

Weather Department: Not unusual for this time of year, just hot, and dry in spots. I will refrain from saying anything about how good the crops look, and whether there is any prospect for a bumper harvest. I mentioned here a few weeks before wheat harvest that wheat looked good and chances were that some money would be made on the crop. I had my hand called on that one right off by several farmers who declared that I didn't know anything about wheat. After all, I think I was about half right as there have been a few farmers that admitted that they made some wheat.

Actually I am not an expert on wheat. I grew up in a cotton, corn and Johnson Grass country. I know about those commodities when they are in the production stage. To this date I have never been wrong in my predictions on the outcome of a cotton or corn crop, and I can substantiate that statement with documented proof. The foregoing are my credentials for making the following announcement; and that is this will be one of the finest, if not the finest, cotton and corn crops ever produced in this area. Cotton and corn never looked better at this stage of the game. We are in for a bumper crop, and this prediction should square me with the farmers who didn't do so well on their wheat crop.

I haven't had anything to say about the purloined Pentagon secret documents. Actually everything we have heard or seen about the controversial material in this part of the country has been second hand, and probably distorted and colored to suit the media that happened to be making the report.

As best as can be determined here by the fragmentary reports of material contained in the documents or papers, there was little, if any, information that could be classified as military secrets or of a nature that would be helpful to our adversaries in any way whatever. Apparently the whole business had to do with an analysis made by various scholars of our role in Indochina preceding and during the first few years of the Vietnam war. This is information that the American public should have had all along, and it is regrettable that it had to be made available by the sacrifice of a man's career. I have never been offered the job, but had I been a member of the Supreme Court I would have voted with the majority in resolving the matter in favor of the newspapers, since they were in possession of material in question, and since capable and prudent men had made the judgement that the material in the documents was not of a nature that would endanger our men in the war zone.

There are two frightening aspects to the whole kettle of fish, so far as the controversial Pentagon papers are concerned. First it is very disquieting to find out, or even suspect, that government officials will hide monumental mistakes by classifying documents as secret material that might endanger the national safety. And second: It is not a comfortable feeling when you realize that an individual could possibly steal and make public documents that

HAZEL MERRITT BEGINS LIBRARY SITE FUND ... Board Chairman Jack Miller holds her check and letter

First gift made for library site

The county's Library Site Fund has officially been launched with a $100 check from Hazel Merritt.

MISS MERRITT, a longtime patron of the county library and former chairman of the library board, presented the check last Wednesday to Jack Miller, current board chairman.

In an accompanying letter to Miller, Miss Merritt said: "The Castro County News of Thursday, June 24, stated that one of the most pressing requirements regarding the Library Board's ability to meet the Aug. 9 deadline for the $48,168 matching funds from the Texas State Library is money with which to buy a site.

"I surely hope the citizens of Castro County are farsighted enough to help to raise this needed money. Please accept my check for $100 made to the Library Site Fund."

"IT IS appropriate that the Library Site Fund was started by Miss Merritt," Miller said, "because she has long been a dedicated worker in behalf of our library."

The library board is working with the city and county governments and the public to establish a separate, full-service library. The main base of support is a stock gift made last year by Mrs. Tylen Perry of Plainview, which has a current value of more than $100,000. Also, the library is next-up on the state's waiting list for a grant of $48,168.

Both of these lump sums are specified for building and furnishing the new library, with the proviso that the local public provide the site.

MILLER said options have been obtained on selected sites, and the site cost could range up to $25,000. The Texas State Library has set a deadline of Aug. 9 for local residents to contribute or pledge the site-purchasing funds. If the deadline isn't met, the $48,168 will be offered to the next public library on the long waiting list.

"We have a private gift of over $100,000, with the opportunity to get almost $50,000 more through the state," Miller said. "To take advantage of these two gifts, we have to purchase a site. We have until Aug. 9 to prove to the state that we're in a position to go ahead and make use of the gifts, then we can go ahead and build the library."

ANYONE wishing to contribute or pledge money to the Library Site Fund should contact Mrs. Mary Edna Hendrix, county librarian, or any library board member — Jack Miller, Hazel Merritt, Mrs. E. R. Little, Mrs. Ray Riley, Mrs. Paul Armstrong, Mrs. Murray Snyder, Mrs. Joe Carver or Mrs. David Acker.

Annual meeting Saturday

Mill owners to tour plant

The annual stockholders meeting of Dimmitt Agri Industries Inc., will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Dimmitt High School Cafeteria.

SATURDAY afternoon there will be guided tours at the new $10 million corn milling plant for interested members, families and guests. Both sections of the plant are running now—the starch section, which started up last December, and the syrup refinery, which started two weeks ago.

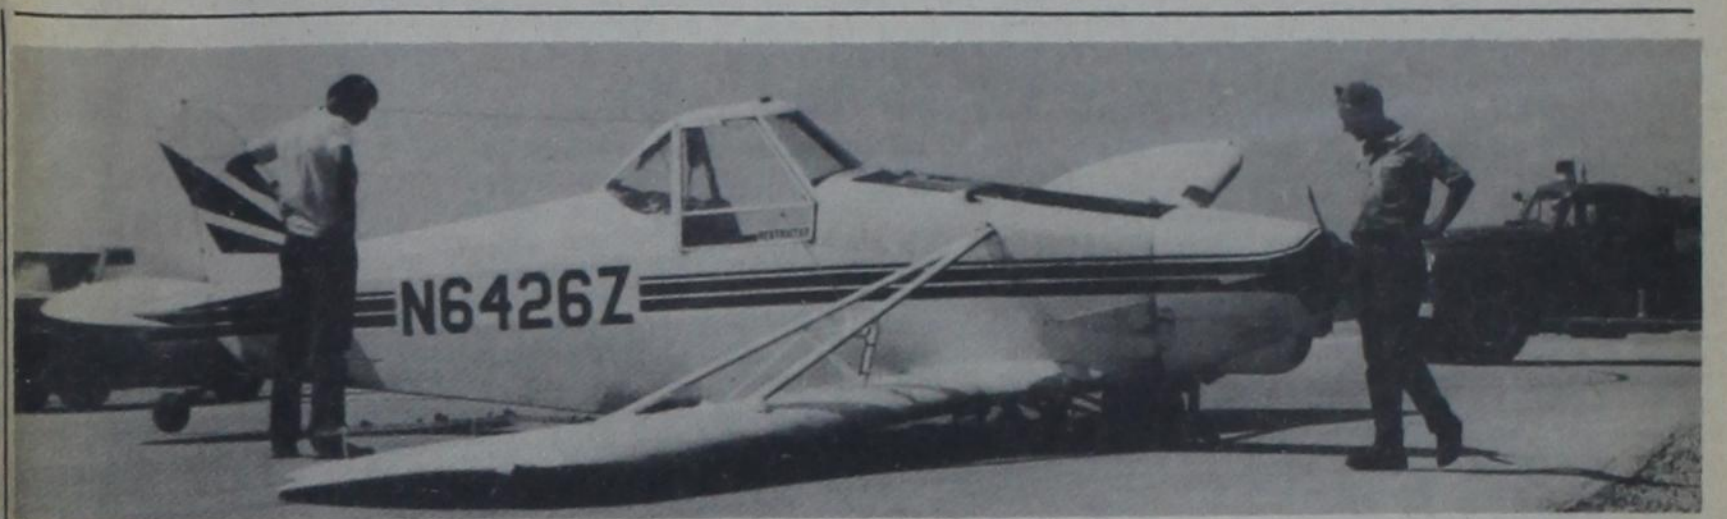

Jerome Brockman of Nazareth, president, will conduct the evening meeting. Management reports will be given by Bill Clark for the elevator, farm stores and fertilizer; Barry Love, wet milling division; and Ken Arnold, marketing.

The board has reviewed the by-laws and several changes will be considered. New laws, Internal Revenue Service rulings and word clarifications have led to the considered changes, DAI officials said.

A COMMITTEE to nominate directors for the coming year will be selected. However, no directors will be elected Saturday since the fiscal year of the corporation has been changed. Another stockholders meeting will be held after Aug. 31 to elect the new directors.

Public tours of the plant are now scheduled on Tuesday mornings and Thursday afternoons. Anyone wishing to tour the plant is asked to notify the Dimmitt Agri Industries operator in advance. Tours will leave from the main office.

Formal dedication of the plant will be held sometime this fall, after the plant area is paved and the construction materials are cleared away.

ONE-WHEEL LANDING — Volunteer firemen and other onlookers held their breath as this Piper Pawnee spray plane, piloted by Roland Brunson, approached the Dimmitt Airport runway with just one landing gear last Thursday afternoon. The other landing gear had been sheared off when it hit a standpipe on the Odus Hastings farm, and Brunson circled the airport in the Young Flying Service plane until firefighters arrived. But they weren't needed, as it turned out—Brunson jettisoned his chemicals before his final approach, shut off his engine and glided to a perfect one-wheel landing, holding the gearless right wing level until his ground speed was no longer enough to hold the wing up and it lobbed gently to the runway, causing only a quarter-skid. Here, Brunson (left) and fireman Clarence Wood inspect the plane's damage—which was much less than it might have been.

Though halls are empty, work goes on at schools

By BECKY BERRYHILL

The children are out of school for the summer. But for many school people, the work goes on.

SUPT. CHARLIE White said, "My main job is to coordinate the school system. During the summer most of my time is spent interviewing applicants for teaching positions. I also outline work for the maintenance people, keep up the business office, complete reports to end the school year, help prepare and adopt a budget and coordinate applications for federal programs."

The school tax office is busy all summer, too. Four people staff it all year. Gene King, business manager, said, "During the summer we prepare the tax roll and equalization roll for school taxes."

In the South Elementary curriculum office, work continues at a fast pace. Textbooks arrive and depart all summer, keeping Elmer Berryhill, director of special services, busy. Weldon Skinner spends his time on paperwork connected with curriculum and applications for government programs.

ALL 11 OF the school's maintenance people work during the summer. Inside the school buildings, floors and fixtures are cleaned for the coming year; outside, the grounds and buildings are spruced up.

The vocational agriculture and home economics teachers are still at school, too. Mrs. Jo Ann Snider teaches summer courses to home economics students. John Quinby is there to supervise his FFA students and the Young Farmers.

The principals of the schools will be in their offices most of the summer. End-of-school reports and planning for next year keep them busy.

THE SCHOOL system is employing 15 boys and girls through the Neighborhood Youth Corps program this summer.

Last rites held for J. P. Isaacs

Jasper P. Isaacs, 83, a Dimmitt resident for eight years, died last Wednesday morning in the Central Plains General Hospital in Plainview. He had been in declining health for the past 12 years.

SERVICES were held Friday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Shamrock. Dr. Raymond Perkins of Dimmitt officiated, and music was under the direction of Bill Myers, also of the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt. Arrangements were handled by Richerson Funeral Home of Shamrock. Burial was in the Shamrock Cemetery.

Mr. Isaacs was born March 17, 1888, in Jackson County, Ky. He moved to Comanche as a young man and later moved to Arkansas. He married Allie Mae Boyles in Oak Bend, Ark., in 1913. They moved to Wheeler County the same year, and lived there until 1963 when they moved to Dimmitt.

He was associated with Panhandle Fruit & Vegetable Co. in Amarillo until he retired. A former Shamrock city marshal, Mr. Isaacs was a member of the Shamrock Baptist Church.

SURVIVORS include his wife of Dimmitt; three daughters, Mrs. Orene Williams of Dimmitt, Mrs. Hazel Brumgardt of Mission, Kan., and Mrs. Ruth Dickenson of Oakland, Calif.; three sons, Jake of Dimmitt, Aaron of Canyon and Eugene of Midland; a brother Elisha, of Shamrock; 10 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. Preceding him in death were three children—a daughter, Mrs. Polly Wood, and two sons, James Donald and Baby Isaacs.

They are assigned to different personnel to help as needed. The program is federally funded to provide summer jobs for the underprivileged.

Many other school people have become students again during summer vacation—studying either for self-enrichment or advanced degrees.

The CVAE teachers are attending four and six-week workshops to learn more about their specialties. Others are attending special workshops or classes. The lunchroom ladies will attend a workshop at Texas Tech University on management, equipment and quantity food service for public schools.

SUPT. WHITE also will spend time this summer with the architect engaged for future planning for the school system.

Secretaries for all the administrative personnel work the same months as their bosses. This ranges from 10 to 12 months of the year.

The entire administrative staff has meetings as needed to discuss school business. These will come more often as the start of school approaches.

School is not idle during the summer. Activity continues as the people who guide our city's biggest business close out one year and plan for another.

Potatoes, onions start rolling in

Potatoes and onions began coming in to La Mantia, Culm, Collier & Co. Monday afternoon.

CARROTS aren't expected until the 15th to 20th of this month, according to Homer West, plant manager.

Quality on the potatoes has been good so far, West said, and yield has been about average.

HOLIDAY FEAST AT THE V.F.W.—Here's how local Veterans of Foreign Wars spent the July 4 holiday Sunday afternoon—with a big, free feast at the Castro County Memorial Post hall. Here (from left) Jim Buckley, Mrs. Bud Griffith and Mrs. Jim Buckley fill plates while Custodian Bob Roland makes sure someone else has plenty to eat. Approximately 300 veterans, wives and children gathered at the post home for a free meal of barbecued goat, fried fish, calf fries, hush-puppies, beans, potatoes and salads. The party started at 1 p.m. and didn't end until the food ran out at 7:30. The VFW post plans to make the free feast an annual event to help its members have a safe holiday at home.

Driver charged with hit and run

A hit and run accident on US 385 near the Dairy Queen was quickly solved Sunday when city police apprehended Jorge Flores on Halsell Street a few minutes after the accident.

FLORES pulled out of the Dairy Queen parking lot and struck the fender of a car driven by Robert McCausland of Amarillo, Police Chief W. W. Jones said.

Flores admitted hitting the automobile, but he was in a hurry so he drove away, Jones reported.

Flores was released from jail after he paid a $50 fine for leaving the scene of an accident. JONES estimated damage to McCausland's car at $300 and said Flores' car was not damaged.

On the Go
JACK AND BETTY Boren of Lubbock were holiday guests of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Boren.

WHO CARES ABOUT HEAT?—With the thermometer climbing past the 100-degree mark daily, these youngsters have a prime idea for beating the heat. The city's two pools and their diving boards have been drawing bigger crowds than ever as youngsters and adults alike gamble with the sun and hot sidewalks for a chance to splash in the cool water.

"HI DADDY"

"Hi Daddy! When are you coming home?" How happy it would make our Heavenly Father if we responded to His voice in the same joyous manner that this little child has responded to his Daddy's voice. Enthusiasm for God's Way would turn a greater number of people toward God and His love. "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord" (Psalms 122:1) would be a joyous response to God's command, "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together." (Hebrews 10:25)

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

GIRLSTOWN PAINT from Dimmitt and Hart totaled 173 gallons and made a stack this big. The girls, administrators and volunteers from the area finally depleted the stack this week as they finished painting the outside, inside and trim of the old dormitory at the girls' home near Whiteface. Tours of the newly painted dormitory will be provided during the annual Girlstown Open House Sunday, starting at 2 p.m. The open house also will include the crowning of the new "Miss Girlstown" at 3 p.m. and a public barbecue at 4:30. All the paint was purchased through local stores with funds donated by Dimmitt and Hart residents.

BETTER cotton yields for profits and markets in 1971 is the theme for a Beltwide campaign to aid the cotton industry. The objective, says Fred Elliott, Extension cotton specialist, is to increase cotton yields to the maximum profitable level, using practices recommended for each producing area to increase producer income. The increased production is needed to stabilize and expand the market. Carryover of cotton in the US by Aug 1 is expected to be the lowest in 20 years. Worldwide, the same situation exists.

BETTER cotton yields for profits and markets in 1971 is the theme for a Beltwide campaign to aid the cotton industry. The objective, says Fred Elliott, Extension cotton specialist, is to increase cotton yields to the maximum profitable level, using practices recommended for each producing area to increase producer income. The increased production is needed to stabilize and expand the market. Carryover of cotton in the US by Aug 1 is expected to be the lowest in 20 years. Worldwide, the same situation exists.

Grass is a good air-conditioner

Grass is one of the most effective pollution control and air conditioning devices that nature has to offer.

"ONE ACRE of grass releases about 2,400 gallons of water on a summer day through evaporation and transpiration," according to David Springer head of the USDA Soil Conservation Service office in Dimmitt.

"This much evaporation equals the cooling effect of a 70-ton air conditioner," Springer continued. "And grass is ideal for erosion control, beautification, and animal forage."

Springer said grasses vary widely within individual species. There may be dozens of strains of side-oats grama, for example, growing within an area of only a few counties. These variations are caused by differences in climate, soils, elevation and other factors.

SCS conducts a constant search for superior strains of grasses and other plants, Springer said.

"WHAT WE'RE looking for are strains of grasses that will help solve some specific environmental problems," Springer explained. "In Texas, we need grasses that will thrive on several droughty soils; cool season plants that will extend the grazing season; and plants that will provide forage for livestock while also providing better food and cover for more kinds of wildlife."

Springer added that conservationists also need salt tolerant grasses that will grow on a wide variety of problem sites, forbs and woody plants useful to wildlife and livestock that can be planted in range seeding mixtures, and water-tolerant plants that will curb wave action on earthen dams.

To help coordinate the search for better plants, SCS operates 20 plant materials centers in the United States. One is located in Texas at Knox City. Scientists at these centers grow and evaluate plants from all over the world to help find strains that will solve specific problems.

THE MOST recent grass selected and put into use by SCS plant material's work in Texas is Selection 75 Kleingrass. Released in 1968, the plant is a leafy, highly palatable grass that is now being grown widely in Central Texas. It is used mostly in tame pastures where high rates of fertilizer are used.

Prices on meats remain mostly unchanged, but some cuts are being promoted, she says. Look for best beef values on round steaks and roasts, short ribs, ground beef and chuck roasts and steaks.

Pork values include hams, picnics, shoulder and steaks and end cut loin roasts and chops. Fryers remain a top bargain, while grade A large and medium eggs compete "nip n tuck" for the best egg buy.

IF YOU have an eye toward meats that are easy to fix and store, Mrs. Clyatt suggests you look to cold cuts.

Vegetable supplies are increasing and showing attractive quality and cost, she continues. Fresh corn, available now, is tender and sweet. Okra, summer squash, cucumbers and Bell peppers are in greater supply. Head lettuce, radishes, celery, green beans, green onions, potatoes, yellow onions, cabbage and most cooking greens continue to be economical choices.

Tempting fresh fruits appearing at produce counters include peaches, bananas, oranges, cherries, lemons, white grapes, pineapple, avocados and plums. Honeydews, cantaloupes and watermelons are reasonably priced for good quality at this time.

TO AVOID the extremely depressed prices of eggs in the first half of 1971, the US Department of Agriculture is recommending that egg production for the first half of 1972 be reduced by three percent. Output at this level would result in per capita supplies near 1970 levels but below the first half of 1971 production.

DIP IN THE NET AND UP COMES A THREE-POUNDER
... Mr. and Mrs. Charles Youts at C&W Catfish Farm

County's first fish farm splashes into operation

After more than a year of preparation, Castro County's first catfish farm is off and running—er, swimming.

IT'S THE C&W Catfish Farm, owned by Charles and Wanda Youts and located a mile west of the Dimmitt Airport, off US 385.

The fish farm consists of three aerated ponds, a sophisticated pumping system and an immaculate, air-conditioned building where the big catfish are dressed and sold.

In effect, the three ponds comprise a two-acre underwater leedlot, where a constant stock of 700 to 800 channel catfish are fed a commercial feed daily—just as cattle and hogs are. At present, the fish range in size from three-fourths to a whopping 6 1/4 pounds.

AS THEY'RE needed, the fish are seined out of the ponds and transferred to aerated vats inside the "fish shop." There, the customer can pick out his fish from the 20 or 25 swimming around in the vats, orif he's in a hurry—can buy one that has already been dressed and refrigerated. The fish sell for $1 per pound dressed or 90 cents per pound live.

"Most of our customers so far have wanted to pick out their own fish and watch the killing and cleaning process," Youts said.

Youts, an electrician, has installed an electrical stunning process that makes the killing and cleaning quick and efficient.

AFTER the catfish is netted from one of the vats, it is placed in a plastic basket that has a metal plate in the bottom. The plate is grounded through the counter, and just above the basket is an electrical switch and outlet for a "hotshot" stick.

One touch of the stick to the fish's head stuns it, then it is hung to a large hook and cleaned and skinned above a Formica counter and stainless steel sinks. The head, skin and entrails go through a chrome-lined opening in the counter and into a plastic trash-can liner below. The entire process only takes minutes.

The concrete block building is immaculate, with painted concrete drain-floor, area paneling, woodgrain wallboard ceiling, modern cabinets and stainless steel sinks. And, although it may be catfish weather outside, it's air-conditioned inside.

MRS. YOUTS opens the shop at 1 p.m. daily, and her husband joins her at the end of his workday. The fish farm stays open until 9 o'clock every night.

One of the most critical aspects of catfish farming, Youts says, is maintaining a constant temperature in the outside ponds.

"You can't let the temperature vary more than about 10 degrees in a short time or they go into shock," Youts said. "When you're pumping in fresh water, you sometimes have to go slow."

He buys his water for the ponds from his neighbor, Ted Robb, who has an irrigation well nearby. Water used for the cleaning process inside the building comes from the city.

TWO OF the outdoor ponds are 250 x 50 x 5 ft., side by side, and the third is 180 x 50 x 5, across the end of the two larger ones.

Youts has installed an underground pump and drainage system that enables him to refill the inside vats from the outdoor ponds, then pump water back into the ponds from the vats to insure that the fish are always in fresh, aerated water.

Another problem of catfish farming—perhaps a delightful type dilemma—is keeping enough catfish on hand to supply the demand.

"CATFISH farming is getting to be a good business everywhere," Youts said. "Every catfish farmer we've talked to, no matter how big their operations are, run out of fish and have to haul them in."

Part of the current stock at the C&W Catfish Farm, in fact, is imported. Most of the bigger ones were brought in for the first few weeks' business, to allow the smaller ones to grow a while longer.

Youts said he hopes to find some good "stockers" so he can start breeding catfish for desirable characteristics—just as cattle and swine breeders do.

"IN FACT, I've got one out in the pond now that I may use as a stocker," Youts said. "He's a big 6 1/4-pounder, and you should see the girth on that rascal, right behind his head..."

Court dismisses bakery's lawsuit against Gibson's

A federal court has dismissed the civil suit filed in 1969 by a Hereford bakery against Gibson Products Co. of Hereford. THE U.S. DISTRICT Court of Amarillo ruled that there was insufficient evidence to back up the claim of Hereford bakery owner Eugene D. "Debs" Knox that Gibson Discount Store was selling bread at an unreasonably low price in an attempt to drive Knox Bakery out of the bread business.

The case came to trial May 27 and lasted several days before ending in a hung jury. The federal judge, in his deliberations to determine whether another trial would result in a judgment, decided the evidence was insufficient.

Knox said no decision has been made about whether the ruling will be appealed to the fifth Court of Circuit Appeals in New Orleans.

KNOX contended that Gibson's was involved in a conspiracy in violation of anti-trust laws, to sell bread at a price that eliminated him from the possibility of competition.

Gibson Products Co. of Hereford is one of eight Gibson Stores owned by Delmar Watkins of Pampa.

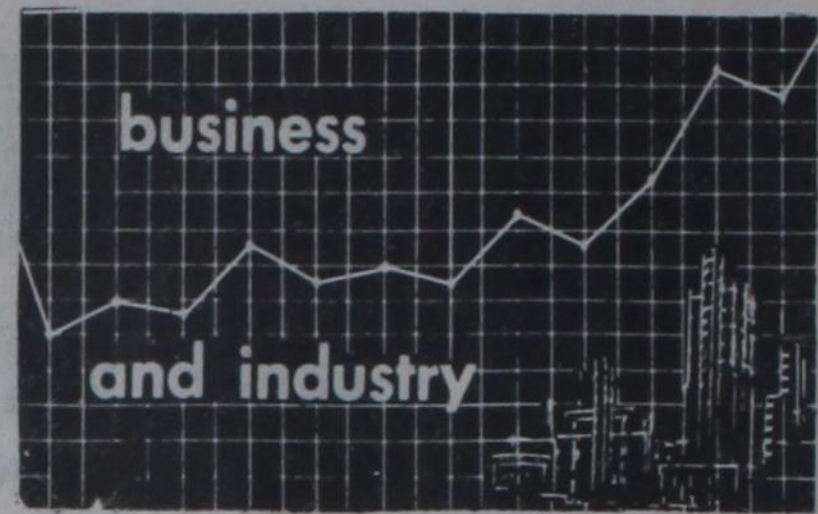

"THE MORE I am acquainted with agricultural affairs the better I am pleased with them, inasmuch, that I can nowhere find so great satisfaction as in those innocent and useful pursuits. In indulging these feelings I am led to reflect how much more delightful to an undebauched mind is the task of making improvements on the earth than all the vain glory which can be acquired from ravaging it, by the most uninterrupted career of conquest." — George Washington.

"Mr. Pruitt, in his duties, will help us accomplish this need as most of his time will be utilized in making personal calls on the agricultural producer right out where it all begins—at the farm or ranch," Hull said.

"We at Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative feel that we must work more closely with the farmer right in his business office, which is the farm and-or ranch," Hull said. "The farmer and rancher in this era simply does not have the time to come to us to discuss his electrical needs, so we must go to him."

"Mr. Pruitt, in his duties, will help us accomplish this need as most of his time will be utilized in making personal calls on the agricultural producer right out where it all begins—at the farm or ranch," Hull said.

"WHY CAN'T meat be packaged without dripping?" consumers often ask. Dripping can result from meat warming during the cutting and packaging process, from the refrigerated display not being cold enough, or from the package warming between the time of selection and refrigeration at home.

Electric cooperative announces new sales coordinator for area

James Hull, general manager of Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative, has named David Pruitt sales coordinator for the firm's four-county service area.

IN HULL'S announcement, he commented that as the agricultural picture changes and progresses, so must the rural electric systems that serve it.

"We at Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative feel that we must work more closely with the farmer right in his business office, which is the farm and-or ranch," Hull said. "The farmer and rancher in this era simply does not have the time to come to us to discuss his electrical needs, so we must go to him."

Pruitt and his wife, Patricia, are natives of Celeste, where both graduated from high school.

Pruitt attended Kilgore Junior College and graduated from Texas A&M University, receiving his BS degree in agricultural economics. He received his master's degree in agricultural economics at Texas Tech. He is a member of Omicron Delta Epsilon, national economics honorary, and Gamma Sigma Delta and Alyha Zeta, national agriculture honorary societies.

Mrs. Pruitt attended East Texas State University, where she received her BS and master's degrees in education. She will be associated with the Hereford School System as special education teacher this fall.

The Pruitts live at 436-B Ave. B in Hereford.

★ MR. AND MRS. Lowell Richburg and DeAnn attended the funeral of his grandfather, Lee Richburg, at 10:30 a.m. Saturday in the First United Methodist Church of Memphis.

Mr. Richburg, 88, a retired farmer, was a longtime resident of Hall County. He died at 3:10 p.m. last Thursday in the Hall County Hospital.

He is survived by three daughters, three sons, 15 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

★ MR. AND MRS. Lester Lancaster returned home Monday morning from Concord, where they attended funeral services for her mother, Mrs. Mary Lowe Wellborn, 88, who died last week in a hospital in Abilene.

Mrs. Wellborn was buried last Thursday afternoon in the cemetery at Concord.

She was born July 17, 1882, in Langston, Ala., and married James David Wellborn at Cooper's Chapel in 1907. She had been making her home with her children since the death of her husband in 1958.

A member of the Primitive Baptist Church, she had lived in West Texas most of her life.

How do you start a coin collection? If your interest is American coins, start with some pocket change. Concentrate first on lower denominations currently minted. Lincoln Head cents, Jefferson nickels, and Roosevelt dimes are good starters.

Your first challenge is completing a set—a coin for every year and mint marked issued. Then you begin to branch out.

Discontinued coins such as Buffalo nickels, and Mercury Head dimes are still common enough to be found in pocket change.

Upgrading is the next step. Older coins in top condition are difficult to get. The currently issued coins in top condition can replace poor specimens. Soon upgrading becomes second nature. Unfortunately, scarcer issues are not easily stumbled upon.

Buying some coins to complete a series may be necessary. Now you're on your way to becoming a full-fledged numismatist.

4-H Dress Revue to be next week

By IRENE KEATING

Next Thursday is our county 4-H Dress Revue. Do come see the girls model their garments. We will have it at 4:30 p.m. in Dimmitt Junior High Auditorium. Myrtle Sheffy, narrator will keep things moving—don't miss it.

Construction is moving along on our courthouse. I've been busy antiquing the furniture for my office in the basement.

THIS IS the sunglasses season and here are some ideas to use this accessory to best advantage.

Sunglasses, an "instant" cosmetic, can create an illusion to change the shape of the face, accent or diminish a feature, highlight make-up, or alter the total outlook. Since the sunglasses are "fixed elements," face shape and features should be the final consideration in the style of glasses selected.

As an example, round or full faces look prettiest in squares, rectangulars and even sweeping wrap-arounds. On the other hand, square-shaped faces should never wear sunglasses with a squared-off line, but those with rounded lines.

Pear-shaped faces require sunglasses with emphasis on the top, as in certain wrap-around and oval styles. Frames should slant upward slightly.

FRAMES wider at the top than at the bottom flatter diamond-shaped faces. If the chin ends a bit narrow, select glasses with broad straight lines. Oblong-shaped faces gain width from sunglasses with soft, up-turned lines extending beyond the broadest part of the face. Small faces need delicate frames tailored to their size.

Glasses featuring oval lines at both top and bottom are best for heart-shaped looks.

Since it is important to choose the right frames for your face shape, let the mirror be your guide. But remember this basic rule: contrast the shape of the lens to the shape of your face, as opposites tend to neutralize and give the illusion of a perfect oval.

Sunglasses do more than frame a face, so you may want to consider other points. Glass lenses are cooler than plastic in hot weather, but plastic lenses allow for greater safety in case of breakage and offer greater versatility in shape and size.

AS FOR color of the lenses, experts consider neutral smoke gray best. It gives comfort from glare without affecting color perception or detail definition. However, sage green is most efficient at filtering out the sun's ultra violet rays.

In choosing your lens color, remember that lightly pigmented blue-eyed people require greater protection from the sun than heavily pigmented dark-eyed persons.

TREATING your family with fresh strawberries? Store them whole and uncovered in the refrigerator until ready for use; washing and stemming them immediately can result in food value loss and increased spoilage. According to USDA, prepare and use as soon as possible, within one or two days.

MRS. GREG CROSBY
... The former DeRhonda Brown

Brown-Crosby vows exchanged in Hart

Miss DeRhonda Brown and Greg Crosby exchanged wedding vows Friday evening in the Hart Methodist Church, in a double-ring ceremony conducted by Rev. W. H. Brown, the bride's father, and Rev. C. T. Cunningham.

VOVS WERE repeated before a seven-tiered candelabra decorated with daisies and greenery. Mrs. Lloyd Tatum of Lubbock provided organ music and Sam Salley of Lubbock played the piano. Dee Ann Clevenger of Hart sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. (Fred) Brown of Lubbock. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Garlon Crosby of Hart.

The bride wore a formal gown of morning mist over white bridal satin, fashioned with an Empire bodice of French embroidered lace with a high collar. The long, full sleeves ended in deep petal-point lace cuffs accented with pearl buttons. The chapel length veil of embroidered lace was attached at the crown with tiny rosettes centered with pearls.

SHE CARRIED a bouquet of white daisies and yellow roses with white satin streamers, atop a white Bible. In the bridal tradition, she chose something blue, a garter; something old, the Bible, a gift from her brother; something new, her bridal gown; and something borrowed, a sweetheart necklace.

Mrs. Donnie Black of Hart was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Denise Lowery and Roni Cox of Hart. They wore full-length gowns of avocado green dotted swiss, with baby doll sleeves and daisy trim. Each carried a nosegay of yellow daisies with yellow streamers.

Donnie Black of Hart served as best man. Groomsman were Gary Six and Steve Hankins of Hart. Paul Brown of Lubbock, the bride's brother, and Chad Black of Hart were candlelighters. Ushers were Jimmy Crosby of Hart, the groom's brother, and David and Steve Brown of Lubbock, the bride's brothers. A reception in fellowship hall of the church followed the ceremony. The bridal table was covered with a cloth of white linen with a lace ruffle, and a candelabra surrounded by the bridesmaids' bouquets made up the centerpiece. Mrs. David Brown, sister-in-law of the bride and Genice Crosby, sister of the groom, served the guests. For her wedding trip, the bride wore a two-tone orchid knit dress with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Hart High School and Betty Lee's Beauty School of Plainview. Crosby is a Hart High School graduate and plans to attend Texas State Technical Institute in Amarillo next fall. He is now employed by Hart Welding.

What? July is turkey month?

Shades of red, white and blue! July is almost here, and what better way to greet Independence Day than with a sampling of America's plentiful foods?

TURKEYS top the US Department of Agriculture's July plentiful foods list, so why not try some outdoor barbecuing ideas with this All-American bird, asks the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The monthly plentiful foods list, compiled by USDA commodity specialists from fact finding sources in government and food industries, also includes eggs, fresh plums, watermelons, fresh vegetables (tomatoes, cucumbers, sweet corn, cabbage, celery and carrots in particular), rice, frozen and fresh salmon, and cranberry juice and sauce.

Turkey marketings and cold storage holdings exceed those of a year ago, and egg production is continuing in an upward trend, so July supplies of both products should be abundant and consumers may look for attractive prices.

SUPPLIES of fresh plums and fresh vegetables will increase seasonally during July, and drought conditions delaying early harvesting in some sections will result in a heavy volume of watermelons from the southeast and south central states.

Ample stocks of rice, cranberry juice, cranberry sauce, and frozen and fresh salmon will assure plentiful supplies in July.

THE level topograph of Castro County allows very little surface-water runoff. The small amount of runoff generally flows into small, natural depressions (playa lakes), of which there are over 500 in the county, covering about 15,750 acres.

THE Caldecott Medal honors the most distinguished children's picture book of the year and this year it was awarded to Gail Haley author of "A Story, A Story."

The John Newbery Medal is given for the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children and is awarded annually by the children's Librarians Section of the American Library Association.

Some of the Caldecott award winning books are: "Nine Days to Christmas" by Marie Hall Ets; "Sam Bangs and Moonshine" by Evaline Ness; "Little House" by Virginia Lee Burton; "Snowy Day" by Ezra Jack Keats; "May I Bring a Friend" by Beni Montresor; "Frog Went a Courtin'" by Feodor Rojankousky; and "Make Way For Ducklings" by Robert McCloskey.

SOME OF the Newbery Award winning books are: "Voyage of Dr. Doolittle" by Hugh Lofting; "Johnny Tremain" by Esther Forbes; "From The Mixed Up Files" by E. L. Konigsburg; "High King" by Lloyd Alexander; "Call It Courage" by Armstrong Sperry; "Sounder" by William Armstrong; and "Witch of Blackbird Pond" by Elizabeth Speare.

I bought the book "Texas in Color" by Evelyn Oppenheimer. All the colors on nature's palette are visible in the great panorama that is Texas. From the white sands of Padre Island to the brown rocks of the Guadalupe Mountains, from the golden citrus groves of the Lower Rio Grande Valley to the miles of pine tree forests, Texas is an unending wonderland. In this volume of the "Profiles of America" series, 32 full page plates in full color reproduce the scene. For each, Evelyn Oppenheimer has written a descriptive text that discloses her knowledge of the subject and her deep affection for her homeland.

Deep water lawn to combat drouth

The prolonged drouth conditions require gardeners to use special care in cultural practices that can conserve moisture and reduce the amount of irrigation water needed for lawns and woody ornamentals in the landscape.

THROUGH waterings and judicious applications of fertilizer, insecticides or fungicides, are two steps that can help gardeners through the hot, dry weather, according to Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist.

When applying irrigation water, do a thorough job, soaking the soil to a depth of six to 10 inches, he advises. If the soil surface is sloping or is compacted, water must be applied at a slower rate to prevent runoff.

Deep watering of landscape plants tends to encourage deep root penetration that ultimately provides a greater moisture supply for the plant. Janne warns that frequent, light waterings encourages shallow root systems and once this happens, FERTILIZER, insecticides or fungicides should never be applied unless there is moisture in the soil because severe foliage burn can occur if these materials are applied when the soil is dry. Janne says that any fertilizer applications should be followed with a thorough watering.

Another way to conserve moisture is to be sure all flower and shrub borders have a mulch at least two inches thick. A good mulch reduces evaporation from the soil surface, keeps the soil cooler, reduces weed growth, and cuts down on soil cultivation. Shredded pine bark, pine straw, wood chips or other readily available organic matter will make an excellent mulch.

SCREW WORM ALERT EXPANDED

A confirmed screw worm case near Texarkana should alert stockmen to the need for continuous checking of all animal wounds. It is the first case in the area since 1962. The officials of the eradication program are giving the case close attention and hot-spotting the area with sterile flies flown from the Mission Laboratory. Ground spraying of herds will also be done. Stockmen are urged to send a sample of any worms found in animal wounds to the Mission Lab for positive identification. The county agent can supply kits for mailing the larvae samples.

The Fourth of July saw plenty of action at CCCC this weekend, with the team of Ralph and Amy Clover scorching the already 101-degree weather with a Scotch 9-holes score of 40 to win low gross honors in the Monthly Scotch Foursome Sunday.

SECOND low gross was won by the team of Doris and Bob Lindsey with a 45, and third low gross went to Bobby Vilas and Cary Jackson with a 45.

First low net went to the team of Ole Mae Trimble and Herb Mayfield with a 32. Second low net was won by the team of Dorothy and John Gilbreath with a 34. Third low net was topped by the team of Vaudine Giles and Editor Nelson by carding a net 35.

Other teams included Polly Holland-Jack Newsom, Dorothy Mafield-O. B. Trimble, Deanne and Bill Clark, Bobby and Bob Vilas, Neva Hickey-Sam Gilbreath, Joy and Bo Mercer, Martha Myers-Sandy Parsons, Libby and Ken Cleveland, Jean and Bob DuLaney, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Keel, and Marilyn and Joe Carver.

A SALAD supper was sponsored by the Ladies' Golf Association to more than 70 Scotch entrants and their guests, with children and adults alike enjoying two hours of fireworks afterwards.

L.G.A. President Polly Holland tells us that the following groups donated the new vacuum cleaner for the club: Beta Sigma Phi; Promenaders Square Dance Club; Dimmitt Physicians; Jaycees, and the Ladies' Golf Association.

SHORT PUTTS: Buster Tidwell birdied No. 9 hole this week. John Gilbreath's opponents are complaining of his long drives. Polly Holland birdied No. 7 hole. Cary Jackson went into shock when he found out his handicap skyrocketed from a 20 to a 12 this quarter.

Ann Touchstone tells us that Meadowbrook Golf Course in Lubbock ate her lunch in a ladies' tournament... she and Mitzi Eltridge shot a 74 on the tricky, tree-lined, water hole infested mammoth golf course last week—which sounds pretty good to me!

Billy Carver is getting his game in shape. Virginia Gilbreath says she is going to take lessons this fall and get out here with us. The Sam Gilbreaths and the Swain Burketts spent a few days in Clouderoff this past week and played some golf on the course billed as the "Highest in the World."—Didn't hear how the match came out, but Virginia was overheard bragging about Sam's long drives. Coby Gilbreath is Celebrity of the Week, sporting four stitches!

Joe Carver's opponents are keeping a sharp eye out on the handicap book so there won't be any more surprises. Despite Bob Lindsey's partial lay-

Craig gets 'Young Farmer' honor

Randall Craig, a member of the Dimmitt Young Farmers for seven years, is the "Young Farmer of the Month" for July. CRAIG was selected for the monthly honor because of his work in the Dimmitt Young Farmers recreation program during June, plus his contributions to the chapter in the past. He and his wife, Genell, will receive a free dinner from the Colonial Inn Restaurant in recognition of the honor. Craig, who is a sales and service representative of Gifford-Hill-Western here, was born in Oklahoma and raised in Muleshoe. He graduated from Muleshoe High School in 1955, then worked for the ASCS in Bailey County four years before moving to Dimmitt in 1959. HE AND HIS father-in-law, Raymond Preston, operated a farm south of Dimmitt four years, then Craig went into the real estate business here. Later he moved to Anton, where he was in the seed and fertilizer business. He joined Gifford-

Hill-Western in 1966 and returned to Dimmitt.

He and his wife still have farming interests south of Dimmitt.

Holiday traffic roundup

Local boy receives broken neck in rollover north of Hereford

July 4 almost ended tragically for a 17-year-old Dimmitt youth who was injured about 4 p.m. Sunday when the vehicle he was driving overturned three times 13 miles north of Hereford.

GEORGE LOPEZ received a broken neck in the accident and was in serious condition when he was transferred to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo two hours after the wreck. However, hospital spokesmen said his condition was satisfactory Wednesday morning.

His brother, Willie, 14, and a cousin, Frank Lopez, 14, also of Dimmitt, escaped serious injury in the turnover. They were treated at Deaf Smith County Hospital and released.

Highway patrolmen who investigated the accident said Lopez's vehicle left the roadway of US 385 north of Hereford and overturned three times.

THE LOPEZ wreck apparently was the most serious accident that occurred in the Panhandle area over the holiday weekend.

Although the three-day weekend was described as "tragic" by the state and national safety councils because of the number of highway deaths, the Panhandle was free of fatal wrecks. Two Amarillo residents, however, died in an auto crash in Oklahoma.

MEANWHILE, two minor accidents occurred over the weekend inside the City of Dimmitt. Except for the two mishaps, however, Police Chief W. W. Jones said the holiday weekend was "real quiet."

Sheriff's officers, patrolling county roads and highways, were kept busy booking drunk drivers. The Sheriff's Office reported 14 DWI arrests over the weekend—nine involving local residents and five from outside the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Perez of Friona are the proud parents of a son, Natividad. He was born June 27 in Plains Memorial Hospital and weighed 6 pounds, 3 1/2 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Saragosa of Dimmitt are the parents of twins born July 1. They were named Adelaeda and Magdalena, and weighed 4 pounds, 7 1/2 ounces and 4 pounds, 10 1/2 ounces respectively.

A daughter, Tamra Diane, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Leo Alexander of Kress July 1. She weighed 8 pounds, 6 1/2 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Chance of Dimmitt are the parents of a boy born June 30 at 1 p.m. in Littlefield Hospital. He weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces and has been named Shawn Paul. Grandparents are Levi Bennight and the late Ruby Bennight of Hart, and Mrs. Dorothy Chance and the late Paul Chance of Dimmitt.

Diaz, Anes, Civo guide Cardinals to 7-4 victory

Jim Diaz bore down from the mound while Nati Anes and Silberio Civo led the batters' barrage as the Dimmitt Cardinals chalked up a 7-4 victory over Tulia.

THE GAME started as a pitchers' duel with Diaz and the Tulia pitcher hurling their way through three scoreless innings.

But the batters found the range in the fourth. The Cards put together a two-run outburst in the top of the frame, but their hosts scored twice in the bottom half to tie the score.

Dimmitt went ahead to stay in he fifth with two more runs, while Diaz held the Tulia batsmen at bay.

THE CARDS staged a three-run rally in the seventh and the Pirates followed with a run in the bottom of the frame to revise the score to 7-3 in Dimmitt's favor. The Pirates put the game's last run across the plate in the eighth.

Anes led Dimmitt's batsmen with four hits in five trips to the plate, while Civo was three-for-five.

Sunday the Cardinals will take to the road again, going to Plainview to meet the Plainview Pirates.

Trailer damages building Sunday

A stock trailer loaded with bricks and lumber broke loose from a pickup Sunday afternoon and rammed into the entryway of the building that houses the offices of Dr. Charles Vandiver and L. C. Lee, Realtor.

THE PICKUP, driven by Fred Eugene Slag of Amarillo, was traveling east on West Bedford Street when the accident occurred. Slag was enroute out of town after loading the trailer with salvage from the old First Baptist Church site, when the trailer came loose.

Police Chief W. W. Jones estimated damage to the building at $300 to $400. The door facing and brick were damaged as the tongue of the trailer embedded itself in the brick wall of the building.

More about:

About Dimmitt

(Continued from Page One) should be kept secret. There are two sides to the coin, but I am inclined to believe that the public has a right to know everything that it is possible to know without endangering the lives of our fighting men.

The touted successor to the governor's chair, Ben Barnes, is off and running with the blessings of his mentors, John Connally and Lyndon Johnson. Actually, if he gets the job it will amount more to an appointment than it will an election. At this point I believe that Texans are about fed up with this type of power politics, and it is my guess that they are ready to field a new team. Governor Preston Smith is making noises like he will be a candidate for re-election, this is a little hard to believe. After his name has been linked with the insurance stock scandal, regardless of his guilt or innocence, it is doubtful if he could expect to be a very strong candidate. If Smith does get into the race you can expect him and Barnes to cut each other to pieces, and Dolph Briscoe, who made a creditable showing in the last governor's race, should have an excellent chance to give Texas a change of administration which is past due at the state capital.

Ralph Yarborough should stay out of the governors race, and take on John Tower in the U.S. Senate race. He would have an excellent chance of being elected, and that is where he could do the most good. His experience and ability is sorely needed in the United States Senate.

To say the least the upcoming election year bids fair to be a loolapaloozer.

All loose pets face city nets

Police Chief W. W. Jones reminds city residents of a city ordinance requiring all pets to be kept on a leash or penned in the yard.

COMPLAINTS of dogs running loose at night have prompted officers to increase their pet patrols, Jones said.

Patrols will be made at night, and any pets picked up are subject to being destroyed. Having a city tag on the animal will not prevent its being picked up, Jones added.

On the Go

MR. AND MRS. Doan, Edwin Ramey, Mrs. Ulys Davis and Mrs. B. M. Nelson attended the funeral service Monday for Mr. W. A. Doan. It was in the Presbyterian Church and was a Mason's service. Doan of Dimmitt was his grandson.

Kitchen talk

'Chicken in a tent' is delicious--and it helps keep your kitchen cool

By BECKY BERRYHILL During the summer months, most of us like to cook simple meals to keep the house and kitchen cool. The less to clean-up after the meal is over the better we feel.

HERE IS a recipe for a complete meal of baked chicken and vegetables to beat the summer heat. Almost all of the preparation is done on one sheet of aluminum foil and there are no cooking utensils to clean when it's done. Just pop it into the oven and enjoy yourself while it cooks.

It is a handy meal for just your family or for company meals, when you want time to visit. Just vary the amounts to suit the occasion.

CHICKEN IN A TENT

For each package use:

- 1 slice onion
- 1 slice tomato
- 2 slices potato
- 3 strips carrots
- 2 pieces celery
- PLACE THE halved fryer in the center of a square of foil. Add a slice of onion on top, then add potato slices. Next add tomatoes and place carrot strips and celery to sides. Season to taste, top with butter if desired. Close the foil making a tight package.
- Bake on a cookie sheet in a preheated oven at 350 degrees F for 1 1/2 hours. Serve in the package to retain vegetable-chicken juices as a natural gravy.

IMAGINE THE SURPRISE of O'Neil Moulton, former Dimmitt resident, when he glanced out of a door at the plant where he works in Emeryville, Calif., and saw this Dimmitt tank car on a nearby rail siding. Moulton wheeled his pickup up beside the tanker, snapped this photo and sent it to the News. The tanker is leased to Dimmitt Agri Industries, Inc. Barry Love, plant manager, said it was probably one of the cars used to ship sulphur dioxide to Dimmitt for use in the corn wet-milling plant here. Emeryville is in the San Francisco Bay area, between Oakland and Berkeley. Moulton is the son of Assistant Police Chief and Mrs. Fred Moulton of Dimmitt.

Pat Acker

Acker is home from REC trip to Washington

Pat Acker of Nazareth returned recently from the 1971 Government-in-Action tour of Washington, D.C. He was sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Rural Electric Cooperative.

THE 75 TEXAS delegates spent much of their time touring various landmarks and shrines, and spent an entire day in the Smithsonian Institute.

On Rural Youth Day the 26 states represented met for a day's convention. About 900 youths were representing their home areas. A reception was held in their honor on the White House lawn, where Secretary of Agriculture Clifford Hardin greeted the delegates.

President Nixon visited with the group before they toured the White House. Later, the delegates met their representatives in a congressional reception. Acker carried the Texas delegation's banner during the lawn party.

The NRECA filmed and taped the entire Texas delegation in action and in song to promote next year's tour.

TWO CHARTERED buses took the Texas delegates to and from Washington.

Acker said, "The trip was so great, I'd help anyone interested in competing for the trip for next year. The people made the tour what it was."

He added special thanks to Ken Lloyd, youth tour coordinator, who helped make it a "trip of a lifetime."
