Lone Star Open House for Ciscoans on April 4

Lone Star Gas company will hold open house for Ciscoans on Thursday, April 4, to officially welcome them to its new and enlarged office and warehouse in the south wing of the Laguna Hotel building, according to C. M. Burke, Cisco district manager for Lone Star.

The open house will feature an information booth on home planning and kitchen designing, a display of modern gas appliances, recipe booklets and cooking information, Mr. Burke said. Visitors will be conducted over the new quarters and favors distributed to women guests. The party will start at 9 a. m. and continue 12 hours, during which time men, women and children of Cisco are invited to be guests of Lone Star for coffee and cookies.

Highlight of the occasion will be the display of gas appliances that are now coming off production lines. This will include gas ranges with heat controls, automatic storage type water heaters, the Servel gas refrigerator that features silent operation, vented type gas circulating heaters, floor furnaces, central heating plants that automatically distribute warm air and unit heaters that provide heat for commercial establishments.

A staff of trained employees will demonstrate and explain the operation of the new appliances. They will point out the value of vented heating in eliminating wall sweating and providing healthful living conditions.

Literature on proper placement of gas appliances in the home for maximum operating results will be available at the home planning booth. Visitors will also receive a booklet on kitchen designs and floor plans, featuring the "New Freedom Gas Kitchen," a packaged kitchen developed by the gas industry. Large pictures of the new Freedom Gas Kitchen will be framed and placed on the walls of the office. Printed information on the year-round gas air conditioner will also be available.

The cookies, to be served with coffee, will be baked at intervals during the open house in a gas range in the center of the office. They will be made by Miss Mary Sue Herndon and Miss Harriet Pruitt, Lone Star home economists.

Miss Herndon and Miss Pruitt will be available for consultation on food preparation and menu planning and they will offer suggestions on how to receive the most economical use from gas appliances. They will also be a source of information on how to produce balanced meals at minimum cost, will counsel with home builders planning modern kitchens and distribute recipe bulletins.

Visitors to the Lone Star open house will be greeted by Manager Burke and his local employee staff consisting of Miss Blanche Van Horn, Fred Grist, Jim Sauls and N. M. (Skinny) Coats. Out-of-town Lone Star personnel attending the open house will include M. L. Bird, Abilene division superintendent, and Guy Custer, Hubert Davis and Norman Gooch, merchandising staff members, all of Abilene, and Will C. Grant, L. C. Roberts, Charley Lockhart Jr. and Bruce Cunningham, all from the Dallas headquarters office.

Lone Star's new headquarters afford the company's office and warehouse approximately 2,800 square feet of space. Partitions were built to set off the general office, the warehouse and Mr. Burke's office. Front of the quarters was remodeled and the interior plastered and painted throughout. The Cisco postoffice once occupied the quarters.

Cisco Methodists International Horizon is Brightening Rapidly Hosts to Youth of District Today

By LELA LATCH.

Members of the young people's division of Cisco First Methodist church, led by Nelda Smith, president, are busy with preparations for the sub-district meeting to be held at the church at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Young people, their pastors and adult counselors from Putnam, Breckenridge, Eastland, Olden, Ranger, Caddo, Carbon and Cisco Twelfth-st. church are members of this organization.

A brief business session directed by "Chuck" Moore, district president, Breckenridge, will precede the afternoon program, which will consist of a worship period, followed by recreation on the lawn and refreshments.

The worship hour will consist of a radio play entitled "J. Smith and Wife," presented by members of a freshman English class, directed by Lela Latch. Betty Arnold serves as announcer; Betty Brogdon as pianist; Lois Mae Walker as May Smith; Gene Miller as J. Smith; Roger Henson as gatekeeper; other members of the class, led by Jo Edd Bacon, do choral reading. In the group are Princess Akers, Alfred Bluhm, Belford Bluhm, Mary Lou Brown, Charlie Cooper, Bill Foy, Betty Freeland, Tom Freeland, Harold Huntington, Russell Johnson, Lupe Macias, Clinton Posey, Robert Rendall, Emmett Rich, Wayne Rupp, S. B. Shk, E. L. Smith, Tommy Tipton and Richard Ziehr.

Local adult workers with the young people are Mrs. E. L. Hazelwood, Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. J. E. Crawford, Mrs. A. D. Anderson, Mrs. J. T. Anderson, Mrs. Paul Woods, Mrs. H. B. Dierdorff and Lela Latch.

International Horizon is Brightening Rapidly

LONDON, Mar. 23. (U.P.)—The international horizon brightened visibly tonight amid indications that the Iran crisis may be near settlement and that Generalissimo Stalin is moving powerfully to ease world tension.

Gloom in diplomatic quarters concerning a possible smashup in the United Nations organization and concern over threats of war was lightening rapidly under the impact of a swift series of developments.

These included— 1. A declaration by Premier Ahmed Ghavam of Iran that direct negotiations with Russia may solve the crisis and get Red Army troops on the march out of Iran before the Security Council meets Monday.

2. A Kremlin conference with the ranking British diplomat in Moscow, Charge Frank K. Roberts, at which it was believed he received a statement of Soviet intentions regarding Iran and possibly Manchuria.

President Names Harriman Ambassador to Britain

WASHINGTON, Mar. 23. (U.P.)—President Truman tonight completed a reshuffling of this country's top diplomatic representatives to the other Big Two nations by making W. Averell Harriman as U. S. ambassador to Great Britain.

The appointment was announced on the eve of the departure for Moscow of Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, new U. S. ambassador to Russia. Smith was named to succeed Harriman when the latter resigned last month as U. S. envoy to the Soviet Union.

In London, Harriman will succeed John G. Wynnant, who served more than five years under an appointment by the late President Roosevelt.

Wynnant, whose resignation has been expected for some time, said recently he took the post with the understanding he would give it up after the end of the war.

City's Cake be All Dough if CIO Allowed Take Over

DALLAS, Mar. 23. — The stage is set for a court test of the right of city employees to join a union.

A hearing was docketed for Monday on a temporary restraining order, issued Friday, which prohibits dismissal of 200 Dallas municipal employees who have joined the CIO in defiance of a city ordinance.

The restraining order was issued by District Judge Sarah T. Hughes, acting for Judge Paine L. Bush in 68th District Court. Application was filed by Lindsey O. Walden, Fort Worth, counsel for the Texas State Industrial Union, and was sworn to by A. R. Hardesty, CIO sub-regional director.

The petition named Smitham, Mayor Woodall Rogers, Mayor Pro Tem J. B. Adoue Jr., members of the city council and the city of Dallas as defendants.

Application for the restraining order and its subsequent issuance came after a published statement from City Manager Smitham that city employees joining a CIO union in defiance of the ordinance would be subject to immediate dismissal.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 23.—President Truman tonight called on rebel Democrats and Republicans alike to support his legislative program in order to establish "a strong and progressive" America in "a prosperous and peaceful world."

To both parties he gave this warning— "Not merely the future of our political parties is at stake... the future welfare of our country is at stake."

In unity the president saw the promise of "the greatest outpouring of consumer goods that the world has ever seen" and "a balanced budget and further reduction in the public debt."

The president addressed the $100 a plate Jackson Day dinner at the Mayflower Hotel, here. His speech was broadcast throughout the nation.

It was the main event of some 300 other Democratic gatherings, where Jackson Day dinners, celebrating their party's annual tub-thumping and money-raising festival, listened to him on the radio.

Ciscoans Attend WSCS Conference Held in Hillsboro

The annual conference of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met in Hillsboro Tuesday through Thursday, with an unusually large attendance. Guest speakers were Miss Dorothy McConnell of New York, representative from the woman's division of the Methodist church, and Rev. Alonzo Monk of St. Louis, son of Mrs. Gid J. Bryan, president of the conference.

Financial reports for the year showed a large increase over last year, the total sum for missions amounting to over $52,000. One of the highlights was the presentation of life memberships, which means a special gift to missions of $25 (for an adult) honoring some individual. Mrs. John Shertzer, speaking for Cisco First church society, presented a life membership to Mrs. Joe Lovelady. A total of $1,745 was presented in life memberships.

In the election of officers Mrs. E. B. Wedemeyer of Waco was made conference president and Mrs. Wm. H. Cole of Cisco was re-elected secretary of spiritual life. The following Cisco women attended: Mesdames S. H. and J. P. McCanlies, C. E. Hailey, John Shertzer, Wm. H. Cole and A. A. Peacock.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Mar. 23. (U.P.) — Poland charged today that the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, and Allied military authorities, permitted pro-Nazi gangs to seize large quantities of food and clothing.

IRAN AMBASSADOR SPEAKS. NEW YORK, Mar. 23. (U.P.) — Iranian Ambassador Hussein Ala appealed to the United Nations Security Council to reject Soviet Russia's request for postponement of Monday's council meeting without specific instructions from his government, an Iranian spokesman revealed tonight.

VERY LIKELY TRUE. LONDON, Mar. 23. — A foreign office spokesman said Saturday Britain had received a note from the Spanish government charging that a campaign of terrorism was being organized against Spain by "the French Communists."

TWO FORMER "FIRST LADIES"—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, left, meets Mrs. Woodrow Wilson at a dinner party given in Washington in honor of Mrs. Roosevelt by the Women's Joint Congressional committee.

Democratic Party Unity is Not in Sight at Present

WASHINGTON, Mar. 23. — Don't look for Democratic party unity to emerge from tonight's Jackson Day dinner. It's more precarious than you think. President Truman would like to purge some liberals from party ranks as much as Wallace would like to purge Southerners who renege on radical measures and vote with Republicans. He's smarting from Pauley's defeat, talks bitterly about Democrats who didn't go along on the nomination. Fact that both Truman and Wallace will address $100 dinner here symbolizes the split. Of men close to Truman, only National Committeeman Hannegan still worries about getting part, at least, of Roosevelt domestic program translated into law. And Hannegan's approach is strictly practical. If he resigns, party will move openly toward right. He's likely to stay, however, until after 1948 campaign.

"Your Face is Familiar," a comedy in three acts, will be presented Friday night, March 29, at high school auditorium. Admission charges will be 30 and 60 cents and tickets will go on sale Monday.

The play, under the direction of Miss Doris Joe Pyle, is said to be full of action. The cast includes Patsy Lois McCrea, the wife of a young doctor, Joe Tom Poe, Doris Lee Hall is the mother-in-law and Nelda Smith portrays the aunt who drops in unexpectedly for a visit. A hilarious episode is provided by the actions of three young men — Billy Kendrick, Bill Greenhaw and Bobby Padgett. Marjorie Reynolds is the friend of the young wife. Two maids, played by Dorothy Grant and Betty Jones, add much to the comedy action.

Stage settings are being built by Harvey Haynie, state manager, and his committee — Charles Pence, Bobby Tullos and Betty Jo Petty. Properties will be handled by Martha Collins and publicity for the play is under direction of LaVerne Steffey, Loydellon Surles and Franklin Brown.

Mrs. Truman will make another major speech on Army Day, April 6. Look for important policy announcement affecting armed services.

SURE SIGN OF COMING SPRING—Lions, black bear and polar bear go into their act at Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey Circus winter quarters at Sarasota, Fla. Trainer, back to camera, says it's a tough act to "break in," but his biggest headache would come if his charges ever "break out."

Plane Talk

By JOE COULTER.

Too Old?

Too many people believe they are too old to learn to fly, or that they are not physically able. This mistaken idea is largely due to the policy in wartime training where only the "cream of the crop" were able to learn to fly.

Only a small percent of those who "washed out" were actually unable to learn. Instead was the fact that they could not learn quickly enough to fly the very heavy and very fast planes for which they were destined. Since there was an abundance of pilot material and a scarcity of time, the policy was to train only those who learned quickly.

Regardless of age, any normal person can learn to fly light planes. Since flying is about 90 percent judgment and 10 percent skill or technique, age and mature judgment are an asset. While the younger person will probably learn to handle the airplane in a shorter time, the older man with more "common sense" will make the safer pilot.

Though R. L. Ponsler and Frank Coats should not be called old, they are not exactly in their teens; yet they have proven to be safe, competent pilots. So don't say you are too old to fly — try it!

CISCO LONE STAR GAS CO. EMPLOYE GROUP. — Thursday, April 4, will be an important day for Lone Star Gas company employees in Cisco, for it marks the date of the open house to be held in the company's new and enlarged quarters in the Laguna Hotel building. The public is invited to the Lone Star party for coffee and cookies and to view the modern gas appliances that will be on display throughout the open house period, according to C. M. Burke, Cisco district manager for Lone Star. Cisco personnel of Lone Star in the accompanying picture are left to right, Fred Grist, Blanche Van Horn, Jim Sauls, Manager Burke and N. M. (Skinny) Coats.
