblenz. The First army pulled up to the Sieg river at the north end of the salient on a ten-mile front less than a dozen miles from the southern lip of the Ruhr basin.

The Seventh army captured heavily fortified Pirmasens (47,200) in the Siegfried line. Its Sixth armored division entered Worms, captured by the Third army, and reached the Rhine two days ago after a 60-mile dash through the Palatinate in 19 hours.

Phenomenal smoke screen drifts obscured the winding lower Rhine front from Nijmegen south almost to the Ruhr. Ross Munro of the Canadian press reported at 1 p. m.

"The Germans are manning their cost bank defenses where they expect Fildes Marshal Montgomery to unleash his lightning," he wrote. "There never has been a smokescreen like this before. For 40 miles it marks the line between the two forces."

Jap General Says He'll Recapture Iwo Jima, Saipan

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Sixty thousand tank-supported Japanese troops opened a new campaign in central China today as Premier Gen. Kuniaki Koiso promised to launch "an offensive toward the recapture of Iwo Jima, Saipan and Guadalcanal."

Koiso's bland pledge ignored the loss of another Philippine island — Guimaras, the 27th to be invaded by American assault forces — a new Australian amphibious advance in the Solomons and feverish defense preparations in Japan itself.

Japan's new China offensive stemmed from the Hankow area. It appeared to have a three-fold purpose — raiding the wheat crop of southern Honan and northern Hupeh provinces, knocking out U. S. air bases, and strengthening Nippon's "west wall" along the Chenghsien-Hankow sector of railways stretching from Manchuria to Canton in southern China.

TWO WARS.

It is hard now to remember clearly the first World War. Most Americans never got a clear picture of it. For we were late in entering that conflict and did the job rather easily, and treated it somewhat as a glorious adventure.

But there is no glory in this war. There is only a stern sense of duty and compulsion. It is harder in every way than the last war. Its problems have been greatly augmented by having to fight two wars at once—far apart and vastly different. As we look back now, that other war was only a mild preparation for what was destined to come, although it wrought changes in our thinking and our knowledge of the world.

Far greater are the changes now. We are so close to them, and so engrossed with many things, that it is hard to get our bearings and see ahead. We know, however, that there are immense movements under way in science, along many lines, and that postwar life is going to be very different from this in many ways. The face of the world may change swiftly. Perhaps too swiftly. For there is another great power—human nature—which changes far more slowly than these outward things. So there may be serious conflicts in human life for a long time to come.

NO. 2 KILLER.

When the present wars are ended, another will relentlessly still be going on. This is the war with cancer. It is killing people in this country at the rate of 165,000 a year. From 600,000 to 800,000 are now afflicted with it. If this ratio continues, millions of today's living Americans will become victims of this ruthless and deadly foe. Many of these deaths are avoidable.

About seventy to ninety per cent of all early cancer cases are curable if detected in time and given prompt and adequate treatment. But this requires a widespread education about cancer, sufficient detection clinics with equipment and training, and a much more general habit of periodical health examinations.

With a full-scale scientific research program, cancer might be reduced to a comparatively minor cause of death instead of being the No. 2 killer it is today. Just such a campaign, combining all these measures, is now planned by the American Cancer Society.

The American people became aroused over the ravages of tuberculosis. They financed anti-tuberculosis campaigns and now that once dread disease has been reduced to sixth place among the causes of death in the United States. But public funds to fight cancer amounted to only $750,000 last year.

By Act of Congress, April has been designated as "Cancer Control Month." The American Cancer Society is asking for a minimum of $5,000,000 to wage its intensified campaign.

If we all help out we can hasten the victory over this cruel destroyer. Certainly its death toll would be diminished, and useful lives, some perhaps close and dear to us, would be spared.

MORE ABOUT THE SAME THING

The abstract, contrary to a rather general opinion, does not cure the title, but rather reveals its condition, good or bad. Three things are strived for in the abstract. (1) To locate the property by field notes and plats. (2) To discover the true ownership as the records may reveal it. (3) To detect the liens and encumbrances, if any. The abstract serves many other useful purposes, but these three are most important.

"WE'RE HOME FOLKS"

POINT-FREE MEAT

Some confusion and misunderstanding exists concerning point requirements for meat processed through our locker plant. To clear up this misunderstanding we wish to explain how federal regulations work concerning the processing of meat at the locker.

- (1) If you owned an animal at least 60 days prior to its slaughter and will sign a statement to that effect we will kill it and put in your locker, point-free.
- (2) If you have put on 35 per cent of the weight of the animal at the time it is killed, regardless of the length of time you owned it, and will sign a statement to that effect, we will kill it and put it in your locker, point free.
- (3) If you have owned an animal from birth, if it is less than 60 days old, we can slaughter it and put it in your locker, point-free.
- (4) Animals killed and dressed before they are brought to us can be delivered to you or your locker, point-free.

We Can No Longer Supply Local Markets

Due to wholesale ceiling prices and the present price of live animals and also to the elimination of a portion of the subsidy, we will no longer be able to supply local markets with beef and with only a small amount of pork.

It is our recommendation that if you do not own a meat animal and wish to secure point-free meat, you buy either a hog or a calf, feed it for 60 days, after which we can process it for you, point-free.

All of our present lockers have been rented. We have room for 48 more small lockers that will rent for $10 per year, and we are now accepting deposits on these lockers. If and when they are all rented, and provided the manufacturers will supply them, these new lockers will be available. These deposits are taken with the specific understanding that we do not guarantee that we will have these lockers. At the end of 90 days if we see that we will not be able to secure them, all deposits will be refunded. If you are interested in one of these lockers, it is our advice to contact us at once. There is no more available space in this locker vault and we do not expect to ever enlarge after installation of these 48 lockers.
