GULF COAST PICTURE IS BAD

WARM WELCOME—It's a warm welcome for Patrick Hurley, U. S. Ambassador to China, from his daughter Mary as she hugs him at the end of his long plane trip from Chungking to Washington National Airport. Pat's plane, also on an errand of mercy, brought back a GI summoned to the bedside of his ailing mother.

New Owners Cisco Theaters to Make Lots of Changes

Forrest Dunlap, Dallas and Temple business man, here to take over the Palace theater properties which he and his co-partner purchased last week from K. N. Greer and E. H. Rowley, was a caller at the Daily Press office this morning.

The co-partner, Wallace Smith, a veteran of world war two and former resident of Temple, is also in the city and has already assumed management of the Palace. Mr. Smith has a wife and a small daughter and expects to buy a home and become a permanent resident of Cisco. Mr. Dunlap, by the way, served in world war one and has two sons in the service at the present time.

The Palace theater, said Mr. Dunlap, will at once undergo general rehabilitation in order to make it the show place of this area, as well as adding many improvements in the mechanical set-up designed to give even better service than now furnished. Men skilled in the intricacies of motion picture sound equipment are already busy installing new sound machinery at the Palace, including high intensity lamps, and painters and decorators will start Thursday morning on what Mr. Dunlap calls a face-lifting job for both the interior and exterior of the theater building. Screen pictures will be larger and outside neon lights will make the Palace one of the brightest night spots in or near Cisco.

There will be a completely new lady's lounge, the present loges will be eliminated and the newest type of unholstered seats will be placed throughout the theater. A local innovation will be what is termed "love seats" for the center section, and there will be an electric drinking fountain. The theater will own its own popcorn machines and will carry a stock of candies — these to be conveniently located inside the theater, thus making it unnecessary for children or others to pass in and out the main entrance to make purchases.

The old Texas theater, opposite Dean drug, will be given a new front, generally reconditioned and opened to the public as soon as the necessary work can be completed. This theater, closed for the past four years, will use the sound equipment now being removed from the Palace. The former Ideal theater in the Judia building will remain dark for the present, Mr. Dunlap stated.

K. N. Greer, popular motion picture figure in Cisco for the past 20 years, said today that he will not make any plans for the future until after he has returned from a contemplated vacation trip to his old home in Georgia.

SCRANTON PIE SUPPER.

Scranton high school senior class will sponsor a pie supper Wednesday night, 8:30, to be held in Scranton high school auditorium. There will be a free musical program by a band composed of string instruments. There will be coffee and other refreshments, it is announced. Auctioneers for the event will be J. L. Thornton and B. T. Leveridge of Cisco, both of whom have a more or less national reputation in that capacity, and particularly in the Scranton area. The general public is invited to be present Wednesday night, when a good time is promised to all.

MORAN MAN DIES.

C. E. Snyder, old time resident of this section, died in a Baird hospital Monday afternoon, where he had been ill for sometime. Funeral arrangements are pending the arrival of relatives. Burial will be made at Moran. Deceased was an esteemed citizen and had been connected with the bank at Moran and other business enterprises for many years.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wilson, September 25, at the home in Cisco, a daughter — Sharon Kay; weight nine pounds. The mother was formerly Miss Fay Crowder.

Miss Emalee Jones has gone to Breckenridge to spend the week with her sister, Mrs. Ruby Sharp.

Bob Bacon Home After More Than 3 Years in Prison

Corp. Lobby T. Bacon, son of Mrs. Ted Bacon, arrived in Cisco Monday for a brief visit before going to the naval hospital at Corpus Christi for a thorough physical checkup and discharge. Bacon was liberated from a Japanese prison camp at Kosaka, northern tip of Honshu, on September 11 — his 26th birthday — after spending more than three years in the hands of the Japs.

He is apparently in good health and has gained some 50 pounds since his liberation, at which time he weighed 132. He says he received better than average treatment from his captors, and attributes his endurance to the fact that as long as he was kept in the Philippines he received help from the Filipinos, who bribed the guards and slipped the prisoners food and money.

The young man was born and reared in Cisco and is a graduate of Cisco high school. He enlisted in the Marine Corps May 7, 1940, and was sent to the Philippines soon thereafter, having been surrendered by General Wainwright at Corregidor, May 6, 1942. He was imprisoned in the Philippines until October 1, 1944.

LIONS LUNCHEON.

It is announced that Bill Childers will have charge of the Lions luncheon program tomorrow and that propaganda screen pictures captured from the Germans will be shown by Sgt. John James Haynie, who served with U. S. forces in that country. Mrs. C. E. Paul is scheduled to give several vocal numbers.

DELEON DEATH.

Mrs. Minnie Nance, wife of J. S. Nance, died Monday evening at 7 o'clock at her home in DeLeon. Funeral will be held Wednesday at 3 p. m. at DeLeon. Deceased was a sister-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Nance of Cisco, who plan to attend the funeral.

CLOSING OF REMAINING REFINERIES, ALL SHIPPING BLOCKED AND THREATENED PHONE STRIKE

(By United Press)

A complete tie-up of all Texas Gulf Coast shipping, the closing of the few remaining oil refineries still in operation, and a threatened strike of telephone workers were developments today as workers demands for wage increases and other dispensations spread throughout industrial plants in the area.

On the shipping front, these were the latest developments:

Houston locals of the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) have voted to strike at midnight Thursday unless steamship operators meet demands for increased wages.

APL union officials said the strike action was unanimously approved by 800 Longshoremen.

Loading of two ships was halted in the Houston ship channel yesterday when picket lines were thrown around the dock section.

The ILA is demanding a top wage of $1.35 an hour, and a minimum of $1.12 1-2 an hour.

Developments on the oil strike front were:

The Oil Workers International Union (CIO) closed down the Texas Company Galena Park refinery, last oil refinery in the Houston area, and announced a conference has been called for possible strike action at the Texas Pipeline Company.

Plants now closed down are the Sinclair, Shell, Crown Central, American Liberty, Pan American, Republic and Texas Refineries.

No orders have been received as yet from the union to close down the Houston pipeline or General American Terminal, but such action was expected momentarily.

All oil deliveries have been stopped from the bulk plants of Texas, Sinclair, Crown Central, Shell, Pure Oil, Cities Service and Gulf.

Approximately 600 gasoline stations in Houston face a gasoline drought within the next 10 days because of the strikes.

Additionally, 2000 telephone workers in Houston and Southeast Texas have been alerted for possible strike action.

Pending word of developments from Washington, the telephone workers have been told to stand by, but no strike has actually been planned.

DESERTERS REPLACED.

AUSTIN, Oct. 2. — With power being gradually extended over sabotaged lines, Lower Colorado River Authority today was replacing men who deserted their places yesterday, leaving an estimated 250,000 people in Central Texas without electric service.

None who walked out without previous notice ever will be re-employed, was the management's answer to an attempted mediation effort made late yesterday afternoon.

The mediation proposal was that the management ask the attorney general's department for a review of a previous ruling that the LCRRA management could not name a union as a collective bargaining agent for employees. The ruling was made under a former administration of the state legal department.

Committee Reject GOP Proposal to Merely Cut Tax

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (UP) — The House Ways and Means Committee today rejected two Republican proposals to reduce rather than eliminate the 3 per cent normal tax on individual income.

The Republican proposals were preliminary to a demand for a horizontal cut in all tax rates, surtaxes as well as normal taxes. Secretary of the Treasury Fred M. Vinson recommended yesterday a three-point reconversion tax program calling for elimination of the 3 per cent normal tax on individuals and repeal of the excess profits tax on industry starting Jan. 1, with reduction of luxury taxes starting July 1. He opposed a horizontal cut in all individual tax rates.

The two proposals to reduce the normal tax called for a cut to one per cent and another to cut to two per cent. Both were rejected without record votes.

ENDS IN FAILURE.

LONDON, Oct. 2 (UP) — The Five-power council of foreign ministers ended a 22-day conference tonight, and Secretary of State James F. Byrnes said its work must be delayed until an agreement is reached on the procedure to be followed in drafting peace treaties. The conference broke down without reaching a decision on protocols for the guidance of the deputies and the future sessions of the council. The ministers were not even able to agree on a communique sketching the proceedings of their first meeting, as provided for at Potsdam.

NIMITZ ARRIVES HOME.

Cisco Lumber and Financial Wizard Firestone Bowlers May Have to Pay Take the Honors U. S. Government

Cisco Lumber Co., after losing three straight to West Texas Utilities last Monday night, stepped out and took all three games from Gardenhire Petroleum last night. On the other hand, Firestone, which took two of three from Gardenhire last week, doped out like medicine to West Texas Utilities in last night's duel.

Dr. C. E. Paul rolled up the single game high with 217 and also took three-game honors with 587. F. Urban of Gardenhire bowled 202 in his third game. As usual, interested visitors were numerous.

Tonight's schedule: Cisco Gas vs. Humble Oil; Collins Hardware vs. Nance Motor.

Manager C. C. Cutting announced that two teams from Brownwood will be here tomorrow night to compete with two Cisco teams. One of the visiting teams will be composed of women.

Washington, Oct. 2. — More trouble for Elliott Roosevelt popped up in congress today. A 400,000-word record of the investigation into his financial manipulations was filed with the house yesterday. But ways and means committee members, both Republicans and Democrats, told a reporter it left unanswered this question: "Should Elliott be required to pay income tax on the $196,000 he didn't repay on a $200,000 loan from John A. Hartford."

The committee said the question should be settled because otherwise the government stands to lose between $25,000 and $40,000. This condition exists, they said, because the bureau of internal revenue ruled — and the committee concurred — that Hartford was not liable for a tax on the $196,000.

GEN. PATTON SHIFTED.

FRANKFURT, Oct. 2 (UP) — Gen. George S. Patton has been relieved of his U. S. Third Army command and the concurrent military governorship of Bavaria, where he advocated keeping Nazis in some administrative posts. Patton is being shifted from Bavaria to the command of the U. S. 15th army — a virtually non-existent force, consisting largely of little more than a headquarters detachment which is writing a report of U. S. participation in the European war.

PROTEST TO TRUMAN.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (UP) — Two Democratic house members today protested to President Truman that Russia is using the United Nations relief and rehabilitation administration for political purposes. They referred particularly to UNRRA activities in Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Where Will CIO Program Lead America?

Analyzing point by point nine policies sponsored by the CIO, Dr. Willford I. King, New York University professor of economics, in a statement sent to all members of Congress and released to the press from coast to coast, declares that CIO wage demands, its program of strikes and its legislative proposals can result only in ruinous inflation, eventual state socialism, and destruction of labor unions.

Dr. King asks in the headline of his statement, "Where Does the CIO Program Lead?" In a postscript added in his new capacity as Chairman of the Committee for Constitutional Government, Inc., he answers in one sentence: "It is time for the common man to strike for freedom against the special privileged groups that may cast him into the depths of inflation, poverty and collectivism, while posing as his benefactors."

First of all, the economist challenges as "mere camouflage" the assertion of UAW-CIO spokesmen that the automobile industry can afford a 30 per cent wage increase without raising automobile prices because it piled up exorbitant profits during the war. Dr. King quotes Department of Commerce statistics showing that the total profit of the industry in 1941 was less than the sum that would be required to pay a 30 per cent wage raise.

Only increased productive efficiency, he says, could enable the industry to pay such increase and survive. But, according to reports he has received from automobile factories, "exactly the reverse is true; production per man hour is down at least 25 per cent." If this is the case, says Dr. King, car prices will have to be advanced some 60 to 75 per cent above the 1941 level.

The CIO attack on the automobile industry, says Dr. King, "is merely the opening gun of a general battle for higher wage rates in all industries. If the CIO wins this fight, there is grave danger that it will produce a repetition of the 1929-32 crash, with mass unemployment in most industries. If it does, a general cry will go up that private enterprise has failed, and that government must intervene."

"Presumably, the first step will be to start a huge public works program, financed by inflation. This procedure will gradually rob the thrifty of what value remains in their life insurance, bonds, mortgages, and bank deposits, after the squeezing process of the government will take over, and the ensuing socialistic regime will doubtless crush the CIO and other unions as effectively as has been done in Russia. Not satisfied with its complete dominance of the nation for a decade, the CIO will have wrought its own destruction."

"For years," says Dr. King, "the CIO has sponsored policies which have been steadily undermining the economic system which has made the United States the most prosperous nation on earth." He enumerates nine, and indicts each one at length. Only an indication of some of his objections is given here.

1. Taxing away all incomes larger than $25.00 per year. — This demand of the CIO, says Dr. King, invades one of the most fundamental rights in any free society; it tends to restrict production, and to paralyze the competitive capitalistic system by preventing accumulations of capital necessary to finance new enterprises and expand old ones.

2. Ratification of the Bretton Woods agreement. — Stripped of its several coats of camouflage, says Dr. King, the Bretton Woods "is nothing more nor less than a plan for lending the resources of the United States to foreign nations." It must be financed by inflation. Attempts to collect the foreign loans will make enemies, not friends.

3. A federal guarantee of full employment. — Since the CIO has consistently opposed raising lower bracket income taxation, Dr. King assumes that the CIO expects "full employment" to be financed by inflation, which "appeals disaster for the thrifty, and hence tends to destroy the capitalistic system."

4. An increase to 65c per hour in the minimum wage required by law. — Individuals of low intelligence, the shiftless and the lazy, Dr. King contends, "are not worth 65c per hour to any employer." Such a law would drive a larger proportion to be employed by government, thus making greater "the advance of socialism at the expense of private enterprise."

5. An upward revision of wage rates in general. — When unions push up wage rates faster than increased productivity warrants, private employers cannot hire the less competent, and they are driven into government employment, thus increasing "the extent to which statism has taken over the economic system."

6. Expansion of unemployment insurance. — Dr. King attributes the huge unemployment of the last decade to "the attempt to collect monopoly prices for labor" and enactment of unemployment benefit laws to the labor unions. "Since a considerable proportion of potential workers prefer idleness at low pay to work at high pay, it follows," says Dr. King, "that unemployment insurance insures unemployment. . . . Indications are, therefore, that unemployment insurance asserts a strong influence in the direction of socialism or fascism."

7. Extension of social security benefits. — Conceding that there is much to recommend compelling every citizen to insure himself against reverses, Dr. King points to the existence of private insurance companies as offering no "excuse for putting the government into the insurance business." He says that "our existing social security system is not constructed on sound insurance principles" and that it invades private property rights by compelling certain citizens to contribute to the support of other citizens. All this, he says, "strengthens the movement toward socialism."

8. Public medical care. — "When government takes over any function," objects Dr. King, "the citizens gradually lose all control of the way that function is administered. Presumably, therefore, medical treatment will gradually be regimented to suit the whims of the administrators."

9. Continuation of price control. — "One cannot," says Dr. King, "have freedom of contract and at the same time have price control by government. . . . Price control is merely a convenient entering wedge for the fascist state and is entirely incompatible with free enterprise. The Murray (Full Employment) Bill affirms the right of every American to a job — the very thing that the CIO is designed to prevent. The fundamental reason for the existence of the CIO is, indeed, to establish monopoly in the labor market. . . . Labor monopolies promote unemployment and thus generate a demand that free enterprise be overthrown and statism be substituted."

ANOTHER ANGLE

The factor that the editorial writer on 25 games Monday and proceeded to give him a piece of the mind.

"Why don't some of you people with the power of the press tell me what you think of working people that a lot of money in the pay envelope won't do them and that if they don't anything to say with it?" he asked.

"I can tell an occasional person I meet on my rounds, and it doesn't mean much. The people I meet are all over. But you all at your desk and write stuff that goes to thousands of well people and they all read it. You know that and nobody really makes it clear to them. Economists using fancy words don't mean anything to people who work with their hands. But telling them straight from the shoulder is worse. They can get the first time does mean something. Why don't you get on your job and tell us plain."

"Money isn't anything in itself. It's food and shelter and clothing and other comforts that people want."

"They can't have them unless they grow food or build houses or make clothes and so on."

"If they make enough things, the prices will be made their pay and they'll be comfortable. If they want on their hours and get too much pay in proportion to what they make, the prices of everything they want to buy will go up and up and in the end there is hardly anything to buy and it won't go around and so neither how much money they get, they won't have any comfort."

"Tell me that and tell me that they need to know. They mean well but they just don't understand and nobody tells them."

BROTHERS IN OFFICE

The death of Chief Justice Irving Latham of the New York Court of Appeals reveals an unusual brotherhood in American politics. Irving held the highest judicial post in his state during part of the time that the better known Justice, Guy Herbert Latham, now director of the United Nations Relief Administration, held the highest executive position.

Brothers have not often held offices together in America. The most conspicuous instance is that of Wisconsin's La Follette family having been a senator for a long time while the brother Philip served three terms as governor.

Brother Robert, a Tall of Ohio, the respondent's son, is in the midst of many campaigns in Ohio by the late prominent brother Charles, who all lately was director of war-time economic affairs in the state department.

Perhaps the most remarkable case of family attachment, however, was that of the three Latham brothers who around the turn of the century were in Congress together from Indiana. One of the three was Judge Kenneth Latham, widely known as the case of baseball.

Present in general commercial enterprises is known to exist throughout a large area of West Texas and Southern New Mexico.

JAP METHODS of guarding prisoners are discussed by Comdr. Charles E. Hutton, Park Rapids, Minn., downed over Yellow Sea, and Lt. Robert G. Smith, Dalton, Mass., with Personnel Recovery Service. They examine but used to beat prisoners.

The Wise Man is Wise ...

... only if he acts before, not after an emergency. And wise indeed is he who looks into the title before he pays out his money for real estate. The best way to find out about a title is to get an abstract and have your attorney examine it. If he tells you the title is sufficient you may feel safe in making the purchase. Otherwise, don't buy—regardless of the other favorable factors.

"That electric refrigerator of yours is a necessity today. They tell us that food means health and proper food preservation means proper food.

"There are a lot of refrigerators that would like to retire and take it easy—they're old or maybe their ticker is kicking up. But we can't get along without them because they're essential to war, necessary for getting the Maximum out of rationed food supplies, necessary to insure that your health is good because your food is right.

"You can see to it that you don't have to get along without your electric refrigerator... by caring for it, not overworking it, giving advance notice to your repairman if it shows symptoms of disorder. Defrost regularly, don't turn your refrigerator up to 'high' unless absolutely necessary, give it adequate ventilation and it will probably stick with you for the duration."

Like your refrigerator, your refrigerator service man is working hard these days. Won't you give him as much advance notice as possible?

ISN'T Good Living JUST A MATTER OF CHOICE?

Good foods carefully selected and properly prepared are the basis of good living. Among all the foods you serve, good coffee is probably the most important. It's the "backbone" of many menus, notably breakfast and supper; it's the one part of any meal that must be good if other foods are to be enjoyed. Hence don't take chances by trying to save a penny or two a pound. Buy the choicest, most skillfully blended coffee the market offers. Such a coffee is Admiration—superb in quality, rich in flavor, delightfully aromatic and inviting. More people in the Southwest drink it than any other brand. There's a reason.
