Rotarians Nominate Fewell For Club President

W. W. Fewell was nominated for president for the year beginning July 1, 1945, and ending July 1, 1946, by the Rotary club Thursday, with two names presented for secretary. They were Pete Nance and Lonnie Shockley.

Stanley Webb, on leave from the service while recovering from a wound, talked to the club following the business meeting. Other business was the naming of A. C. Green, F. E. Shepard and W. C. Gunn for directors, while Bill Hogue and J. J. Callaway were both nominated for the office of vice-president.

Vice-president Fewell, who presided in the absence of J. W. Slaughter, appointed F. E. Shepard, J. E. Hays and Jesse Proctor to arrange for the business district cleanup, which was assigned the club by the City Federation of Women's clubs.

J. E. Hays, in charge of the program, presented B. A. Butler to introduce the speaker, because as Rotarian Butler admitted, he knew Sergeant Webb better than perhaps any other man in Cisco knew him. Butler said he found him as a plain country boy, but that while making good in all his work and in fighting across the seas, he was still just a plain, unassuming young man, doing his job well.

Webb began his talk by saying that he was not a speaker but he had made no effort to round out an organized talk. He said he would tell some of his experiences in the hope that they might prove of interest or let some father, perhaps, know what his own boy was going through.

He began with his embarkation on New Jersey on the Queen Elizabeth, in a group of 1,700 men who went to Scotland and finally to France for individual replacements. His talk continued with his experiences told modestly but vividly. Members expressed themselves greatly pleased with his remarks.

Seventh War Loan Success Loyalty Test

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Washington, D. C. April 13, 1945.

Arch B. O'Flaherty, The Daily Press, Cisco, Texas.

My Dear Sir:

Next to the fighting forces, the second most important war activity is providing the money to carry on the war. These two constitute the foundation upon which victory rests. All other war efforts fall below them in the list.

This letter is to warn you that there can be no anticlimax in the newspapers' war financing program. Not if the glorious record which we now have is to be recognized at the finish.

All of the space which you have sold, can later sell, can spare for any purpose, will be needed to meet the bigger quotas of the Seventh Loan—and until the last fighting Jap joins his ancestors.

Do not yield to any temptation to reallocate to other purposes, even to other war activities, that space or effort which you have committed in the past to the support of war financing—nor otherwise commit future potentials to the end that War Bond space would be less than the maximum your newspaper supply makes possible.

I venture to give you this advance warning with the knowledge that our newspapers face the greatest local achievement test they have ever encountered. The Seventh War Loan and the financing to follow it will be tough. Our laurels are great but not great enough to rest upon.

You'll need every column you can spare up before it's over. Let's lick it!

FRANK E. TRIPP, Chairman Allied Newspaper Council.

TOBACCO RAID—Nazi civilians clamor around a tobacconist's shop in Frankfurt, Germany. Some are climbing the store windows to raid the proprietor of his smoking wares. This confusion follows capture of the city by U. S. 3rd Army Troops.

UNGRATEFUL—Yanks guide Japanese women and children to civilian security shelters from war zone dangers on Okinawa. They were fobbed by American troops and Marines in early days of invasion. Expressions reveal they are not appreciative of Yank courtesies.

Red Cross Wants List of Casualties Since Jan. 1

In order that the Eastland county Red Cross may complete its files, Forrest D. Wright requests that the names of all service men of the county who have been killed, wounded or captured since January 1, 1945, be mailed to Mrs. Joseph Perkins, county Red Cross chairman, Eastland.

The completed list will be very valuable in many ways, said Mr. Wright and the only way to make it complete and thorough is through cooperation of friends or relatives of the service men, many of whom passed through other draft boards than that of Eastland county, hence are not of record at the county seat.

LEES COME HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Lee have arrived in Cisco from New Jersey and are looking for a rental house. The former Ciscoan, a member of the Seabees until recently, has just been discharged from a government hospital and from the service. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Lee are in the home of his brother, Mayor Edward Lee.

Pharmacist Mate Bean of Cisco Hospital Favorite

AT A NAVAL BASE IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC. — How about a pill, Doc? Pharmacist Mate Second Class Leonard M. Bean, 19-year-old corpsman from Cisco, Texas, pours a glass of water for Stanley F. Zane, Jr., 21-year-old electrician's mate second class, of San Francisco. (Photo of Doc and his patient accompanied the communication).

A favorite of the men in his ward of a South Pacific hospital, Bean has been dubbed "The Texas as Barrymore" by his patients because — as Zane explains — "we sometimes push him too far and he emotes with mock-severity, 'suffer, damya, suffer!'"

Zane was wounded in an air raid on his ship during the invasion of Luzon. He's convalescing nicely.

TRUMAN PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, April 13. — President Harry S. Truman today proclaimed Saturday as a day of mourning and prayer throughout the United States in respect to the late Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Major Harvey to Attend Eastland Service Meeting

EASTLAND, April 13.—Major Fred Harvey, veteran officer of World Wars 1 and 2, will head a delegation of representatives from Camp Bowie which will attend the special county-wide meeting sponsored by the newly organized American Mothers and Wives Service Society, which will be held at American Legion hall in Eastland next Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock.

Major Harvey, personnel officer at Camp Bowie, who has had much experience in dealing with the personal problems of service men, will be one of the featured speakers of the evening, says Mrs. Tom Lovelace, chairman of the new organization.

Other special guests from Camp Bowie will include Major William T. Benson, post chaplain, and Mrs. Leta M. Shelton, service club hostess.

Mothers and wives of service men in Eastland county and the general public are cordially invited to attend this big meeting during which the aims, principles and proposed activity of the newly organized service society will be explained, the chairman states.

FD Led the World in Its Greatest Fight for Liberty

AUSTIN, Texas, April 13.—Gov. Coke R. Stephenson, deploring the untimely death of President Roosevelt, said he had not only been president of the United States, but the leader of Democratic forces all over the world. "American people always deplore the loss of a great leader and they will be especially grieved by the president's untimely death in the present world crisis. Mr. Roosevelt was not only president of the United States, but he was the leader of Democratic forces all over the world in the struggle for liberty.

"His victory prosecution of the war undoubtedly shortened his life and it was most regrettable that he did not live to see the approaching hour of complete victory."

Ceiling of Thirty Million For Texas Needy is Approved

AUSTIN, April 13.—A ceiling of $30,000,000 of state funds annually on old-age pensions, aid for dependent children and the blind and a more equitable distribution of the social security fund has been approved by the senate committee on constitutional amendments.

The committee recommended to the senate passage of a resolution submitting a proposal to the voters to allow the legislature to allocate pensions and aid to the children and blind within the limit placed, but to redistribute the funds. Action was on an amendment offered by Senator James Taylor to a resolution recently passed by the house, which raises the ceiling on aid to needy children.

Senator Taylor pointed out that the total amount paid by Texas last year for old-age pensions, aid to the blind and dependent children was $24,328,205 and that the ceiling proposed in the constitutional amendment is nearly $6,000,000 more than that.

The state money paid out last year was $22,341,363 to the aged, $1,309,852 to the dependent children and $672,205 to the blind.

Taylor estimated that under the $30,000,000 ceiling an equitable distribution would give the aged $26,250,000 in state aid, or far more than they received last year, the dependent children approximately $3,000,000 and the blind $750,000. That would nearly triple the aid to children and increase the fund for the blind more than $100,000.

Postpone Action to Increase Tax on Natural Gas

AUSTIN, April 13.—The house revenue and taxation committee has postponed until April 18, three weeks before the scheduled end of the legislature's session, further consideration of bills to tax natural gas.

The vote for postponement was 11 to 6. It came after C. S. McLellan of Eagle Pass Lake, coauthor of a bill to tax gas carried in pipelines 5c a thousand cubic feet, had pleaded with the committee to approve his bill or kill it now.

Representative Jap Lucas of Athens asked further time for the attorney general's department to reply to his inquiry concerning possible ways of taxing gas which is exported to other states without taxing gas consumed in Texas by the same amount. The present gas production tax is 5.2 percent of value at the well.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, 31ST PRESIDENT, WILL BE BURIED SUNDAY MORNING, HYDE PARK

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., April 13.—Franklin D. Roosevelt left at 10:13 a. m. today on his last journey to the white house.

His body was placed in a copper-lined, mahogany casket. Four servicemen stood watch as a guard of honor over him as the special train that brought him here for a rest was prepared for the sad return as a general cortege.

The train will make a slow run to Washington. It is scheduled to arrive in the capital's Union station at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

The president died at 3:35 p. m. yesterday of a cerebral hemorrhage that struck him 2 1/2 hours earlier. Death came to him in a small bedroom of "The Little White House" at the Warm Springs foundation, his "other home." He was 63.

Funeral services will be held in the east room of the white house at 3 p. m. Saturday. The body will not lie in state. At 9 p. m. the same day, the funeral party will leave Washington by train for the ancestral Roosevelt estate on the Hudson at Hyde Park, N. Y. It will arrive there at 8 a. m. Sunday.

The president will be buried at 9 a. m. Sunday in the family garden between his Hyde Park home and the Franklin D. Roosevelt library — a garden bordered by a hemlock hedge and a profusion of rose bushes.

Mr. Roosevelt came here March 30 for one of his periodic visits to seek rest and to bask in the sun. He had planned to stay another week, then return to Washington, spend a day and start out again for a cross-country trip to San Francisco to open the world security conference April 25.

Mrs. Roosevelt arrived last night from Washington. She flew in an army plane to Fort Benning at nearby Columbus with Stephen T. Early, white house secretary, and Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire, white house physician and navy surgeon general.

Warm Springs village and its nearby foundation for after-treatment of infantile paralysis—which Mr. Roosevelt helped found after he had been stricken and crippled by the disease — were stunned by the news of the passing of the nation's 31st president and its first chief executive to serve more than two terms.

He was elected to a fourth term a little more than five months ago and was inaugurated January 20, Ten days before his birthday.

Many had tears in their eyes as they passed the word of Mr. Roosevelt's demise among polo patients and foundation officials. The patients were looking forward to a visit from the president early last night. They were to put on a minstrel for him, then re-do the act tonight for others.

Com. Howard Bruenn on the staff of the navy surgeon general, told the story calmly: That President was in excellent spirits at 9:30 a. m. but at 1 o'clock complained of a "very severe occipital (back of the head) headache."

"Within a very few minutes," the doctor added, "he lost consciousness. He was seen by me at 1:30 p. m., 15 minutes after the episode had started. He did not regain consciousness and died at 3:35 p. m."

Miss Laura Delano, a cousin of the President who was in the cottage at the time, said Mr. Roosevelt was sitting in his leather chair in the living room beside the fireplace. A New York artist, N. Robbins was sketching the President when Mr. Roosevelt put a hand to the back of his head and said: "I have a terrific headache."

Those were the last words he uttered. He lost consciousness almost immediately.

Nazi Cities Taken in Their Order as Yanks March On

PARIS, April 13.—The American Ninth army pressed within 48 miles of Berlin today in a 60-mile armored dash to Tangermunde, outflanking Denmark, Hamburg and Luebeck.

Far behind the lines menacing Berlin, the Ninth army captured Duisburg, a Ruhr city of 431,256 which was Europe's greatest inland port. Duisburg, 14th largest city of Germany, is in the swiftly shrinking Ruhr annihilation pocket where tens of thousands of Nazis were trapped.

The swift advance of the Fifth armored division to Tangermunde, where the Nazis announced they had blown Elbe river bridges, placed the Ninth army within 93 miles of Russian lines facing Berlin from the east.

The third army in the center beat down the last 18 miles to the great Saxony city of Leipzig in a drive east to bisect Germany, join the Russians and bar access from the north to the national redoubt in the Bavarian Alps. The Germans said American tanks were fighting in Halle, 15 miles from Leipzig, after bypassing the Medieval cathedral city of Merseburg.

Railway Trainmen Ask for Stronger Jim Crow Measure

AUSTIN, April 13.—Provisions of a present law which prevents Negroes sitting in cars of trains or sections of street cars and interurbans reserved for white persons are strengthened in a bill recommended favorably to the senate by its committee on criminal jurisdiction.

The present law provides that the conductor shall remove a Negro from a reserved section of a train or streetcar, but does not specifically provide that peace officers shall remove one who refuses to obey the law. The bill approved provides that a peace officer shall arrest the offender. It also contains a proviso that the conductor shall be liable to a fine of $5 to $25 should he fail to notify a peace officer of the refusal of a Negro to leave a reserved car or section.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen is seeking the new law, according to Joe Steadham, who appeared to represent that organization. He said that superintendents of some railroads had instructed trainmen not to enforce the law as it is now written.

"We want to segregate the Negroes and the whites on the trains," Steadham said. "We believe that after this war there will be a necessity for a stronger law under which we can do this to prevent trouble and believe it is best for all concerned that the two classes be segregated on carriers in Texas."

NO VICE-PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The United States now has no vice-president and will have none for the next three years and nine months. Secretary of State Stettinius is next in line for presidency, but does not automatically become vice-president. The chief duty of the office of vice-president, to preside over the senate, falls to Senator Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee, president pro tempore, who now becomes the permanent presiding officer.

EVERY BODY'S HAPPY—Citizens of Frankfurt crowd into streets to watch U. S. 3rd Army troops advance through the city. Smiling Yanks walk straight ahead, mindful of the laws against fraternizing with Germans. Laughing girls are calling to them.

THE NEW PRESIDENT.

In a statement following the sad but not unexpected death of America's great president, Franklin D. Roosevelt, yesterday afternoon, Vice President Harry S. Truman, after being sworn in as the nation's thirty-second president, issued a statement that the United Nations' conference at San Francisco, called for April 25, will go on as scheduled.

It is a great pity that Mr. Roosevelt cannot be present at this momentous gathering; but, fate having willed otherwise, it is reassuring to know that a man of President Truman's caliber will either be there in person or will be in close touch with proceedings from his office in the nation's capital. President Truman, it may be remembered, was Mr. Roosevelt's personal choice for the office of vice president. Many Americans who did not support Mr. Roosevelt for a fourth term as president, are now thoroughly convinced that F. D.'s choice of Harry Truman was sound and sane.

Much is hoped for the approaching conference. But whatever good is accomplished will depend on the spirit of the delegates and their attitude toward each others' countries.

There is no reason why representatives of the United States and Russia should put on airs just because they happen to be the strongest nations in the world, although these two countries and Great Britain will in the future as at present, be compelled to carry the heaviest part of the load attendant on victory now and permanent peace later.

We should be, and will be, treated respectfully. But it is an old American idea that no citizen should humble himself unduly in the presence of any other citizen. It is also an old and admirable principle that no nation should feel obliged to humble itself unduly before any other nation, or indeed before all other nations together.

It is probably safe to say that if the powerful countries, especially the United States and Russia, are careful not to swagger, not to look down on representatives of small nations, and not to assume any international rights or privileges closed to other nations, then the conference will be successful. The conditions for success of an international pow-wow are not necessarily different from those of a house party or a neighborhood picnic.

We have but nine of those fine corsets left and some of them have suspenders at the bottom—you will like them; and those brassieres are here in all colors and sizes. A swell line of men's ties, the kind they wore in the "dark ages." We managed to secure the few that were left and you will like them; the same width at both ends; 98c value for only 25c. Only two pair ladies silk hose left—one black, the other a jay-bird color. They are short of your expectation, but worth 50c. Our same fitter is still with us, so hurry. Thank you. Vice-President in charge of Tomorrow!

Yes, she's a woman.

Wife. Mother. Cook. Maid of all work. Partner with her man in the going concern we Americans call home.

More than that, as keeper-of-the-household-budget, she's salting away every cent the family doesn't absolutely need for upkeep in a little project she likes to call Tomorrow.

She's putting her money in WAR BONDS... the soundest financial backing anyone's Tomorrow ever had.

And because she's a shrewd woman, she is determined to hold on to those War Bonds in spite of any temptation she has to cash them in. She knows that by holding her War Bonds until they mature, they'll be worth $4 for every $3 she put into them. And she'll have that money when Tomorrow comes!

Of course, the beauty of it all is that, in the meantime, she's giving her country patriotic help in winning the war today!

Smart woman! America needs millions like her
