Mrs. Headrick of Sweetwater is 7th Congress Aspirant Cisco Lions Ladies Night Set For 25th of June

The Daily Press today carries the congressional announcement of Mrs. Nina J. (Mrs. J. Royal) Headrick of Sweetwater, whose entry brings the total number of candidates for the 17th district post to seven. Her statement follows:

To the Voters of Eastland County:

The last few years have made news of tremendous import to women. News which changed their lives, opened new doors to them and gave them a view of future fields of opportunity. Women entered into almost every kind of occupation from rivet driver and sheet metal worker to airplane pilot.

MRS. NINA J. HEADRICK.

lots, formerly considered the province of men. Executive and professional fields found them alert and efficient. No one will deny that they did a good job. Thus women have proven that service and privilege in the field of good government is neither of masculine nor feminine gender.

In announcing as a candidate for Congress, I have done so after prayerful and careful consideration. It has taken much courage "to put in action my better impulses, straight forward and unafraid."

My platform is simple. In the laying of its foundation, the words

Cub Joe Coulter was presented his membership pin today, making him a full fledged member, by Lion Allen Peacock at the Lions club noonday meeting, at which several guests were present.

Announcement was made by A. R. Westfall, assistant secretary, regarding Ladies Night, which is to be held at Laguna hotel the evening of June 25, at which time installation of new officers for the club will be made, with the district governor in charge of ceremonies.

President H. R. Garrett presided, with Jay Garrett reading communications. Other announcements were made, among which were that of Lion Chief Brown regarding the boy scout committee meeting tonight at First Methodist church, 7:30. Brown urged that all committee men as well as Lions attend the meeting, since it has to do with plans for building the scout cabin east of Cisco on the old Eastland highway.

Lion Westfall read the minutes of last week which called attention to the features of the ladies night program.

Lion Jack Anderson will be in charge of the program for next week, it was announced.

Visitors today were Tom Stark, city commissioner; W. H. LaRogue, Donna; Lion E. J. Pross, Sweetwater; Lion C. A. Warden, Eastland; H. A. Glover and Sam P. Davenport, Dallas.

In presenting the Lions pin of membership to Coulter, Lion Peacock emphasized the fact that Lions are chosen after careful investigation as to their integrity and value to the community as civic workers. He urged the new member to study the Lions code and thus become a valuable member to his club.

EX-CONVICT CONFESSES.

SAYRE, Okla., June 5. (U.P.) — Murder charges were being drawn against a 36-year-old ex-convict after he confessed the slaying of Clyde Sanders, 49, Abilene, Tex., whose body was found buried in a shallow grave 16 miles of here last night.

GOP Effort to Halt Draft of Teenagers is Futile; Buck Privates to Get $75

Johnson Gray, 31 Senate Committee Killed in Fall Bans Price Control From Oil Derrick Control Meat July 1

Johnson Gray, 31, a native of the Grapevine community of Eastland county and a veteran of the late war, was instantly killed Monday night when he fell from an oil derrick in the PXL oil field, about 30 miles northwest of Odessa.

The body is now at Thomas funeral home, Cisco, and funeral services will be held at East Cisco Baptist church at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon, with burial in the cemetery at Eastland. Rev. Evan Holmes will be the officiating minister.

Mr. Gray was discharged from the army only a short time ago after five years' service, much of that time being spent overseas and in Germany.

Survivors besides the wife include the mother, Mrs. Maina Gray, Romney; four sisters and two brothers, as follows: Mrs. Homer Shahan, Cisco; Miss Carrie Lou Gray, Romney; Mrs. Arthur De Champ, Mrs. Frank Witten, Los Angeles; H. L. Gray, Romney and Warren G. Gray, Los Angeles.

JURORS DISAGREED.

PLAINVIEW, Tex., June 5. (U.P.) — A jury trying Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron on charges of assault with intent to murder Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield in 1942, was discharged shortly before noon today when it reported it was hopelessly deadlocked after deliberating since Monday night.

WASHINGTON, June 5. (U.P.) — The Senate Banking Committee today stuck by its decision to end price controls July 1 on meat, dairy products and poultry.

Chairman Robert F. Wagner, D. N. Y., made a motion to reconsider the committee's previous vote in favor of ending these price controls.

Wagner's attempt to review the matter was defeated 11 to 7.

Vet Hospitals Are Now Getting 50 Doctors Per Week

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 5. (U.P.) — Gen. Omar Bradley said today that the shortage of physicians which has handicapped veterans' hospitals throughout the nation had partially abated. "We're now getting 40 to 50 doctors a week," he said.

The veterans' administrator pointed out, however, that an additional 600 to 700 doctors still were needed.

KING VOTED OUT.

ROME, June 5. (U.P.) — The Italian electorate toppled King Humbert II and set the stage for his departure into exile by voting his throne out of existence in the nationwide referendum Sunday, it was announced officially today.

WASHINGTON, June 5. — The Senate today rejected a last-ditch effort by Sen. Chapman Revercomb, R., W. Va., to halt the draft.

The vote was 13 to 14.

Rejection of Revercomb's proposal was expected to clear the way for passage before nightfall of the administration bill to extend the draft until next May 15 and permit induction of 18 and 19-year-old youths.

Revercomb's substitute for the administration bill would have put the armed forces on a 100-per cent volunteer basis.

It would have forbid any inductions unless ordered by congress.

Although it would have extended the draft until May 15, it would have been ineffective.

In an effort to keep the drafting of teenagers at an absolute minimum, the senate offered increased pay to GIs.

This was designed to attract volunteers.

The new pay scale ranged from $75 a month for a buck private to $140 for a master sergeant.

This would be $25 more a month for a buck private.

The administration bill was amended to exempt fathers, veterans, scientific students and teachers. It limited the military services of draftees to 18 months.

Its main difference with the House-approved draft bill was in the drafting of teenagers. The House twice has voted to make the minimum age 20 years.

In debate of the Revercomb substitute, Sen. Kenneth S. Wherry, R., Neb., declared that the administration wants the draft extended because it is afraid of Russia.

Congressmen Ask Truman to Sign Hotel Fire Kills Case Labor Bill 57; Many Injured

WASHINGTON, June 5. (U.P.) — Rep. Lyle H. Boren, D., Okla., announced today that he secured 115 congressional signatures in less than half an hour to a petition urging President Truman to sign the Case Bill into law.

Republican Follows Stettinus on Security Council

WASHINGTON, June 5. (U.P.) — Sen. Warren R. Austin, R., Vt., was named by President Truman today to succeed E. R. Stettinus Jr. as American representative of the United Nations Security Council.

The appointment will not become effective until next Jan. 3, when Austin's senate term expires.

Austin is expected to resign shortly from the senate, according to the white house, and serve in an advisory capacity until his appointment can become legal next year.

Meantime, Herschel Johnson, deputy American representative, will be the official representative of this nation.

CHICAGO, June 5. — Flames streaked through the 23-story LaSalle Hotel in Chicago's loop early today, killing at least 57 persons in the worst hotel fire in the city's history.

Forty-two bodies were counted at an emergency morgue and first aid stations set up in the city hall nearby. Two died at St. Luke's Hospital; five were dead at Hennrotin Hospital; two were dead at Passavant Hospital; and four bodies were at O'Regan's Funeral Parlor.

Five hours after the fire broke out, police patrol wagons began removing all bodies to the county morgue for identification. The bodies arrived faster than the morgue attendants could handle them, and the line of patrol wagons carrying the tragedy's victims at one time was nearly a block long in the street outside the morgue.

At least 200 were injured and overcome by smoke. Among them were 30 firemen.

REMAINED AT POST.

CHICAGO, June 5. — A 16-year-old boy awaited his mother at home early today — unaware that she had perished in the Chicago LaSalle Hotel fire because she would not leave her telephone switchboard. The woman is Mrs. Julia Barry, 44, chief switchboard operator at the hotel.

Jones Says British Loan Means Pueblo, Stamford, Ibox Lone Star Outright Alliance Staffs Rewarded

WASHINGTON, June 5. — Jesse Jones put his weight behind House opposition to the $3,750,000,000 British loan today, blasting the credit as an "irreparable mistake" and a step "toward financial ruin" for the United States.

Primed for a "sizzling battle" when the measure reaches the floor, its foes had their determination boosted by the way the former secretary of commerce sailed into the proposed legislation.

Jones notified the House Banking Committee he considers the credit equivalent to "an alliance with Britain." He said that, after rescuing the British empire in two wars, the United States again is being called on "to save the empire."

Rep. Buffett (R-Neb.), a leader of the opposition, said "I agree with Jones one hundred percent." He conceded the banking committee will approve the bill, but forecast the "sizzling" floor battle.

On the other hand, banking Chairman Spence (D-Ky) said "I believe the proponents of the loan have made out the best case."

Spence said the committee will close its hearings Thursday, with a vote possible there Friday; only six of the 27 members thus far have indicated they will cast opposition votes. However, several have declined to say how they will stand.

The loan already has received Senate approval, 46 to 344.

City to Buy 20,000 Garbage Cans in Fight on Fly

DALLAS, June 5. — The City of Dallas has started negotiations to buy 20,000 war surplus garbage cans in a war against the common house fly, suspected carrier of polio.

On instruction of City Manager Smitham, Dr. J. W. Bass, city health director, asked the United Public Health Service to obtain the cans from the War Assets Corporation, Fort Worth. The health director said he was informed that 10,000 if not all of the cans probably could be obtained immediately.

The city then will require every home owner to have an adequately covered garbage can. At least 20,000 cans were needed. A survey of dealers revealed a scant supply.

Bass said it was uncertain whether terms of the purchase would permit the city to resell the cans to householders. Whatever the case, the cans would be sold or rented to householders at a price to cover cost to the city.

Twenty employees of Lone Star Gas company at Pueblo, Ibox and Stamford were awarded badges for "long and faithful service" at a meeting Tuesday afternoon in Pueblo at which Lone Star's pension plan benefits were outlined. The badges were gold for service in excess of 15 years, silver for 10 to 15 years, and the five-year awards were blue enamel.

The pension plan became available June 1 for 3,000 Lone Star employees in 300 Texas and Oklahoma towns who have served more than six months. Benefits cover time employees who were in military service and include retirement income and insurance. Retirement age is 65.

Employees receiving badges for company service over 15 years became members of the Lone Star Gold club. They included Lattie M. Cawley, superintendent, 22; Clinton Jones, 16, and Joe R. Moore, 20 years; all of the Lone Star Pueblo gasoline plant. Pueblo pipe line employees: Benjamin G. Flowers, assistant district pipe line foreman, 20; Homer W. Brooks and Basil B. Hitt, 16, and Jim F. Howard, 15 years. Ibox compressor station: Dan R. Harris, superintendent, 22, and Vaughn B. Minyard, 20 years. J. C. Doos of Stamford, assistant district pipe line foreman, received a gold badge representing 19 years of service.

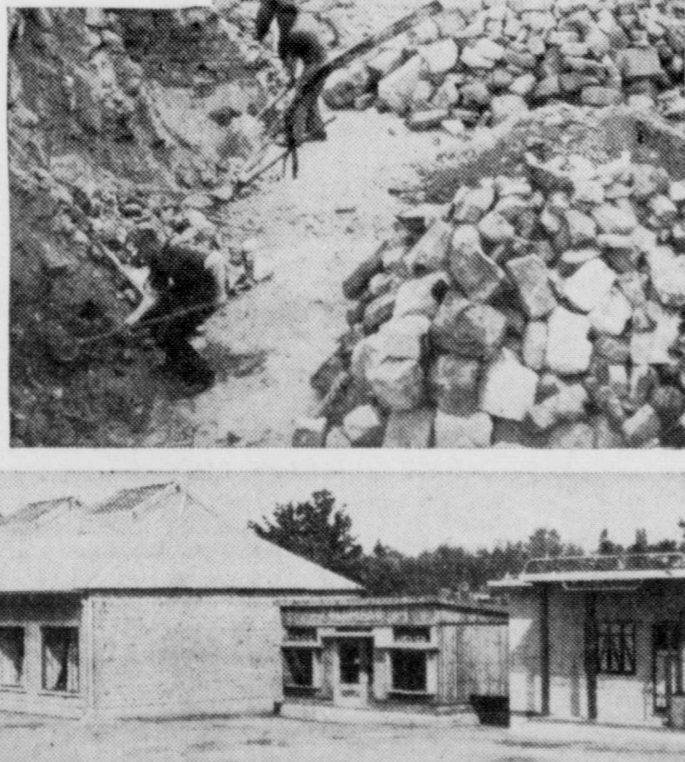

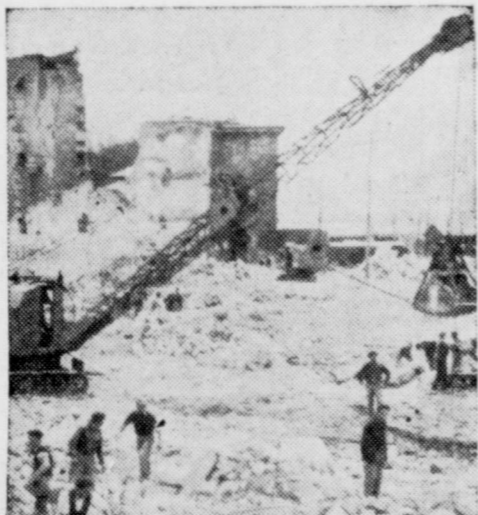

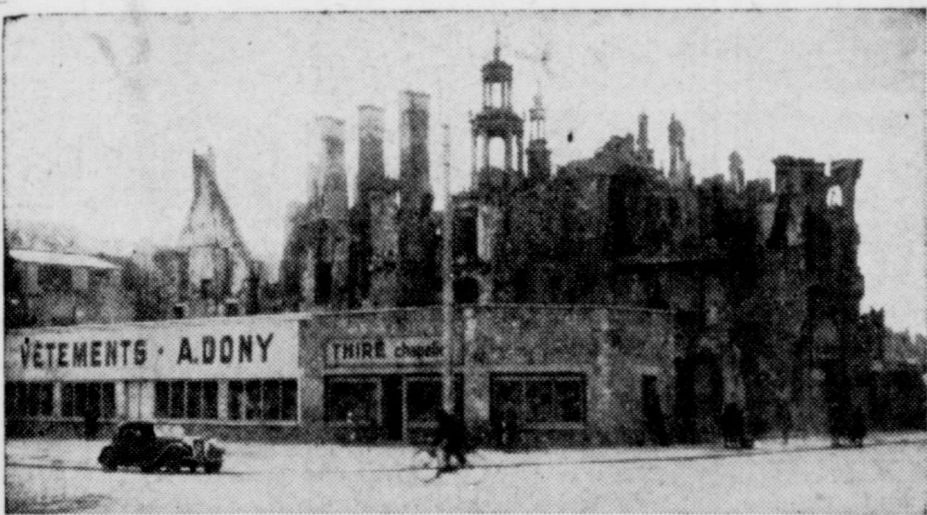

Pueblo gasoline plant employees receiving badges for five or more years of service were Clarence Dell, assistant superintendent, 9; Paul W. Harper, 8, and Alton Burton, 7 years. Pueblo pipe line employees: Eddie L. Smith, 9; Roy LaQuey, assistant district pipe line foreman, 8; Rome Thrailkill, 6, and Lavoise Hale and James T. Matthews, 5 years. Ibox compressor station: Reburn E. Jasey, 9, and Willie N. Jenkins, 6 years. There were no employees in the 10 to 15 year group.

The pension plan was outlined by Elmer F. Schmidt, Lone Star vice-president in charge of transmission properties; W. G. Wiegel, personnel director, and representatives of Southwestern Life Insurance company, carrier of the pension plan. Badges were presented by Julian L. Foster, general superintendent and chief engineer. Others from the Dallas headquarters office attending the meeting were L. T. Potter, assistant general superintendent; A. W. Breeland, safety supervisor; R. Vanderook, superintendent and Luther Tolbert, assistant pipe line department superintendent.

A similar meeting for Cisco employees of Lone Star's distribution division was held in Abilene the night of May 30.

SEMINARY PRESIDENT.

AUSTIN, June 5. — Dr. David L. Stitt, native of Fort Worth, was inducted Tuesday as president of Presbyterian Theological Seminary here. He succeeds the late Dr. T. W. Currie of Dallas.

SHATTERED NORMANDY TRIES TO RISE ANEW—The ravages of war still show strong on the face of Normandy. Scene of fierce battles between German and American troops during the days immediately following the invasion of France, the cities of St. Lo and Caen were among the hardest hit. Reconstruction will take many years of hard labor, work complicated by lack of sufficient manpower, building materials, and by the presence of hundreds of still unexploded land mines which daily kill workers who are attempting to clear them, farmers who run across them in their fields, and children who come upon them accidentally in their play. Despite this, Caen boasts two new stores, upper left, which have been built from the brick and rubble gathered in the streets of the city. A more common sight in Caen, by far, are such views as the church and homes in the background. Giant cranes, upper left, try to clear the wreckage of demolished building in the St. Jean district of Caen. It will take years to rebuild this district alone. Little more than foundations remain of the once busy industrial center of St. Lo, lower left. However, some signs of reconstruction of St. Lo can be seen in the new buildings, lower right, the largest of which has been built from brick while the smaller two have been constructed of scarce lumber.

VITAL ECONOMY.

Hearing that it would not be necessary for anybody to pay any federal taxes for a period of 12 months would have been good news to a lot of people any year for two decades before World War II. It would have occupied acres of front-page space in metropolitan papers, utilized hours of radio time and consumed gallons of red ink. It might have started a buying boom.

The money people used to put out in federal taxes was staggering (then) although the amount seems small in contrast to what they have been paying lately and probably will keep paying for several years.

Just the same, pre-war taxes were big money and, even now, would be worth saving.

That's exactly the point I want to make in this department today: IT CAN BE SAVED.

Over, Twice Enough.

Civilian employees of the United States government today number approximately 2,800,000 when 1,250,000 would be plenty. Even this low figure is about twice what we had six months after World War I. In short, government has 1,550,000 unnecessary hirings now — more people than live in The Bronx, in Los Angeles or in St. Louis plus all of its suburbs. It is humiliating to think about.

All of this enormous host of people are eating out of the public breadbasket. They are not to be thought about as if they had private wealth and had retired to pursue some impractical hobby. Such people as that do, at least, distribute wealth previously put away. The people I am talking about are deadweight on the rest of us. They subsist on federal tax revenue.

Five Million Grand.

Since their average annual income is about $2,400 each, they are costing the taxpayers of the United States every year the staggering sum of $3,720,000,000 in salaries alone. Everybody who hires salaried people knows well that salaries are not all the expense they incur. They all have to be provided more or less space, lighted, heated and equipped.

Add to these items such matters as traveling expenses, telephone calls and incidentals and the grand annual expense, as a result of having these people employed, will swell to at least five billion dollars. That's more than total federal tax collections in any pre-war year. If such people could be lifted off the public's neck, the money could be saved and the public would surely feel the relief.

Plus Social Gains.

Such shortening of payrolls would be completely justified by savings alone but there are plenty of other benefits. (1) It would help to balance the federal budget, and if it is not balanced the country will eventually go broke. (2) It would help curb the trend toward bureaucracy, toward centralization of power and toward government by whim instead of deliberate government by law.

(3) Not the least of blessings to follow laying off these people would be to release more than one and a half million persons for productive work, letting them create something instead of living off the efforts of others. (4) Finally, it would increase the hope of saving for future generations the finest civilization the world has ever known. I submit unto you it ought to be done.

... when your great grandfather boasted that he bought bananas at a dime a dozen and his farm from the State with only one deed in the chain of title. Today, that same title may have hundreds of transactions in the chain, and as it lengthens defects multiply and enlarge. The abstract is the only means yet devised that attempts to reveal these defects and places them in position for correction. That's why more and more people are demanding an abstract when they buy real estate.

of an old adage came to my mind: "Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterward build thine house." The intelligent voter will consider more about what the candidate will be required to do as an official than what he or she says in order to win votes. Worthiness for office and fitness can be determined more largely by the record of past years of service than by any promise or pledge made during a campaign.

Education.
There are many serious problems before our American democracy. The problems of education are of particular importance, and should be of vital concern to every citizen and every home. I heartily favor Senate Bill 181, which provides for Federal Aid to schools, with such funds under state control.

The Veteran.
To those boys who served in our armed forces we owe a debt of gratitude we cannot repay, but we can meet their problems fairly and justly, endeavoring to compensate them for the time lost by their years in military service. I favor legislation to strengthen the GI Bill of Rights to give more efficient and greater assistance in providing homes and in making up lost educational opportunities. More flexible insurance benefits should be provided. Medical care should be extended and greatly improved.

Agriculture.
Issues of far reaching importance and concern to the farmer and stockman are pressing hard for solution. I am familiar with the problems which confront these industries, having lived for over twenty years on a West Texas farm. I recognize the need for better farm to market roads and the need for the expansion of the rural electrification program.

I shall insist on Federal Aid to assist the farmer and rancher in the eradication of poison weeds which have been so destructive to livestock, and for the eradication of certain weeds which threaten to possess our farm lands in many sections of the district.

Old Age Pensions.
Experience is a good teacher. I say with no hesitancy that no candidate in this race for Congress has had more experience with old age groups than have I. I am serving my fourth year as a member of the board of directors of a home for the aged. Out of these years of service has come the conviction that we should stop thinking of an old age pension as a dole which we grant to the needy. I believe in an old age pension as a matter of right—as something we earn in our productive years by our contributions to the upbuilding of the community. I shall do my best to see that just principles are embodied in our pension laws. We have had far too much political hypocrisy in connection with this issue in recent years.

Labor and Industry.
Strikes and labor disputes are today the most disturbing issues in our national life. America stands on the brink of economic disaster. Once we thought it could not happen here. Regardless of the justice or injustice of individual strikes, when the welfare of our nation itself is threatened, we must call a halt. When collective bargaining fails in such cases, I favor compulsory arbitration by a government agency responsible to the people. Though we may disagree as to the remedy for these ills, we are all agreed on our aspirations for our country. All of us aspire to establish social and economic justice and to maintain equality of opportunity. Stabilization of the relationship between labor and industry must be established and maintained. American institutions, traditions and ideals depend upon this.

In 1940 I received an appointment from the U. S. Department of Commerce as assistant supervisor of the 17th district for the Bureau of Census. I traveled over ten thousand miles over the district in this capacity. It was truly a fact-finding job. During the business census I came to know the problems which confront the business man both large and small, as well as the problem of the farm and stockman. The growth and welfare of our district must be aided and encouraged by a courageous voice in Congress. I propose to work with our business leaders in the removal of discriminations against the Southwest, and with our public officials and other groups who seek advice and assistance from Federal agencies. My compelling desire is to represent and serve all of the people of the 17th Congressional District in every attempt in making our district a better place in which to live.

JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH

Emblematic of peace in a peace loving nation, and quietly reminding that dairying is America's greatest industry, the poster pictured above has been chosen as the symbol of June DAIRY MONTH for 1946. It's a familiar scene, as American as the Stars and Stripes. A herd of cows, peacefully grazing over green fields, cows that never heard the roar of hostile guns, that never saw the ravages of war. Such a scene, somehow, symbolizes the American love of peace, home, and good eating.
