BESTIAL JAPS NOW HARNESSED

V-J SPECIAL—Maj. Gen. Clarence H. Kells, commanding officer of New York Port of Embarkation, gives farewell word to 19 GIs boarding the V-J Special. Just back from Europe, boys are en route to California and possibly civilian status. Beside General Kells is Brig. Gen. Clarence E. Kane, Capt. Norman F. Timper and First Officer William Nemes.

STORIES OF UNTHINKABLE CRUELTY AS TOLD BY FORMER PRISONERS FAY HARDEN M'ARTHUR

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 1.—American troops extended their steel grip Saturday along both sides of Tokyo Bay, the stage on which will be played out Sunday the greatest military pageant of the century — the final and formal surrender of the Japanese empire — its first defeat in modern history.

Last of the actors to take their places were the 8th Army men of Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, scheduled to begin their mass landings in the bay sector by nightfall Saturday. (A radio report said the landings already had begun.)

As a backdrop there was the black horror endured by prisoners of war, who poured from their stockades of death and degradation with blood-freezing accounts of the wanton cruelties inflicted upon them in the years when Japan was riding the crest of conquest.

Now, as the gaunt Lt. Gen. Johnathan Wainwright remarked "the shoe was on the other foot." He and his staff who survived the forced surrender of the Philippines and the evil years behind enemy wire arrived to witness the Japanese surrender signatures Sunday (Saturday night, U. S. Time) aboard the battleship Missouri.

Exact time of the ceremony was not disclosed. (But President Truman expected to address the United States between 9 and 10 p. m., Texas time Saturday, which would be 11 a. m. to noon Sunday, Japan time.)

General MacArthur, supreme Allied commander over the conquered and obsequious Japanese, laid his plans at a private conference Friday night with Admirals Nimitz and Halsey and Generals Spaatz and Kenney in Yokohama's new Grand Hotel.

MacArthur warmly greeted General Wainwright, the man in whose command he left the losing battle of Bataan in March, 1942, when he was sent to Australia to organize the long trek back to victory.

Wainwright made a brief broadcast to the people of the United States, expressing his gratitude "for their generous understanding of my dire misfortune" at Corregidor.

Japanese imperial headquarters made one half-hearted attempt to postpone the national ignominy a little longer by asking MacArthur Saturday for further conferences on surrender terms, but it was declared at this headquarters that the Missouri ceremony would proceed as scheduled.

Already on hand were the representatives of Britain, Australia, New Zealand, France, the Netherlands and Russia.

No Trouble Seen.

General Eichelberger, who came in advance of his army, declared, "if the Japanese continue their present attitude, there will be no trouble for them or for us."

If there should be, however, General Spaatz, commander of U. S. strategic air forces in the Pacific, said that American planes were in position to drop at least 8,000 tons of bombs on Japan if necessary.

Throughout the Pacific, the Japanese were surrendering or arranging to surrender vast forces peaceably. The only untoward incident reported was the attempted escape of three Japanese suicide boats from Hong Kong, where British aircraft promptly sank one, beached another and forced the third back to port.

Civilized World Holds Breath at Jap Brutality

OFUNA PRISON CAMP, NEAR YOKOHAMA, Sept. 1.—Ninety-five Americans and eight English prisoners, liberated from the filth of a hidden concentration camp Saturday related the war's most gruesome tales of Japanese bestiality.

They saw one man beaten to death and seven die of malnutrition.

Some were spit on in the streets on forced marches through irate crowds.

Many were compelled to wear metal bits in their mouths for 14 hours at a time.

Others were left with their hands tied behind them for 24 hours.

A 21-year-old pilot, Ens. Fred Turnbull of Highland Park, Mich., tortured after his carrier plane was shot down over Formosa, said:

"I tried to die and made peace with my God."

"My captors tied my hands behind me, made me lie down and covered me with my parachute," the pilot said. "I heard two shots."

Already wounded when shot down, he was too numb to feel a bullet that entered his arm but felt one that pierced his chest.

A Japanese made a practice swing at Turnbull's neck with a sword after he had pulled the prisoner's collar down and an angered Formosan giving him first aid hit him in the back with a bayonet for not moving fast enough.

"At a hospital close to an airfield, shrapnel and bullets were removed without an anesthetic," Turnbull said.

Eight survivors of a 12-man crew on a privateer plane were given the "bit treatment" after their ship had been shot down south of Tokyo, Aug. 11.

ANTI-KNOCK GASOLINE

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Motorists are in for a treat in anti-knock gasoline, contrasted with an almost sure knock in their war gas tanks. According to oil companies are prepared to sell 78 to 80 octane gas as regular, compared with the 71 octane sold during the war. The so-called special or high test gas will be 85 octane. Octane number represents the anti-knock quality and the higher the octane number the less knock. Present gasoline consumption is running at around 1,600,000 barrels of 42 gallons each daily. This compares with the 1941 daily average of 1,828,000 barrels.

Full Publicity on Pearl Harbor Disaster Likely

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Publication of Army-Navy reports on Pearl Harbor disaster will not stop official scrutiny on subject. There will be either a congressional investigation or court martial proceedings. If General Short and Admiral Kimmel ask for court martial, pressure will be so great they can't be refused. Good sources say Kimmel will take this step. If the two go before boards, their defense will be based on responsibility of their superior officers — as cited in Army board report and Forrestal and King endorsements of Navy board report. Some Congressmen think fact that General Marshall, Gen. Gerow, Gen. Bedell Smith, Admiral Stark and others would be brought into court martial testimony is reason for departments' failures to recommend such action.

Rumor circulates here that John L. Lewis is building a third major labor movement based on hodge-podge District 50 (jurisdiction unlimited) of United Mine Workers. Report is bulwarked by recent conspicuous additions to District 50, mainly among employees of Long Island Railroad. Nobody but Lewis knows what his real intentions are. Best estimate of District 50's present strength is 200,000. This added to the coal miners, gives Lewis about 70,000 followers. But AFL and CIO have about seven and five million, respectively. Chances are still good that Lewis will join the former, try to tear down the CIO which he founded.

Veterans are disappointed that Col. Howard Rusk of Army Air Forces wasn't made medical director of the Veterans Bureau. He was offered job, was willing to turn down $50,000 private offer to take it, but declined when he found Army wouldn't give him a free hand to make sweeping changes in present set-up.

Republicans' new national tabloid paper (a monthly) will be out in a week or so; will start with circulation of 100,000. It will mark war's end in return to political free-swinging by Republicans and may carry heavy punch or two in first issue.

Supreme court vacancy will go to Judge Robert P. Patterson, undersecretary of war. Appointment will be made before long. This despite fact that CIO has asked appointment of Judge John J. Parker of Fourth circuit court. Republican organization in Patterson's home state, New York, has not been enthusiastic about him because of his appointment to Roosevelt little cabinet. Labor didn't like his enthusiasm for a national service act. But President Truman has high regard for his legal background and war services.

President Truman's peacetime policy will include a strong stand against industrial monopolies. Three cabinet members have made declarations along this line: Vinson, treasury; Clark, justice; and Wallace, commerce. Truman demanded break-up of German cartels as part of European victory. State Department, under Byrnes, will continue work begun by Cordell Hull to get international agreements against cartels and artificial trade barriers.

ROOSEVELT ESTATE

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 1.—An approximate valuation of the estate of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt was on file Saturday at the Albany office of the treasury department but its contents were not divulged. It was explained that the return, filed for purposes of compiling the federal estate tax, must by law be kept secret. The final return, giving the specific value of the estate, must be filed within 15 months of Roosevelt's death. It will be made public.

MUCH BE-MEDED—Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., Commanding General of the U. S. 3rd Army, is presented more awards—the Order of the White Lion and the Military Cross—by President Benes of Czechoslovakia. With five rows of ribbons on his tunic, he'll have a job-finding room.

Presbyterians to Observe Religious Education Month

September will be observed as Religious Education Month by Cisco First Presbyterian church. Plans were formulated at a workers' conference held at the church Monday night, says Kent Word, Sunday school superintendent.

Activities for the month, which are in charge of Mrs. B. S. Huey, will begin with a Sunday school picnic to be held on the church lawn Wednesday night, September 5, 7 o'clock. This event will be in honor of young people from the church school who are leaving to attend college, as well as for returned service men.

The Sunday school, church and women's auxiliary will each provide programs on dates yet to be announced.

September 30 will be observed as Rally and Promotion Day.

Swimming Pool to Open Until Weather Is Too Cool

W. J. Foxworth, who has successfully managed Cisco Amusement company activities at the lake this summer, closed the official season Saturday, thus terminating his services with the company.

However, by special arrangement with M. W. Fuqua, who has been in charge of the skating rink and soft drink stands, the swimming pool will be open all day and until 9 at night as long as the weather is suitable for swimming. The skating rink will operate as usual.

Mr. Fuqua says there will be no life guard protection at the pool for the remainder of the season, and that small children will not be allowed in the pool unless accompanied by their parents.

Notwithstanding the shortage of gasoline and the absence of so many of the younger set in war work or military service, directors of the company are well pleased with the operation of the lake properties the past season and particularly appreciate the good work of Mr. Foxworth and the efforts of Mr. Fuqua in preserving the physical property and operating the stands and skating rink.

Public Schools Enrollment Will Exceed Last Year

O. L. Stamey, principal, announces that Cisco high school students will begin registering Tuesday morning, the registration hours being 9 to 12 o'clock. Seniors will register Tuesday, Juniors Wednesday, Sophomores Thursday and Freshmen Friday. Students transferring from other schools should bring all of their school records with them, Mr. Stamey reminded.

Everything will be ready for the opening of the public schools on Monday, September 10, said R. N. Cluck, superintendent, who expects an increased enrollment over last year.

Eighteen rural districts have contracted with Cisco Independent school district for the scholastic year of 1945-46. This includes pupils from the first grade and on through high school.

It should be interesting and gratifying to the general public, said Mr. Cluck, to know that the Cisco school is taking more rural school districts by contract than any other school in Texas.

STRAWN VISITS PARENTS.

Staff Sgt. William H. Strawn arrived in Cisco Friday for a visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Strawn. Sergeant Strawn has just returned from the South Pacific, where he served with the Marine corps for two years and seven months, participating in three major campaigns. Strawn, 21 years of age, was born and reared in Elliasville. Prior to entering the service in May, 1942, he was employed by the Citizens National bank of Abilene. After thirty days' furlough he will report to Washington, D. C., for duty in the navy building. He has three battle stars and a presidential unit citation.

AMENDMENT TOTALS.

DALLAS, Sept. 1.—Final tabulation of the Aug. 25 special election, released by the Texas Election Bureau, showed the following figures by which voters adopted three proposed state constitutional amendments and rejected one: Soldier voting: For 126,854, against 37,442; legislator's pay: for 42,026, against 123,492; supreme court: for 88,232, against 73,891; welfare: for 92,951, against 73,263.

FIRST WAVE discharged from service at New York center under Navy's recently announced point demobilization plan is Yeoman Rita C. Rayman of Southampton, N. Y. Lt. Comdr. Violet Boynton, left, offers hearty congratulations as she presents happy girl certificate.

BEST BAKER—Ladies had better look to their culinary laurels when Alfred Schiesser, 16, Crown Point, Ind., is around. Lad defeated more than 1000 farm wives in cooking contest, copping top honors with his blue ribbon cakes. Talents are not confined to domestic arts for he plays good game of basketball.

Junior College Students to Register This Week

Cisco Junior college which will open its 1945-46 session September 10, will begin registering students this week. President R. N. Cluck announces. All of those who expect to enroll are urged to do so at once, so the college may enter upon its class work without interference the following Monday.

Prospects before the college this year are good, with an increased enrollment indicated.

Advantages of the college, especially to those students who could not otherwise obtain college training, have been stressed frequently and a period of rapid progress, both in the growth of the student body and improvement of curriculum and facilities, is promised now that the war is over.

The college is in a much stronger position as it enters the sixth year of its history.

Heretofore it has had no local tax support, but the voters of the district, by an overwhelming majority, this summer authorized the levying of a small tax which will provide the school with sufficient financial support to make possible continued growth. In time it is expected to have a separate faculty at the college.

Registration will take place at the college beginning Monday, September 3. Students may register any day next week.

Registration will take place at the college beginning Monday, September 3. Students may register any day next week.

ADAMS AT KEESLER.

KEESLER FIELD, BILOXI, Miss.—Pvt. William E. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Adams, route three, Cisco, Texas, has entered the basic training center at Keesler Field, a unit of the army air forces training command, for several weeks of recruit drill.

PERRY PROMOTED.

ADVANCE BASE CONSTRUCTION DEPOT, PEARL HARBOR, T. H.—The navy department announces that Thomas C. Perry of Cisco, Tex., now serving here, has been advanced to the rating of machinist's mate third class. This advancement has come to him in recognition of outstanding faithfulness and skill in the performance of duty and completion of the course of study prescribed for this new rating. His wife, Ellen, resides on route three, Cisco.

WHAT'S COOKING?—This housewife won't make cake fall by opening oven door, for she can peek through open window to see how things progress. Transparent oven windows are of heat-tempered tufflex glass tough enough to survive impact, insulated so outer glass won't heat.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP.

Church membership in the United States has reached an all-time high of 72,492,869 persons, more than 52 per cent of the population, according to the 1945 edition of the Yearbook of American Churches, edited under the auspices of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

In announcing its publication, Dr. Benson Y. Landis, editor of the Yearbook, pointed out that the total membership figure, as officially reported by 254 religious bodies in continental United States, represents an increase of 3,951,483 over that compiled for the previous issue two years ago. Total church membership, as well as the proportion of church members in the population, has been increasing steadily for many years, Dr. Landis said.

Among the Protestant groups the Methodist church reports the largest membership — 8,916,129 persons, followed by the Southern Baptist Convention with 5,667,926. The figures reported in the Yearbook are mainly for years ending in 1943 and 1944, Landis said.

Thirteen religious bodies each reported over one million members, a total of 39,767,348 persons, equal to 82 per cent of the total church membership. These thirteen bodies and their memberships, are as follows:

Roman Catholic	23,419,701
Methodist church	8,916,129
Southern Baptist Convention	5,667,926
Jewish congregations	4,611,184
National Baptist Convention, U. S. A. Inc.	1,921,618
National Baptist Convention of America	2,352,339
Protestant Episcopal church	2,227,524
Presbyterian church in the U. S. A.	2,049,599
United Lutheran church in America	1,690,294
Disciples of Christ	1,672,354
Northwest Baptist Convention	1,553,914
Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states	1,356,655
Congregational Christian churches	1,075,401
59,767,348
The number of members 13

years of age and over is estimated to be 59,717,107 persons, also the highest figure ever reported.

Twenty-three Baptist denominations have a total of 14,205,193 members; twenty Methodist denominations have 9,921,842 members; twenty Lutheran denominations have 5,129,147 members. The 256 religious bodies report 253,762 local churches.

January, 1928

(Cisco Daily News Files)

A good sized crowd braved the cold yesterday to attend the morning and evening services at First Methodist church. Woodrow Harris of Rising Star, Laverne Comer and Emma Mae Johnson, unwillingly used by the Santa Claus bank robbers recently, were introduced to the congregation at the morning hour. The Ely orchestra rendered a musical program of the usual high order and Miss Edith Turner's vocal number was well received. In introducing Mayor J. M. Williamson, Rev. P. T. Stanford said that from the time the First National Bank was robbed until the last bandit was in jail Mayor Williamson had worked day and night. He was the master mind behind the activities of the search, and hundreds of men were ready to go at his suggestion. Mayor Williamson spoke briefly of the excellent spirit of cooperation on the part of the citizenry of Cisco during the past week. He related some of the outstanding revelations that had come to light pertaining to the regrettable affair. The pastor took as a text: "Be sure your sins will find you out." He said the running down of these bandits was another proof of the text that the sins men commit will be found out. Not all criminals are caught, he said, and there are many people who should never be allowed to run loose and mix in society. The law does not apprehend and convict all criminals, but sooner or later, in life or at death, the sins of the individual will be known. No one can persistently sin and get away with it, as the blood hounds of sin will track the sinner to his doom.

Jimmie Caldwell, former Cisco boy, but now living at Amarillo, was a business visitor to Cisco Thursday. Mr. Caldwell is representing the Dorsey Printing Co. of Dallas. While here he met many of the friends of his boyhood, all of whom hailed him as "Jimmie." He is the owner of the original Cisco townsite, only it was not called Cisco at that time, but Red Gap. He came into the possession of this plot of land by inheritance, as his parents formerly owned the land where Red Gap stood. Then he claims another distinction, as he was once a pupil of Prof. J. E. T. Peters, while our genial commerce secretary was principal of Scranton academy, and attended that institution of learning, he said, until Professor Peters advised him to quit school and get a job.

CISCO AND THE UNITED STATES PREPARE FOR PEACE-TIME PURSUITS.

- As General MacArthur takes over in Japan, the world looks on with abated breath as to what might happen. But Americans are prepared for any eventuality with the greatest display of military power ever marshaled before any conquered country.
- At the same time we in this country are getting ready to meet the rapid changes that come with the end of four years of preparation and war on both sides of the world. Millions of people must change their jobs. Soldiers must rehabilitate themselves and we here must meet the changes.
- We in Cisco will feel this modification of commercial and private life. We must make adjustments so that the American way of life may continue -- yes, march forward to greater achievements for our standard of living.
- We must take our places in the forward move. We must not stand still, much less go back. New tasks confront us. Cisco is already marching on. We must watch and see that our city meets every problem as it comes.
- There is much cooperation necessary as never before. Every citizen will be called upon to join in the work. Keep Cisco a wonderful place in which to live and a joyous and prosperous place in which to do business.
- It's up to us. It is our challenge. Will we meet it?
