Gas Explosion Killed 6, Hurt 25, Wrecked Town

Am. Legion Com-Sandefer, Color-ful Candidate, a Welcome Visitor

AUSTIN, July 18. — A political-conscious capital city crowd Wednesday night heard John Lee Smith state that he was in the governor's race to the end, impassionately denounce labor radicalism and turn his oratorical fire on Homer F. Rainey.

Smith denounced what he said were rumors that he would withdraw, asserting that he had never deserted a fight he had started.

Rumors that Smith might withdraw have been circulated in Dallas political circles for the last few days and have been heard elsewhere in the state. A similar rumor about Grover Sellers was started three weeks ago. Both reports are believed to have originated in the headquarters of another candidate.

There was, however, an offer to withdraw in Smith's Wednesday night challenge to Rainey. He would quit the race if Rainey could disprove any charge he has made, was Smith's proposition.

Smith paralleled his audience talk with a thirty-minute radio-broadcast over two networks in which he reached new oratorical heights in assailing the record of Dr. Rainey as president of the University of Texas and flailing both radical labor and capitalism that would deny "the sacrifices of those who died in the war for our liberty."

The closed shop, CIO, Communism and political cowards were special targets of his speech.

Smith's philippic against Dr. Rainey's record was delivered from the same stand in Woodridge Park from which Rainey ten days ago defended his actions, his fight with the university regents, and his stand on academic freedom.

From the same stand, Smith said, Rainey lamented that the university had been made an issue and implied his opponents had done so.

Then Smith quoted a New York Times story of March 5, 1945, reporting Rainey as saying his dismissal "would be a political issue of major importance in the Lone Star state's next campaign and of national significance in our preservation of democratic rights."

"Explain this New York speech of yours," Smith challenged Rainey.

With added vigor he then reiterated his charges concerning the book, "U. S. A.," and his contention that Rainey had approved it. He added a new contention in averting Rainey not only did not remove the book from a required reading list but failed to act on an objection that had been made to him about it in 1941 by J. E. McClain, Austin district commander of the American Legion.

Gib Sandefer, candidate for congress from the 17th congressional district, was in Cisco yesterday, greeting old friends and making new ones. He said he was pleased with the encouragement given him by the voters of Eastland county in this his initial venture into the political field.

GIB SANDEFER.

Known throughout the world as "That Fellowship Man from Texas," Sandefer says he is truly enjoying "Fellowshipping" with the people of the 17th district, adding that if the men and women of the district want him to represent them in the nation's congress, it will be his one desire to serve their every interest to the utmost of his ability.

While calling at the Daily Press office, Sandefer pointed out that the 17th district is the only home he has ever known. He was born 40 years ago in Stephenville, while his late father Dr. Jefferson Davis Sandefer was president of John Tarleton College. Gib was virtually reared on the sprawling campus of Hardin-Simmons university, the school his father served as president for 31 years.

Since his graduation from Hardin-Simmons, Sandefer has served as manager of the school's colorful and world-traveled Cowboy Band; as business manager of Cowboy Athletics; owned and operated a ranch in Nolan county; served in various overseas theaters with the American Red Cross during World War II and in recent months has toured the nation as a lecturer.

Sandefer says his platform is in keeping with his life-long philosophy of "fair play" and "live-and-let-live," and says if elected to congress his every act will be in the interest of his fellowman and the varied interests of the 12 counties of the 17th district.

Churchill Fights the Proposed Rationing of Bread

LONDON, July 18. (U.P.)—Opposition Leader Winston Churchill tonight formally demanded in the house of commons that the government abandon its proposal to ration bread on grounds that such a step, not taken in war, was unnecessary in peace.

Churchill gave the opposition's full support to the spreading revolt both by the public and by the bakers against the bread rationing plan scheduled to go into effect Sunday.

Nothing is Wrong With South That Can't Be Cured

WASHINGTON, July 18. (U.P.)—Van A. Bittner, director of the CIO southern organizing drive, said today the CIO thought it could do much to bring the south into economic balance with the rest of the nation.

"There is nothing wrong with the south that cannot be cured if it is put in balance economically with the rest of the nation," Bittner said.

GARSSON SUE.

NEW YORK, July 18. (U.P.)—Murray W. Garsson, prominent figure in the Washington Senate investigation, has been named defendant in a suit for $43,000, charging misrepresentation, it was disclosed today. JURY DISAGREED.

ALBANY, Tex., July 18. — After being out since 8:53 yesterday afternoon the jury deliberating on the fate of W. J. Caskey at noon today told the court it was unable to agree. Caskey, former Abilene policeman, was on trial for murder in connection with the killing of Conley Ellis, at Abilene, in October, 1945.

CIO CHARGES LIBEL.

FORT WORTH, July 18. (U.P.) — The CIO today filed a $2,000,000 libel suit against the Fort Worth Shopper, a weekly "throwaway" shoppers guide, and the Jefferson Democratic league. The suit alleged that statements contained in an advertisement appearing on July 14 were libelous.

Hog Prices Drop Sharply Today at 3 Stockyards

CHICAGO, July 18. (U.P.)—Hog prices broke sharply today at three midwestern stockyards and farmers rushed livestock to market for sale before prices drop further.

Hogs opened at Chicago $1 to $2 lower than yesterday. Today's top price for choice hogs was $20, and the bulk of 250-pound hogs sold for $19.75 to $20.

At Indianapolis, good and choice hogs sold at a top of $19.50 less than yesterday's peak. At East St. Louis, prices were $1 to $2.50 lower with an early top of $20.

The hog market yesterday was the highest it had been since 1919.

First break in the market came last yesterday, when prices on bulk steers and hogs dropped for the first time since the OPA expired. A total of 77,900 head of cattle, 126,400 hogs and 57,700 sheep were shipped into the 12 principal western yards.

Farmers apparently believed the prices would drop further, and hastened to market their animals.

A department of agriculture agent said the receipts were "very unusual" for a Thursday, which usually is one of the lighter days in the week. Hog receipts were 28,600 greater than yesterday, one of the peak market days.

HUNGER IN AUSTRIA—Food is where you find it in Vienna these days. The man in this UNRRA photo spent his "lunch" hour searching a refuse heap. One can be found was not quite empty, so he gingerly samples the little food left.

Absentee Balloting About as Usual, Says Love

Virgil Love, county clerk, stated this afternoon that he had sent out about 150 absentee ballots on request and that to date probably 75 had been voted and returned. "This is about as usual," Mr. Love said.

Voters who expect to be away from their polling places on July 27 are reminded that absentee ballots must be postmarked before July 25 in order to be counted.

Lions Name Committees for Homecoming Barbecue

Visitors at yesterday's Lions luncheon were Clyde Karkalits, Eastland; Carl Lamb, Chillicothe, and L. A. Hooker, Cisco's new jeweler. President C. E. Paul presided.

The meeting was of a business nature and was largely devoted to the August Homecoming celebration. The club is sponsoring the free barbecue to be held August 13, the closing day of what is hoped will become an annual affair.

The barbecue, said Dr. C. M. Barnes, in charge of publicity, will be free to all visitors, those with Booster buttons and contributors to the barbecue fund. Three committees were appointed, as follows: Barbecue Arrangements — Jay Garrett, Harvey Thurman and Joe Coulter.

Window Decorations — A. R. Westfall, Simon Coplin and N. D. Gallagher.

Contributions — Charles Clark and Chief Brown.

The department for jewelry and watch repairing is said to be the latest and most complete in the way of equipment that can be found between Ft. Worth and El Paso.

The formal opening will be held Saturday and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to call and inspect the new business.

The family of the new residents consists of Mr. and Mrs. Hooker and three daughters, two of school age. They have purchased and now occupy the Mrs. Vida Stephens place at 1001 west Tenth street.

500 Visitors Assured for August 11, 12, 13 Event

The general committee for the August Homecoming celebration held a meeting last night in the home of Dr. C. E. Paul. Present were N. D. Gallagher, Mrs. Sutton Crofts, Dr. C. M. Barnes, F. D. Wright, Charles Burke, Charles S. Sandler and James Moore.

Chairman Paul reported that a careful canvass of the situation had assured him that not less than 500 out-of-town visitors will be in Cisco during the August 11, 12 and 13 celebration. He said letters are still going out daily and that the 500 estimate would be increased considerably.

Programs of the three-day event are now in the hands of the printers and these will be mailed out two weeks before August 11. Wide distribution of the programs will be made locally.

It was also announced that the Cisco American Legion has contracted for a ten-piece orchestra of good reputation to play for the dances to be held at Cisco Country club the nights of August 12 and 13.

EDUCATION IN DANGER.

Three thousand teachers and school administrators in a national meeting at Buffalo reveal that public education in the United States is in a grave condition. The conference, sponsored by the National Education Association, brings to light a serious teacher shortage due to inadequate and irregular wage standards.

The average teacher salary for the country is $35 a week, and many teachers receive less than $20. A half million instructors have left the classrooms for better pay elsewhere. Passage of the $250,000,000 Federal Aid Bill is necessary to raise state pay levels to figures which will bring back well-trained persons.

In the meantime 110,000, or one in ten of the teachers now employed, work under emergency licenses, which indicates that their qualifications are below the lowest of their state. Men teachers are so few that millions of children pass from kindergarten through high school entirely under female instructors.

Conference delegates said that they were not concerned about possible government interference through federal aid. They pointed to the successful administration of the nation's land grant colleges as a satisfactory pattern for subsidized public school education.

The public school problem touches every community and nearly every family. The teachers, by publicizing the critical situation, perform a duty not only for themselves but for the country.

INCREASE IN IMPORTS.

Italian silk, perhaps as much as 700,000 yards monthly, will soon be imported and distributed in this country by an American corporation. Other items like silverware, linen, ceramics, shoes, leather and novelties will be imported from Belgium, England, Denmark, Mexico and South American countries. Payment will be in American dollars, which will enable the foreign industrialists to proceed with patented processes and license agreements with American manufacturers.

Shipping facilities are inadequate and slow at present, but a 30-day delivery schedule is anticipated. Once again American shops will have international wares, as trade between countries, so long stifled by war, comes to life again.

It Never Makes the Headlines—

... but the rather common occurrence of a purchaser buying real estate that the seller does not own is news that editors would like to headline if they were only in the abstract business and knew about it. It may be a serious matter for the buyer when he realizes that he purchased the property hurriedly and did not wait for an abstract. Among other things, the abstract reveals the record owner, the correct location and the title defects and liens, if any.

SOCIAL and CLUBS

JOHNSON-LOCKHART WEDDING WEDNESDAY.

Miss Norma Johnson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Joseph Lockhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lockhart of near Gatesville, were married Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock, following the prayer service at First Baptist church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur Johnson, father of the bride, before an altar decorated with greenery, baskets of white gladioli and fever few and lighted by wedding candelabra.

Pre-nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. Roy Camfield with "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" as the initial piano number; she played "I Love You Truly" as Bessie Mae Johnson and Kitty Lou Pippen entered to light the candles on the chancel rail and at the altar; and accompanied Miss Bonnie Jean Wilson who sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." The music changed to the bridal chorus from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered and Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as a recessional. Miss Johnson entered with her brother Bill Johnson who gave her in marriage. She wore a beautiful two-piece light blue linen street-length frock with white and brown accessories; and for her jewelry and something old she wore a ring belonging to the bridegroom's grandmother. She carried a single orchid, showered with white tube roses. Miss Betty Jo Jenkins of Bluffdale, was maid-of-honor and Miss Barbara Ann Kemp of Gatesville, cousin of the groom, was bride's maid; Mrs. W. F. Roark of Brownwood, was her sister's matron-of-honor. Virgil Lockhart of Gatesville, uncle of the bridegroom, served his nephew as best man.

The bride's attendants wore street-length dresses of pastel colors.

Following the wedding an informal reception was held for the wedding party in the home of the bride's parents on west Tenth street. Guests were welcomed by Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson who presented the guests to the bride couple and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lockhart and other members of the bridal party. Miss Dorothy Jean Anderson presided at the bride's guest book. The three-tier wedding cake which was placed at an end of the lace covered dining table was served by Miss Bonnie Jean Wilson and Mrs. Jay Richardson after the first slice had been cut by the bride and groom. Punch was ladeled by Misses Marjorie and Katherine Reynolds at the opposite table end.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lockhart, Guy Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson, of near Gatesville; Mrs. James Gee, Miss Joan Gee, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Faulkner, Miss Christine Seif of Dublin; Mrs. J. B. Winfield, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. S. A. McHorse, Mr. and Mrs. A. Biddick, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Roark, Brownwood; Richard Thompson, Copperas Cove; Bill Hoffman, Eastland; and a group of students from Howard Payne College, chaperoned by Miss Gladys Hicks, dean of women, as follows: Misses Catherine Beckham, Billie Leaman, Lorna Couch, Johnny Beth Jenkins and Messrs. Harold Dobbs, Henry L. Evans, Guy J. Roberts, Clark Hitt, Grover Pitts and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart are both students of Howard-Payne College and plan to reenter the college at the beginning of the fall term. Mr. Lockhart has just returned from overseas where he spent more than a year.

The bridal couple left for a short wedding trip after the reception and will spend the remainder of the summer at the ranch home of his father near Gatesville.

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.
