Water Polo Contest by Firemen Attracted Crowd

Cisco firemen staged a water polo contest last evening in front of the fire department on west Sixth street, which was very interesting to an audience of citizens as well as thoroughly enjoyable to the 21 firemen participating.

The purpose of the game, said Jay Garrett, fire department reporter, is to teach firemen how to handle hose nozzles and how to move hose lines to the best advantage.

The game is played by two-men teams selected from the two hose companies. A heavy galvanized bucket on a pulley is suspended from a tight steel wire, the wire being 10 feet from the ground and 125 feet in length.

When the bucket has been placed in the center of the wire and the teams have taken their positions at each end, the water battle begins and continues until one of the teams has driven the bucket over its goal line with streams of water of 175 pounds pressure.

It is a good game, but a decidedly "wet" one, especially when a victorious team turns the powerful stream of water from Lake Cisco on the losers, with the intent of "drowning 'em out."

Chamber of commerce directors, meeting in their new home opposite the fire station for the first time, watched the battle with keen interest. N. C. Huston, one of the directors, intercepted a forward water pass and emerged "all wet," but the other directors played safe by remaining inside their quarters and watching through the windows.

Mr. Garrett said another contest would be held in the near future, when advance notice will be given the public through the Daily Press.

IMPRESSIVE SPEAKER.

Evangelist C. B. Fugett of Ashland, Ky., spoke to a large crowd last night at the Nazarene camp meeting that is in progress at the Presbyterian camp grounds near Lake Cisco. He is an interesting speaker and makes an urgent appeal to those who hear him to seek the Lord and live lives that will make this a better world. A large number of people went forward when the invitation was extended, said Rev. L. H. Clegg, local Nazarene pastor. The visitor related the first chapter of his life story last night and the second chapter will be given tonight. The subject will be "The One Hour of the Sunny Side of Life." Said Mr. Clegg: "Come early tonight for a back seat, for they are filled fast."

Visiting Minister Talked to Lions on Vital Subject

A talk on the importance and need of scrap paper to carry on the functions of the military and manufacturing units of the nation, by Bob Lawrence, special assistant of the war labor board; vocal number by Rev. Bill Pond, singer for East Cisco church revival, and a talk by Rev. T. J. Sparkman, who also is helping Rev. Mr. Holmes in the revival, were highlights of the entertainment features at the Lion's luncheon today.

Lion W. A. Flynn reported that the First Methodist church had extended the use of the church as a permanent meeting place for the Lions club. As a committee to purchase dishes and other utensils, President H. R. Garrett appointed Lions A. R. Westfall, Dr. C. E. Paul and Dizzy Dean to act with Mrs. Wesley Smith in the selections. Other visitors than those on the program were Lt. Fred Rylee and R. W. McCauley.

President Garrett introduced Rev. Evan Holmes of East Cisco Baptist church who, after a few remarks, presented Mr. Pond in a solo, with Dr. Paul at the piano. This drew a hearty encore.

Mr. Holmes then presented Mr. Sparkman, who spoke on the importance of religion and the Bible as close companions for business men, citing significant quotations from such men as Daniel Webster, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Robt. E. Lee, Woodrow Wilson, Benjamin Franklin, James A. Garfield, Grover Cleveland, Andrew Jackson, Abraham Lincoln, President Coolidge, Stonewall Jackson and Wm. McKinley. All of these quotations spoke of the vast importance of the Bible and religion in making a good citizen and being able to carry on in a free country.

Though Mr. Sparkman talked only about eight minutes, his address was crammed with vital, living subject matters tending to arouse thoughts in the minds of his audience as to the responsibility entailed upon citizens of a liberty-loving country, that must be governed wisely if it continues as a place of freedom for its people.

EAST CISCO REVIVAL.

"The revival at East Cisco Baptist church is progressing very nicely," says Rev. Evan Holmes, pastor. Rev. T. J. Sparkman is doing the preaching, with Rev. Bill Pond as the song leader. They are being greeted by large crowds and will conduct a special "Old Folks Service" Thursday, to which all are invited. The pastor added: "A record was established at Sunday school Sunday, 197 being in attendance. The goal for next Sunday is 250 and we are looking for you to be there at 9:45 a. m."

Prompt Enactment of Airport Program Urged by Associated General Contractors

Attractive modern airports like this at Winston-Salem (below) will be typical when air-minded America hits her stride after V-J day. Insert—Observation deck and runways at the Winston-Salem Airport.

Washington — Prompt action should be taken on the proposed national airport program and funds should be made available immediately for the preparation of airport plans, D. W. Winkelman, Syracuse, N. Y., chairman of the Airway Facilities Committee of the Associated General Contractors of America, told the House Commerce Committee at its hearings on legislation providing for federal aid in the development and construction of a National system.

"Congress in three different acts has provided funds to be available immediately for planning of post-war highway construction projects," Mr. Winkelman said. "It is even more necessary that similar provisions be made for the postwar airport program."

"Airports are a type of construction which can be undertaken immediately after the war, if plans are ready," Mr. Winkelman explained. "The grading and paving of runways is a type of construction which does not use scarce materials. If the construction industry which is the second largest employer of labor in the country, is to operate at a high rate of activity, particularly in the period immediately following the end of the war, it must depend in this period on such types of projects as airports."

"Development of airports will also stimulate many other industries, and stimulate work opportunities not only in those industries providing materials for the construction work, but also in those industries making use of the completed airports."

THE LAND OF THE FREE—American flags wave as a U. S. Navy blimp escorts the Queen Mary as she pulls into New York Harbor bringing 14,579 fighting men home from Europe. Good ship led an eight-vessel convoy with 35,000 soldiers aboard, largest number to be returned in one day.

Osborn Studio Is in New Home and Open to Business

The Osborn Studio — A. L. Osborn, proprietor — has moved to the completely modernized D avenue building that housed the Red Front drug store for more than 50 years. His extensive photographic equipment has been set up and he is ready for business.

Mr. Osborn came here from Abilene seven years ago and established his studio. Excellent equipment, skilled workmanship and close attention to his customers have given the institution a good name. This photographic service has since been uninterrupted except for a year and a half, or while the proprietor was in the air service command at Dayton, O. While absent, the Ciscoan devoted considerable time to the study of color photography, which will be introduced locally as soon as war conditions will permit. A camera shop will also be added when supplies can be obtained. Kodak finishing, by the way, is another Osborn specialty.

Mr. Osborn extends a cordial invitation to friends and the general public to call and inspect his new home.

VALUABLE WOMAN PASSES.

The body will lie in state at the Alamo preceding funeral services.

LESS TRAIN TRAVEL.

WASHINGTON, July 18. — Civilian train travel, already more of an ordeal than fun, soon will become "more uncomfortable than ever." This prediction came Wednesday from the ODT in connection with an order giving the military services first call on almost all passenger rolling stock,

DISCOUNT PEACE RUMORS.

WASHINGTON, July 18. — Rumors and hopes of quick peace in the Pacific take a bad beating among military men here, who believe Japan is full of fight and must be invaded. She was 5,000,000 well armed troops in the home islands and about 4,000 first line fighter and bomber planes. Japan also has an enormous store of infantry weapons. The consensus is that Japan still will fight despite the astonishing failure to challenge our navy's daring approaches to her shore lines.

WATERWAYS' GOOD WORK.

WASHINGTON, July 18. — The nation's inland waterways system, the Office of Defense Transportation said today, now is handling approximately 1,000,000 barrels of petroleum and its products daily, and transported these products a total of 65,000,000,000 barrel miles during the first six months of 1945.

GREAT WHEAT LOSS.

4-H Club Boys to Lake Brownwood This Week

Eighteen Eastland county 4-H club boys expect to attend the District 4-H club camp at Lake Brownwood Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, according to information from the county agent's office.

The group will go as representatives of all of the 575 club boys in the county. They were chosen at a meeting of 4-H club presidents and local leaders several weeks ago.

T. Eaton and Howard Falls, Ranger; Howard Wilson and George McBee, Carbon; Mack and Jack Weston, Carbon; Monte Walker, Carbon; Tommy Morgan and Bobby Harrison, Morton Valley. Club boys from 21 different counties will attend the camp at the same time.

Four of the boys will give demonstrations on seed treatment as well as the importance of organic matter in the soil. The four boys have been trained by William Brigham, emergency war food assistant, working out of County Agent J. M. Cooper's office. They are Bobby Harrison, Monte Walker, George McBee and Howard Wilson.

Besides Mr. Brigham, others who will accompany the boys to the camp are Buck Weston, Carbon; Cecil Shultz, Rising Star and J. M. Cooper, county agricultural agent, Eastland.

Beef Cattle Production Payments Through the AAA

Cattle feeders in Eastland county can now apply to the county AAA office for beef cattle production payments under the government's new program to increase the production of meat.

The beef cattle production payment amounts to 50 cents per hundred-weight on Grade A and Grade AA cattle weighing 800 pounds or more and selling for at least the minimum stabilization price, which for sales in this county is $13.50.

This is the first meat production payment made directly to livestock feeders. The program is designed to help hold the line against inflation by preventing sharp increases in retail prices which might lead to uncontrolled increases in wages and other economic factors.

The beef cattle production payment is available to all feeders, including slaughterers who also are feeders, provided their cattle meet the program requirements.

To be eligible a feeder must certify on his application (1) that he owned the cattle at least 30 days before their sale, (2) that the cattle weighed at least 800 pounds when sold, (3) that the cattle brought not less than the minimum price for good grade and (4) that the cattle were sold for slaughter to an authorized slaughterer.

BURNED HER NEWLY-BORN?.

CLEVELAND, July 18. — Formal charges were to be filed today against Mary Grassi, 21-year-old unwed mother, for the death of a soldier's baby whom she admitted thrusting into a furnace to die on a pile of burning rubbish.

DALLAS, July 18. — Following a complete check of a Dallas county frozen food locker by OPA investigators, Milton G. Mell, district enforcement attorney reported today that no evidence of hasty meat withdrawals was uncovered or anything of an illegal nature.

NIP INDUSTRIAL AREAS ARE RAVAGED BY U.S. SHIPS AND PLANES FOR THE SECOND DAY

PEARL HARBOR, July 18. — Hundreds of American and British carrier-based planes were reported attacking the Tokyo area for the second straight day today, close upon the heels of a 2000-ton broadside from Admiral William F. Halsey's combined fleet.

Japanese broadcasts said Allied planes began their attacks around noon today and three hours later, 500 strong, they were bombing and strafing airdromes and other military installations on all sides of Tokyo.

Fleet dispatches hinted that Halsey's battle wagons were still maneuvering off Tokyo Bay.

His ships lambasted a 50-mile stretch of coast including such targets as Hidachi, site of an important engineering works in the center of the teeming industrial area north of Tokyo, Sukeyawa, just south of Hidachi, Daigo, 50 miles farther south, and Mito, 35 miles northeast of Tokyo.

United Press Correspondent Richard W. Johnston reported from the bridge of an American warship that the bombarding fleet wrecked the huge Hitachi steel plant at Mito, only 35 miles from Hirohito's palace in Tokyo.

Pumping in shells at the rate of a ton a second, the great battle wagons blew the steel works into a mass of flaming rubble and withdrew without taking a single answering shot.

"We knocked down Tokyo's front door," Johnson said. And a radio report from the fleet said the Anglo-American warships, perhaps 150 strong, were racing southward under forced draft in the direction of Tokyo itself.

The Yokuska naval station on the west side of Tokyo Bay was identified by the Japanese as one of the targets in the new attacks, they said it was attacked by more than 250 carrier planes for 25 minutes.

The Domei Agency reported that about 1000 persons were killed or injured in the week-end attack on Hokkaido, the northern home island. It claimed that anti-aircraft gunners downed 32 carrier planes and damaged 17 more in the assault Saturday and Sunday.

The Japanese reported small formations of Superfortresses and Liberators, the latter escorted for the first time by P-61 Black Widow night fighters, had bombed the Kanto sector around Tokyo a few hours after the naval blows began.

There was still no counter-fire from Japanese shore batteries reported, and Japanese planes appeared to have been pinned down by yesterday's great air strike.

Truman's Chief Concern Is Victory Over Japan

POTSDAM, July 18. — The problem of defeating Japan in the shortest possible space of time monopolized President Truman's thoughts today at the second day's session of the Big Three conference.

Truman, chosen by Churchill and Halsey's battle wagons to discuss further the multiple problems concerning Europe. It was known that the prime concern of the American chief is speedy prosecution of the war against Japan.

The present Big Three conference, presumably insofar as Russia is concerned, deals primarily with European settlements, but American and British interests extend much further, and it is predicted by those who know Truman that the question of whether Russia will join against the Japs will be brought out in the open very soon. A rigid censorship that blacks out all details has evoked many protests.

CIO And Politicians Alleged to Have Great Plans

AUSTIN, July 18. — Fight for Free Enterprise, describing itself as a "non-profit corporation to bolster the principles of democratic government," today petitioned Attorney General Sellers to investigate labor conditions in the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas.

The petition is signed by William Walker, president of Fight for Free Enterprise, and Phil Hopkins, secretary, of San Antonio. In a statement Walker said:

"We are informed that not only have CIO officials boasted that they will elect every county official in the Valley counties in 1946, but that they also elect a majority in the Texas House and Senate, and will put Lyndon Johnson or James V. Alfred in the governorship."

HE'S WIDOWER AGAIN.

NEW YORK, July 18. — Mrs. Alicia Martyn, 25, former singer and model and fifth wife of Robert Martyn, millionaire stock broker, killed herself today by inhaling gas in the kitchen of their apartment.

GOING HOME—Cpl. Dorothy C. Caples (left) of Sherman, Ill., and Sgt. Mary J. Dixon, Newark, N.J., read travel orders permitting them to return to the United States. ### Travel Luxury in Sight for Riders Texas & Pacific

DALLAS, July 18. — Travel luxury of the first order loomed for railroad riders of Texas, Louisiana and the Southwest as W. G.

Vollmer, president of the Texas and Pacific Railway, announced that a contract has been let for construction of equipment for the new streamlined passenger trains that will operate daily between New Orleans, Dallas, Fort Worth and El Paso and, in cooperation with the Missouri Pacific Lines, between Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Memphis and St. Louis.

He said the order was placed when Texas and Pacific and Missouri Pacific officials met in St. Louis and let contracts for building 100 passenger cars to operate on these trains over the two railroads. He said 44 of these will be purchased by his line and 56 by Missouri Pacific.

The two roads also placed an order for four 4,000-horsepower and three 2,000-horsepower Diesel-electric locomotives for use with these trains. One of these locomotives will contain two A units of 2,000-horsepower each, enabling it to operate in either direction without the necessity of turning.

Mr. Vollmer said the manufacturers believed that government restrictions on men and materials would allow delivery of this new equipment by the second half of 1946.

Announcement that these new trains would be put in service as soon as new equipment could be obtained was made last February by J. L. Lancaster, chairman of the board of the Texas and Pacific. They will provide overnight service each way between Fort Worth, Dallas and St. Louis, and substantially shorten the travel time between New Orleans, Dallas, Fort Worth, El Paso and California points.

Twenty-nine of the new cars will be used between New Orleans and El Paso. They are three mail and baggage, three baggage and express, nine chair, three diner lounge and 11 sleeping cars.

All passenger carrying cars, including sleepers will have low alloy, high tensile steel underframes while their superstructures will be built of aluminum alloy plates and shapes. By using this type of materials in their construction, a saving of approximately four tons per car is effected, and it also tends to allow increased speed and gives smoother riding comfort. The sleeping cars will have sections, duplex-rooms, bedrooms and drawing rooms. The drawing room will be a spacious living room during the day. It will have two large windows giving ample vision, two movable chairs and couch. At night three passengers may sleep in it in full length beds. The bedroom will be a living room, with a large window and one movable chair during the day. Two passengers may sleep in it in full length beds.

TELEPHONE WIRE MOVES UP

U. S. Ninth Army wire team carries drums of wire across the Roer River in western Germany.

This picture now must be repeated thousands of times in the war against Japan.
As our armies build up in the Pacific, a vast network of cable, wire, switchboards, and telephones must go with them. Here at home, telephone factories must keep right on making and shipping that equipment.
The end of the German war brings closer, of course, the day when everyone can get a telephone without delay. But the demands of the Japanese war mean that it will still be many months before that day comes.
