Houston Faces Shutdown of Vital Services at 5 P. M.

TEXAS TELLS PRESIDENT OPA AND WALLACE NEW DEAL SETUP HINDER FEEDING OF EUROPE

AUSTIN, Feb. 22. — The acute existing shortages in food and commodities is laid at the door of the former national administrations, particularly the Henry Wallace policies as secretary of agriculture, in a telegram to President Harry Truman signed by J. E. McDonald, Texas commissioner of agriculture for eighteen years.

McDonald, who has persistently differed with Wallace's policies, even to voting against the Democratic national nominees, presents a bill of particulars in his long message to President Truman.

Coincident with making this attack on Democratic administrations and the present Secretary of Labor, Wallace, McDonald is about to announce for re-election. If chosen it would be his tenth term for an aggregate of twenty years' service.

McDonald wired Truman in part as follows:

"I commend your Christian and humanitarian desire to feed the starving and clothe the naked of the world and I believe it my duty to present the following agricultural facts for your consideration and action.

"First, the Wallace program was one that destroyed crops, hogs and cattle and then attempted to rig government and control the American farmer by holding commodity prices below the cost of production and attempting to pacify the farmer by giving him subsidies.

"Second, the unrestricted OPA program, under the direction of impractical administrators who imposed fallacious and uneconomic regulations, has confused, handicapped, and made it impossible for agriculture, industry, business and labor to produce adequately.

"Third, Mr. President, you have been a farmer and you must know that it is economically impossible for the farmer to produce adequately not only for our domestic needs but for the starving and destitute of other nations as long as he is handicapped by such uneconomic and destructive price fixing.

"And lastly, Mr. President, I know you are not responsible for the existing situation because you inherited it. However, continued, the solution is not too complicated. It is simple if handled with courage and fortitude.

"We know," said McDonald, "that in order to pay sufficient taxes to liquidate the stupendous government debts we must have high priced commodities and high wage levels which will apply not only to agricultural and industrial

HOUSTON, Feb. 22.—Houston, largest city in the southwest, will be practically "helpless" at 5 p. m. today when all vital city services will be shut off as city employees walk off their jobs.

Mayor Otis Massey appealed to Gov. Coke R. Stevenson for aid and the state chief promised to alert Texas Rangers and Texas Defense Guard units for possible duty.

Texas Defense Guard leaders in Houston reported they were ready to call four well-equipped battalions for emergency duty.

Half the 2,000 guardsmen in the Houston area could be dealing with emergencies within two hours after the "into action" signal was given, officials said.

The executive committee of the Building Trades Council, composed of all building trades, all of them AFL affiliates, in Houston, voted shortly after noon to order the walkout at 5 p. m.

The walkout would shut down all water, gas, sewerage and alarm systems for police and fire departments.

Lieut. and Mrs. O. O. Odom have purchased the Mrs. J. M. Williamson home at 401 west Seventh street and work of converting the two-story residence into an apartment house will start immediately.

There will be four strictly modern apartments and when completed they will be furnished and rented.

For the present at least, Lieut. and Mrs. Odom will make their home in Washington, D. C., where he is stationed.

The house, which has three lots, was built many years ago by the late John F. Patterson and contains lumber of the best quality. The Williamsons reworked and improved the residence in 1927.

EMPLOYERS NOTIFIED.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22. (AP)—The government advised employers today that they may not always receive price increases sufficient to cover the full amount of wage hikes granted under the new stabilization regulations.

JIM JEFFRIES ILL.

BURBANK, Calif., Feb. 22. — James J. Jeffries, who punched his way to the world's heavyweight boxing championship in 1899, was reported in a serious condition today following a stroke that paralyzed his left side.

BEAUTIFUL ANTI-FASCIST IN SPAIN—The Duchess of Valencia, 28, is unquestionably one of the most outspoken of all Franco's opponents inside Spain. She lived in Madrid throughout the Civil War and sympathized strongly with the Republic.

Texas Regulars May Vote Again If They Behave

FORT WORTH, Feb. 22. (AP)—Dissident Democrats who bolted the national Democratic ticket two years ago as Texas Regulars will be welcomed back into the party fold — if they take a pledge to support the nominees of the party.

The "concession" re-admitting the bolters was wrung from the state executive committee after heated debate, when the committee voted to accept the so-called Peden report, which bings persons taking part in Democratic conventions to support the party nominees.

Many Jobs For Capable Men, Yet Idle List Grows

DALLAS, Feb. 22. — A special session of the legislature to provide enough highway patrolmen to cope with the growing traffic menace is urged by Carl J. Rutland, chairman of the Citizens Traffic Commission.

Rutland urged members of the commission, meeting at city hall, to support a move for a special session.

"Our accident rate on the streets and highways is becoming a disgraceful matter," Rutland said.

"The legislature cut down on the highway patrol during the war when so many men were not needed. Now with the war over they are needed badly.

"The Legislature does not meet in regular session until January, 1947. Even if it did provide for more men then, it would be September, 1947, before they could be put on the highways.

Rutland said he had been informed by Homer Garrison, director of the state department of public safety, that the department could not even supply enough men to handle a driver's license campaign which has been proposed for Dallas. About 30 per cent of the drivers on the streets of Dallas do not have licenses, and probably 50 per cent of the drivers in Texas are unlicensed, he estimated.

At the present rate, Rutland said, between 1,700 and 1,800 persons will be killed on Texas highways before the legislature can meet again in regular session.

"We need at least 600 patrolmen — more than twice the present number."

First of Rotary Speakers at High School Tonight

First of a series of four programs in the Rotary Institute of International Understanding will be presented tonight at 7:30, Cisco high school. A Lobo band concert of 30 minutes will precede the introduction of the speaker, Morris H. Coers of Indianapolis, whose subject will be "Making International Organization Effective."

Mr. Coers is a nationally known speaker who has spent many years in study and travel through the United States, Europe and the near east, and is eminently qualified to discuss this subject. For 10 years he has presented frequent radio programs on various phases of international affairs.

The program which the band will play under the direction of Fred D. Baumgardner, director, will be:

March, "Promotion," (Chenette); Overture, "Neptune," (Eisenberg);

Tone Poem, "Organ Melody," (Ribble);

Popular (a) — "Londonderry Air," (Buchtel); (b) — "Old Grey Bonnet," (Wenrich);

March, "Honor Band," (Weber).

All proceeds of the Institute above expenses, which are already assured, will go to the Lobo band for the purchase of necessary equipment.

Former Coleman Pastor to Preach in Cisco Sunday

Rev. R. E. DeLoach of Coleman will preach at Cisco First Christian church Sunday morning and evening, said Troy Powell today.

The minister, former pastor of the Christian church at Coleman, served more than two years in the army as chaplain and has held no regular pastorate since his discharge. He is about 38 years of age and has a wife and two children.

Mr. DeLoach was in Cisco last week for a meeting with the pulpit committee of the Christian church, which has been without a pastor since the death of Rev. J. R. Wright. This meeting was merely in the nature of a get-acquainted session, but following the minister's visit here Sunday, it is not unlikely that he will be offered the local pastorate.

The pulpit committee of Cisco First Christian church is composed of Edward Lee, J. D. Lauderdale, Lonnie Shockley and C. R. West. L. A. Warren, church board chairman, was present at the recent meeting with Mr. DeLoach.

PRINCE KISSES CROWN GOOD-BYE as he greets his fiancée, Mrs. Kerstin Wijkmark, "hell-o" at a New York pier. Prince Carl Johan of Sweden gave up his royal status to wed Mrs. Wijkmark, a commoner. After the wedding the couple will live in New York city and work.

30 FFA STUDENTS, 8 FARMERS SAW TERRACING DEMONSTRATION ON THE SCHAEFER FARM

"Your Plow Can Build a Terrace" was the theme of a terrace demonstration held Wednesday on the Rudolph Schaefer farm, one mile south of Cisco. T. C. Caudie, vocational agriculture teacher of Cisco high school, sponsored the demonstration for the benefit of FFA students.

Thirty boys and eight farmers witnessed the completion of a 100-foot terrace in two hours, with a two-bottom moldboard plow. Mr. Schaefer also used a two-disc plow to build another terrace by the same method.

The moldboard, disc and one-way plows are recognized by farmers as being an excellent tool for building terraces by "island" or "step-in" method of construction. By this method, an 18-foot "island" is left unplowed, on which the terrace ridge is built, and the soil is "stepped-in" from both sides to form a broad channel on the upper side and a gradual slope on the lower side of the terrace.

The terrace Schaefer constructed was 40 feet wide and 16 inches high and can be readily crossed with any standard farm implement. It has a cross-section of ideal proportions and normal farming operations can be performed on top of the terrace.

B. R. Day, engineer of the soil conservation service, Rising Star, conducted the demonstration and explained in detail the method of terrace construction. Schaefer is cooperating with the Upper Leon soil conservation district and is carrying out a complete soil conservation program.

J. M. Cooper, county agent, was present to observe the construction of the terrace and farmers attending were A. Z. Myrick, S. O. Barnhill, Paul Poe, I. N. Hart, Bill Wende, Rudolph Schaefer, Edward Duncan, Frank Coats.

The following students were present: S. B. Sisk, Clois Wayne Webb, Richard Ziehr, Joe McIntire, Emmett Rich, Joe McIntire, Harold Huntington, Thomas Freeland, Bill Foy, Charley Cooper, Byron Brown, Alford Bluhm, Primes Akers, Balford Bluhm, Gene Schaefer, Edward Reich, Bill Bacon, Jack Myrick, Willie Lovell, Granville Agnew, Raymond Penn, John Neal Phippen, Wilborn McKinney, Scott Bailey, Joe Ray Walker, Alfred Lenz, Louis Elliott, Dwight Dunn and James Rieker.

BUILDING PERMITS.

Hal Lavery, city secretary, informs the Daily Press that ten building permits have been issued by the city since the first of the year, for a total of $13,950. There is no charge for building permits. Mr. Lavery reminds, but under the law there must be a permit for all permanent construction.

JAPANESE BOOKS RETURNED TO CITIES—Japanese sort and stack books in the Ueno Imperial Library in Tokyo after they were brought back from small towns where they had been kept safely during the war. Several million books are kept at the library. Most sought after are books on science and literature. Readers show little interest in current social and political events.

Texas March Oil Flow Cut 353,034 Barrels Per Day

AUSTIN, Feb. 22. — Faced with mounting petroleum stocks in the nation, the Railroad Commission Thursday reduced March allowable from crude oil 353,034 barrels daily.

The March allowable totals, 1,855,845 barrels daily, the commission figures will furnish 1,791,553 barrels of crude daily when discounted for underproduction. Natural gasoline and distillate production for March is estimated at 171,518 barrels daily, for an aggregate output of 1,963,071 barrels.

Estimated production is 1,553 barrels daily above the Bureau of Mines forecast of market demand for Texas crude next month, and the total petroleum output exceeds the bureau's forecast by 173,071 barrels a day.

The new allowables are the smallest since last fall's refinery strikes. They reflect a large accumulation of gasoline which refiners produced in supplying a heavy winter demand for heating oils.

"Gasoline stocks in normal times run 75,000,000 to 90,000,000 gallons whereas we have on hand today 103,000,000 gallons," said Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson. "It is calculated there is enough gasoline on hand to more than meet current consumption even with curtailed refinery runs."

The March order calls for twenty-one days operation in most fields, including East Texas, exempting only those normally omitted. Twenty-four producing days were permitted in February and twenty-six in January.

McVAY VERDICT TOMORROW.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22. (AP)—The navy disclosed today that its findings in the court-martial trial of Capt. Charles B. McVay III, skipper of the Cruiser Indianapolis, will be announced tomorrow by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, chief of naval operations.

STILL FAR APART.

DETROIT, Feb. 22. (AP)—Federal Labor Conciliator James F. Dewey revealed today that after nearly 40 negotiating sessions since Oct. 2, General Motors and the CIO United Auto Workers have yet to discuss many differences before settling the 94-day GM strike.

MASS PICKETING DESPITE INJUNCTION—An injured picket at the Western Electric Company Plant 1 in Kearney, N. J., is carried away from gate. Despite the issuance of an injunction limiting picketing to 15 strikers at each gate, mass picketing went on. A total of 1500 pickets kept 3400 non-production workers from entering the plant, violating the stay law.

GOVERNMENT.

Of all our human arts, the art of government is perhaps the most difficult. Especially so in doubtful and changing times like these, when the world is uneasy and parties and nations must be driven with a sure and steady hand, by honest men who know what is going on in the world and have reasonably clear ideas of what to do about it.

The government of the United States has been caught unexpectedly in a situation—surprisingly like that which developed after the death of Abraham Lincoln. The president himself never expected to occupy the presidential office and in some essential ways he is as he himself would readily admit, not very well fitted as regards current times and problems.

But the job has to be done; and it could and should be done in the American way. It is essential that the president shall keep his nerve and maintain his dignity. He needs competent and nation-loyal advisers; regardless of party.

If we can throttle the small, mean-minded professional politician and forget the elections of 1948, all may yet be well. Otherwise the aforementioned elections might not be held in the usual manner.

PASTORAL.

Tillage, and wood, and pasture, These three—and these enough To hold, through every weather, Man and his heart in love.

Returning late from tillage, At day's end, past the wood, He knows the cool of evening, And knows that it is good;

Past meadow, where the mildewed And sweet-named cattle are, He knows a yellow window, And knows it for his star, —David Morton in Washington Post.

A Vital Message To Men Who Feel Old

Why not regain the vim and vitality you once enjoyed?

If life apparently has lost its zest, you again may be able to enjoy life as you did in your youth. If added years have slowed down your vim, vitality and youthful pleasures, here is a simple method that may change your whole outlook on life. Just ask your druggist for CASSELL's Activating Tablets. Take as directed on label. Don't feel old and worn out at 40, 50 or more. Take these tablets regularly until you feel that you have regained the pleasure of living you once enjoyed. Why be discouraged? Why not try CASSELL's tablets and regain the vigor and zest of a much younger man? There is nothing harmful in these tablets. They contain Calcium, Iron, Ask your doctor or druggist about this formula.

SO GLA-A-A-D TO MEET YOU—Shaking hands but evidently not meeting it too much, are radio early-risers Don McNeil, left, and Tom Breneman. They met in Chicago to settle a long-standing air-waves' rivalry, and the net result is somewhat artificial.

From Where We Sit and Observe... it is apparent that there is a growing interest on the part of many people in land titles. Every day we have folks in the office who are interested in buying a place but seem to be more interested in the title. This is a healthy sign. They certainly are on the right track. For, after all, it's the title, not so much the location or the nature of the improvements, that determines the value of all real estate. EARL BENDER & COMPANY EASTLAND ABSTRACTERS 1923 - 1946. The other day I saw a new thermostat for heating control which is such a natural that the wonder is nobody ever thought of it before. Thermostats were energetically promoted throughout the war in the interest of saving fuel, which they certainly do. They keep the heat at an even temperature, making for greater comfort as well as real economy. But it is a characteristic of all thermostats that the temperature dial is difficult to read. You don't know whether you have it set for 65 or 75 degrees unless you turn a strong light on the numerals.

This new one is a small ivory baked enamel box which looks for all the world like a tiny miniature radio. It has a dial just like the radio, with a movable pointer, and you tune in the heat you want just the same as you would tune in a radio station. The figures are big and clear, and when the knob which turns the pointer is given a slight push, the whole thermostat lights up, making it easy and certain to set the dial, even in the dark.

Another advantage of this new convenience is that it contains a sensitive anticipator which uncannily seems to feel the slightest change in room temperature, and sets a small heating element in action which hurries up the thermostat in its turning on or shutting off the heat.

This new thermostat is not on the open market, being the exclusive device of the Holland Furnace Company. But there no doubt is one of their factory branches in your town where you may inspect and buy this product.

Your kites are lots of fun, boys and girls, but they must be flown properly if you want to be sure not to get hurt. Maybe it's hard for you to believe, but it's an actual fact that hundreds of youngsters throughout the country are seriously injured every year at kite-flying time, some from falls from trees or off buildings. So please be careful... watch these precautions, especially:

- ... Don't use string with wire in it. ...
- Keep your string dry at all times. (A damp string is dangerous.)
- ... Don't climb trees or poles near electric wires to recover your kite.

Remember—you can help keep your record for safety of yourself and others at kite-flying time if you'll heed these warnings. Show this advertisement to your friends.
