SENIOR SCOUTS TO ORGANIZE CUBS.

By Jim Ewell, Scout Editor.

Senior Scouts of Post 62, under the direction of Scout Jim Ewell, are planning the establishment of Cub Scouts in Cisco, to be sponsored by First Methodist church.

Boys nine, ten, and eleven years may join the Cubs. All boys interested are requested to be present at the meeting Thursday night, 8 o'clock, at the church. Members to be will be given a brief talk on the organization of the Cub Scout Pack.

Purpose of a Cub Pack is to prepare the young boys for future scouting. Scout Jay Warren, representative from Troop 101, and Scout Edwin Jackson from Troop 49, will also be present.

To the boy of today there has come the great scout movement, with its fun and adventure—but this comes when he is twelve. So, for the boy of Cub age, the boy of nine, ten and eleven, the Boy Scouts of America have made a new program which follows the life experience of Chief Akela, learning from the Wolf, Bear and Lion ranks, with their secret meanings, so that when the Cub is twelve, he may be advanced from the Brotherhood of Cubs into the great World Brotherhood of Boy Scouts of America. While cubbing leads into scouting, the programs and all things are separate and different. The Cub has his own things, his own badge and his own uniform and he is protected in their being his own. The scout, likewise, has his distinctive things, which will also be the Cub's after he becomes a Scout.

Before a boy of these ages can become a Cub he must qualify and measure up to certain requirements. Any boy of nine, ten or eleven may become a Cub—if he is willing to obey the laws of the Pack. It makes no difference from what race or religion or class he comes, he may join the Cubs if he is willing to be a Cub at heart.

A Cub is much more than a uniform and a badge, with a boy inside. A Cub is a uniform and a badge with a certain kind of a boy inside—a boy who is loyal to the ideals of Cubbing and who obeys the laws of the Cub Pack.

Heard about June 30th, Joe?

Here's the story. June 30, 1946, is the last day on which you can enlist... or reenlist... in the Regular Army and still be sure of retaining your old grade and family allowance for the duration of your enlistment.

Those are two very important points. First of all, if you have served with the Army and earned a stripe or two, you can enlist within 90 days after discharge and before July 1, 1946, and be sure of keeping your grade.

And if you have a family and dependents, you can enlist before July 1, 1946, and make sure the family allowance will be continued for a 1 1/2, 2, or 3 year enlistment period.

Those hard-earned stripes mean extra pay. Why throw them away? And your family will live comfortably if you enlist now and get the advantage of the family allowance benefit.

So think it over and act today. These two points mean opportunities for advancement and added pay as well as that all-important security for your family. Stop in at your nearest Regular Army Recruiting Station today. They'll give you all the information you want on that very important date ... JUNE 30, 1946.

Coal Strike Settled; Men Get $11.85 Per Day; Welfare Fund of $25 Million

Bishop Moore to Be Heard Sunday 7:30, Over WFAA

By United Press

WASHINGTON, May 29. — The White House today announced settlement of the soft coal strike.

Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug and John L. Lewis signed a soft coal labor contract in President Truman's office. They affixed their signatures shortly after 3 p. m. CST.

Krug said Lewis had indicated he would order his miners back to work "immediately." Lewis said telegrams would be sent out immediately instructing the miners to return to work.

He said that tomorrow will be a holiday, however, and volume production probably will not begin before Monday.

Krug said that the new contract includes a health and welfare fund, but refused to discuss any other details. Lewis also referred reporters to a digest of the new agreement which has not yet been released.

An interior department spokesman released a statement disclosing these terms in the new contract—

The present basic hourly wage of $1 was raised 18½ cents.

The miners will continue operating on a nine-hour day, with overtime rates in effect after seven hours.

The wage increase thus will raise the miners' pay from $10 daily to $11.85, an increase of $1.85 per day.

On the controversial proposal for establishment of an employe welfare fund, the contract provided for a five cent assessment on each ton of coal produced. It was estimated that would raise about $25,000,000 a year.

Lutherans to Observe Ascension Set for June 15 Day Thursday Chief Worry Now

Both Christ Lutheran church and Grace Lutheran church will observe the day of Christ's ascension with a special festival service, Thursday. The service at Christ church will be at 10 in the morning and Grace Lutheran church will have its service at 8 at night.

Rev. Gerh. T. Naumann, pastor of both congregations, will deliver the message entitled "Our Lord Jesus Christ Forever Exalted in His Ascension."

"Ascension day, said Mr. Naumann, 'comes on the fortieth day after Easter and is observed because when Christ was taken up into heaven, He sat at the right hand of God, meaning that also according to His human nature He fills heaven and earth and exercises His power and majesty as King of kings and Lord of lords. Though unseen He, the God-man, is with His followers at all times, comforting, encouraging and strengthening them with His abiding presence.'"

WASHINGTON, May 29. — The threatened maritime strike took top billings today in the government's drive to resolve all major labor disputes.

Secretary of Labor Schwelb called in shipowners and maritime union chiefs for a (1 p. M. CST) conference aimed at finding some way to prevent the shipping tieup set for June 15.

That strike, if it comes off, would cripple America's merchant marine, halt shipping from Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf ports and prevent the export of relief supplies from famine areas abroad.

Joseph Curran, president of the CIO national maritime union, told a reporter on his arrival from New York that he expected the ship operators to make some "new proposals" at the meeting.

"If they don't," Curran said, "it will be a difficult situation. And I mean it."

Six other unions have joined Curran's NMU in demanding a 30 percent wage increase, an eight-hour day, overtime adjustments and retroactive pay. The seven unions claim about 200,000 members on 3,100 ships, more than two-thirds of them owned by the government.

CASE LABOR BILL GOES TO TRUMAN

WASHINGTON, May 29. — The House today approved 230 to 106 the final version of the Case Labor Bill, establishing new and permanent controls on strikes in private industry and outlawing "labor racketeering."

The House vote completed congressional action on the bill. President Truman faced a major decision on whether to sign it or veto it.

The Case Bill is distinct from Mr. Truman's bill.

The Truman bill, passed by the House last Saturday, would apply only to the industries seized by the government. The Senate was poised today to knock out of the Truman bill the provision that would give the president power to draft men who strike against government-seized plants.

Riding roughshod over a group of administration supporters who sought to delay action, a House coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats voted to concur in Senate amendments to the original House-approved Case bill.

House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack, Mass., raised the possibility that Mr. Truman might veto the measure.

Rochester and Unions Agree; Strike at End

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 29. — A city-wide shutdown by union workers ended early today by agreement of Rochester city officials and a joint AFL-CIO strategy committee.

In ending a mass picketing demonstration which began yesterday and took approximately 30,000 workers off their jobs, the union accepted a three-point statement by City Manager Cartwright pledging to meet with city employees either "organized or unorganized."

The picketing shutdown culminated a controversy started May 15 with abolition of 489 city public works department jobs after an attempt of the AFL federation of state, county and municipal employees to organize the department workers.

5 and 7-10 Inches Rain in Cisco So Its 16th Successful School Term

The hardest general rain in many months, and a welcome one to farmers and ranchers of this area, fell in Cisco yesterday afternoon and last night, with the gauge at city hall registering a total of three full inches.

The downpour started about 5 p. m. and ended about 10:30 last night, with no hail and very little wind.

Last night's precipitation brought the May total to five and seven-tenths inches, according to Police Chief M. L. Perdue.

With a brief devotion Tuesday morning, Pastor G. T. Naumann, principal of Grace Lutheran school, observed the end of the sixteenth successful school term of the only Christian elementary school in the city.

In his talk to the pupils Mr. Naumann pointed out that the success of the school and the commendable work of the pupils was due entirely to the grace and blessing of God.

Besides teaching all the required secular subjects, Grace Lutheran school provides a thorough and systematic course in the truths of the Bible and in Christian living.

The pastor reminded the children that they should thank God, especially, who has given them parents who maintain this school—besides paying public school taxes—in order that their children may enjoy the Christian training which makes for good citizenship, thus preparing them for this life as well as for the life to come.

Among the many good report cards the children received there was one which was exceptional.

The pupil receiving this superior rating was Virginia Lee Weiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weiser. She received a straight A. Miss Weiser and Mildred Huber will receive their diplomas at a baccalaureate service Sunday night.

LATEST SUPERMAN.

It is interesting to speculate on how Stalin or Hitler or Mussolini would have handled the situation if any one of those supermen had happened to find himself in the present epochal situation at Washington. Most of us used to be very contemptuous of such world-shaking adventures in the realm of government and the transient glory with which it was usually invested. We begin to understand that sort of thing more clearly now, as we realize the startling examples of the same sort suddenly thrust before our eyes.

Again and again, age after age, ruthless men blinded with ambition and the quest for glory and power have dreamed the same dreams and launched the same campaigns, political or military, to achieve their selfish aims. The history of Rome and other ancient nations is filled with them, and scores of modern examples point to the same path.

"But John L. Lewis," you insist, "is not of so great a breed." How do you know that? He is selfish and ambitious, he seeks power, and he has a following that cannot be ignored.

And there are others more insidious than Mr. Lewis. Sidney Hillman of the CIO, for instance, will congress go forward and enact laws to control all of the revolutionary spirits, or will it depend upon appeasement?

INSIGNIFICANT EARTH.

Work on the world's largest telescope, started in 1929, suspended during the war, is now resumed. This is at Mt. Palomar, south-east of Los Angeles. The Big Eye will be finished next year. Then astro-physicists will be able to look one billion light years into space. They hope to learn more about the complexities of this universe, the origin of planets, the why of stars.

For the past 40 years man's theories along these lines have undergone great modification; sunshine, the astronomers say, is derived from "subatomic energy;" the universe may be expanding at the rate of 20,000 miles a second; star groups, called galaxies, far away from our earth, may be infinite in extent, or limited according to certain principles of relativity.

One thing is certain: with all sky-explorations, as man pushes his eye power farther and farther into space, his own earth and sun shrink into insignificance in comparison with the other heavenly bodies whirling about out there. Verily, astronomy is the most humbling of the sciences!

Something is certain: with all sky-explorations, as man pushes his eye power farther and farther into space, his own earth and sun shrink into insignificance in comparison with the other heavenly bodies whirling about out there. Verily, astronomy is the most humbling of the sciences!

CONGRESS CANDIDATES DIFFER ON UNIONS.

The hottest issue in the Congressional race is the regulation of the labor unions. It is "hot" because a candidate faces the bitter and underhanded opposition of the war-wealthy unions if he takes one side, and the wrath of the plain citizens who are being hurt if he takes the other. Either way, he will lose votes.

It is interesting to see how our Congressional candidates differ in the way they have met this issue—in their willingness to take a definite stand on one side or the other, and in the stand they have taken, if any. Six of the eight candidates have so far published their platforms, and here is what each chose to put in print concerning his views on labor unions (in alphabetical order):

BLANTON I am for the repeal of the National Labor Relations Act, which has put the working man and the whole country at the mercy of a handful of professional union racketeers, whose lust for power knows no bounds.

I am against the closed shop, as a denial of the fundamental American freedom to work, and as an instrument of oppression in the hands of the unscrupulous.

I am against picketing for the same reason.

I am for requiring strict accounting for union funds.

I am for making unions responsible for their contracts.

I am for making union officials subject to the anti-racketeering and anti-trust laws, from which they are now exempt.

I am for requiring the democratic control of unions by the rank and file of on-the-job members. The lack of democracy within unions lies at the root of all our labor troubles.

I am against creating any more tribunals to decide labor disputes. We already have too many boards and commissions. What we need are fair laws for our present courts to enforce.

BRADBURY Strikes cannot be stopped by loud talking or political speeches. Intelligence and courage are needed. When I go to Congress I will not be the representative of the labor unions as such, or of industry, but of all the people no matter what their occupation or profession.

BURLESON Burleson's eleven point platform doesn't mention labor unions.

HERRING If elected, I will do my utmost to establish between Labor and Management a permanent and sound basis for settling disputes, granting full and enforceable justice to the grievances of either party, possibly by the establishment of a permanent Arbitration Court of qualified and well-paid judges, whose decisions would be backed by proper and just law.

SANDEFER Labor-Maintenance of the principles of collective bargaining, with a sharing of responsibility by labor, industry and the government; the promotion of live-and-let-live attitude between capital and labor, with the rights of the public to be recognized and protected.

WAGSTAFF Labor has the right to organize and bargain collectively and to strike if necessary. In all industrial disputes there should be a compulsory cooling off period, and Federal mediation should be employed before any strike is permitted to begin. The principles of the Railway Mediation Act have proven to be successful in preventing strikes, and the provisions of this law should be extended to all industries. (Paid Adv.)

Plane Talk

By JOE COULTER.

Since the donkey ball game of last week we have not been able to remain in a seated position long enough to write this column. However, conditions have improved somewhat so we will see what we can do.

Since we have been having a large crowd at the airport every Sunday that fact has about lost its news value. Now we have to find something else of interest to tell you about.

We have noticed that our neighbors at Rising Star and Moran are lately becoming air-minded. Quite a number of people from these places are becoming frequent patrons. Beginning this week the Humble Pipe Line company will have an airplane based here. It is a new Cosmo which will be used for pipeline patrol and executive travel. We are pleased at their decision to keep the plane here and will assure them the best of service.

The new construction on the airport is the private hangar being built by R. L. Ponster to house the Ecroupe he has ordered.

We have been hearing a number of comments lately on what has been written in this column. One person suggested we change the name to PLAIN TALK. I can't imagine why.

Speaking of the Other Fellow's Troubles---
... suppose, for instance, that he moves an old house or erects a new structure on a lot without first knowing something about the title to the lot. This is being done in every town in the country. What will happen later on is obvious. Fixed improvements become a part of the real estate. If the title to the real estate proves to be faulty the whole investment becomes of doubtful value. The moral is, get an abstract first—buy and improve later!

SENIOR SCOUTS TO ORGANIZE CUBS.

By Jim Ewell, Scout Editor.

Senior Scouts of Post 62, under the direction of Scout Jim Ewell, are planning the establishment of Cub Scouts in Cisco, to be sponsored by First Methodist church.

Boys nine, ten, and eleven years may join the Cubs. All boys interested are requested to be present at the meeting Thursday night, 8 o'clock, at the church. Members to be will be given a brief talk on the organization of the Cub Scout Pack.

Purpose of a Cub Pack is to prepare the young boys for future scouting. Scout Jay Warren, representative from Troop 101, and Scout Edwin Jackson from Troop 41, will also be present.

To the boy of today there has come the great scout movement, with its fun and adventure—but this comes when he is twelve. So, for the boy of Cub age, the Boy Scouts of America have made a new program which follows the life experience of Chief Akela, learning from the Wolf, Bear and Lion ranks, with their secret meanings, so that when the Cub is twelve, he may be advanced from the Brotherhood of Cubs into the great World Brotherhood of Boy Scouts of America. While cubbing leads into scouting, the programs and all things are separate and different. The Cub has his own things, his own badge and his own uniform and he is protected in their being his own. The scout, likewise, has his distinctive things, which will also be the Cub's after he becomes a Scout.

Before a boy of these ages can become a Cub he must qualify and measure up to certain requirements. Any boy of nine, ten or eleven may become a Cub—if he is willing to obey the laws of the Pack. It makes no difference from what race or religion or class he comes, he may join the Cubs if he is willing to be a Cub at heart.

A Cub is much more than a uniform and a badge, with a boy inside. A Cub is a uniform and a badge with a certain kind of a boy inside—a boy who is loyal to the ideals of Cubbing and who obeys the laws of the Cub Pack.

Describing the food outlook in a recent broadcast, Clinton Anderson, Secretary of Agriculture, reported "every indication that the world food shortage will continue until the 1947 harvest."

Heard about June 30th, Joe?

Here's the story. June 30, 1946, is the last day on which you can enlist... or reenlist... in the Regular Army and still be sure of retaining your old grade and family allowance for the duration of your enlistment.

These are two very important points. First of all, if you have served with the Army and earned a stripe or two, you can enlist within 90 days after discharge and before July 1, 1946, and be sure of keeping your grade.

And if you have a family and dependents, you can enlist before July 1, 1946, and make sure the family allowance will be continued for a 1½, 2, or 3 year enlistment period.

Those hard-earned stripes mean extra pay. Why throw them away? And your family will live comfortably if you enlist now and get the advantage of the family allowance benefit.

So think it over and act today. These two points mean opportunities for advancement and added pay as well as that all-important security for your family. Stop in at your nearest Regular Army Recruiting Station today. They'll give you all the information you want on that very important date ... JUNE 30, 1946.

Highlights of the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act

- Up to 90 days' paid furlough, depending on length of service, with travel paid to home and return, for men who reenlist within the prescribed time after discharge.
- A thirty-day furlough each year with full pay.
- Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
- Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. Coal Strike Settled; Men Get $11.85 Per Day; Welfare Fund of $25 Million

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, May 29. — The White House today announced settlement of the soft coal strike.

Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug and John L. Lewis signed a soft coal labor contract in President Truman's office. They affixed their signatures shortly after 3 p. m. CST.

Krug said Lewis had indicated he would order his miners back to work "immediately."

Lewis said telegrams would be sent out immediately instructing the miners to return to work.

He said that tomorrow will be a holiday, however, and volume production probably will not begin before Monday.

Krug said that the new contract includes a health and welfare fund, but refused to discuss any other details. Lewis also referred reporters to a digest of the new agreement which has not yet been released.

An interior department spokesman released a statement disclosing these terms in the new contract—

The present basic hourly wage of $1 was raised 18½ cents.

The miners will continue operating on a nine-hour day, with overtime rates in effect after seven hours.

Lutherans to Observe Ascension Set for June 15 Day Thursday Chief Worry Now

Both Christ Lutheran church and Grace Lutheran church will observe the day of Christ's ascension with a special festival service, Thursday. The service at Christ church will be at 10 in the morning and Grace Lutheran church will have its service at 8 at night.

Rev. Gerh. T. Naumann, pastor of both congregations, will deliver the message entitled "Our Lord Jesus Christ Forever Exalted in His Ascension." "Ascension day, said Mr. Naumann, "comes on the fortieth day after Easter and is observed because when Christ was taken up into heaven He sat at the right hand of God, meaning that also according to His human nature He fills heaven and earth and exercises His power and majesty as King of kings and Lord of lords. Though unseen He, the God-man, is with His followers at all times, comforting, encouraging and strengthening them with His abiding presence."

WASHINGTON, May 29. — The threatened maritime strike took top billings today in the government's drive to resolve all major labor disputes.

Secretary of Labor Schwelbach called in shipowners and maritime union chiefs for a (1 p. M. CST) conference aimed at finding some way to prevent the shipping tieup set for June 15. "That strike, if it comes off, would cripple America's merchant marine, halt shipping from Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf ports and prevent the export of relief supplies from famine areas abroad. Joseph Curran, president of the CIO national maritime union, told a reporter on his arrival from New York that he expected the ship operators to make some "new proposals" at the meeting. "If they don't," Curran said, "it will be a difficult situation. And I mean it."

Six other unions have joined Curran's NMU in demanding a 30 percent wage increase, an eight-hour day, overtime adjustments and retroactive pay. The seven unions claim about 200,000 members on 3,100 ships, more than two-thirds of them owned by the government.

CASE LABOR BILL GOES TO TRUMAN

WASHINGTON, May 29. (UP) — The House today approved 230 to 106 the final version of the Case Labor Bill, establishing new and permanent controls on strikes in private industry and outlawing "labor racketeering."

The House vote completed congressional action on the bill. President Truman faced a major decision on whether to sign it or veto it.

The Case Bill is distinct from Mr. Truman's bill.

The Truman bill, passed by the House last Saturday, would apply only to the industries seized by the government. The Senate was poised today to knock out of the Truman bill the provision that would give the president power to draft men who strike against government-seized plants.

Riding roughshod over a group of administration supporters who sought to delay action, a House coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats voted to concur in Senate amendments to the original House-approved Case bill.

House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack, Mass., raised the possibility that Mr. Truman might veto the measure.

Grace Church ends Its 16th Successful School Term

With a brief devotion Tuesday morning, Pastor G. T. Naumann, principal of Grace Lutheran school, observed the end of the sixteenth successful school term of the only Christian elementary school in the city.

In his talk to the pupils Mr. Naumann pointed out that the success of the school and the commendable work of the pupils was due entirely to the grace and blessing of God.

Besides teaching all the required secular subjects, Grace Lutheran school provides a thorough and systematic course in the truths of the Bible and in Christian living. The pastor reminded the children that they should thank God, especially, who has given them parents who maintain this school — besides paying public school taxes — in order that their children may enjoy the Christian training which makes for good citizenship, thus preparing them for this life as well as for the life to come.

Among the many good reports cards the children received there was one which was exceptional.

The pupil receiving this superior rating was Virginia Lee Weiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weiser. She received a straight A. Miss Weiser and Mildred Huber will receive their diplomas at a baccalaureate service Sunday night.
