STORMS CHANGE INVASION DAY

SECRET SESSION—Former Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts, left, who headed secret investigation of Pearl Harbor disaster, leaves White House with Secretary of State James F. Byrnes after conferring with the President. Neither would discuss nature of visit.

More People Show Interest in Sanitary Conditions

Probably more people are showing interest in local sanitary conditions today than at any time in many years, which is undoubtedly a good sign and should lead to the day when the banner, "One of the Cleanest Towns in Texas," can again be unfurled in Cisco.

Hardly a day goes by that the Daily Press does not receive telephonic or other word relative to conditions not conducive to good health. As an example, the Press was informed Friday that two cases of the dreaded "trench mouth" had developed here. Names were not given and while the information was passed to city health authorities, it will be impossible for the health department to investigate without more details, which will be welcomed.

It has also been suggested to this paper that the employment of a sanitary or health technician as assistant to the city health officer might be wise, for a few months at least, since a vast amount of labor would be necessary for a complete checkup of local eating and drinking places and the city in general. It was thought possible to obtain the aid of some man or woman trained in sanitary work in the army, now that the war is over.

Commenting on the general health situation in Cisco, Dr. W. P. Lee made the following statement Saturday:

"Do you want to live in a healthy community, town or city? If so, do your part by keeping your own premises clean. If you and your neighbors will do this there will be no necessity for calling attention to the unsanitary condition of your premises.

"A city ordinance requires every householder to have two cans — not heavy iron barrels — one with a suitable covering in which to place wet garbage. You may burn your dry garbage, but be careful. If you will do this and place the cans where they can be reached by the garbage wagon, we will soon have a more attractive city in which to live. And there will be fewer flies, of course. We have the natural advantages and it is up to our citizens, all of us, to add to the others.

"No contagious or infectious diseases have been reported to me for several months except one case of scarlet fever."

Dr. Lee said he would have more to say about local sanitary conditions next week.

LANDINGS IN JAPAN NOW SET FOR TUESDAY, WITH SIGNING OF SURRENDER TERMS SEPT. 2

MANILA, Aug. 25. — Three typhoons swirling out of the Western Pacific forced Gen. Douglas MacArthur today to postpone initial American landings on Japan until Tuesday, his own arrival until Thursday and the signing of surrender terms until Sept. 2. MacArthur said that there was no definite assurance that the new schedule could be followed but added:

"It is hoped that by that time the winds and seas will have abated to an extent that will permit our forward movement."

Japanese headquarters reported to MacArthur earlier that typhoons had turned the landing airfields into a morass, disrupted communications and flooded a wide area marked for occupation.

Admiral Raymond A. Spruance, whose Fifth Fleet will help support the landings, said the occupation forces would go ashore with full combat equipment at docks and across beaches from all types of ships commonly used in an amphibious invasion of hostile shores.

"We will go prepared for anything," Spruance said, "but I have every expectation that the landings will come off all right. I believe the Japanese government is doing everything possible to accede to General MacArthur's wishes."

Spruance said he was confident that minesweepers would clear safe channels through American and Japanese mines into Tokyo Bay, where Japan will sign the surrender terms aboard the American battleship Missouri.

One hundred American major caliber guns will be pointing at the narrow strait at the entrance to Tokyo Bay as a precaution when fleet units move into the Yokosuka Naval Base Area Thursday.

Seabee units will follow combat troops ashore to ready installations for liberated war prisoners and internees as well as the occupation forces themselves. The Japanese already have been ordered to set up a 500-bed hospital for the prisoners and internees at Yokosuka.

Saturday Election Attracted Only 236 Votes in Cisco

Only 236 votes were cast at both Cisco boxes Saturday in an election at which the voters expressed their opinions of four proposed amendments to the state constitution.

No. 1—free votes for soldiers during 1946 — received a majority of 23 votes in both boxes.

No. 2—$10 per day for state legislators during their tenure of office—was voted down by a majority of 162 votes.

No. 3—the supreme court bill—lost by a majority of 91.

No. 4—pertaining to old age pensions—lost by 93 votes.

There were 188 votes cast on the westside and 48 on the eastside.

Presiding officers were Fred Grist and W. R. Huestis.

DANGEROUS STORM.

HOUSTON, Aug. 25.—The U. S. Weather Bureau today reported that Houston and the Gulf Coast area of Texas was due for squally weather with the approach toward the coast of a 90-mile-an-hour hurricane in the Gulf of Mexico. The weather bureau advisory added that "this is a dangerous storm." It was discovered yesterday in the gulf at a point about 550 miles south of Houston. It is moving northward at a rate of about eight miles an hour.

Three Cisco Boys Serving in Same Naval Squadron

Writing from overseas as of August 16 (air mail), Don E. Vick, Troy M. Anderson and Curtis Gambin, all Cisconians and all three serving in the same small naval squadron, expressed their appreciation of the Daily Press for printing so many articles about so many of the army and navy boys from the Cisco Country. The letter said:

"Occasionally we have the pleasure of reading the Cisco Daily Press, and to say we enjoy every line in the paper is putting it mildly. A number of the articles contained names of Cisco boys who had met overseas, all of whom are well known to us.

"The fact that all three of us are in the same small squadron is unusual and may be of interest to our friends.

"Here is hoping to see the old home-town again, and soon. Best wishes to all."

LEGION MEETING.

Leon MacPherson, adjutant, reminds that John William Butts Post of the American Legion will meet at Laguna Hotel at 8 o'clock Monday night for the transaction of business and to install new officers for 1946. It is desired that all members be present at the hour named.

PAPER SHORTAGE ACUTE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—News-paper publishers should not anticipate any immediate increase in their authorized use of newsprint in view of the continued shortage and lack of any definite assurance of increased supplies, the War Production Board says.

NEW RECORD—Louise Suggs, Lithia Springs, Ga., sets new course record and medal honors in the 45th Women's Western golf tournament. Her card showed a four-under-par 73 leading all entries over the Knollwood Country club course.

Military Men Due For Let-Down After a Long Reign

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Stormy weather's just ahead for Army and Navy. Congress is coming back prepared to loose all its pent up resentments for four years. Since 1941, military men have had their own way on practically all matters. Now they're due for a kicking around.

1. Congress probably will tear up the Army's cherished point system for demobilization; may abolish the draft, order the services to get volunteers, somehow, to fill out occupation armies.

2. Compulsory military training program will be quietly shelved. Army hasn't given up on it, is preparing plans for training with National Guard officers, but Congress, reluctant and hostile before Japan's surrender, is more so now.

3. Heavy pressure in Congress for tax cuts will mean appropriation cuts for armed services. Universal military training would cost a gigantic sum and be a further drain on monthly pay envelopes.

4. Investigation of war programs and policies which have irked Congressmen will be undertaken by various committees; top officials may spend much of their time in coming months on Capitol Hill, explaining.

5. Congress will refuse further extension of statute of limitations on Pearl Harbor officers, will demand the full story that has been kept secret.

More trouble looms as duration officers are discharged from the services. Several hundred non-regular Navy officers have banded together to write and publish a book blasting Navy policy of giving promotions, top assignments, only to Annapolis men. Civilians put in uniform feel they bore brunt of war, got few of rewards that might have been given in rank and pay. Same feeling exists in Army, though Army was somewhat more liberal with non-regulars up to general officer rank. Resentment is so widely felt that it probably will affect public and Congressional attitudes toward peacetime Army and Navy for many years.

Nazis thought we'd all have fallen arches by 1943. U. S. occupation forces have found confidential documents predicting we'd never solve the rubber shortage problem. Nazis said we'd produce 120,000 tons of synthetic in 1943; 240,000 tons in 1944. We produced 200,000 long tons in 1943; 737,000 tons in 1944. Nazis said it would cost us 50 to 80 cents a pound; average price was 31 cents in 1944, with one plant producing it at 11 cents. "The farmer will be driven back in respect to commercial practice to the condition of 100 years ago," German prediction read. "A population of over 20 million (presumably including Allied countries) will thus be forced to overcome great distances on foot."

HE LOVED THAT WOMAN.

FT. WORTH, Aug. 25.—A 32-year-old Negro, in city jail, had his own way of "getting even" with another Negro man who ran off with his woman friend. He was attempting to forge a $90 check in the other Negro's name when arrested in a local bank by city detectives. Asked why he made the check for such a large sum, the Negro confessed, "Cause I shore did love that woman—she was worth every cent of it."

OUT OF PRACTICE.

BONHAM, Aug. 25.—Speaker Sam Rayburn fractured his left elbow when he fell as he was helping drive cattle on his ranch 12 miles from Bonham. The elbow is in a cast. The speaker went to bed for a day at his farm home, which also is near Bonham, but he was back out at the ranch Saturday.

FIGHTS DIFFERENT ENEMY—Maj. L. A. Otterson inspects nozzle from bomb bay of B-29 before taking off over Rockford, Ill., to spray 1650 gallons of DDT solution. DDT is used to kill flies believed to be spreading polio virus in city's epidemic. Area will be compared with untreated parts.

3 U. S. Airmen Polio Shows But Start Home Tomorrow By Plane Over the Nation

CHUNGKING, Aug. 25.—Three of the eight missing American airmen who raided Tokyo with Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle April 18, 1942, arrived in Chungking today after being liberated from a Japanese prison camp in Peiping. They will take off for the United States tomorrow.

The three men were identified as:

1st Lt. Robert L. Hite, 25, of Earth, Tex., co-pilot.

1st Lt. Chase J. Neilson, 28, of Hyrum, Utah, navigator.

Cpl. Jacob D. Deshazer, 32, of Madras, Ore., bombardier.

All appeared weak, but happy. They said they were anxious to try some steak after spending more than three years in Japanese prisons under murder charges.

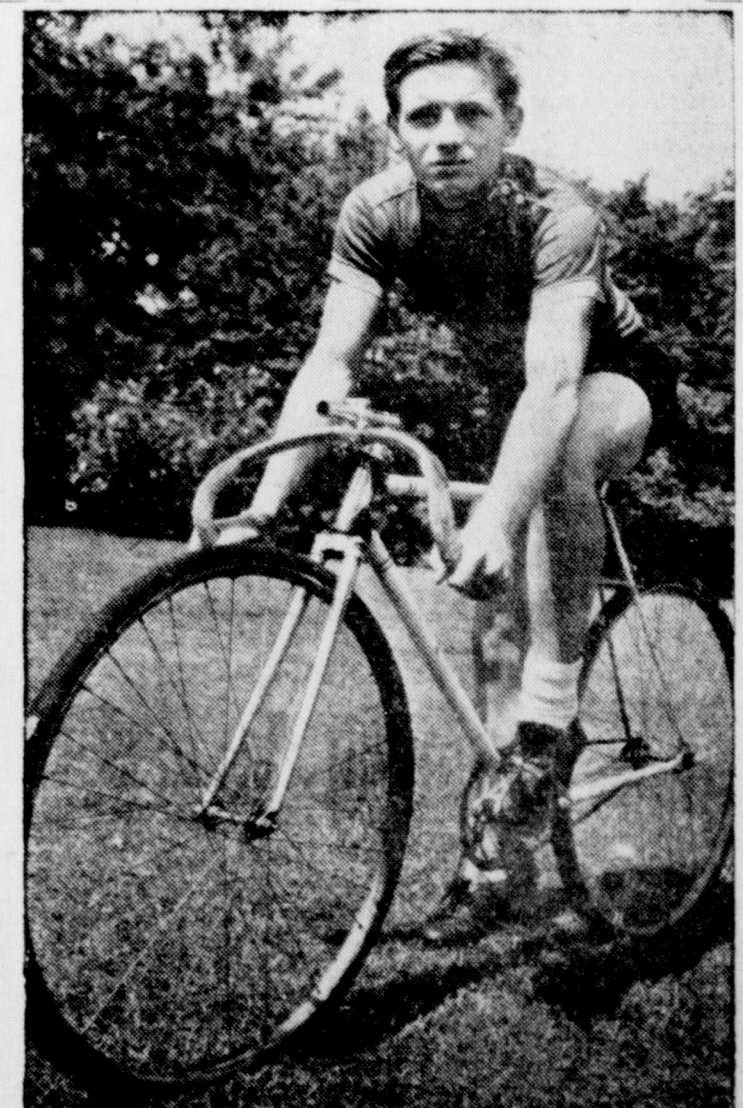

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Infantile paralysis cases increased only slightly during the week ending August 18, giving rise to the hope that the "peak cases" for this season may be near or even passed.

The total number reported to the U. S. Public Health Service was 692. This represents an increase of only 21 over the previous week's total, when cases jumped by 197 to reach a total of 671. The total number of cases since Jan. 1 is 4276, compared to 6262 for the same period last year.

States reporting increases this past week were New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Virginia, Tennessee and Texas.

GREAT DAY—Infantrymen returning from patrol in Wawa Dam gorge area on Luzon wave guns and helmets when Pvt. Steve J. Sarich, Gary, Ind., shouts news of Allied victory. Soldiers at left are S/Sgt. Sanford Miller, Mishawaka, Ind., and Pfc. Henry Threadway, Roswell, Ga. In right file are Pfc. Eugene Ellis, S. Pittsburg, Tenn., Cpl. David Lust, Prospect, O., and Cpl. Loui...

PEDAL PUSHER—Ted Smith, 17, Buffalo, N. Y., cycling club, stops his bike after copping senior men's title in National Amateur Bicycle championships. Events resumed after four-year lapse because of war, were held under auspices of Amateur Bicycle Council of America.

FREE ECONOMY.

All through the history of man there has been a struggle between men in government and men not in government. Political power has been transferred back and forth by conquest and revolution. People free themselves by revolution and bloodshed, only to have governments slowly consume their freedom.

Up to the time hostilities ceased in Europe, men in the German government had such control over men not in government, that the destruction of freedom reduced people to the level of vassals. Citizens the world over were stunned by the reports of torture and suffering in this war at the hands of men in government. It has been proven that men in government abuse the privilege of extensive power over their fellow men. The only way to end this struggle between freedom and government, that has made history colorful with the constant spilling of blood, is to remove the opportunity for men to gain personal power in government. The founders of our government struck upon an idea to safeguard the men out of government from the ambitions of men seeking power in government. They limited the men in government to the preservation of the rights and property of the men out of government.

The founding fathers had to consider two types of economy: A dictated economy, and a free economy. The dictated economy would have had the livelihood of a people controlled by the men in government. Under a free economy, individuals would be the creators of their own livelihood, with government restricted to formulating and enforcing laws to preserve men's rights under fair government regulations. A dictated economy is nothing new. It has existed under many different names.

When our people chose a free economy, they broke away from the old dictated economy controlled by men in government. The aim of our new country was to destroy the age-old dictated economy which enabled men in government to dominate men not in government. The wealth of our nation has remained in the hands of men not in government—the people.

Has our free economy failed? The answer is that the men not in government are still free, and that our nation is the wealthiest and strongest in the world today. But our free economy goes farther. In the more than one hundred and sixty years of its trial, the men not in government have worked with the men in government to such an extent that they have broadened our free economy by helping formulate policies which raised our standards of living to unheard of levels and enabled our country to give hope and material help to peoples of other nations who sought to break the paralyzing hold of men in government. This unity of purpose to preserve and strengthen freedom and justice, is the highest tribute to the superiority of a free economy.

(Daily News Files)

J. L. (Punk) Thornton talks interestingly of feed mixing for the farmers. Things have changed in a very marked way in feeding poultry and stock since early days in Texas. Men do not merely toss a bundle of fodder, a block of some kind of hay, or a few ears of corn, to the stock; the farm wife does not go out with an ear of corn and shell it to her flock of hens, or just crumble a little corn bread to her baby chicks. No, it is done scientifically now. Cod liver oil supplies sunshine for baby chicks during cloudy weather of winter months. Buttermilk is also mixed in with the starter feed; meat scraps help the hens on to laying campaigns that mean money to the farmer and his family.

Mevin Lawson, Cisco, and Romalee Wright and Neil Robert, Desdemona, are listed on the first semester and third six-week preliminary period honor rolls, according to announcement made today by Charlie S. Wilkins, registrar at John Tarkenton college. Mevin Lawson is named on both the first semester and third six-week preliminary period honor rolls. Romalee Wright is on the first semester roll, and Neil Robert is on the third six-week preliminary period roll.

Thomas and Theron Graves, students in T. W. C., Fort Worth are here for a few days visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Graves.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Berry have returned to their home in Stanton after spending the weekend here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Berry.

The W. M. S. of First Methodist church will meet in the home of Mrs. William Reagan at 3 o'clock. Group two of the woman's council of First Christian church will meet in the home of Mrs. Rex Moore, 1909 H Avenue.

Ed Duncan has suspended his farming operations for the present. Being a jeweler is more profitable these cold days, he thinks.

WALK AFTER SUPPER.

THE SKY has turned as pale as gray moth wings. The warmth of day still rises from the land. But evening's breeze is cool where whisperings begin among the tasseled corn. We stand Beside the pasture bars with friendly hand Outstretched to scratch the old mare's eager nose And watch the collier's anxious ruff expand At secret sounds before she wheels and goes Scolding along the dusky orchard rows. Tempting us out along that grassy track But darkness closes down; the coolness grows With tranquil pace we take the pathway back We fill the water trough, night's final chore. And light the kitchen lamp and latch the door. Frances Hall in Christian Science Monitor.

CHURCHES.

First Methodist. Church school at 9:45. We urge you to help reach the 300 mark. We know that each Methodist of this community is interested in the church school. Please tell your friends about the endeavor to increase our attendance 35 percent in the next two months. You can help by bringing your children. Preaching at 10:35 and you are cordially invited to worship with us. Subject, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" Union lawn services at 8 tonight—the last lawn service for the summer. Let us think together about our responsibility to the peoples of the earth. The whole earth is within our reach now. Neighbor, in the sense in which Jesus meant it, has global range. You can feed a starving child in Greece or rescue an African from his ignorance, or get Christ and the Indian—who needs with less difficulty than the Samaritan encountered in lifting that unconscious Jew to the saddle and carrying him to safety in the distant city. The teeming millions flung across the wide-open spaces or crowded into cities, or hiding away in jungles, or dwelling in lonely islands, are within arm's length of our kindness and love. If we turn away from bruised humanity in the Sudan, or the Sahara, or the Solomons, it will be as heartless as the conduct of the Jews in the parable who, seeing their wounded countryman lying in the road, deliberately turned away and passed by on the other side. The millions of sick, suffering, broken, wounded, sinful, ignorant, dying people in the world are actually as near to us as that. This is a global life we live now and must live. If we remain provincial in our thinking and planning, in our sympathies and strategies, we perish. If we want peace here we must have peaceful minds in Europe and Asia. If we want to enjoy our own bread, we must see that men and women and children in the streets of Rotterdam and Poland and Athens and Warsaw, and Hongkong, and Tokyo and the rest of the world have bread—or their quest for it will ultimately snatch our own bread from our fingers. Your pastor, W. A. FLYNN.

Church of the Nazarene.

The revival with Rev. Lee Upton will close with the evening services today. The meeting has been a good one from the first message. The evangelist has practical understanding in his preaching and many have received help the past few days. You are invited to attend the services throughout today. L. H. CLEGG, Pastor.

Church of Christ.

Services at the usual hour today. A. Z. Myrick will preach at morning service and L. James Qualls at the evening hour. A twelve-night revival starts at this church Monday night, August 27. Services at 8 p. m. and 10 a. m. C. C. Morgan, Dalhart evangelist, will do the preaching. Lloyd Connell of Baird will direct the singing at the evening services. Now that gasoline rationing is ended, and God has so graciously blessed us in giving us peace, let us all avail ourselves of this opportunity to exercise the freedom of assembly, and worship the God from whom all blessings flow. Everyone welcomed at this great gospel feast. G. S. WESTBROOK, Minister.

TO MY FRIENDS

I have sold my battery and auto service business at 112 west Sixth street to James M. Latimer and E. S. Martin, two of my oldest and most capable employes, and the business is now closed for a few days for remodeling by the new owners. Reopening date is September 3.

It would be impossible for me to fully express my deep appreciation to long-time personal friends and business acquaintances for the generous support they have given Elkins Battery and Auto Service through the years; suffice it to say that I am very, very grateful to each and all, and that you will ever be remembered.

Sincerely yours,

Talking Is All Right ---

... if you are running for office or courting your best girl but when it comes to buying land or town properties don't let any one talk you out of an abstract. The fact that the seller has owned the land for many years doesn't mean that the title is always good. The safest plan is to get an abstract before you buy. The cheapest property on earth is too high if the title is faulty.
