BERLIN FIGHT NEARS ITS END

FORMER GREAT CAPITAL NOW AN UNSIGHTLY WRECK, WITH PANIC, DEMORALIZATION EVERYWHERE

LONDON, April 24.—Panic and demoralization was reported spreading through blazing Berlin today as victory-flushed Soviet troops captured more than a third of the capital and hammered toward its heart, while in southern Germany three Allied armies were hurled against the outer ramparts of the Bavarian redoubt.

The German high command announced that Russian troops had struck half way across Austria and were 57 miles southwest of Linz and 89 miles east of Berchtesgaden. Salzburg was 85 miles away. By German account the Russians were 155 air miles from the U. S. Third army.

Fierce fighting swirled through almost half of wrecked Berlin by last night, Germans said, as the Russians plunged ahead over scores of bodies of Germans who had been forbidden to retreat.

The Germans said Hitler personally directed their battle. Unconfirmed, neutral reports said the fighting reached famed Unter Den Linden.

To the southwest Soviet tanks drew up to the Elbe, and were reported last night 20 miles from American positions.

The German communique, broadcast by the Hamburg radio, declared Germans still were resisting on the northern and eastern edges of Berlin.

Berlin may already have been encircled. The Russians announced last night that their forces to the west were only 16 miles apart. The Luxembourg radio said they had met.

Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First White Russian army, driving into and sweeping around the city to the north, captured Oranienburg, 17 miles northeast of the heart of the city, took nearby Birkenwerder, surged across the Havel river, and won Hennisdorf.

An unconfirmed Moscow dispatch said the great Tempelhof airfield in the southern part of Berlin had been captured.

The German capital was effectively isolated from the Nazi national redoubt in the Bavarian Alps by the Russian rush to the Elbe at Muehberg, northwest of Dresden.

PARIS, April 24.—The three-army assault on the outer ramparts of the German Alpine redoubt burst across the Danube at a third place today, overran the traffic center of Ulm and carried to within 105 miles of Hitler's hideout at Berchtesgaden.

An American-Russian junction was expected momentarily in the center, splitting Germany.

Troops of the American Third army pressed to within 93 miles of the Austrian strongholds of Linz and Salzburg, eastern gateways to the southern redoubt.

The Seventh army closed down the last 50 miles toward Munich and the French First army advanced close to the Austrian frontier and reduced three large pockets behind the lines.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The war labor board has unanimously directed the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., to increase wages $2 to $5 a week for 31,000 employees in 444 localities in Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas. The increases are retroactive to last Aug. 29.

MAY 15—Air mail service established, 1918.

Morris Starred as Summer Keg Tournament Opened

The opening session of the men's summer bowling tournament last night was an enthusiastic affair and a number of good scores were made.

Thomas Funeral Home captured three straights from Humble Oil Co. and U. S. Postoffice bagged two of the three from Collins Hardware.

Guy Morris, who usually makes a creditable showing and derives about as much real fun from the game as any human, bowled and laughed himself into both the high average and the high total for the evening. His high for one game was 232 and his total for the three games 602.

April 30 schedule: U. S. Postoffice vs. Thomas Funeral Home; Collins Hardware vs. Humble Oil Co.

PEACE PRAYER SERVICE

Rev. O. L. Savage announces that a thirty-minute prayer service will be held at First Presbyterian church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, at which time there will be prayers for divine guidance of the representatives of the many nations now gathering at San Francisco in an effort to formulate plans looking to permanent peace in the world. The meeting will be an informal affair and all citizens who can attend will be cordially welcomed.

Cisco Lad Won a Silver Star For Fine Initiative

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Cannon of Cisco have received a most interesting letter from their son, Corp. A. B. Cannon of the 9th TCC Pathfinder group, Germany, who has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action. He is 20 years of age and has been overseas two years.

The portion of the Cisco boy's letter of the most interest to the public was as follows:

"Well, Dad, here goes, as you have always wanted something to put in the paper. Don't know how far it will get, but it is the best I can do.

"We are picked men from our division and we carry radar equipment to guide incoming planes to certain zones. The work is very secret and we jump off from thirty minutes to an hour before the rest of the troop and gliders come in. We set up our machine and panels and show them where to land. We also drop supplies for army units who need us, whether airborne or not. That's about all I can say on the subject, but you may like to know that my Silver Star came through and that it is the third highest award of the army. I will copy the citation for you, but must keep the order. It reads:

"A. B. Cannon, then private but now corporal, for gallantry in action on Sept. 17, 1944, at * * *, Germany. Private Cannon was an assistant squad leader. Anti-aircraft flak struck the plane carrying Private Cannon's squad as the ship approached a drop zone. Before the plane could be brought under control the drop zone had been passed. The squad was forced to jump east of the town of * * *. The officer in command was injured in the jump. Flak hits had set the equipment bundles afire and several flak positions nearby began to fire on the squad before the men were able to assemble. Private Cannon gathered three men and attacked the enemy to draw their fire from his squad. He placed his rifleman to cover his advance and then, single-handed, attacked several German positions, killing two of the enemy in fox holes and forcing the surrender of five others. He was able to reduce the effectiveness of the enemy position and permit his squad to assemble and organize to combat other enemy groups in vicinity. He entered military service from Texas."

Cisco Elks Offer Site For Permanent Legion Home

Two of the most interesting talks that have ever been made before a meeting of the American Legion in Cisco were heard last night by members of the Cisco post as Capt. Jim Berry, bomber pilot with 30 months of service in the South Pacific and Radarman Lee Guthrie, U. S. N., who served two years on the USS. Pennsylvania in the Pacific, spoke as guests of the post.

The meeting was held at Laguna hotel and was attended by about 45 members. F. D. Wright, vice-commander of the post, presided.

Each of the service men told of experiences in the Pacific, experiences in battle and at leisure throughout campaigns which, in the case of Guthrie, ranged from Attu to Australia and the China Sea and included 13 amphibious operations, and in Berry's case involved aerial missions over vast expanses of Japan's stolen and home empires. The members of the post listened in rapt attention as these young warriors of modern America gave graphic and often intimate details of American courage and fighting power on its farflung battle fronts. Music was furnished by Ray Judia's orchestra.

Two weeks from now the Legion will have another meeting, when there will be similar interesting program features. Plans for specific projects to be undertaken will be further advanced at this meeting. Among these is a project for providing a Legion meeting place. A committee and others at work on this project reported that encouraging results have been achieved so far in a plan to obtain the desirable Elk lot north of the postoffice as site for a permanent home.

Trustees of the property, Charles H. Fleming of El Paso and Frank E. Harrell of Cisco, have given assurance that the lot, 60 x 125 feet, can be obtained as a gift when plans are worked out for the erection of an attractive and suitable permanent home for the American Legion.

DOYLE L. BROWN KILLED

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Brown of Putnam have received word that their son, Lt. Doyle Lee Brown, was killed in action March 25, on the South Pacific island of Mindanao. Brown, 22 years of age, was a graduate of Putnam high school, attended Cisco junior college and later A. & M. college, from which he was drafted into the infantry. He received his commission in November, 1944, at Fort Benning, Ga., and left for overseas duty in December 1944. The young man was a nephew of Dr. and Mrs. N. A. Brown of Cisco.

E. F. AGNEW DIES

E. F. Agnew, 67, native of the Rising Star community, died Monday morning after having been in ill health for several months. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Church of Christ in Rising Star. He was head of the firm E. F. Agnew & Sons, grocers, and is survived by his widow, two sons Ray Agnew of Rising Star and J. L. Agnew, with the expeditionary forces in Europe; two daughters Mrs. Ray Landreth of Dallas and Mrs. W. S. Carter of Rising Star, and a brother W. H. Agnew, Rising Star.

Flynn, church pastor — just come and bring your friends. The chanters are under the direction of Mrs. Wiley, known throughout Texas for her accomplishments in voice culture and development.

Co. Home Demonstration Barbecue Wednesday

The county home demonstration council announces a barbecue dinner for April 25, noon, at American Legion hall, Eastland. All club women of the county are invited to participate in the dinner and the business meeting that will follow, during which a program will be presented, as well as the presentation of a pin to the Gold Star girl of the county.

DIED SUDDENLY

Friends of the family will be grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. B. F. Morrison, Jr., 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Damon of Putnam and niece of Mrs. John Shertzer of Cisco, who died very suddenly in Fort Worth Sunday evening about 7 o'clock, where she had gone for medical treatment. Funeral arrangements are pending the arrival of her husband, Sgt. B. F. Morrison, Jr., from Kessler Field, Biloxi, Miss. Besides the husband and parents, Mrs. Morrison is survived by a two-year-old son, B. F. Morrison III and a sister, Miss Marion Pearl Damon, student at John Tarleton college; also a brother, Pfc. James K. Damon, stationed in the Pacific war zone.

BIG JOB.

The presidency grows too big and too hard for any man. Not only in war time but in peace time it tends to wear out every chief executive, and also many of the minor executives. More and more federal employees are drawn into the vast system of political control at Washington, and what was once a small capital becomes a large city, devoted almost entirely to federal administration. Government itself is now an industry, steadily growing in complexity.

It makes a thoughtful student of history think of ancient Rome, and how that system of life and government spread until it became too large and loose for effective control, and it slowly went to pieces.

Our country, however, has great advantages over any of the old systems of government. Modern mechanical inventions give any executive enormously better facilities for his job. Our president can communicate almost instantly with any part of the country, for information or the execution of orders.

But even so, the weight of responsibility is too great for one man. Ancient Rome divided the job between two men, alternating in six-months periods. Shall we have to do something like that? Or can we get along by stripping the presidency of many small responsibilities now cumbring it?

THE GOOD LIFE.

For some time college students in this country have had things pretty much their own way, and at last many educators seem to be coming to the conclusion that they have made a mess of it. So some of the leading institutions, including Yale University, have decided to reform and get back to basic principles. The students, it is decided, must do some real studying again, and the faculty is going to take a hand in deciding what they're going to study.

For 30 years, says Dr. Charles Seymour, the students have had no "standard of values," and so have messed up their education by tackling whatever happened to please their fancy. Now the university is going to stop "being a service station" and give real instruction in things it can do well. Students must be trained to know what is good and what is merely second rate, and must discover again what the great teacher Plato called "the good life."

All this sounds sensible to people who really want to be educated. It may start a new trend and a greater desire for real learning.

MIDDLE-AGED.

Samuel Pesking, M. D.

It is commonly believed that, in people over 50, degenerative changes peculiar to these years cannot be reversed. In real degenerative diseases, this is true, but in many cases the degree of degeneration is not so bad as appears. Symptoms may be due to an active disease process, treatment for which may restore health to an amazing degree.

Focal infection may reduce sugar tolerance, increasing a tendency to diabetes; intestinal toxemia, often due to infection, may raise blood pressure, irritate kidneys, produce anemia; intestinal infec-

Transportation to Tokyo

(U. S. Marine Corps Photos) "Rationing" of a sort has hit even out in the Marianas, for while Marine Platoon Sgt. John T. Mills (left, top photo) of Augusta, Ga., and Sgt. William H. Jacobson of Oakland, Cal., have a Jap sedan and Jap gasoline, there just isn't anywhere to go on their island base. The Leathernecks captured this Hitachi Six, slightly perforated by shrapnel, soon after the invasion of the Marianas and put the car back into running order. But they do their touring on the running board. Seven sailors (lower photo) from a U. S. Navy repair ship succeeded in astonishing "shockproof" Marines by bringing ashore the first civilian automobile to land in the Marshalls. Technical Sgt. James H. Flynn (left) of Belmont, Mass., scratches his head in wonderment and is joined by Marine Capt. Leo J. McLoskey of Monmouth, Ill. The bluejackets said they want their own transportation "so we can see all the sights in Tokyo."

tion may destroy vitamins in food, causing nutritional disturbances; intestinal and respiratory allergies may indirectly increase the toxic load of the body. A combination of these factors of focal infection, antioxiolation, vitamin deficiency and allergy is often found in middle-aged people, so it is not surprising to find that treatment directed to the removal of these factors tends greatly to restore health.

Most such derangements have their origin in earlier years. Right treatment in youth proves insurance against later disorders. But the health of the middle-aged man is still worth fighting for.

SUPPER IDEAS to get EXTRA RED POINTS!

SAUSAGES, APPLE RINGS and mashed potatoes for rainy April nights. Keep draining off the fat as you cook the sausages. Fill up your fat salvage can. Every drop is needed by our country for the battlefield and home-front essentials.

CORNERED BEEF HASH can be made with a little meat and lots of potatoes, and still be superb. When you're preparing the cornered beef, remember to save those little trimmings of fat. Melt them down; strain them into the salvage can.

CREAMED CANNED FISH, when it's popped into a casserole and under the broiler to brown, looks like company's coming. But be sure you pour off the oil it's packed in. Remember, it's the small amounts, that soon add up to a pound and those very welcome 2 extra red points and 4 cents! This message has been approved by WFA and OPA and paid for by Industry.

THIS surprise vehicle of the war, the Studebaker Weasel, travels swiftly and stealthily on broad, flexible, rubber-padded tracks. Sure-footed on sand, snow, mud or swamp, it also takes to deep water like a boat. Thousands of Weasels are now streaming off the Studebaker production lines. Designed by Studebaker engineers, this versatile personnel and cargo carrier is powered by the same 6-cylinder engine used in the remarkably economical Studebaker Champion motor car.

"AT THE SIGN OF THE FLYING RED HORSE"

This is an illusion

but this is NOT!

The average American family gets about twice as much electricity for its money today as it did 15 years ago

YES, the first is a trick, but the second is a fact—a fortunate fact for you.

By using more and more electricity over the years, you've helped us reduce the price to a point where the average family now gets about twice as much electricity as it did 15 years ago for the same money.

Keeping the price of electricity pinned down to the floor in wartime is a much tougher job than keeping a pin-up girl floating in mid-air!

It takes much more than magic. It takes careful planning, hard work and good business management.
