HELPING THE CAUSE—When little Universal child star Beverly Sue Simmons, Hollywood, offered her help in the "Be Kind to Animal Week" campaign, Napoleon, a big friendly Newfoundland, jumped into the picture. He turned on his most pleasing look, and offered Beverly Sue his paw to be bandaged.

U of T Must Find Way to Restrict Student Entry

AUSTIN, April 17. — Methods of restricting admission of students to the University of Texas, now overflowing with its greatest enrollment, are under study of a faculty committee.

The faculty council has scheduled a special session next Monday to consider recommendations. Two methods have been advanced.

One would impose restrictions on admission of nonresidents of Texas, and the other would limit enrollment to students who completed high school in the higher scholastic brackets.

Recommendations of a committee were sought after the session was raised in a regular session of the faculty council.

Its views will be transmitted to the board of regents, which, in its March meeting, took note of the overcrowded conditions, both in living quarters and classrooms.

SADDLES.
Casper, Wyo., boasts a saddle maker who has been at the business for forty years in that city. He knows his trade, a fact not hard to prove. You see there are a great many people in this state who know a good saddle when they see one and a saddle maker has to be good to stay in business long in Wyoming. Not many days ago I dropped into his shop and got introduced.

I was a prospective customer. We need a couple of good saddles at the Harding College stable and had shopped close to home with no success. To my astonishment the Casper saddle was no better able to supply our needs than those in Memphis or Little Rock. He was able however, to give me some facts I had not learned before from any of the saddle stores visited earlier.

Saddle Trees Scarce.
A good saddle is built on a wooden frame called a tree, much as a shoe is built on a wooden last, except that the tree is built into the saddle and becomes a permanent part of it. Saddle trees are made by men of a highly specialized craft. Trees have to be shaped right, no bulkier and no heavier than strength and design require. Men able to do such things with wood are by no means common.

During the war Uncle Sam needed skillful saddle-tree men in the construction of gliders. "The government employed most of them at about $160 a week," the saddler declared. "Good saddles, not being made any more, might have skyrocketed in price but the Office of Price Administration fixed a ceiling to stop it. Stocks of new saddles soon were bought up by users at ceiling prices."

But the War is Over.
Now the glider business is slack. Wonders have been done with gliders and they are not being forgotten, but fewer are being built. Unemployed saddle-tree men would like to start building saddle trees again — there's quite a demand. Living costs have built up, however, and they think they ought to have $120 a week. That's $6,000 a year and 25 per cent under their defense-plant scale of pay.

Saddle manufacturers, like the one in Casper, want trees because — no trees, no saddles. They are willing to pay tree builders $120 a week and wouldn't kick a bit if saddles might be sold at prices they would easily bring. I guess there are thousands of customers besides me who are ready to pay more for a saddle than it would have cost in the months immediately before the war.

Ceiling Lingers On.
"If today I engaged a good tree builder," said the Wyoming saddler, "paid him $120 a week in return for his best services and most competent work, and then sold the total product at ceiling prices, it would pay about three-fourths of the wages of the man who made the tree." Obviously it is out of balance. Craftsmen, manufacturers, dealers and users are all waiting for ceiling to lift.

The saddle business is not large when you contrast it to automobiles and railroads, but it is no isolated case. Many small business men are smothering for sales that are tied up by O. P. A. Small plants, employing less than 1,000 men, provide jobs for 78 per cent of industrial workers. Carried too far, this price policy can bring panic and poverty. Liquidating some war-year bureaus would help balance the national budget and help clear the way for new and much needed production.

WASHINGTON, April 17. (AP)—House members today filed a petition which will require the House to consider next month a bill to give terminal leave pay to enlisted men.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, April 17.—The House, turning a deaf ear to charges that it would add eight per cent to the cost of living, today voted tentatively to terminate the $2,000,000,000 food subsidy program Dec. 31.

The action was taken by standing vote of 153-89 as the House moved toward a final vote on extending price control in a toned-down style.

The House previously had given tentative approval to these amendments—

1. By vote of 171-144 to extend the price control act only to March 31, 1947, instead of June 30, 1948, as asked by the administration and recommended by its banking committee, and by voice vote to extend the companion stabilization act to the same date.

By vote of 209-112 to provide producers, processors, distributors and retailers, cost-plus-reasonable-profit on all items they handle.

President Asks U. S. to Eat Less and Save Lives

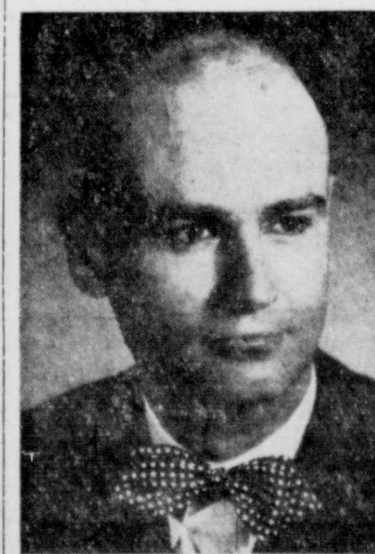

WASHINGTON, April 17. (AP)—The White House said today that President Truman feels the American people are not doing enough to help hungry millions abroad and that he will appeal directly to them in a worldwide broadcast Friday night.

The announcement came a few hours after Mr. Truman, at a press conference, asked Americans to save lives by eating less — and while the agricultural department worked on orders to cut the weight of bread loaves and curtail domestic flour consumption.

Cisco Band Entertained Olden and Ranger Schools

The Cisco Lobo band, directed by Fred D. Baumgardner, went to Ranger Tuesday morning and presented a program for Ranger high school at 9 o'clock. Returning, the band stopped at Olden high school and played for the students of that school.

This is one of a number of trips to surrounding schools which the Cisco band is making this year, as a means of inter-school neighborhoodness and for experience in playing.

NEW WALKOUT THREAT.
WASHINGTON, April 17. (AP)—A declaration of CIO packinghouse workers today threatened a new walkout unless the government takes action to end what they called a "sit-down strike of meat packers."

Poles Say Spain Has Largest Army In Its History

NEW YORK, April 17. (AP)—Poland warned the United Nations Security Council today that Spain may be the "jumping off place" of the next war and charged that a German atomic energy specialist was director of an atomic research plant in Spain. Polish Ambassador Oscar Lange, appealing to the Council for world action to liquidate the Franco dictatorship, ominously recalled also that it has been known for years that German scientists have been working on "all types of warfare" and that atomic energy was only one — "maybe not the most terrible one."

It was also claimed that Spain has the largest army ever and is spending more on armaments this year than at any time in history.

Former Cisco Woman Dies at Deming, New Mexico

Mrs. Virginia Watts, 76, a former resident of Cisco, but who had made her home at Kermit, Tex., the past five years, died suddenly on April 8 at the home of her daughter, Miss Nettie Jernigan, in Deming, N. M.

Funeral services were held April 10 in the First Baptist church at Kermit, Rev. Strauss Atkinson being the officiating minister, and the body was shipped to Cisco for burial in the cemetery at Long Branch, Eastland county.

Deceased was the mother of Marion Watts of Cisco and is survived by seven of her eleven children, all of whom were reared near Rising Star. They are Frank Watts, Abilene; Hubert Watts, Pecos; Foster Watts, Kermit; Marion Watts, Cisco; John Watts, Brady; Nettie Jernigan, Deming, N. M.; Mrs. Georgia Bearden, Kermit. Other survivors include 24 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren and three sisters — Mrs. George Harris, Blake; Becca Sanders and Stella Robertson, Colorado, Texas.

Energetic Lions Supporting Many Sound Projects

Today's Lion program was furnished by Lion Harvey Thurman, who presented Lions Ray Judia and Travis Farmer and Harry Schaefer and Ernest Hittson in musical numbers. The meeting was held in the roof garden of Laguna hotel.

At the business session it was reported that improvements are well under way at Lake Cisco park and will be ready for the summer crowds. The club is sponsoring part of the work. Lion Carlos Turner announced that the tennis courts at Cisco Junior college are rounding into shape rapidly. This also is a Lions project.

Lion C. E. Paul exhibited a sign suitable for highway use in advertising the Cisco Home-coming event set for this fall, which will be sponsored by Cisco Lions.

HEARING MAY 8.
AUSTIN, April 17. — The Supreme Court granted N. J. Walker's motion for permission to file mandamus proceedings to force payment of the solo Senate session's printing bill. The case, a test of the session's validity, is set for hearing May 8. Counsel for Walker includes Senator Weaver Moore of Houston, sparkplug of the special session.

KING GEORGE IN 'CIVVIES'—The war over, King George of England has hung up his uniforms like other soldiers and returned to "civvies." Here, wearing a check suit, tweed overcoat and derby, he congratulates a player at a rugby match.

Make Parents Responsible For Children's Acts

AUSTIN, April 17. — New legislation and revision of some existing laws are cited by Chief Justice James P. Alexander of the supreme court as essential to a solution of the juvenile delinquency problem.

Addressing the state children's committee of the Texas Social Welfare association, the justice asserted:

"Perhaps the greatest need just now in the juvenile delinquency field is a domestic relations court. We should have such a court in every county in this state which has a population in excess of 100,000."

Such a court should comprise not only a judge but also enforcement agencies, probation officers and various welfare agencies.

Two laws should be enacted to obtain full-cooperation from the parents, he said.

One he proposed would make them liable for property damage and personal injuries negligently or willfully caused by children.

The other would make those who refuse to co-operate with probation officers in handling their delinquent children subject to punishment.

Submerged Land Be Offered for Mineral Lease

AUSTIN, April 17. — Approximately 15,000 acres of submerged land on the Texas coast will be offered for mineral lease June 4, says Bascom Giles, land commissioner.

Several thousand acres of the area were closed to leasing during the war, the government having reserved acreage for a bombing range.

Some 12,500 acres will be offered in Matagorda Bay, Matagorda county. The majority of the remaining 2,500 acres are located in the submerged area in Kleberg county. A tract in the Brazos river bed in Milam and Robertson counties will also be offered.

The permanent school fund of the state was enriched $901,000 in bonus money at the last mineral lease sale two months ago.

The board for lease of prison lands also issued a call for mineral lease sale on 1,500 acres on land in the Harlem state prison farm in Fort Bend county. The sale is also scheduled for June 4.

9 4-H Club Boys to Be Given Poland China Pigs

The nine Eastland county 4-H club boys who will receive free registered Poland China pigs in the Cow-Sow-Hen program at Eastland, Saturday, May 11, have been selected, says J. M. Cooper, county agricultural agent.

The boys are widely scattered this year, Cooper said, in naming the winners, who are:

Buddy Craven, Eastland. Dale Langlitz, Morton Valley. Harlan Logan and James Ed Buckley, Deademona.

Frank Gray and Weldon Hill, Rising Star. Billy Pancake, Pioneer. Mark Ray, Scranton. Bobby Cleveland, Cisco.

Eight of the boys will get gilt pigs and one will get a boar pig. The gilt pigs come from the club boys who got gilts last May. The boar is to be purchased.

It is planned to exhibit the pigs at the West Texas Fair in Abilene in September. Winners will get either a Jersey heifer, baby chicks or poultry.

Under the plan, the boys will give back to the agricultural agent the best gilt pig out of their first litter next spring, for a new group of boys.

The invocation will be by Rev. C. A. Warden, pastor of Twelfth-st. Methodist church.

Reader, Mrs. James Moore; soloists, Miss Ella Andres, Mrs. J. E. Walter, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, Fred Baumgardner and Ernest Hittson.

Strikes in Public Service Industries Wrong

PRINCETON, N. J., April 17.—The American public would give overwhelming support to a law designed to forbid all strikes in public service industries such as electric, gas, telephone, and local transportation companies.

In at least one state, New Jersey, legislators have already passed a law to control strikes in utilities. In fact, the law was recently put into use by Gov. Walter E. Edge, when he seized struck gas and coke plants of the Public Service Electric & Gas company and kept them running until agreement was reached.

A majority of union members included in the questioning are found opposed to strike-forbidding legislation for utilities. Four in every ten favor the legislation, however, the Gallup poll revealed.

A majority of both Republicans and Democrats favor such legislation, although the approving majority is much larger among Republicans than Democrats.

JUST LIKE BROOKLYN—Mexican baseball fans turn out to be Latin American versions of Brooklyn, N.Y., baseball fanatics. During a big moment in a game at Mexico City, fans cheer wildly, while a candy butcher goes about his business. In roof shields more fortunate customers.

RECOVERED LOOT—Mrs. Mary E. Gallagher, Jacksonville, Fla., holds a package containing $153,150 which was dug up from the yard of J. D. Marshall, former postal worker. Marshall confessed just before he died to burying the money in his yard. An Army mine detector located the loot.

HAMPERING THE CO-ED FACULTIES. VOTER.

A bit of political chicanery was defeated lately in the New York legislature. The lower house voted down a constitutional amendment barring anyone enrolled in one political party from accepting the nomination of another.

The momentary aim was to prevent Democratic candidates from getting extra votes on the American Labor and Liberal Party tickets. Some years ago, when the shoe was on the other foot, the Democrats tried to bar Republican candidates from getting votes on anti-Tammany, non-Republican tickets. Both parties sought to strengthen their machines at the expense of independent movements.

The proposed amendment did more than this. It forbade an enrolled Democrat or Republican from running on any other ticket, and thus would kill all effective third party movements forever. All over the country politicians have been making it hard for new parties to get on the ballot, but nowhere so badly as in this unsuccessful attempt in New York.

Political independence on the voter's part should not be prohibited, but encouraged. Blind following of party lines leads to stagnation and danger. The citizen should be able to use freely his own, unfettered judgment.

CO-ED FACULTIES.

College traditions are getting all mixed up. Princeton, which held severely to its policy of an all-man faculty, has just established a new precedent by adding three women to the staff of its modern language department, Vassar, which has had men presidents since its founding in 1861, has just welcomed Sarah Blanding as its first woman president. At the same time it broke its precedent of being a woman's college by admitting men to classes to ease the demand for education by veterans.

Apparently leading educators are coming around to the idea that the important thing is what a faculty member has to offer the students, rather than whether the teacher happens to be man or woman.

OPEN FORUM.

Agrees With Waters.
Editor Daily Press:
I agree 100 percent with D. E. Waters in his advocacy of a full slate of veteran candidates for county offices, as expressed in the Daily Press of April 14.

And what an injustice when a government says to a boy: "Son, you're plenty old at 18 to get out there on the battlefield and fight a brutal, ruthless enemy; but you're just too young to know how to cast an intelligent vote"

Let's all say: "Thanks to the Yanks who gave" with a vote for them on election day.
C. L. ALLEN,
Route Three, Cisco.

Sharing a party-line telephone!

If you're sharing a telephone party line, you're helping someone else here have telephone service now. Otherwise he'd likely be waiting his turn for service.

Party-line service is one way of stretching the telephone system here—to serve as many people as possible now instead of asking some to wait until we've had time to put in the wires and cables and switching equipment needed to serve everybody who is waiting.

It's a big job—catching up with four years of backed-up demand. But we're hard at it. As soon as possible, we'll bring service to everybody who is waiting for it. And, after that, we expect to be able to furnish one-family telephone service to those who want it.

'GOOD NEIGHBOR' SUGGESTIONS for party-liners

Before calling, please listen to see whether the line is in use. If it is, hang up gently and try your call again a little later.

When talking, remember your party-line neighbor—he may want to make a call—so please be reasonably brief.

Between calls, try to allow a little time so the other people on the line may have the opportunity to use it.

Ask the children to follow these good neighbor suggestions, too.
Thanks a lot.

"Okay, just so the engine's OIL-PLATED!"

"This one is . . . and you're 101% right," the car salesman agrees. He goes on to explain, "We want this car to show you real engine endurance—which means the least carbon, sludge, and upkeep you can have. That's goodwill for us. And all it takes to keep your engine's insides OIL-PLATED is Conoco Nth motor oil. . . . Say, this time you're figuring to treat your new car right!" . . .

Many of the oldest cars, too, are being kept in the running by having their engines OIL-PLATED. This internal wear-fighter—OIL-PLATING—is created by magnet-like action. That comes from Conoco Nth oil's added ingredient—surfacing your engine's insides with durable OIL-PLATING. There's your barrier against lots of wear. You can have it in any car—any model or year—by driving around to Your Conoco Mileage Merchant's station. You'll get your correct Spring grade of Conoco Nth oil—and an OIL-PLATED engine. Now...no wheat used in beer or ale

And wheat alone can solve the problem of feeding the world's hungry

Actually wheat has never been a large item in the brewing process—only $\frac{8}{10,000}$ of the entire U. S. wheat crop was used in 1945.

In accordance with United States Government policy, the brewing industry has used no wheat whatever since March 1, 1946.

OTHER MATERIALS CUT 30%
 The other grains used have been reduced by 30%—that is, to 70% of the 1945 amount.

Wheat alone can solve the problem of feeding the hungry. The grains to which the industry is now restricted, are of a variety and grade not normally consumed by the people of the world as food.

LESS BEER AND ALE
 Altogether, the brewing industry is using 30% less materials than in 1945. This results in a proportionately lower production. But since the current demand for beer and ale is about 25% greater than a year ago, the real shortage is nearer 50%.

Consequently, your dealer will not be able to supply you with all the beer and ale you would like. We know you will understand the reason for this.

Your attention is earnestly directed to the recommendations of President Truman's Famine Emergency Committee, which are summarized in the box below.

This statement tells in clear, simple terms what each of us individually can do to help during the emergency.

What the President's Famine Emergency Committee asks us all to do

1. Save and share wheat and fat products . . . Go light on all foods that take wheat, fats and oils—save breads, macaroni, cakes, cookies, pastries and deep-fried foods. Use drippings for pan-frying. Save salad oil—use boiled dressings.
2. Buy and serve more plentiful foods . . . Balance diets with the more plentiful foods, such as potatoes, fresh fruits and vegetables.
3. Waste NO food . . . Dress up today's leftovers for tomorrow. Make every crust count with melba toast, crumb-toppings, bread puddings and stuffings. Take no more than you can eat. Clean your plate. Turn in unusable fat salvage promptly.
