KC Bakers' Strike Makes Bread Shortage Serious

Hollywood Radio Announcer Gave Cisco Centenarian Her First Orchid

By LELA LATCH.

Mrs. Betty Alvey, one of Texas' few centenarians, observed her 100th birthday May 31 at the home of her son, John Alvey, 309 W. Eleventh street, Cisco.

Highlighting the event was Mrs. Alvey's first orchid and also her first telegrams.

Tom Breneman, NBC announcer on the "Breakfast at Hollywood" program, sent birthday greetings to the Ciscoan over the national hookup and said an orchid was being wired. The telegrams came from Ernest Gude, North Ridge, Calif.; C. M. Wyatt, San Angelo, and Mrs. Dewey Wink, Jal. N. M.

Dressed in black satin, Mrs. Alvey sat at the door to receive the 125 guests who called, but collapsed before the evening ended and had to be carried to her room. She was reported by her son John Alvey to be resting well Saturday, but still exhausted.

The birthday cake with its white icing and 100 candles was baked by a neighbor in her eighties — Mrs. J. H. Ballard of 308 W. Eleventh street.

The birthday dinner was cooked by a grand daughter, Mrs. John H. Elliott of Childress. However, "Aunt Betty" was too excited to eat much, for the five generations she had hoped for were there and their picture was made immediately after dinner.

Ranging from 100 to one year, the five photographed together were Mrs. Alvey, John Alvey, Mrs. S. M. Ledbetter, Mrs. Dee A. McDaniels and Sharon Ann McDaniels.

Showers with gifts, flowers, telegrams, birthday dinners, press and radio publicity and open-house guests (many of them aged, one blind and one in a wheel chair), Mrs. Alvey declared it "a happy event."

Out of town guests were Rev. and Mrs. Otis Brown, Bangs; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Alvey, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Elliott and three children, Childress; Mrs. S. M. Ledbetter, Nocomo; Mrs. Dee A. McDaniels and daughter, Wichita Falls; James Alvey (son), Aquilla, Okla.

Meat, Wheat and Everything to Eat Gets Scarcer

WASHINGTON, June 1. (U.P.)—High government officials are considering the possibility of restoring meat rationing.

This was disclosed tonight after the agriculture department warned that meat supplies may become increasingly scarce, with production falling off 2,000,000,000 pounds this year and perhaps another billion pounds next year.

The latest total of meat being shipped abroad was not given.

UN Sub-committee Ask Spanish Folk to Remove Franco

NEW YORK, June 1. (U.P.)—A United Nations sub-committee today called on the Spanish people to oust the Franco government by peaceful means, and recommended a diplomatic blockade of Spain by the 51-nation UN General Assembly, "unless the Franco regime is withdrawn" and political freedom restored.

Concluding the UN's first major fact-finding inquiry, the five-member Security Council sub-committee described the Franco regime as a "potential menace to international peace and security."

And you can disregard reports about Whitney using $47 million union assets to defeat Truman and Congressmen supporting administration anti-strike bill. Trainmen have it but can't spend it if Whitney wants to. He now denies he ever said he would.

Strother Funeral at Thomas Chapel at 3 P. M. Today

Funeral of Mrs. A. B. Strother, formerly Miss Frankie Gude of Cisco, who died at her home in Lubbock Friday, will be held at Thomas funeral chapel at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Richard Crews will be the officiating minister and burial will be in Oakwood cemetery.

Deceased, who was born in Cisco and was a graduate of Cisco high school, was a member of the Methodist church. She was married to Mr. Strother August 7, 1938, in El Paso.

Survivors include the husband and four sisters—Mrs. W. H. McCullough, Mrs. Walter Preston, Cisco; Mrs. H. H. Journey, Ft. Worth; Mrs. A. G. Hunt, Lubbock.

Pallbearers will be Milton Preston, Cisco; Ray Clements, Crane; John N. Preston, Goose Creek; Jimmie Journey, Jack Journey and Walter V. Preston, Ft. Worth.

Many Opa Keymen Are Expected to Quit Jobs in July

WASHINGTON, June 1. —Look for wholesale resignations of key men from OPA. Two reasons:

1. Senate Banking Committee votes further to amend and cripple OPA have convinced them there's little hope of workable legislation.

2. Chester Bowles is expected to quit as economic stabilizer about July 1. Likelihood is John W. Snyder will take over job, along with reconversion. OPA men don't want to serve under Snyder, contend he will make a mockery of whatever's left of price control.

CIO and AFL are considering withdrawing labor representatives from OPA unless food controls are restored. OPA relies heavily on labor support but CIO and AFL are reluctant to give it to Snyder.

By United Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 1. (U.P.)—Kansas City tonight faced a bread famine as the AFL Bakers Union local, after four months of negotiation with the management of 16 large bakeries, voted to throw picket lines around the plants as soon as the last route men checked in tonight in a strike sanctioned by its international headquarters.

Housewives rushed grocery store bread shelves in the first hour of business today to clear out supplies.

Flour supplies also were hit hard as women prepared to bake their own bread if the strike continued any length of time.

The city, seat of the world's largest primary winter wheat market and a big flour center, already had been on reduced bread supplies because of a lack of wheat for milling purposes.

President's Action On Case Bill Is in Doubt

WASHINGTON, June 1. —Some Democratic senators have been calling President Truman and urging him to sign case bill. They tell him he's more popular now than ever before as result of getting tough with labor, that if he vetoes it, he'll lose out with all groups.

Look for organized labor spokesmen to pipe down in their criticism of Truman — for time at least. They want that veto, are afraid of results if they keep on hammering.

Speaking in a light and philosophical mood to the 24 graduates of 164-year-old Washington College, he advocated a better deal for second and third vice presidents of big corporations. He thought they should get a better break of being big fish in small ponds, rather than small fish in great lakes.

The president received an honorary degree from the small college. He was obviously moved by the comradeship among the students and the faculty on the graceful old campus.

OTHER THREATS GREATER.

WASHINGTON, June 1. (U.P.)—The Senate, seeking a "formula against world devastation," today passed by voice vote and sent to the House a bill to clamp tight government controls over domestic production of atomic energy.

HEM PENNSY STATION.

NEWARK, N. J., June 1. (U.P.)—Picket lines were thrown around the Pennsylvania station here shortly after 3 p. m. today by striking engineers and trainmen of the strike-bound Hudson and Manhattan railroad.

The picketing apparently was the first step in execution of the H. and M. workers' threat to tie up the Pennsylvania railroad "east of Pittsburgh and south of Buffalo," in protest against extra service on Pennsylvania lines for commuters stranded by the H. and M. strike.

BIBLE SCHOOL GROWING.

"The Vacation Bible school at First Baptist church is making splendid progress," says the pastor, Rev. Arthur Johnson, "and there has been a decided increase as compared with the school last year. We are happy over this showing, but there are so many children in Cisco who are losing the benefit derived from a religious school. We earnestly urge parents not only to be willing for their children to attend, but to persuade them to do so. We cordially invite all children between the ages of four and 16, regardless of church affiliation, to meet with us. Friday morning 106 were in class and 105 have been enrolled. This is an increase over last year of 17 and 38, respectively."

Union Antagonism to the President Breaks Out Anew

WASHINGTON, June 1. (U.P.)—The government tonight weighed creation of a fact-finding board in an effort to settle the maritime wage dispute without a strike on June 15, as angry unionists expanded their walkout call to include Mississippi river barge lines.

At the same time, the National Maritime union strike committee of the Port of New York appealed to the CIO Maritime Unity committee here to advance the strike date to next Wednesday.

The request was made on the basis of President Truman's announcement that he would use the navy, coast guard and war shipping administration to keep vessels sailing in event of a walkout.

The unions threatening to strike invited the AFL affiliate to participate in the executive sessions of the Unity committee.

Cleanup Trucks to Start Rolling In Cisco Tuesday

With Monday as the date for beginning a city-wide, general clean-up, trucks of city and county will begin making rounds of the residential and business district Tuesday to haul off refuse and rubbish accumulated during the drive, says the city sanitary department.

The campaign to clean and beautify the city will be conducted under the direction of the city sanitary department, of which J. W. Slaughter is commissioner. Cooperating with the city are the chamber of commerce and the junior chamber of commerce.

Osborns Sell Bakery to Messrs. Howe and Backtle

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin B. Osborn have sold Osborn's bakery to Donald Howe and Albert Backtle, former service men, who are now in charge of the business.

Mr. Osborn had been in business here for 15 years and he and Mrs. Osborn are now making their home three miles west of Cisco, on the Alsop farm.

The new bakery owners have had experience in the business, having formerly been located in Abilene. At the present, Mr. and Mrs. Backtle and Mr. and Mrs. Howe are making their home at Laguna hotel.

cent rains will produce clouds of mosquitoes. City-wide cooperation in the clean-up drive is the first and most important step toward prevention of an epidemic which may be costly, Dr. Lee said. It is simply a matter of foresight, commonsense and self-protection.

Many Out-of-Town People Here For Vanderford Rites

Many friends and relatives gathered at Cisco First Baptist church Friday afternoon to honor Mrs. R. D. Vanderford, Cisco pioneer who died at her home here Wednesday. A quintet composed of Frank Walker, Grover Eppler, Dorothy Grantz, Mayme Estes and Mrs. Truly Carter sang the favorite hymns of the departed and Rev. Arthur Johnson praised her useful life and Christian attributes. Burial was in beautiful Oakwood cemetery.

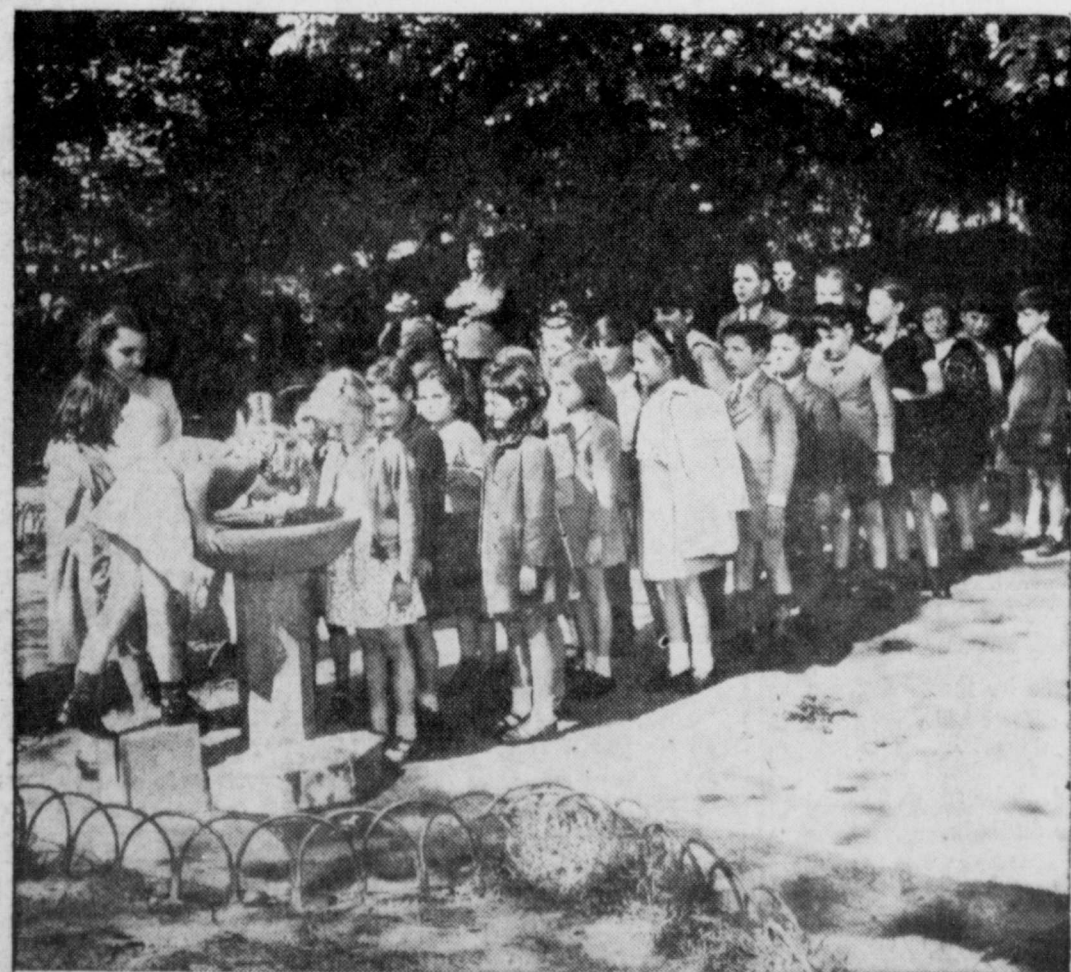

Out-of-town people present were Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Campbell and Carolyn, Mrs. K. C. Jackson, Mrs. O. T. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Gregory, Dallas; Mrs. Fred Archer, Mrs. Frances Fowle, Denton; Mrs. J. W. Previtt, Aquilla; Mrs. Jim Evetts and Ann, Luaders; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Walker and Don, Hamlin; W. E. Gift to Hospital Will Be of Service to Many Thanks to Cisco American Legion, Dr. E. L. Graham of Graham Sanitarium has a new wheel chair for the use of convalescent and other hospital patients.

The chair was presented to the Legion by Capper's Farmer, American Poultry Journal and the Breeders Gazette, in connection with a circulation extension program conducted by those three magazines, with the thought that the Legion would know where to place it for the greatest public good.

Dr. Graham told the Daily Press in a phone conversation that the modern, rubber-tired, noiseless vehicle was actually a Goisend to the sanitarium; that the two old wheel chairs in use were literally on their last legs because of age and his inability to buy repair parts.

END SUMMER IS NIGH—Thirst knows no season but this water fountain does a bigger business as summer approaches. Here New York City youngsters line up to quench their thirst in Central Park. They all drink heavily—water's not rationed.

REBUILD RUSSIAN DAM—Famous Dnieprostroi Dam, which was damaged by the Russians to prevent use by Germany during the war, is being rebuilt so that hydro-electric power can be supplied to a large area in southern Russia.

The New Deal at Last.

Lynn W. Landrum in Dallas News: There is too much complaint that President Truman doesn't become a strong man, beat his chest reasonably and set America right like Franklin Roosevelt did.

The plain, literal truth is that the United States of America is now reaping what Franklin D. Roosevelt sowed. Of course Mr. Roosevelt did not intend that John L. Lewis or the railroad unions should be able to hold up the country and paralyze its activity. But practically every power that the unions have today was given to them by the Roosevelt new deal.

Seize the Employer.

What did Mr. Roosevelt do when a union struck in time of war? Did he seize the union and shake it until its teeth rattled? He did not. He did precisely what Mr. Truman has done — he seized the boss. He acted in every case as if the boss were to blame. If the boss was getting along satisfactorily to himself but was hostile to the union, Mr. Roosevelt seized the boss and threw him out of his own plant — and then invited the unions in. He did that to Sewell Avery of Montgomery, Ward & Company.

Of course, Mr. Roosevelt figured that labor was weak. Labor was the underdog. Labor excited his sympathies. Mr. Roosevelt was born rich, lived rich and died rich. But he always felt that the poor were right, somehow. So he passed laws to take money away from the rich by taxation and give it to the poor. Mr. Roosevelt was of the opinion that he was being practical when he insisted that labor be allowed monopolistic coercion which he denied (and very properly denied) to big business. And Mr. Truman is being lambasted now for following quite literally the Rooseveltian formula.

It is a fact that Mr. Truman is applying the formula with thumb and forefinger, instead of a doubled-up fist. But he has now adopted the consistent policy of striking against the government. Then what? Well, Mr. Truman hasn't the answer to that. Mr. Roosevelt never had the answer to that. He just took property and penalized bosses — and felt that he was achieving fundamental justice. Mr. Truman, however, must be credited with surprising firmness in dealing with the emergency features (as distinguished from the permanent solution) of the strike problem.

Congressional Hesitancy.

But, you say, why doesn't Congress do something? You are right, the responsibility is squarely on congressional shoulders. Mr. Truman has done everything that the law authorizes him to do. He has done everything that Mr. Roosevelt used to do. The only difference is that the unioners have found that when the government reaches up and gives them the moon, they can hold out for the stars, too — and come pretty close to getting the Milky Way thrown in.

But Congress hesitates. Sure, it hesitates. For twelve years it was under the lash and rein of a man who demanded monopoly of power in his hands — "must" legislation went through Congress with the Rooseveltian "must" behind it — "must" decisions flowed from the Supreme Court and Mr. Roosevelt had put seven of his own new dealers on the court. Of course, Congress hesitates to take hold. A clear majority of this Congress cannot remember a session in which they have been free to be statesmen (as contrasted with lackeys and serfdoms under the goad of the radio voice and of the regnant will of one man).

But, however you analyze this thing, you can come to but one conclusion: Labor is on the rampage because all restraints were taken off of the unioners during the new deal assault upon property and management. The new deal honestly believed that property and management had been so selfish and so foolish that it had brought the depression upon us. The new deal honestly started out to whip property and management for its sins. And it did a grand job of flogging.

But the trouble about the knout is that it inspires the holder of sense of power. The new deal found out that management and property are a minority at the ballot box. And it found out that if you borrow enough money, tax enough money and pile it all up, then you can shovel it all out to people who are out of luck — and these people will vote for you. To change the figure, we got shots in the arm for farm troubles, shots in the arm for bank troubles, shots in the arm for bank troubles, shots in the arm for all sorts of troubles. And the remedy for every disease was always one virus — free money.

Don't Want to Work.

But, you say, the trouble is that people don't want to work. Of course they don't. When the war started there were millions of people of working age who had never held a real job in their lives. We had twelve years of boondoggling, WPA, social security and whatnot. The Republicans started it, and the Democrats outboodoggled them a thousand to one.

During the war, America forgot boondoggling enough to work for the brave boys shedding their blood at the front — but mostly it was double time for overtime and every man join a union. Take-home pay is the measure of what a man asks now and not an honest day's pay for an honest day's work. A man is thinking only of what he gets and not of what he produces.

To be sure, we don't work. Who ever heard of a gimmeocrat that did? And if this United States is not now a gimmeocracy, what in Wonderland do you think is going on in this country now, anyhow? Wake up. All that has gone before was just the curtain-raiser. This is the new deal at last. After being liberal with other people's money for years and years, a generation comes to where it is made up of liberals with other people's convenience, liberals with other people's means of livelihood, liberals with other people's right to exist. What else do you expect?

LUTHERAN SOCIETY MET IN ZIEHR HOME.

Mrs. Frank Ziehr has hosted to the Grace Lutheran ladies aid Friday (May 31). Pastor G. T. Naumann opened the meeting with scripture reading and a prayer. The discussion centered around the topic "Common Folks and Uncommon Service." It was brought out in the discussion that a seemingly insignificant service can have tremendously blessed results, as is illustrated by the service that Andrew, one of the disciples of Jesus, rendered in bringing his brother Peter to Jesus. It was Andrew's efforts that provided the little food which under the Lord's blessing fed 5,000 people. It was Andrew who brought the Greeks, that "would see Jesus" to the Savior, thus bringing in the first fruits of the heathen.

Following the discussion the month's business was transacted. In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. G. A. Obenhaus was chosen temporary chairman. She welcomed the visitors — Mrs. A. Holt, Mrs. Clara Huber and Mrs. E. Witt. Mrs. C. Huber was received into membership of the society. The treasurer, Mrs. E. Fricke, reported $106 in the building fund. Mrs. E. Wende and Mrs. O. J. Weiser were chosen on a committee to see about work to be done in the parsonage.

Plans for canning vegetables and fruit for the college in Austin were discussed. Mrs. Carl Stroebel and Mrs. Ed Wende were appointed on a committee to make arrangements for such a project. It was decided to drop the June and July meeting and have the August meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Fricke. The ladies decided to cast their vote for Negro mission work as the object of the district project for the year.

After the meeting had closed with recitation of the 23rd psalm by all the ladies, the hostess served a delightful lunch of ice cream and cookies to the three guests and eleven members present. Those present were Rev. Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Naumann, Mesdames G. A. Obenhaus, Clara Huber, A. Holt, Ernest Fricke, Alvin Lenz, W. J. Prange, Carl Stroebel, O. J. Weiser, Ed Wende, Erwin Witt, Max Witt, Frank Ziehr.

fect Love" and "Because," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Lyman Barnes. The bride's father officiated, using the double ring ceremony in front of an altar of greenery and white lilies.

Dressed in a portrait gown of white satin with sweetheart yoke, accented with Marquise rose-point lace, Miss Peacock was given in marriage by Jack Mauldin of Temple. Her finger-tip veil of net fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a white Bible, topped with gardenias and stephanotis. Mrs. Tal-madge M. Cook, twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaid. Billy Jack Paschal, brother of the groom, served as best man and Roscoe E. Henfro of Corsicana was groomsman.

In a reception following the ceremony, Mrs. Jeff Webb, Mrs. Joe Bunch, Mrs. Price Rumble, Mrs. L. K. Darwin, Mrs. C. O. Cuttington, Mrs. A. T. Jackson and Misses Wanda Webb, Sue Davis, Glennie Sue Bessie and Joann Gooch assisted.

Dressed in a poudre blue suit with navy and white accessories, Mrs. Paschal joined her husband for a short trip of undisclosed destination. They will be at home in Arlington, Tex., after June 4.

SHOWER COMPLETED MRS. ROBERT GULES.

A lovely shower honoring Mrs. Robert Gules of Breckenridge was given Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Fred Erwin. Mrs. Gules is the former Mrs. Norene McCharen of Cisco. Hostesses of the affair were Mrs. Sam Kimmell, Mrs. H. H. Davis, Mrs. Willrue Logan, Mrs. James Haynie and Mrs. Fred Erwin. The reception rooms were beautiful with floral decorations of gladioli, tinted michaelmas, daisies and sweet peas.

Guests were met at the door by the hostesses and were directed to the table where Mrs. Willrue Logan was in charge of the bride's book, and were then shown to the dining room for refreshments. The table, covered with lace cloth, held as a centerpiece a crystal basket filled with sweet peas. Tall lighted tapers in crystal holders flanked the sides. Mrs. James Flournoy ladled punch from a huge crystal bowl and was assisted in serving by Mrs. J. W. Brandon and Mrs. Richard Crews. Plate favors were pastel color sweet peas.

A sing-song was led by Mrs. James Latimer and Mrs. John Stiles and a musical quiz followed, which was concluded by Mrs. Stiles singing "At the End of the Rainbow." The honoree was requested to start on a rainbow trail and was handed ribbons of pink.

Those sending gifts were Mrs. Martin Weiser, Mrs. J. M. Childress, Mrs. A. Fricke, Mrs. E. J. Wende, Mrs. Ben Weiser, Mrs. Arthur Bauer, Mrs. J. W. Gerhardt, Mrs. Johnnie Gerhardt, Mrs. F. E. Shepard, and Misses Emma Lee Wende, Bertha Reich and Erna Wende.

T. M. Collie is State Legislative Candidate

T. M. Collie fierewith announces his candidacy for representative for Eastland county, 108th district, subject to the Democratic primaries. Mr. Collie is a former county clerk and for the past ten years has been practicing law at Eastland. He made the race for this place two years ago and was defeated by a very close vote. His statement follows:

"I am encouraged to make the race by the fact that two years ago I missed the nomination for this place by a very small majority, about 50 votes, out of approximately 6,000 votes cast.

"The next session of the legislature will be the first since the war and in my opinion will be the most important one in many years. A wide variety of legislation will probably be introduced and it would be impossible to anticipate all of it or embrace it in a single platform. However, I will never cast a vote for purely political expediency, but only for those measures which I believe will be in the interest of the people.

"No new tax bills should be passed. The $200,000,000 now collected by the state ought to be enough. It will be my purpose to advance the cause of education along all lines. An educated people is the guardian of democracy. Salaries of teachers in our public schools and smaller colleges should be in line with those paid by industry.

"Legislation should be passed which will be fair to both labor and management, but which will prevent disastrous strikes.

"I am not the candidate of any clique, clan, corporation or organization of any kind, but will be true at all times to represent the common people."

Mrs. Aime Emmons and son Bobby of Fort Worth are weekend visitors here in the home of their aunt Mrs. A. J. Olson.

Miss Bona Lou Prange of Midland, who has been visiting relatives in Cisco, went to Dallas the first of the week where she left by plane for Ontario, Canada, to visit her mother Mrs. Dorothy Prange, who is enjoying an extended stay there with relatives.

Speaking of the Other Fellow's Troubles—

... suppose, for instance, that he moves an old house or erects a new structure on a lot without first knowing something about the title to the lot. This is being done in every town in the country. What will happen later on is obvious. Fixed improvements become a part of the real estate. If the title to the real estate proves to be faulty the whole investment becomes of doubtful value. The moral is, get an abstract first—buy and improve later!
