House Passed Diluted Patman Bill Today 357 to 24

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7. — The House today passed a diluted version of the Patman Housing Bill after beating down a final move to kill the measure. The vote was 357 to 24.

Among the 24 were Texas Congressmen Lanham, Kilday and West.

Rep. Jesse Sumner, R., Ill., opposing the measure by which the administration hopes to build 2,700,000 homes in the next year, moved to shelve the bill by sending it back to the banking committee. Her proposal was rejected, 304 to 76.

Administration forces lined up solidly in passing the bill, although many Democrats earlier had joined Republicans in rejecting several features urged by President Truman and Housing Administrator Wilson Wyatt.

Mr. Truman and Wyatt hoped the senate would add price ceilings on existing dwellings and $600,000,000 in subsidies to stimulate production of building materials. Both were rejected in the House by a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats.

The measure as approved by the House would be valid until June 30, 1947, and would authorize these things—

1. Price ceilings on new homes.
2. Allocation of scarce materials where needed.
3. Veterans preference in purchase of available homes and in new construction.
4. Broad authority by administrator over government agencies to speed construction.
5. Authority for administrator to curtail or stop export of lumber while scarcity continues.
6. Increased government authority to insure home mortgages by $1,000,000,000.
7. Ceilings on building materials to reflect a reasonable margin of profit.

Phone Workers get $5 to $8 Weekly Hike; Strike Off

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7.—Government intervention averted today's threatened nationwide telephone strike just 25 minutes before the 5 a. m. (CST) deadline. Seventeen hours of unremitting pressure by United States conciliation service officials led to agreement on "pattern" wage increases ranging from $5 to $8 weekly.

Texas Had Nearly $23 Million Cash Balance Yesterday

AUSTIN, Mar. 7. — When the State Treasury opened its doors Wednesday the general fund had a cash balance of $22,859,176, which is by $500,000 the largest credit it has had in the 100 year history of Texas. It was revealed by Jesse James, state treasurer.

Additional good news is that the available school fund has $8,755,110 cash which prompted Dr. L. A. Woods, state school superintendent, to announce it will be used at once in the form of a remittance today of $5 per capita to public schools of Texas to pay operating expenses.

With 1,491,992 scholastics receiving $5 each the total remitted will be $7,459,960. This will make $19 per capita paid thus far of the total $30 apportionment. The entire amount will be paid before the end of the scholastic year, Aug. 31 next.

The general fund is the state's all-purpose account and the key to its financial status. The financial barometer shows the Texas government to be in the strongest position in its history, James asserted.

May Call Winston to Testify About the British Loan

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7. (AP)—The Senate Banking Committee today was asked to call former Prime Minister Winston Churchill to testify against the proposed $3,750,000,000 British loan.

The suggestion came from Sen. Homer Capehart, R., Ind., a committee member. Capehart said Churchill has expressed opposition to the loan in parliament. He urged that the Briton be asked to give his views to the senate committee.

COTTON MEN CONFER.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7. (AP)—Economic Stabilizer Committee members and representatives of the three major cotton exchanges conferred for two hours today on a government proposal to increase margin requirements on the cotton futures market. No announcement was made of results.

Cisco Red Cross Drive to Get Going Next Monday

With the goal of raising Cisco's Red Cross quota of $2,500 within a week, teams of workers under the leadership of Mrs. W. W. Wallace and Charlie Graham will begin a canvass of the residential and business districts of Cisco next Monday.

Organization of these workers is now under way and the co-chairmen are confident that, given the cooperation of everybody in the city, the campaign will be "over the top" by the following Saturday.

Norman C. Huston is secretary-treasurer and is authorized to receive contributions. Already there has been voluntary response to the appeal, Graham said. Each business firm will be asked to canvass its own personnel and one firm—A. G. Motor company—already has done this and turned in the company contribution without being asked. The A.P. Grocery company has also made its donation, Graham said.

The campaign in the business district will be started first. It will relieve the members of the campaign teams of much work and inconvenience if each firm will take charge of its intra-company canvass, Graham explained. This plan will materially speed up the drive now while most businessmen and their employees are busy with their own affairs.

Price Ceilings on Sugar and Wheat Vitaly Necessary

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7. (AP)—Sec. of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson told representatives of 38 food trade industries today that serious political unrest may result from starvation abroad. Meanwhile, Chairman Stephen Pace, D. Ga., of the House Food Investigating Committee, said removal of price ceilings on wheat and sugar would cause commodities to disappear overnight.

Lone Star Gas Now in New Offices in Laguna hotel Bldg.

Lone Star Gas company's Cisco district of distribution has moved into its new headquarters in the Laguna Hotel building and all business transactions are now being conducted there, according to Charlie Burke, district manager for the company. The Lone Star office formerly was located at 416 D Avenue, just a few doors south of the hotel.

"Our new quarters have been remodeled throughout," Mr. Burke said, "to bring to our customers more convenient and more comfortable accommodations in which to apply for gas service and conduct other business with our company."

Mr. Burke said an open house to officially welcome Ciscons to the new headquarters will be held early in April at which time Lone Star will have a stock of modern gas appliances on display.

The new quarters, on the street level and on the south side of Laguna Hotel building, give the gas company's office and warehouse approximately 2,800 square feet of space. Partitions were built to set off the general office, the warehouse and the office of Manager Burke. Front of the quarters was remodeled and the interior plastered and painted throughout. The Cisco postoffice once occupied the new quarters of Lone Star Gas company.

In addition to Charlie Burke, Cisco employees of Lone Star are Miss Blanche Van Horn, Jim Sauls, Fred Grist and "Skinny" Coats.

Law excludes Educators From State Educational Board

AUSTIN, Mar. 7. — Amiable Boyce House, Fort Worth lecturer, columnist and author of "I Give You Texas," stuck his balding head into the political picture today with a statement bearing earmarks of a political platform.

A previous candidate for lieutenant governor, House did not say if he will be seeking the office this year.

House complained there is no one from the gulf coast on the state game, fish and oyster commission; no educator on the state board of education (law forbids it); and no woman on the board of regents of the University of Texas. He said legislative representation is based on a census of long ago.

Further complaint was that the constitutional amendment to permit not to exceed $40 a month old age pensions was "tricky" and deceived the old folks into thinking they would get $40.

CISCO HOMES, INC., READY TO ATTACK HOUSING PROBLEM IN A BUSINESSLIKE MANNER

Cisco launched its attack upon the housing problem last night when stockholders of the newly formed "Cisco Homes, Inc.," meeting enthusiastically at the chamber of commerce, chose seven of their number as directors to manage the affairs of the company and discussed suggested by-laws.

The directors are E. G. Damron, Nick Miller, J. L. Thornton, A. D. Anderson, Charles J. Kleiner, R. L. Ponsler and H. H. Tompkins. The directors met immediately after the stockholders meeting and named Mr. Tompkins president, Mr. Damron vice president and elected Norman C. Huston secretary and treasurer. Mr. Huston was also employed as bookkeeper and directed to set up books and corporation records for the company.

Mr. Tompkins was designated temporary purchasing agent to start obtaining materials for the construction of the houses which the company expects to have under way within the next three or four weeks, or as quickly as lots may be secured, materials obtained, contracts negotiated and other essential details worked out.

Adoption of the system of by-laws will be done by the board of directors within a few days and copies of these by-laws will be mailed to all stockholders for criticism and suggestion. An immediate concern of the board is the employment of a competent general superintendent to administer the details of company management and the president was empowered to advertise for applicants for this position. Meantime the company will function under the direction of its officers so that no time will be lost in getting the machinery in motion.

The organizational meetings were marked with enthusiasm and the new directors undertook their task with a vigorous determination to accomplish the purpose of the company, which is to provide seriously needed housing for Cisco residents, new and old. The first houses to be built will probably be small, in order that the company may gain experience and test construction costs without venturing on too great an investment at the start.

Stock plans for prospective home builders will be available at the corporation offices. From these plans, drawn by competent architects and approved by the FHA, the prospective buyer may select a design and obtain specifications for the home which the company can build for him. Cost of these plans will be but a fraction of the fee which architects must charge for individual plans.

Offices of the corporation will be temporarily maintained at the Cisco chamber of commerce where facilities will be available for assisting homebuilders in choosing plans, securing loans for the purchase of the homes built, if desired, and making other arrangements for the building and purchase of houses.

Steps will be taken by the company immediately to obtain a number of suitable lots for those who do not already own their sites.

Early Construction. Every effort will be made to facilitate the construction and sale of homes in a businesslike manner and with the least amount of delay and inconvenience. Further details of the policies to be followed and the opportunities to be offered will be announced as quickly as the board can act upon these matters.

It was pointed out that this is a new venture in many respects and that some time will be required to work out all details and those who hope to secure homes through the operation of the company are asked to bear this fact in mind. However, the directors are determined to get the organization into effective operation without delay and it is anticipated that construction will be started within the next three or four weeks.

Inquiries from prospective home owners will be welcomed and all possible assistance and information will be given. The corporation is capitalized at $25,000 and all of the stock is owned by Cisco people. The company is unique in its character and purpose and its organization has attracted much favorable reaction over the state. It represents an aggressive attack upon a problem which many communities have regarded as impossible of solution, but which the Cisco chamber of commerce and the organizers of "Cisco Homes, Inc.," believe can be solved by bold, aggressive action.

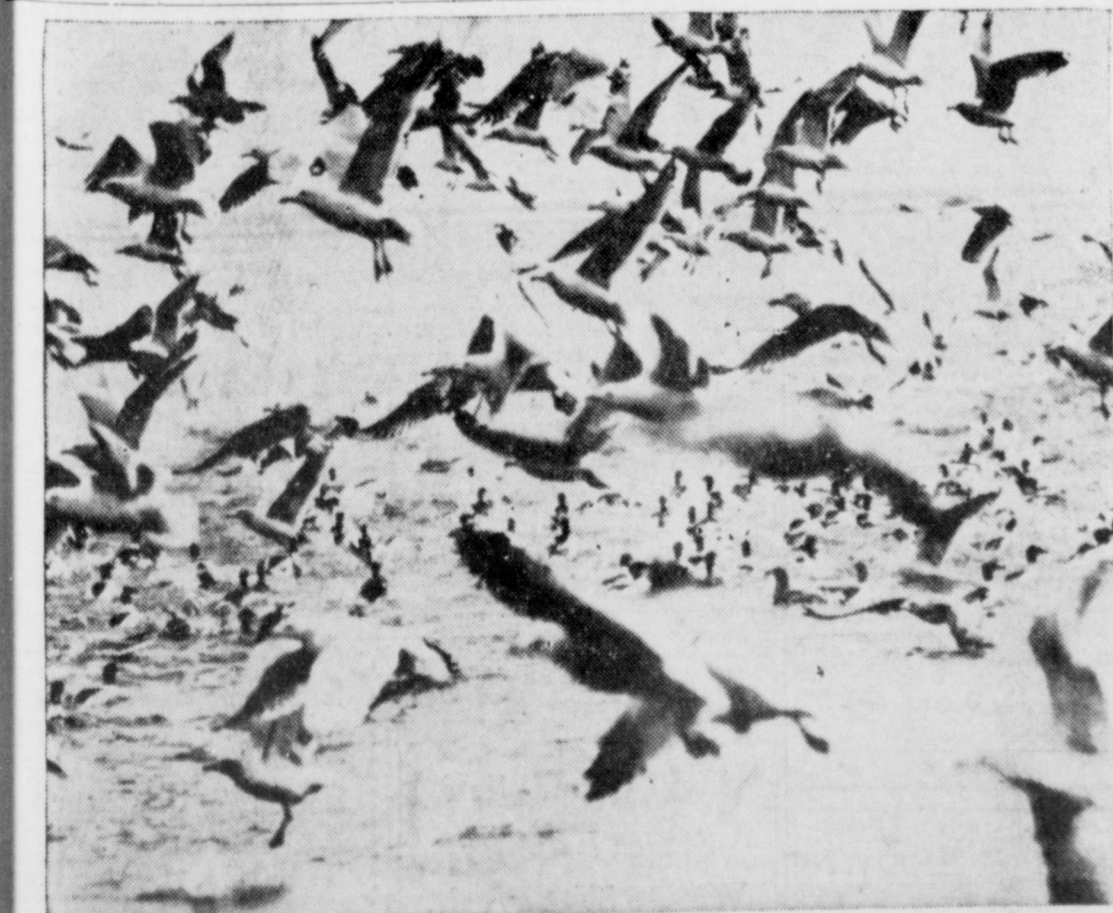

The result of the organization will determine whether or not Cisco meets its opportunity for growth and the men who are in charge of the affairs of the company are determined that it will answer this challenge.

POMP AND CONSECRATION.

At the first consistory in five years 32 Catholic bishops and arch-bishops from 19 countries, four of them Americans, were elevated to be cardinals in colorful religious ceremonies at Rome. Wearing violet robes to receive their scarlet hats, standing under golden canopies beneath a domed ceiling that took a 16th century artist 100 days to paint, the distinguished princes of the church went through their impressive ritual.

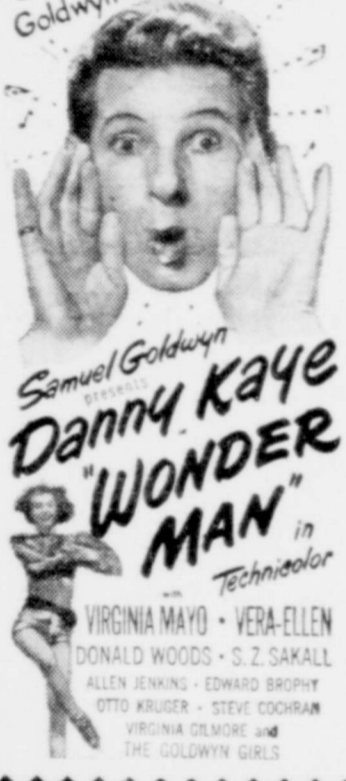

Three of the new cardinals were

German: one a bishop, Count Von Galen who had defied the Nazis, admitted his country was guilty of "horrible crimes" but said the pope apparently wished to distinguish between guilty and innocent Germans by appointing these German cardinals. In addition, before the ceremonies 60 German chaplains, attached to Nazi armies in the war and released from allied prison camps for the event, had a special audience with the pope who notably all through the war refused to condemn the German people, though condemning Nazi ideology.

In one of his addresses during the consistory ceremonies, the pontiff stressed the universality of the church "which does not belong to any one race, people or nation, but to all and to every one of the human family." This is a lesson and an attitude people of all faiths will have to take to heart if universal peace is to be attained. But it was hard for families of the Nazis victims — those millions in Europe who suffered the brutalities now officially being recorded for a horrified world.

Why Don't We Have Lumber FOR HOME BUILDING?

There are plenty of trees, plenty of lumber mills, but very little lumber for Home Building. WHY?

Here are the simple facts behind the lumber shortage—these facts are stopping Home Building:

- Over 50% of our lumber was once cut by small mills. Thousands of these mills were put out of business during the war by OPA ceiling prices. OPA still clings to wartime policies and these mills are still out of business.
- OPA's blind "hold the line" policies, plus lack of enforcement, have led to the development of a huge Black Market in lumber. "Black Market" lumber is lumber that costs the people more money than they would pay if lumber were flowing to them through the normal channels of distribution—the retail lumber dealer.
- Wartime ceiling prices made it profitable for the lumber manufacturer to cut sizes of lumber suitable for war uses, but not suitable for home construction. As OPA continues this unrealistic policy, manufacturers continue to cut lumber sizes which are unsuitable for home construction. In some cases premium prices granted by OPA encouraged production of lumber not usable for Home Building. Proper peacetime adjustments have not yet been made to encourage production of home construction lumber such as flooring, ceiling, siding, millwork, plywood—all essential items in home construction. This situation affects all lumber production.
- The manufacturers of lumber have been provided with a hidden premium on export lumber. The OPA has made it more profitable to produce lumber for export to foreign countries than to produce lumber for home construction.

These are merely examples from the lumber field which indicate the type of OPA action that is blocking the production of home building materials in many fields.

The fact remains that homes cannot be built by any industry or Government agency without materials.

Homes cannot be built without lumber—whether that home be wood frame, brick, concrete, or stone.

The lumber and building material dealers, and the contractors of the nation can build all the homes needed—IF they have the materials. But the flow of materials must be unblocked. Only increased production of building materials can solve the so-called housing problem and the unrealistic pricing policy of OPA is the biggest present block to increased production!

Any government program that does not FIRST remove the obstacles blocking production of materials will simply add additional difficulties to the problem facing the building industry.

During the social hour pals

Large secretary. Discussion of the yearly pledge was made and pledge cards distributed to new members. A survey of prospective members and discussion of present membership was made.

The leader, Mrs. Lillian Caudle, then turned the program to Mrs. Rachel Smith, who brought the devotional from John 3, (1-12). She discussed "Evangelism And Our Lost Neighbors." Mrs. Grace Boland then brought a very interesting and inspiring discussion of "The Gospel Remedy For Our Lost Neighbors."

After the program a delicious sandwich plate and spiced punch was served to the following members: Lillian Caudle, Gertrude Petty, Sammie Merrett, Elizabeth Ferguson, Grace Boland, Mavis Grayum, Louise Cooper, Christelle Hood, Johnnie Sue Largent, and Rachel Smith.

MRS. FRED GRIST HOSTESS TO CIRCLE.

Mrs. Fred Grist was hostess when circle four of First Baptist W.M.U. met Tuesday afternoon in her home. Mrs. A. D. Estes, vice chairman, presided in the absence of Mrs. Algie Skiles; minutes and roll were read by Mrs. Grist and a discussion was made of carrying out assignment of sponsoring intermediate girls auxiliary. The circle voted to give them a cash donation.

Mrs. Ina Pyle Martin brought an interesting Bible lesson following which the meeting was closed with prayer.

A social hour was held and refreshments were passed to Mrs. W. J. Poe, Mrs. Bethel Gallagher, Mrs. J. V. Heyser, Mrs. Ina Pyle Martin, Mrs. W. M. Isenhower, Mrs. A. D. Estes, Mrs. W. H. Hall and Mrs. Grist.

ALL THEY ASKED WAS AN EVEN BREAK

Building a new country was no easy job. But there were men and women willing to tackle it —to turn their backs on the government managed way of life and their faces toward new frontiers. All they asked was an even break.

Free enterprise is another way of saying "an even break." It's the basic American principle of vision and private initiative. Just give an American an even break—a chance to get ahead—and he'll go on from there.

But when government goes into business, in competition with its citizens, the American ideal of an even break is destroyed—for government in business enjoys special privileges that are denied the people.

Take the case of government-owned power plants, for example. They pay no taxes; get money from the U. S. Treasury at little or no interest; make up losses out of the pockets of the taxpayers.

On the other hand, America's business-managed power companies—owned and operated by millions of folks like you—are on their own. They pay their full share of taxes, and they pay fair interest on loans.

The same forethought and experience which furnished electric power for a global war will assure America dependable—and cheap—electric service for a postwar world. There are still new frontiers in electric living to be opened. And business men can do the job better than bureaucrats.

Modern mothers know that a gradually increasing variety of foods is necessary after the first few weeks. Consequently, today's babies are strong and healthy. They may not be as fat as you were when you were a baby, but they have sound muscle and tissue development. They will grow sturdily and have fewer handicaps which proper diet can avoid.

As babies grow rapidly, much more rapidly the first year than later on, they need not only calories, but also vitamins and minerals. That is why the special baby cereals have been prepared with extra vitamins and minerals, especially the mineral iron. The iron is needed to safeguard against anemia, a common difficulty in former generations.

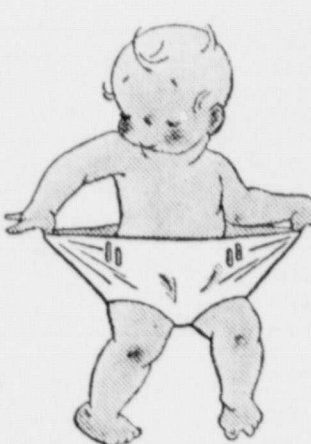

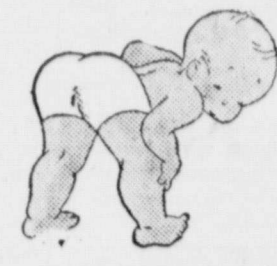

After the first few weeks on milk, cod liver oil and orange juice, cereals are introduced. Usually one cereal is given, at first in very small amounts, then a second cereal is introduced or a strained vegetable. The vegetables are good sources of the various vitamins.

These new foods are given in the first three or four months for two reasons, for their nutritional values and also they help to develop the ability to eat from a spoon and to swallow foods which are not liquids. They help too, to develop a taste for a variety of foods.

The special baby cereals available are of wheat or oats and the strained vegetables include a variety of green and root vegetables. Fruits are usually added to the menu as soon as one or two vegetables are somewhat familiar. Your doctor will determine the order in which these new foods are desirable for the particular type of development which your baby is making.

Many doctors also recommend the two-cereal idea — alternate cereals with each feeding. It stimulates baby's interest in food.
