Truman's Final Army-Navy Unification Plan Submitted to Congress

Chairman Homecoming Committee Urges More Speed

"This week marks the beginning of activities for the first annual Cisco Homecoming celebration," says Dr. C. E. Paul, committee chairman.

"The success of the Homecoming, which is being sponsored jointly by the Lions and Junior chamber of commerce, depends very largely upon the cooperation of our citizenship.

"To finance the Homecoming, attractive booster buttons will go on sale this week at $1 each. Purchasers are urged to wear the buttons from now until the Homecoming — August 11, 12 and 13. "Another important factor necessary to the success of the celebration," the chairman continued, "is furnishing names and addresses of former Ciscoans for our mailing list. The committee is sending a series of letters to all persons whose names are made available, and it is the committee's desire to slight no one. Please file this data with the chamber of commerce, by telephone or otherwise, immediately."

Letters have already been mailed to 286 former Cisco people. Of the total number mailed, the Humble Oil company furnished more than 200.

Most of the churches of Cisco are preparing lists of former residents, it is stated.

3,518 Miles in 11 Hours, 8 Minutes is 'Going to Town'

LONDON, June 15. — A new commercial air speed record for the Atlantic was claimed today by Pan American World Airways as the Clipper Bermuda landed at London airport 11 hours and 8 minutes after leaving New York. A strong tail wind helped.

The Lockheed Constellation, with 39 passengers, averaged 316 miles an hour for the 3,518-mile crossing.

Ducks which feed on the surface leap into the air and get under way by wing power. Divers, however, patter along on the surface of the water for some distance before they can launch themselves.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, June 15. — President Truman tonight resolved the four basic army-navy differences on unification of the armed forces and submitted his final recommendation to congress.

His plan called for a single department of national defense embracing the army, navy and air force as coordinate services.

Mr. Truman asked congress who would become a member of the President's cabinet. Under him would be three secretaries — one each for the navy, army and air force. The three men would be excluded from the cabinet.

His plan calls for --

1. Keeping the Marine Corps within the Navy.
2. A Council of National Defense "to integrate our foreign and military policies."
3. A national defense "to establish, and keep up-to-date, policies and programs for the maximum use of the nation's resources in support of our national security."
4. Joint chiefs of staff to make strategic plans for all American armed forces.

The joint chiefs of staff plan eliminated a proposal made by Mr. Truman last December for a single chief of staff. Mr. Truman explained that the war department wanted the single chief of staff, but the Navy did not, and the war department yielded on the point.

Therefore, Mr. Truman said, the joint chiefs of staff would become "the highest source of military advice."

Mr. Truman submitted the unification plan in identical letters to the chairmen of the Senate and House Military and Naval Affairs Committees.

Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson and Secretary of Navy James V. Forrestal, in a letter to Mr. Truman, May 1, listed eight points of agreement on the unification issue.

Jackson May Quit Army Recruiting High Court and Costs Are High, Run for Governor But Necessary

WASHINGTON, June 15. — Robert Jackson may leave Supreme Court and run for governor of New York, seasoned politicians think.

Jim Farley conferred with Jackson several months ago on governorship race, but there'd been no previous indication Jackson was interested. Politicians figure it this way:

Now that he's sure he can't be chief justice, Jackson may try for presidency, via Albany. He wanted to be it in 1940 and Farley blocked it. Now Farley wants candidate who won't play too close to Truman.

Truman's disclosure that Jackson befitted him in making public his complaints against Black adds to impression here Jackson intends to leave Washington.

When Mr. Vinson takes over as chief justice, he'll find bitterness of Jackson-Black feud is matched by differences between Justices Murphy and Frankfurter; Murphy and Jackson; Frankfurter and Black.

Black bass will follow softshelled turtles in search of food in the form of crayfish and other creatures which the turtles scare.

WASHINGTON, June 15. — The army's recruiting drive costs, commercially, $4.38 per recruit. That's cost of newspaper and magazine ads, radio time, bill-boards, car cards and movie trailers. Most of newspaper space is donated by commercial firms.

Promotion costs total $3,160,461 (September to May 1). That includes $534,000 allocated to former service commands for local drives, does not include salaries of Army men working on recruiting, rent of recruiting offices.

Enlistments to June - total 784,726 in these categories: one year - 163,128; eighteen months - 201,468; two years - 10,074; three years - 101,056.

EASTERN STAR MEETING.

Regular meeting of Cisco Eastern Star chapter was held Tuesday night at Masonic hall. Newly installed officers were, in their places and Mrs. Nona Dean, worthy matron, presided. Mary E. Brown, secretary, who was absent from the city when other officers were installed, was installed by the group. Thirty members were present.

Hike Ups Seamen Monthly Average to About $230

WASHINGTON, June 15. (UP)—CIO Maritime workers began responding to back-to-work orders today as the nation looked forward to its first promise of industrial peace since the end of the war.

Settlement of the maritime dispute last night came too late to avert walkouts in most of the nation's ports. But the seamen and waterfront workers slowly returned to their jobs today after voting to ratify the agreements at local meetings.

Three main facts emerged Saturday from the settlement of the most complex and confusing big labor dispute in recent years.

1. A powerful new labor alliance, the Committee for Maritime Unity (CMU), composed of seven unions claiming 214,000 members, had sailed successfully through its first test under the joint leadership of Bridges and Curran.

2. By threatening a disastrous strike it had won from the government and the private ship operators large wage increases and other concessions.

3. Not only that, but it served notice it will "come again" in September. Bridges agreed to the settlement only as far as Sept. 30, and said his West Coast longshoremen will seek still higher pay at that time. CIO radio operators and engineers also have contracts expiring Sept. 30.

The newly won CMU agreements give seamen: A wage increase of $17.50 a month, retroactive to April 1, and a dollar an hour overtime pay for Sunday work at sea and for Saturday and Sunday work in port effective Saturday.

The Labor Department estimated that all told a seaman's monthly pay check will rise about $50. Frank J. Taylor, chairman of the negotiating committee for 39 Eastern shipping companies, estimated that this was a 30 per cent increase on the average.

The $50 additional will bring the seamen's average monthly earnings to around $230, which is roughly up to his wartime earnings.

NINETEENTH POLIO CASE.

FT. WORTH, June 15. — Tarrant county's 19th polio case was recorded here with the diagnosis of Willie Edwin Jones, Negro, 15-month-old son of Curtis Jones, Negro, of 1017 Booker Washington, as a positive victim at City-County hospital.

Jester Swats Aaup Group Attacking Texas University

Special to Cisco Press.

WAXAHACHIE, June 15. Charges of "political trickery and timing" have been leveled against the American Association of University Professors by Beauford Jester, candidate for governor of Texas, following the Association's recent censure of the University of Texas.

"As a Texan, proud of the University of Texas and its splendid achievements, I resent the unwarranted censure placed on our great University by the American Association of University Professors, purely for political purposes," Jester stated.

"While many fine, patriotic Texas educators hold membership in this organization, yet it should be remembered that it was organized in the north and its widespread national membership includes plenty of Communist sympathizers, Pinks and Fellow Travelers.

"The censure of the University by this group, adroitly timed, so as to give help to a candidate who has thrust the University into politics to forward his own personal aims and ambitions, smacks of politics pure and simple. "I believe that the great majority of fine Texas educators will see through this political trick and timing.

"Why did the Association of University Professors carefully withhold their censure until such time as the University had been made a campaign issue?"

Porter Sees Dark Days Ahead if OPA Controls Removed

WASHINGTON, June 15. (UP)—The Administration's two top stabilization chiefs today made a last-ditch appeal for effective price controls as congress studied legislation for a continued but greatly weakened OPA.

Price Administrator Paul Porter warned Americans that the estimated 3 1/2 per cent price rise since V-J Day would be "dwarfed to insignificance" by the inflationary pressure which the crippling or removal of price controls would unleash at the end of this month.

In a statement, he assailed those who "are willing to risk our whole economic future to avoid the temporary restraints and irritations of effective price control."

Economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles said in a radio address that price stability is needed now more than ever "to keep our excellent start on full production from going into a tailspin."

Water Polo Tues-Ciscoan Expects day at 7 P. M., to Harvest Huge Fire Station Crop of Peaches

Cisco fire department, says Jay Garrett, will stage a Water Polo contest Tuesday night, 7 o'clock, in front of the fire station on Sixth street.

A wire 100 feet long, with a pulley-mounted five-gallon can attached, will be stretched in front of the fire station. The goal lines will be the posts at each end of the wire.

Contestants equipped with heavy fire hose and stationed at each end of the wire will play 80-pound streams of water against the bucket in an endeavor to drive it against the respective goal posts.

Twenty-two firemen will take part in the contest from time to time. Referee has not been chosen.

Mr. Garrett says a cordial invitation is extended to the public—both as participants and as spectators.

Those of the public wishing to participate should contact Fire Chief H. O. Anderson, immediately.

TEXAS COTTON BROKERS BUY $7 MILLION RANCH

HOUSTON, June 15. — Anderson, Clayton & Company, Houston cotton brokers, have purchased the 56,000-acre ranch holdings of Russel Griffin in Fresno county in California for $7,000,000. W. Leland Anderson, vice president-secretary of the firm, said today. The purchase price includes all crops of the ranch.

Anderson said the ranch is now in full production of wheat, cotton, barley, flax and melons. About 25,000 acres of the holdings are owned and the balance is under lease, he added.

HEROES ARE MADE.

Heroism comes with every holocaust. In the recent Chicago hotel fire, a telephone operator stayed at her switchboard warning guests until smoke engulfed her and she died of asphyxiation.

There were other heroic deeds, one that of a seeing-eye dog, which led her blind mistress from the 11th floor down a fire escape to safety. It seems almost impossible that the blind woman could have escaped when nearly sixty people with sight lost their lives.

In any emergency, human and animal-nature is shown up in its stark attributes. Often it touches the heights of heaven.

PAJAMAS AND HATS.

The Men's Apparel club of New York state announces that men's silk pajamas are coming back at $50 a pair. It looks like a return to the silly Twenties when fabulous-priced silk shirts were done by the quick-rich of those mad money days.

OPEN FORUM.

Is Rainey Radical? A. B. O'Flaherty, Editor Cisco Daily Press.

Friend A. B.: I noticed a front page headline in your paper yesterday like this:

"Radical Students at U. of Texas, Line Up With Rainey." Then a lengthy news item from Austin followed which states that 60 per cent of the eligible voters among the students and 61 per cent of the veterans there were for Rainey.

The article then said Beauford Jester had 11 per cent, Jerry Sadler had 8 per cent, Grover Sellers 3 per cent, John Lee Smith had 2 per cent, and the other nine candidates polled less than one per cent of the student voters.

I saw nothing in the article about "radicals." So I do not know where you got it that the "radical students are the ones who lined up with Rainey."

I do not know anything about running a newspaper, and am not even suggesting how you should run the Daily Press.

But the term "radical" in politics is resented by some people. Some take it as a compliment. George Washington and his co-patriots in the great American Revolution were all called "Radicals and Rebels" by the English.

I think the 12,500 students at the U. of T. now are about a cross-section of the people of the great state of Texas. I have a son there doing post-graduate work. I do not know whether he is for Rainey or not. He has a right to be if he wants to. I shall not even suggest whom he shall vote for. He was at the University a year or two while Dr. Rainey was its president, and he knows more about Rainey than I do.

According to your news item

Dr. Rainey got 60 per cent on the poll, and the other fourteen candidates, (or 13, whichever it is), got the other 40 per cent, or less than 3 per cent each. That would make Dr. Rainey's vote twenty times the average vote of the others.

I had not made up my mind before I read your article which candidate I would vote for; but your article showing that he has twenty times as many sons and daughters of a cross section of Texas, behind him in his race for governor, as the average of the other fourteen candidates, your article helps me make up my mind.

I am a Democrat, and I am a strong believer of a majority rule, especially when the majority is so big.

At any rate, I would not go so far as to intimate that such a majority are "Radicals." Yours truly,

EUGENE LANKFORD.
