What do I think of the servant situation?

Why, I haven't any servants! e

That's what you think, lady.

Are you sure you've got the right house? We're the I. Budget Smiths. You're probably looking for the J. Tycoon Smiths, over on Golf Terrace. No, Mrs. Smith, I mean YOU-

Well, something's wrong somewhere. I do all my own housework.

Not quite all, Mrs. Smith. You have some household appliances, haven't you?

Of course, but-

OF COURSE-that's the answer, Mrs. Smith. You DO have a servant, but you take that servant for granted. You've got a combination laundress, cook, cleaning woman, lamplighter, seamstress and entertainer-one who doesn't mind a few odd jobs like heating the bath water, guarding your food, fanning your fevered brow-

Oh, you mean ELECTRICITY_

Yes, Mrs. Smith, electricity-the universal servant who works 24 hours a day at low pre-war wages-and never asks for time off. Why, Mrs. Smith, your "servant situation" here in America is better than anywhere else in the world.
