BRITAIN ENTERS SYRIAN FIGHT

"Honor Belongs to the Man Who Performs Duty Well"

Edward Lee had charge of the Rotary program today, introducing Rev. James R. Wright, who spoke on "Memorial Day." W. W. Fewell, acting as president after President J. W. Slaughter left the club for a business engagement, emphasized the importance of a perfect attendance, saying he proposed publishing in the July Ro-Tator a record of each member's attendance through the past year.

Eastland Citizens Succored Farmers Who Needed Help

Mr. and Mrs. Cart Daniel, who live about eight miles from Cisco, near the Breckenridge highway, produced 170 acres of A1 oats this year. However, after the oats had been cut and tied, it seemed impossible to secure labor for shocking the large crop, and rain threatened.

DRESS REHEARSAL—Flags, banners, patriotic colors and special illumination provide proper setting to welcome returning veterans to New York Port of Embarkation. Photo shows river end of Pier 84, North River, with all the gala trimmings. Five other piers are so decorated.

Rotarian Wright took as his subject Memorial Day and the meaning of the things we do on that day. His text was chosen from the saying of Joshua, "What Mean Ye By These Stones?" The speaker mentioned that on this day we salute the flag, lay flowers or a flag on the grave of a soldier who gave his life for the principle for which he fought, and then as quickly forget the occasion and facts which prompted our acts.

Hearing of their plight, W. M. Warren of the Warren Motor company, Eastland, closed his place of business and, together with Mrs. Warren and his crew of workmen, spent a day at the Daniel farm putting the oats in shocks. Mr. Warren declined pay for the good deed, remarking that while it was the first work of the kind he had performed in thirty years, he and his crew had actually enjoyed the outing; that he really believed it was easier than sitting on a river bank and fishing all day.

13 Million Dollars Wagered By a Half Million

NEW YORK, May 31.—More than a half million sports hungry fans — actually 553,389 — jammed race tracks and ball parks on the Memorial Day holiday, causing old marks to fall by the wayside.

U. S. Casualties Passed the Million Mark Today

WASHINGTON, May 31.—U. S. combat casualties in this war passed 1,000,000 today.

PORTABLE FLAME THROWER M2-2 designed especially to combat Japs, is demonstrated at Little Falls, N. J. Solid sheet of flame shoots from new weapon during practice firing of jellied gasoline. Range of firing has been increased with new fuel from 30 yards to more than 60 yards. Gun can be fired either in short bursts or in one continuous burst on Japanese positions.

Hitler Closed Churches as One of His First Acts Toward Absolute Authority

Hitler closed the churches as one of his first acts toward absolute authority and his reign of terror and butchery. And then Mr. Wright asked the question, "Are we truly Christians?" There are millions of people in the United States who never attend Sunday school or church services.

GUAM, May 31.—Tenth army forces closed two separate pincers around thousands of Japanese near conquered Churi in southern Okinawa today.

Radio Tokio conceded that its main defense line had collapsed and said the critical stage in the 61-day battle for Okinawa was imminent.

Pincers Close on Liuchow Burning; Thousands of Shuri - Okinawa Japs Draw From Area

KUNMING, China, May 31.—Liuchow, main Japanese road and rail hub in southern China, was reported swept by fires set by its defenders today as Chinese troops closed in on the city along a 50-mile front.

Jap Balloon Bomb Killed a Mother and 5 Children

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Undersecretary of War Patterson disclosed today that a mother and five of her children were killed by a bomb from one of the long-range Japanese balloons sporadically attacking the western part of this country.

What of those men who died at Normandy, in France, in Germany, Italy or the islands of the seas?

NAZI LABOR BOSS Dr. Robert Ley didn't have time to dress before capture at mountain hideaway near Berchtesgaden, Germany. Here American soldiers of 101st Airborne Division search pajama-clad 55-year-old German. He looks indignant over humiliating position.

CATTLE ACTIVE. FT. WORTH, May 31.—The Fort Worth market for cattle and calves today was active at strong to 25c higher prices. Hogs were steady with receipts still falling far short of needs.

WORK OR FIGHT. CORSICANA, May 31.—Navarro County draft board No. 2 reclassified 36 deferred employees of the American Well and Prospecting Company as a general walk-out of 600 workers of the plant, continued for a third day.

EXTRA SPECIAL — For quick sale, six-room modern bungalow with large lot, near east ward school. E. P. Crawford Agency, phone 453.

Chiang of China Turns Premiership to Brother-in-law

CHUNGKING, May 31.—Chiang Kai-shek resigned today as premier and turned the post over to acting Premier T. V. Soong in a move viewed as a step toward solidifying China at a time when the Allied nations are applying tremendous pressure on Japan from all quarters.

CHURCHILL REQUESTS DE GAULLE WITHDRAW FRENCH TROOPS TO THEIR BARRACKS IMMEDIATELY

LONDON, May 31.—John Bull ordered his commander in the Middle East to intervene in the fighting between French and Syrians today. Prime Minister Churchill called upon Gen. De Gaulle to withdraw French troops to their barracks to prevent further bloodshed in the strategic Levant.

U. S. Casualties Passed the Million Mark Today

WASHINGTON, May 31.—U. S. combat casualties in this war passed 1,000,000 today.

HEAVY FIGHTING. LONDON, May 21.—Reports reaching Cairo said today heavy fighting had erupted again in the Syrian capital of Damascus and that French and Arabs were locked in clashes throughout the country.

Communications between Cairo and Damascus were cut, but one report from Jerusalem said the Arabs had captured Deraa, about 60 miles south of Damascus, and had taken 500 French prisoners.

U. S. Casualties Passed the Million Mark Today

WASHINGTON, May 31.—U. S. combat casualties in this war passed 1,000,000 today.

CONFERENCE DRAGS. SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—The "little" United Nations displayed mounting impatience today at the Big Five delay in answering their questions about the Yalta voting formula for the United Nations world organization.

The nearly two-weeks delay has slowed other conference progress. Nothing more can be done on almost half of the major unsettled questions until there is a decision of the Big Five veto issue.

VET PASSES AT 98. DALLAS, May 31.—Funeral services were scheduled to be held Friday for Gen. R. P. Scott, 98, one of the few in the thinning ranks of Confederate veterans, who died yesterday at his home. Scott joined the Confederate Army when he was 15.

KILLED WIFE, DAUGHTER. OKLAHOMA CITY, May 31.—Police planned today to question Dr. E. Paul Harris in the fatal shooting last night of his wife and his 26-year-old daughter, Mrs. Virginia Bartow.

CATTLE FOR GREECE. WASHINGTON, May 31.—As the first move to restore the decimated herds and draft animals in ravaged European countries 300 dairy heifers and 900 draft animals soon will be sent to Greece, it was announced at headquarters of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration today.

WITH PRIDE these youngsters look on giant C-82 Packet which their daddies helped build at war plant at Hagerstown, Md. Fuselage carries nine tons of military supplies.

ORDNANCE.

Who won the European war? Add to the list of nominees the Army Ordnance Department. Since Pearl Harbor, according to figures released by Lieut. Gen. L. H. Campbell, Jr., chief of the department, 43,000,000,000 rounds of rifle and machine gun ammunition were furnished. Also such trifles as a billion shells 17,000,000 rifles and pistols, 3,000,000 machine guns, 600,000 larger guns, and 3,500,000 vehicles. This last figure includes 100,000 tanks.

Ordinance Department has been criticised for not always attaining maximum speed in adopting new ideas. Whether or not this criticism is warranted, evidently it cannot be accused of being asleep. An output like the above can be rounded up from war plants only by plenty of activity in Washington.

CHICAGO.

Even Chicago, with all its slaughter houses, is said to be settling down lately to a diet of fish and eggs. That is, the righteous and uninitiated are doing so. There is said to be collateral evidence that "a retailer can get all the meat he wants if he will pay the price, but he must have a clientele in the high economic bracket."

As for such a clientele, the news comes from Chicago that "women sit in the bay windows, waiting for delivery trucks. They telephone to their friends, and soon after the trucks arrive the whole neighborhood is aroused. Naturally the meat is soon gone."

It is all very sad. But a calm observer wonders what has become of the vegetarian movement there used to be in this country. Upholders of that faith used to brag about the superior merit of living on fruits and vegetables, and the longer life and clearer thought it produced, and so on. Surely this is, of all periods with-in memory, the ideal time to encourage a cleansing faith. And there ought to be a boom on gardens and chicken pens, even if they must be placed on apartment house roofs.

CEILING PRICE — All that glitters is not gold and what is apparently a pint bottle of Sunny Brook whiskey which graces the top of Justice of the Peace Z. M. Taylor's desk together with other relics of olden times, is not what it seems. It is vinegar. A short time ago a local citizen paid $15 for it. He tasted it before the man who sold it to him could get away. He chased the pseudo bootlegger for two blocks, caught him and took him to jail. His money was refunded, it is said, after County Attorney G. G. Hazel had sampled the liquid and pronounced it vinegar. As the vendor had violated no law in selling vinegar, he was released. At any rate everybody who visits Justice Taylor's office nowadays keeps his eyes riveted on the bottle and tries to whisper something in Taylor's ear.

GRACEY PAID — It cost Bob Gracey of this city $1 and costs for slapping "Joe Bailey's friend" down at the station Thursday morning. He pleaded guilty in the justice of the peace court and was fined $11.70. The complaint was brought by Horace P. Winston, expressman, who alleged that Gracey hit him for showing a picture of Joe Bailey, which had been autographed to him by that gubernatorial candidate. "Joe Bailey is my friend," says Winston. "He lent me $10,000 once and I have paid him back every cent of it. I have just paid $75 city taxes and I don't know of any law against showing people Joe Bailey's picture if I want to."

GREAT IDEA—The city commission was asked to have trash cans placed on the corners of the downtown business section by a committee from the Young Men's Business League, which made a formal call on the commissioners at their meeting in the city hall Wednesday evening. The committee, which was headed by Claude Wild, president of the league, suggested that the cans have stationary, cone-shaped tops, with openings on two sides for rubbish, and that they be made to pay for themselves by the advertising they might carry. The suggestion was greeted with favor by the commissioners.

BUSY SHERIFF — Sheriff H. F. Lawrence of Eastland reports that last night he made a raid on a car occupied by W. T. Bailey and Jack Davis and captured from them several quarts of corn whiskey. The men are in jail and the evidence in the case is stored under lock and key in the custody of the sheriff. The sheriff had a tip that the booze was in the car and at the proper time held up the car and made the search with the above result. A portion of the find, however, was in a tent supposed to be occupied by these same men.

DECORATION DAY

On May 30 of this week, sorrowing kindred all over the nation mourned over those who have fallen in conflict on foreign fields. They have spread flowers on the graves of loved ones near at hand and have prayed that some distant angel of mercy will remember the graves in those distant battle fields.

All America has bowed in sorrow for men who have given their lives for freedom for others. May we remember them in honor through the coming years.
