COMBINED WITH CISCO DAILY NEWS AND CISCO AMERICAN AND ROUND-UP, NOVEMBER 1, 1937

VOLUME XXV.

CISCO, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 1945.

NUMBER 139.

MUDDLED NAZIS SHIFT FORCES

CISCO—1,614 ft. above sea; Lake Cisco—three miles long, 87 ft. deep at Williamson hollow concrete dam; fish hatchery; 127 blocks paving; A-1 high school; Junior college; natural gas, electric and ice plants; home of THE BOSS WALLOPER Work Glove

CISCO—One of the healthiest areas in U.S.A., with a countryside devoted to blooded cattle, hogs, sheep, peanuts, cotton, fruits, feeds, poultry, gas, oil; two railroads; Bankhead highway; huge concrete swimming pool; bass and crappie fishing.

People of Former Nazi-held Areas in Need Clothing

Cisco and Eastland county men, women and children are urged to search their closets thoroughly during April for any piece of spare good used clothing — in response to a call by the United National Clothing Collection organization — for the peoples of devastated European countries.

Mrs. W. C. Hogue is heading the drive in Cisco and will appreciate the helpful interest of all citizens. She has arranged to place boxes at the chamber of commerce, postoffice, Cisco Lumber Co., and also at the various school buildings.

The campaign will close with April and immediate shipment made to the United States Treasury Procurement Division, Washington, D. C.

The national goal is 150,000,000 pounds of good used clothing, and every community in the nation has been asked to help. By appointment from President Roosevelt, Henry J. Kaiser, shipbuilder, in conjunction with UNRRA, headed by Herbert Lehman, former governor of New York, is national chairman.

Infants' garments are most urgently needed, particularly warm knitted clothes. Next in demand are men's and boys' garments — overcoats, top-coats, suits, jackets, shirts, all types of work clothes including overalls and coveralls, sweaters, underwear, robes, pajamas and knitted gloves. Women's and girls' garments of all descriptions, with the exception of frivolous clothing, are also needed; caps and knitted headgear will be appreciated.

Blankets, afghans, sheets, pillowcases and quilts in serviceable condition are needed. Either oxford or high shoes of durable type with low or medium heels are desired, but shoes with high heels, open toes or open backs, evening slippers and novelty types cannot be used. All shoes collected should be mated and tied securely in pairs. Cotton, rayon, silk or woolen remnants one yard or more in length can also be used providing they are in good condition.

Reports from the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration which represent forty-four invasions reveal that as many war victims have died from exposure and lack of adequate clothing as have died from starvation.

Spurgeon Parks Died Yesterday Marlin Hospital

Spurgeon Burleson Parks of Cisco, who was born in the Pisgah community on April 19, 1892, died at 3:40 p. m. Tuesday at Bowie hospital, Marlin, where he had been for the past two weeks.

Formerly a farmer, Mr. Parks had lived in and near Cisco throughout his life. He was a conscientious Christian gentleman and a member of the Baptist church since the age of 20. At the time of his death he was a deacon in the First Baptist church of this city.

Mr. Parks was married to Miss Annie Horn, November 2, 1911, at Scranton, and is survived by the wife, two children and two grandchildren. The son, Lt. Spurgeon Parks of the navy air corps and stationed at Jacksonville, Fla., is here for the funeral. Also present for the last rites to her father is the daughter, Mrs. James Huddleston of Byrds, Texas. Other survivors are a brother, L. A. Parks of Scranton and two sisters, Mrs. H. S. Stubblefield and Miss Lucinda Parks, both of Cisco.

The funeral will be held at Cisco First Baptist church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, with burial in Oakwood cemetery. Rev. Arthur Johnson, church pastor, and Rev. George Parks of Roscoe, Tex., will be the officiating ministers. Thomas funeral home will be in charge of the remains.

Pallbearers will be F. E. Sheppard, Fred Grist, Algie Skiles, Jay Garrett, C. J. Stephens and A. D. Anderson.

Tension Tightens As Bowling Tournament Nears End

Cisco Lumber Co. took three straights from Cisco Gas Corporation and Paul's Chiros secured two of three games from The Man's Store at the bowling alleys last night.

Only three of the 16 men participating passed the 500 mark for their three games — Guy Morris with 513, E. Urban 508 and Pete Nance 503. However, it should be remembered that 450 is an excellent average for three games by non-professionals.

The first half of the men's tournament will come to a close with the games of Monday and Tuesday nights, and any one of five teams of the eight composing the league may be acclaimed winner at the end of the Tuesday night contest.

The Big Five have each won the following number of games: Postoffice, 23; Chiros, 22; Man's Store, 22; White Tire Shop, 21; Collins Hardware, 21.

Monday night schedule: Cisco Lumber vs. White Tire Shop; Collins Hardware vs. Cisco Gas Corporation.

CIVIL GOVERNMENT RETURNS—Official ceremony in Malacanang Palace, Manila, marks return of administration of civil affairs to Filipinos. Here Gen. Douglas MacArthur makes address to dignitaries of United States and Philippine Governments. Pres. Sergio Osmeña of Philippine Commonwealth, is at right foreground.

BY COURTESY OF ALLIES—Smiling mothers and babies, former German political prisoners at Anhalt, have nourishing food before being shipped to their countries. Prison is now a dispersal point. People in photo are Ukrainians. Nazis imprisoned both young and old.

Martin Says Medical Fraternity Lobby Strongest

AUSTIN, April 4.—During senate debate of a bill which would set up a board of chiropractic examiners and limit chiropractors' practice to the spine, the state medical fraternity was charged with having the strongest lobby in Texas. Senator Jesse Martin made the charge, asserting the measure was one which would protect the public.

The senate, by a vote of 14 to 13, refused to set the bill for special order April 10.

Senator Charles R. Jones was able to obtain consideration of a measure which would legalize gasoline pumps which measure the fluid in tenths of gallons, but so much opposition was generated against it, the senate voted to withhold final consideration until next Monday.

The one bill passed by voice vote, would, if approved by the house, allow employees to collect compensation for occupational disease. T. C. Chadwick, author of the measure, declared the present workmen's compensation law takes away from an employee the right to sue for compensation if he incurs a disease common to his occupation. The bill will increase insurance costs an average of $1.19 per $100, Chadwick said.

SWANVOY—In close formation behind their leader, this convoy of swans heads peacefully down the River Thames in England.

Cisco Lad Wears 5 Battle Stars and Unit Badge

A 12TH AAF B-25 GROUP, MEDITERRANEAN AREA. The number of times he could have been photographed in the above scene is quite a large one, as First Sgt. Melvin R. Johnston of Cisco, Tex., has been posting notices on this overseas bulletin board for the past 28 months. (Photo has been added to Daily Press picture gallery.)

The former grocery clerk in the A&P store at Cisco, who enlisted in the army in October, 1940, has been overseas with B-25 medium bombardment group since November, 1942. The group is currently engaged in the Battle of Brenner Pass, in which the enemy's most important supply artery for feeding the north Italian front is being effectively bombed by 12th Air Force Mitchell's under command of Brigadier Gen. Robert D. Knapp of Auburn, Ala.

Sergeant Johnston wears the American Defense ribbon, the European-African-Middle East ribbon, with five battle stars, and the group's Distinguished Unit Badge. His mother is Mrs. Dinie L. Johnston of Cisco.

Needed Sanitary Code Squeezed Through Senate

AUSTIN, April 4.—The senate refused to vote on a resolution by Senator Pat Bullock calling for a sine die adjournment of the legislature on May 9. The resolution was laid on the table subject to call.

A new state sanitary code affecting every person in the state squeezed by the senate by a vote of 13 to 12, and goes to the house. The measure sets up health regulations for everything from out-houses and septic tanks to health provisions under which hotels, tourist camps are regulated, how garbage is handled and pollution of streams and lakes.

Despite protests of Senator Allan Shivers that he did not appreciate insurance companies writing bills and seeking their enactment by the legislature without changes being made, the senate passed two bills governing fire and casualty insurance. They were designed, their backers said, to allow the state to retain control of the business for purposes of taxation and regulation. This was made necessary by a United States Supreme court ruling that when insurance rates are made by the companies, in agreement, it is in violation of the anti-trust laws. The bills passed Tuesday provide that the state, through rate-making bureaus, will set the rates. They also make other provisions for control of the business.

Two bills passed previously by the house which makes the same provisions for life insurance and which, in addition, equalize the rate of taxation between Texas companies and out-state corporations, will be considered by the senate today.

MANFORD ACT OK.

AUSTIN, April 4.—The Third Court of Civil Appeals today ruled on the disputed Manford Labor Act of the last session of the Texas legislature, holding parts valid and parts invalid. The decision held valid the requirement that paid labor union organizers must register with the Secretary of State, and said that the recent U. S. Supreme Court decision in dismissing contempt proceedings against R. J. Thomas, national head of the Automobile Workers Union, did not hold the provision unconstitutional.

BRITISH FORCES REACH EMS RIVER AND NINTH PULLS UP AT WESER; 3RD AT ARNSTADT

PARIS, April 4.—British troops reached the Ems river 48 miles from the North Sea today in a drive to trap up to 90,000 Germans in Holland, and Ninth Army tanks pulled up to the Weser, next to last important stream on the high road to Berlin.

The Third Army fought down the last 58 miles toward Czechoslovakia and for the city of Gotha, 140 miles southwest of Berlin. The Germans said Lt. Gen. Patton's troops had reached Arnstadt, 70 miles from Leipzig and 110 from the Czech city of Pilsen, where the great Skoda munitions works — Hitler's last major arsenal — are located. Arnstadt is 13 miles southeast of Gotha.

Lt. Gen. Simpson's Fifth Armored division reached the Weser at Bad Oeynhausen, 183 miles from Berlin, 57 south of Bremen and 103 southwest of Hamburg. A battalion of engineers rode along to bridge the river. The north German towns of Salzfusen, Dienhide and Hollide were captured on the way.

The Germans said the Canadians had crossed the Waal Rhine, presumably at Arnhem, in a drive toward the Zuider Zee—less than 20 miles from Gen. Henry Crear's vanguards.

(The Luxembourg radio asserted that German divisions were being shifted from the Russian to the disintegrating western front. The Ninth Army was said to have encountered the SS Viking panzer division, which arrived without tanks.)

The French First Army entered Karlsruhe, capital of Baden and an important communications and industrial center of 189,000 near the upper Rhine.

The Ninth Army's Second armored division fought past tightly hemmed Bielefeld to Deutmoide, 47 miles southwest of Hannover. The important cities of Osnabrueck, Munster, Aschaffenburg, Fulda, Siegen and Bruchsal fell.

Stormed and falling were Kassel, Gotha, Hamm, Karlsruhe, Heilbronn, Wuerzbach, Hengoie and Zutphen.

The American Seventh Army battled to the heart of the Bavarian city of Wuerzbach and closed to within 34 miles of Nuernberg on the front beyond the Main river. German resistance there was hardening.

Combined blows by the First and Ninth Armies closed down the perimeter of the Ruhr trap to 190 miles and Gen. Omar Bradley's headquarters raised the estimate on doomed German troops in the annihilation zone to between 120,000 and 150,000.

Little more than the width of Indiana separated Lt. Gen. Patton's Third Army from Russian front lines. The forces were last reported 160 miles apart nearly a day ago.

The Canadian First Army, forging a trap within a trap on the Germans once estimated at 90,000 in Holland, advanced to within less than 20 miles of the Zuider Zee and cut more communications of the rocket coast of the Netherlands from which the Nazis have bombed England.

Vienna Is Within Easy Range Russians' Big Guns

LONDON, April 4.—Powerful Soviet tank and infantry forces, surging through the administrative district of greater Vienna, smashed today to within six miles of the city proper, now within easy reach of Soviet artillery.

Two massive Russian armies already had deprived the defenders of Vienna of the great bastion of Wiener Neustadt, 22 miles to the south, and were closely pressing Bratislava, 24 miles east of the Austrian capital's city limits.

Wiener Neustadt, one of the biggest aircraft production centers of all Europe, fell to Marshal Tolbukhin's Third Ukrainian army which drove on 16 miles to the southwest, capturing Neunkirchen and Gloggnitz. The Russians cut the main Vienna-Venice railroad and a trans-Alpine highway connecting the war arsenals of Austria and Czechoslovakia with German troops in Italy.

At Gloggnitz the Russians were within seven miles of the 3,215-foot Semmering pass and were 137 miles east of Adolf Hitler's mountain retreat at Berchtesgaden.

Only One Voter Scratched Ballot in City Election

In the city election of yesterday Edward Lee was re-elected to the office of mayor for two years and J. J. Collins and George Boyd were returned to their seats on the city council for like terms.

Probably because there was no organized opposition to either of the three candidates, the total vote was deplorably small — too small to put in print—but it may be said that Mr. Lee received all votes cast, as did one of the commissioner candidates; the other commissioner aspirant was scratched by one lone voter.

The election officers, James Flournoy, Mrs. L. A. Harrison, Mrs. J. S. Mobley and Mrs. B. S. Huey, who served from 8 in the morning until after 7 at night—for which each received the sum of $5—had rather an easy time of it, although they too regretted the unusual lack of interest on the part of Cisco voters.

KESSELING IN POCKET?

U. S. NINTH ARMY, Germany, April 4.—Field Marshal Albert Kesselring is believed trapped in the Ruhr pocket between the American First and Ninth armies. The Marshal became supreme German commander in the west late last month, succeeding the deposed Field Marshal von Rundstedt. The pocket was estimated to contain from 120,000 to 150,000 Germans.

COLEMAN ACE KILLED.

COLEMAN, April 4.—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Jeanes have been notified by the war department that their son, 1st Lt. Parue Jeanes, 22, was killed over Luzin March 26. Pilot of a P-47 Thunderbolt, which he had christened the "Coleman Comet." Lieutenant Jeanes had made more than 150 combat missions. He held the Air Medal and many Oak Leaf clusters, and was credited with destroying three enemy planes in the air and four on the ground.

ME TOO—Daughter Barbara looks up expectantly for kiss as Sgt. Tommy Deutschle ardently greets his wife upon return home in Chicago from the European theater. Machine gunner Deutschle is credited with knocking out two Nazi gun nests at Metz.

FREE CITY OF DANZIG.

Danzig, one of the last-remaining strongholds on the Baltic coast, now taken by Russia, is often described as "the former free city." This is the epitaph on a promising political device which did not work. It was a city inhabited chiefly by Germans, also a sea outlet for Polish commerce. So that Poland should not be cut off from the sea, a corridor of Polish territory was created, running from the Polish interior through German East Prussia to the Baltic.

Danzig itself was made an independent community under the League of Nations. The term "free city" recalled the old German free cities, Hamburg, Bremen and Luebeck, which for centuries governed themselves independently.

The scheme failed through German insistence that Germany should not lose territory in the East, least of all to the Poles. To have their own outlet to the sea, the Poles developed as a port Danzig's neighbor, Gdynia. This hurt Danzig's trade, and was still another German grievance, capitalized by the Nazis. They practically controlled Danzig before the war, and it was one of the first districts to be annexed.

Under the Yalta agreement Danzig goes to Poland. Polish it is likely to remain.

AMAZONS.

One of the most surprising bits of war news lately has been the report from Germany that women and girls were attacking American infantry with grenades and bazookas, and sniping in house-to-house fighting.

If this is at all characteristic of Nazi procedure, the conquest of the Fatherland, although it cannot be long delayed, will be sadder than the Allies have expected. We are not accustomed to fighting women, and have no desire to become so, and hope that the Nazi leaders will have enough decency to keep their women-folk out of the tragic struggle now developing. But decency is one thing the Nazis have taught us not to expect from them.

Raymond Swing says the Allies must be temperate in making peace. Well, how about doing only three-fourths as much to the Germans as they have done to other nations?

WASHINGTON'S FARM.

(By ELIZABETH NEAVILL)

Mount Vernon, the ancestral estate of the Washingtons, was established four generations before our first president made the house what it is today. The first settlers, John Washington and Nicholas Spencer, received 5,000 acres of land on the Potomac river, 2,500 of which eventually came into the hands of John's great grandson, Lawrence Washington. Lawrence built the main part of the present house and called the property Mount Vernon, after the admiral under whom he had served in the British Navy. Upon the death of his daughter Sara, the estate passed to George Washington, the half-brother of Lawrence, who became the sole owner in 1761, although he had lived there "on shares" a few years previously.

During his lifetime George Washington enlarged the house and increased the estate to 8,000 acres, so that he died the richest man in America. He was a very intelligent farmer, operated three flour mills, practiced crop rotation, had a fine orchard, and grew Madeira grapes and pecans. He was the country's first conservationist, the first Virginian to raise mules, and at his death he freed all his slaves. His hospitality at Mount Vernon was one of the reasons why he was "first in the hearts of his countrymen."

MORE ABOUT THE SAME THING

The abstract, contrary to a rather general opinion, does not cure the title, but rather reveals its condition, good or bad. Three things are strived for in the abstract. (1) To locate the property by field notes and plats. (2) To discover the true ownership as the records may reveal it. (3) To detect the liens and encumbrances, if any. The abstract serves many other useful purposes, but these three are most important.
