Lifting Some OPA Commodity Prices Would Not Hurt

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 2. (AP)—OPA Administrator Paul A. Porter today predicted the lifting of ceilings from many commodities, without "significant" price increases, by the latter part of this year.

Speaking before the U. S. chamber of commerce, Porter denied that price control was holding down the general level of production.

25 Valuable Race Horses Burned to Death, Arlington

CHICAGO, May 2. — Twenty-five valuable race horses owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Graham, cosmetics manufacturer, were burned to death early today in a fire at the Arlington Park Race Track.

The fire started in a stable, a low, wood structure at the northwest corner of the park across from the grandstand. It was discovered by William Bayton, a groom.

Fire Chief Richard Jahn of Arlington Heights said a groom told him the horses were worth a total of about $500,000.

Abilene PO. Sub-station Rifled; All Authority Suspect Arrested

ABILENE, May 2. — Postoffice sub-station in the Smith-Crain drug store, 8th and Hickory, was burglarized of an estimated $1,000 to $1,100 in money and an undetermined amount in stamps between 11 p. m. last night and 5 a. m. today.

Nick J. Crain, store proprietor who operates the station under contract, estimated that the burglar took about $300 from the stamp drawer, $300 from the postal notes drawer and $400 from the money order drawer. No accurate check had been made, however, on the total loss. Crain was unable to tell early today whether any store merchandise had been stolen.

Included in the money order was a registered letter containing $378 in postal funds which had been prepared for mailing by the sub-station to the main postoffice downtown, Crain said.

Due to the quick work of Patrolmen Al Shelton and W. C. Herring and Sgt. J. C. Welch of the Abilene police department, a man believed to be implicated in the crime was taken off a bus a mile outside Lampasas at 7:40 a. m., two and a half hours after the burglary was discovered.

Sheriff Fred Mason at Lampasas said the suspect had $540 in bills and a large quantity of change in his socks, billfolds and pockets; carried in a new handbag 40 to 50 books of postage stamps, some towels from an Abilene hotel, a quantity of cotton rope with a grab hook on one end and a bottle of nembul capsules.

Police Chief Virgil Waldrop sent Detective George Bosley to accompany Postoffice Inspector G. W. Morrow this morning to Lampasas to return the suspect here.

Vets Realize Difficulty of Buying Auto in U. S. A.

PARIS, Texas, May 2. — Eighty-one automobile units were apportioned among 363 registered veterans at a sale of surplus vehicles at Camp Maxey yesterday.

A. H. Burton, Brookston, in charge of the lot where the vehicles were parked for inspection, estimated fully 800 men had come to buy.

Many of the veterans had attended similar sales previously but had not had their names drawn from the barrel into which all registration cards were dumped for drawing of sale priorities.

Two Dallas men, Frank F. Bell and John M. Clegg, were among the lucky veterans to obtain trucks. Clegg will use his in a soft-drink bottling business and Bell on his citrus orchard at Raymondville.

"It's all luck," declared Clegg, who had attended three previous sales. "Mine was the thirty-first name out of the barrel, but I didn't get a smell at the other sales I attended. I've been trying since November, 1945."

Among the unlucky was Mrs. M. V. Corley of Lone Oak. She has attended four sales, and when selected to draw names from the barrel, couldn't draw her own. She wants a pick-up for farming.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Meat packing and livestock feeder representatives contradicted each other today on the prospect that this summer will bring the "worst meat shortage of any time in American history."

But they agreed in testimony before the Senate Banking Committee that the government should abolish price controls on meat. The committee is considering price control extension legislation.

Wilbur Laro, Jr., of the National Independent Meat Packers association, charged that the black market has become "so open and notorious that the agriculture department 'is quoting black market prices to farmers' in its daily radio market broadcast, and that newspapers also are quoting black market meat prices.

Joe G. Montague of Fort Worth, Tex., attorney for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, told the committee that "price control should not be continued and subsidies should not be extended."

Byrd Says Union Responsibility Now Intolerable

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 2. (AP)—Lashing out at John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers chief, Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia today told the U. S. chamber of commerce that union responsibility has reached "an intolerable stage."

Byrnes Makes Another Proposal to the Big Four

PARIS, May 2. (AP)—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes tonight proposed to the Big Four ministers that the Italian armistice terms and those of the Axis satellites be revised to "remove all obstacles to the restoration of those countries."

Revision of the armistice terms would be an interim measure designed to speed the recovery of the countries while the terms of the final peace treaties are being determined.

Cooler Weather Is Predicted During Night

FT. WORTH, May 2.—Some of those winter suits and fur coats may come out of the mothballs tonight, the weather man warned this morning.

The U. S. weather bureau said a cool front slipped into the Texas Panhandle Wednesday night and tonight a cold front is expected.

This morning the thermometer was down to 38 degrees in Pampa. At Amarillo it was 39 degrees. The forecast is "not so warm" although temperatures are not expected to go much lower.

Weathermen said the cold front is coming down from the northwest states. Cheyenne, Wyo., reported a 32 degrees this morning with heavy snow on the ground and heavy snow falling.

Agreement With Britain to Cut Tariffs by Half

WASHINGTON, May 2. (AP)—Sen. Hugh Butler, R., Neb., predicted today that the state department soon will announce plans for a trade agreement with Britain, slashing U. S. tariffs by 50 per cent.

Plans for such an agreement are being worked out in Britain, Butler told the senate. He added that the state department apparently is keeping the plan secret until passage of the $3,750,000,000 British loan.

U.S. Billion and Half in the Red Month of April

WASHINGTON, May 2. (AP)—After three months of operating in the black, the federal government went into the red in April to the tune of about $1,500,000,000, the treasury announced today.

Standard Oil Unit Meekly Submits to Absentee Control

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2. (AP)—Harold L. Ickes, former secretary of the interior, charged today at a stockholders' meeting of Standard Oil Company of California, that the company was "meekly submitting to absentee control" and protested what he termed unjust treatment to Vice President Ralph K. Davies.

Ft. Worth Dynamiting Be Studied by Rangers

FT. WORTH, May 2. — Texas Rangers will be sent here immediately to aid the sheriff's office in investigation of explosions, presumably by dynamite, that have caused damage in the strike picture at Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corporation.

Early today an explosive charge placed at the base of a pole blasted out of service 19 of the 21 telephone circuits serving the plant.

It was the second consecutive day that explosives and resultant damage have played a leading role in the strike picture.

NO AMATEUR DANCER NOW—Beverly Cort, 16-year-old Detroit, Mich., school girl whose costume for a Salome dance at a school follies brought the censure of her teachers, arrives in New York City to start a professional dancing career at Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe where near nudity is no sensation.

YMCA Needs Manager Who Can Use a Baseball Bat

DALLAS, May 2. — Five youths were arrested after wrecking furniture in the Oak Cliff YMCA recreation room, Tenth and Beckley.

The five are former members expelled from the organization, Calvin C. Murray of the YMCA told Policemen E. W. England and F. S. Ross. Murray said he asked the boys to leave, as he had done on previous occasions since their expulsion.

The youths began wrecking the recreation room, breaking chairs and pouring soft drinks into a piano.

Four of the group, three of them 15 and one 14, were turned over to Crime Prevention Officer J. C. Peterson, who put them in the county jail juvenile ward. The fifth, 17, was placed in the city jail.

Texas Offers Reward for Killers of 4, Texarkana

AUSTIN, May 2. — Rewards of $500 have been posted by Gov. Coke Stevenson for the apprehension of the murderers of two young Texarkana couples in March and April.

He offered $250 reward for the arrest and conviction, or information leading to the arrest and conviction.

Commercial vegetable prospects were reported good. Late onions in the coastal bend and late tomato plantings in the Lower Rio Grande Valley were improved by rain.

Except in Northwest Texas, range conditions were good and livestock generally in satisfactory condition.

victim, of the murderer in each case.

The bodies of Richard L. Griffin and Polly Ann Moore were found near Texarkana on March 25, and those of Betty Jo Booker and Paul Martin in Spring Lake Park on April 14.

The governor's proclamation recited that local law enforcement agencies and Texas Rangers have exerted every effort toward a solution, and he also understood FBI agents had been working in the area.

Texas Crop and Range Land Conditions Are Good

AUSTIN, May 2. — Rainfall, ranging up to nearly four inches at Paris, fell over most of Texas during the week ended April 29, says the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Crops and range lands were generally in good condition, except in the Panhandle where showers fell and rains are needed. Many eastern counties had excessive rainfall. Some replanting of corn was necessary. Cotton is up in South Texas and planting advancing northward.

James Lee Miller Age 11 of Romney Be Buried Friday

James Lee Miller, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Miller of Romney, died in a Cisco hospital late yesterday afternoon. The lad died from respiratory paralysis following a blood-stream infection, due to an unusually virulent case of acute appendicitis.

The appendix had been removed about four hours earlier, but the operation, it was stated, had nothing to do with the little fellow's death.

Funeral and burial services will be held Friday. At 2:30 p. m. a service will be conducted at the home in Romney. Then, at 3 o'clock, a service will be held at Grace Lutheran church in Cisco. From the church the remains will be taken to the Romney cemetery for burial. Rev. G. T. Naumann will officiate.

The boy, a pupil of Rev. Mr. Naumann at Grace Lutheran church, is survived by his parents, two sisters and a brother, all of whom live at Romney.

4 Lions Get Honor Pins for Ten Years' Service

Guests at Wednesday's meeting of the Lions club were Maj. Coleman Williams, Joe Ed Harris, Joe Coulter, Don LaCoste and R. G. Turner; the latter from Graham, says Dr. C. M. Earnes, publicity chairman.

Lion Carlos J. Turner, chairman of the carnival committee, discussed the Lion-sponsored coming event and all committees reported they would be ready for the large crowd expected Saturday afternoon and night of this week. The carnival will be held on Seventh street, between D and E. avenues.

Lion E. L. Jackson presented ten-year membership pins to Lions Charles J. Kleiner, Charles Sandler, T. C. Williams and J. T. Egen. To qualify for this honor Lions must serve for ten consecutive years.

Under plans now outlined, the ready reserve will have a maximum strength of 10,575 officers and 136,000 men. No limit will be placed on the size of the standby reserve.

Men discharged from the naval service as USNR or USN-I, may enlist in the new reserve in the rating in which discharged, and thus keep in contact with shipmates and the navy.

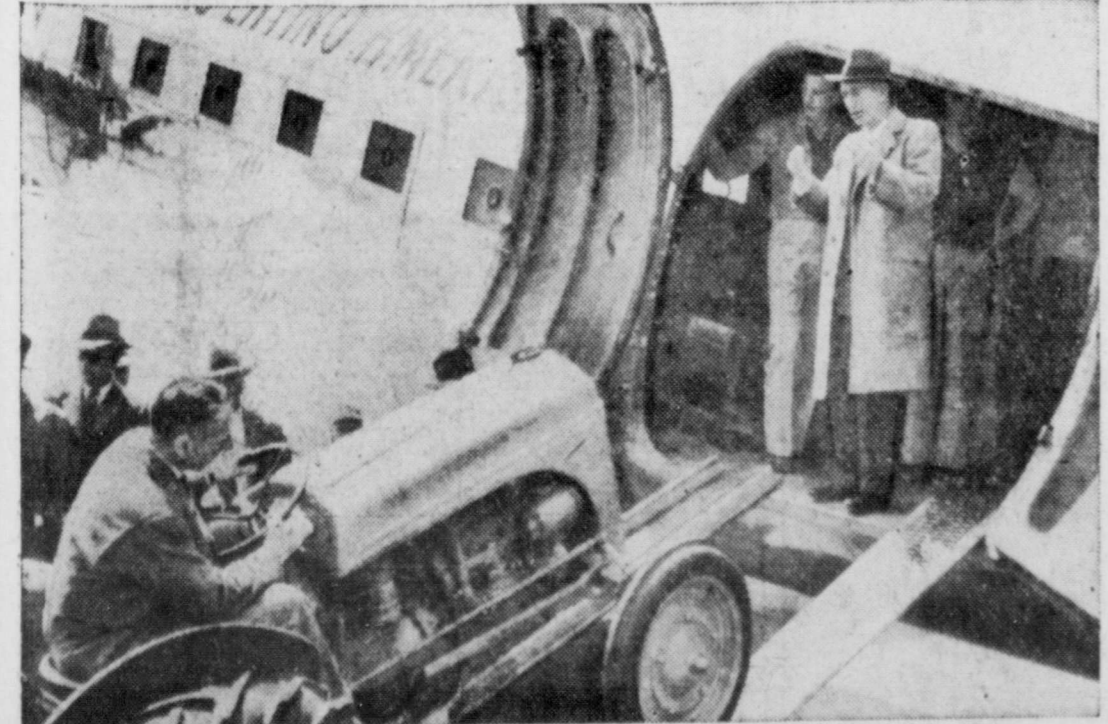

Two Dallas men, Frank F. Bell and John M. Clegg, were among the lucky veterans to obtain trucks. Clegg will use his in a soft-drink bottling business and Bell on his citrus orchard at Raymondville.

"It's all luck," declared Clegg, who had attended three previous sales. "Mine was the thirty-first name out of the barrel, but I didn't get a smell at the other sales I attended. I've been trying since November, 1945."

PETTINESS.

Apparently there is no rational explanation of the way a lot of people look at things. Take the disunity and misunderstanding, for instance, in this country today. A Cleveland newspaper man, Philip W. Porter, returned home after three years in Europe, finds himself wondering whether he is crazy, or everybody else is. He spent the first few weeks marveling at the luxury and comfort in this country, the food, clothing and general high standard of living. But then he began to notice the settleness of the things people complain and quarrel about, and the change from war-time unity to "almost universal selfishness."

The trials and hardships abroad brought out the best of people, he says, but the irritations of peace seem to bring out the worst. He finds grave international problems and the sufferings of other nations ignored here. Instead of pitying the foreign sufferers with their cold and hunger, their privations and perils, here we are griping over the difficulty of getting nylons and white shirts.

There are, indeed serious dislocations in housing and other respects; but everything is so much better here than abroad that the great majority of people might well thank God for their blessings.

THE SCIENTISTS.

BREAK out the old impossibilities; Eliminate one more and underwrite.

The hope of all the rest. I tell you, these Are dead horizons that we mourn tonight.

These pioneers who bounce their bolts of sound Against the moon and catch their quick returns.

These men who split the atoms, men who found The cure for war — among these there will burn.

The rocket — vision, bursting through the void. We fumble with our fates, confuse our days

With politics and talk, while they, employed With none but science, swing their restless gaze

Among the planets, seeking landing place. And there, perhaps, a less inhuman race.

—Harold Applebaum in New York Herald Tribune.

Plane Talk

There still exists a number of misconceptions concerning the process of learning to fly. Many of the requirements and much of the red tape has been done away with so that it is much easier than ever before.

In the first place, anyone, regardless of age or physical condition, can take flight instruction but cannot solo. Before making the first solo flight a person must be more than 16 years old and must have a student certificate. In order to get this certificate the applicant must have a physical examination by any registered physician. The cost of this examination depends upon the doctor. There is no charge for the issuance of the student certificate.

After the student has made his first solo flight he must accumulate at least 10 hours of solo practice flying in the vicinity of the airport before flying cross-country. He is then able to fly alone, either locally or on cross-country, but cannot carry passengers until he gets his private license.

For a private license the applicant must have a minimum of 10 hours dual instruction and 30 hours solo practice. A flight test and a short test on flying regulations are necessary to secure the license. The holder of a private license can fly anywhere in the United States and may carry passengers, but may not carry passengers for hire. The physical examination required for the student certificate is good for the private certificate and need not be renewed for two years. The physical requirements are not so high as one might expect. They require reasonable eyesight and nervous stability. They are principally concerned with any condition which may result in sudden disability while in flight.

This Summer to See Worst Meat Shortage in History?

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Meat packing and livestock feeder representatives contradicted each other today on the prospect that this summer will bring the "worst meat shortage of any time in American history."

But they agreed in testimony before the Senate Banking Committee that the government should abolish price controls on meat. The committee is considering price control extension legislation.

Wilbur Laroe, Jr., of the National Independent Meat Packers association, charged that the black market has become "so open and notorious that the agriculture department is quoting black market prices to farmers" in its daily radio market broadcast, and that newspapers also are quoting black market meat prices.

Joe G. Montague of Fort Worth, Tex., attorney for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, told the committee that "price control should not be continued and subsidies should not be extended."

Agreement With Britain to Cut Tariffs by Half

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—Sen. Hugh Butler, R., Neb., predicted today that the state department soon will announce plans for a trade agreement with Britain, slashing U. S. tariffs by 50 per cent.

Plans for such an agreement are being worked out in Britain, Butler told the senate. He added that the state department apparently is keeping the plan secret until passage of the $3,750,000,000 British loan.

US. Billion and Half in the Red Month of April

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—After three months of operating in the black, the federal government went into the red in April to the tune of about $1,500,000,000, the treasury announced today.

Ft. Worth Dynamiting Be Studied by Rangers

FT. WORTH, May 2.—Texas Rangers will be sent here immediately to aid the sheriff's office in investigation of explosions, presumably by dynamite, that have caused damage in the strike picture at Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corporation.

Early today an explosive charge placed at the base of a pole blasted out of service 19 of the 21 telephone circuits serving the plant.

It was the second consecutive day that explosives and resultant damage have played a leading role in the strike picture.

Lifting Some OPA Commodity Prices Would Not Hurt

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 2 (AP)—OPA Administrator Paul A. Porter today predicted the lifting of ceilings from many commodities, without "significant" price increases, by the latter part of this year.

Speaking before the U. S. chamber of commerce, Porter denied that price control was holding down the general level of production.

Naval Recruiting Officer at Cisco PO. Wednesdays

M. N. Fulgham from the naval recruiting station at Abilene will be at the Cisco postoffice each Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock to furnish information to all interested persons.

Fulgham stated that word has just been received from the navy department that more than a million men are needed for the naval reserve (inactive).

The new naval reserve will consist of a ready reserve to be maintained in a high state of training and available for immediate mobilization; as well as a standby reserve to receive such training as can be accomplished on a voluntary basis.

The ready reserve and standby, both of which will include air, surface and specialist components, will constitute one unit in the overall U. S. naval reserve forces.

Under plans now outlined, the ready reserve will have a maximum strength of 10,575 officers and 136,000 men. No limit will be placed on the size of the standby reserve.

Men discharged from the naval service as USNR or USN-I, may enlist in the new reserve in the rating in which discharged, and thus keep in contact with shipmates and the navy.

Abilene PO. Substation Rifled; Suspect Arrested

ABILENE, May 2.—Postoffice sub-station in the Smith-Crain drug store, 8th and Hickory, was burglarized of an estimated $1,000 to $1,100 in money and an undetermined amount in stamps between 11 p. m. last night and 5 a. m. today.

Nick J. Crain, store proprietor who operates the station under contract, estimated that the burglar took about $300 from the stamp drawer, $300 from the postal notes drawer and $400 from the money order drawer. No accurate check had been made, however, on the total loss. Crain was unable to tell early today whether any store merchandise had been stolen.

Included in the money order was a registered letter containing $378 in postal funds which had been prepared for mailing by the sub-station to the main postoffice downtown. Crain said.

Due to the quick work of Patrolmen Al Shelton and W. C. Herling and Sgt. J. C. Welch of the Abilene police department, a man believed to be implicated in the crime was taken off a bus a mile outside Lampasas at 7:40 a. m., two and a half hours after the burglary was discovered.

Sheriff Fred Mason at Lampasas said the suspect had $540 in bills and a large quantity of change in his sock, billfolds and pockets, and carried in a new handbag 40 to 50 books of postage stamps, some towels from an Abilene hotel, a quantity of cotton rope with a grab hook on one end and a bottle of nembul capsules.

Police Chief Virgil Waldrop sent Detective George Bosley to accompany Postoffice Inspector G. W. Morrow this morning to Lampasas to return the suspect here.

Vets Realize Difficulty of Buying Auto in U. S. A.

PARIS, Texas, May 2.—Eighty-one automobile units were apportioned among 363 registered veterans at a sale of surplus vehicles at Camp Maxey yesterday.

A. H. Burton, Brookston, in charge of the lot where the vehicles were parked for inspection, estimated fully 800 men had come to buy.

Many of the veterans had attended similar sales previously but had not had their names drawn from the barrel into which all registration cards were dumped for drawing of sale priorities.

Two Dallas men, Frank F. Bell and John M. Clegg, were among the lucky veterans to obtain trucks. Clegg will use his in a soft-drink bottling business and Bell on his citrus orchard at Raymondville.

"It's all luck," declared Clegg, who had attended three previous sales. "Mine was the thirty-first name out of the barrel, but I didn't get a smell at the other sales I attended. I've been trying since November, 1945."

Among the unlucky was Mrs. M. V. Corley of Lone Oak. She has attended four sales, and when selected to draw names from the barrel, couldn't draw her own. She wants a pick-up for farming.

This morning the thermometer was down to 38 degrees in Pampa. At Amarillo it was 39 degrees. The forecast is "not so warm" although temperatures are not expected to go much lower.

Weathermen said the cold front is coming down from the northwest states. Cheyenne, Wyo., reported a 32 degrees this morning with heavy snow on the ground and heavy snow falling.

DALLAS, May 2.—Five youths were arrested after wrecking furniture in the Oak Cliff YMCA recreation room, Tenth and Beckley.

The five are former members expelled from the organization, Calvin C. Murray of the YMCA told Policemen P. W. England and F. S. Ross. Murray said he asked the boys to leave, as he had done on previous occasions since their expulsion.

The youths began wrecking the recreation room, breaking chairs and pouring soft drinks into a piano.

Texas Crop and Range Land Conditions Are Good

AUSTIN, May 2.—Rainfall, ranging up to nearly four inches at Paris, fell over most of Texas during the week ended April 29, says the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Crops and range lands were generally in good condition, except in the Panhandle where showers fell and rains are needed. Many eastern counties had excessive rainfall. Some replanting of corn was necessary. Cotton is up in South Texas and planting advancing northward.

Commercial vegetable prospects were reported good. Late onions in the coastal bend and late tomato plantings in the Lower Rio Grande Valley were improved by rain.

Except in Northwest Texas, range conditions were good and livestock generally in satisfactory condition.

James Lee Miller Age 11 of Romney Be Buried Friday

James Lee Miller, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Miller of Romney, died in a Cisco hospital late yesterday afternoon. The lad died from respiratory paralysis following a blood-streaked infection, due to an unusually virulent case of acute appendicitis.

The appendix had been removed about four hours earlier, but the operation, it was stated, had nothing to do with the little fellow's death.

Funeral and burial services will be held Friday. At 2:30 p. m. a service will be conducted at the home in Romney. Then, at 3 o'clock, a service will be held at Grace Lutheran church in Cisco. From the church the remains will be taken to the Romney cemetery for burial. Rev. G. T. Naumann will officiate.

The boy, a pupil of Rev. Mr. Naumann at Grace Lutheran church, is survived by his parents, two sisters and a brother, all of whom live at Romney.

25 Valuable Race Horses Burned to Death, Arlington

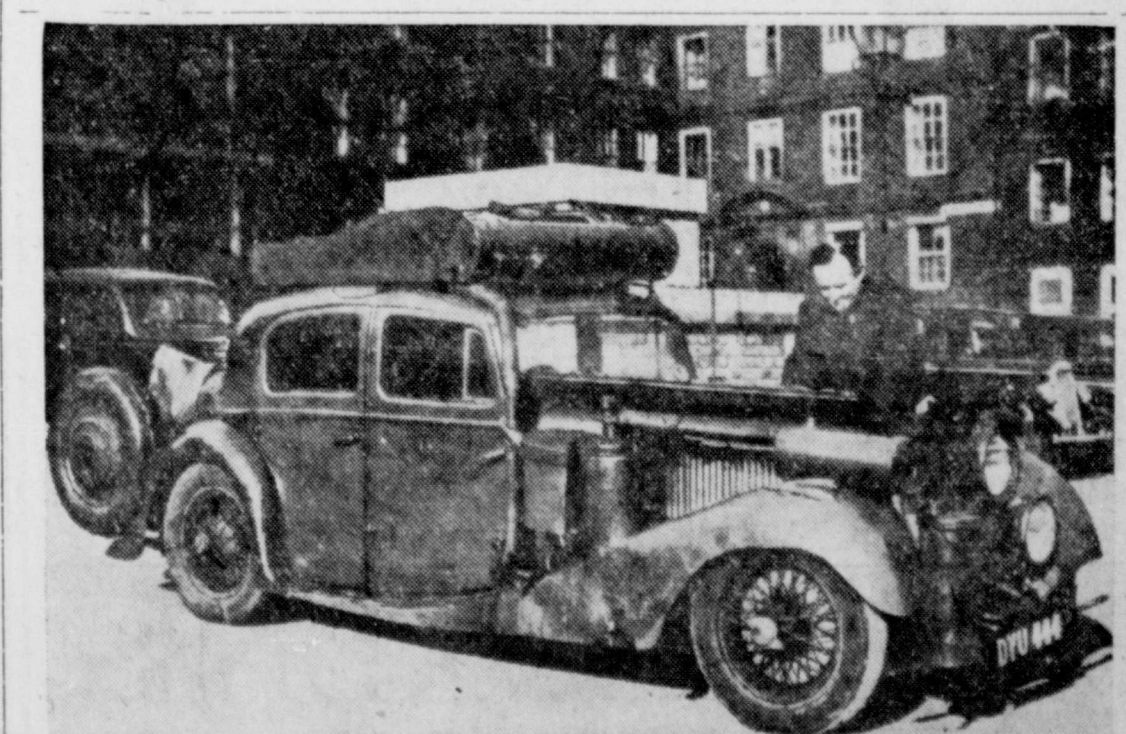

CHICAGO, May 2.—Twenty-five valuable race horses owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Graham, cosmetics manufacturer, were burned to death early today in a fire at the Arlington Park Race Track.

The fire started in a stable, a low, wood structure at the northwest corner of the park across from the grandstand. It was discovered by William Bayton, a groom.

Fire Chief Richard Jahn of Arlington Heights said a groom told him the horses were worth a total of about $500,000.
