"No Power in Water"

After reasoning as we have recently some usually say, "But you are placing too much stress on baptism. There is no power in water." No we place no more stress on baptism than does the New Testament. But it is true that there is no POWER in the water. Christ has the power; but He saves the OBEDIENT (Heb. 5:9). Baptism is one of His commands. One is only partially obedient to Christ before baptism. Suppose there is a great reward for me IN CISCO. I am four miles from town. I go ONE mile toward town. This is an essential mile, but it does not put me INTO the place my reward is. I go the second mile and the third. All important, but I am still not into the place where the reward is. I now take the fourth mile, and on completing it I am IN the place where the promised reward is! Now was there more power in the fourth mile than the first, second or third? Certainly not! But it took ALL of them to gain me the reward. So the sinner must first BELIEVE; then REPENT; and CONFESS CHRIST (Heb. 11:6; Lk. 13:3; Matt. 10:32). Here are the first three miles. All essential. But they are all UNTO (in the direction of) "righteousness, salvation and life" (Rom. 10:10; Acts 11:18; Rom. 10:10). Then to get INTO CHRIST, where SALVATION is (2 Tim. 2:10) one is BAPTIZED INTO CHRIST. (Gal. 3:27; Rom. 6:3). No more power in the fourth step than the first, but it takes them all to bring one up to and put them INTO Christ Jesus the Lord!

Truman's Speech Shamed Rail Unions; Strike is Off

By United Press

WASHINGTON, May 25. — The two-day rail strike is over.

As the president went before congress this afternoon to demand restrictive labor legislation, the nationwide rail walkout was called off by Whitney and Johnston, union big wigs.

In a matter of seconds, the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in Cleveland announced the men were returning to work.

And in Washington, White House labor expert John Steelman — tired from his efforts to end the dispute — made a similar announcement.

The House speedily passed and sent to the Senate late today the emergency strike control legislation requested by President Truman. The vote was 306 to 13.

On Capitol Hill, congressmen were applauding Mr. Truman as he termed the railroad strike a strike against the government.

There was a wild burst of applause when the president asked for "immediate legislation" to help stop strikes, particularly strikes against the government.

At that particular moment, neither the president of the United States nor the men who make its laws knew that the worst railroad strike crisis in American history was over.

John Steelman knew, and he was explaining the terms of the settlement to newsmen.

The trainmen and engineers — whose 250,000 members walked off the job just about this time two days ago — will get an 18 and a half cent hourly boost, retroactive to May 22 — the day Mr. Truman proposed that figure.

But — and this is important — they have agreed on a one-year moratorium — or delay — in their demands for 44 rule changes.

In retreating from their demands for changes in rules, the Brotherhoods have given in to the president and accepted a compromise formula which they themselves have labeled less favorable than the one proposed by the fact-finding board.

With the word that the strike was ended, railroad men started moving back into the deserted stations, freight yards and sidings.

Alvanley Johnston — chief of the engineers — said he expected "normal operations" on all railroads by 7 p. m. Saturday night.

Both Johnston and Whitney made statements at the conclusion of the strike. The two men, whom President Truman accused this afternoon of "obstinate arrogance," defended the course they took.

Whitney said — "we took this course in the interest of the public, realizing that the strike could not be continued indefinitely because of the need of the foods and many other provisions required in economy."

And he added, bitterly, "we regard the president's statement Friday night as very unfair to our respective groups."

The president was in the midst of his speech to an emergency joint session of congress when he received word that the strike was over.

Bowles of the OPA Wants to Be Connecticut Governor

WASHINGTON, May 25. — Economic Stabilizer Bowles and Sen. McMahon, D. Conn., are still at odds politically, despite recent pleasant luncheon conferences.

Bowles wants to run for governor of Connecticut, has drafted platform. McMahon and former Attorney General Cummings want him to run for Senate.

Bowles' friends claim he can win governor race, but concede McMahon-Cummings machine can block him in convention if they choose.

The machine fears Bowles as governor would challenge its rule.

Dr. Painter Accepts Presidency University Texas

AUSTIN, May 25. — Dr. Theophilus S. Painter, 56, mild-mannered scientist, Presbyterian and Mason, with a long university career, who has successfully administered the university since Homer P. Rainey was ousted from that position 18 months ago, today accepted the presidency of the $100 million dollar University of Texas.

The regents had offered him the $17,500 per year job yesterday.

Following the regents' offer, Dr. Painter received a politely worded letter from the student assembly suggesting that this body officially representing the university's 12,500 students would prefer to see another type of educator in the president's chair.

In accepting the presidency over the protest of the student assembly, mid-speaking Dr. Painter was plunged into the turmoil that followed Rainey's discharge.

This agitation continues. Rainey has announced his candidacy for governor as an outgrowth of his discharge. Students have organized pro-Rainey and anti-Rainey political clubs. Faculty factions are pro-Rainey or anti-Rainey.

Anyway you look at it, it is a bad situation for Texas' richest university, and Rainey is expected to do his utmost to keep the pot a-boiling.

Union Daily Bible School to Start June 3, 9 A. M.

Presbyterian, Christian and Methodist churches will hold a Union Daily Vacation Bible school beginning June 3 and ending June 14.

Place of meeting will be First Methodist church and classes will be held each week day — except Saturday, 9 until 11 a. m.

All children from beginners through intermediate ages will be welcome, no matter what church they may belong to. Children belonging to no church will also be welcome.

Teachers from all three of these churches are working together to form a fine program and it is hoped that parents will encourage their children to attend, said Rev. Richard Crews.

Crews to Preach Hi School Baccalaureate Tonight

By LELA LATCH.

Sixty Seniors will march down the aisles of Cisco high school auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight in their cap and gown debut for baccalaureate services.

The stage will be decorated by the Juniors of the home room of O. S. Clark. Ushers for the service will be girls from Mr. Clark's section.

Rev. Richard Crews will deliver the address and members of his choir from First Christian church will supply music for this annual commencement.

"Nine of our sixty graduates have an average of 90 or more," said O. L. Stamey, principal, "with top honors going to Joe Tom Poe and Betty Jones. Poe's average for the year is 96 and that of Miss Jones 94.9."

Honor students for the entire year are Dorothy Grantz, Fern Huestis, Betty Jones, Nelda Smith, LaVerne Steffey, Loydellon Surlis, Bobby Tullis, Evelyn Pippin and Joe Tom Poe.

Diplomas Tuesday Night. In a student-directed program under the caption of "Education for Tomorrow," the sixty who have been sponsored throughout the year by Miss Doris Joe Pyle and Mrs. R. H. Cutting, will receive their diplomas Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

Those who will graduate Tuesday night and who will be in tonight's baccalaureate procession, are:

Imogene Agnew, Tim Akers, Patsy Allen, Joe Baum, Franklin Brown, Donald Blackburn, Doree Boggs, Delmer Childers, Martha Collins, Max Cawley, Dorothy Cooper, Mary Lou Donaway, John Edward Dudley, Jerry Farley, Bobbie Jean Gambin, Dorothy Grantz, Billy Greenhaw, Doris Lee Hall, Hayette Hassen, Helen Hay, Harvey Haynie, Geraldine Honea, Fairy Lynn Huddleston, Fern Huestis, Wesley Iserhower, Bill Johnson, Wanda Johnson, Betty Jones, Wanda Joyner, Billy Kendrick, Johnnie Kent, Billie Langston, Betty Lasater, Alejo Lopez, Patsy Lois McCrea, Paul Mosley, Brownie Mosley, Robbie Jo McNeely, Patsy Morris, Udell Morris, Jack Myrick, Patsy Osborn, Louise Owen, Charles Pence, Evelyn Pippin, Joe Tom Poe, Lenora Rendall, Frank Ratliff, Marjorie Reynolds, Jim Sauls, Robert Scott, Jerrold Smith, Nelda Smith, LaVerne Steffey, Loydellon Surlis, Elbert Tipton, Bobby Jean Tullis, Francoise Walker, Emma Lee Wende, DeLores Witt.

The local store will be under the supervision of A. F. Douglass of Dallas, who has been in Cisco the past two weeks, installing and arranging fixtures and stocks. W. W. Slater of Wichita Falls, assistant to Mr. Douglass, will visit the Cisco store each week, Mr. Wilcox stated.

The new establishment was designed for the shopper's convenience, with wide aisles between the huge food supplies. Prices will be plainly marked on each article and the various foods will be arranged and grouped for easy selection. A large, paved parking lot adjoins the store as an added aid to patrons from city and country. Large floodlights will illuminate the parking area.

The store will be under management of G. W. Wilcox, who has been connected with A&P for 15 years and for the past nine years has managed the old A&P store in Cisco. Wilcox says everything possible has been done and will be done in this new location to make food shopping a pleasure.

"Every price a low every-day price" will be the price policy of A&P, the manager added.

T. E. (Ed) Stuard of Cisco will be in charge of the meat department, which will feature a wide variety of meats and fish. Stuard says his meat department is one of the most beautiful and best equipped in the southwest.

New Home of the A&P Store Will Open Tomorrow

A brand new A&P store, equipped to carry out the latest developments in food distribution, will be opened to the public at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning at the corner of D avenue and Tenth street, says G. W. Wilcox, local manager.

A specially designed and constructed building containing 6,000 square feet of floor space will house the Cisco enterprise. Here, under one roof, people of Cisco and the countryside will find separate departments for fresh fruits, vegetables, meats, fish, poultry and bakery products, as well as an unusually wide variety of staple groceries, which include many hard-to-get items.

Thorough Cleanup of Cisco to Start Monday, June 3

The week beginning Monday, June 3, will be CLEAN-UP WEEK IN CISCO if the recommendation of a committee representing the city, and the senior and junior chambers of commerce is adopted.

The plan will be laid before the city commission and members of the junior chamber of commerce this week.

The cooperation of every civic and commercial organization in the city will be sought in the effort to make this an all-out drive for cleanliness and health.

Principal emphasis in the campaign will be focused on proper garbage disposal and control of all sources where flies and other disease bearing insects breed.

A strong effort will also be made to remove weeds and trash from alleys and vacant lots.

The city has already obtained new street cleaning equipment and weed-cutting machinery, which will be available for use in the campaign, say City Sanitary Commissioner W. J. Slaughter and Mayor Edward Lee. Street equipment is under the direction of Street Commissioner H. S. McCaslin.

The committee was also assured that city trucks will be supplemented by other trucks which have been offered for use in the campaign.

County Commissioner Arch Birt has promised to place some of the county equipment at the disposal of the city for hauling off accumulations of waste.

The committee was also told that the city has made arrangements to eradicate hordes of sparrows which are a health menace.

The campaign will be conducted under the direction of the city commission, through its sanitation department, and all voluntary efforts will be channeled through this department.

Special committees will be organized to assist in various phases of the campaign, with particular reference to garbage disposal and insect control.

The Clean-up will start Monday, June 3, and trucks will begin making their rounds the following Tuesday, continuing until all accumulated trash and other refuse is disposed of.

Cooperation of every person in Cisco is earnestly requested, to the end that every controllable source of infection or disease communication may be removed.

In view of the fact that the hot summer days are the period when most epidemics occur, and especially in view of the fact that diseases such as infantile paralysis strike during the warm days of the year, it is especially important that Cisco make every effort to eliminate unsanitary conditions before the hot season occurs.

The committee plan contemplates not only a thorough clean-up at the outset of the summer season, but provides also for regular monthly campaigns to keep the city clean through the season.

Esen A. and John W. Fields, brothers and sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fields, long-time residents of Cisco, announce the opening of a real estate office over Dean Drug store, Monday.

The firm name will be Veterans' Reliable Realty association.

Both young men were members of the army air corps and Esen Fields served 24 months with the 20th air force overseas. He was in India, China, Japan and the western Pacific.

April, 1938

(Cisco Daily News Files)

Today is not only April 1, but also a red-letter day date in the historic annals of Cisco high school. Today is Senior's Day! In accord with tradition, the senior colors and banner ride atop the high school. After declaring a holiday, the seniors presented a comic farce in chapel, and immediately left for their big picnic.

The comedy was a mock wedding composed of an all-boy cast. The cast was: Groom, J. M. Hazlewood, bride, J. L. Stafford; pastor, Gordon Sherman, bride's mother, Tom Jones, bride's father, Phil Wilkerson, bridesmaids, Jack Lauderdale and J. C. Paschall; maid of honor, Vernon Steyer; ringbearer, Raymond McBride; Layon Dill presented the ring to the pastor. The costumes and the contrasts in stature of the participants would have been comedy enough without the added ceremony.

The seniors selected Lake Brownwood as the site for their outing, and left the high school at 10:45. They plan to return late this afternoon.

Speaking of the Other Fellow's Troubles--

... suppose, for instance, that he moves an old house or erects a new structure on a lot without first knowing something about the title to the lot. This is being done in every town in the country. What will happen later on is obvious. Fixed improvements become a part of the real estate. If the title to the real estate proves to be faulty the whole investment becomes of doubtful value. The moral is, get an abstract first—buy and improve later!

STEPHENS-PORTER WEDDING SATURDAY.

Mrs. Vida Stephens became the bride of C. R. Porter in a ceremony held at 8 a. m. in the home of Rev. Arthur Johnson, Saturday, May 25. Rev. Mr. Johnson officiated with the ring ceremony in the presence of members of his family. The couple was unattended.

The bride wore a two-piece white wool gaberdine suit with accessories of black and corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter left following the ceremony for a short visit at Lubbock with his sister, Mrs. J. J. Clements, following which they will take a wedding trip to the mountains of New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter were reared in Cisco and are well known here. She has been in charge of the ladies ready-to-wear department of the J. C. Penney Co. store for several years.

Mr. Porter, who has been living at Lubbock for some time, spent the past year in Cisco looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter will probably locate in Cisco.

RECEPTION HONORED MRS. JAMES L. QUALLS.

Mrs. L. H. Qualls, Mrs. Ellsworth Mayer, Mrs. Roy Burnam, Mrs. Ennis Qualls, Mrs. Jasper Qualls and Mrs. Roy Huffmyer were hostesses Friday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock with a reception in the Qualls home honoring Mrs. James L. Qualls, recent bride of Lieut. James L. Qualls.

Lovely decorations of pastel color and sweet peas were used throughout the rooms.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Roy Burnam, who presented them to a receiving line composed of Mrs. L. H. Qualls, Mrs. James L. Qualls, Mrs. Ellsworth Mayer, Mrs. Roy Burnam, Mrs. Ennis Qualls, Mrs. Jasper Qualls and Mrs. Roy Huffmyer.

The dining table, covered with lace cloth, was centered with a cut glass bowl filled with sweet peas. Other table decorations were tall white tapers in crystal holders.

Miss Lillian Spears presided at the punch bowl and refreshment plates of pastel sandwiches, cookies and mints were served. Others assisting were Misses Coise Walker, Patsy Allen, Carolyn Fewell, Bobby Jean Tullios and Mrs. Roy Huffmyer.

Seventy guests called during the afternoon and enjoyed the splendid affair.

LUNCHEON HONORED HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS.

Cisco high school seniors were honored Tuesday by First Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service with a luncheon in the basement of the church featuring the "Gay 90's". The basement held settings of Miss Elviry's boarding house, Miss Gertie's clothing emporium and Casey's barber shop, with barber pole and a portion of the sidewalk and adjacent street well displayed.

The guests were met at the door by Rev. Allen A. Peacock, wearing a long mustache and a derby hat. Mrs. James Moore and Mrs. Gerald Merket pinned art mustaches and ties on the boys and hats and beauty spots of the period on the girls. The group was then greeted by Miss Elviry (Mrs. John Shertzer), who welcomed them to her boarding hall and presented them with hand-drawn programs

After reasoning as we have recently some usually say, "But you are placing too much stress on baptism. There is no power in water." No we place no more stress on baptism than does the New Testament. But it is true that there is no POWER in the water. Christ has the power; but He saves the OBEDIENT (Heb. 5:9). Baptism is one of His commands. One is only partially obedient to Christ before baptism. Suppose there is a great reward for me IN CISCO. I am four miles from town. I go ONE mile toward town. This is an essential mile, but it does not put me INTO the place my reward is. I go the second mile and the third. All important, but I am still not into the place where the reward is. I now take the fourth mile, and on completing it I am IN the place where the promised reward is! Now was there more power in the fourth mile than the first, second or third? Certainly not! But it took ALL of them to gain me the reward. So the sinner must first BELIEVE; then REPENT; and CONFESS CHRIST (Heb. 11:6; Lk. 13:3; Matt. 10:32). Here are the first three miles. All essential. But they are all UNTO (in the direction of) "righteousness, salvation and life" (Rom. 10:10; Acts 11:18; Rom. 10:10). Then to get INTO CHRIST, where SALVATION is (2 Tim. 2:10) one is BAPTIZED INTO CHRIST. (Gal. 3:27; Rom. 6:3). No more power in the fourth step than the first, but it takes them all to bring one up to and put them INTO Christ Jesus the Lord!

Truman's Speech Shamed Rail Unions; Strike is Off

By United Press

WASHINGTON, May 25. — The two-day rail strike is over.

As the president went before congress this afternoon to demand restrictive labor legislation, the nationwide rail walkout was called off by Whitney and Johnston, union big wigs.

In a matter of seconds, the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in Cleveland announced the men were returning to work.

And in Washington, White House labor expert John Steelman — tired from his efforts to end the dispute — made a similar announcement.

The House speedily passed and sent to the Senate late today the emergency strike control legislation requested by President Truman. The vote was 396 to 13.

On Capitol Hill, congressmen were applauding Mr. Truman as he termed the railroad strike a strike against the government.

In accepting the presidency over the protest of the student assembly, mild-speaking Dr. Painter was plunged into the turmoil that followed Rainey's discharge.

This agitation continues. Rainey has announced his candidacy for governor as an outgrowth of his discharge. Students have organized pro-Rainey and anti-Rainey political clubs. Faculty factions are pro-Rainey or anti-Rainey.

Anyway you look at it, it is a bad situation for Texas' richest university, and Rainey is expected to do his utmost to keep the pot a-boiling.

Dr. Painter Accepts Presidency University Texas

AUSTIN, May 25. — Dr. Theophilus S. Painter, 56, mild-mannered scientist, Presbyterian and Mason, with a long university career, who has successfully administered the university since Homer P. Rainey was ousted from that position 18 months ago, today accepted the presidency of the $100 million dollar University of Texas. The regents had offered him the $17,500 per year job yesterday.

Following the regents' offer, Dr. Painter received a politely worded letter from the student assembly suggesting that this body officially representing the university's 12,500 students would prefer to see another type of educator in the president's chair.

Union Daily Bible School to Start June 3, 9 A. M.

Presbyterian, Christian and Methodist churches will hold a union Daily Vacation Bible school beginning June 3 and ending June 14.

Methodist church and classes will be held each week day except Saturday, 9 until 11 a. m.

All children from beginners through intermediate ages will be welcome, no matter what church they may belong to. Children belonging to no church will also be welcome.

Teachers from all three of these churches are working together to form a fine program and it is hoped that parents will encourage their children to attend, said Rev. Richard Crews.

Crews to Preach New Home of the Hi School Baccalaureate Tonight Open Tomorrow

By LELA LATCH.

Sixty Seniors will march down the aisles of Cisco high school auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight in their cap and gown debut for baccalaureate services.

The stage will be decorated by the Juniors of the home room of O. S. Clark. Ushers for the service will be girls from Mr. Clark's section.

Rev. Richard Crews will deliver the address and members of his choir from First Christian church will supply music for this annual commencement.

"Nine of our sixty graduates have an average of 90 or more," said O. L. Stamey, principal, "with top honors going to Joe Tom Poe and Betty Jones. Poe's average for the year is 96 and that of Miss Jones 94.9."

Honor students for the entire year are Dorothy Grantz, Fern Huestis, Betty Jones, Nelda Smith, LaVerne Steffy, Loydellon Surles, Bobbye Jean Tullis, Evelyn Phippen and Joe Tom Poe.

In a student-directed program under the caption of "Education for Tomorrow," the sixty who have been sponsored throughout the year by Miss Doris Joe Pyie and Mrs. R. H. Cutting, will receive their diplomas Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

Those who will graduate Tuesday night and who will be in tonight's baccalaureate procession, are:

New Home of the A&P Store Will Open Tomorrow

A brand new A&P store, equipped to carry out the latest developments in food distribution, will be opened to the public at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning at the corner of D avenue and Tenth street, says G. W. Wilcox, local manager.

A specially designed and constructed building containing 6,000 square feet of floor space will house the Cisco enterprise. Here, under one roof, people of Cisco and the countryside will find separate departments for fresh fruits, vegetables, meats, fish, poultry and bakery products, as well as an unusually wide variety of staple groceries, which include many hard-to-get items.

The new establishment was designed for the shopper's convenience, with wide aisles between the huge food supplies. Prices will be plainly marked on each article and the various foods will be arranged and grouped for easy selection. A large, paved parking lot adjoins the store as an added aid to patrons from city and country. Large floodlights will illuminate the parking area.

The store will be under management of G. W. Wilcox, who has been connected with A&P for 15 years and for the past nine years has managed the old A&P store in Cisco. Wilcox says everything possible has been done and will be done in this new location to make food shopping a pleasure.

"Every price a low every-day price" will be the price policy of A&P, the manager added.

T. E. (Ed) Stuard of Cisco will be in charge of the meat department, which will feature a wide variety of meats and fish. Stuard says his meat department is one of the most beautiful and best equipped in the southwest.

The local store will be under the supervision of A. P. Douglass of Dallas, who has been in Cisco the past two weeks, installing and arranging fixtures and stocks. W. W. Slater of Wichita Falls, assistant to Mr. Douglass, will visit the Cisco store each week, Mr. Wilcox stated.

Whitney and Johnston Old Enough to Know Better

CLEVELAND, May 25. — The two men singled out by President Truman as having challenged the government "as it has seldom before been challenged in all our history" began battling for railroad labor a half century ago.

Upon the heads of the two striking rail brotherhoods — President A. F. Whitney of the Railroad Trainmen and Alvanley Johnston, grand chief engineer of the Locomotive Engineers — the president placed responsibility for the "terrible havoc" and "suffering" resulting from the nationwide rail tie-up.

Whitney, a native of Iowa and now 73, has directed the wealthy and powerful Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen since 1928. Johnston, Canadian-born, will be 72 his next birthday.

Both entered railroad work at the age of 17.

Bowles of the OPA Wants to Be Connecticut Governor

WASHINGTON, May 25. — Economic Stabilizer Bowles and Sen. McMahon, D. Conn., are still at odds politically, despite recent pleasant luncheon conferences.

Bowles wants to run for governor of Connecticut, has drafted platform. McMahon and former Attorney General Cummings want him to run for Senate.

Bowles' friends claim he can win governor race, but concede McMahon-Cummings machine can block him in convention if they choose.

The machine fears Bowles as governor would challenge its rule.

Thorough Cleanup of Cisco to Start Monday, June 3

The week beginning Monday, June 3, will be CLEAN-UP WEEK IN CISCO if the recommendation of a committee representing the city and the senior and junior chambers of commerce is adopted.

The plan will be laid before the city commission and members of the junior chamber of commerce this week.

The cooperation of every civic and commercial organization in the city will be sought in the effort to make this an all-out drive for cleanliness and health.

Principal emphasis in the campaign will be focused on proper garbage disposal and control of all sources where flies and other disease bearing insects breed.

A strong effort will also be made to remove weeds and trash from alleys and vacant lots.

The city has already obtained new street cleaning equipment and weed-cutting machinery, which will be available for use in the campaign, say City Sanitary Commissioner W. J. Slaughter and Mayor Edward Lee. Street equipment is under the direction of Street Commissioner H. S. McCaskey.

The committee was also assured that city trucks will be supplemented by other trucks which have been offered for use in the campaign.

County Commissioner Arch Birt has promised to place some of the county equipment at the disposal of the city for hauling off accumulations of waste.

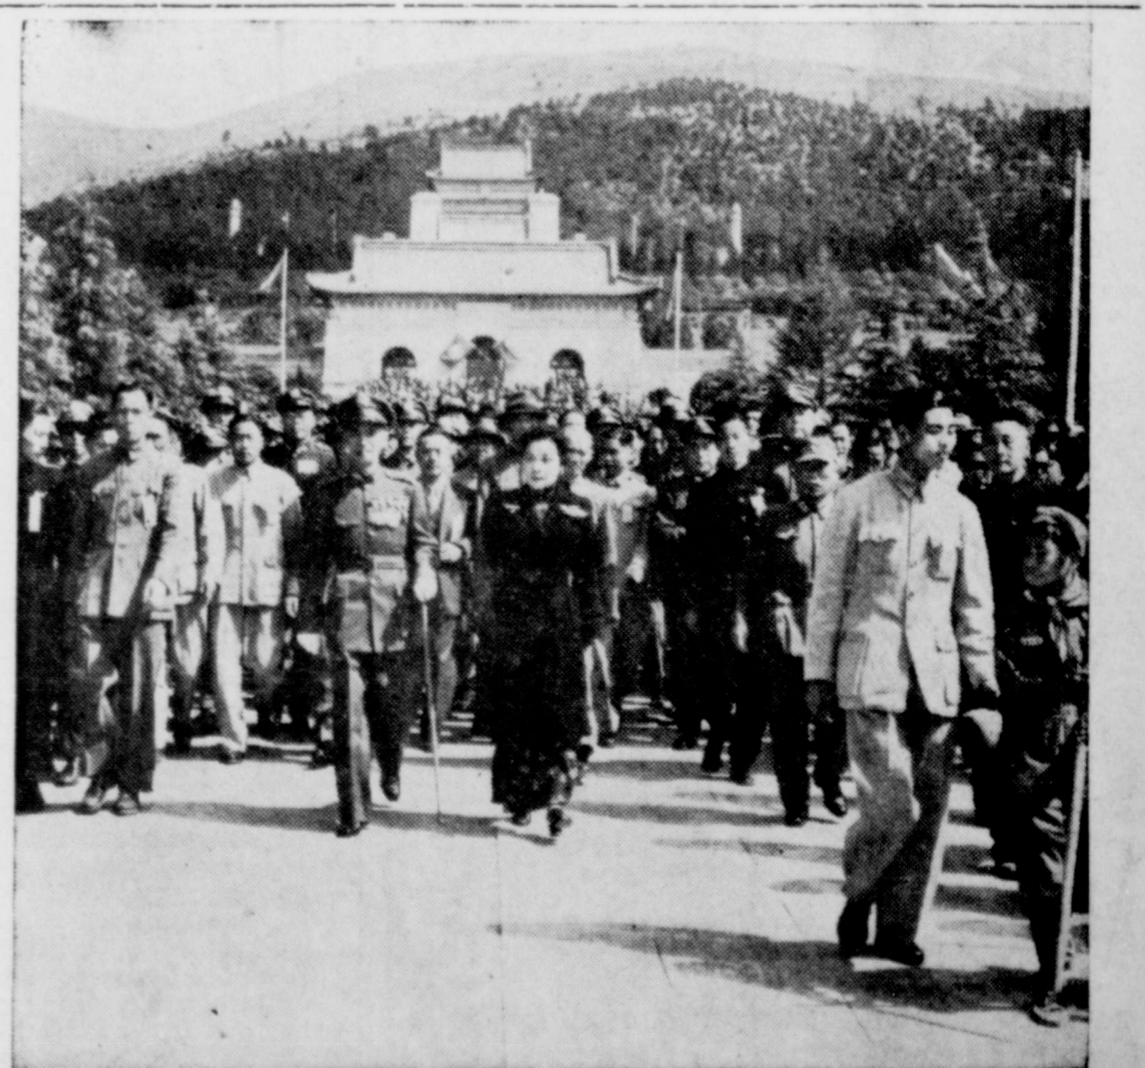

The committee was also told that the city has made arrangements to eradicate hordes of sparrows which are a health menace.

The campaign will be conducted under the direction of the city commission, through its sanitation department, and all voluntary efforts will be channeled through this department.

Special committees will be organized to assist in various phases of the campaign, with particular
