EXTENDED RUNWAYS AND PERFECT DRAINAGE MAKE CISCO AIRPORT A1 CLASS 2 FIELD

About $5,000 worth of improvements have been made in the last two weeks to Cisco municipal airport through the generous cooperation of County Commissioner Arch Bint and the city street department. It was announced Saturday by Haywood Cabaness, airport manager. Extension of runways and rearrangement of the airport drainage system has brought the port well within the requirements for a Class II field, as designed by the civil aeronautics authority, and greatly increased its practical use during wet weather. So well has the drainage system been devised that no water flows over the field during the heaviest rains, while the turf is excellent for landings and takeoffs. No obstructions exist on approaches to the port, a factor which has brought high praise of its safety qualities from CAA.

Work done by the county road machinery crews under Mr. Bint's direction has made possible the following extensions of runways: East-west, extended 569 feet to a total of 3,109 feet. North-south, extended 100 feet to a total of 2,649. Northeast-southwest, extended 1,500 feet to 3,109. It has also made possible a runway northwest and southeast for a total of 3,000 feet, which will be in operation as soon as possible. All markers have been reset to the new dimensions. Mr. Cabaness said. As it now stands the port will accommodate heavy private planes and light airliners which will probably be the largest planes to land here under present requirements for air transportation into and out of Cisco. Development of the Cisco port is under the supervision of the city commission and H. S. Drumwright is the airport commissioner in charge of this phase of city development. The airport has been in use for a number of years as a CAA approved field. Burl Tibbs, one of the pioneers of aviation development in the United States, is operator of the port, which has an A&E repair shop under Mr. Tibbs' direction where any type of repairs on any character of plane can be

100 at Appreciation Banquet For 3 State Officials

Judge J. E. Hickman, member of the state supreme court commission of appeals, L. R. Pearson, floral representative in the state legislature from Eastland and Callahan counties, and R. N. Grisham, Eastland county representative in the legislature, were honor guests at a banquet at Eastland Friday night, which was attended by some 100 representative citizens of Eastland and Callahan counties. Pat Bullock of Colorado City, state senator, was unable to be present. Judge Virgil T. Seaberry of Eastland presided as toastmaster and introduced the honored guests who responded with short talks.

Legislation beneficial to the state and section sponsored by the Eastland county representatives was cited by the toastmaster, among them a bill by Pearson simplifying procedure in handling of royalty interests in mineral contracts, and a constitutional amendment sponsored by Grisham which will increase the membership of the state supreme court to nine members by elevating the six commissioners to the status of voting judges.

Judge Pearson, first speaker, gave a brief but interesting review of his work in recently adjourned legislature, of which he was a new yet diligent member, and stated that notwithstanding much of the press of the state had and was criticizing the body as a "spending legislature," the legislature actually passed not more than 69 bills and levied no new taxes.

Judge Grisham explained his activities in connection with the proposed amendment for increasing the number of members of the state supreme court from three to nine, and recommended that the amendment, which is to be voted on August 25, be passed by the voters of the state.

Judge Hickman, member of the commission, explained the need for the increased number in the membership of the supreme court and advocated that the amendment be voted.

Judge Cyrus B. Frost of Eastland offered the following resolution which was voted unanimously by the meeting: "We favor adoption of the constitutional amendment on August 25, increasing our Texas supreme court from three to nine members. We urge the citizens to vote for the amendment."

Seated at the table with the honor guests were W. P. Leslie, chief justice eleventh court of civil appeals, Eastland, and Clyde Grissom and Milburn Long, associate justices.

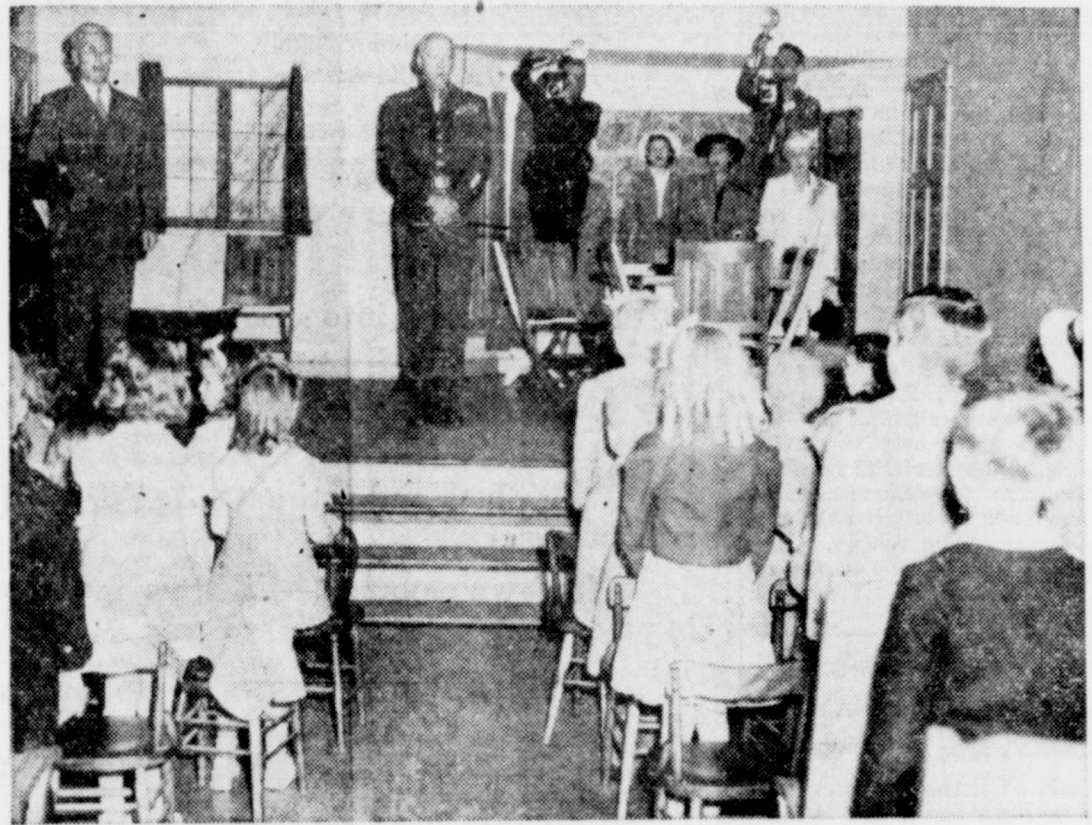

Present from Cisco were R. N. Cluck, Dr. E. L. Graham, J. D. Lauderdale, Edward Lee, J. E. Spencer, F. D. Wright and B. A. Butler.

45TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Courtney, 905 McCarty street, will observe their 45th wedding anniversary today. With the exception of two years at Sweetwater, their entire married life has been spent in Cisco. Seven children will spend today with them, but two will be unable to do so. One of these, Arthur Kittrell Courtney, is in the army and stationed in California at this time.

JAPS CERTAIN NEW ALLIED LANDINGS ARE NEAR, BUT DON'T KNOW WHERE OR WHEN

PEARL HARBOR, June 16. — The Japanese have begun their Banzai charges on Okinawa, and there were indications today the battle might end this weekend.

At the most it would continue another week, according to Lt. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, commander of the 10th Army.

Flame-throwing American tanks burned and ground the enemy soldiers to death as they made their suicide charges. The Japanese were trapped in 10 square miles, every inch of which was covered by American gunfire. The 9th Division threatened to cut that last pocket in two.

The Japanese faced new attacks from other quarters. Tokyo reported a big Allied fleet was near the oil center of Balikpapan, on the east coast of Borneo.

There was a significant lot of mine-sweeping off the oil fields on Borneo's northwest coast, possibly presaging additional landings there. Australian troops gained two miles in their overland drive toward the oil fields, after completing the clearing of Brunei peninsula and Labuan Islands.

American troops in the Philippines renewed their drive to finish the fight there and free crack divisions for operations elsewhere. In a sudden spurt, the 37th Division raced 22 miles in 24 hours in northern Luzon to liberate Santiago and Echague.

The invasion-jittery Japanese reported American bases on Okinawa were being "steadily perfected for full-dress operations." Radio Tokyo said American naval units have extended their patrols as far north as Amami island, 185 miles south of Japan proper.

Carrier-based planes raided Truk in the Carolines for the third straight day, a Japanese broadcast reported. Tokyo said that a fleet, apparently British, shelled the island for an hour yesterday.

Black Market Sugar Ring is Put Out of Business

DALLAS, June 16. — A black market sugar ring extending from New Orleans to Atlanta, Ga., had been broken up today by OPA officials who yesterday arrested a truck driver in New Orleans who had transported more than a quarter of a million pounds of sugar to a Georgia bootlegger.

The OPA, through J. C. Flanagan, in charge of OPA currency, in a six state region, picked up the trail of the large black market sugar ring at Dallas when the ration coupon verification center discovered through infra-red tests that it had been flooded with approximately 48,000 counterfeit sugar coupons.

Flanagan and secret service operators traced the coupons to a single wholesale company at New Orleans. Five days later, a 31-year-old truck driver was taken into custody by OPA men and Federal alcohol tax men.

The sugar, Flanagan said, was going to a Georgia bootlegger, said to be leader of the ring. The bootlegger had not been arrested by last midnight, Flanagan said, but added that his arrest was imminent.

DISEASE AND CRIME.

The Weekly Ro-Ta-Tor, Cisco Rotary club publication, carried an article Thursday under the caption "Crime and Sanitation" that should stir serious-minded citizens to quick, determined action in co-operation with the sanitary and police departments of Cisco city commission.

A high state of cleanliness throughout the city would prevent many diseases, while inhibiting epidemics in practically all instances. And striking full force at crime in its incipency is just as necessary locally as it is in world affairs. There is no better way to maintain order.

Said the Ro-Ta-Tor: "Two things are happening in Cisco that ought not to be. We have been advised that the dread Polio disease has struck one of our citizens, and there is petty thievery going on in the business district. Both of these things call for our cooperation in preventing them.

"We should do all in our power to assist the health authorities in combating Polio, and also help our peace officers in combating thievery. Community service is one of the things Rotary stands for and now is our time to provide that service. We have just had a clean-up campaign in our town. However there is much that could be done to make it a cleaner town. There are some lots in this town that have a dense growth of weeds on them, and some of them have water standing on them, but it is difficult for the authorities to get to this water to treat it with oil. In this connection we publish an article from the Stamford Rotary Linchpin, which, to our way of thinking, points out some things that exist here as well as is claimed for Stamford:

"The business district of Stamford needs a good clean-up. Fear of another infantile paralysis epidemic is gripping the minds of our nation. Science is doing extensive research on this terrible disease, but to date has accomplished little toward its goal. Since we don't know the cause of infantile paralysis it might be a good idea to give special attention to the unsanitary condition of our city.

"There is no doubt that all persons required to have health certificates in order to work in public places are complying. It is namely the unsanitary condition of our streets and sidewalks. It is alarming to see dishwater on the sidewalks and the filth that litters the street; it can be rather annoying to know that I find it almost impossible to jay-walk in Stamford. I have walked half a block to the sidewalk because of the stagnant water in the gutters that has come from air conditioners with no other drainage.

"In this era of modern sanitation such conditions should not exist except in the minds of our ancestors and in less civilized outposts in this world. Much smaller and less prosperous cities in Texas manage to have their streets cleaned each night and combat diseases by putting oil on mosquito-infested ponds. The citizens of Stamford should take civic pride in doing this much for the future health and happiness of its next generation."

UNFINISHED CATHEDRAL.

Anyone with $10,000,000 to spare is invited to give it for the completion of New York's great cathedral, that of St. John the Divine. Lesser amounts, however, will be cheerfully accepted. At least that may be inferred from a statement of Bishop William T. Manning of New York's Episcopal diocese.

St. John the Divine has long been one of New York's great sights. It was started in 1892, and like most other cathedrals is a long time in building. It still has some decades to go, however, before it equals the record of St. Peter's in Rome, which took 129 years to finish, or the Cologne cathedral, which took 632.

When finished, according to Bishop Manning, it will be the second largest cathedral in the world, surpassed only by St. Peter's; a third larger than London's St. Paul's or Notre Dame in Paris. If New York needs any more reasons for attracting visitors, it can offer the sight of one of the remarkable buildings of the world.

Back in the Good Old Days

... the most of the lawyers compiled their own abstracts. The records were simple and few. But how times have changed! Today, the modern abstract office is a mass of indices, field notes, files, plats, tracings and copy taken from hundreds of records at the Court House — all co-ordinated, assembled and classified in systematic order by trained personnel with years of experience in title work. The abstract has become absolutely essential in every real estate transaction.
