Admiral Says Navy in Bad Shape; Wants Youth Draft

DISCHARGE POINTS BE CUT AGAIN

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. — Fleet Adm. Ernest J. King said today that the U. S. navy is so disorganized by demobilization that it could not now fight a major battle.

He also said that the present atomic bomb "cannot prevent fleets from operating."

His statements were made before the House Military Affairs committee as he urged approval of legislation to require a year's compulsory military training of 18 year old males.

Referring to demobilization, Rep. J. Leroy Johnson, R., Calif., asked "is the navy so badly disorganized that it could not now fight a major battle?"

"I'm afraid I'd have to answer yes to that question," King replied.

In an earlier reference, King said "the navy is more or less disintegrated. I don't want to be taken too literally on that, but I don't know any other word to express it."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (U.P.) — The war department, late today lowered the discharge point score for male enlisted personnel from 60 to 55, effective Dec. 1.

It also announced other changes in the discharge system which will make an additional 783,000 servicemen and women eligible for return to civilian life.

The discharge score for enlisted WAC's will be reduced on Dec. 1 from 34 to 32, and for male officers from 75 to 73 points. Wac officers still will need 37 points.

All enlisted men with three or more dependent children under 18 years, and all married Wacs who entered the service prior to May 12, will be discharged upon application after Dec. 1.

DeGaulle Denies Reports That He Has Quit His Job

PARIS, Nov. 16. (U.P.) — Gen. Charles De Gaulle tonight denied widespread reports that he had resigned his provisional presidency, but reliable sources said he had decided to do so.

There was no sign he had made any progress in his efforts to form a coalition government.

The Communists, who had announced their intention of holding out for their own objectives in formation of the government, made no sign they were willing to make any concessions which would enable De Gaulle to form a cabinet.

FIND HOTEL ROOM—Blind Anita Blair, 23, right, of El Paso, Tex., and her guide dog, Fawn, settle down in a Chicago hotel after sleeping in the matrons' quarters at the police station the night before. Jack Kurtz and police matron Bernice Cover look after the welfare of the visitor, who came to Chicago to arrange contracts for a spring lecture and singing tour. She was blinded in a motor accident seven years ago.

ARMY-NAVY UNIFICATION ESSENTIAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (U.P.) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today that merger of the army and navy would save the armed forces more than 25 percent in manpower and "substantial" amounts of money.

"Under a system of unification, you could develop a more efficient organization with 75 per cent of the men that you would need now," he told the senate military affairs committee.

"I know" that the Allies would have lost the war in northwest Europe and the Mediterranean without a single, overall command, Eisenhower said.

The unification must be accomplished, he said, "lest we lose the peace we have so dearly bought."

Eisenhower warned that disunity of the services might lead to another sudden attack on this country.

CIO Recommends Seizure Vacant Houses For Vets

DALLAS, Nov. 16. — Commandeering of vacant houses for the use of veterans and their families was urged by CIO leaders of a sub-regional staff meeting Wednesday at White Plaza Hotel.

Congressional action on temporary housing and passage of the Wagner - Ellender bill for large-scale public housing also were urged at the session, attended by staff representatives of more than 25,000 CIO members in north Texas.

A. R. Hardesty, subregional director, emphasized the emergency nature of the proposals advanced.

"These drastic measures are necessary because of the existing conditions which make mockery out of our 'welcome home' to our returning servicemen and veterans. Commandeering of vacant houses and the erection of temporary housing, however, should be regarded only as emergency measures," he declared.

"Owners, of course, would be given reasonable rates for their property."

The meeting also heard suggestions that the city government erect hutments or trailers to be rented at reasonable rates to servicemen.

A committee report, presented by Mrs. Latane Lambert, area director of the CIO Community Services committee, declared that companies handling building material are refusing to sell available materials in the current tax year in anticipation of tax reductions in 1946.

"Hutments, trailers and prefabricated houses are available for lease by the city from the federal government," she told the group. "These units are now standing vacant in many cities over the southwest. It is essential that a public agency retain control so that sub-standard housing will be used for emergency only."

OPA Studies Car Price Problem; Declines to Talk

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (U.P.) — Mum's the official word today on when price ceilings for new automobiles will be announced.

The OPA, studying fresh cost information submitted by dealers, is declining to crawl out on any more limbs with predictions about the long-awaited announcement.

Price Administrator Chester Bowles had said ceilings for some makes of cars would be disclosed yesterday.

He cancelled that plan to take a good look at dealers' new arguments that they can't absorb any price increases granted to manufacturers.

It was the second postponement in a week.

UMBRELLA MAN—With Chinese "G.I." umbrellas in one hand and gun in the other, a grinning sentry of the 70th Nationalist Army stands guard at one of the docks at Kiuin, Formosa. The Army was landed by units of U.S. Seventh Fleet, first major amphibious operation of American and Chinese forces.

Joe Lea Moore at Home; Served 22 Months in Pacific

Joe Lea Moore, son of Mrs. W. W. Moore and a pharmacist mate with the navy for the past three and a half years, is at home after receiving his discharge from the service at Camp Wallace.

Mr. Moore, 37 and a native son of Cisco, is being greeted by his large circle of friends, who have expressed the hope that he will be able to find something to his liking in the old home town and again become a permanent resident. As yet he has made no decision as to his business future.

He entered the navy July 1, 1942, and spent 22 months in the Pacific war zone, fortunately returning in the best of health.

Carl Tom Moore, 28, a brother, is now in a hospital at Dayton, O., going through processing course preparatory to discharge.

Carl Tom Moore was seriously injured more than a year ago when the plane he was flying crashed. However, it is thought he has fully recovered from injuries received at that time and that he will soon receive his discharge papers.

JAP FOOD RIOTS

TOKYO, Nov. 16. — Twenty-three hundred hungry residents of Hokkaido, northernmost Japanese home island, seized food from farmers, storehouses and mills on two successive days, the newspaper, Asahi reported Friday. Some of them left money in payment. The food rioters split into small bands for their forays.

Charged That Pacific Fleet Was Reduced in 1941

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (U.P.) — Republican members of the Pearl Harbor investigating committee charged today that the U. S. Pacific fleet was reduced in 1941 at a time when Hawaiian waters were being designated as defense areas.

Rep. Bertrand W. Gearhart of California, said three battleships, one aircraft carrier, four cruisers and nine destroyers were shifted from the Pacific to the Atlantic after May 1, more than seven months before the Pearl Harbor attack.

Rep. Adm. T. B. Inglis, chief of naval intelligence, who was on the witness stand, said he knew nothing about the transfer. He said even if they had not been ordered, the U. S. fleet in the Pacific on Dec. 7 still would have been numerically inferior to the Jap fleet.

NYLON PRICES BE CUT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (U.P.) — Prices of all-nylon stockings will be reduced 40 to 65 cents a pair Nov. 20, the office of price administration announced today. The effect of a new order is that the 45 gauge nylons with nylon feet and tops will sell for $1.25 to $1.40 a pair — 45 to 65 cents a pair below present ceilings.

Baptists Renege on Baylor Degree For Mr. Truman

FORT WORTH, Nov. 16. — By resolution, the Baptist general convention of Texas yesterday criticized President Truman's "reported attitude as a Baptist toward gambling and drinking."

On motion of the Rev. L. L. Roloff of Corpus Christi, the convention instructed trustees of all Texas Baptist colleges and universities not to confer an honorary degree on persons holding "to such position."

The president had been invited by President Pat M. Neff of Baylor university to receive an honorary doctor of laws degree at Waco Dec. 5. Mr. Truman, after tentatively accepting the offer, cancelled the trip recently because of pressing business in Washington.

Rev. Wallace Bassett, Dallas, a member of the Baylor board, commented on the convention action as follows:

"It's too late now. The degree is there waiting for the president. If he doesn't come and get it, we will mail it to him."

Rev. Forrest Freezer, pastor of Broadway Baptist church here and newly elected first vice president of the convention, pointed out that the resolution was not discussed and was acted on quickly.

"I believe most Baptists would agree with the intent of the resolution in general," he said, "but I believe that if they had thought the idea of turning aside the degree to be awarded him, they would not have acted in such haste."

In Waco, President Neff said he had "no comment" on the situation.

HELPING THEMSELVES.

A small Arkansas town named Walnut Ridge has done something about its unemployment problem. By popular subscription it has raised $65,000 to erect a factory building that will furnish jobs for returning veterans, discharged war plant workers and people who are tired of farming. They will donate this money to a responsible firm that will build a plant in their midst, or they will build the plant themselves and charge the firm a pro-rated rent. Further, additional local capital can be forthcoming if the manufacturer is interested in a community co-operative venture. Here is a sound idea based on the economic principle that if production is stimulated unemployment will cease to be a problem. There are no large industries in the immediate vicinity of this town, hence no present chance for industrial jobs.

By bringing to the town a plant that will fabricate a product for which there is a market, citizens will find work.

Any self-respecting American will prefer this kind of income to that from such illogical, time-killing activities as what might be termed the Hoover-Roosevelt depression made necessary.

The Arkansas plan has the further advantage of being locally inspired, which will add to the community's self-esteem.

This is a good industrial-farming idea, too. That is, for a plant which can use materials of a type easily grown by farms in the vicinity to locate in such a public-spirited and forward-looking town.

"I'm mighty proud of my reputation"
Hostess, cook or wife...or all three...your reputation is based largely on your good judgment and talents. Don't spoil it by serving an inferior coffee. A trifle? Not on your life! Parties and just ordinary meals can be dampened by coffee that is wishy-washy, flat, and tasteless. Good coffee on the other hand gives lift to spirits, a hearty zest to the appetite, and sparkle to the occasion.

A DELIGHTFULLY INVITING FLAVOR

Admiration Coffee makes every meal an event. Its smooth, mellow goodness adds a flavor touch of its own. Its delicate, fragrant aroma becomes a pleasant remembrance. Its full-flavored richness is satisfying and delicious. Try your first pound immediately if you're among the few who don't regularly serve Admiration. Try it in comparison with any other brand. You'll be more proud of your reputation than ever before.
