COMBINED WITH CISCO DAILY NEWS AND CISCO AMERICAN AND ROUND-UP, NOVEMBER 1, 1937

CISCO—One of the healthiest areas in U.S.A., with a countryside devoted to broad cattle, hogs, sheep, peanuts, cotton, fruits, feeds, poultry, gas, oil; two railroads; Bankhead highway; huge concrete swimming pool; bass and crappie fishing.

NAZI CODDLING DENOUNCED

Katy Road Will Be 75 Years of Age on May 23

The Katy Railroad — one of Cisco's two rail connections with the rest of Texas and the outside world — will be 75 years old next Wednesday.

While no special system-wide observance of the Diamond Anniversary is being planned, a number of cities served by the Katy are planning local observances during its Seventy-fifth Anniversary Year.

It was on May 23 back in 1870 that a newly formed group of railroad pioneers acquired a visionary project planned to cover the 182 miles between Junction City and Chetopa, Kans., but far short of completion, and changed its name from "Union Pacific, Southern Branch" to the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad company.

That was the beginning of the Katy, which has grown in three-quarters of a century from those few miles of rust-streaked iron rails into one of the outstanding railroads of America. It has experienced its greatest improvement in the last 12 years under direction of its present chairman of the board and president, Matthew S. Sloan, who has attracted national attention and virtually universal acclaim with a huge program of rehabilitation.

After steering the Katy safely through the precarious depression years, during which it teetered dangerously on the brink but successfully avoided bankruptcy which engulfed many other American railroads, Chairman-President Sloan began four years ago "piling back" into the Katy's physical plant every spare dollar of lush wartime earnings, in the form of urgently needed renewals, replacements and repairs. Already upwards of 100 millions of dollars have been used for this purpose and the work continues, with Sloan's announced intention of building an entirely new railroad on the site of the old, capable not only of giving the utmost of service to the abnormally heavy wartime traffic load, but of providing facilities necessary for successfully competing in the scramble for business that will follow the end of the war.

With a view to strengthening the Katy's financial position as a bulwark in the post-war years, Sloan also has used some 36 million dollars of the railroad's funds in three years to purchase its own bonds at favorable market prices — some as low as 58 cents on the dollar of face value — and retired them, thereby greatly reducing the Katy's fixed interest charges. This figure is well above one-third of such liens outstanding at the close of 1941.

Journalism Class Inspected Press Mechanical Dept.

Cisco high school journalism class — 17 in number — under supervision of its teacher, W. H. LaRoque and accompanied by Arlin Birt, teacher of diversified occupations, visited the Daily Press mechanical department Friday and today.

The Model B Duplex printing press, the large power paper cutter and machines in the mailing department were carefully scrutinized, but deeper interest was displayed in the type-casting machines, the Model 14 Linotype and Model C Intertype, each of which carry six different type faces.

Eastland County Now Has U. S. Employment Office

A United States Employment Service office, a full-time office for Eastland county from now on, was opened today at 311 west Main street, Eastland, said O. R. Rodden of Abilene, who called at the Daily Press office this afternoon. Mr. Rodden is placement supervisor for the U. S. Employment Service in the Abilene area, of which this county is a part.

For the present at least, the Eastland office will be managed by R. T. Redies from the Abilene office. It is expected that an Eastland county resident will manage the office later on and he will be a war veteran, Mr. Rodden added. Mrs. Gene Dillard of Eastland is also an employee of the office.

Mr. Rodden stated that the Eastland office is now ready to serve the Eastland county public, both employers and men in search of employment. He also mentioned that one of the primary purposes of the new office is to assist returning war veterans to find work, apprenticed training or otherwise.

Mr. Redies, by the way, formerly resided in Cisco and was connected with the Cisco police department for several years.

Texas' Wartime Oil Producing Record Is Tops

AUSTIN, May 16.—Last year Texas furnished 93.6 per cent of the national increase in crude oil production and made 219,863,944 barrels of gasoline at ninety-five refineries, Railroad Commissioner Beauford H. Jester reported to the Austin Forum of Public Opinion in a review of the commission's wartime problems.

Jester listed four points: Supplying oil for war and civilian use; expediting railroad, bus and truck transportation; accelerating further use and conservation of natural gas, and doing everything possible to preserve state regulation of oil and gas.

Stressing the immense responsibility of providing petroleum and its products successfully to wage war, as well as meeting civilian needs, Jester asserted that practically none of the other oil-producing states could increase production which placed the burden on Texas for war's great demand which explains the high increase from the wells of this state.

Next month he said Texas will produce 2,332,000 barrels daily, an increase of 54,000 barrels daily over the preceding three months.

TOP SHOW HORSES.

HOUSTON, May 16.—Two hundred top show horses of Texas will compete for $3,600 in prizes in the McCloskey benefit horse show at the Pin Oak Stables near here May 26 and 27. Proceeds will go to wounded war veterans at McCloskey General Hospital at Temple.

Ft. Worth Area Saw Coldest May Day in 47 Years

FT. WORTH, May 16.—The coldest late spring day in Fort Worth's 47-year weather history saw thermometers drop early today to 46 degrees. The new cold record was broken only two days after new May heat records were set.

Blankets and overcoats came out of storage and gas heaters glowed again in Fort Worth homes.

Look for another cold night with fair skies and temperatures dropping into the middle 40s. Tomorrow will be fair and warmer, the weatherman promised.

This morning's 46 degrees broke the existing late cold record of 48 degrees on June 1, 1903, and also broke the all-time May 16 low mark of 49 degrees, set in 1924.

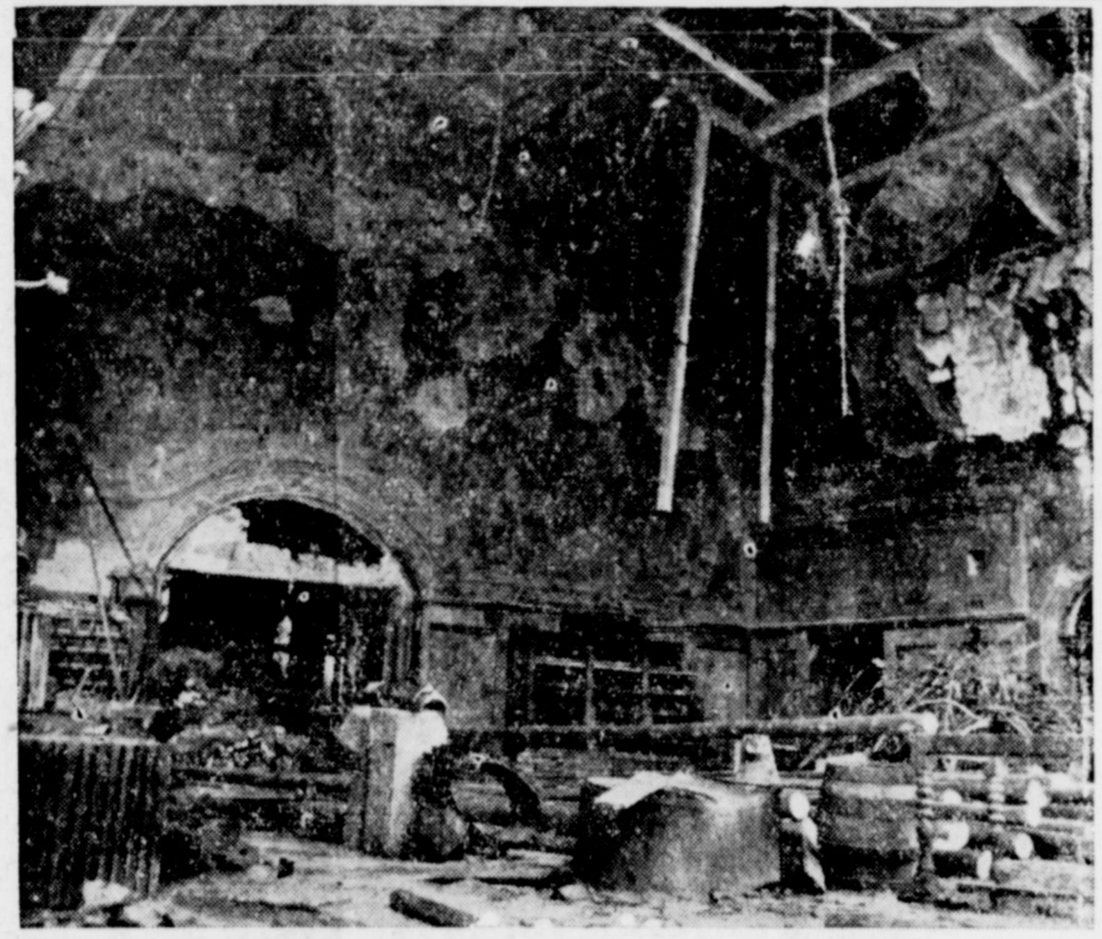

Two days ago thermometers climbed to 93 degrees to set a new high mark for May 14 and a new peak for the year.

NEW OIL FIELD.

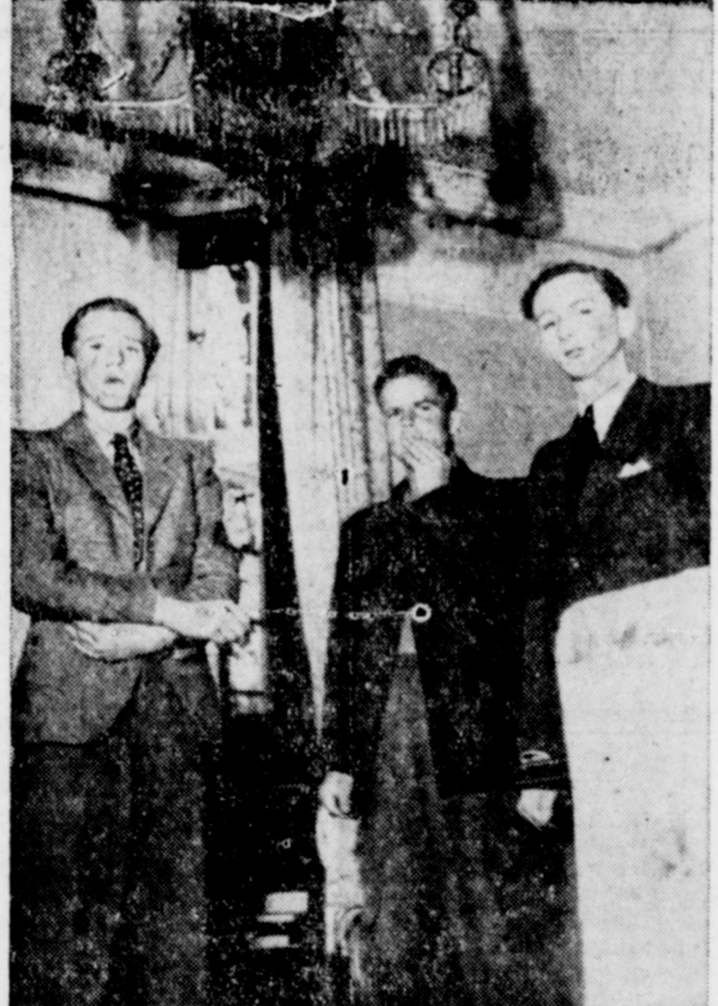

SHREVEPORT, La., May 16.—Discovery of a new oil field for north Louisiana was assured when Ohio Oil No. 1 Woodward-Walker, center of the northeast quarter of section 31-17-7W, Bienville Parish, flowed as a producer from the lower pettit sand. Operators said better production is expected at the upper level. Lower perforations were from 6,829-56. The well flowed 27 1/2 barrels of 40-gravity oil under 5-8 choke during two hours before it was shut in.

McGOWEN PROMOTED.

DYERSBURG (Tenn.) ARMY AIR FIELD.—Robert E. McGowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McGowen, Cisco, Texas, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant. He is member of a B-17 combat crew and has been here since March. This army air field is an installation of the Third air force, which trains heavy bomber crews. Battle-wise veterans, selected from varied war fronts, give trainees instructions in every type of enemy opposition encountered in theaters of war.

BANQUET HALL—A pock-marked and broken mural hangs over entrance to the ruined banquet hall in Hofbrau House in Munich, where Hitler expounded his Nazi doctrines in his hey day. Allied bombs blasted all sections of the house leaving only massed debris to commemorate Nazi regime.

Tulsa Police Are on the Hunt For Brutal Sex Fiend

TULSA, Okla., May 16.—"Striking similarities" between the slaying of Mrs. Pat Campbell Liles and rape-murders in the same vicinity two years before today put police on the trail of a sex fiend with a fondness of red-haired women.

The nude body of Mrs. Liles, attractive wife of a serviceman overseas, was found yesterday in her apartment one block from the scene of the Jan. 14, 1943, slaying of Mrs. Clara Stewart and her daughter, Mrs. Georgia Green. All were red-headed.

Marines Captured Naha, Okinawa's Capital, Today

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—U. S. Marines rebounding from a fierce Japanese counter-attack were reported to have captured Naha, demolished capital of Okinawa.

The unconfirmed report came from Reuters news agency shortly after American press dispatches told of routing vicious, well-organized Japanese attacks on the outskirts of Naha, near Davao in the southern Philippines, and in central China.

Details of the battles were told today while Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced 357 enemy planes were knocked out as strong forces of carrier planes swept over 18 airfields of southern Japan Saturday night, Sunday and Monday.

Fiercest fighting of the Okinawa campaign grew out of a night counter-attack of the 22nd regiment of the Sixth Marines in a valley east of Naha, capital of the southern Ryukyu islands. Marines, caught in their foxholes, were driven back for 200 yards before reinforcements who weren't supposed to be in the fighting line at all helped check the surprise attack.

It took 12 hours of continuous hand-to-hand combat, largely with knives and grenades, before the 200 yards were regained and Marines turned to attack Strawberry hill, and abutments on their path to Naha. Both sides suffered heavy casualties.

The Japanese attack was timed with a suicidal amphibious landing in the rear of the Sixth Marines.

BOOSTING BOND SALES. NEW ORLEANS, May 16.—Two Higgins navy landing craft shoved off from here at 8:45 a. m., Tuesday to navigate Red river to the Denison Dam. The voyage was aimed to enhance interest in the Seventh War Loan drive. The two shallow draft Diesel-powered ramp type craft are scheduled to arrive at Denison Dam, Paris, Texas, May 27.

TEXAS RANGER HISTORY. AUSTIN, May 16.—The history of the Texas Rangers and its colorful members, past and present, will be written by the Department of Public Safety if a Senate resolution is approved by the House. The resolution urged that the history be assembled at this time so that veterans who recall activities of the early days may record their experiences.

COMMUNISTS GAIN. MOSCOW, May 16.—Membership in the Communist party has risen to more than 5,700,000, the highest in the history of the party the newspaper Pravda said today in an editorial.

GERMANS TO ADMINISTER THEIR COUNTRY, BUT UNDER MILITARY DIRECTION OF ALLIED POWERS

LONDON, May 16.—The Moscow radio, joined the clamor over purported coddling of captured German leaders, said today that the "only fit way of dealing with such criminals is the hangman's noose."

Indignation mounted in London with disclosure that Willie Messerschmitt was living in a pleasant residential district of London, the city his planes helped to wreck — living in luxury and comparative freedom, British newspapers said.

An English language broadcast from Moscow denounced the interview of Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering by Allied correspondents. The radio said it was like talking to "a murderer who has just killed a child and is still carrying a blood-covered hatchet."

After prescribing the hangman's noose for "such criminals," the broadcaster attacked a Flensburg radio report that the Germans had some control over themselves and added:

"It is not martins or fried chicken that will tame the Hitlerite gangsters. They need a radical cure. Sensation-seeking reporters would do better to go to Hollywood for a scoop interview."

British newspapers said Messerschmitt, Germany's No. 1 plane designer, was living a life of luxury in handsomely outfitted apartments. Authorities refused to give any details of how Messerschmitt was being treated.

NAZIS TO ADMINISTER.

LONDON, May 16.—Prime Minister Churchill declared today that in general it was the Allied intention that "the Germans should administer their country in obedience to Allied direction."

The Allies have "no intention of undertaking the burden of administering Germany ourselves," Churchill asserted.

He appeared before Commons against a background of demands voiced in many quarters for the Allies to disclose the exact role of the regime of Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz. But the prime minister made no direct mention of Doenitz.

ARMY TO HOLD REINS.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, May 16.— Maj. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, Gen. Eisenhower's deputy for the military occupation of Germany, declared today that "the Allied government in Germany is going to be military and the Germans know its going to be military."

"The United States is going to stay in Germany in all probability for a long time," Gen. Clay said.

He explained carefully the supreme headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force still is operative and that he was speaking for the U. S. group council which will take over after SHAEF finishes. Clay said these would be the initial aims of the American occupation:

1. Smash all that is left of Germany's potential to make war.
2. Smash all vestige of Nazism.
3. See that all war criminals are caught and punished.

PUBLIC BE WELCOMED.

The publicity chairman of the Industrial Arts club, sponsor of the musical program, to be presented at First Baptist church at 8:15 o'clock Thursday evening, asks the Daily Press to remind the general public that there will be no charge for the musical treat to be furnished by the Harmony Girls and the Violin Octet on that occasion and that all will be more than welcome. The program will be directed by Miss Wilda Dragoo of Eastland and Miss June Morehart of Cisco will be piano accompanist. The musical program was published in the Daily Press of Sunday morning.

"The Human Bridge"

This is the infantry way of forcing a quick crossing where barbed wire bars the way. This will be demonstrated in the "Here's Your Infantry" presentation of doughboy tactics when more than a score of units tour the nation during the Mighty Seventh War Loan drive. Lying on the wire is Pfc. Wallace M. Russell, Pittsburgh, Pa. In the background is S/Sgt. Ralph E. Hamilton, Auburn, Maine, and Pfc. James H. Mull, Grand Rapids, Mich. The equipment demonstrated in these shows is but a small part of that needed for war. Your heavier purchases of War Bonds in the Mighty Seventh will provide the continuous supply of weapons necessary to carry on the fighting.

ALL'S WELL that ends well, but 11-month-old Franklin Mork of Wichita, Kans., doesn't seem to know it. Crying baby has just had aluminum rivet which he swallowed removed from his stomach. Delicate bronchoscopic operation was performed at Chicago's Children's Memorial Hospital.

THREAT TO WORLD.

Herman Goering, delicately furling the ornaments which dangle from his capacious chest, gives a curious world the "low-down" on the great human mystery of Hitler and his gang. Adolf himself, says the gorgeous Reichsmarshal, was narrow and ignorant. Von Ribbentrop was a scoundrel, and Hess was eccentric, but a man of tremendous energy. And so on.

Such comments are interesting, and illuminating in some ways, but obviously come far short of telling the whole story. How was it possible for such a little group of men, none of them distinguished or brilliant, to arrive at the point where they could almost swing the whole world by the tail? Emerging almost from the gutter, in a few years they nearly had the world in their hands, and indeed came near to destroying our present civilization.

What a congenial study this would have been for Thomas Carlyle, the great historian and essayist of the last century, with his rare grasp of men and their minds! It may take another generation for analysts to do historical and psychological justice to this incredible group of rascals who set the world on fire. Anyhow, now that the equally infamous Goering has made everything clear, let the Allied Court of Justice proceed with his execution.

TAX EASEMENT.

Thousands of small business men are cheered by suggestions for immediate changes in the federal tax laws, tending to improve their "cash position" and relieving them from the excess profits tax.

It is realized, of course, that great wars cannot be fought, and government kept solvent, without imposing higher taxes than usual; but there is always danger of killing the goose that lays the golden egg, and this can be done even more easily with the "little fellows" than with the big ones.

Not only do many small corporations need relief, but many business concerns so small that they lack the dignity of incorporation. Even these have their use and value in the national economy, and in many cases their loss or destruction would seriously discommode larger concerns which they serve in one way and another.

CANADIANS.

Last week Americans spent trying to figure the point scores of their favorite G.I.'s. — "Let's see Johnny's been in three years, overseas two, why, there's 60 points without counting his combat. And Tom didn't go overseas until last year, but he's got two children and a Purple Heart, that's 29 right there!"

But their Canadian friends had a different problem. They know who'll be released. All but about 100,000 of Canada's 469,000 soldiers will be demobilized on a "first in, first out" basis. This means that thousands who have been gone for four to six years will soon return. All but the 35,000 "Zombies," the Home Defense troops who refused to volunteer for overseas service. On that point the government is definite—those who did the fighting will have the first choice of jobs.

What the Canadians are wondering is, which of their long-absent service-men are going to go right out and volunteer again for the Pacific battle. It's up to the men themselves. And if we know our northern cousins, there will be more than enough to take care of any assignment they have in finishing this war.

June, 1923.

(Cisco American Files)
One of the beauty spots of Cisco is the home of E. Ford, 308 west Tenth street. In passing one cannot help comparing this well-kept and well-tilled lawn and yard with many others in the city that are overgrown with weeds, and one admires the artistic taste and industry of the hand that made this such an attractive spot. The lawn is well trimmed and is surrounded with flowers and vegetables that have been cultivated and watered so that the rare well-matured, and in the case of the vegetables, are furnishing something for the table use, as well as making a bright green spot very attractive to the eye. On each side of the concrete walk is a very lovely border of flowers, blooming in many bright colors. Around the house, flowers are sprinkled here and there, giving the whole place a home-like atmosphere, which is greatly enhanced by the flourishing garden in the parkways. The whole decorative scheme is one of utility as well as beauty.

Across the street, at 309 west Tenth, lives George Wilson, a well-known grocer of Cisco. His grassy lawn is freshly mowed and the Bermuda is nice and green. His place is bordered with sidewalks and curbs. Along the curb, paper shell pecan trees are flourishing with a heavy crop of young pecans, although only two years of age. This destroys the prevalent idea existing in most people's minds that it requires years of waiting for a pecan tree to begin to bear fruit. These little trees had some fruit on them the first year they were out. A pretty American Beauty rose is blooming in one corner of the lawn. On the west side China trees spread their welcome shade. In the corner is a vigorous mulberry tree, only small as yet, but which will give a wonderful shade in the years to come. Honey suckle vines furnish plenty of fragrance for the whole neighborhood. A new variety of mammoth size plum is now growing in the front yard, but will be transplanted in the winter to a more desirable place. This is a California variety and was unknown in Texas, heretofore.

Adjoining the Wilson home, is another that rivals it in its air of refinement and extreme loveliness—that of R. Y. Watkins, traveling salesman for the Wooten Grocery company. Here we find the same well kept lawn and trees bordering the curb and sidewalks; two lovely cannas, one red and one a rich yellow, are in the front. Along the walk and banked against the front of the house are the same lovely California varieties of petunias—almost the color of the rainbow; phlox, the same kind of shasta daisies, vines, a few tomato plants and peppers that make it home-like, besides some pot plants that add to the scene and gives it distinction. In looking at these pretty yards, one does not wonder that travelers often stop and gaze in admiration at the scene and, frequently, comment at the well-kept appearance of these pretty homes.

Messrs. J. T. Berry, J. J. Godbey, E. R. McDaniel and Rev. H. B. Watts left Wednesday for a ten-day fishing trip on the Llano. They will camp near Loyal Valley, Mason county. It is said Mr. Watts, eloquent pastor of First Methodist church, cares very little for fishing, and that he goes along mainly that the fishermen may be able to substantiate their fish stories when they return home.

NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS.

According to city ordinance, all dogs in city of Cisco must be vaccinated and registered on or before May 15, 1945.

Have your dog vaccinated by a registered veterinarian and present certificate of vaccination, bearing 1945 date, at city hall, office, where a certificate of registration and a metal license tag will be issued for the sum of twenty-five cents.

Lemon Juice Recipe Checks Rheumatic Pain Quickly

If you suffer from rheumatic arthritis or neuritis pain, try this simple inexpensive home recipe that thousands are using. Get a bottle of R-10X Compound, a two-week supply. Mix it with a quart of water and the juice of 4 lemons. It's easy. No trouble at all and pleasant. You feel only a tingly heat and if you do not feel better return the empty package and R-10X will cost you nothing to try as it is sold by your druggist under an absolute money-back guarantee. R-10X Compound is for sale and recommended by Major's Pharmacy and drug stores everywhere.

The blackest chapter in the war just ended is the horror of the Nazi prison camps.

When we get through with the Pacific, we hope that region will be in position to remain so.

With good behavior, the Germans might be restored to the family of nations again in 50 to 100 years.

Can't you leave the telephone in?

The girls in the telephone business office are often asked: "There's a telephone already in the place where I'm moving. Why can't I have it?"

Well, it would be easier for us to say "Yes." But it would be unfair to the many patient people ahead of you on the waiting list for telephone service in your neighborhood. Here's why:

In many cities, telephone central offices are full. Often every wire in the cable serving your neighborhood is already connected to a telephone. About the only way we can give new service is when someone who has service gives it up. That makes room to serve the next person on the waiting list in his proper turn.

That seems the only fair way to do the job—and the way we think you would want us to do it.

Texas' Quality Motor Fuels

Esso-Extra has always been the top quality motor fuel, just as Humble Regular has always been unexcelled as a regular grade gasoline. Constant research has resulted in continuous improvement of these fine fuels. Today, into Esso and Humble Motor Fuel is built all the quality which wartime restrictions will permit.

When it again becomes possible Humble's research, resources and resolve will once more give to Texas motorists the same superb fuels which have so long met with their popular approval.

Look for the Humble sign whenever you buy gasoline. Behind the familiar red, white and blue oval lies the experience of a great name and a great organization.

QUALITY FUELS

BILLION GALLON REFINERY

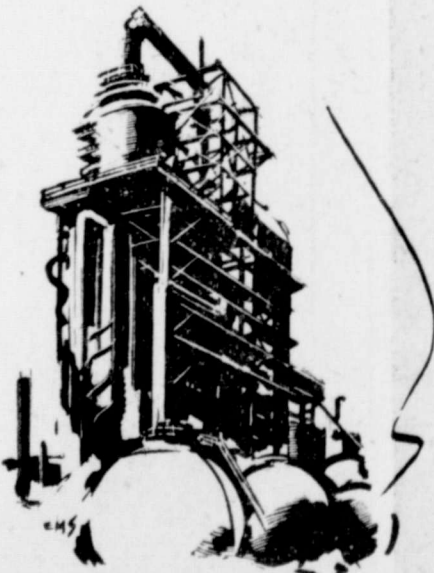

Humble's Baytown Refinery completed its billionth gallon of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline late in 1944, thus becoming the first plant in the world to achieve such a record. Total production of 100-octane gasoline and components at Humble's three refineries is now well over two billion gallons.

This record had its beginnings back in 1938 when Humble built the first commercial alkylation plant in the world, which process has since become the very backbone of 100-octane aviation gasoline production by the entire oil industry. And to go back even further, this record is a magnificent climax to more than a quarter of a century of development, cooperation and teamwork by Humble men and women.

This significant FIRST is one of four great wartime records accomplished by the 14,000 Humble men and women.

- FIRST in U. S. crude oil production
- FIRST in production of toluene for TNT
- FIRST in transportation of oil by pipe line
