Dr. Richardson Commended Cisco Junior College

An attentive audience heard Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, president of Hardin-Simmons university, Abilene talk to the graduates of Cisco Junior college Friday night at First Presbyterian church and witnessed the ceremonies which culminated in the presentation of the class by Dean O. L. Starkey to President R. N. Cluck, who delivered the diplomas as the group filed across the stage. The church was beautifully decorated and well filled.

In his address, which dealt with the triumphs of democracy, the distinguished visitor paid fine tribute to the people of Cisco and Eastland county for maintaining a good junior college which, he said, should be called the "people's college." He declared that the local school merited the loyal support of the people of this area and expressed hope that Cisco Junior college would continue to grow and give service and inspiration to coming generations.

Registrar Carlos J. Turner presided at the program, with Mrs. S. E. Hittson playing the processional and recessional. The invocation was given by Rev. Evan Holmes and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. W. A. Flynn. A violin solo by Dorothy Nell Pugh, accompanied at the piano by Barbara Grist, followed the invocation and preceded the college sextet composed of Cathryn Shepard, Bonnie Jean Wilson, Dorothy Jean Anderson, Billie Jean Hall, Billie Beal and Yvonne Hazelwood.

Dr. Stephenson's Brother Victim of Heart Attack

Dr. G. M. Stephenson of Cisco was notified Friday afternoon that his brother, Sheriff Hubert Stephenson of Paint Rock, had died suddenly from heart attack while he was changing an auto tire on the highway.

Dr. and Mrs. Stephenson left immediately for Paint Rock and will remain there until after the funeral. Sheriff and Mrs. Stephenson were expecting their son, Sgt. Hilton Stephenson, home from overseas within a few days. The young man, previously reported as missing, was only recently liberated from a German prison camp. Another son, Ensign Gail Stephenson, is with the navy somewhere overseas.

JAPS SAY IMPERIAL PALACE IS BURNING, BUT ITS SPIRITUAL ASPECTS ARE INDESTRUCTIBLE

GUAM, May 26. — Japanese broadcasts said huge conflagrations touched off by American Superfortresses destroyed the greater part of Emperor Hirohito's Palace and "laid waste" to most of the remainder of Tokyo today. The capital, once the world's third largest city, was "literally scorched to the ground," one broadcast said. Virtually the entire central business section, including many government ministries, was said to have been levelled by the flames.

A Japanese announcement said Hirohito and his Empress were safe, along with the Empress Dowager, his mother, whose nearby Amiya Palace also burned to the ground.

Premier Baron Kantaro Suzuki called an extraordinary meeting of his cabinet while inhabitants of the capital still were fighting the fires kindled by 550 B-29s with 4000 tons of incendiaries just after midnight.

A Japanese communique said the "front" or outer palace and other buildings within Hirohito's Palace compound were burned down. It also conceded "considerable damage" elsewhere in the city.

The enemy account said huge conflagrations, whipped by a 70-mile-an-hour gale, turned vast industrial, business and residential sections of Tokyo into "blazing infernos" and destroyed numerous landmarks.

Crews who manned the 500 B-29s participating in the raid said nine square miles of Central Tokyo around the Imperial Palace were in flames when they turned homeward.

First confirmation that the palace had been all but destroyed came in a news commentary over the Tokyo radio following the regular Saturday afternoon newscast.

"The Japanese Imperial Palace, the focal point of the Japanese people's foremost devoted attention and undying loyalty, was destroyed for the most part this morning by a concerted incendiary attack," the commentator said. "Their Imperial Majesties, the Emperor and the Empress, are, however, safe and the announcement of this fact to the nation has given indescribable relief to the people.

"The physical aspects of the imperial abode have been destroyed, but its moral and spiritual aspects are permanent and indestructible."

"The American people will surely get an answer in some form or other," declared Radio Tokio as it recounted the damage.

Jap Peace Feelers Omit Unconditional Clause

WASHINGTON, May 26. — There's some official hope here — though it probably will be denied — that Japanese surrender will come soon. Peace feelers have been received. So far they do not constitute unconditional surrender, but there's a chance it may come. If the Japs don't quit unconditionally in from 30 to 60 days, it will take 12 or 15 months to lick them, some Congressmen believe. Others look for a break after the full force of our airpower is mobilized in the Pacific — four or five months. This group hopes for a fall surrender. Its members reason this way: It will take another 30 days or so to clean out Okinawa, and after that, 30 days more to get airfields completed for full operation. In another six weeks after that, they think we should have a strong striking force operating from Okinawa, able to mount frequent attacks with 1000 or more planes. Under this hammering they believe the Japs will crack to save themselves and their industries from destruction. But they believe it will take bigger, more frequent raids, to get unconditional surrender.

Progress report on Jimmy Byrnes: Congressional sources say that when the former Senator-Supreme Court Justice-War Mobilizer left here last week he looked happier than he had for a long time. Smart money is still on Byrnes as next Secretary of State.

Top Republican leaders concede Truman has moved far out in front politically in his first six weeks as President, has made no important mistakes. But they say it's still a long way to '48. Appointment of three Westerners to the cabinet this week, plus Truman's projected visit into the Northwest, convinces them: he is moving already to build fences for the next presidential race. Herein lie top Republican hopes: Eventually Truman must decide to go with the conservative Southern wing of the Democratic party or the Henry Wallace-Sidney Hillman wing. They hope he'll not be able to hold the two together as Roosevelt did.

MOTHER KILLS CHILDREN.

GLASGOW, Mont., May 26.—A 24-year-old mother of six children hanged four of them to death in the Milk river Friday, Sheriff E. L. McPherson said, then plunged from a bridge to her own end in the muddy water. A fifth child escaped by swimming to shore.

MUST GUARD BUTTER.

NEW YORK, May 26. — The butter shortage is worse than the boywooper shortage so Grinstead Brothers, Inc., grocers, now send two boys with each delivery pushcart. One delivers, while the other mounts guard over the scarce commodity.

SAD REUNION—Yeoman 3/c William R. Bernard is shown with son Jackie, afflicted with lung cancer and not expected to live. With them is Doris Bernard who appealed to Adm. Ernest King for husband's return from Pacific to San Francisco, Calif.

Japs Eager to Die Many Ft. Worth War Workers Released Soon as Chicago Gangland Warfare Flares

GUAM, May 26. — A strong Japanese air fleet, including the strangest suicide attackers of the war, damaged 11 light units of the Pacific fleet Thursday night and early Friday at a cost of 111 Japanese aircraft destroyed in a blistering, 18-hour Okinawa battle.

The Japanese made their first attempt to land planes loaded with grenade-armed "giretsu" troops for suicide assaults on parked aircraft and airfield installations. A few of these suicide volunteers managed to set some U. S. planes afire before they were cut down at the Yontan airfield, near the original invasion beaches.

Admiral Nimitz reported this heaviest counterblow in weeks Saturday as marines drove tanks through the shattered streets of Naha, Okinawa's shattered capital, and artillery pounded the half-encircled fortress city of Shuri. Mud and rain hampered ground operations.

MERCHANTS' AGREEMENT.

Beginning Saturday, June 2, a number of Cisco firms will inaugurate new opening and closing hours — 8:30 to 6 o'clock during the week and 8:30 to 8 on Saturdays. It is the intention to maintain this schedule through the summer months, or until the labor shortage ends. Those who have entered into the agreement include The Man's Store, Ferguson's Drumwright's, Inc., J. C. Penney Co., Mott Stores and Altman's Style Shop.

FT. WORTH, May 28. — Five thousand war workers will turn in their badges within the next 10 days at Convair's mammoth bomber plant here, according to J. D. Smith, president of the International Assn. of Machinists Aeronautical District Lodge No. 776.

Green slips will give 24-hour notice to employees made jobless by the War Dept. cutback in production of giant B-32 Dominator heavy bombers, said Smith.

UKRAINE LOSSES.

MOSCOW, May 26. — The Soviet Ukraine lost 7,000,000 civilians during the war, Guards Col. Vladimir Mochalov said Saturday in the official army organ, Red Star. He said that 2,500,000 are missing without trace and 3,000,000 were shipped to Germany. The Ukraine's population before the war was 40,000,000. Mochalov said the material loss to the Ukraine during the war was more than $100,000,000,000.

Mark Burnam of route one, Cisco, writes the Daily Press as follows: "Enclosed you will find a check for $2 to renew our subscription. We thoroughly enjoy the Cisco paper."

CHICAGO, May 26. — Chicago's gangland warfare, comparatively silent in wartime, flared anew in a South Side saloon as shotgun assassins ended the 20-year hoodlum career of James (Red) Fawcett, dapper, 44-year-old farmer member of the old Capone gang.

A lurking gunman — believed to have a companion — fired once into Fawcett's head, killing him instantly, and slugs from a second blast whistled through the tavern, striking a clock and sending 20 patrons fleeing to the street. Remaining in the saloon were Fawcett's wife, Genevieve, 37, and James Larkin, a bartender.

As in other gangland killings, police found no witnesses able to identify the slayer. Fawcett, described by police as a gunman, formerly was associated with the old Danny Stanton and Martin (Sinny Boy) Quirk gambling syndicates. Both were slain in 1943 and Fawcett, alias Forsyth, was one of nine men indicted in the slaying of Quirk. He was tried with three others but was acquitted.

TEXAS WHEAT.

FT. WORTH, May 28. — Fort Worth today had its first ear of new crop Texas wheat which arrived yesterday from Weinert, a farming section between Seymour and Haskell. This area, termed by K. K. Smith of the Kimbell Milling Co., who received the shipment, as the largest producer of wheat in Texas, has not been noted for early wheat.

DAY OF HEROES.

In ordinary times, Memorial Day (May 30) is one of double celebration. Heroes are honored in the morning, by speeches and parades and the decoration of graves. With memory and glory and thanks high in the heart, the rest of the day goes to recreation. It is the great holiday marking the joining of two seasons, culmination of planting time, welcome of high summer. In the north it is the beginning of outdoor weather. Fun? Of course.

This year, Memorial Day comes with pictures of cemeteries, white crosses by hundreds. Our dead lie in far climes many of us had never heard of. Sadness fills the heart to bursting. Sorrow overwhelms glory, makes fun seem out of place.

But that is not what our heroes want. They fight, many of them give their lives, for the freedom and happiness of their loved ones and the homeland. Let us show them that we enjoy and appreciate what they have given us. Sorrow is inevitable. Glory is sure. Freedom is being won. Let there be happiness also. The picnic comes after the parade. Family rejoicing follows sober appreciation of victories won by our heroes.

Above all, let this Memorial Day be one of resolution. In the words of Lincoln, let us "here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain."

MORE POWERFUL WEAPONS.

Recent revelations show how fortunate it was, in many ways, that the European war ended when it did. Not only were the human losses very great, but the devices for bigger and better methods of killing people, both fighting men and civilians, were improving right along. The current accounts of long range guns, capable of throwing rocket shells for 100 miles, and delivering them at the rate of 600 an hour, show what London and other European cities would soon have had to endure. "Multiple long range artillery," as Winston Churchill calls it, grows steadily more powerful, and more capable of delivering its lethal cargoes at long range. And it seems to be generally accepted now that there may soon be rocket bombs able to cross the Atlantic under their own power, delivering their deadly cargoes even to inland cities.

Our own country necessarily uses, or will use, many such new devices as they are developed, in our defensive war against Japan. But every intelligent American longs for the time when military use of these terrific explosives can be abolished, or merely stored safely under national supervision, against a possible time when other human destroyers may attack civilization again.

September, 1932.

(Files of Cisco Citizen, R. W. H. Kennon, Editor.)

The monthly smoker was held in the Mobley hotel dining room last Tuesday night, and a "goodly crowd" was there, perhaps one of the largest in point of attendance of any of its predecessors. And in point of manifest enthusiasm and interest was second to none. Really the talks drifted around to something worth while of accomplishment, and it now seems that these meetings will result in some form that will lead to the objectives sought in staging these smokers. The most feasible plan probably, was that suggested by W. J. Leach, when he proposed that the business men of Cisco assemble a fund to take care of all non-perishable products brought to Cisco by the farmers in this section, place them in storage until sufficient in quantity to attract a buyer. Leach's plan suggested probably a larger amount of cash than might be easily raised, but the principle is good, as a lesser sum than proposed would take care of considerable produce, by a quick turn-over. That the plan would create a market is the main thing, as that is what is hurting Cisco trade more than any other one thing. Take care of the produce of our country friends and they will take care of Cisco merchants. The farmer trades in the town where he can sell his produce, and you can't censure him for that.

Beneath a veritable mound of floral offerings, mute tribute of a sentiment more fragrant than words from friends of yesterday and today, reposed the mortal remains before the altar of the First Christian church Wednesday morning, while sorrowing friends and relatives of the late Mrs. John J. Winston wept over her bier as the last rites for one of Cisco's most popular former matrons was conducted by Rev. E. L. Miley, pastor of the church where she had worshipped for so many years. Following the religious services one of the largest corteges ever seen in Cisco followed the hearse to Oakwood cemetery, where loving hands tenderly consigned the body to the lonely sanctuary of the grave. Since the death of her husband Mrs. Winston had made her home with her only son, Capt. Barlow Winston, of the United States army and at the time she was stricken they were living in Baltimore, Md., from whence the body was conveyed by rail to Cisco accompanied by Captain Winston. Deceased was born in Bourbon county, Ky., in 1866. Pallbearers, selected from old and true friends of the family, were Judge D. K. Scott, J. M. Williamson, Alex Spears, Howard D'Spain, L. D. Wilson and Wm. Regan.

MRS. L. F. MENDENHALL HOSTESS WITH TEA.

Mrs. L. F. Mendenhall entertained with a reception tea in her home Wednesday evening honoring high school seniors and faculty. The house and lawn were brilliantly lighted for the occasion and a blue and white theme was observed in decorations and appointments.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. E. L. Hazlewood, who presented them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Mendenhall, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Cluck, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stamey, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. LaRoque, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Sweeney. They were then directed to the table where Miss Cheryl Lutgens presided at the guest book. Cards bearing numbers on which was a hand-painted blue iris, the class flower, were pinned on each guest.

Following registration the group were shown to the dining room where Misses Ella Andres, Olga Faye Ford, Doris Jo Pyle and Mrs. R. H. Cutting were in charge. The table, overlaid with a lovely linen cut work cloth, held a centerpiece of blue and white Queen Ann lace, flanked at each side by two tall blue tapers in crystal holders. Punch was ladled by Miss Doris Jo Pyle and refreshment plates of cookies and mints were served.

Piano music was furnished by Joe Tom Poe throughout the evening. The pretty guest book, hand-painted by the hostess, was then shown and each person was asked to look at the card which had been pinned on his shoulder to see if his number matched the one on the guest book. Billy Lloyd Sharp held the lucky number and the book was presented to him by the hostess.

Intermediate age friends of Jimmy Cummins, son of the hostess, called from 10 to 11 o'clock, giving added merriment to the occasion.

Eighty-one people were present at the splendid affair.

BOBBY BEAL HONORED BY BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. Robert C. Beal entertained a number of children Friday afternoon at her home on College Hill honoring her son Bobby Beal on his birthday. Out-door games were played by the children and at the close refreshments of ice cream and cake were passed by the hostess. Favorites of candy were given each one present.

The honoree received many nice birthday gifts. Those present were Bobby Beal, Freddy Cliett, Pat Beal, Clifton Beal, Bobby Edie, McCharen, Ralph Beal, Linda Daly, Buzz Henson, Jan Latson, Jo Ann Strickland, Patty Nell Haynie and Dena Kay Swartz.

TWO GROUPS HONORED AT BANQUET THURSDAY.

Women's missionary union of First Baptist church honored the seniors of Cisco high school and Cisco Junior college and their sponsors with a banquet in the church basement Thursday evening. Senior colors of blue and white were carried out in the decorations, blue larkspur and white queen's lace being used. A nautical theme was emphasized throughout in the banquet room. Clever little anchors with a life saver attached were given as favors.

Guests were welcomed at the door of the church parlor by Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. E. J. Poe and Mrs. W. V. Gardner. After a few piano numbers by Mrs. A. L. Thomas, they marched down the hall to the banquet room where a delicious meal awaited. The meal consisted of chicken salad, dressed eggs, green beans, new potatoes, olives and rolls with chocolate pie for dessert. The following program was given, with Joe Philpott acting as toastmaster:

Invocation, R. N. Cluck; welcome, Mrs. E. J. Poe; response, Marion Paschall, president Senior high school class and Cathryn Shepard, Cisco Junior College. A vocal number by a girls' trio, Cathryn Shepard, Bonnie Jean Wilson and Dorothy Jean Anderson, preceded the splendid address by Rev. Arthur Johnson. The church orchestra, directed by Mrs. Ben Krauskopf, played at intervals throughout the evening.

Servants of Junior high school class served. They were dressed in sailor suits and were very attractive.

DO YOU WANT TO HELP THE JAPS?

You are aiding them if you fail to support the 7th War Loan in a big way. Already the Japs are depending on a break of interest and morale on the home front of America and in England. They think we may soon lose interest in the Pacific war and be willing to agree to a compromise peace. They are fighting on, depending on the possibility of that reaction.

And is there danger of that? Already people over the nation are not listening to the war news as eagerly as they did before Germany fell. We are turning our minds to reconversion and postwar activities. The Japs know this just as well as we do and perhaps discovered it even before we did.

A letup on the homefront will encourage them in their hopes, and will serve to prolong the struggle, resulting in more and more deaths every hour it continues.

Let's let them know we are determined to go on to the end with no letup until Japan makes an unconditional surrender.

Dou your best in this 7th War Loan drive.
