JAP REVERSES ARE MOUNTING

60 Seniors Given Diplomas Before Tom Dean, Upright Citizen and Business Man, is Dead

A packet auditorium at the high school saw the graduation of some sixty seniors last night and heard the address of Dr. J. N. R. Score president of Southwestern University, while witnessing the presenting of special honors and awards to outstanding students who had made enviable records during the past school year.

The class was presented by Principal O. L. Stamey to Superintendent R. N. Cluck, who named them as they were handed their diplomas by Mrs. N. A. Brown, acting for the school board.

The above named three officials made short but impressive talks on the achievements of this class, which was an outstanding one according to Mr. Cluck. Awards were given as follows:

Dorothy Nell Pugh, valedictorian, college scholarship and medal from Daughters of American Revolution for best grades during high school in American History.

Karl Armstrong, scholarship for making best grades of boys in class.

Rotary club award to Joe Philpott for being most valuable boy.

Martha Lou Smith, for best year's work in Home Economics, given by First Industrial Arts club.

The American Legion gave $5 in government stamps to Dorothy Jean Watson, as student showing the greatest improvement during the year.

Six graduates received honorable mention for making an average of 90 and above during the year. They were Dorothy Nell Pugh, Wanda Henson, Gene Grantham, Bobbie Lee Miller, Betty Fincher and Margaret Hailey.

Preceding the talk by Dr. Score, four senior girls sang "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise." They were Martha Brecheen, Dorothy Nell Pugh, Betty Sue Armstrong and Anna Diserens.

Wanda Henson was salutatorian, Barbara Grist played the procession and recessional and Rev. W. A. Flynn gave the invocation. The speaker took as his theme, "Preparation" and as a climax, "Faithfulness to Render According to One's Talents," taking the parables of the Ten Virgins and use of the talents given by the Master to be used during his absence.

Dr. Score was in good form and gave his talk in a quiet voice that impelled perfect attention during his entire discourse. Every point was impressive as he told how necessary it was that these students should not only be prepared for their life's work, but should be faithful to the talents God has given them and to make them multiply for the good of the world to which they were to give their best in service.

Mrs. Krauskopf and Music Pupils at Lion Luncheon

Lion H. R. (Pop) Garrett had charge of the program at the Lions luncheon today, presenting Mrs. Ben Krauskopf and two of her music pupils in a vocal and accordion rendition which brought hearty encores.

At the business session President Carlos Turner asked if there were any nominations from the floor to be added to those already made for officers for the year beginning July 1.

Lion W. A. Flynn introduced Lion C. A. Warden of Cisco as his guest.

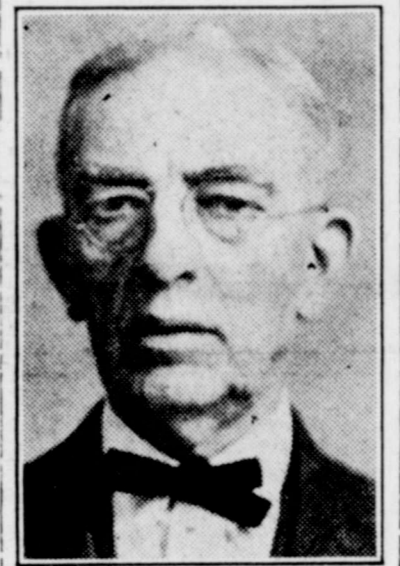

The vocal numbers were given by little Billy Smith, who sang as his first song, "My Dreams Are Getting Better All the Time," with Mrs. Krauskopf at the piano. Miss Fredlyn Cook of Putnam gave some highly appreciative numbers on the accordion.

Tom Dean, Upright Citizen and Business Man, is Dead

Thomas Jefferson Dean, in his 78th year and a Cisco druggist for the past 36 years, died quietly at his home here at 7 a. m. today.

The funeral will be held at First Methodist church at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, with burial in Oakwood cemetery. The officiating minister will be Rev. W. A. Flynn. The body is at Thomas funeral home.

Though ill for several years and blind for the past year, Mr. Dean was at his place of business almost daily until recently. He was always cheerful and friendly and was unquestionably one of Cisco's best loved men. He was distinctively a progressive citizen.

THOS. J. DEAN.

too, and his departure is a real loss to the community.

Tom Dean, as he was familiarly known to thousands of people in Cisco and Eastland county, was born at Dixon Springs, Tenn., Sept. 1, 1867. He came to Grayson county, Texas, when a young man and was with the Wells Fargo Express Co. at Sherman until 1903. He then located at Big Spring and entered the drug business.

During his residence in Big Spring Mr. Dean was married to Miss Ralph Atwood of that city, the marriage taking place in January of 1904. Five years later Mr. and Mrs. Dean moved to Cisco and he entered the drug business here in partnership with Floyd Jones, the latter interest being acquired by Mr. Dean in 1912 and since conducted as the Dean Drug Store.

Survivors are the widow and a daughter, Mrs. Ernest E. Lennon; a granddaughter, Betty Dean Lennon; two nephews and a niece, as follows: E. G. Dean, Dallas; W. H. Dean, Big Spring; Mrs. Jesse Jones, Warrensburg, Mo.

DEATH OF MRS. DAWSON.

News has been received in Cisco of the death of Mrs. J. C. Dawson, mother of Mrs. W. J. Leach, former Cisco resident, but now living in California. Mrs. Dawson was a resident of Snyder, Texas, and died in a hospital there on May 23. Mrs. Dawson had visited in Cisco on a number of occasions while Mr. and Mrs. Leach lived here.

JENKINS FUNERAL FRIDAY.

M. G. (Gray) Jenkins, brother of L. S. Jenkins and Mrs. E. N. Strickland, who died Monday in an Abilene hospital, will be buried Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the cemetery at Tuscola, his home. He was a native of Cisco and had been in the newspaper business at Tuscola for many years.

OKINAWA CUSTOMS—During brief lulls in fierce fighting on Okinawa, Yanks mingle with natives and become acquainted with crude industries on island. Small chimney shack salt evaporators (upper left) are scattered not far from beach near Shimobaru. Here natives crystallize their own salt from sea water. Light craft and nets used by native fishermen (upper right) are repaired the same day they return. Logs and stones in background are used to build native huts and walls. Dr. Shinsei Kuniyoshi (lower left) of Shimobaru, proudly displays American stethoscope which U. S. Navy doctor gave him in exchange for ivory-decorated one. Small boy is interested. When demand for medical attention exceeds supply of staff physicians, native doctor pitches in. Airview of Shimobaru (lower right), name given by Americans to Awase, reveals village still undamaged despite fierce fighting in area.

Japs Having Fun With Bomb-Carrying Balloons

WASHINGTON, May 30. — Japan's bomb-ferrying balloons are being launched against the United States from Nipponese home islands. They travel up to 125 miles an hour and take some 80 to 120 hours to reach this country.

Lyle F. Watts, chief of the U. S. forest service, says the unmanned balloons are controlled by an automatic ballast-dropping device. The forest service has been assisting the army in preventing damage from the enemy weapon.

Floyd Jones, the latter interest being acquired by Mr. Dean in 1912 and since conducted as the Dean Drug Store.

Survivors are the widow and a daughter, Mrs. Ernest E. Lennon; a granddaughter, Betty Dean Lennon; two nephews and a niece, as follows: E. G. Dean, Dallas; W. H. Dean, Big Spring; Mrs. Jesse Jones, Warrensburg, Mo.

BRITISH TAKE OVER—After traveling from Ostend, British Navy takes over famous German naval port and dockyard at southern end of Kiel Bay. Here Admiral von Friedeburg, commander-in-chief of German Navy, and Admiral Kummert, German commander-in-chief in Baltic area, leave British flagship after calling on R. Adm. Baille-Grohman. Lt. George Neely Missing For Year Is Enroute Home

Second Lt. George B. Neely, B-17 co-pilot, who was captured by the Germans January 11, 1944, has been released and returned to U. S. military control according to a message from the war department received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Neely of Fort Worth.

Lieutenant Neely was first reported as missing and for more than a year his fate was unknown to family and friends. His wife and small son, the latter born after his departure from the United States, reside in Stephenville. The lieutenant is a first cousin of Mrs. A. B. O'Flaherty of Cisco. His brother, Ralph Neely, married Miss Lucy Brown, sister of Mrs. Nick Miller of Cisco. The latest word from George Neely, says Mrs. Miller, is that he was flown to England and is now enroute home.

These 2 Oldsters Might Be Useful in Pacific Area

WASHINGTON, May 30. — Nursing a cut lip for his views, Rep. Taber (R-NY) today considered introducing legislation to cancel the $2,500 expense allowance House members recently voted themselves.

Taber, ranking Republican member of the appropriations committee, said his lip was cut by committee chairman Cannon (D-Mo). He claimed Cannon swung on him yesterday afternoon during a one-punch argument that arose over the expense account item.

Cannon, 66, would neither deny nor confirm the 65-year-old Taber's story.

OKINAWA BATTLE IN ITS FINAL PHASES. YOKOHAMA ISOLATED; CHINA - BURMA SITUATION GOOD

PEARL HARBOR, May 30. — The end of organized resistance appeared in sight on southern Okinawa today as Japanese reverses mounted throughout the Pacific.

Developments included: OKINAWA — Tenth Army forces broke into Shuri, the enemy's main citadel, captured the capital city of Naha, and extended their gains along the east coast.

JAPAN — Japanese broadcasts said 60,000 houses were destroyed, 250,000 persons left homeless and Yokohama virtually was isolated from the rest of Japan in yesterday's Superfortress raid. The 21st Bomber Command announced 51 square miles — one half — of Tokyo was in ruins.

PHILIPPINES — Two American divisions joined forces for a drive into Luzon's Cagayan valley against 30,000 Japanese troops, last major Japanese garrison in the archipelago. The third and last dam controlling Manila's water supply was captured intact east of the capital.

CHINA — Chinese troops driving southwest from captured Nanning were advancing 25 miles a day against negligible Japanese resistance. They were less than 50 miles from the French Indo-China border and 32 miles north-east of the Japanese-held railroad at Ningming.

BURMA — British 14th Army forces cleared another large sector of the Toungoo-Mawchi road and repulsed seven Japanese counter-attacks in the Irrawaddy sector.

The 60-day-old Okinawa campaign apparently was entering its final phase. United Press Correspondent E. G. Valens reported from Southern Okinawa that the last 25,200 to 35,000 troops on the island appeared to be breaking up and soon should be split into disorganized pockets.

Marines of the First Division finally cracked the powerful defenses of the inland fortress city of Shuri, central anchor and keystone of the Japanese line across the southern tip of Okinawa.

Cong. Clara Luce Thinks Russia to Fight Japanese

NEW YORK, May 30. — Rep. Clara Boothe Luce (R-Conn) says Russia has a "fresh, untried and powerful" army in Asia and "because it is to Soviet Russia's own national interests to get into the Pacific war, that army is certain to be used against the Japanese before the final kill."

The congresswoman added that since Germany's war machine and industrial strength have been destroyed, Russia stands as the strongest military and industrial power in Europe.

"When the Japanese are at last beaten to the ground, their army destroyed and their factories pulverized, Russia will emerge as the strongest military and industrial power also in Asia," she continued.

Mrs. Luce said "Russian soldiers by the thousands, and Russian generals by the dozens" deserted the Red army to fight "beside the Nazis."

"They were of course, deceived in their search for freedom, just as deceived as the German soldiers who deserted to the Russians."

"Today in the Balkans, over 300,000 Russian soldiers have deserted victorious Russian armies to seek a better, richer, happier way of life," she added.

50 Gestapo Killers Tried and Executed Is Report

LONDON, May 30. — A Copenhagen dispatch said today that 50 German Gestapo guards from the Trosley concentration camp in Denmark had been tried by an Allied military court and executed.

The report was the first indication that the western Allies have begun the trial of Nazi war criminals. Copenhagen said the trial of the Gestapo guards was held at Flensburg, north Germany seat of the short-lived Doenitz surrender government.

The London Daily Mirror speculated that Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering, once Hitler's designated successor, might be brought to trial as early as next week.

Versatile OPA Issues New Meat Orders to Farmers

New meat regulations of the OPA require all farm slaughterers to contact the War Price and Ration Board and secure class 3 slaughterers' permit before slaughtering any livestock for resale, it was announced this week.

A class three slaughterer is any farmer who slaughtered, or had slaughtered for him, any livestock which he owned and from which he sold or gave away not more than 6,000 pounds of meat during any 12-month period from January 1, 1944, to March 31, 1945. Those who slaughtered or gave away more than this amount should contact the district OPA office in Fort Worth immediately.

Purpose of this control is to achieve a better distribution of meats by increasing the amount of livestock in federally inspected plants, upon which the armed forces and most city families depend for their meat supplies, it was explained.

BOOM END.

Industrial soothsayers forecast a lot of labor trouble this summer and fall, in the process of getting back from war orders to normal industry. The transition naturally involves a return from the recent 48-hour week, with time and a half for overtime, to the normal 42-hour week. Such procedure, without overtime, would apparently reduce pay to the same degree, entailing the loss of more than one-fifth of a workman's income.

To avoid such loss, the labor unions are asking for hourly rates one-fifth higher. There will doubtless be quite an argument about that, with the common citizen as usual standing in the background and saying nothing, and the government assuming more control over industry to make things balance as far as possible.

RE-EDUCATION.

American schools are often said to have too many women teachers, but apparently there is such a thing as not having enough. Werner Richter, former undersecretary in the Prussian ministry of education and, as such, in charge of university appointments, is now in this country. He sees considerable merit in the American educational scheme. In his book, "Re-educating Germany," he says that German teachers have run entirely too much to the non-commissioned officer type, and that a much larger use of women is the best way out. As Richter says, "If Germany is to be cleansed once and for all of militarism, of blind obedience to authority, of the deadening effects of spiritual goose-stepping, that beginning must be made in the elementary non-military school."

EAST AND WEST.

The war moves steadily westward. Large numbers of American fighting men, coming back to "God's country," are being "alerted for redeployment" and sent on to join the war against the Japs.

It is one of the greatest movements of military forces in human history, for one of the greatest purposes. And directions are curiously reversed. What we call the West is moving westward against what we call the East. And there is probably nothing we can do about such terminology. It's not only a small world, but an increasingly confused world. Shall we ever get it untangled?

Baited Hooks.

Two years ago when national legislation affecting schools was proposed (S-637) nobody who proposed the bill ever called it the "federal school control bill." That alone would have defeated it. No sincere friend of America's public schools wants them bossed by the national government. The thing was referred to always as "federal aid to education." That sounded much better.

But a great many people were not fooled at all. They had seen bait used to hide hooks before by political as well as practical fishermen. Although the bill stated, right in Section One, that it would be a nice little law if passed and not help any government man, or group of men, grab the schools and run away with them, the platitudes were ignored by our sage and seasoned Senate.

Amended by Senate. On the floor of the Senate the "federal aid" bill underwent some changes. As changed, no part of the federal funds therein provided nor any part of the local funds thereby supplemented could be used to make or maintain any distinction between races. That's federal control, beyond dispute. I am not discussing the merits of the amendment. I am saying this: Federal control will follow federal aid as night follows day. The subject is alive again now. A committee in the House and another committee in the Senate are once more considering legislation that flies the flag of "federal aid to education." Once more I am emphasizing that financial aid to local schools from far-away Washington will bring federal control of local schools in spite of all the protective clauses ever built out of words.

It is Federal Law.

The Supreme Court of the United States, the most powerful tribunal on this war-cursed earth, has established a precedent in favor of federal control. The Supreme Court has ruled that the federal government can control that which it subsidizes. Little, protesting sentences in the preamble of new legislation figuratively fade away in the light of this Supreme Court ruling. Some people may want to argue that federal aid to schools is not federal subsidy of schools. I maintain that any distinction between the two things is a distinction without a difference. I have learned quite a little about these twin bills recently, and about people who advocate their passage. The bills are practically alike and they point to government control like a compass points to the north.

The Entering Wedge.

Both bills call for a 300 million dollar annual outlay of federal funds, and it's only a start. Testimony of people who journey to Washington boosting the idea is very clear. It translates the hand-writing on the wall. They expect federal aid to grow rapidly after the first bill is passed. I also think it would grow in less than ten years from federal subsidy to federal control.

I am opposed to federal aid therefore for several reasons: (1) It will lead directly to federal control of education. (2) When the national government controls the local schools, the children's parents have nothing to say about what takes place at school. (3) If it happens, popular education, so dearly bought, will be nothing but a handy stepping stone toward political dictatorship.

It's Not So Bad . . .

. . . to make the first mistake, nor the second, perhaps, but he who keeps it up is doomed to sad failure. The man who buys property for the first time without an abstract has made an honest mistake. What he should then do is to charge off his loss to experience but resolve not to err again in the same way. All wise men make errors but only the foolish repeat them.

COUNCIL OF CHURCH WOMEN MET TUESDAY.

Cisco Council of Church Women met at First Christian church Tuesday afternoon for regular monthly meeting and program on "Our Town." Mrs. Edward Lee opened the meeting and prayer was offered by Mrs. E. J. Poe. The assembly joined in singing a verse of "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," after which the invited guest speaker Lieut. O. O. Odom, was presented in a talk on "Re-turning Service Personnel," which was interesting and well received. He told of some of his overseas experiences as a prisoner of war in Germany. Mrs. Lonnie Shock-ley was presented in a vocal so-lo, "The Lord's Prayer," accom-panied at the piano by Mrs. S. E. Hittson. Mrs. C. C. Watkins presented Miss Allyce Nelson, field advisor of the Girl Scout National staff, who gave a short talk on the work of that orga-nization. Mrs. S. L. Cook fol-lowed with a discussion of "Child Delinquency" and Mrs. D. Ball gave a talk on "Enemies of Our Town."

Mrs. C. C. Watkins presented "Our Town Responsibilities in a World-Wide Comradship" and Mrs. James Moore led the ded-ication service, the closing program number. Mrs. Moore was as-sisted in the responsive readings by a group of young women. Mrs. John Shertzer, council president, conducted the business session and minutes were read by Mrs. H. H. Davis. A free will of-fering was taken which netted $19.62, divided as follows. One-third to local council fund, one-third to state headquarters and one-third to national headquar-ters. It was stated that the amount going to national head-quar-ters is used entirely for maintaining mission work over-seas. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Shertzer. The assembly was then invited to an adjacent class room for refreshments. The serving tables, covered with pretty lace cloth, were presided over by Mrs. Sam Kimmell, who passed refreshment plates of delicious cookies and Mrs. W. J. Armstrong who ladled punch to the group. One hun-dred and one women were pres-ent.

RUTH CLASS HELD PICNIC OUTING.

Developer and Top Producer of Synthetic Toluene

Baytown Ordnance Works, designed and operated for the Government by Humble, was the first plant in the world to make toluene synthetically from petroleum. Forty-five days before Pearl Harbor the first shipment of toluene was made; and since that time Humble has produced toluene for at least one out of every two bombs used by the United Nations. For this feat Humble has five times been awarded the Army-Navy "E". This is one of the four important FIRSTS* in Humble's war production record.

Research and development in progress long before the war, backed by Humble's vast resources made possible these achievements. From this same combination of research and resources come top quality products for your car.

- *FIRST to produce a billion gallons of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline at one refinery
- FIRST in crude oil production
- FIRST in U. S. production of toluene for TNT
- FIRST in transportation of oil by pipe line

SCIENTIFICALLY DEVELOPED PRODUCTS

Esso-Extra, Humble 997 Motor Oil, and other quality Humble products are the culmination of years of intensive research, development and constant improvement.

Look for the Humble sign when you shop for your car's needs. Behind that familiar red, white and blue oval lies the experience of a great name and a great organization.
